37 And so the carkasse of Iezabel was euen as doung vppon the earth in the feelde of Iezrahel, so that no man might say, This is Iezabel.

¶ The.x.Chapter.

6. Iehu causeth the seuentie sonnes of Achab to be slayne. 25. He killeth also all the priestes of Baal.

1 ACHab had threescore and ten sonnes in Samaria, and Iehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria vnto ẏ rulers of Iezrahel, to the elders, & to them that brought vp Achabs children, saying,

2 Nowe when this letter commeth to you (ye that haue with you your maisters sonnes, ye haue with you both charets and horses, a strong citie haue ye also, and harnesse,)

3 Looke whiche of your maisters sonnes is best and most meete, and set him on his fathers seate, and fight for your lordes house.

4 But they were exceedyngly afrayde, and saide, See, two kinges were not able to stand before him: how shal we then be able to stand?

5 And he that was gouernour of Achabs house, and he that ruled the citie, the elders also, and the tutours, sent to Iehu, saying, We are thy seruantes, and wyll doo al that thou shalt bidde vs, we wyll make no man kyng: therefore doo thou what seemeth good in thyne eyes.

6 Then he wrote another letter to them, saying, If ye be myne, and wyll hearken vnto my voyce, then take the heades of the men that are your maisters sonnes, and come to me to Iezrahel by to morowe this time: (and the kinges sonnes were threescore and ten persons, and they were with the great men of the citie, whiche brought them vp.)

7 And when the letter came to them, they tooke the kinges children, and slue them, euen threescore and ten persons, and layde their heades in baskettes, and sent them to him to Iezrahel.

8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They haue brought the heades of the kinges sonnes. And he sayde, Let them lay them on two heapes in the entring in of the gate, vntyll the morning.

9 And when it was day, he went out, and stood, and said to al the folke, Ye be righteous: beholde, I conspired against my maister, and slue him: But who slue all these?

10 Learne here, that there shall fall vnto the earth nothing of the woorde of the Lorde, * whiche he spake concernyng the house of Achab: for the Lorde hath brought to passe the thinges that he spake by the hand of his seruant Elias.

11 And so Iehu slue all that remayned of the house of Achab, in Iezrahel, and all that were great with him, and his kinsfolkes, and his priestes, so that he let nothing of him remayne.

12 And he arose, and departed, and came to Samaria: and when Iehu was in the way of the house where the shepheardes dyd sheare their sheepe, 13 He met with the brethren of Ahazia king of Juda, and said, What are ye? They answeared, The brethren of Ahazia are we, and goe downe to salute the children of the kyng and of the queene.

14 And he sayde, Take them aliue. Whom when they had taken aliue, they slue them at the well whiche was beside the house where the sheepe are shorne, euen two and fourtie men, neyther left he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, he mette with Jonadab the sonne of Rechab, comming agaynst him, and he blessed him, and sayde to hym, Is thyne hart ryght, as myne hart is true with thyne? And Jonadab answeared, Yea that it is. Then geue me thine hand. And when he had geuen him his hand, he tooke him vp to him into the charet, 16 And saide, Come with me, and see my zeale that I haue for the Lorde. And so they made him ryde in his charet.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slue al that remayned vnto Achab in Samaria, tyll he had destroyed him, accordyng to the saying of the Lorde whiche he spake to Elias.

18 * And Iehu gathered al the people together, & said vnto them, Achab serued Baal a little, but Iehu shal serue him more. *3.king.16. 32. a. Baal signifieth Astaroth, the idoll of the Sidonians. 1.Reg.16.

19 Nowe therefore, call vnto me all the prophetes of Baal, all suche as serue him, and all his priestes, and let none be lacking, for I haue a great sacrifice to doo to Baal, and therefore who so euer is misse, he shall not liue. But Iehu dyd it for a sutteltie, to the intent that he might destroy the seruauntes of Baal.

20 And Iehu sayde, * Proclayme an holy conuocation for Baal. And they proclaimed it. *Hebr. Sanctifye.

21 And Iehu sent vnto all Israel, and all the seruantes of Baal came, that there was not a man left behinde that came not: and they came into ẏ house of Baal, & the house of Baal was full frō the one end to another.

22 And he sayde vnto hym that was the keeper of the vestrie, Bryng forth garmentes mentes for all the seruantes of Baal. And he brought them out garmentes.

23 And when Iehu went with Ionadab the sonne of Rechab vnto the house of Baal, he sayd vnto the seruauntes of Baal, Searche, and looke that there be here with you none of the seruantes of the Lorde, but the seruantes of Baal onely.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifice and whole burnt offering, Iehu appointed fourescore men without, and sayde to them, If any of the men whom I haue brought vnder your handes escape, he that letteth hym goe, shall dye for him.

25 And as soone as he had made an ende of offering the whole burnt sacrifices, Iehu sayde to the men of warre, and to the captaynes, Goe in, and slay them, let none come out. And they smote them with the edge of the swoord, and the men of warre, and the captaynes, cast them out, and went to the citie of the temple of Baal, 26 And fet the images out of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they brake the image of Baal, and brake the house of Baal, & made a draught house of it, vnto this day.

28 And so Iehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 But from the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, whiche made Israel to sinne, Iehu departed not from them neyther from the golden calues that were in Bethel and in Dan.

30 And the Lorde sayd vnto Iehu, Because thou hast done ryght well in bringyng to passe the thing that is ryght in myne eyes, and hast done vnto the house of Achab according to all things that are in myne hart,

*4.Re.15.12 *therfore shal thy children, vnto the fourth generation, syt on the seate of Israel.

31 But Iehu cared not for this, to walke in the lawe of the Lord God of Israel, with al his hart, for he departed not from the sinnes of Ieroboam, whiche made Israel to sinne.

32 In those dayes the Lord began to cut Israel short, and Hazael smote them in all the coastes of Israel, 33 From Iordane eastward, euen al the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Rubenites, and them that were of Manasses, from Aroer (which is by the riuer Arnon) euen Gilead and Basan.

34 The rest of the words that concerne Iehu, and all that he dyd, and all his power, are they not written in ỹ booke of the Chronicles of the kinges of Israel?

35 And Iehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Ioachas his sonne raigned in his steede.

36 And the time that Iehu raigned vppon Israel in Samaria, is twentie and eyght yeeres.

¶ The.xi. Chapter.

1. Athalia putteth to death all the kinges sonnes, except Ioas the sonne of Ochosias. 15. Iehoiada causeth Athalia to be slayne. 17. Baal and his prieستes are destroyed.

1 AND *Athalia the mother of Ahazia, when she saw that her sonne was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the kinges seede. *2.Chro.22.10.

2 But Iosaba the daughter of kyng Ioram and sister of Ahazia, tooke Ioas the sonne of Ahazia, and stale him from among the kynges sonnes that were slayne, and his nurse with him in the bed chamber, and hid him from Athalia, that he was not slayne.

3 And he was with her hyd in the house of the lord sixe yeeres: and Athalia did raigne ouer the land.

4 *And the seuenth yeere Iehoiada sent and *2.Chr.23 fet the rulers ouer hundreds, with the captaynes, and them of the gard, & tooke them to him into the house of the Lord, and made a bond with them, & tooke an othe of them in the house of the Lorde, and shewed them the kinges sonne.

5 And he commaunded them, saying, This is it that ye must doo, One thirde part of you, whose duetie is to come in on the Sabboth day, shall keepe the watch of the kings house,

6 And another thirde part shall keepe the gate of Sur, and another third part shall keepe the gate which is behind them of the gard: and so shall ye keepe the watch of the house of Messah.

7 And two partes of you, that is, al that goe out on the Sabboth day, shall keepe the watche of the house of the Lorde about the kyng.

8 And ye shall compasse the king rounde about, and euery man shall haue his weapon in his hand: & who so euer commeth within the ranges, let him be slaine: and see that ye be with the king, as he goeth out and in.

9 And the captaynes ouer the hundreds dyd accordyng to all thinges that Iehoiada the priest commaunded: and they tooke euery man his men that were to come in on the Sabboth day, with them that shoulde goe out on the Sabboth, and came to Iehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captaines ouer hundreds, did the priest geue king Dauids speares and shieldes, that were in the temple.

11 And

11 And they of the garde stoode, and euerye man had his weapon in his hande, rounde about the kyng, from the right corner of the temple to the left, along by the aulter and the temple.

12 And he brought out the kings sonne, and put the crowne vpon hym, & delyuered him the a witnesse, and made hym kyng, and annoynted him, and they clapt theyr hands, and sayde, God saue the kyng.

13 And when Athalia heard the noyse of the running of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the Lorde.

14 b And when she looked, beholde, the king stoode by a pyller, as the manner was, and the singers, & the trumpetters by the king, and al the people of the lande reioyced, and blewe with trumpettes: and Athalia rent her clothes, and cryed, Treason, treason.

15 But Iehoiada the priest, commaunded the captaynes of the hundredes, that had the rule of the host, & said vnto them, Haue her foorth of the "ranges, and yf any folow her, kyl hym with the sworde. For the priest had sayde, She may not be slayne in the house of the Lorde.

16 And they layde handes on her, tyll she came into the way by the which the horses went into the kynges palace, and there was she slayne.

17 And Iehoiada made a bonde betweene the Lord, and the kyng, and the people, that they shoulde be the Lordes people, and also betweene the kyng and the people.

18 And al the people of the lande went into the house of Baal, and destroyed it, his aulters also, and his images brake they downe lustily, and slue Mathan the priest of Baal, before the aulters: and the priest set watche ouer the house of the Lorde, 19 And tooke the rulers ouer hundredes, the captaines, and them of the gard, and all the people of the land, and they brought the kyng from the house of the Lord, and came by the way of the gate of them of the garde, to the kings palace, and he sate him downe on the seate of the kynges.

20 And al the people of the lande reioyced, and the citie was in quiet, and they slue Athalia with the sworde, beside the kynges palace.

21 Seuen yeeres olde was Ioas when he began to raigne.

¶ The. xii. Chapter.

6. Ioas maketh prouision for the repayryng of the temple. 20. Ioas is killed by two of his seruantes.

1 AND Ioas began to raigne in the seuēth yeere of Iehu, fourtie yeeres raigned he in Hierusalem, & his mothers name was Zebiah, of Beer seba.

2 And he dyd that whiche was good in the sight of the Lorde, as long as a Iehoiada the priest enfourmed hym.

a. So long as rulers geue care to the true ministers of God, they prosper.

3 But the high places were not taken away: for the people offered, and burnt incense yet vpon the high places.

4 And Ioas sayd to the priestes, Al the syluer of the dedicate thynges that be brought to the house of the Lord, that is, the money of them that were numbred, the money that euery man is set at, and all the money that euery man with a willing hart geueth, and bringeth into the house of the Lorde:

5 Let the priestes take it to them, euery man of his acquayntaunce, to repayre the broken places of the house, whersoeuer any decay is founde.

6 And so it came to passe, that vnto the three and twentieth yere of king Ioas, the priests had mended nothyng that was decayed in the temple.

7 Then king Ioas called for Iehoiada the priest, and the other priestes, and said vnto them, Why repayre ye not the broken places of the temple? nowe therfore see that ye receiue no more money of your acquayntance, except ye deliuer it to repaire the temple withal.

8 And the priestes consented to receiue no more money of the people, except to repaire the decayed places of the temple.

9 But Iehoiada the priest tooke a chest, and bored a hole in the lyd of it, and set it beside the aulter, on the ryght syde, as euery man commeth into the temple of the Lorde, and the priestes that kept the vesselles, put therein al the money that was brought into the house of the Lorde.

10 And when they sawe there was muche money in the chest, the kings scribe and the high priest came vp, and tolde the money that was founde in the house of the Lorde, and put it into a bagge.

11 And they gaue the money sealed into the handes of them that executed the woorke, and that had the ouersyght of the house of the Lorde: and they brought it out to the Carpenters, and buylders that wrought vpon the house of the Lorde, 12 And to Masons, and hewers of stone: and they brought tymber and free stone to repayre the decay in the house of the Lord, and to al that went to mende the temple.

13 Howbeit, there was not made for the house of the Lord, bowles of siluer, instrumentes of musicke, basons, trumpets, or any vessels of golde, or vessels of siluer, of the money that was brought into the house of the lord.

14 But

14 But they gaue that to the woorkemen, and repayred therewith the house of the Lorde.

15 Moreouer, they reckoned not with the men, into whose handes they deliuered that money to be bestowed on woorkemen: for they dyd theyr businesse vpon trust.

16 Howbeit, trespasse money, and sinne money, was not brought into the house of the Lorde, for it was the priestes.

17 Then came Hazael king of Syria vp, and fought agaynst Geth, and tooke it: and Hazael set his face to goe vp to Hierusalem.

18 And Joas kyng of Juda, tooke all the halowed things that Josaphat, Joram, and Ahazia his fathers kyngs of Juda had dedicate, & that he him self had dedicated, and al the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and in the kynges house, & sent it to Hazael king of Syria, and so he departed from Hierusalem.

19 The remnant of the woordes that concerne Joas, and al that he dyd, are they not written in the bookes of the Chronicles of the kynges of Juda?

20 And his owne seruantes arose, and conspired, & slue Joas in * the house of Millo, in the way goyng downe to Silla:

21 Jozachar the sonne of Semaah, and Jozabad the sonne of Somer, his seruantes smote him, & he died: and they buried him with his fathers in the citie of Dauid, and Amazia his sonne raigned in his steade.

* Beth Millo.

¶ The. xiii. Chapter.

1. Joachaz the sonne of Iehu is deliuered into the handes of the Syrians. 5. He prayeth vnto God, and is deliuered.

1 IN the three and twentieth yeere of Joas the sonne of Ahazia kyng of Juda, Joachaz the sonne of Jehu began to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria, seuenteene yeeres.

2 And he wrought that whiche was euyl in the sight of the Lorde, and folowed the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, whiche made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

3 And the Lorde was angry with Israel, and deliuered them into the hand of Hazael kyng of Syria, & into the hande of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael al theyr dayes.

4 And Joachaz besought the Lorde, and the Lord heard him: for he consydered the trouble of Israel, wherewith the kyng of Syria troubled them.

5 (And the Lorde gaue Israel a deliuerer, so that they went out frō vnder the subiection of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in theyr tentes * as before tyme.

* Heb. As yesterday before yesterday.

6 Neuertheless, they departed not from the sinnes of the house of Jeroboam whiche made Israel sinne, but walked in them: and there remayned a groue styl also in Samaria.

7 Neyther did he leaue of the people to Joachaz, but fiftie horsmen, ten charets, and ten thousand footemen: for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them lyke threshed dust.

8 The rest of the woordes that concerne Joachaz, and al that he did, and his power, are they not written in the boke of the chronicles of the kinges of Israel?

9 And Joachaz slept with his fathers, and they buryed hym in Samaria, and Joas his sonne raigned in his steade.

10 In the thyrtie and seuenth yeere of Joas king of Juda, began Joas the sonne of Joachaz to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria, sixteene yeeres, 11 And dyd that whiche is euyll in the sight of the Lorde, and departed not from al the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, that made Israel sinne, for he walked therin.

12 The remnant of the woordes that concerne Joas, and al that he dyd, and his power, wherewith he fought agaynst Amazia kyng of Juda, are they not written in the booke of the chronicles of the kynges of Israel?

13 And Joas slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sate vpon his seate: and Joas was buried in Samaria, among the kinges of Israel.

14 When Eliseus was fallen sicke, of his sickenesse whereof he dyed, Joas the kyng of Israel came downe vnto hym, and wept before hym, and sayd, O my father, my father, the charet of Israel, and the horsmen of the same.

15 Eliseus sayde vnto him, Take bowe and arrowes. And he tooke vnto hym bowe and arrowes.

16 And he sayde to the kyng of Israel, Put thyne hande vpon the bowe. And he put his hande vpon it: and Eliseus put his handes vpon the kynges handes, 17 And said, Open a windowe Eastwarde. And when he had opened it, Eliseus sayd, Shoote. And he shotte. And he sayde, The arrowe of health of the Lorde, and the arrowe of health agaynst Syria: for thou shalt smyte Syria in Aphec, tyll thou haue made an ende of them.

18 And he sayde, Take the arrowes. And he tooke them. And he sayde vnto the kyng of Israel, Smite the grounde. And he smote thryse, and ceassed.

19 And

19 And the man of GOD was angry with hym, and sayde, Thou shouldest haue smitten fyue or sixe times, and then thou haddest smitten Syria tyll thou haddest made an ende of them: where nowe thou shalt smite Syria but thryse.

20 And so Eliseus dyed, and they buryed hym: and the souldyers of the Moabites came into the land a the same yeere.

21 And as they were burying a man, and spyed the souldiers, they cast the man into the sepulchre of Eliseus: & when the man was rolled downe,* and touched the bones of Eliseus, he reuiued, and stoode vpon his feete.

22 But Hazael kyng of Syria, vexed Israel all the dayes of Ioachaz.

23 And the Lorde had mercie on them, and pitied them, and had respect vnto them, because of his couenant made with Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, and woulde not destroy them, neither cast he them from him as yet.

24 So Hazael the kyng of Syria dyed, and Benhadad his sonne raigned in his steede.

25 And Ioas the sonne of Ioachaz went agayne, and tooke out of the hand of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, the cities which he had taken away out of the hand of Ioachaz his father in warre: for three times dyd Ioas beate him, & restored the cities vnto Israel agayne.

¶ The.xiiii Chapter.

1. Amazia the king of Iuda putteth to death them that slue his father. 7. And after smiteth Edom.

1 THe* second yeere of Ioas sonne of Ioachaz king of Israel, raigned Amazia the sonne of Ioas king of Iuda.

2 He was twentie and fiue yeeres old when he began to raigne, and raigned twentie and nine yeeres in Hierusalem: & his mothers name was Ioadan of Hierusalem.

3 And he did that which is good in the sight of the Lorde, yet not lyke Dauid his father: but dyd according to all things as Ioas his father dyd.

5 And as soone as the kyngdome was setled in his hand, he slue his seruantes whiche had kylled the king his father.

6 But the chyldren of those murderers he slue not, according vnto it that is written in the booke of the lawe of Moses, wherein the Lorde commaunded, saying,* Let not the fathers dye for the chyldren, nor let the chyldren be slayne for the fathers: but let euery man be put to death for his owne sinne.

7 He slue of Edom in ỹ salt valley, ten thousand, and tooke the castle on the rocke in the same battayle, and called the name of it Ioctheel vnto this day.

8 Then Amazia sent messengers to Ioas the sonne of Ioachaz sonne of Iehu kyng of Israel, saying, Come, a let vs see eche other.

9 And Ioas the kyng of Israel sent to Amazia king of Iuda, saying, Dyd not a thistle that is in Libanon, send to a Cedar tree that is in Libanon, saying, Geue thy daughter to my sonne to wyfe? And a wylde beast that was in Libanon, went, & trode downe the thistle.

10 Thou hast smitten Edom, thyne hart hath made thee proude: enioy this glory, and tary at home: why doest thou prouoke to mischiefe, that thou shouldest be ouerthrowen, and Iuda with thee?

11 But Amazia would not heare: and Ioas kyng of Israel went vp, and he, and Amazia king of Iuda, saw eyther other at Bethsames, which is in Iuda.

12 And Iuda was put to the worse before Israel, and they fledde euery man to theyr tentes.

13 And Ioas king of Israel tooke Amazia kyng of Iuda, the sonne of Ioas, the sonne of Ahazia, at Bethsames, and came to Hierusalem, and brake downe the wall of Hierusalem, from the gate of Ephraim, to the corner gate, foure hundred cubites.

14 And he tooke all the gold, and siluer, and all the vessels that were founde in the house of the Lord, & in the treasures of the kinges house: and the children tooke he to be his wardes, and returned to Samaria agayne.

15 The rest of the actes of Ioas whiche he dyd, and his power, and howe he fought with Amazia kyng of Iuda, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kinges of Israel?

16 And Ioas slept with his fathers, and was buried at Samaria among the kinges of Israel, and Ieroboam his sonne raigned in his steede.

17 Amazia the sonne of Ioas kyng of Iuda, liued after the death of Ioas sonne of Ioachaz kyng of Israel, fyfteene yeeres.

18 And the remnant of the woords that concerne Amazia, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kynges of Iuda?

*2.Ch.26.1 21 * And all the people of Juda tooke Azaria (whiche was sixteene yeeres olde) and made him kyng for his father Amazia.

23 In the fifteenth yeere of Amazia ỹ sonne of Joas kyng of Juda, was Jeroboam the sonne of Joas made king ouer Israel in Samaria, & raigned fourtie and one yeeres:

24 And wrought that whiche was euyll in the sight of the Lorde, neither turned he away from all the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne.

25 He restored the coast of Israel, from the entryng of Hemath, vnto the sea of the wyldernesse, accordyng to the word of the lord God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his seruaunt Jonas, the sonne of Amithai the prophete, whiche was of Geth Hepher:

26 For the Lorde sawe how that the affliction of Israel was exceedyng "bitter, insomuche that the prisoned and the forsaken were at an end, and there was none to helpe Israel.

27 And the Lorde saide not, that he woulde put out the name of Israel from vnder heauen: but he helped them by the hand of Jeroboam the sonne of Joas.

2 Sixteene yeeres old was he when he was made kyng, and he raigned two and fyftie yeeres in Hierusalem: & his mothers name was Jecholia, of Hierusalem.

3 And he dyd that whiche was ryght in the syght of the Lorde, accordyng to all thinges as dyd his father Amazia:

4 Saue that the high places were not put away: for the people offered, and burnt incense styll on the hygh places.

5 *And the Lorde smote the kyng, and he was a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt in a seuerall house at libertie, and Jotham the kinges sonne gouerned the palace, and iudged the people of the land. *2. Ch. 26. 21.

6 The rest of the woordes that concerne Azaria, and all that he dyd, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kinges of Juda?

8 In the thyrtie and eyght yeere of Azaria kyng of Juda, dyd Zacharia the sonne of Jeroboam raigne vpon Israel in Samaria sixe monethes:

9 And wrought that which was euill in the sight of the Lorde, as dyd his fathers: and turned not away from the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne.

10 And Sallum the sonne of Jabes, conspired agaynst him, and smote him in the sight of the people, and killed him, and raigned in his steede.

11 The rest of the woordes that concerne Zacharia, beholde, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kinges of Israel.

12 This is also the woord of ỹ Lord, which he spake vnto Jehu, saying, *Thy sonnes shall sitte on the seate of Israel, vnto the fourth generation after thee. And so it came to passe. *2. Reg. 10. 30.

13 Sallum the sonne of Jabes beganne to raigne in the niene and thyrtie yeere of *Azaria king of Juda, and he raigned a moneth in Samaria. *Or, Ozias.

16 The same time Manahem destroyed Thiphsah, and all that were therein, & the coastes thereof from Thirza: and because they opened not to him, he smote it, and ript vp all the women with childe.

17 The niene and thirtieth yeere of Azaria king of Juda, began Manahem the sonne of Gadi to raigne vpon Israel ten yeeres in Samaria.

18 And he dyd euill in the syght of the Lord, and turned not away all his dayes from the the ſynne of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat, whiche made Iſrael to ſynne.

19 And Phul the kyng of Aſſyria came vpon the lande: and Manahem gaue Phul a thouſand talents of ſyluer, that his hande myght be with hym, and ſtablyſh the kyngdome in his hande.

20 And Manahem made a proclamation for the money in Iſrael, that al men of ſubſtance ſhoulde geue the kyng of Aſſyria fyftie ſicles of ſyluer a peece: and ſo the kyng of Aſſyria turned backe agayne, and tarried not there in the lande.

22 And Manahem ſlept with his fathers, and Pecahia his ſonne dyd raigne in his ſtede.

23 In the fyftieth yeere of Azaria kyng of Juda, began Pecahia the ſonne of Manahem to raigne ouer Iſrael in Samaria two yeeres, 24 And dyd that whiche was euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, and left not of from the ſynnes of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat, whiche made Iſrael ſynne.

25 But Pecah the ſonne of Romelia, which was a captayne of his, conſpyred agaynſt hym, and ſmote hym in Samaria, euen in the place of the kynges houſe, with Argob and Aria, and with hym were fyftie men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and raigned in his roome.

26 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Pecahia, and al that he dyd, beholde they are wrytten in the booke of the Chronicles of the kynges of Iſrael.

27 In the fyftie & two yeere of Azaria kyng of Juda, began Pecah the ſonne of Romelia to raigne ouer Iſrael in Samaria twentie yeeres, 28 And dyd euyll in the ſyght of the Lorde, and turned not away from the ſinnes of Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat, that made Iſrael ſynne.

29 In the dayes of Pecah kyng of Iſrael, came Theglah Phalaſar kyng of Aſſyria, and tooke Iion Abel, Beth-maacha, Janoah, Cedes, Hazor, Gilead, Galilee, and al the land of Nephthali, and carried them away to Aſſyria.

30 And Hoſea the ſonne of Ela, conſpyred agaynſt Pecah the ſonne of Romelia, and ſmote hym, and ſlue hym, and raigned in his ſtede, in the twentieth yere of Jotham the ſonne of * Dzias.

31 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Pecah, and al that he dyd, beholde, they are * wrytten in the booke of the Chronicles of the kynges of Iſrael. *2.Chr.27.

32 The ſeconde yeere of Pecah the ſonne of Romelia king of Iſrael, began Jotham the ſonne of Dzias kyng of Juda to raigne.

33 Fyue & twentie yeeres olde was he when he began to raigne, and he raigned ſyxteene yeeres in Hieruſalem: his mothers name was Jeruſa, the daughter of Zadoc.

34 And he dyd that whiche is ryght in the ſyght of the Lorde: euen accordyng to al as dyd his father Dzias, ſo dyd he.

35 But the hygh places were not put away, for the people offered and burnt incenſe ſtyl in the hygh places: he buylt the hygher dooze of the houſe of the Lorde.

36 The reſt of the woordes that concerne Jotham, and al that he dyd, are they not wrytten in the booke of the Chronicles of the kynges of Juda?

3 But walked in the way of the kynges of Iſrael, yea & made his ſonne to goe through the fyre, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lorde caſt out before the chyldren of Iſrael.

12 And so when the kyng was come from Damascus, he sawe the aulter: and the king went to it, and offered thereon.

13 And he burnt his whole burnt offeryng, and his meate offeryng, and powred his drynke offeryng, and sprynckled the blood of his peace offerynges beside the aulter,

14 And by the brasen aulter which was before the Lorde, and set it without the temple, betweene the aulter and the temple of the Lorde, and put it on the North syde of the aulter.

15 And kyng Achaz commaunded Uria the Priest, and sayde, Upon the great aulter, set on fyre in the morning the whole burnt offeryng, and in the euen the meate offryng, and the kynges whole burnt sacrifice, and his meate offeryng, with the whole burnt offeryng of all the people of the lande, and their meate offerynges, and their drinke offerynges, and powre thereby al the blood of the whole burnt offeryng, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen aulter shalbe at my wyl.

Hose

5. Hosea king of Israel is taken.

1 IN the twelfth yeere of Achaz king of Juda, beganne Hosea the sonne of Elah to raigne in Samaria vppon Israel nine yeeres:

2 And did that which was euyl in the syght of the Lorde, but not as the kynges of Israel that were before hym.

3 And Salmanasar king of Assyria came vp agaynst hym, & Hosea became his seruant, and gaue hym "presentes.

"Or, tribute

4 And the kyng of Assyria founde treason in Hosea: for he had sent messengers to So kyng of Egypt, and brought no present vnto the kyng of Assyria from yeere to yeere: and therefore the kyng of Assyria shut hym vp, and bounde hym in the prison house.

5 And then the kyng of Assyria came vp throughout al the lande, & gate vp agaynst Samaria, and besieged it three yeeres.

6 "In the nienth yeere of Hosea, the kyng of Assyria tooke Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and put them in Hala and in Habor by the ryuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the a Medes.

a At that time the Medes and Persians were subiect to the Assyrians.

7 For it came to passe, that the chyldren of Israel synned agaynst the Lord their God, whiche had brought them out of the lande of Egypt, from vnder the hand of Pharao kyng of Egypt, and feared other goddes.

8 And they walked in the ceremonies of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out before the chyldren of Israel, and in the ceremonies whiche the kynges of Israel had made.

9 And the chyldren of Israel went about to hyde those thynges that were not wel, from the Lorde their God: and they buylte them hygh places in al their cities, both in the towres where they kept watche, and also in the strong townes:

10 And they made them images and groues in euery high hyl, and vnder euery "thycke tree:

"Heb. greene

11 And there they burnt incense in all the hygh places, as dyd the heathen whom the Lord carried away before them, & wrought wycked thynges to anger the Lorde withall:

12 For they serued idols, whereof the Lorde had sayde vnto them, Ye shall doo no suche thyng.

13 And

13 And the Lorde testified in Israel, and in Juda, by al the prophetes, and by al the Seers, saying, *Turne from your wycked wayes, and keepe my commaundementes, and my statutes, accordyng to al the lawe which I commaunded your fathers, and whiche I sent to you by my seruantes the prophetes.

14 Notwithstandyng, they would not heare, but rather hardened their neckes, like to the stubburnesse of their b fathers, that did not beleeue in the Lorde their God.

15 For they refused his statutes, and his couenant that he made with their father, and the witnesses wherewith he witnessed vnto them, and they folowed vanitie, and became vayne, and went after the heathen that were rounde about them, concernyng whom the Lorde had charged them, that they shoulde not doo lyke them.

16 But they left all the commaundementes of the Lorde their GOD, and made them images of metal, euen two calues, and made groues, and woorshipped al the c host of heauen, and serued Baal.

17 And they sacrificed their sonnes & their daughters in fyre, and vsed witchcrafts, and enchauntmentes, *euen sellyng themselues to woorke wyckednesse in the syght of the Lorde, and to anger hym.

18 And the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israel, and put them out of his syght, that there was left but the tribe of Juda onely.

19 Neuertheless, Juda also kept not the commaundementes of the Lord their God, but walked in the ceremonies of Israel which they made.

20 And the Lorde cast of al the seede of Israel, and vexed them, and deliuered them into the handes of spoylers, vntyl he had cast them out of his syght:

21 *For d he cut of Israel from the house of Dauid, and made them a kyng, euen Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, and Jeroboam drewe Israel away, that they shoulde not folowe the Lorde, and made them sinne a great sinne.

22 For the chyldren of Israel walked in all the sinnes of Jeroboam which he dyd, and departed not therefrom, 23 Untyl the Lorde put Israel away out of his syght, *as he had sayde by al his seruantes the prophetes: and so was Israel caryed away out of their owne lande to Assyria, euen vnto this day.

24 And the kyng of Assyria brought men from Babylon, from e Cutha, from Ana, from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and put them in the cities of Samaria, in steede of the chyldren of Israel, and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And at the beginning of their dwellyng there, they feared not the Lord, & the Lorde sent Lions among them, which slue them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast translated and put in the cities of Samaria, knowe not the lawe of the God of the lande: therefore he hath sent Lions vppon them, and beholde they slay them, because they knowe not the maner of woorshipping the God of the lande.

27 Then the king of Assyria commaunded, saying, Cary thyther one of the priestes whom ye brought thence, and let hym goe and dwel there, and teache them the fashion howe to serue the god of the countrey.

28 And then one of the priestes, whom they had caryed from Samaria, came & dwelt in Bethel, & taught them howe they should feare the Lorde.

29 Howebeit, euery nation made them gods of their owne, and put them in the houses of the hygh places which the Samaritanes had made, euery nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 The men of Babylon made Socoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Asima.

31 The Auites made Nibbaz and Tharthac: and the Sepharuites burnt their children in fire to Adrameleth, and Anamelech, the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 And so they feared the Lorde, and made them priestes of the basest of them, whiche sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 And so f they feared the Lorde, and serued their owne gods, after the maner of the people whom they caryed thence.

34 And vnto this day they doo after the old maner: and neither feare God, neyther doo after their ordinances & customes, nor doo after the lawe and commaundement which the Lorde commaunded the chyldren of Jacob, *whom he called Israel.

35 And the Lorde made a couenant with them, and charged them, saying, Feare none other gods, nor bowe your selues to them, nor serue them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But feare the Lorde, which brought you out of the lande Egypt, with great power, and a stretched out arme, hym feare, and to hym bowe, and to hym doo sacrifice.

37 The statutes, ordinances, lawe, and commaundement whiche he wrote for you, see that ye be diligent to doo for euermore, and feare not any other gods.

38 And the couenant that I haue made with 39 But the Lorde your God ye shall feare, and he shal deliuer you out of the handes of al your enimies.

40 Howbeit, they dyd not hearken, but did after theyr olde custome.

41 And so these nations feared the Lord, and serued their images also, lyke as did theyr chyldren, and theyr childrens childrē: euen as did their fathers, so doo they vnto this day.

¶ The .xviii. Chapter.

4. Hezecia king of Iuda putteth downe the brasen serpent, and destroyeth the idolles, 7. and prospereth.

*2.Chro.28. 28.and.29.1

1 IN the thyrde yeere of *Hosea, sonne of Ela kyng of Israel, it came to passe that Hezecia the sonne of Achaz kyng of Juda did raigne.

2 Twentie and fiue yeeres olde was he when he beganne to raigne, and raigned twentie and niene yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Abi, the daughter of Zacharia.

3 And he dyd that whiche is ryght in the sight of the Lorde, according to all as dyd Dauid his father.

a. It appertayneth to a good prince to purge y church of God.

4 He a put away the high places, and brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and all to brake the brasen serpent *that Moses had made: for vnto those dayes the chyldren of Israel dyd burne sacrifice to it: and he called it Nehustan.

*Num.21.8.

5 He trusted in the Lorde God of Israel, so that after him was none like him among al the kynges of Juda, neyther were there any suche before hym.

6 For he claue to the Lorde, & departed not from hym: but kept his cōmaundementes, which the Lorde commaunded Moses.

7 And the Lorde was with hym, so that he prospered in all thinges whiche he tooke in hande: and he rebelled agaynst the king of Assyria, and serued hym not.

8 He smote the Philistines, euen vnto Azza, and the coastes thereof, both castles where they kept watches, and strong cities.

9 And in the fourth yeere of kyng Hezecia, (whiche was the seuenth yeere of Hosea, sonne of Ela kyng of Israel) Salmanazar king of Assyria, came vp agaynst Samaria, and besieged it.

*4.kin.17.1. 10 *And after three yeeres they tooke it: euen in the first yeere of Hezecia (that is to say, the nienth yeere of Hosea kyng of Israel) Samaria was wonne.

11 And the kyng of Assyria did cary away Israel vnto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the ryuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 Because they woulde not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde theyr God, but transgressed his couenant, and al that Moses the seruant of the Lord commaunded, & would neyther heare them, nor doo them.

13 *Therefore in the fourteenth yeere of kyng Hezecia, did Sennacherib kyng of Assyria come vp agaynst al the strong cities of Juda, and tooke them.

*2.Chr.32. Esai.36. Ecclu.48.

14 And Hezecia kyng of Juda, sent to the kyng of Assyria to Lachis, saying, I haue offended, depart from me: and al that thou puttest on me, that wyl I beare. And the kyng of Assyria appoynted vnto Hezecia kyng of Juda three hundred talentes of siluer, and thirtie talentes of golde.

15 And Hezecia gaue hym al the siluer that was founde in the house of the Lorde, and in the treasures of the kynges house.

16 At the same season did Hezecia rent of the doores of the temple of the Lorde, and the pyllers which the sayd Hezecia king of Juda had couered ouer, and gaue them to the kyng of Assyria.

17 And the king of Assyria sent b Tharthan and Rabsaris, and Rabsaceh, from Lachis to kyng Hezecia, with a great host, agaynst Hierusalem: and they went vp, and came to Hierusalem, and gate them vp, & stoode by the conduite of the vpper poole, whiche is in the way of the fullers feelde.

b. After eight tayne yeers when Hezeci ceassed to pay the appoynt tributes, the king of Assyr sent his captaynes a hym.

18 And when they had called to the kyng, there came out to them Eliacim the sonne of Elcia, which was stewarde of the housholde, and Sobna the scribe, and Joah the sonne of Asaph the recorder.

19 And Rabsaceh sayde vnto them, Tel ye Hezecia, I pray you, thus sayth the great kyng, euen the kyng of Assyria, What confidence is this that thou hast?

20 *Thou thinkest surely I haue eloquence, but counsel and strength are for the warre: on whom then doest thou trust, that thou rebellest agaynst me?

*Esai.36.

21 Doest thou trust to the staffe of this broken reede Egypt, on which if a man leane, it wyl goe into his hande, and pearce it? euen so is Pharao kyng of Egypt vnto all that trust on hym.

22 If ye say vnto me, We trust in the Lord our God: is not that he whose high places, and whose aulters Hezecia hath c put downe? and hath sayd to Juda and Hierusalem, Ye shal woorship before this aulter here in Hierusalem.

c. Idolatry chymeth that Gods religion is destroyed when Idolatry and superstition is remoued.

23 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, geue hostages to my lorde the kyng of Assyria, and I wyl wyl delyuer thee two thousande horses, yf thou be able to set ryders vpon them.

24 Why thynkest thou scorne at the presence of one of the least Dukes of my maisters seruantes, and trustest to Egypt for charets and horsemen?

25 Moreouer, am I come now without the byddyng of the Lorde to this place, to destroy it? The Lorde sayde to me, Goe vp to this lande, and destroy it.

26 And Eliacim the sonne of Helcia, and Sobnah, and Joah, sayde vnto Rabsaceh, Speake, I pray thee, to thy seruants, in the Syrians language (for we vnderstand it) & talke not with vs in the Iewes tongue, in the eares of this people that are on the wal.

27 And Rabsaceh sayde vnto them, Hath my maister sent me to thy maister & thee, to speake these woordes? Hath he not sent me because of ỹ men which syt on the wal, that they may eate their owne dongue, & drynke their owne "pysse with you?

28 And so Rabsaceh stoode, and cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes language, and spake, saying, Heare the woordes of the great kyng, euen of the kyng of Assyria.

29 Thus sayth the kyng, Let not Hezecia beguyle you, for he shal not be able to delyuer you out of myne hande:

30 Neyther let Hezecia make you to trust in the Lorde, saying, The Lord shal surely delyuer vs, & this citie shal not be geuen ouer into the hand of the kyng of Assyria.

31 Hearken not vnto Hezecia: for thus sayth the kyng of Assyria, Deale kyndely with me, and come out to me, and then eate euery man of his owne Vine, and of his owne Fygge tree, and drynke euery man of the water of his owne Well, 32 Tyl I come, and fet you to as good a land as yours is, a land of corne and wyne, a land of bread and Vineyardes, a lande of oyle, of Olive trees, and of honie, that ye may lyue, and not dye: and hearken not vnto Hezecia, for he beguyleth you, saying, The Lorde shal delyuer vs.

33 Hath euery one of the goddes of the nations, delyuered his lande out of the hande of the kyng of Assyria?

34 Where is the god of Hamath and of Arphad? and where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena, and Juah? Dyd they delyuer Samaria out of myne hande?

35 And what god is among al the goddes of the nations, that hath delyuered his lande out of myne hande? d Shal the Lorde delyuer Hierusalem out of myne hand?

36 But the people helde their peace, and answeared not hym a woord: for the king had commaunded, saying, Answeare hym not.

37 Then Eliacim the sonne of Helcia, whiche was the Steward of the houshold, and Sobna the Scribe, and Joah the sonne of Asaph the Recorder, came to Hezecia with their clothes rent, and told hym the woordes of Rabsaceh.

¶ The.xix. Chapter.

God promyseth Esai victorie to Hezecia.

1 SO it came to passe, * that when kyng Hezecia heard it, he rent his clothes, and put on sackecloth, & came into the house of the Lorde, * Esai.37.1.

2 And sent Eliacim, whiche was the Steward of the houshold, & Sobna the Scribe, and the elders of the Priestes, clothed in sacke, to Esai the prophete the sonne of Amos.

3 And they sayd vnto hym, Thus sayth Hezecia, This day is a day of tribulation, and of rebuke and blasphemie: for the chyldren are come to the byrth, & there is no strength to be delyuered.

4 Peraduenture the Lorde thy God wyll heare all the woordes of Rabsaceh, whom the kyng of Assyria his maister hath sent to rayle on the lyuing God, and to rebuke him with woordes which the Lord thy God hath hearde: and lyfte thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are left.

5 So the seruantes of kyng Ezecia came to Esai.

6 And Esai sayde vnto them, So shal ye say to your maister, Thus sayth the Lorde, Be not afraide of the woordes which thou hast hearde, with whiche the young men of the kyng of Assyria haue rayled on me.

7 Behold, * I wyl sende a blast vpon hym, and he shal heare tydyngs, and so returne to his owne lande, and I wyll bryng to passe that he shal fal vpon the swoord, euen in his owne lande. Esai.37.9.

8 And Rabsaceh went backe agayne, and founde the king of Assyria fyghting against Libna: for he had hearde howe that he was departed from Lachis.

9 And whē he heard men say of Thirhacah kyng of Ethiopia, Beholde, he is come out to fyght agaynst thee: he departed, and sent messengers vnto Hezecia, saying,

14 And Hezecia receyued the letter of the hande of the meſſengers, and read it: and Hezecia went vp into the houſe of the Lord, and layde it abrode before the Lorde.

a. It is the true refuge and ſuccour in al dangers, to flee vnto the Lorde by earneſt prayer.

15 And Hezecia a prayed before the Lorde, and ſayde, O Lorde God of Iſrael, whiche dwelleſt betwene the Cherubims, thou art God alone ouer al the kyngdomes of the earth, thou haſt made heauen and earth.

16 Lord bowe downe thine eare, and heare: open Lorde thyne eyes, I beſeeche thee, and ſee: and heare the woordes of Sennacherib whiche hath ſent this man to rayle on the lyuyng God.

17 Of a trueth Lorde, the kynges of Aſſyria haue deſtroyed nations and their landes, 18 And haue ſet fyre on their gods: for they were no goddes, but the woorke of the handes of man, euen of wood and ſtone: and they deſtroyed them.

19 Nowe therfore, O Lorde our God, I beſeeche thee, ſaue thou vs out of his hande, that all the kyngdomes of the earth may knowe that thou onely art the Lorde God.

20 And Eſai the ſonne of Amos ſent to Hezecia, ſaying, Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, That whiche thou haſt prayed me concernyng Sennacherib kyng of Aſſyria, I haue heade it.

b Hieruſalem is called Virgin, becauſe as yet it had not been taken by the enimie.

21 This is therefore the woorde that the Lorde hath ſayde of hym, b The Virgin, euen the daughter of Sion hath deſpyſed thee, and laughed thee to ſcorne, O thou kyng of Aſſyria, the daughter of Hieruſalem hath ſhaken her head at thee.

22 Whom haſt thou rayled on? and whom haſt thou blaſphemed? Againſt whom haſt thou exalted thy voyce, and lyfted vp thyne eyes ſo hygh? euen againſt the holy one of Iſrael.

23 By the hand of thy meſſengers thou haſt rayled on the Lorde, and ſayde, With the multitude of my charrets, I am come vp to the toppes of the mountaynes, along by the ſydes of Libanon, and I wyl cut downe the high Cedar trees, and the luſtie Fyrre trees thereof: and I wyl goe into the lodgyng of his borders, and into the wood of his Carmel.

24 I haue dygged and dronke ſtrange waters: and with the ſtep of my goyng wyl I dryye al the water pooles that are beſieged.

25 Haſt thou not heard howe I haue ordeined ſuche a thyng a great whyle agoe, and haue prepared it from the begynnyng? And ſhal I not nowe bryng it forth, that it may deſtroy, and bryng ſtrong cities into waſte heapes of ſtones?

26 And the inhabiters of them ſhalbe of litle power, and faynt harted, and confounded, and ſhalbe lyke the graſſe of the feelde, or greene hearbe, or as the hay on the toppes of the houſes, or as the corne that is vnrype, and ſmytten with blaſtyng.

11 And when the kyng had hearde the wordes of the booke of the lawe, he rent his clothes.

12 And the kyng commaunded Helcia the priest, and Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, and Achbor the sonne of Michaia, and Saphan the scribe, and Asahia a seruant of the kynges, saying,

13 Goe ye, and enquire of the Lorde for me, and for the people, and for al Juda, concernyng the woordes of this booke that is founde: for great is the wrath of the Lorde that is kyndled agaynst vs, because our fathers haue not hearkened vnto the woordes of this booke, to do accordyng vnto al that which is wrytten therein for vs.

14 So Helcia the high priest, and Ahicam, Achbor, and Saphan, and Asahia, went vnto Hulda the prophetesse, the wife of Sallum the sonne of Thicua, the sonne of Harhas, keper of the wardrobe: (which prophetesse dwelt in Hierusalem in the c house of the doctrine) and they communed with her.

1 AND in the *nienth yeere of his raigne, the tenth day of the tenth moneth, Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon came, he, and al his host, agaynst Hierusalem, and pitched against it, and made engins against it, on euery side.

2 And the citie was besieged vnto the eleuenth yeere of king Zedecia.

3 And the nienth day of the moneth, there was so great a hunger in the citie, that there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 And the citie was broken vp, and all the men of armes fledde by nyght, by a way thorowe a gate whiche is betweene two walles by the kynges garden (the Chaldees lying about the citie) and the kyng went the way toward the playne.

5 And the souldiers of the Chaldees followed after the king, and tooke him in the playne of Jericho: and all his armie were scattered away from him.

6 So they tooke the king, and brought hym to Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, to Ribla, where they gaue iudgement vppon him.

7 And they slue the sonnes of Zedecia before his eyes, and he put out the eyes of Zedecia, and fettered him with chaynes, and caried him to Babylon.

8 And the seuenth day of the fyfth moneth (which is the nineteenth yeere of kyng Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon) came Nabuzaradan, a seruaunt of the king of Babylon, & cheefe captaine of the men of warre, vnto Hierusalem:

9 And burnt the house of the Lorde, and the kinges house, and all the houses of Hierusalem, and all great houses burnt he with fyre.

10 And al the souldiers of the Chaldees that were with the cheefe captayne of the men of warre, brake downe the walles of Hierusalem round about.

11 But the rest of the people that were left in the citie, and them that were fled to the kyng of Babylon, with the remnaunt of the common people, dyd Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne of the men of warre, cary away.

12 But the captayne of the souldiers left of the poore of the land to dresse the vines, and to tyll the ground. *Jer. 52.

13 And the pillers of brasse that were in the house of the Lorde, and the sockettes, and the brasen lauatorie that was in the house of the Lorde, dyd the Chaldees breake, and caried all the brasse of them to Babylon.

14 And the pottes, shouels, instrumentes of musicke, spoones, and all the vesselles of brasse that they ministred in, tooke they away, 15 And the fyrepannes, and basons, and such thinges as were of gold & siluer, them tooke the cheefe captayne away.

16 Euen two pillers, one lauatorie, and the sockettes whiche Solomon had made for the house of the Lorde: the brasse of al these vesselles was without weight.

17 *The heyght of the one piller was eyghteene cubites, and the pommel thereof was brasse: and the heyght of the pommel was with wreathen woorke three cubites, and Pomegranates vpon the pommel round about, all of brasse: and of the same fashion was the seconde piller, with a wreathen woorke. *3. King. 7. Jere. 52. 2. Chro. 3.

18 And the cheefe captayne of the men of warre, tooke Saraia the chiefe priest, and Zephoniah the hygh priest saue one, and the three keepers of the holy thinges:

19 And out of the citie he tooke a chamberlaine, that had the ouersyght of the men of warre, and fiue men of them that were euer in the kinges presence, whiche were founde in the citie, and hym that was scribe to the captayne of the host, which brought out the people of the lande to warre, and threescore men of the people of the lande that were found in the citie.

20 And Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine of the men of warre tooke these, & brought them to the kyng of Babylon to Ribla.

21 And the kyng of Babylon smote them, and slue them at Ribla in the lande of Hamath: and so Juda was caried away out of their lande.

Ier. 40.5. 22 *Howbeit, there remayned people in the lande of Juda, whom Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon left, and made Gedalia the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, ruler ouer them.

23 And all the captaynes of the souldiers, they, and theyr men, heard that the kyng of Babylon had made Gedalia gouernour, and there came to Gedalia to Mispah, Ismael the sonne of Nathania, Johanan the sonne of Carea, Saraia the sonne of Thanhumeth the Netophatite, and Jaazania the sonne of Maachati, they, and theyr men.

24 And Gedalia sware to them, and to the men whom they had with them, and sayde vnto them, *Feare not ye to be the seruantes of the Chaldees: dwell in the lande, and serue the kyng of Babylon, and ye shalbe well.

25 But in the seuenth moneth, Ismael the sonne of Nathania, the sonne of Elisama, of the kynges blood, came, and ten men with hym, and smote Gedalia, that he died, and so dyd he the Iewes and the Chaldees that were with hym at Mispa.

26 And al the people both small and great, and the captaines of warre, arose, and came to Egypt, for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

27 Notwithstandyng, yet in the seuen and thirtieth yeere after Joachin kyng of Juda was caryed away, the seuen and twentieth day of the twelfth moneth, Euilmerodach kyng of Babylon, the same yeere that he began to raigne, did lift vp the head of Joachin kyng of Juda out of prison,

28 And spake kyndly to hym, and set his seate aboue the seate of the kyngs that were with hym in Babylon, 29 And changed his prison garmentes, and he dyd euer eate bread before hym all the dayes of his lyfe.

30 His portion was a continual portion that was assigned hym of the kyng, euery day a certayne, as long as he lyued.

* Or, be ye not afrayde of the seruantes of the Chaldees.

13 O ye seede of Abraham his seruant, ye his chosen children of Iacob, he is God our Lord: his iudgementes are in al the earth.

14 He hath ben mindful alwayes of his couenant (for he promised a woorde to a thousande generations:) euen of his couenant that he made with Abraham, and of his oth vnto Isahac.

15 And he appoynted the same vnto Iacob for a law, and to Israel for an euerlastyng couenant, 22 For great is the Lorde, and worthy to be prayſed exceedyngly: he is to be feared aboue al goddes.

* vanitie and no god. 23 For all the goddes of the people * are but idolles: but the Lorde made heauen.
24 Praiſe and honour are in his preſence: ſtrength and gladneſſe are in his place.
25 Geue vnto the Lorde, ye kynredes of people: geue vnto the Lorde glory & dominion.
26 Geue vnto the Lorde the glory due vnto his name: bryng ſacrifices, and come before hym, and worſhyp the Lorde in his glorious ſanctuarie.
27 Let all the earth feare hym: ſurely the worlde ſhalbe ſtable, and not moue.
28 Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth be glad: and let men tel among the nations that the Lorde is kyng.
29 Let the ſea roare, & the fulneſſe therof: let the feeldes reioyce, and al that is therein.
30 Then ſhal the trees of the wood reioyce at the preſence of the Lord: becauſe he commeth to iudge the earth.
31 O geue thankes vnto the Lorde, for he is good: for his mercy endureth euer.
32 And ſay ye, Saue vs, O God our ſaluation, geather vs togeather, and delyuer vs from among the heathen: that we may geue thankes to thy holy name, and triumph in the prayſe of thee.
33 Bleſſed be the Lorde God of Iſrael for euer and euer: and let al the people ſay, Amen, and prayſe the Lorde.
34 And ſo he left there before the arke of the Lordes couenant, Aſaph and his brethren, to miniſter before the arke continually euery day * his dayes woorke.

37 To offer whole burnt offerynges vnto the Lord, vpon the whole burnt offring aulter, perpetuallye in the mornyng and euenyng, according to al that which is wrytten in the law of the Lord, which he commaunded Iſrael.
38 And with them were Heman and Idithun, and other that were choſen, whoſe names were expreſſed, to geue thanks to the Lorde, that his mercy laſteth euer.
39 And with them did Heman and Idithun ſing with Trumpets and Cymbales, makyng a ſweete melodie, with inſtrumentes of muſicke, and godly ſongs, and the ſonnes of Idithun were porters.

¶ The. xvii. Chapter.

13. Chriſte is promyſed vnder the figure of Solomon.

1 AND * when Dauid dwelt in his houſe, he ſayde to Nathan the prophete, Loe I dwel in an houſe of Cedar tree, but the arke of the Lordes couenant remayneth vnder a curtaynes. * 2. Sa. 7.
a. In tentes couered with ſkynnes.
2 And Nathan ſayde vnto Dauid, Do all that is in thyne hart, for God is with thee.
3 And the ſame nyght the woorde of GOD came to Nathan, ſaying, 4 Goe and tel Dauid my ſeruant, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Thou ſhalt not builde me an houſe to dwel in:
5 For I haue dwelt in no houſe ſince the day that I brought out the chyldren of Iſrael vnto this day, but haue gone from tent to tent, and from one dwellyng place to another.
6 And wherſoeuer I haue b walked with al Iſrael, ſpake I euer one woorde to any of the Iudges of Iſrael, whom I commaunded to feede my people, ſaying, Why haue ye not built me an houſe of Cedar tree?
b. Meanyng wherſoeuer his arke went, which was the ſigne of his preſence.
7 Nowe therefore, thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto my ſeruant Dauid, Thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, I tooke thee from the ſheepe coate, and from folowyng the ſheepe, that thou ſhouldeſt be captaine ouer my people Iſrael.
8 And I haue ben with thee whitherſoeuer thou haſt walked, and haue weeded out all thyne enimies out of thy ſyght, and haue made thee a name, lyke the name of the greateſt men that are in the earth.
9 And I haue ordeyned a place for my people Iſrael, & made it faſt, ſo that nowe they may dwel in their place, and moue no more: neyther ſhall the chyldren of wyckednes vexe them any more, as at the begynnyng.
10 And ſynce the time that I commaunded iudges to be ouer my people Iſrael, I haue ſubdued all thyne enimies: and I tolde thee that the Lorde woulde buylde thee an houſe.
11 This alſo ſhall come to paſſe: when thy dayes be expired, that thou muſt goe vnto thy fathers, I wyll rayſe vp thy ſeede after thee, which ſhalbe of thy ſonnes, and I wil ſtablyſhe his kyngdome.
12 He ſhal buylde me an houſe, and I wyll ſtablyſhe his ſeate for euer.
13 * I wyll be his father, and he ſhalbe my ſonne, and I wyll not take my mercye away from hym, as I tooke it from him that * 2. Kin. 7.

was before thee.

14 But I will stablishe him in myne house and my kingdome for euer, and his seate shalbe sure for euermore.

15 According to all these woordes, and according to all this vision, did Nathan tell king Dauid.

16 And Dauid the kyng came, and sate before the Lorde, and sayde, What am I, O Lorde God, and what is myne house, that thou hast promoted me thus farre?

17 And yet this seemed little in thyne eyes, O God: but thou hast also spoken of thy seruantes house for a great whyle to come, and hast looked vpon me, as vpon a man of high degree, O Lorde God.

18 What shall Dauid desyre more of thee, for the honour of thy seruaunt? For thou hast knowen thy seruaunt.

19 O Lorde, for thy seruantes sake, euen according to thyne owne hart, hast thou done all this magnificence, to shewe all great thinges.

20 Lorde, there is none like thee, neyther is there any God besides thee, according to all that we haue heard with our eares.

21 Moreouer, what nation on the earth is like thy people Israel, to whom God hath vouchsafed to come, and redeeme them to be his owne people, and to make thee a name of excellencie & terriblenesse, with casting out nations from before the people whom thou hast deliuered out of Egypt?

22 Thy people of Israel diddest thou make thyne owne people for euer, and thou Lorde becamest their God.

23 Therefore nowe Lord, let the thing that thou hast spoken concernyng thy seruaunt and his house, be true for euer, that thou Lorde doo as thou hast sayde.

24 Let it come to passe, that thy name may be magnifyed for euer, that it may be sayde, The Lorde of hostes is the God of Israel, euen the God of Israel, & the house of Dauid thy seruant endureth stable before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, hast tolde thy seruaunt that thou wylt build him an house, and therefore thy seruant hath found in his hart to pray before thee.

26 And nowe Lorde, thou art God, and hast promised this goodnesse vnto thy seruant.

27 Now therefore, let it be thy pleasure to blesse the house of thy seruant, that it may continue before thee for euer: For whom thou blessest, O Lorde, the same is blessed for euer.

3 And Dauid smote Hadarezer kyng of Zoba, vnto Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by the riuer Euphrates.

4 And Dauid tooke from him a thousande charets, and seuen thousand horsemen, and twentie thousand footemen, and destroyed all the charettes, but reserued of them an hundred charets.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to helpe Hadarezer king of Zoba, Dauid slue of the Syrians twentie and two thousand.

6 And Dauid put souldiers in Syria Damascus, and the Syrians became Dauids seruauntes, and brought hym tribute: and the Lorde preserued Dauid in all that he went to.

7 And Dauid tooke the shieldes of gold that were on the seruantes of Hadarezer, and brought them to Hierusalem.

8 And from Thebhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought Dauid exceeding muche brasse, wherewith Solomon made the brasen lauatorie, the pillers, and the vessels of brasse.

9 And when Thogu king of Hemath heard, howe Dauid had beaten all the "strength of Hadarezer kyng of Zoba. "or, hoste.

10 He sent "Hadoram his sonne to king Dauid, to make peace with him, and to blesse him, because he had fought agaynst Hadarezer, & beaten him (for Thogu had warre with Hadarezer) and Hadoram brought al maner of iewelles of golde, siluer, and brasse, with him. "or, Ieroam.

11 And king Dauid dedicated them vnto the Lorde, with the siluer and golde that he brought from al nations, from Edom, from Moab, from the children of Ammon, from the Philistines, and from Amalec.

12 And Abisai the sonne of Zaruia slue of the Edomites in the salt valley, eyghteene thousand,

*2.Sa.10.2 1 AFter this, *Nahas the king of the chyldren of Ammon dyed, and his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.
2 And Dauid ſayd, I wyll ſhewe kindneſſe vnto Hanon the ſonne of Nahas, becauſe his a father dealt kindly with me. And Dauid ſent meſſengers to comfort him ouer the death of his father: and the ſeruantes of Dauid came into the land of the chyldren of Ammon, to Hanon, to comfort him.
3 But the lordes of the chyldren of Ammon ſayd to Hanon, Thinkeſt thou that Dauid dooth honour thy father in thy ſight, that he hath ſent comforters vnto thee? Are not his ſeruantes come to b ſearch, to looke, and eſpie out the land?
4 Wherfore Hanon tooke Dauids ſeruants, and c ſhaued them, and cut of their coates hard by theyr buttockes, and ſent them away.
5 And there went certaine and tolde Dauid howe the men were serued: and the kyng ſent to meete them (for the men were exceedyngly aſhamed) and the kyng ſayde, Tary at Iericho, vntyl your beardes be growen, and then returne.
6 And when the chyldren of Ammon ſawe that they ſtanke in the ſight of Dauid, Hanon & the chyldren of Ammon, ſent a thouſand talentes of ſiluer, to hyre them charets and horſemen out of Meſopotamia, and out of Syria, Maacha, and out of Zoba.
7 And they hyred thirtie and two thouſand charettes, and the king of Maacha and his people, which came and pitched before Medeba: and the chyldren of Ammon gathered them ſelues togeather from their cities, and came to battayle.
8 And when Dauid heard of it, he ſent Ioab and all the hoſt of ſtrong men.
9 And the chyldren of Ammon came out: and put them ſelues in aray to battel, before the gate of the citie: and the kinges that were come, kept them by them ſelues backe in the feelde.
10 When Ioab alſo ſawe that the frunt of the battayle was againſt him before and behinde, he choſe out of all the choſen men of Iſrael, and put them in aray againſt the Syrians.
11 And the reſt of the people he deliuered vnto the hand of Abiſai his brother, and they put them ſelues in aray againſt the chyldren of Ammon.
12 And he ſayd, If the Syrians be to ſtrong for me, thou ſhalt ſuccour me, & yf the chyldren of Ammon preuayle againſt thee, I wyl helpe thee.
13 Plucke vp thyne hart, and let vs play the men for our peoples ſake, and for the cities of our God: and the Lorde ſhall doo that which is good in his owne ſight.
14 So Ioab and the people that were with him, drue nigh, before the Syrians, vnto the battayle: and they fled before hym.
15 And when the chyldren of Ammon ſawe that the Syrians were fled, they ran away likewiſe before Abiſai his brother, and gate them into the citie: and Ioab came to Hieruſalem.
16 And when the Syrians ſawe that they were put to the wooꝛſe before Iſrael, they ſent meſſengers, and fet out the Syrians that were beyond the "riuer: and Sophach the captayne of the holt of Hadarezer, went "Or, Euphrates before them.
17 And it was tolde Dauid: and he geathered all Iſrael, & went togeather ouer Iordane, and came, and ſet vpon them: and when Dauid had put him ſelfe in aray againſt the Syrians, they fought with hym.
18 But the Syrians fled before Iſrael, and Dauid deſtroyed of the Syrians, ſeuen thouſand charets, & fourty thouſand footemen, and killed Sophac the captayne of the hoſt.
19 And when the ſeruantes of Hadarezer ſawe that they were put to the wooꝛſe before them of Iſrael, they made peace with Dauid, and became his ſeruantes: neyther would the Syrians helpe the chyldren of Ammon any more.

2 And Dauid tooke the crowne of theyr kyng

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and tormented them with sawes, and harowes of yron, & with other sharpe "instrumentes, and so dealt Dauid with all the cities of the chyldren of Ammon. And Dauid and all the people came agayne to Hierusalem.

4 After this, "there arose warre at Gazer, with the Philistines: at whiche tyme Sabechai the Husathite slue Sippai that was of the chyldren of Rephaim, and they were subdued.

¶ The xxi. Chapter.

1. Dauid causeth the people to be numbred. 14. And there dye seuentie thousande men of the pestilence.

1 AND Satan stoode vp agaynst Israel, & prouoked Dauid to number Israel.

2 And Dauid sayde to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Goe ye, & number Israel, from Beer-seba to Dan: & bring it to me, that I may know the number of them.

3 And Joab answered, The Lord make his people an hundred tymes so many moe as they be: but my lorde, O kyng, are they not al my lordes seruantes? why then doeth my lorde requyre this thyng? why wyl my lord be a cause of a trespasse to Israel?

4 Neuertheless, the kynges woorde preuailed agaynst Joab: and Joab departed, and walked throughout al them of Israel, and came to Hierusalem againe,

5 And gaue the summe of the number of the people vnto Dauid: and al they of Israel were a thousand thousand, and an hundred thousand men that drue swoorde: and Juda was foure hundred, threescore, & ten thousande men that drue swoorde.

6 But the Leuites and Beniamin counted he not among them; for the kynges woorde was abominable to Joab.

7 And the Lorde was displeased with this thyng, and smote Israel.

8 And Dauid sayde vnto God, "I haue sinned exceedyngly in dooyng this thyng: and nowe I beseech thee, doo away the wickednesse of thy seruant, for I haue doone very foolishly. "2.Sa.24.9

9 And the Lorde spake vnto Gad, Dauids "Seer, saying, "Or, prophete.

10 Goe, and tel Dauid, saying, Thus sayth the Lorde, I geue thee the choyse of three thynges: choose thee one of them, that I may doo vnto thee.

11 And Gad came to Dauid, and sayd vnto hym, Thus sayth the Lorde, Choose thee

12 Either three yeeres famine, or three monethes to be destroyed before thine aduersaries, and that the swoorde of thyne enimies may ouertake thee, or els the swoorde of the Lord, and pestilence in the land three dayes, and the angel of the Lorde destroying throwout all the coastes of Israel: and nowe aduise thee selfe what woorde I shal bring agayne to hym that sent me.

13 And Dauid sayde vnto Gad, I am in an exceedyng strayte: let me fal nowe into the hande of the Lorde (for passyng great is his mercies) but let me not fal into the hand of men.

14 So the Lord sent pestilence vpon Israel: and there were ouerthrowē of Israel threescore and ten thousande men.

15 "And God sent the angel vnto Hierusalem to destroy it: and as he was about to destroy, the Lord beheld, and had compassion on the euyll, and sayde to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, let now thy hand ceasse. And the angel of the lord stood by the threashyng flooze of "Ornan the Jebusite. "2.Sa.24.16. "Or, Araunah.

16 And Dauid lyft vp his eyes, and sawe the angel of the Lorde stande betweene the earth and heauen, hauing a drawen swoorde in his hande, stretched out towarde Hierusalem: then Dauid and the elders of Israel which were clothed in sacke, fel vpon their faces.

17 And Dauid sayde vnto God, Is it not I that commaunded the people to be numbred? It is I that haue synned, and doone euyll in deede: and what haue these Shepe doone? Let thyne hande, O Lord my God, be on me, & on my fathers house: but b not on thy people, that they should be punished. b. Thus he shewed true repentance, and a fatherly care towarde his people.

Lorde in the threshyng floore of Ornan the Iebusite.

19 And Dauid went vp, according to the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the Lorde.

20 And Ornan turned about, and sawe the angel, and his foure sonnes were with him, and hyd them selues: but Ornan was threshyng wheate.

21 And as Dauid came to Ornan, Ornan looked, and sawe Dauid, and went out of the threshyng floore, and bowed hym selfe to Dauid, with his face to the grounde.

22 And Dauid sayde to Ornan, Geue me the place of the threshyng floore, that I may buylde an aulter ther in vnto the Lord: thou shalt geue it me for as much money as it is worth, that the plague may ceasse from the people.

23 And Ornan sayde vnto Dauid, Take it to thee, and let my lorde the kyng do that whiche seemeth good in his eyes: Loe, I geue thee Oxen also for whole burnt sacrifices, and threshyng instrumnents for wood, and wheate for meate offering, I geue it al.

24 And kyng Dauid sayde to Ornan, Not so, but I wyl buye it for as much money as it is worth: for I wyl not take that which is thyne for the Lord, nor offer whole burnt offerynges without cost.

*2.Sam.24 24. 25 *And so Dauid gaue to Ornan for that place sicles of gold, sixe hundred by weight.

26 And Dauid buylte there an aulter vnto the Lorde, & offered whole burnt offerings, and peace offerynges, and called vpon the Lorde, and he hearde hym from heauen in a fyre vpon the aulter of whole burnt offring.

27 And when the Lorde had spoken to the angel, he put vp his sworde agayne into the sheathe of it.

28 At that time, when Dauid sawe that the Lord had heard hym in the threshyng floore of Ornan the Iebusite, he vsed to offer there:

29 (For the tabernacle of the Lord whiche Moses made in the wyldernes, and the aulter of whole burnt offeryng, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon:

¶ The xxi. Chapter.

3. Dauid prepareth thynges necessarie for the buyldyng of the temple.

1 AND Dauid sayde, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the aulter for the whole burnt offering of Israel.

2 And Dauid commaunded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel, and he set Masons to hewe and pullyth stones for the buyldyng of the house of God.

3 And Dauid prepared plentie of iron for nailes, and doores of the gates, and to ioyne withal, and abundance of braſſe without weyght.

4 And Cedar trees without number: for the Sidons & they of Tyre brought much Cedar wood to Dauid.

5 And Dauid sayde, Solomon my sonne is young & tender, and the house that is to be buylded for the Lorde, must be magnificall, excellent, and of great fame and dignitie throughout all countreys: I wyll therfore make ordinaunces for it. And so Dauid prepared many thinges before his death.

6 And he called Solomon his sonne, and charged hym to buylde an house for the Lord God of Israel.

7 And Dauid sayde to Solomon, My sonne, I thought in my hart to buylde an house vnto the name of the Lorde my GOD:

8 But the woorde of the Lorde came to me, saying, Thou hast shed * much blood, and hast made great battelles: thou shalt therfore not buylde an house vnto my name, for thou hast shed muche blood vpon the earth in my syght.

9 Beholde, a sonne is borne to thee, and he shalbe a man of rest, for I wyl geue him rest from all his enimies rounde about: for his name is Solomon, and I wyl send rest and peace vpon Israel in his dayes.

10 He shal buylde an house for my name, and he shalbe my sonne, and I wil be his father, and I wyll establyshe the seate of his kyngdome vpon Israel for euer.

11 Nowe therefore my sonne, the Lorde be with thee, and prosper thee, and thou shalt buylde an house to the Lorde thy God, as he hath sayde of thee.

12 And the Lorde shall geue thee wysedome and vnderstandyng, & shal geue thee * commaundementes for Israel, that thou mayest keepe the lawe of the Lorde thy GOD.

13 For then thou shalt prosper, euen when thou takest heede, and fulfyllest the statutes and lawes whiche the Lorde charged Moses with for Israel: plucke vp thyne hart therefore, and be strong, dread not, nor be discouraged.

14 Beholde, according to my powertie haue I also prepared for the house of the Lorde an hundred thousande talentes of golde, and a thousande thousande talentes of syluer:

siluer: and as for brasse and iron, it can not be numbred (for it is very muche) and I haue prepared timber and stone: and thou mayest prouide more thereto.

15 Moreouer, thou hast workemen with thee ynowe, and Masons, and Carpenters, to worke in stone and timber, & many men that be actiue for euery worke.

16 And of golde, siluer, brasse, and iron, there is no number: vp therefore and be doing, and the Lorde shalbe with thee.

17 And Dauid commaunded al the lordes of Israel to helpe Solomon his sonne, saying, 18 Is not the Lord your God with you? and hath he not geuen you rest on euery side? for he hath geuen the inhabitours of the lande into my hande, and the land is subdued before the Lorde, and before his people.

19 Nowe therefore let your hartes and your soules to seeke the Lorde your God: vp, and buylde ye the temple of the Lorde God, to bryng the arke of the couenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God, into the house to buylt for the name of the Lorde.

¶ The.xxiii. Chapter.

19 Al he sayde was geuen me by writyng of the hande of the Lorde, which made me vnderstande al the workemanship of the paterne.

20 And Dauid said to Solomon his sonne, Be strong, and of good courage, & doo manfully: feare not, nor be faynt harted, for the Lorde God, euen my GOD, is with ther, and he shal not fayle thee, nor forsake ther, vntyl thou hast finished al the worke that must serue for the house of the Lorde.

4 And because I haue lust to the house of my GOD, I haue of myne owne pꝛoper good, of golde and syluer whiche I haue geuen to the house of my God, besyde all that I haue pꝛepared foꝛ the holy house,

5 Euen three thousande talentes of gold of Ophir, and seuen thousande talentes of tried syluer, to ouerlay the walles of the house withall.

6 The golde, foꝛ thinges of golde, syluer, foꝛ them of siluer, and foꝛ al manner of wooꝛke by the handes of artificers: and whosoeuer is a wylling, may this day b consecrate his hande vnto the Loꝛde.

a. Be wyl not only liberal ynn selfe to-ward the buil-dyng of Gods house, but also prouoked o-thers.

b. That is, may offer to the buyldyng of the house of the Lorde.

6 And so the auncient fathers, and the loꝛds of the tribes of Israel, the captaynes of thousandes, and hundꝛedes, with the loꝛdes that were rulers ouer the kynges wooꝛke, were wyllyng:

7 And gaue foꝛ the seruice of the house of God, fiue thousande talentes of golde, and ten thousande peeces of golde, and ten thousand talentes of siluer, and eyghteene thousand talentes of brasse, & one hundꝛed thousande talentes of iron.

8 And they with whom pꝛetious stones were founde, gaue them to the treasure of the house of the Loꝛde, by the hande of Iehiel the Gersonite.

9 And the people reioyced when they were so wyllyng to geue theyꝛ goodes, and with a perfect hart they offered wyllyngly to the Loꝛde, and Dauid the kyng reioyced with great gladnesse.

10 And Dauid blessed the Loꝛde before all the congregation, and said, Blessed be thou Loꝛde God of Israel, our father, from euer and foꝛ euer.

11 Thyne, O Loꝛde, is greatnesse, and poꝛwer, gloꝛy, victoꝛy, and pꝛaise: foꝛ al that is in heauen and in earth, is thyne, and thine is the kyngdome, O Loꝛde, and thou excellest aboue al, euen as the head of all.

12 And richesse and honour come of thee, and thou raignest ouer al, and in thyne hande is poꝛwer and strength, and in thyne hande it is to make great, and to geue strength vnto al.

13 And nowe our God, we thanke thee, and pꝛayse thy gloꝛious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we shoulde be able to geue these things so wyllyngly? but al thinges come of thee, and of that whiche we receiued at thyne hande, we haue geuen thee.

15 Foꝛ we be but strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: * our daies on the earth also are but as a shadow, and there is none abydyng.

16 O Loꝛde our God, all this stuffe that we haue pꝛepared to buylde thee an house foꝛ thy holy name, commeth of thyne hand, and is al thyne.

17 I wote also my GOD, that thou tryest the hartes, and hast pleasure in vnfaignednesse: and in the vnfaignednesse of myne hart, I haue willingly offered al these thinges: and nowe haue I seene thy people whiche are founde here to offer vnto thee wyllyngly, and with gladnesse.

18 O Loꝛde God of Abꝛaham, Isahac, and of Israel our fathers, c keepe this foꝛ euer in the desyꝛe of the thoughtes of the hart of thy people, and pꝛepare theyꝛ hartes vnto thee.

c. Confirme them in this good mynde, that they may serue thee wil-lyngly.

19 And geue vnto Solomon my sonne a perfect hart, to keepe thy commaundements, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do al, and builde the house foꝛ the whiche I haue made pꝛouision.

20 And Dauid sayde to all the congregation, Nowe blesse the Loꝛde your GOD. And al the congregation blessed the Loꝛde God of theyꝛ fathers, and bowed downe theyꝛ heades, and wooꝛshypped the Loꝛd, and the kyng.

21 And they offered offerynges vnto the Loꝛde: and on the moꝛowe after the sayde day, they offered whole burnt offerynges vnto the Loꝛde, euen a thousande young Oxen, a thousande Rammes, and a thousande sheepe, with theyꝛ drynke offerynges, many sacrifices offered they foꝛ al Israel, 22 And dyd eate and drinke before the Loꝛd the same day with great gladnesse, and they made Solomon the sonne of Dauid kyng the second tyme, and annoynted him pꝛince before the Loꝛde, and Zadoc to be the hygh pꝛiest.

23 And Solomon sate on the seate of the Loꝛde, and was kyng in steade of Dauid his father, and pꝛospered, and al they of Israel obeyed hym.

24 And all the Loꝛdes, and men of power, and al the sonnes of kyng Dauid, submitted them selues, & were vnder kyng Solomon.

25 And the Loꝛd magnified Solomon in dignitie, in the syght of al them of Israel, and

gaue hym so glorious a kyngdome, as no kyng had before hym in Israel.

*3.kin.2.11. 26 * And so Dauid the sonne of Isai raigned ouer al Israel.

27 And the space that he raigned ouer Israel, was fourtie yeeres: Seuen yeres raigned he in Hebron, and thyrtie and three yeeres raigned he in Hierusalem.

28 And he dyed in a good age, ful of dayes, ryches, and honour: and Solomon his sonne raigned in his steade.

6. The offeryng of Solomon at Gibeon. 8. He prayeth vnto God to geue hym wysedome, 11. vvhiche he geueth hym, and more. 14. The number of his charrettes and horses, 15. and of his rychesse.

1 AND "Solomon the sonne of Dauid waxed strong in his kyngdome, *and the Lorde his GOD was with hym, and magnified him" in dignitie.

"Or, Salomon.

*3.kin.3.1.

"Or, greatly.

2 And Solomon spake vnto al Israel, to the captaynes ouer thousandes, to the captaynes ouer hundredes, to the iudges, and to euery officer in al Israel, and to the auncient fathers.

3 And so Solomon, and al the congregation with hym, went to the hygh place that was at Gibeon, for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the seruant of the Lord made in the wildernesse.

4 But the arke of God had Dauid brought from Kiriath-iarim, into the place whiche Dauid had made therefore: for he had pitched a tent for it at Hierusalem.

*Exod.38.1 5 * Moreouer, the brasen aulter that Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur had made, was there before the tabernacle of the Lorde: and Solomon and the congregation went to visite it.

6 And Solomon went vp there before the Lorde, to the brasen aulter that was before the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousande whole burnt offeringes vpon it.

7 And the same nyght dyd God appeare vnto Solomon, and sayde vnto hym, Aske what I shal geue thee.

8 And Solomon sayd vnto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy vnto Dauid my father, and hast made me to raigne in his steade.

9 Nowe therefore, O Lorde God, let thy promise, which thou madest vnto Dauid my father, be true: * for thou hast made me kyng ouer a people whiche is lyke the dust of the earth in multitude:

*3.kin.3.9.

10 * Geue me nowe wysedome and knowledge, that I may be able to a goe in and out before this people: for who els can iudge this people that is so great?

*Sap.9.7.

a. That I may gouerne this people.

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine hart, and because thou hast not asked treasure, and richesse, nor honour, nor the b lyues of thyne enimies, neither yet long life, but hast asked wysdome & knowledge for thee selfe, to iudge my people, ouer whom I haue made thee kyng:

b. That is, to be reuenged on thine enimies.

12 Wisedome and knowledge is graunted vnto thee, and I wyl gene thee treasure, and rychesse, and glory: so that among the kynges that haue ben before thee, or after thee, none was or shalbe lyke thee.

13 And so Solomon came from the hygh place that was at Gibeon, to Hierusalem, from the tabernacle of the congregation, and raigned ouer Israel.

14 * And Solomon geathered charrets, and horsmen, and he had a thousande and foure hundred charrets, and twelue thousande horsmen, whom he bestowed in the charret cities, and with the kyng at Hierusalem.

*3.kin.10.28.

15 * And the king made siluer and golde at Hierusalem, as plenteous as stones, and Cedar trees made he as plentie as the Mulberie trees that growe in the valleys.

*3.kin.10.26.

16 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fyne lynnen: the kynges marchantes receiued the fyne linnen for a price.
17 They came also, and brought out of Egypt a charet for sixe hundred peeces of syluer, euen an horse for an hundred and fyftie: and so brought they horses for all the kinges of the Hethites, and for the kynges of Syria, by their owne hand.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

1. Solomon sendeth to Hiram the king of Tyrus for wood and woorkemen.

1 AND Solomon determined to builde an house for the name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdome.
2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to beare burdens, and fourescore thousande men to hewe stones in the mountayne, and a three thousand and sixe hundred to ouersee them.
3 *And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou diddest deale with Dauid my father, and didest send him Cedar wood to build him an house to dwell in euen so deale with me.
4 Beholde, I build an house for the name of the Lorde my God, to offer vnto him holy thinges, and to burne sweete incense, and to set shewe bread before him continually, to offer whole burnt sacrifices of the morning, and euening, on the Sabboth dayes, in the fyrst day of euery newe moone, and in the solemne feast dayes of the lord our God: for it is an ordinance to be continually kept of Israel.
5 And the house which I build shalbe great: for great is our God, aboue al goddes.
6 But who is able to build him an house? when that heauen, and heauen aboue all heauens is not able to receiue him, what am I then, that should builde him an house? nay, but euen to burne sacrifyce before him shall this building be.
7 Send me nowe therefore a cunnyng man that can woorke in golde, and siluer, in brasse, and iron, in purple, crymson, b yelow silke, & that can skill to graue with the cunning men that are with me in Iuda & Hierusalem, whom Dauid my father did prepare.
8 Send me also Cedar trees, Pine trees, and c Algume trees out of Libanon: for I wote that thy seruantes can skil to hewe timber in Libanon: and beholde my men shalbe with thyne, 9 That they may prepare me timber ynough: for the house which I am determined to build, shalbe woonderful great.
10 And beholde, for the vse of thy seruantes the cutters and hewers of tymber, I haue geuen twentie thousand measures of beaten wheate, & twentie thousand measures of barley, and twentie thousand battes of wine, and twentie thousand battes of oyle.
11 And Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the Lord hath loued his people, therefore hath he made thee king ouer them.
12 And Hiram saide moreouer, Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, whiche made heauen and earth, and that hath geuen Dauid the kyng a wyse sonne, and one that hath discretion, prudence, and vnderstandyng, to build an house for the Lorde, and a palace for his kingdome.
13 And nowe I haue sent a wyse man, and a man of vnderstandyng, whom my father Hiram dyd vse:
14 The sonne of a woman of the d daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, and he can skil to woorke in golde, and siluer, in brasse, and iron, in stone, and timber, in purple, and yelowe silke, & fine white, and crymson, and can graue sundry maner of grauinges, & to finde out diuers maners of subtyll woorke that shalbe set before him, with thy cunnyng men, and with the cunnyng men of my lord Dauid thy father.
15 Nowe therefore, the wheate, and barley, oyle, and wine, which my lord hath spoken of, let him send vnto his seruantes:
16 And we wyll cut wood in Libanon, as much as thou shalt neede, and wyll bring it to thee in flotes by sea to Japho, & thou mayest cary them to Hierusalem.
17 And Solomon numbred all the strangers that were in the lande of Israel, after the number of them whom his father Dauid had numbred: and they were found an hundred, fiftie, and three thousand, and sixe hundred.
18 And he set threescore and ten thousand to beare burdens, and fourtscore thousande to hewe stones in the mountayne, and three thousand and sixe hundred officers to sette the people a woorke.

d. It is also written that she was of the tribe of Nephthali. 3. king. 7. which may be vnderstand, that by reason of the confusion of tribes whiche then began to be, they maryed in diuers tribes. So that by her father she might be of Dan, and by her mother of Nephthali.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1. The temple of the Lorde, and the porche are builded, with other thinges thereto belonging.

1 AND Solomon began to builde e house of the Lorde at Hierusalem in mount a Moria, where the Lord appeared vnto Dauid his father, euen in the place that Dauid prepared in the threshing floore of f Ornan the Iebusite.

for, Araunah.

2 And he began to build in the ſecond day of the ſeconde moneth, the fourth yeere of his raigne.

3 And theſe are the patternes whereby Solomon was inſtruct to builde the houſe of God: the length was threeſcore cubites, after the olde meaſure, and the breadth twentie cubites.

4 And the porche that was before the length in the frunt, according to the breadth of the houſe, was twentie cubites, and the heyght was an hundred and twentie cubites: and he ouerlayd it on the inner ſyde with pure golde.

5 And the greater houſe he ſeeled with Fyre tree, whiche he ouerlayd with the beſt golde, and graued thereto Paulme trees, and chaynes.

6 And he ouerlayd the houſe with pretious ſtone beautifully: and the golde was golde of Paruaim.

7 The houſe I ſay, the beames, poſtes, walles, and doores thereof, ouerlayde he with golde, and graued Cherubims on the walles.

8 And he made the houſe moſt holy: whoſe length was twentie cubites, like to the breadth of the houſe, and the breadth thereof was alſo twentie cubites: and he ouerlayde it with good gold, euen with ſixe hundred talentes.

9 And the wayght of the nayles of gold was fyftie ſicles: and he ouerlayde the vpper chambers with gold.

10 And in the houſe moſt holy, he made two Cherubims of image worke, like children, and ouerlayd them with golde.

11 And the winges of the Cherubims were twētie cubites long: the one wyng was fiue cubites, reaching to the wall of the houſe: and the other wyng was likewyſe fiue cubites, reachyng to the wyng of the other Cherub.

12 And euen ſo the one wyng of the other Cherub was fyue cubites, reaching to the wall of the houſe: and the other wyng was fyue cubites alſo, and reached to the wyng of the other Cherub.

13 So that the wynges of the ſayde Cherubims were ſtretched out twentie cubites: and they ſtoode on theyr feete, and looked inwardes.

*Mat. 27.51 14 * And he made a forehangyng of "yelow ſilke, purple, crimſon, and fine white, and cauſed the pictures of Cherubims to be brodered thereon.

*Iere. 52. 21 15 And he made before the houſe * two pilers of thirtie and fiue cubites high, and the head that was aboue on the toppe of euery one of them, was fiue cubites.

16 And he made chaynes of wreathen worke for the quier, and put them on the heades of the pillers, and made an hundred Pomegranates, and put them on the chaynes.

17 And he reared vp the pillers before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left: and called the ryght Iachin, and the left Boaz.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

1. The aulter of braſſe. 2. The lauatorie. 4. The caldrons. 7. The candelſtickes. &c.

1 AND he made an * aulter of braſſe, twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites brode, and ten cubites high. *3.kin.7.

2 And he caſt a braſen lauatorie of tenne cubites frō brim to brim, round in compaſſe, and fiue cubites hygh, and a line of thyrtie cubites did compaſſe it round about.

3 And vnder it, was the faſhion of Oxen, whiche dyd compaſſe it round about: with ten cubites dyd they compaſſe the lauatorie round about, and there were two rowes of Oxen, which were caſt like molten worke.

4 And it ſtood alſo vpon twelue Oxen: three looked toward the North, three toward the Weſt, three toward the South, and three toward the Eaſt, and the lauatorie was ſet vpon them: and all their backes were toward the lauatorie.

5 And the thickneſſe of it, was an hand breadth, and the brim like ỹ brim of a cup, with flowres of Lyllies, and it receiued and held three thouſand battes.

6 And he made ten lauers, and put fiue on the ryght hand, and fiue on ỹ left, to waſhe and cleanſe in them ſuche thinges as they offered for a whole burnt offering: but the great lauatorie was for the prieſtes to waſh in.

7 And he made ten candleſtickes of gold, according to the patterne that was geuen of them, and put them in the temple, fyue on the ryght hand, and fyue on the left.

8 And he made alſo ten tables, and put them in the temple, fiue on the right ſide, and fiue on the left: and he made an hundred baſons of golde.

9 And he made the court of the prieſtes, and the great court, and doores to it, and ouerlayd the doores of them with braſſe.

10 And he ſet the great lauatorie on the right ſide of the Eaſt ende, ouer againſt the South.

11 And Hiram made pottes, ſhouelles, and baſons, and finiſhed the worke that he was appoynted to make for king Solomon in the houſe of God.

13 And foure hundred pomegranates on the two wreathes: two rowes of pomegranates on one wreathe, to couer the two bowles of the pommels.

14 And he made two bottomes, and lauers made he vpon the bottomes.

15 The great lauatorie, and twelue Oxen vnder it.

16 Pottes also, shouels, and fleshhookes: and al these vessels did Hyram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the Lord, of bright brasse.

17 In the playne of Iordane did the kyng cast them, euen in the clay grounde that is betweene Socoth and Saredatha.

18 And Solomon made al these vesselles in great abundance, for the waight of brasse coulde not be reckoned.

19 And Solomon made al the vesselles that were for the house of God, the golden aulter also, and the tables to set the b shewe bread vpon.

20 Moreouer, the candelsticks, with their lampes to burne, after the manner before the quyer, and that of pretious golde.

21 And the flowres, and the lampes, and the snuffers, made he of golde, and that perfect golde.

22 And the " dressing knives, basons, spoones, and censers, of pure golde: and the doore of the temple, and the inner doores within the place most holy, and the inner doores of the temple were gylted.

The thynges dedicated by Dauid, are put in the temple.

1 AND so al the woorke that Solomon made in the house of the Lorde was finished: " and Solomon brought in all the thynges that Dauid his father had dedicated, with the siluer and golde, and all the iewels, and put them among the treasures of the house of God.

" 1. kin. 7. 51.

2 Then Solomon gathered the elders of Israel togeather, and al the heades of the tribes and auncient fathers of the children of Israel, vnto Hierusalem, to bring the arke of the couenant of the Lorde out of the citie of Dauid, which is in Sion.

3 Wherefore, all the men of Israel resorted vnto the kyng, in the feast, euen in the a seuenth moneth.

a September

4 And all the elders of Israel came, and the Leuites tooke vp the arke.

5 And the priestes & the Leuites brought away the arke of the tabernacle of the congregation, and al the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, and they bare them.

6 And king Solomon, and al the congregation of Israel, that were assembled vnto hym before the arke, offred sheepe and oxen, so many, that they coulde not be tolde, nor numbred, for multitude.

7 And the priestes brought the arke of the couenant of the Lorde vnto his place, euen into the quyer of the temple, within the place most holy, and set it vnder the winges of the Cherubims,

8 So that the Cherubims stretched out their wynges ouer the place of the arke, and the Cherubims couered both the arke and her barres aboue on hygh.

9 And the barres of the arke were so long, that the " heades of the barres were seene without the arke, within the quyer, but not without, and there the arke remayned vnto this day.

" Or, endes.

10 But there was nothyng in the arke, saue the two tables whiche Moses put therein at Horeb, when the Lorde made a couenant with the children of Israel, after they were come out of Egypt.

11 And when the priestes were come out of the holy place (for al the priestes that were present, were sanctified, and dyd not then wayte by course:

12 That both the Leuites and the syngers, vnder Asaph, Heman, and Idithun, were appointed to sundry offices, with their children and brethren, and were arayed in fyne whyte, hauyng Cymbales, Psalteries, and Harpes, and stoode at the east ende of the aulter, and by them an hundred and twentie priestes blowyng with trumpets:

13 And the trumpet blowers, and the singers so agreed, that it seemed but one voyce in prayesyng and thankyng the Lorde, and when they lyft vp their voyce with the Trumpets, Cymbales, and other instrumentes of musicke, and when they prayesed the Lorde howe that he is good, and that his mercy lasteth euer:) the house of God was filled with a cloude, 14 So that the priestes coulde not endure to minister by the reason of the cloude: for the Maiestie of the Lorde had filled the house of God.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1. Solomon blesseth the people. 4. He prayseth the Lorde. 14. He prayeth vnto God for those that shal pray in the temple.

1 Then

THen Solomon sayde, * The Lord hath spoken, howe that he wyl dwell in the darke cloude.

2 And I haue built thee an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for euer.

3 And the kyng turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel (and al the congregation of Israel stoode.)

4 And he sayde, Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, whiche hath with his "handes fulfylled it that he spake with his mouth to my father Dauid, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought my people out of the lande of Egypt, I chose no citie among all the tribes of Israel to builde an "house in, that my name might be there, neither chose I any man to be a ruler ouer my people Israel:

6 Sauing that I haue chosen Hierusalem, that my name myght be there, and haue chosen Dauid to be ouer my people Israel.

7 And when it was in the hart of Dauid my father, to buylde an house for the name of the Lorde God of Israel,

8 The Lord sayd to Dauid my father, For as muche as it was in thyne hart to builde an house for my name, thou diddest well that thou thoughtest in thyne hart.

9 Notwithstanding, thou shalt not builde the house: but thy sonne, whiche shal come out of thy loynes, he shal builde an house for my name.

10 The Lorde therfore hath made good his saying that he hath spoken: and I am rysen vp in the roome of Dauid my father, and am set on the seate of Israel, as the Lord promysed, and haue built an house for the name of the Lorde God of Israel.

11 And in it haue I put the arke, wherein is the a couenant of the Lord that he made with the chyldren of Israel.

12 And the kyng stoode before the aulter of the Lord, in the presence of al the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands:

13 (For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold of fiue cubites long, and fiue cubites brode, and three of height, and had set it in the myddes of the great court, and vppon it he stoode, and kneeled downe vpon his knees, before al the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his handes towarde heauen,)

14 And sayd, * O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heauen nor in earth, whiche keepest couenant, and shewest mercie vnto thy seruantes that walke before thee with al their hartes.

15 Thou whiche hast kept with thy seruant Dauid my father, the thinges that thou promisedst him: thou saydest it with thy mouth, and hast fulfylled it with thine handes, as it is to see this day.

16 And nowe Lorde God of Israel, keepe with thy seruant Dauid my father, the thynges that thou promisedst him, saying, Thou shalt in my syght not be without a man that shal sit vpon the seate of Israel, so that thy chyldren take heede to their wayes, to walke in my lawe, as thou hast walked before me.

17 And nowe Lorde God of Israel, let thy saying be true, whiche thou spakest vnto thy seruant Dauid.

18 (And wyl God in very deede dwel with men on earth? Beholde, heauen, and heauen aboue all heauens, doo not conteyne thee, howe muche lesse the house whiche I haue builded?)

19 Let it be thy pleasure therfore to turne to the prayer of thy seruant, and to his supplication, O Lorde my God, to hearken vnto the voyce and prayer whiche thy seruant prayeth before thee.

20 And let thyne eyes be open toward this house day and nyght, ouer this place wherof thou hast sayde, that thou wouldest put thy name there, to hearken vnto the prayer whiche thy seruant prayeth in this place.

21 Hearken vnto the prayers of thy seruant, and of thy people Israel, whiche they pray in this place, heare thou, I say, out of thy dwelling place, euen out of heauen, heare, and be mercyful.

22 If a man sinne b agaynst his neyghbour, and take an othe agaynst hym, and make him to sweare, and the othe come before thyne aulter in this house:

23 Then heare thou from heauen, and doo and iudge thy seruantes, that thou reward the vngodlye, and recompence him his way vpon his head, and iustifie the righteous, and geue hym accordyng to his righteousnesse.

24 And if thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enimie, because they haue sinned agaynst thee: yet yf they turne and geue thankes vnto thy name, & make intercession, and pray before thee in this house:

25 Then heare thou from heauen, and be mercyful vnto the sinne of thy people Israel, and bryng them agayne vnto the lande whiche thou gauest to them and to their fathers.

26 When heauen is shut vp, and there be no raine, because they haue sinned against thee: yet yf they pray in this place, and confesse thy name, and repent from their sinne, for the which thou chastenest them:

28 And yf * there be dearth in the lande, or pestilence, corruption, or blasting of corne, Grashoppers, or Caterpillers, or that theyr enimies beseege them in the a cities of theyr land, or whatsoeuer plague or sickneſſe it be:

29 Then what supplications and prayers so euer shalbe made of any man, and of all thy people Israel, when euery one shall know his owne sore, & his owne greefe, and shall stretch out their handes towarde this house:

30 Thou shalt heare from heauen, euen from thy dwelling place, and shalt be mercifull, and geue euery man according vnto all his wayes, as thou dooest knowe euery mans hart: (for thou b onely knowest the hartes of the children of men,)

31 That they may feare thee, and walke in thy wayes, as long as they liue in the land which thou gauest vnto our fathers.

32 Moreouer, the stranger whiche is not of thy people Israel, yf he come from a farre land for thy great names sake, & thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arme: yf they come, I say, and pray in c this house, 33 Thou shalt heare from heauen, euen from thy dwelling place, and shalt doo according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may knowe thy name, and feare thee, as dooth thy people Israel, and that they may knowe how that in this house which I haue built, thy name is called vpon.

34 Yf thy people goe out to warre agaynst their enimies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray to thee in the way towarde this citie which thou hast chosen, euen toward the house which I haue built for thy name:

35 Then heare thou from heauen their supplication and prayer, and helpe them in their right.

36 Yf they sinne agaynst thee (as there is * no man but he dooth sinne) and thou be angry with them, and deliuer them ouer before their enimies, and they take them, and cary them away captiues vnto a land farre or neare:

37 Yet yf they repent in theyr hart, in the land where they be in captiuitie, and turne and pray vnto thee in the lande of their captiuitie, saying, We haue sinned, we haue done euill and wickedly:

38 And turne agayne to thee with all theyr hart, and all theyr soule, in the land of theyr captiuitie where they keepe them in bondage, and so pray toward their land which thou gauest vnto their fathers, euen toward the citie whiche thou hast chosen, and toward the house whiche I haue built for thy name:

39 Then heare thou from heauen, euen from thy dwelling place, their supplication and theyr prayer, and iudge their cause, and be mercifull vnto thy people whiche haue sinned agaynst thee.

40 Nowe my God, let thyne eyes be open, and thyne eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 * Now vp, O Lord God, into thy d resting place, thou, and the arke of thy strength: O Lorde God, let thy priestes be clothed with health, and let thy saintes reioyce in goodnesse.

42 O Lord God turne not away the face of thyne e annoynted: remember the mercies which thou hast promised to Dauid thy seruant.

e. Heare my prayer, which am thyne annoynted kyng.

¶ The.vii. Chapter.

1. The fyre consumeth the sacrifyce. 2. The glory of the Lorde filleth the temple.

1 AND when * Solomon had made an end of praying, there came downe fyre from heauen, and consumed the whole burnt offering, and the sacrifyces, and the house was filled with the glory of the Lord.

*2.Mac.2.10.

2 And the priestes could not goe into the house of the Lorde, because the glory of the Lorde had fylled the Lordes house.

3 And when all the chyldren of Israel sawe howe the fyre and the glory of the Lorde came downe vpon the house, they fel downe flat vpon theyr faces to the earth, vpon the pauement, and woorshipped, and confessed vnto the Lorde, That he is gratious, and that his mercie lasteth euer.

4 And the king, and all the people, offered sacrifices before the Lorde.

5 * And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twentie and two thousande Oxen, and an hundred and twentie thousande Sheepe: and so the king, and al the people, dedicated the house of God.

*3.kin.8.63.

6 And the priestes wayted on their offices, and the Leuites had the instrumentes of musicke of the Lorde, whiche king Dauid had made to confesse vnto the Lorde, That his mercie lasteth euer, Dauid praysyng God by them, and the priestes blewe with Trumpettes before them, and all they of Israel stoode.

7 More-

7 Moreouer, Solomon halowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lorde: for there he offered whole burnt offeringes, & the fat of the peace offeringes, because the brasen aulter whiche Solomon had made, was not able to receiue ỹ whole burnt offeringes, and the meate offeringes, and the fat.

a. That was the feast of tabernacles.

8 So at the same time Solomon kept a a feast of seuen dayes, and all Israel with him, an exceeding great congregation, euen from the entring in of Hamath, vnto the riuer of Egypt.

9 And in the eyght day, they made an assemblie: For they kept the dedication of the aulter seuen dayes, & the feast seuen dayes.

10 And the three and twentieth day of the seuenth moneth, he let the people depart into their tentes, glad and merry in hart, for the goodnesse that the Lorde had shewed to Dauid, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

*3.king.9.1. 11 *And so Solomon finished the house of the Lord, and al that came in his hart to make in the house of the Lorde, and in his owne house, went prosperously forward.

12 And the Lorde appeared to Solomon by nyght, and sayde to him, I haue heard thy

*Deut.12.5. petition, * and haue chosen this place for my selfe, to be an house of sacrifyce.

13 Yf I shutte vp heauen, that there be no rayne, or yf I commaund the Locustes to deuoure the lande, or yf I send pestilence among my people:

14 And yf my people, among whom my name is called vpō, do humble them selues, and make intercession, & seeke my presence, and turne from their wicked wayes: then wyll I heare from heauen, and be merciful to their sinne, and wyl b heale their land.

b. I wyll cause the pestilence to ceasse, & destroy the beasts that hurt the fruite of the earth, and sende rayne in due tyme.

15 And from henceforth myne eyes shalbe open, and myne eares attent vnto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 And therefore, nowe I haue chosen and sanctifyed this house, that my name may be there for euer: and myne eyes and myne hart shalbe there perpetually.

17 And yf thou wylt walke before me, as Dauid thy father walked, to doo all that I haue commaunded thee, and shalt obserue my statutes and my lawes:

18 Then wyll I stablishe the seate of thy kingdome, according as I made the couenant with Dauid thy father, saying, Thou shalt not be without a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 But yf ye turne away, and forsake my statutes and my commaundements which I haue set before you, and shall goe, and serue other goddes, and worship them:

20 Then wyll I plucke them vp by the rootes, out of my land which I haue geuen them, and this house whiche I haue sanctified for my name, wil I cast out of my sight, and wyll make it to be a prouerbe and a iest among all nations.

21 And this house, which is most high, shalbe an astonishment to euery one that passeth by, and shal say, Why hath the Lorde dealt on this fashion with this lande, and with this house?

22 And they shall answeare, Because they forsooke the Lorde GOD of their fathers, whiche brought them out of the land of Egypt, and caught hold on others gods, and worshipped them, and serued them, therefore he hath brought al this euil vpon them.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

1. The cities that Solomon built. 12. His sacrifices which he offered.

*3.kin.9.a. Signifying that he was twentie yeres in building them.

1 AND * after a twentie yeeres, when Solomon had built the house of the Lord, and his owne house:

2 He built the cities that Hiram gaue hym, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

b Other read he ouercame.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath Zoba, b and strengthed it.

4 And he built Thadmor in the wildernesse, and repayred all the store cities which were in Hamath.

5 And he built Bethhoron the vpper, and Bethhoron the neather, strong cities, hauyng walles, gates, and barres:

6 And Baalah, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the charet cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and euery pleasant place that Solomon had lust to builde in Hierusalem, and Libanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 And al the people that were left of the Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites, whiche were not of the children of Israel,

8 But were the children of them which were left after them in the lande, and were not consumed of ỹ children of Israel, them dyd Solomon make to pay tribute, vntyll this day.

9 But of the children of Israel, dyd Solomon make no seruantes for his worke: but they were men of warre, and rulers, and great lordes with him, and captaynes ouer his charets and horsemen.

*3.kin.9. 10 *And king Solomons officers that ouersawe and ruled the people, were two hundred and fyftie.

11 And Solomon brought the daughter of of Pharao out of the citie of Dauid, into the house that he had buylded for her: for he sayd, My wyfe shal not dwel in the house of Dauid kyng of Israel, for it is holy, because that the arke of the Lorde is come vnto it.

12 Then Solomon offered whole burnt offerynges vnto the Lorde, on the aulter of the Lorde, whiche he had buylte before the porche:

13 Doing euery thing in his due tyme, and offeryng according to the commaundement of Moses, in the Sabbothes, new Moones, and solemne feastes, three tymes in the yere, that is to say, in the feast of sweete bread, in the feast of weekes, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 And Solomon set the sortes of priestes to their offices, as Dauid his father had ordered them, and the Leuites in their watches, for to prayse and minister before the priests day by day, & the porters by course at euery gate: for so had Dauid the man of God commaunded.

15 And they omitted not the commaundement of the kyng vnto the Priestes and Leuites, concernyng any maner of thyng, and concernyng the treasures.

16 For Solomon made prouision for the charges, from the first day that the fundation of the house of the Lorde was layde, tyll it was finished, that the house of the Lorde was perfect.

17 Then went kyng Solomon to Esion Gaber, and to Eloth at the sea syde in the lande of Edom.

18 And Hiram sent him, by the handes of his seruantes, shyppes, and seruantes that had knowledge of the sea: and they went with the seruantes of Solomon to Ophir, and caried thence foure hundred & fyftie talents of golde, and brought it to kyng Solomon.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1. 9. The queene of Saba commeth to see Solomon, and bryngeth gyftes.

1 AND when the queene of Saba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to proone hym in harde questions at Hierusalem, with a very great companie, with Camels that bare spyces, & plentie of gold, and pretious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with hym of al that she had in her hart.

2 And Solomon soiled her al her questions, and there was not one woorde hyd from Solomon, whiche he tolde her not.

3 And when the queene of Saba had seene the wysedome of Solomon, and the house that he had buylt,

4 And the meate of his table, the syttyng of his seruantes, and the standyng of his wayters, their apparel, his butlers, their apparel, [a] his goyng vp by the which he went into the house of the Lord: there was no more spirite in her.

5 And she sayde to the kyng, The saying which I heard in myne owne land of thyne [b] actes, and of thy wysedome, is true.

6 I beleeued not the woordes of them, vntil I came, and myne eyes had seene it: and beholde, the one halfe of thy wysedome was not tolde me: for thou exceedest the fame that I hearde.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy seruantes whiche stande before thee alway, and heare thy wysedome.

8 Blessed be the Lorde thy God, whiche had lust to thee, to set thee king on his seate, that thou myghtest be kyng for the Lorde thy GOD: because thy GOD loueth Israel, to make them continue euer, therfore made he thee kyng ouer them, to doo ryght and equitie.

9 And she gaue the king an hundred & twentie talentes of golde, and of spices exceedyng great abundance, and pretious stones: neyther was there any more suche spyce as the queene of Saba gaue kyng Solomon.

10 And the seruantes of Hiram, and the seruantes of Solomon, which brought golde from Ophir, brought also Algume wood, and pretious stones.

11 And the kyng made of the Algume wood stayres in the house of the Lorde, and in the kyngs palace, and Harpes, and Psalteries for Syngers: and there was none suche wood seene before in the lande of Juda.

12 And kyng Solomon gaue to the queene of Saba euery pleasant thyng that she asked, [a] beside that which she had brought vnto the kyng: and so she turned, and went away to her owne land with her seruantes.

13 The weight of golde that came to Solomon in one yeere, was syxe hundred, threescore, and syxe talentes of golde.

14 Beside that whiche chapmen and marchantes brought: and al the kynges of Arabia, and rulers of that countrey, brought golde and syluer to Solomon.

15 And kyng Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde: and syxe hundred sicles of beaten golde were spent vpon one target.

16 And three hundred shieldes made he of beaten golde: and three hundred peeces of golde went to one shielde: and the kyng put them in the house that was in the forrest of 17 And the kyng made a great ſeate of Iuorie, and ouerlayde it with pure golde.

18 And there were ſyxe ſteppes to the ſeate, with a footſtoole of golde faſtened to the ſeate: and pommelles on eache ſyde of the ſyttyng place, and two Lions ſtandyng by the pommelles.

19 And twelue Lions ſtoode on the one ſyde and on the other vppon the ſyxe ſteppes: ſo that there was no ſuche woorke made in any kyngdome.

20 And al the drynkyng veſſelles of kyng Solomon were of gold, and al the veſſelles of the houſe that was in the foreſt of Libanon were of pretious golde: for ſyluer was counted nothyng woorth in the dayes of Solomon.

21 For the kynges ſhyppes went to Tharſis with the ſeruants of Hiram, euery three yeeres once came the ſhyppes to Tharſis, and brought golde, ſyluer, Iuorie, and Apes, and Pecockes.

22 And kyng Solomon paſſed al the kyngs of the earth in ryches and wyſedome.

23 And al the kyngs of the earth ſought the preſence of Solomon, to heare his wyſedome that God had put in his hart.

24 And they brought euery man his preſent, veſſels of ſyluer, and veſſels of golde, rayment, harneſſe, ſpyces, horſes, and Mules, yeere by yeere.

*3.kin.4.26 25 *And Solomon had "foure thouſande ſtables for horſes and charrets, and twelue thouſande horſemen: whom he beſtowed in the charret cities, and ſome were with the kyng at Hieruſalem.

26 And he raigned ouer al the kynges that were from Euphrates vnto the lande of the Philiſtines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the king made ſyluer in Hieruſalem as plenteous as ſtones, and Cedar trees as plenteous as the Mulberie trees that growe in the valleys.

28 And they brought vnto Solomon horſes out of Egypt, and out of al landes.

29 The reſt of the actes of kyng Solomon fyrſt and laſt, are they not wrytten in the ſayinges of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecie of Ahia the Silonite, and in the viſions of Iddo the Sear of viſions, agaynſt Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat?

30 And Solomon raigned in Hieruſalem vpon al Iſrael fourtie yeeres.

31 And Solomon ſlept with his fathers, and they buryed hym in the citie of Dauid his father, and Roboam his ſonne raigned in his ſtead.

The x. Chapter.

4. The rigour of Roboam 13. He forſaketh leude counſel. 16. The people rebel.

1 AND *Roboam went to Sichem: for to Sichem were al Iſrael come together to make hym kyng. *3.kin.12.1

2 And when Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat (whiche was fled into Egypt from the preſence of Solomon the kyng) heard it, he returned out of Egypt.

3 And they ſent and called hym: And ſo Ieroboam & all they of Iſrael came, and communed with Roboam, ſaying, 4 Thy father layde a greeuous yoke vppon vs: nowe therefore remit thou ſomewhat of the greeuous ſeruice of thy father, and of his heauie yoke that he put vppon vs, and we wyl ſerue thee.

5 And he ſayd vnto them, Come agayne vnto me after three dayes. And the people departed.

6 And kyng Roboam counſelled with the elders that had ſtande before Solomon his father, whyle he yet lyued, & he ſaide, What counſell geue ye me to anſweare this people agayne?

7 And they tolde hym, ſaying, If thou be kynde to this people, and thewe thy ſelfe lowly to them, and ſpeake louyng woordes to them, they wyl be thy ſeruantes for euer.

8 But he left the counſell whiche the elders gaue hym, and toke counſel with the yong men that were growen vp with hym, and a that ſtoode in his preſence.

a. Which were of his counſel and ſeruāts.

9 And he ſayde vnto them, What aduice geue ye, that we may anſweare this people, whiche haue communed with me, ſaying, Abate ſomewhat of the yoke whiche thy father dyd put vpon vs?

10 And the yong men that were growen vp with hym, ſpake vnto hym, ſaying, Thus ſhalt thou anſweare the people that ſpeake vnto thee, ſaying, Thy father made our yoke heauie, but make thou it ſomwhat lyghter for vs: thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto them, My litle fynger ſhalbe thycker then my fathers loynes.

11 For where my father put a heauie yoke vpon you, I wyl put more to your yoke: my father chaſtiſed you with whyppes, but I wyl chaſtiſe you with "ſcourges. "Or, ſcorpions

12 And ſo Ieroboam and al the people, came to Roboam the thyrd day, as the king bade, ſaying, Come agayne to me the thyrde day.

13 And the kyng anſweared them cruelly, and kyng Roboam left the counſel of the aged men,

14 And anſweared them after the aduice of of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke greeuous, and I wyl adde thereto: my father chastised you with whippes, but I wyl chastise you with scourges.

3. King. 12. 31 15 *And so the kyng hearkened not vnto the people: but the occasion came of God, that the Lord might make good his saying, whiche he spake by the hande of Ahia the Silonite, to Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat.

16 And when al Israel sawe that the kyng woulde not agree vnto them, the people answeared the kyng, saying, What portion haue we in Dauid? For we haue no inheritance in the sonne of Isai: Euery man to his tent, oh Israel, and nowe Dauid see to thine owyne house. And so al Israel gate them to theyr tentes.

17 So that Roboam raigned ouer no moe of the chyldren of Israel then dwelt in the cities of Iuda.

18 Then kyng Roboam also sent Hadoram that was ruler ouer the tribute, and the chyldren of Israel stoned hym with stones, that he died: but king Roboam made speede to geat hym vp to his charet, to flee to Hierusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled agaynst the house of Dauid vnto this day.

¶ The xi. Chapter.

4. Roboam is forbydden to fyght agaynst Ieroboam.

1 AND when Roboam was come to Hierusalem, he geathered of the house of Iuda and Beniamin, nienе scoze thousande chosen men of warre, to fight agaynst Israel, and to bryng the kyngdome agayne to Roboam.

3. King. 12. 22 2 *And the woorde of the Lord came to Semeia the man of God, saying,

3 Speake vnto Roboam the sonne of Solomon kyng of Iuda, and to all them of Israel that are in Iuda and Beniamin, and say,

4 Thus sayth the Lord, Ye shal not goe vp, nor fight agaynst your brethren: returne euery man to his house, for this thyng is done of me. And they obeyed the woordes of the Lorde, and returned from going agaynst Ieroboam.

5 And Roboam dwelt in Hierusalem, and buylt strong cities in Iuda.

6 He buylt vp Bethlehem, and Etam, and Thecoa,

7 Bethzur, Socho, and Adullam,

8 Gath, and Maresa, and Ziph,

9 Adoraim, Lachis, and Azecah.

10 Zoraa, Aialon, and Hebron, whiche is in Iuda and Beniamin, strong cities.

11 And he repayred the strong holdes, and put captaynes in them, and store of vittaile, and wyne, and oyle:

12 And in al cities he put sheeldes & speares, and made them exceedyng strong, hauyng Iuda and Beniamin on his side.

13 And the priestes and the Leuites that were in al Israel, resorted to hym out of all theyr coastes.

14 For the Leuites left theyr suburbes, and theyr possession, and came to Iuda and Hierusalem: for Ieroboam and his sonnes had cast them out from ministring vnto the Lorde.

15 And he ordeyned him priestes for the high places, for the a deuyls, and for the calues which he had made.

a. Meanyng idolles, reade Esai. 34.

16 And after the Leuites, there went out of the tribes of Israel, suche as submitted theyr hartes to seeke the Lorde God of Israel, and came to Hierusalem, to offer vnto the Lorde God of their fathers.

17 And so they strengthed the kyngdome of Iuda, and made Roboam the sonne of Solomon mightie three yeeres long: for three b yeeres they walked in the way of Dauid and Solomon.

b. So long as they feared God, and set foorth his woorde, they prospered.

18 And Roboam tooke him Mahalath the daughter of Ierimoth the sonne of Dauid to wyfe, and Abihael the daughter of Eliab the sonne of Isai:

19 Which bare him chyldren, Ieus, Samaria, and Zaham.

20 And after her he tooke *Maacha, the daughter of Absalom, which bare hym Abia, Atthai, Ziza, and Selomith. *Judg. 19. 1.

21 And Roboam loued Maacha the daughter of Absalom aboue all his wyues and concubines: for he tooke eyghteene wyues and threescore concubines, & begate twentie and eyght sonnes, and threescore daughters.

22 And Roboam made Abia, the sonne of Maacha, the cheefe ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make hym kyng.

23 c And he played wyssely, and scattered al his chyldren throughout al the countreyes of Iuda and Beniamin, vnto euery strong citie: and he gaue them abundance of vittayle, and obteyned many wyues.

c. Others reade, and he taught him.

¶ The xii. Chapter.

1. Roboam forsaketh the Lorde, and is punished by Sesac.

1 AND when Roboam had stablished the kingdome, and became mightie, he forsooke the lawe of the Lorde, and a all Israel with hym.

a. As y prince is, so for the most part the people wyl be.

2 And in the fifth yeere of kyng Roboam, Sesac the kyng of Egypt came vp agaynst Hierusalem (because they had transgressed agaynſt the Lorde)

3 With twelue hundred charets, and three-ſcore thouſande horſemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt: Lubim, b Sukim, and the Ethiopians.

b. Which were a people in Africa called the Troglodites, becauſe they dwelt in holes.

4 And he tooke the ſtrong cities in Juda, and came to Hieruſalem.

5 Then came Semeia the prophete to Roboam, and to the lordes of Juda that were geathered togeather within Hieruſalem for Selac, and ſayd vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Ye haue left me, and therefore haue I alſo c left you in the handes of Selac.

c. God neuer leaueth vs vntyl we haue caſt hym away.

6 Whereupon the lordes of Iſrael and the kyng humbled them ſelues, and ſayde, The Lorde is ryghteous.

7 And when the Lorde ſawe that they ſubmitted them ſelues, the woorde of the Lord came to Semeia, ſaying, They ſubmitte them ſelues, therefore I wyl not deſtroy them, but I wyl deliuer them ſomewhat, and my wrath ſhal not be powred out vpon Hieruſalem by the hande of Selac.

8 Neuertheleſſe, they ſhalbe his ſeruantes: to knowe what difference is betweene d my ſeruice, and the ſeruice of the kyngdomes of the worlde.

d. God puniſheth his, not to deſtroy them, but to reſourme them. 1. Kyng. 10.

9 And ſo Selac kyng of Egypt came to Hieruſalem, and tooke away the treaſures of the houſe of the Lorde, and the treaſures of the kynges houſe, he tooke al: and he caryed away the ſheeldes of golde whiche Solomon made.

10 In ſteade of which, king Roboam made ſheeldes of braſſe, and committed them to the handes of the cheefe of the garde, and that kept the entrance of the kynges houſe.

11 And when the king entred into the houſe of the Lorde, the garde came and fet them, and brought them agayne vnto the garde chamber.

12 And when he humbled hym ſelfe, the wrath of the Lorde turned from hym, that he woulde not deſtroy altogeather: and in Juda al was wel.

*3 Kin. 14. 12 13 *And ſo kyng Roboam waxed mightie, and raigned in Hieruſalem: and Roboam was one and fourtie yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned ſeuenteene yeeres in Hieruſalem, the citie whiche the Lorde had choſen out of al the tribes of Iſrael to put his name there: and his mothers name was Naama, an Amoniteſſe.

14 And he dyd euyl, becauſe he prepared not his hart to ſeeke the Lorde.

15 The actes alſo of Roboam fyrſt and laſt, are they not written in the ſayinges of Semeia the prophete, and of Iddo the Sear, whiche noted the genealogie? and there was warre alway betweene Roboam and Jeroboam.

16 And Roboam ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in the citie of Dauid, and Abia his ſonne raigned in his ſteade.

¶ The. xiii. Chapter.

1. Abia maketh warre agaynſt Ieroboam. 4. He ſhewyeth the occaſion. 12. He truſteth in the Lorde, and ouercommeth Ieroboam.

1 THe eyghteenth yeere of kyng Jeroboam, began Abia to raigne ouer Juda.

2 And he raigned three yeeres in Hieruſalem: (His mothers name alſo was Michaia, the daughter a of Uriel of Gibea:) and there was warre betweene Abia and Jeroboam.

a. Called otherwyſe Abſalom.

*3 Kin. 15. 3 *And Abia ſet the battel in aray, with the armie of valiant men of warre, euen foure hundred thouſande choſen men: and Jeroboam ſet hym ſelfe in araye to fyght agaynſt hym, with eyght hundred thouſand pickt men, which were ſtrong, and men of armes.

4 And Abia ſtoode vp vppon Zemaraim, an hyl whiche is in mount Ephraim, and ſayde, Heare me thou Jeroboam and al Iſrael.

5 Doo you not knowe howe that the Lorde GOD of Iſrael gaue the kyngdome ouer them of Iſrael to Dauid for euer, euen to hym, and to his ſonnes, with a b ſalted couenant?

b. With a firme and perpetuall, that thyng which is ordeyned from God: he meaneth all it was made lawfully, and firmed by ryng where as wyfed falſe ordeyned. Num. 18. c. In the courage.

6 And Jeroboam the ſonne of Nabat the ſeruant of Solomon the ſonne of Dauid, is ryſen vp, and hath rebelled agaynſt his Lorde.

7 And there geathered vnto hym lewde men, the chyldren of Belial, and preuayled agaynſt Roboam the ſonne of Solomon, when Roboam was c young and tender harted, and coulde not ſtande before them.

8 And nowe ye ſay that ye be able to preuayle agaynſt the kyngdome of the Lorde, which is in the hande of the ſonnes of Dauid, and ye be a great multitude, and haue the golden calues which Jeroboam made you for goddes.

9 And haue ye not caſt out the prieſtes of the Lord the ſonnes of Aaron and the Leuites, and haue made you prieſtes after the manner of the nations of other landes? ſo that who ſo euer commeth and conſecrateth his hand with a young ore and ſeuen rammes, the ſame may be a prieſt of them that are no goddes.

10 But we belong vnto the Lorde our God,

God, whom we haue not forsaken, and the Priests are the sonnes of Aaron, which minister vnto the Lord, and the Leuites waite vpon their office.

11 They burne vnto the Lorde euery morning and euenyng, whole burnt sacrifices, and sweete incense: the shew bread set they in order vpon a pure table, and prepare the candlestycke of gold, with the lampes of the same, to burne euer at euen: and truely we keepe the watch of the Lorde our God, but ye haue forsaken hym.

12 And behold, God hym selfis our captaine, and his Priestes blowe with the Trumpettes, and cry alarum agaynst you. O ye chyldren of Israel, fyght not agaynst the Lorde God of your fathers: for it wyll not prosper with you.

13 But for al that, Jeroboam conueyed men pryuyly about, to come behynde them: and so they were before Juda, and the layers in wayte were behynde them.

14 And when they of Juda looked about, behold, the battel was before and behynde, and they cried vnto the Lord, & the Priestes blewe with the Trumpettes.

15 And the men of Juda gaue a shoute: and as the men of Juda shouted, it came to passe that God smote Jeroboam and al Israel before Abia and Juda.

16 And the chyldren of Israel fledde before Juda, and God delyuered them into their hande.

17 And Abia and his people slue a great slaughter of them: there fell downe wounded of Israel fyue hundred thousande chosen men.

18 And so ỳ chyldren of Israel were brought vnder at that tyme, and the chyldren of Juda preuayled, d because they leaned vnto the Lorde God of their fathers.

19 And Abia followed after Jeroboam, and tooke cities from hym, Bethel with the townes belonging thereto, Jesana with the townes that belonged thereto, and Ephron with her townes.

20 And Jeroboam recouered no strength agayne in the dayes of Abia: and the Lorde plagued hym, and he dyed.

21 But Abia waxed myghtie, and married fourteene wyues, and begate twentie and two sonnes, and syxteene daughters.

22 The rest of the acts of Abia, his maners and his sayings, are wrytten in the storie of the prophete Iddo.

¶ The xiiii. Chapter.

Asa restroyeth idolatrie, and commaundeth his people to serue the true God.

1 SO Abia slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Dauid, * & Asa his sonne raigned in his steade, in whose dayes the land was in quietnes ten yeeres. *3. kin. 15.8

2 And Asa dyd that was good and ryght in the eyes of the Lorde his God.

3 For he toke away strange aulters, and the hygh places, and brake downe the images, and cut downe the groues:

4 And commaunded Juda to seke the Lord God of their fathers, and to doo accordyng to the lawe and commaundement.

5 And he put awaye out of al the cities of Juda, the hygh places, and the images: and the kyngdome was quiet before hym.

6 And he built strong cities in Juda, because the lande was in rest, and he had no warre in those yeeres: for the Lord had geuen hym rest.

7 Therefore he sayde vnto Juda, Let vs buylde these cities, and make about them walles, towres, gates, & barres, for the land is yet in rest before vs: because we haue sought the Lorde our God, we haue sought hym, & he hath geuen vs rest on euery syde. And so they built, & it prospered with them.

8 And Asa had an armie of men that bare shieldes and speares, out of Juda three hundred thousande, and out of Beniamin that bare shieldes, and drewe bowes, two hundred and fourescore thousande: all these were valeant men.

9 And there came out agaynst them Zarah of Ethiopia, with an host of ten hundred thousande, and three hundred charrets, and came as farre as Maresa.

10 And Asa went out before hym, and they ioyned the battell in the valley of Zephata, beside Maresa.

11 * And Asa cried vnto the Lorde his God, and sayde, Lorde, it is no harde thyng with thee to helpe with many, or them that haue no power: helpe vs therefore, O Lorde our God, for we trust to thee, and in thy name we go agaynst this multitude: thou art the Lord our God, and no man shal preuayle agaynst thee. *1. Sa. 14.6.

12 So the Lord smote the Ethiopians before Asa and Juda, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa & the people that were with him, followed after them vnto Gerar: and the Ethiopians host was ouerthrowē, that there was none of them left, but were destroyed before the Lorde, and before his host: and they carried away a myghtie great pray.

14 And they smote al the cities round about Gerar, for the feare of the Lorde came vpon them: and they spoyled al the cities, and there was exceedyng muche spoyle in them.

15 They smote also the tentes of cattel, and carried away plentie of Sheepe and Camelles, and returned to Hierusalem.

¶ The.xv.Chapter.

1. The exhortation of Azaria. 8. Asa purgeth his countrey of idolatrie. 14. They sweare together to serue the Lord. 16. He deposeth his mother for her idolatrie.

1 AND the spirit of God came on Azaria the sonne of Obed.

2 And he went out to meete Asa, & sayd vnto hym, Heare me Asa, and al Juda and Beniamin, the Lorde is with you, whyle ye be with hym: and when ye seeke hym, he wyl be founde of you: and agayne, when ye forsake hym, he also wyll forsake you.

a. For ỹ space of twelue yeres vnder Roboam, and three yeres vnder Abia, true religiō was neglected, and idolatrie planted.

3 Now for a long a season Israel hath ben without the true God, & without Priestes to teache, and without lawe.

4 And when any man in his trouble dyd turne vnto the Lorde GOD of Israel, and sought hym, he was founde of them.

5 And in that tyme there was no peace to hym that dyd goe out and in, but great sedition was there among all the inhabiters of the earth.

6 And nation was destroyed of nation, and citie of citie: for God dyd moone all aduersitie among them.

7 Play ye therfore the men, and let not your handes slacke: for your woorke shalbe rewarded.

b. He had two names, both Azaria, & Obed.

8 And when Asa hearde those woordes, and the prophecie of b Azaria the sonne of Obed the Prophete, he tooke courage, & put away the abominable idols out of all the land of Juda and Beniamin, and out of the cities which he wanne in mount Ephraim, and renued the aulter of the Lord that was before the porche of the Lorde.

9 And he gathered al Juda and Beniamin, and the strangers with them, out of Ephraim, Manasse, and Simeon: for there fel many to hym out of Israel, when they sawe that the Lorde his GOD was with hym.

c. May.

10 So they assembled togeather at Hierusalem the c thyrde moneth, the fyfteenth yeere of the raigne of Asa.

11 And they offered vnto the Lorde the same tyme, of the spoile which they had brought, seuen hundred Oxen, and seuen thousande Sheepe.

12 And they made a couenaunt to seeke the Lorde God of their fathers with all their hart, and al their soule.

d. A lawe of death for idolaters. Deu. 13.

13 And whosoeuer would not seeke the lord God of Israel d shoulde dye for it, whether he were small or great, man, or woman.

14 And they sware vnto the Lorde with a loude voyce, shewting and blowyng with Trumpettes and Shawmes.

15 And al they in Juda reioyced at the othe: for they had sworne vnto the Lorde with al their hart, and sought hym with al their lust, and he was founde of them: and the Lorde gaue them rest rounde about on euery syde.

*3. kin. 15. c. His grandmother, & he in the same he lacked for the cause braue deed by the and law ẽp

16 * And kyng Asa put e Maacha his mother out of auctoritie, because she had made an idol in a groue: and Asa broke downe her idoll, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brooke Cedron.

17 But al the hygh places were not taken away out of Israel, though the hart of Asa was perfect al his dayes.

18 And he brought into the house of God the thynges that his father had dedicate, & that he hym selfe had dedicate, euen syluer, and golde, and vesselles, 19 And there was no more warre vnto the thyrtie and fyue yeere of the raigne of Asa.

¶ The.xvi.Chapter.

1. Asa for feare of Baasa king of Israel, maketh a couenant with Benhadad king of Syria. 7. He is reproued by the prophete.

1 IN the thyrtie and fyre yeere of the raigne of Asa, came Baasa kyng of Israel agaynst Juda, and buylt Rama, to the intent that he woulde let none passe out or in to Asa kyng of Juda.

2 And Asa fet out gold and syluer out of the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and out of the kynges house, and sent to Benhadad kyng of Syria that dwelt at "Darmesec, and sayde, "Or, Damas.

3 There is a confederation betweene me and thee, betweene my father and thyne: beholde, I haue sent thee syluer and golde, that thou wylt come and breake thy league with Baasa kyng of Israel, that he maye depart from me.

4 And Benhadad graunted vnto king Asa, and sent the captaynes of his armies to the cities of Israel, and they smote Ijon, Dan, and Abilmaim, and al the strong cities of Nephthali.

5 And when Baasa heard this, he left buyldyng of Rama, and let his woorke ceasse.

6 And then Asa the kyng tooke al Juda, and carried away the stones and tymber of Rama wherewith Baasa was a buyldyng, and he buylt therewith Geba and Mispah.

7 At that tyme Hanani the Seer came to Asa kyng of Juda, and sayde vnto hym, a Because thou hast trusted in the kyng of Syria, and not rather put thy trust in the Lorde thy GOD, therefore is the hoast of the kyng of Syria escaped out of thine hande.

Because

8 a Had not the Ethiopians and Lubim an exceedyng great host, with many charettes and horsemen? and yet because thou trustedst in the Lorde, he deliuered them into thine hande.

9 For the eyes of the Lorde beholde all the earth, to strength them that are of perfect hart towarde hym: herein thou hast done foolishly, and therefore from henceforth thou shalt haue warre.

10 And so Asa was wroth with the Seer, and put hym into a b prison house, for he was displeased with hym, because of this thyng: and Asa destroyed certayne of the people the same season.

11 And behold, these deedes of Asa fyrst and last, are written in the booke of the kynges of Juda and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirtie & nienth yeere of his raigne fel sicke in his feete, & his disease continued very long, and in his sickenesse he sought not the Lorde, c but Physitions.

13 And Asa slept with his fathers, and dyed in the fourtie and one yeere of his raigne.

14 And they buryed him in his owne sepulchre, which he had made for hym selfe in the citie of Dauid, and layde hym in the bedde which was filled with diuers kindes of spices, and sweete odours, made by the craft of the appothecaries: and they made a very great burnyng.

b. Mat. 9. 5

The prouidence of God is manifested for punishyng his seruāts, & thus he wrested in stede of turnyng vnto God by repentance, enuenime the admonition of the prophetes and ministers of God.

c. He sheweth that it is in vayne to seeke to the phisitions, except first we seeke to God to pourge our sinnes, whiche are the cheefe causes of al our diseases, and after vse the helpe of the phisitions as meane by whom God worketh.

3. Iosaphat trustyng in the Lorde, prospereth in rychesse and honour. 6. He abolisheth idolatrie, 7. and causeth the people to be taught.

1 AND Iosaphat his sonne raigned in his steade, and preuayled agaynst Israel.

2 And he put souldiers in al the strong cities of Juda, and set rulers in the lande of Juda, & in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had wonne.

3 And the Lorde was with Iosaphat, because he walked in the former wayes of his father Dauid, and sought not Baalim:

4 But sought the Lorde God of his father, and walked in his commaundements, and not after the doopynges of Israel.

5 And the Lorde stablished the kingdome in his hande, and al Juda brought hym presentes, so that he had abundance of richesse and honour.

6 And he lyft vp his hart vnto the wayes of the Lord, and he put downe yet more of the hygh places and groues out of Juda.

7 In the thirde yeere of his raigne he sent to his lordes, euen to Benhail, Obadia, Zacharia, Nethanel, & to Michaia, that they shoulde a teache in the cities of Juda:

a. Iosaphat sent visitours abrode into the countreyes to see religion reformed, and the people truly instructed.

8 And with them he sent Leuites, euen Semeia, Nethania, Zebadia, Asael, Semiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonia, Tobia, and Tob adonia, Leuites: and with them Elisama and Joram, priestes.

9 And they taught in Juda, and had the booke of the lawe of God with them, and went about throughout al the cities of Juda, and taught the people.

10 And the feare of the Lorde fel vppon all the kyngdomes of the landes that were rounde about Juda, and they sought not agaynst Iosaphat.

11 And some of the Philistines brought Iosaphat gyftes, and tribute siluer, and the Arabians brought hym cattel, euen seuen thousande and seuen hundred rammes, & seuen thousand & seuen hundred hee goates.

12 And so Iosaphat prospered and grewe vp an hygh: and he buylt in Juda castles, and cities of store.

13 And he had great "substance in the cities of Juda: but the men of armes and strongest souldiers were in Hierusalem.

"Or, great vvoorkes.

14 And these are the "offices of them in the house of their fathers: the captaynes ouer thousandes in Juda, Adna the captayne, and with hym of fyghtyng men, three hundred thousande.

"Or, numbers.

15 And next to his hande was Iehonana captayne, and with hym two hundred and fourescore thousande.

16 And next hym was Amazia the sonne of Zichri, which of his owne good wyl offered hym selfe vnto the Lord, and with him two hundred thoulande mightie men of warre.

17 And of the chyldren of Beniamin, Eliada, a man of might, and with hym armed men with bowe and shielde two hundred thousande.

18 And next hym was Iosabad, and with hym an hundred and fourescore thousande that were prepared for the warre.

19 These wayted on the kyng, besides those which the kyng put in the strong cities throwout al Juda.

¶ The.xviii.Chapter.

1. Iosaphat maketh affinitie with Achab. 10. Foure hundred prophetes counsel Achab to goe to warre. 14. Michaias agaynst them. 29. The effect of his prophesie.

1 AND *Iosaphat had abundance of ryches and honour, and ioyned affinitie with Achab.

2 And after certayne yeeres he went downe to Achab to Samaria: and Achab slue many sheepe and oxen for hym, and for the people that he had with hym, and entreated hym to goe vp with hym vnto Ramoth in Gilead.

3 And Achab kyng of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat kyng of Juda, Wylt thou goe with me to Ramoth in Gilead? And he answeared hym, I wyl be as thou, and my people shalbe as thine, and we wyl goe with thee to the warre.

4 And Iosaphat sayde vnto the kyng of Israel, Seeke counsel, I pray thee, at the woorde of the Lorde this same day.

5 Therefore the kyng of Israel geathered togeather of prophetes foure hundred men, and sayde vnto them, Shal we goe to Ramoth in Gilead to fyght, or should I ceasse? And they sayde, Goe vp, and God shall delyuer it into the kynges hande.

6 But Iosaphat sayde, Is there yet here neuer a prophete more of the Lordes, that we might aske of hym?

7 And the kyng of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may aske the Lorde, but I hate hym, for he neuer prophesieth me good, but alway euyl: & the same is Michea the sonne of Iemla. And Iosaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the kyng of Israel called one of his chamberlaynes, and sayde, Fetche hyther quickly Michea the sonne of Iemla.

9 And the kyng of Israel & Iosaphat kyng of Juda sate eyther of them on his seate in theyr apparel, in a threshyng floore beside the gate of Samaria, and all the prophetes prophesied before them.

10 And one Zedecia the sonne of Chanaana had made hym hornes of iron, and sayde, Thus sayth the Lorde, With these thou shalt pushe Syria, vntyl they be brought to nought.

11 And al the prophetes prophesied euen so, saying, Goe vp to Ramoth in Gilead, and it shal prosper with thee: for the Lorde shall delyuer it into the hande of the kyng.

12 And the messenger that went to cal Michea, spake to hym, saying, Beholde, the woordes of the prophetes speake good to the kyng with one assent: let thy woordes therefore, I pray thee, be lyke one of theirs, that thou speake that which is pleasant.

13 And Michea sayd, As the Lorde lyueth, euen what my God saith, that wil I speake.

14 And when he was come to the kyng, the kyng sayde vnto hym, Michea, shoulde we goe to Ramoth in Gilead to fyght, or leaue of? and he sayd, Goe vp, and al shalbe wel, and they shalbe delyuered into your hande.

15 And the kyng sayde to hym, So and so many tymes doo I charge thee that thou say nothyng but the trueth to me, in the name of the Lorde.

16 Then he sayde, I dyd see al Israel scattered in the mountaynes, as sheepe that haue no shepheard, & the Lord said, b These haue no maister: let them returne euery man therefore to his house in peace.

17 And the kyng of Israel sayde vnto Iosaphat, Dyd I not tel thee, that he would not prophesie good vnto me, but euyl?

18 But he sayde agayne, Therefore heare the woorde of the Lorde: I sawe the Lorde sit vppon his seate, and all the company of heauen stoode on his ryght hand and on his leaft.

19 And the Lorde sayde, Who shal deceyue Achab kyng of Israel, that he may goe vp and be ouerthrowen at Ramoth in Gilead? and one sayde this, another sayde that.

20 And there came out a spirite, and stoode before the Lord, & sayd, I wyl deceyue him. And the Lorde sayde vnto hym, Wherein?

21 And he sayde, I wyl goe out, and be a c lying spirite in the mouth of all his prophetes. And the Lorde sayd, Thou shalt deceyue hym, and shalt preuayle: goe out, and doo euen so.

22 And nowe therefore beholde, the lorde hath put a lying spirite in the mouthes of d these thy prophetes, and the Lord hath spoken euyl agaynst thee.

23 *And Zedecia the sonne of Chanaana went to, & smote Michea vpon the cheeke, and sayd, By what way went the d spirit of the Lorde from me, to speake with thee?

24 And Michea sayde, Beholde, thou shalt see the day when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber for to hyde thee selfe.

25 And the king of Israel said, Take ye Michea, & bryng him to Amon the gouernour of the citie, and to Joas the kynges sonne.

26 And ye shal say, Thus sayth the kyng, Put this felowe in the prison house, and feede hym with bread of affliction, & water of trouble, vntyl I come againe in peace.

27 And Michea sayd, If thou come againe in peace, then hath not the Lorde spoken by me. And he sayde, Hearken to ye people euery one of you.

28 And so the kyng of Israel and Iosaphat the kyng of Juda went vp to Ramoth in Gilead.

29 And the kyng of Israel sayd vnto Iosaphat, I wyl change me when I goe to the battel: but see that thou haue thyne owne apparel apparel vpon thee. And the kyng of Israel changed him selfe, & they came to the battel.

30 But the kyng of Syria had commaunded the captaynes of the charrettes that were with hym, saying, See that ye fyght not against smal or great, saue against the kyng of Israel only.

31 And when the captaynes of the charets sawe Iosaphat, they sayde, It is the kyng of Israel, and therefore they compassed about him to fight. * But Iosaphat cryed out, and the Lord helped him, and GOD * chased them away from hym.

* Or, in his simplicitie.

34 And the battel encreased that day: howbeit, the kyng of Israel caused his charret c to stande styl against the Syrians, vntyll euen: and about the time of the sunne going downe, he dyed.

c. He dissembled his hurt, that his soul diers might fight the more courageously.

¶ The.xix. Chapter.

1. After Iosaphat was rebuked by the prophete, he calleth againe the people to the honouring of the Lorde.

1 AND Iosaphat the kyng of Juda came home againe in peace to Hierusalem.

2 And Iehu the sonne of Hanani the Seer, went out to meete him, and saide to kyng Iosaphat, Wouldest thou helpe the vngodly, and loue them that hate the Lord? Therefore is wrath come downe vpon thee from before the Lorde:

3 Neuertheless, there are some good actes found in thee, in that thou hast hewē downe the groues out of the lande, and hast prepared thine hart to seeke God.

4 And Iosaphat dwelt at Hierusalem, and turned, a and went out to the people from Beer-seba to mount Ephraim, & brought them againe vnto the Lorde God of theyr fathers.

b. He visited al his countrey, & brought his people from idolatrie, to the knowledge of the true God,

5 And he set iudges in the land, throughout al the strong cities of Juda, citie by citie,

6 And said to the iudges, Take heede what ye doo: for ye execute not the iudgementes of man, but of God, whiche is b with you in the iudgement.

b To preserue you, yf you doo iustly, and to punishe you if you do contrary.

7 Wherfore nowe, let the feare of the Lorde be vpon you, and take heede, and be dooyng the thyng that pleaseth hym: for there is no vnryghteousnesse with the Lord our GOD, * that he shoulde haue anye respect of persons, or take rewardes.

* Iob.34.19 Acte.10.34. Rom.2.11. 1.Pet.1.17

8 Moreouer, in Hierusalem dyd Iosaphat set of the Leuites and of the priestes, and of the auncient fathers ouer Israel, in the iudgement and cause of the Lorde, and they returned agayne to Hierusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the feare of the Lorde faythfully, and with a pure hart.

10 What cause so euer come to you of your brethren that dwel in their cities, betweene blood and blood, betweene lawe and commaundement, betweene statutes and ordinances: ye shall warne them that they trespasse not agaynst the Lorde, and so wrath come vpon you and your brethren: this doo, and ye shal not offende.

11 And beholde, Amaria the hygh priest is among you in al matters of the Lords, and Zebadia the sonne of Ismael, a ruler of the house of Juda, for all the kynges matters: There be officers of the Leuites also before you, take courage to you therefore, and be dooing manfully, and the Lord shalbe with such as be good.

¶ The. xx. Chapter.

2. Iosaphat and the people pray vnto the Lord. 22. The marueylous victory that the Lorde gaue him against his enimies. 30. His raigne and actes.

1 AFter this also, the chyldren of Moab and the chyldren of Ammon, and with them other of the Ammonites, came agaynst Iosaphat to battel.

2 And there came some that told Iosaphat, saying, There commeth a great multitude against thee from the other syde of the sea, and out of Syria, and beholde, they be in Hasason Thamar, which is in En-gadi.

3 And Iosaphat feared, and set hym selfe to seeke the Lorde, and proclaymed fastyng throughout al Juda.

4 And Juda geathered them selues togeather, to aske counsel of the Lord: and they came out of al the cities of Juda, * to make intercession to the Lorde.

* Or, to enquire of the Lorde.

5 And Iosaphat stoode betweene the congregation of Juda & Hierusalem, in the house of the Lord, before the newe court,

6 And sayde, O Lorde God of our fathers, art not thou God in heauen, and raignest not thou on all the kyngdomes of the heathen, & in thine hande is power and might, and there is no man that is able to withstande thee?

7 Art not thou our GOD whiche diddest cast caſt out the inhabiters of this lande before thy people Iſrael, and ganeſt it to the ſeede of Abraham thy louer, for euer?

8 And they dwelt therein, and haue buiſt thee a temple therein for thy name, ſaying, 9 * If eyl come vpon vs, as the ſworde of iudgement, peſtilence, or hunger: then yf we ſtande before this houſe in thy preſence, (for thy name is in this houſe) and crye vnto thee in our tribulation, heare thou, and helpe.

2.Chr.6.28

10 * And nowe behold the chyldren of Ammon and Moab, and mount Seir, * by whom thou wouldeſt not let them of Iſrael goe, when they came out of the lande of Egypt, but they departed from them, and deſtroyed them not.

a. We only put our truſt in thee, and wayte for our delyuerance from heauen.

13 And al Iuda ſtoode before the Lord, with theyr young ones, theyr wyues, and theyr chyldren.

14 And there was Iahaziel the ſonne of Zacharia, the ſonne of Banaia, the ſonne of Iehiel, the ſonne of Mathania, a Leuite, of the ſonnes of Aſaph, and vpon hym came the ſpirite of the Lorde in the middes of the congregation:

15 And he ſayde, Hearken al Iuda, and ye inhabiters of Hieruſalem, and thou king Ioſaphat, Thus ſayth the Lorde vnto you, Be not afrayde, nor faynt harted, by reaſon of this great multitude, for the battel is not yours, but Gods.

16 To morowe goe ye downe againſt them: beholde, they come vp by the clyft of Ziz, and ye ſhall fynde them at the ende of the brooke, before the wylderneſſe of Ieruel.

17 Ye ſhall not neede to fight in this battel, but ſtey fourth, and ſtande, and beholde the helpe of the Lord whiche is with you: feare not, nor let your hartes fayle you, O ye of Iuda and of Hieruſalem, to morow goe out againſt them, for the Lord wil be with you.

18 And Ioſaphat b bowed his face to the earth, and al Iuda, and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem fel before the Lorde, worſhypping the Lorde.

b. Declaryng his fayth and obedience to the woorde of the Lorde.

19 And the Leuites, of the chyldren of the Caathites, and of the children of the Corahites, ſtoode vp to prayſe the Lorde God of Iſrael, with a loude voyce on high.

20 And when they aroſe early in the morning, they gate them out into the wylderneſſe of Thecoa: and as they went out, Ioſaphat ſtoode, and ſayde, Heare me, O Iuda, and ye inhabiters of Hieruſalem: Put your truſt in the Lorde your GOD, that ye may be founde faythful: geue credence to his prophetes, and ſo ſhal ye proſper.

21 When he had conſulted with the people, and ſet ſome to ſyng vnto the Lorde, and to prayſe hym in the beautie of holyneſſe, and to goe out before the armye, & to ſay, Prayſe the Lorde, for his mercy laſteth euer.

22 And when they began to ſhowte, and to praiſe the Lorde, the Lorde layde ambuſhmentes againſt the chyldren of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come againſt Iuda, and they were ouerthrowen with ſtrokes among them ſelues.

23 For the chyldren of Ammon and Moab, roſe againſt the inhabiters of mount Seir, and they ſlue and deſtroyed them: and when they had made an ende of the inhabiters of Seir, euery one helped to deſtroy an other among them ſelues.

24 And when Iuda came toward Miſpah in the wylderneſſe, they looked vnto the multitude, and behold, they were dead carkaſſes fallen to the earth, and none eſcaped.

25 And when Ioſaphat and his people came to take away the ſpoyle of them, they found among them abundance of goodes, rayment, and pretious iewelles, whiche they tooke for them ſelues, more then they could cary away: ſo that they were three dayes in geatheryng of the ſpoyle, it was ſo muche.

26 And the fourth day they aſſembled in the valley of bleſſyng: for there they c bleſſed the Lord, and therfore they called the name of the ſame place, The valley of bleſſyng, vnto this day.

c. Gaue thankes vnto the Lorde for the victorie.

27 And ſo al the men of Iuda and Hieruſalem, returned with Ioſaphat their head, for to goe agayne to Hieruſalem with gladneſſe: for the Lorde had made them to reioyce ouer theyr enimies.

28 And they came to Hieruſalem with pſalteries, and harpes, and ſhawmes, vnto the houſe of Iſrael.

29 And the feare of GOD fell on the kyngdomes of al landes, when they had heard that the Lorde fought againſt the enimies of Iſrael.

30 And ſo the realme of Ioſaphat was in tranquilitie, and his God gaue hym reſt on euery ſyde.

31 And Ioſaphat raigned vpon Iuda, and was thirtie and fiue yeeres old when he began to raigne, and he raigned twentie and fiue yeeres in Hieruſalem, and his mothers name was Azuba, the daughter of Silhi.

32 And he walked in the way of Aſa his father, father, and bowed not therefrom, dooing that whiche was ryght in the sight of the Lord.

3 Howbeit, * the high places were not taken away: for the people had not yet prepared their hartes vnto the God of theyr fathers.

34 The rest of the actes of Iosaphat fyrst and last, behold, they are written among the sayings of Iehu the sonne of Hanani, which noted them in the booke of the kinges of Israel.

35 After this, did Iosaphat king of Iuda ioyne him selfe with Ahazia king of Israel, whose mind was to doo wickedly:

36 He ioyned him selfe with him, to make ships to goe to Tharsis: and they made the shippes in Ezion Gaber.

37 And Eliezer the sonne of Dodauah of Mareſa, prophesied against Iosaphat, saying, Because thou hast d ioyned thee selfe with Ahazia, the Lorde hath broken thy workes. And the shippes were broken, that they were not able to goe to Tharsis.

¶ The.xxi.Chapter.

1. Iosaphat dyeth. 3. Ioram succeedeth him. 4. which killeth his brethren. 16. He is oppressed of the Philistines. 18. His miserable ende.

1 IOsaphat also slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid: and Ioram his sonne raigned in his steede.

2 And he had brethren which were ỹ sonnes of Iosaphat, Azaria, Iehiel, Zacharia, Azaria, Michael, and Sephatia: all these are the sonnes of Iosaphat kyng of Iuda.

3 And their father gaue them many great giftes of golde and siluer, and other "special substance, with strong cities in Iuda: but the kingdome gaue he to Ioram, for he was the eldest.

"Or, precious.

4 * And Ioram rose vp agaynst the kyngdome of his father, and preuayled, and slue all his brethren with the sword, and diuers of the lordes of Israel.

4.kin.8.16.

5 Ioram was thirtie and two yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned eyght yeeres in Hierusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kinges of Israel, like as did the house of Achab, for he had the daughter of Achab to e wyfe: and he wrought euil in the eyes of the lord.

e. It is dangerous to marry one of a strage religion.

7 Howbeit, * the Lorde woulde not destroy the house of Dauid, because of the couenant that he had made with Dauid, as he promised, to geue a light to him & to his sonnes for euer.

8 In his dayes the Edomites rebelled, when they were vnder the dominion of Iuda, & made them selues a kyng.

9 And Ioram went forth with his lordes, and all his charets were with him: and he rose vp by night, and smote the Edomites, which compassed him in: and the captaines of the charets.

10 But Edom rebelled still, so that they would not be vnder the hand of Iuda vnto this day: that same time also did Libna rebell from being vnder his hand, because he had forsaken the Lorde GOD of his fathers.

11 Moreouer, he made hygh places in the mountaynes of Iuda, and caused the inhabiters of Hierusalem to f commit fornication, and prouoked Iuda to idolatry.

f. Namyng idolatrie, because the idolatres breaketh promise with God, as doeth the adultresse woman with her husband.

12 And there came a writing to him from g Elia the prophete, saying, Thus sayth the Lorde GOD of Dauid thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the wayes of Iosaphat thy father, and in the wayes of Asa king of Iuda:

g. Some thinke that this was Eliseus, because he had the double spirite of Elia.

13 But walkedst in the wayes of the kinges of Israel, and hast made Iuda, and the dwellers of Hierusalem, to goe a whoryng lyke to the whordome of ỹ house of Achab, and hast slayne thy brethrē, euen thy fathers house, which were better then thou:

14 Behold, with a great plague wyll the Lorde smite thy folke, thy chyldren, thy wyues, and all thy goodes.

15 And thou shalt suffer great payne, euen a disease of thy bowels, vntyll thy guttes fall out by reason of thy sickenesse day by day.

16 And so the Lorde stirred vp agaynst Ioram the spirite of the Philistines, and the Arabians that were beside the Ethiopians.

17 And they came vp into Iuda, and wasted it, and caried away all the substaunce that was found in the kinges house, and his sonnes, & his wyues, so that there was neuer a sonne left him, saue "Joahaz, which was the youngest among his sonnes.

"Or, Ahazia.

18 And after al these thinges, the Lord smote hym in his bowelles with an incurable disease.

19 And in proces of time, after the ende of two yeeres, his guttes fell out in his sickenesse, and so he dyed of very euil diseases: and they made no burning for hym lyke the burning of his fathers.

20 When he began to raigne, he was thyrtie and two yeeres old, and raigned in Hierusalem eyght yeeres, and liued "wretchedly: howbeit, they buried him in the citie of Dauid, but not among the sepulchres of the kynges.

10. Athalia putteth to death all the kinges linage.
11. Ioas escapeth.

1 AND * the inhabiters of Hierusalem made Ahazia his young sonne kyng in his steede: for the men of warre that came a with the host of the Arabians, had slayne all his eldest sonnes: And so Ahazia the sone of Ioram kyng of Juda was made kyng.

a. Meanyng the Philistines.

2 b Fourtie and two yeeres old was he when he began to raigne, & he raigned one yeere in Hierusalem: his mothers name was Athalia, the daughter of c Amri.

b. Which is to be vnderstande, that he raigned twentie yeeres, his father yet liuyng, but after his fathers death he was confyrmed kyng, when he was fourty and two yeeres old.
c. She was Achabs daughter, who was the sonne of Amri.

3 And he walked also in the wayes of the house of Achab: for his mother by her counsell enticed him to doo wickedly.

4 Wherefore he dyd that which was euil in the sight of ỹ Lord, as dyd they that were of the house of Achab: for they were his d counsaylours after the death of his father, to his destruction.

d. Euil counsaylours make an euyl kyng.

5 And he walked after their counsayle, and went with Ioram sonne of Achab kyng of Israel, to fyght against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth in Gilead: and the Syrians smote Ioram.

6 And he turned to be healed in Iezrahel, of the woundes whiche were geuen him at Rama, when he fought with Hazael kyng of Syria: and Ahazia the sonne of Ioram kyng of Juda, went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Achab at Iezrahel, because he was diseased.

7 And it came of God that Ahazia shoulde be destroyed for his comming to Ioram: for when he was come, he went out with Ioram agaynst Iehu the sonne of Nimsi, whō the lord had annoynted to destroy the house of Achab.

8 And when Iehu was executing iustice vpon the house of Achab, & found the Lordes of Juda, and the sonnes of the brethren of Ahazia that wayted on Ahazia, he slue them.

9 And he sought Ahazia: and they caught him (where he was hid in Samaria) and brought hym to Iehu, and when they had slayne him, they buried him: because, sayde they, he is the sonne of Iosaphat, whiche sought the Lorde with all his hart: And the house of Ahazia had no power to keepe styll the kyngdome.

10 * But when Athalia, the mother of Ahazia, sawe that her sonne was dead, she arose, and c destroyed all the kinges seede in the kinred of Juda.

c. To the intent that there should be none to make title to the crowne, & so she myght vsurpe the gouernement.

11 And Iosabeth the daughter of the kyng, tooke Ioas the sonne of Ahazia, and stale him from among the kynges sonnes that were slayne, and put hym and his nurse in a priuie chamber: & so Iosabeth the daughter of kyng Ioram, the wyfe of Iehoiada the priest (and the sister of Ahazia) hyd hym from Athalia, that he was not slayne.

12 And so he was with them hydde in the house of God sixe yeeres, and Athalia raigned ouer the land.

¶ The.xxiii.Chapter.

2 And they went about in Juda, and gathered the Leuites out of all the cities of Juda, and the auncient fathers of a Israel, and they came to Hierusalem.

a. Meanyng of Iuda and Beniamin. Chap.11.4

3 And all the congregation made a bond with the king in the house of God: and he sayde vnto them, Beholde, the kinges sonne must raigne, as the Lorde hath sayde of the chyldren of Dauid.

4 This is it therefore that ye shal doo, The third part of you shal on the Sabboth come to the priestes, Leuites, and keepers of the porches,

5 And another third part shalbe by ỹ kinges house, and another third part shalbe at the gate of the fundation: and all the people shalbe in the courtes of the house of the Lorde.

6 But there shall none come into the house of the Lorde, saue the priestes and Leuites that minister, they shall goe in, for they are holy: but al the people shal keepe the watch of the Lorde.

7 And the Leuites shal compasse the kyng round about, and euery man shall haue his weapon in his hand, and what other man so euer dooth come into the house of the Lord he shalbe slayne: and let them be with the kyng when he commeth in, and when he goeth out.

8 And the Leuites, and all Juda, dyd accordyng to all thinges that Iehoiada the priest had commaunded, & tooke euery man his men that came in on the Sabboth, with them that went out on the Sabboth day: neyther did Iehoiada the priest let the companyes depart.

9 And Iehoiada the priest, deliuered to the captaynes of hundredes, speares, shieldes, and bucklers, that had partayned to kyng Dauid, and were in the house of God.

10 And he set al the people (euery man hauyng his weapon in his hande) from the ryght syde of the temple, to the leaft syde of the temple, along by the aulter and the temple, rounde about the kyng.

11 And they brought out the kynges sonne, and put vpon hym the crowne, and the " testimonie, and made him king: and Iehoiada and his sonnes annoynted him, and said, God saue the kyng.

12 When Athalia heard the noyse of the people runnyng, and praysyng the kyng, she came to the people into the house of the Lord.

13 And she looked, and beholde, the kyng stoode " in his place at the entryng in, and the lords & the trumpets were by the king, and al the people of the lande reioyced, blowing with trumpets: and the singers were with instrumentes of musicke, and suche as coulde sing prayse: but Athalia rent her clothes, and sayde, Treason, treason.

14 And Iehoiada the priest went out to the captaynes of hundredes, that were gouernours of the host, and sayd vnto them, Haue her foorth of the ranges: and b who so followeth her, let him be slayne with the sword: For the priest sayd, That they shoulde not slay her in the house of the Lord.

15 And they layde handes on her, tyll she was come to the entring of the horse gate, beside the kynges house, and there they slue her.

16 And Iehoiada made a bonde betweene hym, and al the people, and the kyng, that they should be the Lordes people:

17 And all the people went to the house of Baal, and c destroyed it, and brake his aulters and his images, and slue Matthan the priest of Baal, before the aulters.

18 And Iehoiada " put the officers for the house of the Lorde vnder the hande of the priestes and Leuites, as Dauid had distributed them in the house of the Lord, to offer whole burnt offerynges vnto the Lord, as it is written in the lawe of Moses, with reioycyng, and synging, as it was ordeyned by Dauid.

19 And he set porters by the gates of the house of the Lorde, that none whiche was vncleane in any thyng, shoulde enter in.

20 And he toke the captaynes of hundreds, and al the nobles, and the gouernours of the people, and al the folke of the lande, and caused the kyng to come downe out of the house of the Lorde, and they came through the high gate into the kinges house, and set the kyng vpon the seate of the kyngdome.

21 And all the people of the lande reioyced, and the citie was in tranquilitie after that they had slayne Athalia with the sworde.

1. Ioas repayreth the house of the Lorde. 25. Ioas is killed of his owne seruantes.

1 IOas * was seuen yeeres olde when he began to raigne, & he raigned fourtie yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Ziba, of Beerseba. * 4.kin.12.1.

2 And Ioas dyd that whiche was ryght in the syght of the Lorde al the dayes of a Iehoiada the priest. a. Who was a faythfull counsaylour, and gouerned hym by the woorde of GOD.

3 And Iehoiada gaue hym two wyues, and he begate sonnes and daughters.

4 And after this, Ioas was mynded to renue the house of the Lorde.

5 And he geathered togeather the priestes, and the Leuites, and sayd to them, Goe out vnto the cities of Iuda, and geather of all Israel, money to repayre the house of your God, from yeere to yeere, & see that ye haste the thing: Howbeit, the Leuites were slacke.

6 And the kyng called Iehoiada that was the b cheefest, and sayde vnto hym, Why requirest thou not of the Leuites to bring in out of Iuda and Hierusalem, the collection of money, accordyng to the commaundement of Moses the seruant of the Lorde, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of wytnesse? b. For he was the high priest.

7 For wycked Athalia & her children, brake vp the house of God, and all the thynges that were dedicate for the house of the lord, dyd they bestowe vpon Baalim.

8 And at the kynges commaundement they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the Lorde:

9 And made a proclamation through Iuda and Hierusalem, to bring in to the Lord * the taration of money that Moses the seruant of God set vpon Israel in the wylderneſſe. * Exo.30.12

10 And the lordes and all the people reioyced, and brought in, and cast into the chest " vntyl it was full. " Or, vntyl they had made an ende.

11 And at the same time they brought in the chest, vnto them whiche were in the kinges businesse, by the hande of the Leuites, and when they sawe that there was muche money: the kynges scribe, and one appoynted by the hygh priest, came and emptied the chest, and tooke it, and caried it to his place againe. Thus they did day by day, and geathered muche money.

12 And the king and Iehoiada gaue it to suche ſuche as dyd labour and worke in the house of the Lord, and hyred Masons and Carpenters to repaire the house of the Lorde, and so dyd the artificers in iron and brasse, to mende the house of the Lorde.

13 And so the workemen wrought, and the worke mended through theyr handes: and they made the house of God as it ought to be, and strengthed it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Iehoiada, and therewith were made vessels for the house of the Lord, euen vessels to minister withal, " chargers, and spoones, vessels of gold and syluer: and they offered whole burnt offeringes in the house of the Lorde continually, al the dayes of Iehoiada.

" Or, morters, or bowles.

15 But Iehoiada waxed olde, and dyed full of dayes: for an hundred and thyrtie yeeres olde was he when he dyed.

16 And they buryed him in the citie of Dauid, among the kynges, because he dealt wel with Israel, and with God, and with his house.

17 And after the death of Iehoiada, came the c lords of Iuda, and made obeysance to the kyng: and the kyng hearkened vnto them.

c. Whiche were flatterers and idolaters.

18 And so they left the house of the Lorde God of their fathers, and serued groues and idols, and then came the wrath of God vpon Iuda and Hierusalem for this their trespasses sake.

19 And he sent prophetes to them, to bryng them againe vnto the Lord, and they testifien vnto them, but they woulde not heare.

20 And the spirite of God came vpon Zacharia the sonne of Iehoiada the priest, whiche stoode by the people, and sayde vnto them, Thus sayth God, Why transgresse ye the commaundementes of the Lorde, that ye can not prosper? For because ye haue forsaken the Lorde, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against hym, d and stoned him with stones, at the commaundement of the kyng, euen in the court of the house of the Lorde.

d. Idolaters are euer cruel.

22 And so Ioas the kyng remembred not the kindnesse whiche Iehoiada his father had done to him, but slue his sonne, and when he dyed, he sayde, The Lorde looke vpon it, and require it.

Mat. 23. 35

23 And when the yeere was out, the host of Syria came vp against hym, and they came against Iuda and Hierusalem, and destroyed al the lordes of the people, from among the people, and sent al the spoyle of them vnto the kyng to Damascus.

24 For the Syrians came with a smal company of men, and the Lorde delyuered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the Lord God of their fathers: and they gaue sentence against Ioas.

25 And when they were departed from him, they left hym in great diseases: and his owne seruantes conspired against hym, for the blood of the e chyldren of Iehoiada the priest, and slue him on his bed, and he dyed: and they buryed hym in the citie of Dauid, but not in the sepulchres of the kynges.

e. Meaning Zacharie, sonne of Iehoiada his father.

26 And these are they that conspired against him: Zabad the sonne of Simeath, an Ammonite, and Iehosabad the sonne of Simrith, a Moabite.

27 f And his sonnes, and the summe of the tax that was rayled in his time, and the repayring of the house of God, behold, they are wrytten in the storie of the booke of the kynges: and Amazia his sonne raigned in his steade.

2 And he dyd that whiche is a ryght in the syght of the Lorde, but not with a perfect hart.

a. Meaning in respect of his predecessours, albeit he had his imperfections.

3 And as soone as he was setled in the kingdome, he slue his seruantes that had kylled the kyng his father.

4 But he slue not theyr chyldren, because it is wrytten thus in the lawe and booke of Moses, where the Lord commaunded, saying, " The father shall not dye for the chyldren, neither shal the children dye for the fathers: but euery man shal dye for his owne sinne.

" Deu. 24. 16. 4. kin. 14. 6. Ezec. 18. 20.

5 And Amazia gathered Iuda together, and made them captaines ouer thousands, and ouer hundreds, according to the houses of theyr fathers, throughout all Iuda and Beniamin: and he numbred them from twentie yeeres olde, and aboue, and founde among them three hundred thousande chosen men able to goe to battayle, and that coulde handle speare and shielde.

6 He hyred also an hundred thousand strong fightyng men out of Israel, for an hundred talentes of syluer.

7 And there came a man of God to him, and saide, O king, let not the armie of Israel come with thee: for the Lord is not with Israel, to wit, with al the childre of Ephraim.

8 But

8 But yf thou wylt needes be faythlesse, come on, and take the battell in hand, and GOD shall make thee fall before the enimie: for God hath power to helpe, & to cast downe.

9 And Amazia sayd to the man of GOD, What shall we doo then for the hundred talentes whiche I haue geuen to the house of Israel? The man of God answeared, The Lorde is able to geue thee muche more then they be.

10 And Amazia separated the armie that was come to him out of Ephraim, to goe home agayne: wherefore they were exceedyng wroth with Juda, and returned home in great anger.

11 And Amazia tooke hart, and caried out his people, and went to the salt valley, and smote of the children of Seir, ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand dyd the children of Juda take aliue, and caried them vnto the toppe of a rocke, & cast them downe from the toppe of the rocke, that they all to burst.

13 But the souldiers of the b armie whiche Amazia sent away that they should not goe with his people to battell, fell vpon the cities of Juda, from Samaria, vnto Bethron, and smote three thousand of them, and tooke much spoyle.

14 And after that Amazia was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, he brought the goddes of the chyldren of Seir, and set them vp to be his goddes, and bowed hym selfe before them, and burned incense vnto them.

15 Wherefore the Lorde was wroth with Amazia, and sent vnto him a prophete, whiche saide vnto him, Why hast thou sought the goddes of the people which were not able to c deliuer theyr owne people out of thyne hand.

16 And as the prophet talked with him, the kyng sayde vnto him, Haue men made thee of the kinges counsell? Ceasse, why wilt thou be beaten? And the prophete ceassed, and saide, I am sure that God is minded to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and agreest not vnto my counsell.

17 Then Amazia king of Juda, tooke aduice, and sent to Joas the sonne of Joahaz the sonne of Jehu kyng of Israel, and sayd, Come, that we may see one another.

18 And Joas kyng of Israel, * sent to Amazia king of Juda, saying, * A thistle that is in Libanon, sent to a Cedar tree of Libanon, saying, Geue thy daughter to my sonne to wyfe: and there came a wyld beast of Libanon, and trode downe the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Loe, thou hast smitten the Edomites, and thyne hart maketh thee proude to glorifie thee selfe: Nowe therfore bide at home, why doest thou prouoke vnto euil, that thou mayest perishe, both thou, and Juda with thee?

20 But Amazia would not hearken to him: for it came of God, euen to deliuer them into the hand of their enimies, because they sought counsell at the gods of Edom.

21 And so Joas the king of Israel came vp, and they sawe eyther other, both he, and Amazia king of Juda at Bethsames, whiche is in Juda.

22 And Juda was put to the woorse before Israel, and they fled euery man to his tent.

23 And Joas the kyng of Israel tooke Amazia kyng of Juda the sonne of Joas, the sonne of Joahaz, at Bethsames, & brought him to Hierusalem, and tare the wall of Hierusalem, from the gate of Ephraim, vnto the corner gate, foure hundred cubites.

24 And he tooke away also all the gold and siluer, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed Edom, and the treasures of the kinges house, the chyldren also that were in hostage, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amazia the sonne of Joas kyng of Juda, liued after the death of Joas sonne of Joahaz kyng of Israel, fifteene yeeres.

26 The rest of the actes of Amazia first and last, are they not written in the booke of the kinges of Juda and Israel?

27 And after ỳ time that Amazia dyd turne away from the Lorde, they conspired treason agaynst hym in Hierusalem, and when he was fled to Lachis, they sent to Lachis after him, and slue him there:

8 And the Ammonites gaue tribute to Ozias, and his name spread abrode euen to the entring in of Egypt: for he played the man exceedingly.

9 Moreouer, Ozias built towres in Hierusalem by the corner gate, and by the valley gate, and at the turnyng of the wall, and made them strong.

10 And he built towres in the wylderneſſe, and digged many welles: for he had much cattel in the valleys and plaines, plowmen, and vinedressers in the mountaynes, and in Charmel: for he loued husbandry.

11 And Ozias had an host of fighting men, that went out to warre in the armie, accordyng to the number of their office, vnder the hand of Jeiel the scribe, and Maasia the ruler, & vnder the hand of Hanania, vvhiche vvas one of the kinges lordes.

12 And the whole number of the auncient fathers, and of the men of might, were two thousand, and sixe hundred.

13 And vnder the hand of them, was the armie of the men of warre, euen three hundred and seuen thousand, and fiue hundred, that made warre with the power of an armie, helping the kyng against the enimies:

14 And Ozias prouided them throughout all the host, shieldes, speares, helmets, haberginnes, bowes, and slynges for to cast stones.

15 And he made subtill engins in Hierusalem, whiche he inuented, and layde on the towres and corners, to shoote arrowes and great stones withall: and his name spread farre abrode, because he had prepared to him selfe marueilous strength.

b. Prosperitie puffeth vp the hart of man, & maketh him often to forget God.

16 But in his strength b his hart arose to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lorde his God, and went into the temple of the Lorde, to burne incense vpon the aulter of incense.

17 And Azaria the priest went in after him, and with him fourescore priestes of the Lorde, that were valiant men:

18 And they stoode against Ozias the king, and saide vnto him, It pertayneth not to thee Ozias, to burne incense vnto the Lord, but to the priestes ỳ children of Aaron, that are consecrated for to offer incense: c come therefore out of the sanctuarie, for thou hast trespassed, and it is no worshyp to thee before the Lorde God.

c. Though zeale & intention seeme good, yet it can ſe excuſe not rule gods worde fact was reproued and puniſhed.

19 And Ozias was wroth, and had incense in his hand to burne it, and so whyle he had indignation against the priestes, the leprosie sprang in his forehead before the priestes in the house of the Lorde, euen beside the incense aulter.

20 And Azaria the chiefe priest, with al the other priests, looked vpon him, and behold, he was become a leper in his forehead, and they thrust him from thence, and he hasted to goe out, because the Lorde had smitten him.

21 *And Ozias the king continued a leper vnto the day of his death, and dwelt seuerall in an house, beyng a leper, and shut out of the house of the Lorde: and Iotham his sonne had the gouernance of ỳ kings house, and iudged the people of the land.

*1. Sa. 27. Leui. 13.

22 The rest of the actes of Ozias fyrst and last, dyd Esai the prophete, the sonne of Amos, wryte.

23 And so Ozias slept with his fathers, and they buried hym with his fathers in ỳ feeld of the burtall whiche vvas beside the sepulchres of the kinges: for they sayde, He is a leper. And Iotham his sonne raigned in his steede.

when he began to raigne, and he raigned sixteene yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Jerusa, the daughter of Zadoc.

2 And he dyd that whiche was ryght in the sight of the Lorde, in all poyntes as dyd his father Ozias, saue that he came not into the a temple of the Lorde: and the people dyd yet wickedly.

a. To whom offer incense gaynſt God, woorkes of his father & Chap. 26.

3 He built the high gate of the temple of the Lorde, and on the wall (where the house of ordinance was) he built much.

4 Moreouer, he built cities in the mountaynes of Juda, and in the wood countrey he built castles and towres.

5 He fought with the king of the children of Ammon, and preuayled against them, and the chyldren of Ammon gaue him the same yeere an hundred talentes of siluer, and tenne thousand measures of wheate, and ten ten thousande of barley: so muche dyd the chyldren of Ammon geue hym the seconde yeere, and the thyrde also.

6 So Jotham became myghtie, b because he directed his wayes before the Lorde his God.

7 The rest of the actes of Jotham, and all his warres, and his conuersation, loe they are wrytten in the booke of the kynges of Israel and Juda.

8 He was fyue and twentie yeeres old when he beganne to raigne, and raigned sixteene yeres in Hierusalem.

9 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried hym in the citie of Dauid: and Achas his sonne raigned in his steade.

1. Achas an idolater is geuen into the handes of the Syrians and the king of Israel. 23. Achas encreaseth his idolatrie. 26. His death, and successour.

2.reg.16.2. 1 ACHAS * was twentie yeeres olde when he began to raigne, & raigned sixteene yeeres in Hierusalem, and he dyd not that which is right in the sight of the Lord as dyd his father Dauid:

2.reg.16.3. 2 * For he walked in the wayes of the kings of Israel, and made moulten images for Baalim.

3 He offred incense in the valley of the sonne of Hinnom, and burnt his chyldren in fyre, after the abominations of the Heathen, whom the Lord cast out before the chyldren of Israel.

4 He offered also, and burnt incense in the hygh places, and on mountaynes, and vnder euery greene tree.

5 Wherefore the Lorde his God deliuered hym into the hande of the kyng of the Syrians, whiche smote him, and carried away a great multitude of his captiue, and brought them to Damascus: and he was deliuered into the hande of the king of Israel, whiche smote hym with a great slaughter.

6 For Pecah the sonne of Romelia slue in Juda an hundred and twentie thousande in one day, which were al fyghtyng men: and that because they had forsaken the Lorde God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri a "myghtie man of Ephraim, slue Maalia the kynges sonne, and Azrica the gouernour of the house, & Elcana that was next to the kyng.

8 And the chyldren of Israel toke prysoners of their brethren, two hundred thousande women, sonnes, and daughters, and carried away muche spoyle of them, and brought the spoyle to Samaria.

9 But there was a prophet of the Lordes, whose name was Obed: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and sayd vnto them, Beholde, because the Lord God of your fathers is wroth with Juda, a he hath deliuered them into your hand, and ye haue slayne them with cruelnesse that reacheth vp to heauen.

a. Al victorie commeth of God.

10 And nowe ye purpose to keepe vnder the chyldren of Juda and Hierusalem, and to make them bondmen & bondwomen: and doo ye not lade your selues with sinne in the sight of the Lorde your God?

11 Nowe heare me therefore, and deliuer the captiues againe which ye haue take of your brethren: for els shal the great wrath of God be vpon you.

12 Wherefore certayne of the heades of the chyldren of Ephraim, as Azaria the sonne of Johanan, Berechia the sonne of Mesillemoth, and Hezecias the sonne of Sallum, and Amasa the sonne of Hadlai, stoode vp agaynst them that came from the warre:

13 And sayde vnto them, Bryng not in the captiues hyther: for whereas we haue offended towarde God alredie, ye intende to adde more to our synnes and trespasse: for our trespasse is great alredie, and there is a fierce wrath agaynst Israel.

14 And vpon that, the men of armes left the captiues and the spoyle before the lords and al the congregation:

15 And the men that were nowe rehearsed by name, rose vp, and tooke the prysoners, and with the spoile clothed al that were naked among them, and araied them, & shooed them, and gaue them to eate and to drynke, and annoynted them, and carried all that were feeble of them vpon Asses, & brought them to Jericho the citie of Palme trees, to their brethren: and then they returned to Samaria agayne.

16 At that same tyme dyd kyng Achas send vnto the kyng of the Syrians, to haue helpe of them.

17 And the Edomites came agayne, and slue some of Juda, and carried awaye captiues.

18 And the Philistines inuaded the cities in the lowe country, and ouerrane the South of Juda, and tooke Bethsames, and Aialon, and Gederoth, and Socho, with the townes longyng therto, and Thimna with the townes of the same, Gimso and the townes therof, and dwelt there.

19 For the Lorde brought Juda lowe, because of Achas king of "Juda, which made Juda naked, and transgressed sore agaynst the Lorde.

"Or, Israel.

20 And Thilgath Phalnasar kyng of the Assyrians, came vpon hym, & troubled hym, rather then strengthed hym.

21 For Achas tooke awaye a portion out of the house of the Lorde, and out of the kings house, and out of the Lordes houses, & gaue vnto the kyng of the Assyrians: & yet it helped hym not.

22 And in the very tyme of his tribulation, dyd king Achas trespasse yet more against the Lorde.

b. As he falsly supposed.

23 For he offered vnto the gods of Damascus which b smote hym, and he sayde, Because the gods of the kinges of Syria helpe them, therefore wyl I offer to them, that they maye helpe me also: but they were his destruction, and the destruction of al Israel.

24 And Achas geathered together the vessels of the house of God, and brake them, & shutte vp the doores of the house of the Lorde, and made hym aulters in euery corner of Hierusalem.

25 And in all the cities of Juda he made high places, to burne incense vnto other gods, and angred the Lorde God of his fathers.

26 The rest of his actes, and his woorkes fyrst and last, beholde they are written in the booke of the kinges of Juda and Israel.

27 And Achas slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the citie of Hierusalem: but brought hym not vnto the sepulchres of the kinges of Israel, and Hezecia his sonne raigned in his steade.

¶ The xxx. Chapter.

Hezecia repaireth the temple, and aduertiseth the Lewites of the corruption of religion.

*4. kin. 18. 1. 1 HEzecia began to raigne when he was fyue and twentie yeeres olde, and he raigned niene and twentie yeeres in Hierusalem: and his mothers name was Abia, the daughter of Zacharia.

2 And he dyd that whiche was ryght in the syght of the Lorde in all poyntes, as dyd Dauid his father.

a. Which Achas had shut vp.

b. An example for al princes, that fyrste of al they establyshe the true religion of god,

c. Meanyng al the idolles, aulters, groues, & whatsoeuer was occupyed in their seruice, & wherewith the temple was defyled.

3 He opened the a doores of the house of the Lorde, in the first yeere and first b moneth of his raigne, and repayred them.

4 And he brought in the priestes and the Leuites, and geathered them togeather into the east streete,

5 And said vnto them, Heare me ye Leuites, and nowe be sanctified, and halowe the house of the Lord GOD of your fathers, c bryng fylthynesse out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers haue trespassed, and doone euil in the eyes of the Lorde our GOD, and haue forsaken hym, and turned away their faces from the "habitation of the Lorde, and turned theyr backes on it.

"Or, tabernacle.

7 And besydes that, they haue shut vp the doores of the porche, & quenched the lampes, and haue neyther burnt incense, nor offered whole burnt offerynges in the holy place vnto the god of Israel.

d. The rempt of gion is cause of plagues.

8 d Wherfore the wrath of the Lorde fel on Juda and Hierusalem, & he hath brought them to trouble, to be woondred on, and to be hissed at, euen as ye see with your eyes.

9 For loe, our fathers were ouerthrowen with the swoorde, & our sonnes, our daughters, and our wyues were caryed away captiue for the same cause.

10 And nowe it is in myne hart to make a couenant with the Lorde God of Israel, that he may turne awaye his heauie indignation from vs.

11 Nowe therfore my sonnes be not negligent: for the Lord hath chosen you to stande before hym, and for to minister and serue hym, and to burne incense.

12 Then the Leuites arose, Mahath the sonne of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azaria, of the chyldren of the Caathites: and of the sonnes of Merari, Cis the sonne of Abdi, & Azaria the sonne of Jahalelel: and of the sonnes of the Gersonites, Joah the sonne of Simma, and Eden the sonne of Joah:

13 And of the sonnes of Elizaphan, Simri and Jehiel: and of the sonnes of Asaph, Zacharia and Matthania:

14 And of the sonnes of Heman, Jehiel, and Simei: and of the sonnes of Idithun, Semaia, and Dziel.

15 And they geathered their brethren, and purified them selues, and came accordyng to the commaundement of the kyng, & the woordes of the Lord, for to cleanse the house of the Lorde.

16 And the priestes went into the inner partes of the house of the Lorde, to cleanse it, and brought out al the vncleannesse that they founde in the temple of the Lorde, into the court of the house of the Lorde: and the Leuites tooke it, to carrie it out into the brooke Cedron.

17 They began the first day of the first moneth to purifie, and the eyght day of the moneth came they to the porch of the Lord: so they sanctified the house of the Lorde in eyght dayes, and in the sixteenth day of the first moneth they made an ende.

18 And they went in to Hezecia the king, and sayde, We haue cleansed al the house of the Lorde, the aulter of whole burnt offeryng, with al his vessels, & the shewe bread table, with all his "apparel:

"Or, implements.

19 And

19 And al the vessels which kyng Achas did cast aside when he raigned and transgressed, them we haue prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the aulter of the Lorde.

20 And Ezecia the kyng rose early, and gathered the lordes of the citie, and went vp to the house of the Lorde.

21 And they brought seuen oxen, seuen rammes, seuen sheepe, and seuen hee goates, to be a sinne offeryng, for the kyngdome, for the sanctuarie, and for Juda: and he commaunded the priestes, the sonnes of Aaron, to offer them on the aulter of the Lorde.

22 And they slue the oxen, and the priestes receyued the blood, and e sprinckled it on the aulter: lykewise when they had slayne the rammes, they sprinckled the blood vpon the aulter: they slue also the sheepe, and they sprinckled the blood vpon the aulter.

23 And then they brought forth the hee goates for the sinne offering, before the king and the congregation, and f put theyr handes vpon them.

24 And the priestes slue them, and with the blood of them they cleansed the aulter, to make satisfaction for al Israel: for the kyng commaunded that the whole burnt offeryng and the sinne offeryng shoulde be made for al Israel:

25 And set the Leuites in the house of the Lorde, with cymbals, psalteries, & harpes, according to the commaundement of Dauid, and of Gad the kynges Seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commaundement of the Lord through the hand of his prophetes.

26 And the Leuites stoode, hauyng instrumentes of Dauid: and the priestes held the trumpettes.

27 And Ezecia commaunded to offer the whole burnt offeryng vpon the aulter: And when the whole burnt offeryng began, the song of the Lorde began also, and the trumpettes, with the instrumentes that were ordeyned by the hand of Dauid king of Israel.

28 And al the congregation woorshypped, syngyng a song, & blowyng with the trumpettes: and al this continued vntyl the whole burnt offeryng was finished.

29 And when they had made an ende of offeryng, the kyng and all that were present with hym, bowed them selues, and woorshipped.

30 And *Ezecia the kyng, and the lordes spake to the Leuites, to prayse the Lorde with the woordes of Dauid and of Asaph the Seer: and they sang prayses with gladnesse, and the other bowed them selues, and woorshypped.

31 And Ezecia answeared and sayd, Nowe ye haue consecrated your handes vnto the Lorde: goe to therefore, and bryng the sacrifices & thanke offerynges into the house of the Lord. And the congregation brought in the sacrifices and thanke offeringes, and whole burnt offerynges, as many as were of a free liberal hart.

32 And the number of the whole burnt offerynges, whiche the congregation brought, was threescore and ten oxen, an hundred rammes, and two hundred sheepe: whiche were all for the whole burnt offering of the Lorde.

33 And there were dedicated fyue hundred oxen, and three thousande sheepe.

34 And the priestes were to fewe to slay all the whole burnt offerynges: but theyr brethren the Leuites dyd helpe them, tyll they had ended the woorke, and vntyl ỳ priestes were sanctified: for the Leuites were purer harted to be sanctified then the priestes.

35 And thereto the whole burnt offerynges were many, with the fat of the peace offerynges, and the drynke offerynges that belong to the whole burnt offeryng: and so the seruice, parteyning to the house of the Lorde, was finished.

36 And Ezecia reioyced, and al the people, that God had made the folke so redy, and that the thyng was so soone doone.

¶ The.xxx.Chapter.

The keepyng of the Passouer by the kinges commaundement.

1 AND Ezecia sent to all Israel and Juda, and wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasse, that they should come to the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, & keepe the Passouer vnto the Lorde God of Israel.

2 And the kyng helde a counsell with his lordes, and al the congregation of Hierusalem, to keepe the feast of Passouer in the a seconde moneth:

3 For they coulde not keepe it at that tyme, because the priestes were not sanctified sufficiently, neyther was the people geathered togeather to Hierusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king and al the congregation.

5 And they decreed that it should be proclaymed throughout all Israel, from Beerseba to Dan, that they shoulde come and holde the feast of Passouer vnto the Lorde God of Israel at Hierusalem: for they had not done it of a great season as it was b written.

a. Though they ought to haue done it in the first moneth, as Exodus xii yet yf any were not cleane or had a long tourney, they might deferre it to the seconde moneth, as Num. 9. 10.

b. That is, in suche sort and perfection as God had appoynted.

6 So the postes went with letters of the kynges and of his lordes, throughout al Israel and Juda, and at the commaundement of the kyng they sayde, Ye chyldren of Israel, turne agayne vnto the Lorde God of Abraham, Isahac, and Israel, and he wyl returne to the remnant that are escaped of you out of the hand of the kynges of the Assyrians.

7 And be not ye lyke your fathers and your brethren, whiche trespassed agaynst the Lorde God of their fathers, whiche gaue them vp to be destroyed, as ye see.

8 And nowe be not ye stiffenecked lyke as were your fathers: but yeelde your selues vnto the Lorde, & enter into his holy place, which he hath sanctified for euer, and serue the Lorde your God, and the fiercenesse of his wrath shal turne away from you.

9 For if ye turne agayne vnto the Lorde, then shal your brethren and your chyldren finde compassion in the presence of them that tooke them captiue, and they shal come agayne vnto this lande: for the Lorde your God is gratious and merciful, and wyl not turne away his face from you, yf ye conuert vnto hym.

10 And so the postes went from citie to citie, through the lande of Ephraim, & Manasse, euen vnto Zabulon: but they laughed them to scorne, and mocked them.

11 Neuerthelesse, yet diuers of Aser, Manasse, & of Zabulon, submitted them selues, and came to Hierusalem.

12 And the hande of GOD was in Juda, and he gaue them one hart to doo the commaundement of the king, and of the rulers, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde.

13 And there assembled to Hierusalem much people, and there was present a mightie great congregation, to holde the feast of sweete bread in the seconde moneth.

14 And they arose, and remooued the aulters that were in Hierusalem: and all the aulters for incense dyd they away, and cast them into the brooke Cedron.

15 And they slue the Passouer the fourteenth day of the seconde moneth: and the priestes and Leuites [illegible] were c ashamed, sanctified them selues, & brought in the whole burnt offerynges into the house of the Lorde.

c. Seeing theyr owne negligence, and the rediness of the people.

16 And they stoode in their office after their maner, and accordyng to the lawe of Moses the man of God: and the priestes sprinckled the blood which they receyued of the hande of the Leuites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified, and therefore the Leuites had the charge of the kylling of the Passouer for euery one that was not cleane, to sanctifie hym vnto the Lorde.

18 For many of the people, and very many of Ephraim, Manasse, Isachar, and Zabulon, were not cleansed, and yet dyd eate the Passouer, agaynst the lawe appoynted: but Ezecia prayed for them, saying, The good Lorde be merciful to warde euery one,

19 That prepareth his hart to seeke the Lorde God, the God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuarie.

20 And the Lorde heard Ezecia, and d healed the people.

d. That accepted purified.

21 And the chyldren of Israel that were present at Hierusalem, helde the feast of sweete bread seuen dayes with great gladnesse: and the Leuites and the priestes prayed the Lorde day by day, synging with loude instrumentes vnto the Lorde.

22 And Ezecia spake "comfortablie vnto al the Leuites that had good knowledge to syng vnto the Lorde: and they dyd eate throughout that feast seuen dayes long, and offered peace offerynges, and thanked the Lorde God of theyr fathers.

" Or, to their hart.

23 And the whole assemblie tooke counsel to doo so other seuen dayes: and they helde those seuen dayes with gladnesse.

24 For Ezecia kyng of Juda, dyd geue to the congregation e a thousande young Oxen, and seuen thousande Sheepe: and the lordes gaue out to the congregation a thousand Oxen, and ten thousand Sheepe, & a great number of ỹ priestes were sanctified.

e. He dowed the goodes rallied & seruing of God.

25 And al the congregation of Juda, with the priestes and Leuites, and al the congregation that came out of Israel, & the strangers that came out of the lande of Israel, and that dwelt in Juda, reioyced.

26 And there was great gladnesse in Hierusalem: for since the tyme of Solomon the sonne of Dauid kyng of Israel, there was no suche ioy in Hierusalem.

27 And the priestes and the Leuites arose, and blessed the people: and theyr voyce was heard of the Lorde, and theyr prayer came vp vnto heauen his holy dwellyng place.

¶ The xxxi. Chapter.

1. The people destroy idolatrie. 2. Ezecia appointeth priestes and Leuites, 4. and prouideth for theyr lyuyng.

1 AND when al these thinges were finished, al Israel that were present in the cities of Juda, went out and brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and all to brake the hygh places and aulters throwout al Juda & Beniamin, in Ephraim also and Manasse, vntyl they had vtterly destroyed them all: and all the chyldren of Israel returned euery man to his possession, and to their owne cities.

2 And Hezecia appoynted sundrye companies of the Priestes and Leuites, after the diuersitie of their ministrations, euery man accordyng to his office, both Priestes and Leuites, for the whole burnt offeryng, and peace offerynges, to minister, and to geue thanks and prayse in the gates of the a host of the Lorde.

3 And the kynges portion of his substaunce that he gaue, were dayly whole burnt offerynges in the mornyng and euenyng, and whole burnt offerynges for the Sabboth dayes, newe Moones, and solemne feastes, accordyng as it is wrytten in the law of the Lorde.

4 And he bade the people that dwelt in Hierusalem, to geue a b parte to the Priestes and Leuites, that they myght with more courage apply them selues to the law of the Lorde.

5 And as soone as the kynges commaundement came abrode, the chyldren of Israel brought abundance of first fruites, of corne, wyne, oyle, honie, & of all maner of fruites of the feelde, and the tythes of al maner of thynges brought they in plenteously.

6 And the chyldren of Israel and Juda, that dwelt in ỳ cities of Juda, they also brought in the tythes of Oxen, and Sheepe, & other holye tythes, whiche were consecrate vnto the Lorde their God, and layde them all by heapes.

7 In the thyrd moneth they began to lay the heapes in maner of a fundation, and finished them in the seuenth moneth.

8 And when Hezecia and the lordes came and sawe the heapes, they blessed the Lord, and his people Israel.

9 And Hezecia questioned with the Priests and the Leuites concernyng the heapes.

10 And Azaria the cheefe Priest, of the house of Zadoc, answeared hym, and sayde, Since the people began to bryng the heaue offeringes into the house of the Lorde, c we also haue had ynough to eate, and yet remayneth plentie: for the Lorde hath blessed his people, and this heape is left.

11 And Hezecia bade prepare the " chambers in the house of the Lorde: and they dyd prepare them,

12 And caried in the fyrst fruites, the tithes, and the dedicate thynges faythfullye, ouer whiche Chononia the Leuite had the rule, and Semei his brother next to hym:

13 And Iehiel, Azaria, Nahath, Asael, Ierimoth, Iosabad, Eliel, Iesmachia, Mahath, & Banaia were ouerseers, ordeyned by Chononia, and Semei his brother was an officer of Hezecia the kyng, and Azaria was the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Chore the sonne of Imna the Leuite, and porter of the East doore, had the ouersyght of the thynges that were offered of a free wil vnto God, to distribute the oblations of the Lorde, and the holye thynges that were consecrate.

15 And vnder his hande were Eden, Miniamin, Iesua, Semaia, Amaria, & Sechania, in the cities of the Priestes, appoynted of their fidelitie to geue to their brethren their partes, as well to the small, as to the great:

16 Also to their generation, beyng males, from three yeeres olde, and vpwarde, euen vnto euery one that entreth into the house of the Lorde, they shall geue day by day for their ministration, and for their geuyng attendaunce: and for their diuers waityngs by course,

17 Both to the generation of the Priestes and Leuites, throughout the housholde of their fathers, from twentie yeeres & aboue, to wayte when their courses came:

18 And to the families of all their babes, wyues, sonnes, and daughters, through all the congregation: for vppon the fidelitie of them, were the holy thynges bestowed.

19 And to the chyldren of Aaron the Priestes which were in the feeldes and suburbs of their cities, citie by citie, the men whose names were expressed afore, shoulde geue portions, to all the males among the Priestes, & to al the Leuites, accordyng to their number.

20 And of this maner did Hezecia throughout al Juda, and wrought that is good and ryght, and true before the Lorde his God.

21 And in all the woorkes that he began for the seruice of the house of God, accordyng to the lawe and the commaundementes, he sought his God: and that dyd he with al his hart, and prospered.

¶ The .xxxii. Chapter.

1. Sennacherib inuadeth Iuda. 3. Hezecia prepareth for the warre. 7. He exhorteth the people to put their trust in the Lorde.

1 AFter that these deedes were faythfully doone, Sennacherib kyng of the Assyrians came, and entred into Juda, and compassed the strong cities, and thought to wynne them for hym selfe. *4.kin.18.13 Esai.36.1. Eccle.48.19

2 And so when Hezecia sawe that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fyght agaynst Hierusalem,

3 He tooke counsell with his lordes and men of myght, to stoppe the water of the fountaynes without the citie: and they dyd help hym.

4 For there geathered many of the people togeather, and stopt all the welles, and the brooke that ranne through the myddes of the land, saying, Why shal the kynges of the Assyrians come and fynde muche water?

5 And Hezecia went to lustyly, and buylt vp the wall where it was broken, and made vp the towres, and another wall without, and repayred Millo in the citie of David, and made many dartes and shieldes.

6 And he set captaynes of warre ouer the people, & geathered them togeather to hym in the large streete of the gate of the citie, and spake gently to them, saying,

7 Plucke vp your hartes, and be strong, be not afrayde nor discouraged for the kyng of the Assyrians, and for all the multitude that he hath with hym: for there be mo with vs then with hym.

a. That is, the power of man.
b. This declareth that Hezecia dyd euer put his trust in God, and yet made hym selfe strong, and vsed lawful meanes, lest he shoulde seeme to tempt God.

8 With hym is an arme of a flesh, but with vs is the b Lorde our God, for to helpe vs, and to fyght our battelles. And the people tooke a courage through the wordes of Hezecia kyng of Juda.

9 After this dyd Sennacherib kyng of the Assyrians sende of his seruantes to Hierusalem (but he hym selfe remayned besyde Lachis, hauyng al his power with hym) vnto Hezecia kyng of Juda, & vnto all Juda that were at Hierusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sennacherib kyng of the Assyrians, Wherein doo ye trust, O ye that dwel in Hierusalem whiche is beleged?

11 Doth not Hezecia entyce you to geue ouer your selues vnto death, hunger, and thyrste, saying, The Lorde our GOD shal rydde vs out of the hande of the kyng of the Assyrians?

c. The wicked make no difference betwene true religion and false.

12 Hath not the same Hezecia put downe his hygh places and his c aulters, and commaunded Juda and Hierusalem, saying, Ye shall worshyp before one aulter, and burne incense vpon the same?

13 Knowe ye not what I and my fathers haue doone vnto al the people of the landes? Were the gods of the people of other landes able or mightie to saue their lands out of my hande?

14 Which of al the gods of those nations that my fathers destroyed, could deliuer his people out of my hande? And shall your GOD be able to delyuer you out of my hande?

15 Wherefore nowe let not Hezecia deceyue you, nor perswade you of this fashion, nor yet beleeue hym: For as no God among all nations and kyngdomes, was able to rydde his people out of my hande, and out of the hande of my fathers: howe muche lesse shal your goddes be able to keepe you out of my hande?

16 And yet moe thynges dyd his seruantes speake agaynst the Lorde God, and agaynst his seruant Hezecia.

17 And Sennacherib also wrote a letter to rayle on the Lorde God of Israel, and spake agaynst hym, saying, As the gods of the nations of other landes haue not been able to delyuer their people out of my hande: euen so shal not the God of Hezecia delyuer his people out of my hande.

18 And they cryed with a loude voyce in the Iewes speache vnto the people of Hierusalem that were on the wal, to feare them, and to make them fayntharted, and that they myght take the citie.

19 And they spake agaynst the God of Hierusalem, as agaynst the gods of the nations of the earth, vvhiche vvere the woorkes of the handes of men.

20 But Hezecia the kyng, and the prophete Esai the sonne of Amos, d prayed agaynst that blasphemie, and cryed vp to heauen.

d. Prayer the best remedy in al trouble and daunger.

21 And the Lorde sent an angell, whiche destroyed al the men of warre, and the lordes and captaynes of the host of the kyng of the Assyrians, that he turned his face agayne with shame toward his owne land: & when he was come into the house of his God, they that came of his owne body slue hym there with the swoorde.

22 And so the Lorde saued Hezecia and the inhabiters of Hierusalem out of the hand of Sennacherib the kyng of the Assyrians, and from the hande of al other, and maynteyned them on euery syde.

23 And many brought offerynges vnto the Lorde to Hierusalem, and presentes to Hezecia kyng of Juda: so that he was magnified in the syght of al nations from thencefoorth.

24 In those dayes * Hezecia was sicke to the death, and prayed vnto the Lorde: whiche answeared hym, and shewed hym a woonderful miracle. *4.kin.20. Esai.38.

25 But Hezecia dyd not agayne vnto God accordyng to it that he had shewed hym: for his hart arose, and there came wrath vpon hym, and vpon Juda and Hierusalem.

26 Notwithstandyng, Hezecia submitted hym selfe, after that his hart was ryse vp, he, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem: and the wrath of the Lorde came not vpon them in the dayes of Hezecia.

27 And Hezecia had exceedyng muche richeſte & honour: and he gate hym treaſures of ſyluer and golde, pretious ſtones, and ſpices, shieldes, & of al maner pleaſant iewels, 28 And made ſtore houſes for the fruites of corne, for wyne and oyle, and ſtalles for all maner of beaſtes, and coates for sheepe.

29 And he made hym cities, and had of sheepe and oxen great abundance: for God had geuen hym ſubſtance exceedyng much.
30 This ſame Ezecia ſtopped the vpper water ſpringes of Gion, & brought them downe to the Weſt ſide of the citie of Dauid: and Ezecia proſpered in al his workes.
31 And when *the princes of Babylon ſent vnto hym ambaſſadours, to enquyre of the woonder that was done in the lande, God left hym, f to trye hym, and that all that was in his hart might be knowen.
32 The reſt of the deedes of Ezecia, and his goodneſſe, beholde, they are written in the viſion of Eſai the Prophete the ſonne of Amos, in the booke of the kynges of Iuda and Iſrael.
33 And Ezecia ſlept with his fathers, and they buried him in the moſt worthie place of the ſepulchres of the ſonnes of Dauid, & al Iuda and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem dyd him honour at his death: and Manaſſes his ſonne raigned in his ſtead.

¶ The.xxxiii. Chapter.

1. Manaſſes an idolater, 9. cauſeth Iuda to erre, 11. He is ledde pryſoner into Babylon.

4.kin.21.1. 1 MAnaſſes was twelue yeeres old when he beganne to raigne, and he raigned fiftie and fiue yeeres in Hieruſalem:
2 But did euyl in the ſyght of the Lorde, like vnto the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lorde caſt out before the chyldren of Iſrael.
3 For he went backe, and buylt the hygh places which Ezecia his father had broken downe: and he reared vp aulters for Baalim, and made groues, and woorſhypped al the hoſt of heauen, and ſerued them.
4 And he buylt aulters in the houſe of the Lorde, whereas the Lorde yet had ſayde, 2.kin.7.10. *In Hieruſalem ſhal my name be for euer.
5 And he buylded aulters for al the hoſt of heauen, in the two courtes of the houſe of the Lorde.
6 And he burnt his chyldren in fyre in the valley of the ſonne of Himmon: he was a ſorcerer, he regarded the crying of byrdes, vſed enchauntmentes, and mayntayned woorkers with ſpirites, and ſeers of fortunes, and wrought muche euyl in the ſight of the Lorde to anger hym withal.
7 And he put the carued image, and an idol, which he had made, in the houſe of GOD, *of which houſe God ſayde to Dauid and to Solomon his ſonne, In this houſe, and in Hieruſalem which I haue choſen afore al the tribes of Iſrael, wyl I put my name, for euer. *2.kin.7.10. 3.kin.8.16.
8 Neyther wyl I make the foote of Iſrael to remooue any more out of the lande whiche I haue ordeyned for your fathers, yf ſo be that they wil be diligent, and doo al that I haue commaunded them in all the lawe and ſtatutes, and ordinances by the hand of Moſes.
9 And ſo Manaſſes made Iuda, and the inhabitours of Hieruſalem to erre, and to doo woorſe then the heathen whom ỹ Lord deſtroyed before the chyldren of Iſrael.
10 And the Lorde ſpake a vnto Manaſſes, & to his people: but they would not regard. a. Meaning by his prophetes.
11 Wherefore the Lord brought vpon them the captaynes of the hoſt of the kyng of the Aſſyrians, which tooke Manaſſes, & bound hym with fetters and chaynes, and caryed hym to Babylon.
12 And when he was in tribulation, he beſought the Lorde his God, and humbled hym ſelfe exceedingly before the God of his fathers, 13 And made interceſſion to hym: and God was b intreated of hym, and heard his prayer, and brought hym agayne to Hieruſalem into his kyngdome: and then Manaſſes knewe that the Lorde was God. b. Affliction geueth vnderſtandyng.
14 After this he buylt a wall without the citie of Dauid, on the Weſt ſide of Gion, in the valley as they come to the fiſhe gate, and rounde about Ophel, and brought it vp of a very great heyght, & put captaynes of warre in al the ſtrong cities of Iuda.
15 And he tooke away ſtrange goddes, and images out of the houſe of God, and al the aulters that he had buylt in the mount of the houſe of God and Hieruſalem, and caſt them out of the citie.
16 And he prepared the aulter of the Lord, and ſacrificed thereon peace offeringes, and thanke offerynges, and charged Iuda to ſerue the Lorde God of Iſrael.
17 Neuertheleſſe, the people did offer ſtyll in the hygh places, howbeit vnto the Lorde their God onely.
18 The reſt of the actes of Manaſſes, and his prayer vnto his God, and the woordes of the Seers that ſpake to hym in the name of the Lorde God of Iſrael, beholde, they are written in the layinges of the kynges of Iſrael.
19 And his prayer, and howe that he was heard, and all his ſinnes, and his treſpaſſe, and the places where he made hygh places, and set vp groues & images before he was humbled, beholde, they are written among the sayinges of the Seers.

20 And Manasses slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in his e owne house, and Amon his sonne raigned in his roome.

e. Because he had so horribly offended against the lord, they dyd not bury him in the sepulchre of the kynges, but in the garden of the kynges house.

21 Amon was two and twentie yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, and raigned two yeeres in Hierusalem.

22 But he did euyl in the syght of the Lord, lyke as dyd Manasses his father: for Amon sacrificed vnto al the carued images which Manasses his father had made, and serued them, 23 And submitted not hym selfe before the Lord, as Manasse his father had humbled hym selfe: but Amon trespassed greatly.

24 And his owne seruantes conspyred against him, and slue him in his owne house.

25 But the people of the lande slue al them that had conspyred against kyng Amon: and the same people of the lande made Iosias his sonne kyng in his roome.

¶ The .xxxiii. Chapter.

1. Iosias destroyeth the idols, 8. and restoreth the temple. 14. The booke of the lawe is founde.

4.king.22.1. 1 IOsias * was eyght yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned in Hierusalem thirtie and one yeeres.

2 And he dyd that which was ryght in the syght of the Lord, and walked in the wayes of Dauid his father, and bowed neyther to the ryght hande nor to the leaft.

3 In the eyght yeere of his raigne, when he was yet a chylde, he beganne to seeke after the God of Dauid his father: and in the twelfth yeere he began to purge Iuda and Hierusalem, from the hygh places, groues, carued images, and images of mettal.

a. He woulde see the reformation with his owne eyes.

4 And they brake downe the aulters of Baalim euen in his a presence: and other images that were in greater honour then they, he caused to be destroyed: and the groues, carued images, and images of mettal, he brake, and made dust of them, and strowed it vppon the graues of them that had offered vnto them.

5 And he burnt the bones of the priestes vpon the aulters of them, and cleansed Iuda and Hierusalem:

b. The godly zeale of this good prince, is a woorthie example for all princes to followe.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasse, Ephraim, Simeon, vnto Nephthali, and in the wyldernesse of them rounde about.

7 He plucked asunder the b aulters and the groues, and dyd beate the images, and stampe them to powder, and cut downe al the idols throughout al the lande of Israel, and returned to Hierusalem agayne.

8 In the eyghteenth yeere of his raigne, when he had pourged the lande and the temple, he sent Saphan the sonne of Azalia, and Maasiah the gouernour of the citie, and Ioah the sonne of Ioahaz the recorder, to repayre the house of the Lorde his God.

9 And when they came to Helcia the hygh priest, they deliuered the money, that was brought into the house of God, whiche the Leuites that kept the entries had geathered of the hand of Manasse and Ephraim, and of al that yet remayned in Israel, & of al Iuda and Beniamin, and they returned to Hierusalem.

10 And they put it in the handes of the woorkemen that had the ouersight of the house of the Lorde, and they gaue it to the labourers, that wrought in the house of the Lorde, to repayre and mende the house.

11 Euen to Masons and Carpenters, gaue they it, to geat hewed stone, and timber, for couples, and for beames of the houses, whiche the kynges of Iuda had destroyed.

c. Pryuie officers.

12 And the men did the woorke c vpon trust: and the ouerseers of them to courage them forwarde, were Iahath and Obadia, Leuites, of the chyldren of Merari: and Zecharia and Mesullam of the children of the Caathites, and other of the Leuites, whiche all coulde skyl of instrumentes of musicke.

13 And ouer the bearers of burdens, & ouer al that wrought in what so euer woorkemanship it were, were there scribes, officers, and porters of the Leuites.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lorde, Helcia the priest founde the booke of the lawe of the Lorde geuen by Moses.

15 And Helcia answeared and sayde to Saphan the scribe, I haue founde the booke of the lawe in the house of the Lord. And Helcia gaue the booke to Saphan.

d. Forth kyng was maunded haue cause ly a copie this booke to reade in day & Deut 17.

16 And Saphan d caryed the booke to the kyng, and brought the kyng woorde agayne, saying, All that was committed to thy seruantes, that doo they.

17 And they haue geathered togeather the money that was founde in the house of the Lord, and haue deliuered it into the handes of the ouerseers of the woorke, and to the handes of the woorkemen.

18 And then Saphan the scribe shewed the kyng, saying, Helcia the priest hath geuen me a booke: and Saphan read in it before the kyng.

19 And when the kyng had hearde the woordes wordes of the lawe, he e tare his clothes.

20 And the king commaunded Helcia, and Ahican the sonne of Saphan, and Abdon the sonne of Micah, and Saphan the scribe, and Asaa, a seruant of the kynges, saying, 21 Goe and enquire of the Lorde for me, and for them that are left in Israel and Juda, concernyng the wordes of the booke that is founde: for great is the wrath of the Lorde that is fallen vpon vs, because our fathers haue not kept the worde of the Lord, to doo after al that is wrytten in this booke.

22 And Helcia, and they that the kyng had appoynted, went to Hulda a prophetisse, the wyfe of Sallum the sonne of Thecuath, the sonne of Hasra, keeper of the wardrobe, (for she dwelt in Hierusalem within the second wal) and so they communed with her.

23 She answeared them, Thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, Tel ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Euen thus sayth the Lord, Behold, I wil bryng euil vpon this place, and vpon the inhabiters thereof, euen al the curses that are written in the booke whiche they haue read before the kyng of Juda:

25 Because they haue forsaken me, and haue offred vnto other goddes, to anger me with al manner of wourks of their handes: therfore is my wrath set on fyre agaynst this place, and shal not be quenched.

26 And as for the kyng of Juda which sent you to enquire of the Lorde, so shall ye say vnto hym, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, concernyng the wordes whiche thou hast hearde, 27 Because thine hart dyd f melt, and thou diddest humble thee selfe before God, when thou heardest his wordes agaynst this place, & agaynst the inhabiters thereof, and humbledst thee selfe before me, and taredst thy clothes, and diddest weepe before me, I haue hearde it also, sayth the Lorde.

28 Behold, I wyl take thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be put in thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shal not see all the mischiefe that I wyl bryng vpon this place, and vpon the inhabiters of the same. * And they brought the kyng worde agayne.

29 Then the kyng sent, and geathered togeather al the elders of Juda and Hierusalem:

30 And the kyng went vp into the house of the Lorde, and al the men of Juda, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem, and the priestes and Leuites, and al the people great and smal, and the king dyd reade in their eares al the wordes of the bookes of the couenant that was founde in the house of the Lorde.

31 And the kyng stoode at his standyng, and made a couenant before the Lorde, to folow the Lord, and to kepe his commaundementes, his wytnesses, and his statutes with all his hart, and with al his soule, and to fulfyl the wordes of the couenant wrytten in the sayde booke.

32 And he set in their roome all them that were found in Hierusalem and Beniamin: and the inhabiters of Hierusalem, dyd accordyng to the couenant of the Lord God of their fathers.

33 And Josias put away al manner of abominations out of al landes that parteyned to the children of Israel, and g constrayned al that were founde in Israel, to serue the Lorde their God: and they turned not aside from the Lord God of their fathers, as long as he lyued.

g. Because he had charge ouer al, & must answeare for euery one that perished, he thought it his duetie to see that al should make profession to receiue the worde of God.

¶ The xxxv. Chapter.

1. Josias keepeth the Passeouer. 2. He setteth foorth Gods seruice. 20. He fighteth agaynst the King of Egypt, and dyeth. 24. The people bewayle hym.

1 AND * Josias helde the feast of Passeouer vnto the Lorde in Hierusalem, and they a slue the Passeouer in the fourtienth day of the first moneth.

2 And he set the priestes in their offices, and ayded them in the seruice of the house of the Lorde,

3 And sayde vnto the Leuites that taught al Israel, & were sanctified vnto the Lorde, Put the holy arke in the house which Solomon the sonne of Dauid king of Israel did builde, it shalbe no more a burden vpon your shoulders, but nowe serue the Lorde your God, and his people Israel.

4 And prepare your selues by your auncient houshelds and companies, accordyng to the wryting of Dauid kyng of Israel, and the wrytyng of Solomon his sonne:

5 And stande in the holy place, accordyng to the diuision of the auncient housholdes of your brethren the children of the people, and after the diuision of the auncient houshelds of the Leuites:

6 Kil the Passeouer, & sanctifie your selues, and prepare your brethren, that they may doo accordyng to the worde of the Lord by the hande of Moses.

7 And Josias gaue to the people, sheepe, lambes, and kyddes, all for the Passeouer, and for al that were present, thyrtie thousande by tale, and three thousand oxen: and these were of the kynges substance.

8 And his lordes gaue willyngly both vnto vnto the people, and to the priestes, and vnto the Leuites, Helcia also, Zacharia, and Iehiel, rulers of the house of God, gaue vnto the priestes for the Passeouer offerynges, two thousande and sixe hundred sheepe, and three hundred oxen.

a. Liberal prouision for the ministerie.

9 a Cononia, Semeia, and Nathanael, his brethren, and Hazabiah, and Iehiel, and Iosabad, rulers of the Leuites, gaue vnto the Leuites Passeouer offerynges, fyue thousande sheepe, and fiue hundred oxen.

10 And so the seruice was prepared, and the priestes stoode in theyr places, and the Leuites in theyr distinct companies, at the kynges commaundement.

11 And they slue the Passouer, & the priestes sprynckled the blood with theyr hande, and the Leuites pulled of the skynnes of the beastes.

12 And they set away the whole burnt offerynges, to geue them vnto the people that were diuided by auncient houses: and that they shoulde offer vnto the Lorde, lyke as it is wrytten in the booke of Moses: and so did they with the oxen also.

13 And they dressed the Passeouer with fyre, as the manner was: and the other dedicate beastes, sodde they in pottes, caldrons, and pannes, and diuided them speedyly among al the people.

14 And afterward they made redy for them selues, and for the priestes: for the priestes the chyldren of Aaron were busied in offeryng of whole burnt offerynges, and the fat vntyl nyght: therfore the Leuites prepared for them selues, & for the priestes the sonnes of Aaron.

15 And the syngers the chyldren of Asaph stoode in theyr standyng, accordyng to the commaundement of Dauid, and Asaph, Heman, and Idithun, the kynges b Seer: and the porters wayted at euery gate, and might not depart from theyr seruice: for theyr brethren the Leuites prepared for them.

b. Meanyng the prophete.

16 And so all the seruice of the Lorde was prepared the same day, to offer the Passeouer, and to offer whole burnt offerings vpon the aulter of the Lorde, accordyng to the commaundement of kyng Iosias.

17 And the chyldren of Israel that were present, kept the Passouer the same tyme, and the feast of sweete bread, seuen dayes.

18 And there was no Passeouer lyke to that kept in Israel, from the dayes of Samuel the prophete, neyther dyd all the kynges of Israel holde such a Passeouer as dyd Iosias, and the priestes, and Leuites, and al Iuda and Israel that were present, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem.

19 This Passeouer was holden in the eighteenth yeere of the raigne of Iosias.

20 After al this, * when Iosias had prepared the temple, Necho kyng of Egypt came vp to fight agaynst Charcamis, besyde Euphrates: and Iosias went out against him. * 4.kin. 29.

21 Which sent messengers to him, and said, What haue I to doo with thee, thou kyng of Iuda? " Be not thou agaynst thee selfe this day, for my warre is agaynst another house, and God bade me make haste: leaue of therfore, and meddle not with God whiche is with me, lest he destroy thee. " or, I come against thine day, but against the house of mine enemie.

22 Neuertheless, Iosias woulde not turne his face from him, " but rather tooke aduise to fight with hym, and hearkened not vnto the wordes of Necho, * out of the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. " or, changed his apparell to fight vnder. * Zach. 12.

23 And the shooters shot dartes at kyng Iosias: and the kyng sayd to his seruants, Carry me away, for I am sore wounded.

24 His seruantes therefore had hym out of that charet, and put him in another charet that they had: and when they had brought him to Hierusalem, he dyed, and was buried in the sepulchre of his fathers: and al Iuda & Hierusalem mourned for Iosias.

25 And Ieremias lamented Iosias, and al singyng men, and singing women mourned for Iosias in their lamentations, to this day, and made the same lamentations an ordinance in Israel, and beholde, they are wrytten in the lamentations.

26 The rest of the actes of Iosias, and his goodnesse: as it is wrytten in the lawe of the Lorde, 27 And his sayinges first and last, beholde they are wrytten in the booke of the kinges of Israel and Iuda.

1. After Iosias, raigneth Ioahaz. 4. After Ioahaz, Ioacim. 8. After him, Ioacin. 11. After him, Zedecia, 14. 17. In whose tyme all the people were caried away to Babylon, for contemnyng the admonitions of the prophetes.

1 AND * the people of the land tooke Ioahaz the sonne of Iosias, and made hym kyng in his fathers steede in Hierusalem. * 4.kin. 23. 30.

2 And Ioahaz was twentie and three yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned three monethes in Hierusalem.

3 And the kyng of Egypt put hym downe at Hierusalem, and condemned the lande in an hundred talentes of syluer, and a talent of golde.

4 And

4 And * ỳ king of Egypt made Eliacim his brother kyng vpon Juda and Hierusalem, and turned his name to Joacim: and Necho tooke Joahaz his brother, and caried him to Egypt.

5 Joacim was twentie and fiue yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and he raigned eleuen yeeres in Hierusalem, and he did euyll in the sight of the Lord his God.

6 Against him came vp Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and bound him with two chaynes, to cary him to Babylon.

7 Nabuchodonosor also caried of the vessels of the house of the Lorde to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 The rest of the actes of Joacim, and his abominations whiche he did, a and that which was found vpon him, beholde, they are written in the booke of the kings of Israel and Juda, and Joacim his sonne raig-ned in his stede.

9 * And Joacim was eyght yeeres old when he began to raigne, and he raigned three monethes & ten dayes in Hierusalem, and did euil in the sight of the Lord.

10 And when the yeere was out, kyng Na-buchodonosor sent, and fet him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the Lord, and made Zedecia his fathers brother king ouer Juda and Hierusalem.

11 Zedecia was twentie and one yeeres olde when he began to raigne, and raigned eleuen yeeres in Hierusalem.

12 * And he did euil in the sight of the Lord his God, and humbled not him selfe before Jeremie the prophete at the mouth of the Lorde.

13 And he rebelled against king Nabuchodonosor, which had receiued an othe of him by GOD: but he was stiffenecked, and to hard harted, to turne vnto the Lord God of Israel.

14 Moreouer, all the chefe of the priestes, and the people, transgressed woonderfully, after all maner of abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the Lorde, which he had halowed in Hierusalem.

15 And the Lorde God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rysing vp betimes, and sending: for he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place.

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his woordes, and misused his prophetes, vntyll the wrath of the Lorde arose agaynst his people, and tyll there was no remedie.

17 And so he brought vpon them the king of Chaldee, whiche slue their young men with the swoord in theyr holy temple, and spared neyther young man, mayden, olde man, nor him that stowped for age: he gaue them all into his hand.

18 And all the vessells of the house of God, both great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the king, and of his Lordes: all these caried he to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of GOD, and brake downe the wall of Hierusalem, and burnt all the palaces therof with fyre, and destroyed all the goodly iewels therof.

20 And the rest that had escaped the swoord, caried he to Babylon: where they were bondmen to him and his chyldren, vntil the time that Persia had the Empire;

21 To fulfill the woord of the Lorde by the

¶ The first Chapter.

1. Cyrus sendeth agayne the people that was in captiuitie, 8. and restoreth them theyr holy vesselles.

a. After that he and Darius had wonne Babylon.

1 IN the a fyrst yeere of Cyrus kyng of Persia (that the woorde of the Lord, * spoken by the mouth of Ieremie, myght be fulfylled) the Lord stirred vp the spirite of Cyrus king of Persia, that he caused to be proclaimed throughout al his empire, and to be written, saying,

* 2. Chr. 36. 22. Ierr. 25. 12.

2 Thus sayth Cyrus the kyng of Persia, The Lorde God of heauen hath geuen me b al the kyngdomes of the earth, and hath commaunded me to builde hym an house at Hierusalem, which is in Iuda.

b. For he was chiefe monarch of the worlde, and had many nations vnder his dominion.

3 Whosoeuer nowe among you is of his people, the Lorde his God be with hym, and let hym goe vp to Hierusalem in Iuda, and build the house of the Lorde God of Israel, (he is the God) that is at Hierusalem.

4 And whosoeuer remayneth yet in enye manner of place where he is a stranger, let men of that place helpe hym with syluer and golde, with good and cattel, beside that which they willingly offer for the house of God that is at Hierusalem.

5 Then gate vp the principal fathers of Iuda and Beniamin, and the priestes and Leuites, and al they whose spirite GOD had rayled to goe vp, and to builde the house of the Lorde whiche is at Hierusalem.

c. The Babylonians and Chaldeans gaue the these gyftes. Thus rather then the children of god shoulde want for their necessities, he would stirre vp the hartes of very infidels to helpe them.

6 And c all they that were about them, strengthed theyr hande with vesselles of siluer & golde, with goodes & cattel, and iewels, besides al that was willyngly offered.

7 And kyng Cyrus brought foorth the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nabuchodonosor had taken out of Hierusalem, and had put in the house of his God.

8 Those did Cyrus the king of Persia bring forth by the hande of Mithridates the treasurer, and numbred them vnto d Sesbazer the prince of Iuda.

d. So the Chaldeans called Zorobabel, who was the cheefe gouernoure: so that the preeminence styl remayned in the house of Dauid.

9 And this is the number of them: thyrtie chargers of golde, a thousand chargers of siluer: twentie and niene knyues:

10 And when the builders layde the fundation of the temple of the Lord, they appoynted the priestes in their "aray with Trumpets, and the Leuites the children of Asaph with Cymbales, to prayse the Lorde after the "maner of Dauid kyng of Israel.

12 But many of the priests and Leuites, and cheefe fathers, and auncientmen, whiche had seene the fyrst house, when the fundation was layde before their eyes, b wept with a loude voyce, and many showted aloude with ioy:

2 And they came to Zorobabel, and to the principall fathers, and sayd vnto them, We wyll builde with you, for we seeke the Lord your God, as ye doo, and we haue done sacrifyce vnto him synce ý time of Asor Haddon the king of Assur, whiche brought vs vp hyther.

3 And Zorobabel, and Iosue, and the other auncient fathers of Israel, sayd vnto them, It can not be that you and we together should should builde the house vnto our God: for we our selues wyll builde alone vnto the Lorde our god of Israel, as Cyrus the king of Persia hath commaunded vs.

4 And the folke of the lande "discouraged the people of Juda, and troubled them as they were building:

5 And hyred counsellers agaynst them, to hinder their deuice, as long as Cyrus the king of Persia liued, vntyl the raigne of Darius king of Persia.

6 And in the raigne of b Asuerus, at the beginnyng of his raigne, wrote they vnto hym a complaynt agaynst the inhabiters of Juda and Hierusalem.

7 And in the dayes of Artaxerxes wrote Mithridath, Tabel, and the other of his counsel, vnto Artaxerxes the kyng of Persia, with fayre wordes: and the wryting of the letter was in the Syrians speache, and interpreted in the language of the Syrians:

8 Rehum the Recorder, and Samsai the scribe, wrote a letter " from Hierusalem to Artaxerxes the kyng, as it foloweth.

9 Then Rehum the Recorder, & Samsai the Scribe, and other of their company, they of Dina, of Apharsath, of Tarpelai, of "Persia, of Arach, of Babylon, of Susan, of Deha, of Elan, 10 And other of the people, whom the great and noble Asnapper brought ouer, & set in the cities of Samaria, and other that are nowe beyonde the water, and "Cheeneth.

11 This is the tenor of the letter that they sent vnto king Artaxerxes, Thy seruantes, & the men that are nowe beyond the water, and in Cheeneth salute thee.

12 Be it knowen vnto the kyng, that the Iewes which came vp from thee to vs, are come vnto Hierusalem, a citie seditious and froward, and builde the same, & set vp the walles therof, and lay the fundations.

13 Be it knowen nowe vnto the kyng, that yf this citie be builded, and the walles made vp agayne, then shal not they geue toule, tribute, and custome, and so they shall hinder the kinges tribute.

14 And nowe we remembryng that we were brought vp in the kinges palace, and would no longer see the kynges dishonor, therfore sent we out also, and certifyed the kyng,

15 That it may be sought in the booke of the Chronicles of thy progenitours, and so shalt thou fynde in the booke of the Chronicles, and perceiue that this citie is seditious and noysome vnto the kings and "landes, & that they cause other also among them to rebel of old: and for the same cause was this citie destroyed.

16 Therefore doo we certifye the kyng, that yf this citie be builded againe, and the walles therof made vp, thou shalt hereafter haue no portion beyond the water.

17 Then sent the kyng an answeare vnto Rehum the Recorder, and Samsai the Scribe, and to the other of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and vnto the other that were beyond the water "in Selam, and "Cheeth.

18 The letter which ye sent vnto vs, hath been openly read before me.

19 And I haue commaunded to make searche, and it is found that this citie of old hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition hath been committed therin.

20 There hath been mightie kynges also at Hierusalem, which hath raigned ouer al countreys beyond the water: and toule, tribute, and custome was geuen vnto them.

21 Geue ye now therfore commaundement, that the same men be forbidden, and that the citie be not builded agayne, tyll I haue geuen another commaundement.

22 Take heede now that ye be not negligent to do this: for why should the kyng haue harme therby?

23 Now when the tenor of kyng Artaxerxes letter was read before Rehum and Samsai the Scribe, and their companions, they went vp in al the haste to Hierusalem, vnto the Iewes, and forbad them with violence and power.

24 Then c ceassed the woorke of the house of GOD at Hierusalem, and continued so vnto the second yeere of Darius kyng of Persia.

5 But the b eye of their God was vpon the elders of the Iewes, that they coulde not cause them to ceasse, tyll the matter was brought to Darius: and then they answered by letters thereunto.

6 This is the tenor of the letter that Thathanai, which was captayne beyond ỹ water, and Stharbuzanai, and the counsellers of Apharsath, which were beyonde the water, sent vnto kyng Darius.

7 And the matter that they sent vnto hym, was wrytten thus within the letter, Unto Darius the kyng, al peace.

8 Be it knowen vnto the king, that we went into the prouince of Iury, to the house of the great God, whiche is buylded with myghtie great stones, and beames are layd in the walles, and the woorke goeth fast forth, and prospereth in their handes.

9 Then asked we the elders, and sayde vnto them thus, Who commaunded you to buylde this house, & to make vp the walles thereof?

10 We asked their names also, that we might certifie thee, and wryte the names of the men that were their rulers.

11 But they answeared vs with these woordes, and sayde, We are the seruantes of the God of heauen and earth, & builde the house that was buylded of olde and many yeeres agoe, whiche the great king of Israel buylded, and set vp.

12 But after that our fathers had prouoked the GOD of heauen vnto wrath, he gaue them ouer into the hande of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, and of the Chaldees, whiche brake downe this house, and carried the people away captiue into Babylon.

13 But in the fyrste yeere of Cyrus the kyng of Babylon, the same kyng Cyrus gaue commaundement concernyng this house of God, that it shoulde be buylt agayne.

14 And the vessels of golde and syluer of the house of God, which Nabuchodonosor toke out of the temple that was at Hierusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon: those dyd Cyrus the kyng take out of the temple at Babylon, and they were deliuered vnto one Sasbazar by name, whom he made captayne, 15 And sayde vnto hym, Take these vessels, and goe thy way, and set them in the temple that is at Hierusalem, and let the house of God be buylded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sasbazar, and layd the fundation of the house of God, whiche is at Hierusalem: Since that tyme also, vntyll nowe hath it been in buyldyng, and yet it is not finished.

c. Where the records of tymes.

17 Nowe therefore yf it please the kyng, let there be search made in the kynges c treasure house which is there at Babylon, whether it hath been kyng Cyrus commaundement that this temple of GOD at Hierusalem shoulde be buylded: and let the kyng sende his mynde concernyng the same matter.

¶ The vi. Chapter.

1. At the commaundement of Darius the king of Persia, after the temple was buylded and dedicate, the chyldren of Israel keepe the feast of vnleauened bread.

1 THen * commaunded kyng Darius, that search shoulde be made in the librarie of the kynges treasure house, whiche laye at Babylon: *1. Esd. 6.

2 And there was found in a coffer in the palace that is in the prouince of the Medes, a volume, and therein was it thus wrytten, as a memorial,

3 In the fyrst yeere of kyng Cyrus, gaue the same king Cyrus commaundement concernyng the house of God at Hierusalem, that the same house shoulde be buylded in the place where they offer the sacrifices, and to ioyne the walles togeather of threescore cubites height, & threescore cubites breadth,

4 Three rowes of rough stones, & one rowe of newe tymber: and the expences shalbe geuen of the kynges house.

5 And let the golde and syluer vessels of the house of God, which Nabuchodonosor toke out of the temple at Hierusalem, & brought vnto Babylon, be restored, and brought agayne vnto the temple at Hierusalem to their place, in the house of God.

6 Nowe therfore thou Thathanai captaine beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, and your counsellours, and Apharsachei, which are beyonde the water, geat ye awaye from them.

7 Let the woorke of the house of this GOD alone, that the captayne of the Iewes and their elders may buylde the house of God in his place.

8 I haue commaunded what ye shall doo to the elders of Iuda for the buyldyng of the house of God, that of the kynges goodes, euen of the tribute beyond the water, forthwith expences be geuen vnto the men, that they be not hyndred.

9 And

9 And if they haue nede of calues, rammes, and lambes for the whole burnt offeryng of the God of heauen, wheate, salt, wine, and oyle, after the custome of the priestes at Hierusalem, let the same be geuen them dayly, that there be no default:

10 That they may haue to offer sweete sauours vnto the God of heauen, and pray for the kynges lyfe, and for his chyldren.

11 And suche a commaundement haue I geuen, that what man so euer he be that altereth this woorde, there shal a beame be taken from his house, and set vp, and he shalbe hanged thereon, and his house shalbe made a dounghyl for the same thyng.

12 And the God that set his name there, destroy al kynges and people that put to theyr hande to alter and to breake downe this house of God which is at Hierusalem. I Darius haue made a decree, that this be done with speede.

Esd.7.1. 13 *Then Thathanai the captayne of the countrey beyonde the water, and Stharbuzanai, with theyr counsaylours, accordyng to that whiche kyng Darius had sent, so they dyd speedily.

14 And the elders of the Iewes buylded, and they prospered through the prophecying of Aggeus the prophete, and Zachari the sonne of Iddo, and they buylded, and they finished it accordyng to the commaundement of the God of Israel, and after the commaundement of Cyrus and Darius, and Artaxerxes, kynges of Persia.

15 And this house was finished the thirde day of the moneth a Adar, euen in the b sixt yeere of the raigne of kyng Darius.

a That is, the twelfth moneth, and cometh part of February, and part of March.

16 And the chyldren of Israel, the priestes, the Leuites, and the other chyldren of the captiuitie, helde the dedication of this house of God with ioy.

b Which was the two and fortieth yeere after their first returne from Babylon.

17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred calues, two hundred rammes, foure hundred lambes: and for the reconciling of al Israel twelue hee goates, accordyng to the number of the tribes of Israel:

18 And set the priestes in theyr sundry courses, and the Leuites in theyr diuers offices, to minister vnto God at Hierusalem, * as it is written in the booke of Moses.

*Num.3. & 8.9.

19 And the chyldren of the captiuitie helde the Passouer vppon the fourteenth day of the first moneth:

20 For the priestes and Leuites were purified altogeather, and kylled the Passouer for al the chyldren of the captiuitie, and for theyr brethren the priestes, and for them selues.

21 And the chyldren of Israel whiche were come agayne out of captiuitie, and all suche as had separated them selues vnto them, from the fylthinesse of the heathen of the lande, to seeke the Lorde God of Israel, dyd eate, 22 And helde the feast of vnleauened bread seuen dayes with ioy: for the Lorde had made them glad, and turned the hart of the kyng of Assur vnto them, to strengthen theyr handes in the woorke of the house of God, euen the God of Israel.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1. By the commaundement of the king, Esdras and his companions come to Hierusalem. 27. He geueth thankes to God.

1 AFter *these thynges, there was in the raigne of a Artaxerxes kyng of Persia, one Esdras, the sonne of Saraia, the sonne of Azaria, the sonne of Elcia, a The Hebrues write that the kynges of Persia were called by this name, as Pharao was a cõmon name to the kynges of Egypt, and Cæsar to the Emperours of Rome.

*3.Esd.8.1.

2 The sonne of Sallum, the sonne of Zadoc, the sonne of Ahitob,

3 The sonne of Amaria, the sonne of Azaria, the sonne of Meraioth,

4 The sonne of Zeraia, the sonne of Ozi, the sonne Bucci,

5 The sonne of Abisua, the sonne of Phinehes, the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the cheefe priest.

6 This Esdras also went vp from Babylon, and was a "perfect b scribe in the lawe of Moses, which the Lorde God of Israel dyd geue: and the kyng gaue hym all that he requyred, accordyng to the hande of the Lorde his God which was vpon hym.

"Or, redy, or, prompt.

b He sheweth here what a scribe is, who had charge to write the lawe, and expounde it, whom Marke calleth a scribe. Marke.12.28. Matthewe and Luke cal hym a lawyer or doctour of lawes.

7 And there went vp certayne of the chyldren of Israel, of the priestes, Leuites, singers, porters, and of the Nethinims, vnto Hierusalem, in the seuenth yeere of kyng Artaxerxes.

8 And he came to Hierusalem in the fifth moneth, euen in the seuenth yeere of the kyng.

9 For vpon the fyrst day of the first moneth, began he to goe vp from Babylon: and on the first day of the fifth moneth, came he to Hierusalem, accordyng to the c good hand of his God that was vpon hym.

c. According to the fauour and mercie of God.

10 For Esdras prepared his hart to seeke the lawe of the Lorde, and to doo it, and to teache the preceptes and iudgementes in Israel.

11 And this is the tenor of the letter that kyng Artaxerxes gaue vnto Esdras the priest, and scribe, which was a writer of the woordes and commaundementes of the Lorde, and of his statutes ouer Israel.

12 Artaxerxes kyng of kinges, vnto Esdras the priest and scribe of the lawe of the God of heauen, peace and saluation.

13 I haue commaunded that al they of the people of Israel, and of the priestes and Lenites in my realme, whiche are mynded of theyr owne good wyl to goe vp to Hierusalem, goe with thee.

14 And therefore art thou sent of the kyng and of his seuen counsaylers, to visite Iuda and Hierusalem, accordyng to the lawe of God, which is in thy hande:

15 And that thou shouldest take with thee siluer, and golde, whiche the kyng and his counsaylers offer of theyr owne good wyll vnto the God of Israel, whose habitation is at Hierusalem:

16 And all the siluer and golde that thou canst finde in al the "countrey of Babylon, with it that the people offer of theyr owne good wyl, and the priestes geue wyllyngly for the house of theyr God which is at Hierusalem:

"Or, prouince.

17 That thou mayest buye diligently with the same money, oxen, rammes, & lambes, with theyr meate offeringes, and drynke offerynges, and thou shalt offer them vppon the aulter of the house of your God whiche is at Hierusalem.

18 And looke what lyketh thee and thy brethren to doo with the remnant of the syluer and golde, that doo after the wyll of your God.

19 And the vessels that are geuen thee for the ministration of the house of thy God, those deliuer thou before God at Hierusalem.

20 And what so euer thing more shalbe nedeful for the house of thy God whiche is necessarie for to spend, thou shalt receyue the charges out of the kynges treasure house.

21 I kyng Artaxerxes haue commaunded al ỹ treasurers beyond the water, that loke what so euer Esdras the priest and scribe in the lawe of the God of heauen requyreth of you, "that ye fulfyl the same speedyly,

"2.Chr.2.10

22 Untyl an hundred talentes of siluer, and tyl an hundred quarters of wheate, and tyl an hundred battes of wyne, and tyl an hundred battes of oyle, and salt without measure.

23 What so euer also is the commaundement of the God of heauen, let the same be done without any delay for the house of the God of heauen, that he be not wroth agaynst the realme, and agaynst the kyng and his chyldren.

24 And we certifie you, that ye haue no authoritie to requyre taxyng and custome, and yeerely rentes, vpon any of the priestes, Lenites, singers, porters, Nethinims, and ministers in the house of his God.

25 And thou Esdras after the wisedome of thy God, that is in thine "hande, set iudges and arbitrers by my authoritie to iudge al the people that is beyond the water, euen al suche as knowe the lawe of thy God: and them that knowe it not, those see that ye teache.

"Or, my de.

26 And who so euer wyl not fulfyl the lawe of thy God, and the kynges lawe, let hym haue his iudgement without delay, whether it be vnto death, or to be rooted out, or to be condempned in goodes, or to be put in pryson.

27 Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, whiche so had inspyred the kynges hart, to garnishe the house of the Lorde that is at Hierusalem:

28 And hath enclined mercie vnto me in the presence of the kyng and his counsaylours, and before al the kynges hygh estates: and I was comforted euen as the hande of the Lorde my God was vpon me, and so gathered I the heades of Israel togeather, that they might goe vp with me.

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

1. The number of them that returned to Hierusalem vvith Esdras. 21. He causeth them to fast. 24. He admonisheth the priestes of their dueties.

1 THese are nowe the principal fathers of them, "and this is the "register of them that went vp with me from Babylon, what tyme as kyng Artaxerxes raigned.

"3.Esd.8. "Or, peigne. Reade chapter.7.

2 Of the chyldren of Phinehes, Gersom: of the chyldren of Ithamar, Daniel: of the chyldren of Dauid, Hattus:

3 Of the chyldren of Zechania, among the chyldren of Pharos, Zachari, and with hym were numbred an hundred and fiftie men.

4 Of the chyldren of the captayne of Moab, Elioenai the sonne of Zerahia, and with hym two hundred men.

5 Of the chyldren of Zechania, the sonne of Iahaziel, and with him three hundred men.

6 Of the chyldren of Adin, Abed the sonne of Ionathan, and with hym fiftie men.

7 Of the chyldren of Elam, Esaias the sonne of Athalia, and with hym seuentie men.

8 Of the chyldren of Sephatia, Zebadia the sonne of Michael, and with hym foure score men.

9 Of the chyldren of Ioab, Obadia the sonne of Iehiel, and with hym two hundred and eyghteene men.

10 Of the chyldren of Selomith, the sonne of Iosaphia, and with hym an hundred and three score men.

11 Of the children of Bebai, Zachari the ſonne of Bebai, and with hym twentie and eyght men.

12 Of the children of Aſgad, Johanan the ſonne of Hacatan, and with hym an hundred and ten men.

13 Of the children of Adonicam that were the laſt, whoſe names are theſe: Eliphelet, Jehiel, and Samaiah, and with them threeſcore men.

14 Of the children of Biguai, Uthai, and Zabud, and with them ſeuentie men.

15 And I geathered them togeather by the water that runneth toward Ahaua, & there abode we three dayes: and I looked among the people and the prieſtes, and found there none of the children of Leui.

16 Thē ſent I to Eliezer, to Ariel, Semeia, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zacharia, and to Meſullam, the rulers, and to Joiarib & Elnathan, which were men of vnderſtanding.

17 And to thoſe gaue I commaundement vnto Iddo the cheefeſt at Caſphia, and I tolde them what they ſhould ſay vnto Iddo and to his brethren the Nethinims at Caſphia, that they ſhould cauſe the miniſters of the houſe of our God to come vnto vs.

18 And through the good hand of our God vpon vs, they brought vs a very wyſe man from among the children of Moholi the ſonne of Leui the ſonne of Iſrael, and Sarabia with his ſonnes and his brethren, euen eyghtene.

19 And Haſabia, and with hym Eſaias of the children of Merari, with his brethren, and their ſonnes, twentie.

20 And of the Nethinims whom Dauid and the princes gaue to miniſter vnto the Leuites, two hundred and twentie of Nethinims: which al were named by name.

21 And ēē there at the water beſide Ahaua I proclaimed a faſt, that we myght humble our ſelues before our God, and ſeeke of hym a right waye for vs, and for our chyldren, and for al our ſubſtance.

22 For I was aſhamed to require of the kinges ſouldiers and horſemen, to helpe vs agaynſt the enimie in the waye; for we had ſpoken vnto the king, ſaying, The hand of our God is vppon al them that ſeeke him in goodnes, and his power & wrath is agaynſt all them that forſake hym.

23 So we faſted, and beſought our God for this, and he was intreated of vs.

24 And I toke out twelue of the cheefe prieſtes, Sarabia, and Haſabia, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And wayed them the ſyluer & gold, and veſſels that were appoynted for the houſe of our God, whiche the king and his counſaylers, and his lordes, and all Iſrael that were there at hand, had geuen togeather.

26 And I wayed vnto their hand fyre hundred and fyftie talentes of ſyluer, and in ſiluer veſſels an hundred talentes, and in gold an hundred talentes:

27 Twentie baſones of golde of a thouſand a drams, and two coſtly veſſels of good braſſe as cleare as golde.

a. A dram is the eyght part of an ounce.

28 And I ſayde vnto them, Ye are conſecrate vnto the Lorde, like as the veſſels are holy alſo: and the gold and ſyluer are geuen of a good wyll vnto the Lorde GOD of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keepe them: for ye ſhall weye them downe before the cheefe prieſtes, and Leuites, and auncient fathers of Iſrael at Hieruſalem, in the treaſuries of the houſe of the Lorde.

30 Then tooke the prieſtes and Leuites the wayed ſyluer and golde, and veſſels, to bring it to Hieruſalem vnto the houſe of our God.

31 And we brake vp from the water of Ahaua on the twelfth day of the firſt moneth, to goe vnto Hieruſalem: & the hand of our God was vpon vs, & deliuered vs from the hand of the enimies, & of ſuche as layde wayte for vs by the way.

32 And we came to Hieruſalem, and abode there three dayes.

33 But on the fourth day was the ſiluer and gold & veſſels waied in the houſe of our God by the hand of Meremoth the ſonne of Uria the prieſt, and with hym was Eleazar the ſonne of Phinehes, and with them was Joſabad the ſonne of Joſue, and Noadia the ſonne of Bennoi, the Leuites.

34 Accordyng to the number and weight of euery one, was the weyght of all wrytten vp at the ſame tyme.

35 And the children of the captiuitie, which were come out of captiuitie, offerd whole burnt offerynges vnto the God of Iſrael, twelue bullockes for al Iſrael, nientie and fyre Rammes, ſeuentie and ſeuen Lambes, twelue hee Goates for ſinne offeryng, al to the whole burnt offeryng of the Lorde.

36 And they delyuered the kynges commiſſion vnto the kyngs officers, and to the captaynes that were beyonde the water: and they promoted the people, and the houſe of God.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1. Eſdras complayneth on the people that had turned themſelues from GOD, and married with the Gentiles. 6. He prayeth vnto GOD.

*3.Esd.9.6.

1 When these thynges were doone, the rulers came to me, and sayde, *The people of Israel, and the priests and Leuites are not separated from the people of the landes, as touchyng their abominations: namely, of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Iebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites.

2 For they haue taken the daughters of the same to them selues, and to their sonnes, and the holy seede is myxed with the nations of the landes, and the hand of the princes and rulers hath been principal in this trespasse.

3 And when I heard this saying, I rent my clothes and my garment, and pluckt of the heare of my head and of my beard, and sate "mournyng.

"Or, sate downe astonyed.

"Or, astonied.

4 And there resorted vnto me al such as feared the wordes of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of the people of the captiuitie: and I sate "mournyng vntyll the euenyng sacrifice.

*Exo.29.39 Num.28.3.

5 *And about the euenyng sacrifice I arose vp from my heauinesse, and rent my clothes and my rayment, & fel vpon my knees, and spread out my handes vnto the Lorde my God,

6 And sayde, My God, I am ashamed, and dare not lyft vp myne eyes vnto thee my God: for our wickednesse are growen ouer our head, and our trespasse is waxed great vnto the a heauen.

a. They so exceede, that they can growe no greater.

7 Since the tyme of our fathers haue we been in great trespasse vnto this day, and because of our wickednes haue we and our kynges and our priestes been delyuered into the hand of the kynges of the nations, vnto the swoorde, into captiuitie, into a spoyle, and into confusion of face, as it is to see this day.

8 And nowe for a litle space grace hath been shewed from the Lorde our God, in causing a remnant to escape, and in geuyng vs b a nayle in his holye place, that our God maye lyght our eyes, and geue vs a litle lyfe, to take breath in our bondage:

b. That is, a resting place: it is a similitude taken of them that remayne styl in a place.

9 For we were bondmen, and yet our God hath not forsaken vs in our bondage, but hath enclyned mercy vnto vs in the syght of *the king of Persia, to geue vs life to set vp the house of our God, and to redresse the desolation therof, and to geue vs a wal in Iuda and Hierusalem.

*Esai.22.23

10 And nowe, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we haue forsaken thy commaundementes, 11 Whiche thou hast commaunded by thy seruantes the prophets, saying, * The land vnto whiche ye goe to possesse it, is an vncleane lande, because of the fylthynes of the people of the landes, which with their abominations haue made it ful of vncleannesse on euery syde.

*Exo.23.32 Deut.7.3.

12 *Therefore shal ye not geue your daughters vnto their sonnes, and their daughters shal ye not take vnto your sonnes, nor seeke their peace & wealth for euer: that ye maye be strong, and "enioy the goodnesse of the lande, and that ye and your chyldren may haue the inheritance of it for euermore.

*Deut.23.6.

"Or, eate.

13 And after that al these thynges are come vpon vs, because of our euyl deedes and great trespasses (seeyng that thou our God hast "stayed vs from being c beneathe for our iniquities) and hast geuen vs suche delyueraunce:

"Or, pardoned our offences.

c. That is, hast not vtterly cast vs downe, & destroyed vs for our sinnes.

14 Shoulde we returne to breake thy commaundements, & ioyne in affinitie with the people of these abominations: wouldest not thou be angrie towards vs, til thou haddest consumed vs, so that there shoulde be no remnant, nor any escapyng?

15 O Lorde God of Israel, thou art ryghteous, for we remayne yet escaped, as it is yet to see this day: Beholde also, in thy presence are we in our trespasses, and because of it may we not stande before thee.

¶ The.x. Chapter.

e. The people repent and turne, and put away their strange wyues.

1 AND when Esdras prayed after this maner, and a knowledged, wept, and laye before the house of God, there resorted vnto hym out of Israel a very great congregation, of men, & women, and chyldren: and the people wept very sore.

a. His sinnes and the sinnes of the people.

2 And Sechania the sonne of Iehiel, one of the chyldren of Elam, answeared, and sayd vnto Esdras, We haue trespassed agaynst our God, and haue taken strange wyues of the people of the lande: Yet nowe there is b hope in Israel concerning this thyng.

b. Meanyng that Israel may repent, and god receyue them to mercie.

3 For nowe we wyll make a couenaunt with our GOD, and put awaye all the wyues, and suche as are borne of them, according to the counsel of the Lorde, and of those that feare the commaundementes of our GOD, that we may doo according to the lawe.

4 Geat thee vp, for this matter belongeth vnto thee, we also wyll be with thee: be of good comfort therefore, and doo it.

5 Then arose Esdras, and tooke an othe of the cheefe priests and Leuites, and of all Israel, that they should doo according to this woorde: and they sware.

strange mariage.

Neh. 8. 6 And Esdras rose vp from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanna the sonne of Eliasib: and when he came thyther, he dyd eate no bread, nor drynke water: for he mourned, because of the transgression of the people that had ben in captiuitie.

7 And they caused a proclamation to goe throughout Juda and Hierusalem, vnto all them of the captiuitie, that they should geather them selues togeather vnto Hierusalē:

8 And that who so euer came not within three dayes, according to the deuice of the rulers and elders, al his substance shoulde be forfeyted, and he shoulde be put out from the congregation of them of the captiuitie.

9 Then al the men of Juda and Beniamin, geathered them selues togeather vnto Hierusalem, within three dayes, euen the twentieth day of the nienth moneth, and all the people sate in the streete of the house of God, and trembled, because of this matter, and for the rayne.

10 And Esdras the priest stoode vp, and sayde vnto them, Ye haue transgressed, and haue taken strange wyues, to make the trespasse of Israel yet more.

Confesse now therefore vnto the Lorde God of your fathers, and doo his pleasure: and separate your selues from the people of the lande, and from the strange wyues.

12 And al the congregation answeared, and sayde with a loude voyce, It shalbe so, and we wyl doo as thou hast sayde.

13 But the people are many, and it is a rayny weather, and the people are to faynt to tary without in the streete, neyther is this a woorke of one day or two: for we haue offended very sore in this thyng.

14 Let our rulers stande therefore in all the congregation, and let al them whiche haue taken strange wyues in our cities, come at the tyme appoynted, and let the elders of euery citie and theyr iudges be with them, tyl the fierce wrath of our GOD for this matter be turned from vs.

15 Then were appoynted Jonathan the sonne of Asahel, and Jahasia the sonne of Thecua ouer this matter: and Mesullam and Sabbathai the Leuites helped them.

16 And the children of the captiuitie did euen so: and Esdras the priest, & the auncient heads through the house of their fathers, al men of great fame, separated them selues, and sate them downe in the first day of the tenth moneth, to examine the matter.

17 And vntyl the first day of the first moneth, they were finishyng the busynesse, with all the men that had taken strange wyues.

18 And among the children of the priestes, there were men founde that had taken strange wiues: namely among the children of Josue the sonne of Josedec, & of his brethren, Maasiah, and Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedalia.

19 And they gaue theyr handes, that they woulde put away theyr wyues: and they that had trespassed, gaue a ramme for their trespasse.

20 And among the children of Immer, Hanani, and Zebadia.

21 Among the children of Harim, Maasia, Elia, Semeia, Jehiel, Ozias.

22 Among the children of Pashur: Elioenai, Maasia, Ismael, Nethanael, Jozabad, and Elasah.

23 Among the Leuites: Jozabad, Semei, and Selaia (which same is Selitah) Phathaiah, Juda, and Eliezer.

24 Among the syngers also, Eliasib: and among the Porters, Sellum, and Telem, and Uri.

25 And of e Israel: among the children of Pharaos, Remeia, Jesia, Melchia, Miamin, Eliezer, Melchia, and Banaiah.

e. Meaning of the common people: for before he spake of the priestes.

26 Among the children of Elam: Mathania, Zacharia, Jehiel, Abdi, Jerimoth, & Elia.

27 Among the children of Zatthu: Elioenai, Eliasib, Mathania, Jerimoth, Zabad, and Aziza.

28 Among the children of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hanania, Zabbai, and Athalai.

29 Among the children of Bani: Mesullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jasub, Saal, and Jeramoth.

30 Among the children of the captayne of Moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaia, Maasia, Mathania, Besalel, Bennui, & Manasse.

31 Among the children of Harim: Eliezer, Isiiah, Melchiia, Semeia, and Simeon, 32 Beniamin, Malluch, and Semariah.

33 Among the children of Hasum: Mathenai, Mathatha, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasse, and Semei.

34 Among the children of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Uel,

¶ The booke of Nehemias, or seconde booke of Esdras.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

1. Nehemias bewayleth the calamitie of Hierusalem. 5. He confesseth the sinnes of the people, and prayeth to God for them.

1 THE wordes of Nehemias the sonne of Hachalia. In the moneth a Chelleu, in the twentieth yeere, as I was in the castle of Susan,

a. Which conteyneth part of Nouember and part of December, and was theyr nienth moneth.

2 Came Hanani one of my brethren, he and the men of Juda: & I asked them howe the Iewes dyd that were delyuered and escaped from the captiuitie, and howe it went at Hierusalem.

3 And they sayde vnto me, The remnant that are left of the captiuitie there in the lande, are in great affliction & rebuke: the wall of Hierusalem also is broken downe, and the gates thereof are burnt with fyre.

4 And when I heard these wordes, I sate downe and wept, & mourned certaine dayes, and fasted, and prayed before the GOD of heauen:

*Deut. 9. 4. 5 And sayde, *O Lorde God of heauen, thou great and terrible God, thou that keepest couenant & mercie for them that loue thee, and obserue thy commaundementes:

6 Let thine eares hearken, I beseeche thee, and let thine eyes be open, that thou mayest heare the prayer of thy seruant, whiche I nowe pray before thee day and night, for the children of Israel thy seruantes, & knowledge the sinnes of the children of Israel, which we haue sinned agaynst thee: both I and my fathers house haue sinned.

7 We haue greeuously sinned agaynst thee, and haue not kept thy commaundementes, statutes, and iudgementes, whiche thou commaundedst thy seruant Moses.

8 I beseeche thee call to remembrance the worde that thou commaundedst thy seruant Moses, and saydest, Ye wyl transgresse, and I wil scatter you abrode among the nations.

9 But if ye turne vnto me, and keepe my commaundementes, and doo them: though ye were cast out vnto the vttermost part of heauen, yet wil I geather you from thence, and wyl bryng you vnto the place that I haue chosen to set my name there.

10 They are thy seruantes and thy people whom thou hast delyuered through thy great power, and in thy mightie hande.

11 O Lorde, I beseeche thee, let thyne eare hearken to the prayer of thy seruant, and to the prayer of thy seruantes, whose delyte is to feare thy name: and let thy seruant prosper this day, and graunt hym mercie in the syght of b this man. For I was the kinges Butler.

b. That is, kyng Artaxerxes.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

1. After Nehemias had obteyned letters of Artaxerxes, 11. he came to Hierusalem, 17. and buylded the walles.

1 IN the moneth a Nisan, in the twentieth yeere of king Artaxerxes, the wine stoode before him: and I tooke vp the wine, and gaue it vnto the kyng: and I had not ben before heauie in his presence.

a Which was the first moneth of the yeere, and conteyneth parte Marche & part of April.

2 And the kyng sayd vnto me, Why lookest thou so sadly, seeyng thou art not sicke? It is nothing els, but that thou art heauie harted. And I was soze afrayde,

3 And sayde vnto the kyng, God saue the kyng for euer: howe shoulde I not looke sadly, when the citie and place of my fathers buryals lye waste, & the gates thereof are consumed with fyre?

4 And the kyng sayde vnto me, What is then thy request? I made my prayer also to the God of heauen,

5 And sayde vnto the kyng, If it please the king, & if thy seruant haue founde fauour in thy sight, send me vnto Juda, vnto the citie of my fathers buryals, that I may buyld it.

6 And the kyng sayde vnto me (the queene sittyng by him) Howe long shal thy iourney continue, and when wylt thou come agayne? And it pleased the kyng to send me, and I set hym a tyme,

7 And sayd vnto the kyng, If it please the kyng, let hym geue me letters to the captaynes which are beyond ỹ water, that they may conuey me ouer, tyl I come into Juda:

8 And letters vnto Asaph the Lorde of the kinges wood, that he may geue me tymber, to make beames for the gates of the palace which is harde by the house, and for the walles of the citie, and for the house that I shal enter into. And the kyng gaue me according to the "hande of my God whiche was good vpon me.

"Or, fauour.

9 And

9 And when I came to the captaines beyond the water, I gaue them the kynges letters: and the kyng had sent captaynes of the armie, and horsmen with me.

10 Sanaballat also the Horonite, and Tobia a seruant, the Ammonite, heard of it, and it greeued them sore that there was come a man whiche sought the wealth of the children of Israel.

11 And I came to Hierusalem, and was there three dayes.

12 And I gate me vp in the nyght season, and a fewe men with me, neyther tolde I any man what GOD had geuen me in my hart to doo at Hierusalem: & there was not one beast with me, saue it that I rode vpon.

13 And I departed in the nyght by the valley porte before the dragon well, and to the doung port, and considered the walles of Hierusalem, how they were broken downe, and the portes thereof consumed with fyre.

14 And I went ouer vnto the well porte, and to the kynges "conduite, and there was no roome for the beast that was vnder me to passe.

15 Then went I in the nyght by the brooke syde, and considered the wall, and turned backe, and came home agayne by the valley porte.

16 And the rulers knewe not whyther I went, or what I did, neyther dyd I as yet tel it vnto the Iewes, to the priestes, to the noble men, to the rulers, and to the other that laboured in the woorke.

17 Afterward sayd I vnto them, Ye see the miserie that we are in, howe Hierusalem lyeth waste, and howe the gates therof are burnt with fyre: come therefore, and let vs builde vp the wall of Hierusalem, and that we be no more a rebuke.

18 Then I tolde them of the hande of my God, that it was gratious ouer me, and the kynges woordes that he had spoken vnto me: and they sayde, Let vs geat vp, and builde. And they b strengthed their hands to good.

19 But when Sanaballat the Horonite, and Tobia the seruant, an Ammonite, and Gesem the Arabian heard it, they laughed vs to scorne, and despised vs, and sayde, What is this that ye doo? Wyl ye "fal away from c the kyng?

20 Then answeared I them, and said, The God of heauen, he it is that hath graunted vs prosperitie, and we his seruantes wyll geat vp and builde: as for you ye haue no portion, nor right, nor remembrance in Hierusalem.

¶ The .iii. Chapter.

The number of them that builded the walles.

1 AND Eliasib the hygh priest, gate hym vp with his brethren the priestes, and they buylded the sheepe gate, they repayred it, and set vp the doores of it: euen vnto the towre Mea a repayred they it, and vnto the towre of Hananeel.

2 Next vnto hym also buylded the men of Iericho: and beside hym buylded Zachur the sonne of Amri.

3 But the fyshe porte dyd the children of Asnaa buylde, which also layde the beames thereof, and set on the doores, lockes, and barres of it.

4 And next vnto them builded Meremoth the sonne of Uria, the sonne of Haccos: and next vnto them builded Mesullam the sonne of Barachia, the sonne of Mesesabel: & next vnto them buylded Zadoc the sonne of Baana.

5 And next vnto hym buylded they of Thecoa: but the great men that were among them b put not their neckes to the woorke of the Lorde.

6 The old gate builded Iehoiada the sonne of Pascah, and Mesullam the sonne of Besodia, they laide the beames thereof, and set on the doores, lockes, and barres of it.

7 Next vnto them builded Melatiah of Gibeon, and Iadon of Merona, men of Gibeon, and of Mispah, vnto the throne of the duke vvhich vvas beyonde the ryuer.

14 But the doung port buylded Melchiah the sonne of Rechab, the ruler of the fourth part of Bethacarem: he repayred it, and set on the doores, lockes, and barres thereof.

15 But

a. In Hebrue they sanctified it, that is, they finished it, and so dedicated it to the Lord by prayer, in defyryng hym to mayntayne it.

b. The ryche and myghtie woulde not obey them whiche were appoynted officers in this woorke, neyther would they helpe thereunto.

" Or, rebel.

c. Thus the wycked when they wyl burden the children of God, euer lay treason vnto their charge, both because it maketh them most odious to the worlde, and also stirreth the hatred of princes most against them.

b. They were encouraged, & gaue the fulloes to do with and to trauayle in this woorthy enterprise.

" Or, the enchaunters sonne

15 But the well gate repayred Sallum the ſonne of Cholhoſah, the ruler of the fourth part of Miſpah: he buylded it, and couered it, and ſet on the doores, lockes, and barres therof: and the wall vnto the fyſhe poole Siloah by the kynges garden, and vnto the ſteppes that go downe from the citie of Da-uid:

16 After him builded Nehemias the ſonne of Aſboc, the ruler of the halfe part of Bethzur, vntyll the other ſyde ouer agaynſt the ſepulchres of Dauid, and to the fiſhe poole that was repayred, and vnto the houſe of the myghtie.

17 After hym buylded the Leuites, Rehum the ſonne of Bani: and next vnto hym builded Haſabia the ruler of the halfe part of Ceilah in his quarter.

18 After hym buylded their brethren Banai the ſonne of Hanadad the ruler of the halfe part of Ceilah.

19 And after hym buylded Ezer the ſonne of Joſue, the ruler of Miſpah, the other peece, harde ouer agaynſt the goyng vp to the houſe of ordinaunce that was in the corner.

20 Agayne, after hym brake foorth Baruch the ſonne of Zachai, of c indignation, and repayred the other peece from the turnyng corner, vnto the doore of the houſe of Eliaſib the hygh prieſt.

c. Agaynſt him ſelfe, conſydering his owne wickedneſſe.

21 After hym alſo buylded Merimoth the ſonne of Uria, the ſonne of Haccos, the other peece, from the doore of the houſe of Eliaſib, euen as long as the houſe of Eliaſib extended.

22 After him builded the prieſtes, the d men of the playne.

d. Whiche dwelt in the playne countrey by Iordane and Iericho, and yet had houſes in Hieruſalem.

23 After hym buylded Beniamin and Haſub, ouer agaynſt their houſe: and after him wrought Azaria the ſonne of Maaſia, the ſonne of Anania, by his houſe.

24 After hym alſo buylded Bennui the ſonne of Henadad, the other peece from the houſe of Azaria, vnto the turnyng of the wall, and vnto the corner.

25 After him buylded Pala the ſonne of Vſai, ouer agaynſt the corner, and the hygh towre which lyeth out ouer from the kyngs houſe that was beſide the court of ỹ priſon:
after hym, Phadaia the ſonne of Pharos.

*1.Eſd.2.43 26 *As for the Nethinims, they dwelt in the ſtrong holde, vnto the water gate, towarde the Eaſt, and to the towre that lyeth out.

27 After hym buylded they of Thecua the other peece, ouer agaynſt the great towre that lyeth outwarde, vnto the wall of the ſtrong holde.

28 But from aboue the horſe gate foorth, buylded the prieſtes, euery one ouer agaynſt his houſe.

29 And after them buylded Zadoc the ſonne of Immer, ouer agaynſt his houſe: after hym buylded alſo Semeia the ſonne of Sechania, the keeper of the Eaſt gate.

30 After hym buylded Hanania the ſonne of Selemia, and Hanun the ſonne of Zalaph the ſyxth, the other peece: and after hym

"Or, chamber.

31 After hym buylded Melchia the goldeſmithes ſonne, vnto the houſe of the Nethinims, and of the Marchantes, ouer agaynſt the gate Mephcad, and to the parlour in the corner.

32 And betweene the parlour in the corner, vnto the ſheepe gate, buylded the goldeſmithes and the marchantes.

¶ The.iiii.Chapter.

7. The buyldyng of Hieruſalem is hyndered. 15. But GOD breaketh theyr enterpriſe. 17. The Ievvis buylde vvith one hande, and holde their vveapon in the other.

1 BVt when Sanaballat heard that we buylded the wall, he was wroth in him ſelfe, and tooke great indignation, and mocked the Jewes:

2 And ſayd before his brethren, and the ſouldiers of Samaria, "What do theſe impotēt Jewes? "wyl the Heathen ſuffer them? ſhall they offer? ſhall they perfourme it in one day? ſhall they make the ſtones whole a-gayne, that are brought to duſt, and brent?

"Or, wyll they fortifie them ſelues.

3 And Tobiah the Ammonite was beſyde hym, and ſayde, Though they buylde, yet yf a foxe goe vp, he ſhal breake downe theyr ſtony wall.

4 Heare, O thou our God, for we are deſpi-ſed, turne their ſhame vpō their owne head, and geue them ouer "into deſpiſing in the lande of their captiuitie.

"Or, for a preye.

5 a Couer not their wickednеſſe, and let not their ſinne be put out in their preſence: for they haue prouoked the buylders.

a: Let thy plagues declare to the worlde, that they let them ſelues agaynſt thee and thy Churche: thus he prayeth onely, hauing reſpect to Gods glorie, and not for any priuate affection or grudge.

6 And ſo buylded we the wall, and it was ioyned whole togeather vnto the halfe heyght therof: and the people were minded to labour.

7 But when Sanaballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, Ammonites, and Aſdodites, heard that the walles of Hieruſalem were made vp, and that the breaches began to be ſtopped, they were very wroth,

8 And conſpired all togeather to come and fyght agaynſt Hieruſalem, and to make an "hynderance therein.

"Heb. make a ſtay.

9 Neuertheleſſe, we made our prayer vnto our

our God, and set watchemen by them day and nyght, because of them.

10 And Juda said, The strength of the beaters is feeble, and there is yet muche moze mozter, and we are not able to build on the wall.

11 And our aduersaries saide, They shal not knowe, neyther see, tyll we come in the middes among them, and slay them, and cause the woozke to cease.

12 But when the Iewes (whiche dwelt beside them) came, they told vs b ten times, that in all places where we goe vnto, they are appoynted to fall vpon vs.

b That is, of many.

13 Therefoze set I the people after theyr kinredes, with their swoozdes, speares, and bowes, beneath in the lowe places behinde the wall, vpon the toppes of the stones.

14 And I looked, and gate me vp, and saide vnto the cheefe men, to the rulers, and to the other people, Be not ye afraide of them: but thinke rather vppon the great Lozde whiche ought to be feared, & fyght foz your brethren, your sonnes, your daughters, your wyues, and your houses.

15 Neuertheless, when our enimies hearde that we had gotten wozd of it, god brought their counsayle to nought: and we turned all agayne to the wall, euery one vnto his labour.

16 And from that time forth, the halfe part of the young men dyd the labour, and the other halfe part of them helde the speares, shieldes, bowes, and brestplates, and the rulers stoode c behind al the house of Juda.

c To ouersee them, and to encourage thē in their worke.

17 They which builded on the wal, and they that bare burdens, & those that laded them, with one hand dyd euery one his woozke, and with the other helde his weapon.

18 Foz euery one that builded, had his swoozd gyrded by his thigh, and so builded they: And he that blewe the trumpet, was beside me.

19 And I sayde vnto the principall men, to the rulers, and to the other people, The woozke is great and large, and we are separated vpon the wal one farre from an other.

20 Looke in what place therefoze ye heare the noyse of the Trumpet, resoze ye thyther vnto vs, and our God shall fyght foz vs:

21 And we wyl be labouring in the woozke. And the halfe part of them helde theyr speares, from the mozning spring, tyll the starres came foozth.

22 And at the same time saide I vnto the people, Let euery one with his seruant lodge within Hierusalem, that in the night season we may watch, and labour on the day time.

23 As foz me, and my brethren, my seruantes, and the men of the watche whiche folowed me, we put neuer of our clothes, saue onely because of the washing.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1. The people are oppressed, and in necessitie. 7. Nehemias forbiddeth vsurie.

1 AND there arose a great complaint of the people and theyr wyues agaynst theyr brethren the Iewes.

2 Foz there were some that saide, Our sonnes, and daughters, and we are very many: therefoze wyll we take cozne foz them, that we may eate and liue.

3 Some also there were that saide, Let vs set our landes, vineyardes, and houses to pledge, and take vp cozne in the dearth.

4 But some there were that sayd, We haue bozowed money foz the kinges tribute, and that vpon our landes and vineyardes.

5 And nowe our flesshe is as the a flesshe of our brethren, and our children as their children: and loe, we bring into subiection our sonnes, and our daughters, as seruantes, and some of our daughters are subdued vnto bondage alredy, and no strength is there in our handes to redeeme them, and other men haue our landes and vineyardes.

a That is, although we are of the kinred & stocke that our rulers be of: yet they not regarding our necessitie, doo take our children & landes to gage: & so bring vs in lyke bondage as our brethren which remayne styll in the captiuitie.

6 And when I heard their complaint, and such woozdes, it displeased me soze.

7 And I aduised so in my mind, that I rebuked the counsaylers, and the rulers, and saide vnto them, Euery one of you taketh vsurie of his brother. And I brought a b great congregation agaynst them.

b Or multitude of people, eyther because they should be moued with pitie, or els ashamed, seeing how many were oppressed dy them, and also myght heare the iudgement of others, which should be as it were witnesses of their cruell dealyng toward their brethren.

8 And sayde vnto them, We after our ability haue redeemed our brethren the Iewes, whiche were solde vnto the heathen: and wyl you sel your brethren agayne? and shal they be sold vnto vs? Then held they their peace, and coulde fynde nothyng to answeare.

9 And I sayde, It is not good that ye doo: ought ye not to walke in the feare of our God, because of the c rebuke of the heathen that are our enimies?

c Who by this occasion wyll blaspheme the name of God, seeing that our doings are no better then theyrs.

10 I, and my brethren, and my seruantes, doo lende them money and cozne: I pray you let vs leaue of this vsurie.

11 Therefoze, this same day, I pray you, see that ye restoze them their landes agayne, their vineyardes, olyue gardens, and theyr houses, and remit the hundred part of the money, of the cozne, wine, and oyle, that ye haue exacted of them.

12 Then said they, We wyll restoze them agayne, and wyll require nothyng of them, and wil do as thou hast spokē. And I called the priestes, and tooke an othe of them, that they they should doo accordyng to this promise.

13 And I shooke my lap, and sayde, GOD shake out euery man after the same maner from his house & labour, that mainteyneth not this woord, euen thus be he shaken out, and voyde. And all the congregation sayde, Amen, and praysed the Lord: And the people dyd accordyng to this promise.

14 And from the time forth that the king committed vnto me to be captayne of them that were in the land of Juda, euen from the twentieth yeere, vnto the thyrtie and two yere of king Artaxerxes, that is twelue yeres, I with my brethren liued not of such sustenance as was geuen to a captayne.

15 For the olde captaynes that were before me, had been chargeable vnto the people, and had taken of them bread & wine, beside fourtie sicles of siluer, yea & their seruantes had oppressed the people: but so dyd not I, and that because of the feare of God.

16 "Or, but rather I fortified a portion in the worke of this wall. "But I laboured also in the woorke vpon the wall, and we bought no land: and all my seruantes came thyther together vnto the woorke.

17 Moreouer, there were at my table an hundred and fiftie of the Jewes and rulers, whiche came vnto vs from among the heathen that are about vs.

18 And there was prepared for me dayly an ore, and fire chosen sheepe, and birdes were prepared for me: and euer once in tenne dayes wine for al in abundance: Yet required not I the "liuing of a captaine, for the bondage was greeuous vnto the people.

"Or, bread.

19 Thinke vpon me my God vnto the best, accordyng to all that I haue done for this people.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

a. Nehemias answeareth with great wysedome and zeale to his aduersaries. 11. He is not discouraged by the false prophetes.

1 AND when Sanaballat, Tobia, and Gesem the Arabian, and the other of our enimies heard, that I had builded the wall, and that there were no moe "gaps therein: (howbeit, at the same time had I not hanged the doores vpon the gates,)

"Or, breaches.

2 Sanaballat and Gesem sent vnto me, saying, Come, that we may meete and take counsell together in the villages that are in the plaine of the citie Ono. Neuertheless, they thought to doo me euil.

3 And I sent messengers vnto them, saying, I haue a great businesse to doo, and I can not come downe: Why shoulde the woorke ceasse, whyleft I leaue it, and come downe to you?

4 Howbeit, they sent vnto me foure tymes after the same maner: and I gaue them the same answeare.

5 Then sent Sanaballat his seruant againe vnto me the fyfth time, with an open letter in his hand.

6 Wherein was written, It is told the heathen, and Gesem hath said it, that thou and the Jewes thinke to rebel: for the whiche cause thou buildest the wall, that thou maiest be their king, accordyng to these woords: a. As the fame goeth.

7 And hast ordeined the prophetes to preach of thee at Hierusalem, and to say, He is king of Juda. And nowe shall this come to the kinges eares: come nowe therefore, and let vs take our counsell together.

8 And I sent vnto him, saying, There is no suche thing doone as thou sayest, for thou faignest them of thyne owne hart.

9 For they were all minded to make vs afrayde, saying, They shall withdraw their handes from their woorke, that it shal not be finished: Nowe therefore, strengthen thou my hand.

10 And I came vnto the house of Semaia the sonne of Delaia, the sonne of Mehetabeel, and he had shut him selfe within, and sayde, Let vs come together in the house of God, euen vnto the middes of the temple, and shut the doores of the temple, for they wyll come to slay thee, yea euen in the night wyll they come to put thee to death.

11 And I sayde, Should any such man as I flee? Who is, that being as I am, wyll goe into the temple to saue his lyfe? I wyll not goe in.

12 And loe, I perceiued that God had not sent him, but that he pronounced this prophesie against me: for Tobia and Sanaballat had hyred him for money.

13 Therefore was he hyred, that through feare I should so doo, and sinne, that they might haue an euyll report of me, to lay to my charge.

14 My God, thinke thou vpon Tobia, and Sanaballat, accordyng vnto these theyr woorkes, and on the prophetisse Noadia, and the other prophetes that woulde haue put me in feare.

15 And the wall was finished in the twentie and fyfth day of the moneth b Elul, in c fyftie and two dayes.

b. Which was the sixth moneth, and conteyneth part of August, & part of September.

c. After that I had sent Sanaballat his answere.

16 And when al our enimies heard thereof, all the heathen that were about vs, were afraide, & theyr courage fayled them: for they perceiued that this woorke came of our god.

17 And at the same tyme were there many of the cheefe of Juda, whose letters went vnto Tobia, and againe from Tobia vnto them.

18 For there were many in Iuda that were sworne vnto hym: for he was the sonne in lawe of Sechania the sonne of Arah, and his sonne Johanan had the daughter of Mesullam the sonne of Barachia.

19 And they spake good of hym before me, and tolde hym my woordes: and Tobia sent letters to put me in feare.

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

1. After the wall once builded, is the watche appointed. 6. They that returne from the captiuitie are numbered.

Neh.49.15 1 NOwe * when the wall was builded, I hanged on the " doores also, and the Porters, syngers, and Leuites, were appointed:

2 And I commaunded my brother Hanani, and Hanania the "ruler of the castle at Hierusalem (for he was a faythful man, and feared God more then did many other.)

"Or, prince of the palace.

3 And I sayde vnto them, Let not the gates of Hierusalem be opened, vntill the sunne be whot: and whyle they stande by, let them shut the doores, and barre them. And we appointed certaine citizens of Hierusalem, to be watchemen, euery one to keepe his watche, and euery one to be ouer agaynst his house,

4 As for the citie, it was large of roome, and great, but the people were fewe therin, and the houses were not builded.

1.Esd.2.1. 5 * And God gaue me in myne hart, that I gathered together the principall men, and the officers, and the people, to "number them: and I founde a register of the number of them whiche came vp "before, and founde written therin,

"Or, to count their genealogie after the first.

6 These are the «sonnes of the "lande, that went vp from the captiuitie that was caryed away, whom Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon had brought away, and came agayne to Hierusalem and Iuda, euery one vnto his citie.

a. That is, the inhabitantes of Iuda. "Or, prouince.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

2. Esdras geathereth togeather the people, and readith the lawe to them.

1 AND all the people geathered thē selues togeather as one man, in the streete that was before the water gate, * and they sayde vnto Esdras the scribe, that he should fetch the booke of the law of Moses, which the Lorde commaunded to Israel.

* 1. Esd. 9. 1. Esd. 7. 6.

2 And Esdras the priest brought the lawe before the congregation, both of men, and women, and al that coulde vnderstande, did hearken vnto it, vpon the first day of the seuenth moneth.

3 And he read therin in the streete that was before the water gate, from the morning vntyll vntyll the noone day, before men and women that vyd hearken to it: and the eares of al the people were enclined vnto the booke of the lawe.

4 And Esdras the scribe stoode vpon a pulpet of wood whiche they had made for the preaching, and beside him stoode Matthathia, Sema, and Anaiah, Uriah, Helcia, and Maaseiah, on his right hand: and on his left hand stood Pedaia, Misael, and Melchia, and Hasum, Hasabadana, Zacharias, and Mesullam.

5 And Esdras opened the booke before all the people (for he stoode aboue all the people:) and when he opened it, all the people stoode vp.

6 And Esdras praysed the Lorde the great God: and all the people answeared, Amen, Amen, lifting vp their handes, and bowed them selues, and worshipped the Lorde, falling downe vppon their faces to the ground.

7 And Iosue, Bani, Serebia, Iamin, Accub, Sebethai, Hodaia, Maasia, Celita, Azariah, Iosabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, & the Leuites caused the people to geue heede vnto the law: and ỹ people stood in their place.

8 And they read in the booke of the lawe of God distinctly, and gaue the sense, and caused them to vnderstand the readyng.

9 And Nehemias, which is Athirsatha, and Esdras the priest and scribe, and the Leuites that caused the people to take heede, sayde vnto all the people, This day is holy vnto the Lord your God, be not ye sory, and a weepe not. For all the people wept when they heard the wordes of the lawe.

10 And he sayde vnto them, Goe your way, and eate the fat, and drinke the sweete, and send part vnto them also that haue not prepared for them selues, for this day is holy vnto our Lorde: be not ye sory therefore, for the ioy of the Lorde is your strength.

11 And the Leuites stilled all the people, and sayde, Holde your peace, for the day is holy, be not sad therefore.

12 And all the people went their way to eate, and to drinke, and to send part vnto other, & to make great mirth, because they had vnderstand the wordes that were declared vnto them.

13 And on the next day were geathered togeather the cheefe fathers among all the people, and the priestes, and Leuites, vnto Esdras the scribe, that they might vnderstand the wordes of the lawe.

14 And they found written in ỹ law which the Lorde had commaunded by Moses, that the chyldren of Israel shoulde dwell in boothes in the feast of the seuenth moneth:

15 And that they shoulde cause it to be declared and proclaymed in all their cities, and throughout Hierusalem, saying, Goe forth vnto the mount, and fetch Olue branches, Pine branches, Myrtil branches, Palme branches, and branches of the thicke tree, to make boothes, as it is written.

16 And so the people went forth, and set them, and made them boothes, euery one vppon the roofe of his house, and in their courts, and in the courtes of the house of God, and in the streete by the water gate, and in the streete of the porte of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come agayne out of the captiuitie, made boothes, and sate vnder the boothes: for since the time of Iosua ỹ sunne of Nun, vnto this day, had not the chyldren of Israel b done so: and there was very great gladnesse.

b. That is, were not so vniuersally geathered togeather as one man, as verse. 1.

18 And euery day, from the fyrst day, vnto the last, read Esdras in the booke of the lawe of God: and seuen dayes held they the feast, and on the eyght day they geathered togeather, accordyng vnto the maner.

¶ The.ix.Chapter.

1. The people repent, and forsake their strange vyues. 5. The Leuites exhort them to prayse God.

1 IN the *twentie and fourth day of a this moneth, came the chyldren of Israel togeather agayne, with fasting, and sackclothes, and earth vpon them.

*3.Esd.9.4

a. Meanyng the seuenth moneth, as Chap.8.2.

2 And they that were of the seede of Israel, were separated from all the strange chyldren, and stoode, and knowledged their sinnes, and the wickednesse of their fathers:

3 And stoode vp in their place, and read in the booke of the lawe of the Lord their God foure times on the day, and they knowledged, and worshipped the Lorde their God foure times on the day.

4 Then stoode vp vppon the stayres of the Leuites, Iosue, Bani, Cadmiel, Sabaniah, Bunni, Serebiah, Bani, and Chanani, and cryed lowde vnto the Lorde their God:

5 And the Leuites, Iosue, and Cadmiel, Bani, and Hasabnia, Serebiah, & Hodia, Sebania, and Phathaia, sayde, Stand vp, and prayse the Lord your God for euer, and let thankes be geuen vnto the name of thy glory, whiche excelleth all thankes geuyng and prayse.

6 Thou art Lorde alone, thou hast made heauen, and the heauen of all heauens, with all their host, the earth, and all thinges that are therein, the sea, and all that is therein, and thou preseruedst them all, and the host of heauen worshippeth thee.

and

7 Thou art, O Lord, the God that hast chosen * Abram, and broughtest him out of Ur in Chaldea, and calledst hym Abraham:

*Gene.11.31. Gene.17.5.

8 And foundest his hart faythfull before thee, and madest a couenant with hym, to geue vnto his seede the lande of the Chananites, Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Iebusites, and Gergesites, and hast made good thy woordes: for thou art righteous,

9 And hast considered the miserie of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their complaint by the red sea,

10 And shewed tokens and woonders vpon Pharao and all his seruantes, and on al the people of his lande: for thou knewest that they were presumptuous and cruell against them: and so madest thou thee a name, as it is this day.

*Exo.14.22 11 * And the redde sea diddest thou diuide in sunder before them, so that they went thorowe the middest of the sea, or, on dry land dry shod: and their persecutours threwest thou into the deepe, as a stone in the mighty waters:

*Exo.13.21. 12 * And leddest them on the day time in a cloudy piller, and on the nyght season in a piller of fyre, to shew them lyght in the way that they went.

*Exo.20.1. 13 * Thou camest downe also vpon mount Sion, and spakest vnto them from heauen, and gauest them right iudgementes, true lawes, good commaundements, & statutes:

14 And declaredst vnto them by thy holy sabboth, and commaundedst them precептes, ordinances, and lawes, by the hand of Moses thy seruant:

*Deut.1.8. 15 * And gauest them bread from heauen, when they were hungry, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rocke, when they were thirsty, and promisedst them that they should goe in, and take possession of the land ouer which thou haddest lift vp thine hand for to geue them.

16 But they, and our fathers, were proude & hardnecked, so that they folowed not thy commaundementes:

17 And would not obey, neyther were vnmindful of the woonders that thou diddest for them: but hardened their neckes, and had in their heades to returne to their bondage by their rebellion: but thou, O God of mercies, gratious, and ful of compassion, of long suffering, and of great mercie, yet forsookest them not.

*Exo.32.4. Num.14.14 1 Cor.10.2. 18 * Moreouer, when they had made them a molten calfe, and sayde, This is thy god that brought thee out of the land of Egypt, and dyd blasphemies:

19 Yet forsookest thou them not in the wyldernesse, according to thy great mercies: * and the cloudy piller departed not from them, on the day time to leade them *Exo.13.

by way, neyther the piller of fyre in the nyght season, to shewe them lyght in the way by whiche they should goe.

20 And thou gauest them thy good spirit to enfourme them, and withheldest not thy Manna from their mouth, and gauest them water when they were thirstie.

21 Fourtie yeeres long dyddest thou feede them in the wyldernesse, so that they lacked nothyng: their clothes waxed not old, and their feete swelled not.

22 And thou gauest them kingdomes and nations, and diddest b scatter them into corners: so they possessed the lande of Sehon, and the land of the king of Hesbon, and the land of Og king of Basan.

b. Meanyng the heathen. Num.21.

23 And their children multipliedst thou as the starres of heauen, and broughtest them into the lande whereof thou haddest spoken to their fathers, that they shoulde goe into it, and haue it in possession.

24 And the children went in, and possessed the lande, and thou subduedst before them the inhabiters of the land, euen the Chananites, and gauest them into their handes, with their kynges, and the people of the land, that they might doo with them what they would.

25 And they wan their strong cities, and a fat land, and tooke possession of houses that were full of all maner of goodes, * Welles digged out, vineyardes, olyue gardens, and many fruitefull trees, and they dyd eate, and were filled, and became fat, and lined in pleasure through thy great goodnesse.

26 Neuertheless, they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy lawe behind their backes, and slue thy prophets, * whiche exhorted them earnestly, that they myght bring them agayne vnto thee, and dyd great blasphemies.

or, vrged protested among them

27 Therefore thou gauest them ouer into the hand of their enimies that vexed them, and in the time of their trouble, when they cryed vnto thee, thou hearedst them from heauen: and through thy great mercie thou gauest them sauiours, whiche helped them out of the hand of their enimies.

28 But when they came to rest, they turned backe agayne, to doo euyl before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hande of their enimies, so that they had the dominion ouer them: and when they conuerted, and cryed vnto thee, thou hearedst them from heauen, and many tymes hast thou deliuered them, according to thy great mercie.

29 And

29 And "testifiedst vnto them, that thou myghtest bryng them agayne vnto thy law: notwithstandyng, they were proude, and hearkened not vnto thy cõmaundementes, but sinned "in thy lawes, whiche yf a man doo, he shal lyue in them: and c turned the shoulder away, and were stykenecked, and wouldo not heare.

30 Yet many yeeres dyddest thou forbeare them, and "testifiedst vnto them through thy spirite by the hande of thy prophetes, and yet would they not heare: therfore gauest thou them into the hand of the nations of the landes.

31 And for thy great mercies sake, thou hast not vtterly consumed them, neyther forsakē them: for thou art a gratious and mercyful God.

32 Now therfore our God, thou great God, myghtie and terrible, thou that keepest couenant and mercie, regard not a litle al the trauayle that hath come vnto vs, and our kynges, our princes, our priestes, and our prophetes, and our fathers, and all the people sinte the tyme of the kynges of Assur, vnto this day.

33 And truely thou art iust in al that thou hast brought vpon vs, for thou hast doone rycht: as for vs, we haue been vngodly.

34 And our kynges, and our princes, our priests, and our fathers haue not doone thy lawe, nor regarded thy commaundements, and thy "earnest exhortations wherewith thou hast "exhorted them.

35 And they haue not serued thee in their kyngdome, and in thy great goodnesse, that thou gauest them, z in the large and "plenteous lande which thou gauest before them, and haue not conuerted from their wycked woorkes.

36 Behold, we are in bondage this day, and so is the lande that thou gauest vnto our fathers, to eate the fruites and goodnes therof, behold, there are we bondmen.

37 And great is the encrease of it vnto the kyngs, whom thou hast set ouer vs, because of our sinnes, and they haue dominion ouer our bodyes and cattel, euen as they wyll them selues: and we are in great trouble.

38 Nowe because of al this, make we a sure couenaunt, and wryte it, z our princes, Leuites, and priestes, seale vnto it.

21 And the Nethinims dwelt "in Ophel: and Ziha and Gilpa were set ouer the Nethinims.
22 The ouerseer of the Leuites at Hierusalem was Azzi the sonne of Bani, the sonne of Hasabia, the sonne of Matthania, the sonne of Micha: of the children of Asaph, syngers were ouer the businesse in the house of God:
23 For it was the kynges commaundement concernyng them, that the syngers shoulde deale faythfully euery day.
24 And Pathaia the sonne of Mezezabel, of the children of Zerah the sonne of Iuda, was "next the kyng in all matters concernyng the people.
25 And in the villages in their landes, some of the children of Iuda dwelt at Kiriatharba, and in the villages therof, and in Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Iecabzeel, and in the villages thereof:
26 At Iesua, Moladath, Bethphalet,
27 In the towne of "Sual, Beerseba, and in the villages thereof:
28 At Siglag, in Moconah, and the villages thereof:
29 And at Enrimmon, Zarah, Ierimuth,
30 Zanoa, Odollam, and in their villages: at Lachis, and in the feeldes thereof: at Aseca, and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Beerseba, vnto the valley of Hinnom.
31 The children also of Beniamin, from Geba, dwelt at Michmas, Aia, Bethel, and in their villages, 32 And at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,
33 Hazor, Ramah, Gethaim,
34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballath,
35 Lod, and Ono, in the carpenters valley.
36 And the Leuites had possession both in Iuda and in Beniamin.

22 And in the tyme of Eliasib, Ioiada, Iohanan, and Iadua, were the cheefe fathers among the Leuites and the priestes, written in the raigne of Darius the Persian.
23 The children of Leui the principall fathers were written in the Chronicles, vntyl the tyme of Ionathan the sonne of Eliasib.
24 And these were the cheefe among the Leuites: Hasabia, Serebia, and Iesua the sonne of Cadmiel, and their brethren "in their presence, to geue prayse and thankes, accordyng as Dauid the man of God had ordeyned it, one watche ouer agaynst another. "Or, about them
25 Matthania, Bacbucia, Obadia, Mesullam, Talmon, and Accub, were porters "in the watche, at the thresholdes of the gates. "Or, keeping the vvarde.
26 These were in the dayes of Ioiacim the sonne of Iosue the sonne of Iosedec, and in the dayes of Nehemias the captayne, and of the priest Esdras the scribe.

27 And in the dedication of the wal at Hierusalem, they sought the Leuites out of al their places, that they myght be brought to Hierusalem, to keepe the dedication & gladnesse with thankesgeuynges, and syngyng with cymbales, "psalteries, and harpes.

"Or, vialles.

28 And the chyldren of the syngers geathered them selues togeather from euery syde, out of the playne countrey about Hierusalem, & from the villages of a Nethophathi.

a. Whiche were a certaine familie, and had their possessions in ỹ feelds, as 1. Chro. 2. 54

29 From the house of Gilgal, and out of the countreyes of Geba, and Asmaueth: for the singers had buylded them villages rounde about Hierusalem.

30 And the prieſtes and Leuites were purified, and cleansed the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 And I brought the princes of Juda vpon the wall, and appoynted two great "quiers of men to gene thankes, whiche went on the ryght hande of the wal towarde the Doung gate.

"Or, companie.

32 And after them went Hosaia, and halfe of the princes of Juda,

33 And Azaria, Esdras, and Mesullam,

34 Juda, Beniamin, Semeia, and Jeremi,

35 And certayne of the prieſtes chyldren with trumpets: namely Zachari the sonne of Jonathan, the sonne of Semeia, the sonne of Matthania, the sonne of Michaia, the sonne of Zaccur, the sonne of Asaph.

36 And his brethren, Semeia, Asarael, Melalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nathanael, & Juda, and Hanani, with the musical instrumentes of Dauid the man of God: and Esdras the scribe went before them.

37 And beside the wel gate, they went vp ouer agaynst them vpon the steppes of the citie of Dauid at the going vp of the wall, beyonde the house of Dauid vnto the water gate Eastwarde.

38 The other quier of them that gaue thankes, went ouer agaynst them, & I after them, and the halfe part of the people, vpon the wal beyonde the furnace gate, vnto the brode wal, 39 And beyonde the port of Ephraim, and beyonde the olde gate, beyonde the fyshe gate, and the towre of Hananeel, and the towre of Mea, euen vnto the Sheepe gate, and they stoode styl in the "prysons gate.

"Or, the gate of the ward.

40 And so stoode the two quiers of them that gaue thankes in the house of God, and I and the halfe of the rulers with me:

41 And the prieſtes, namely Eliacim, Maasia, Miniamin, Michaia, Elioenai, Zachari, and Hanania with trumpettes:

42 And Maasia, Semeia, Eleazar, Azzi, Iehohanan, Melchiah, Elam, and Ezer: and the syngers sang loude, hauing Iesrahiah for their ouerseer.

43 And the same day they offered great sacrifices, and reioyced: for God had geuen them great gladnesse, so that both the wiues and chyldren were ioyful, and the myrth of Hierusalem was heard farre of.

44 *At the same time were the men appoynted ouer the treasure houses, wherein were the heaue offerynges, the fyrstlinges, and the tythes, that they shoulde geather them out of the feeldes about the cities, to distribute them vnto the prieſtes and Leuites accordyng to the lawe: for Juda was glad of the prieſtes and Leuites that serued. *2. Chro. 31. 11.

45 And both the syngers and porters kept the warde of their God, and the warde of the purification, * accordyng to the commaundement of Dauid, and of Solomon his sonne. *2. Chro. 29. 25.

46 For in the tyme of Dauid and Asaph of olde were the cheefe singers ordeyned, and the songes of prayse and thankes geuyng vnto God.

47 In the tyme of Zorobabel and Nehemias, dyd all Israel geue portions vnto the singers & porters euery day his portion, and they gaue "tythes vnto the Leuites, and the Leuites "gaue tythes agayne vnto the chyldren of Aaron.

¶ The. xiii. Chapter.

1. The lawe is read. 3. They separate from them al strangers. 30. An ordinance to serue God.

1 AND that day dyd they reade in the *booke of Moses in the audience of the people, and therein was founde written, that the Ammonites and Moabites shoulde neuer come into the congregation of God: *Num. 22. 4. Deut. 23. 3.

2 *Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and water, but hyred Balaam agaynst them, that he shoulde curse them: and our God turned the curse into a blessyng. *Num. 22. 5.

3 Nowe when they had hearde the lawe, they separated from Israel euery one that had "myxt hym selfe therein.

"Or, straunge.

a. That is before the children of Israel had separated the straungers from among them.

4 And before a this had the prieſt Eliasib the ouersight of the treasurie of the house of our God, and he was kinsman vnto Tobia,

5 And had made hym a great chamber, and there had they aforetyme layde the offerynges, frankencense, vessels, & the tythes of corne, wyne, and oyle, whiche was commaunded to be geuen to the Leuites, syngers, and porters, and the heaue offerynges of the prieſtes.

6 But

6 But in al this tyme was not I at Hierusalem: for in the two and thyrtieth yeere of Artaxerxes kyng of Babylon came I vnto the kyng, and after certayne dayes obteined I licence of the kyng to come to Hierusalē.

7 And I gate knowledge of the cuyll that Eliasib did for Tobia, in that he had made hym a chamber in the court of the house of God.

8 And it greeued me sore: therefore I caste forth all the vessels of the house of Tobia, out of the chamber,

9 And commaunded them to cleanse the chambers, and thyther brought I agayne the vesselles of the house of God, with the meate offeryng, and the incense.

10 And I perceyued that the portions of the Leuites had not been geuen them, and that euery one was fled to his land, euen the Leuites & Syngers that executed the woorke.

11 Then reprooued I the rulers, and sayde, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I geathered them togeather, and set them in their place.

12 The brought al Juda the tythes of corne, and wyne, and oyle, vnto the treasures.

13 And I made treasurers ouer the treasure, Selemiah the Priest, and Zadoc the Scribe, and of the Leuites, Phadaia: and vnder their hande was Hanan the sonne of Zaccur the sonne of Matthania: for they were counted faythful, and their office was to distribute the portions vnto their brethren.

14 Thynke vpon me, O my God, herein, and wype not out b my "mercie that I haue shewed on the house of my God, and on the officers thereof.

15 And the same tyme sawe I in Juda some treadyng wyne presses on the Sabboth, and bryngyng in sheaues, and whiche laded Asses also with wyne, grapes, & fygges, and al burdens, and brought them into Hierusalem vpon the Sabboth day: and I rebuked them earnestly the same day that they solde the victualles.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fishe, and al maner of ware, and solde on the Sabboth vnto the children of Juda in Hierusalem.

17 Then reprooued I the rulers in Juda, and sayde vnto them, What euyl thyng is this that ye doo, and breake the Sabboth day?

18 Dyd not your fathers euen thus, and our God brought all this plague vppon vs, and vpon this citie? and ye make the wrath more yet vpon Israel, in that ye breake the Sabboth?

19 And when the portes of Hierusalem began to be c darke in the euenyng before the Sabboth, I commaunded to shut the gates, and charged that they shoulde not be opened tyl after the Sabboth: and some of my seruantes set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the Sabboth day.

20 Then remayned the chapmen and marchantes once or twyce ouer nyght without Hierusalem with al maner of warres.

21 Then reprooued I them sore, and sayde vnto them, Why tarrie ye al nyght about the wal? If ye doo it once agayne, I wyl laye hands vpon you: from that tyme forth came they no more on the Sabboth.

22 And I sayde vnto the Leuites, that they shoulde cleanse them selues, and that they shoulde come and kepe the gates, to halowe the Sabboth day: Thynke vpon me, O my God, concernyng this also, and spare me according to thy great mercie.

23 In those dayes also sawe I Iewes that married wyues of Asdod, of Ammon, and of Moab, 24 And their children spake halfe in ỹ speach of Asdod, and coulde not speake in the Iewes language, but according to ỹ language of the one people and of the other people.

25 Then I reprooued them, and d cursed them, and smote certayne men of them, "and made them bare: and tooke an othe of them by God, Ye shal not geue your daughters vnto their sonnes, neyther shal ye take their daughters vnto your sonnes, or for your selues.

26 *Dyd not Solomon the kyng of Israel sinne by these thynges? and yet among many Heathen was there no kyng lyke hym, whiche was deare vnto his God, and God made hym kyng ouer al Israel: and yet neuerthelesse, outlandyshe women caused hym to sinne.

27 Shall we then obey vnto you, to doo all this great euyll, and to transgresse agaynst our God, and marrie strange wyues?

28 And one of the chyldren of Joiada, the sonne of Eliasib the hygh Priest, was the sonne in lawe of Sanaballat the Horonite: but I chased hym from me.

29 O my God, thynke thou vpon them that defyle the priesthood, and the couenaunt of the priesthood, and of the Leuites.

30 Thus cleansed I them frō al such as were outlandyshe, & appoynted the courses of the priestes and Leuites, euery one in his office:

31 And to offer the wood at tymes appoynted, and fyrst fruites: Thynke thou vppon me, O my God, for the best.

The Booke of Esther.

The first Chapter.

3. King Ahasuerus maketh a royal feast. 13. VVhereunto the Queene Vasthi vvyl not come. 19. For vvhiche cause she is put avvaye. 20. The kinges decree touchyng the preeminence of man ouer his vvyfe.

1 IN the dayes of Ahasuerus (this is Ahasuerus which raigned from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundred and twentie and seuen prouinces.)

2 In those dayes, whē the kyng Ahasuerus sate on his seate a royal, which was in the palace of Susan:

a. That is, had rest and quietnesse.

3 In the thyrde yeere of his raigne, he made a feast vnto al his princes and seruants: and the myghtie men of Persia and Media, the captaynes also and rulers of his countreyes were before hym.

4 And he shewed the rychesse and glorie of his kyngdome, and the glorious worshyp of his greatnesse many dayes long, an hundred and fourescore dayes.

5 And when those dayes were expyred, the kyng made a feast vnto all the people that were in the palace of Susan, both vnto great & smal, seuen dayes long, in the court of the garden by the kynges palace,

6 Where there hanged, whyte, greene, and "yelow clothes, fastened with cordes of fine sylke and purple in syluer rynges, vpon pyllers of marble stones: ẏ " benches also were of golde and syluer made vpon a pauement of "greene, whyte, yelow, & blacke marble.

"Or, blevve, or violet coloured clothes.

"Or, beddes, or tables.

"Or, Porphyre, Marble, Alahaster, and blevve colour.

7 And they dranke in vessels of golde, and changed vessel after vessel, and royall wyne in abundance, according to the power of the kyng.

8 And the drynkyng was by an order, none myght compel: for so the kyng had appoynted to al the officers of his house, that they shoulde doo according to euery mans pleasure.

9 And the queene Vasthi made a feast also for the women in the palace of Ahasuerus.

10 And on the seuenth day, when the kyng was merie after the wyne, he commaunded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagthan, Zethar, and Charchas, the seuen chamberlaynes that dyd seruice in the presence of kyng Ahasuerus, 11 To fetche the queene Vasthi with the crowne regal into the kynges presence, that he myght shewe the people and princes her fayrenesse: for she was beautiful.

12 But the queene Vasthi would not come at the kinges worde by his chamberlaynes: then was the kyng very wroth, and his indignation kyndeled in hym.

13 And the king spake to the wyse men whiche b knewe the times (for so was the kinges maner towardes al that knewe the law and the iudgmentes:

b. That is, which were learned men, and knew the lawes and acts of their elders in tymes past.

14 And the nexte vnto hym were Carsena, Sethar, Admata, Tharsis, Mares, Marsena, and Memuchan, the seuen princes of Persia and Media, whiche c sawe the kynges face, and sate the fyrste in the kyngdome.)

c. Which were his chefe counsellers, & might haue always accesse vnto hym.

15 What, shall we doo vnto the queene Vasthi according to the lawe, because she dyd not according to the worde of the kyng Ahasuerus, whiche he commanded by his chamberlaynes?

16 And Memuchan answeared before the kyng and the princes, The queene Vasthi hath not onely doone euyl agaynst the king, but also agaynst al the princes, and agaynst al the people that are in al the prouinces of kyng Ahasuerus.

17 For this deede of the queene shal come abrode vnto all women, so that they shal despise their husbandes before theyr eyes, and shall say, The kyng Ahasuerus commaunded Vasthi the queene to be brought in before hym, but she would not come.

18 And so shall the princesses in Persia and Media say lykewyse this day vnto all the kinges princes whē they heare of this deede of the queene: thus shal there aryse to much despytefulnesse and wrath.

19 If it please the kyng, let there goe a commaundement from hym, and let it be wrytten according to the lawes of the Persians and Medians, and not to be transgressed, that Vasthi come no more before king Ahasuerus, and let the kyng geue her royall estate vnto another that is better then she.

20 And when this commaundement of the kyng, whiche shalbe made, is publyshed throughout al his empire, which is great, al women shall honour nour both among great and ſmal.

21 This saying pleased the kyng and the princes, and the kyng dyd accoꝛding to the woꝛde of Memuchan.
22 Foꝛ he sent letters foorth into al ỹ kinges prouinces, into euery land accoꝛdyng to the wꝛyting thereof, and to euery people after their language, that euery man shoulde be loꝛde in his owne house: and this to be publiſhed after the language of his people.

¶ The .ii. Chapter.

2. After the queene is put away, certayne young maydens are brought vnto the king. 14. Eſther pleaseth the king, and is made queene.

1 AFter these actes, when the displeasure of king Ahasuerus was nowe "alayed, he thought vpon Vasthi, and what she had done, & what was decreed agaynst her.
2 Then sayd the kynges seruantes that ministred vnto hym, Let there be fayre young virgins sought foꝛ the kyng.
3 And let the kyng appoynt officers in all the prouinces of his empyre, that they shoulde bryng togeather al the fayre young virgins vnto the palace of Susan to the womans "buylding, vnder the hand of Hegai the kynges chamberlayne that kept the women, to geue them "theyr apparel.
4 And that the mayden which pleased the kyng, shoulde be queene in Vasthis steede. And this pleased the kyng, and he dyd so.
5 In the palace of Susan there was a certayne Iewe, whose name was Mardocheus, the sonne of Iair, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of Cis, a man of Iemini, 6 "Which was caryed away from Hierusalem with the captiuitie, when Ieconia the kyng of Iuda was led away, whom Nabuchodonoſoꝛ the kyng of Babylon caryed thence:
7 And he nouriſhed Hadassa (that is Eſther) his vncles daughter: foꝛ she had neyther father noꝛ mother, and she was a fayre and beautiful mayden, whom Mardocheus (when her father & mother were dead) receyued foꝛ his owne daughter.
8 So when the kynges commaundement and commiſsion was publiſhed, and many maydens were bꝛought togeather into the palace of Susan vnder the hande of Hegai, Eſther was bꝛought also vnto the kynges house, vnder the hande of Hegai the keeper of the women.
9 And the mayden pleased him, & she founde fauour in his syght: and he caused "ornamentes to be geuen her speedily, and suche thynges as belonged to her, and appoynted her seuen comely maydens out of the kyngs house, "and fauoured both her and her gentlewomen singulerly in the house of the women.
10 But Eſther shewed not her people and her kynrede: foꝛ Mardocheus had charged her, that she shoulde not tel it.
11 And Mardocheus walked euery day before the court of the womens house, that he might knowe howe Eſther dyd, and what shoulde become of her.
12 And when the appoynted tyme of euery mayden came, that she shoulde goe in to the kyng Ahasuerus, after that she had ben twelue monethes accoꝛding to the maner of the women (foꝛ so were the dayes of theyr purification accomplished, sixe monethes with oyle of myꝛrhe, and sixe monethes with sweete odours, and in the purifiyng of the women:
13 And thus went the maydens vnto the king) what so euer she requyred, that must be geuen her, to goe with her out of ỹ "womens "buylding vnto the kynges palace.
14 In the euening she went, and on the morowe she returned into the seconde house of the women, abydyng vnder the hande of Saasgaz the kynges chamberlayne, which kept the concubines: and she came in vnto the kyng no moꝛe, except it pleased the king to haue her, and that she were called by name.
15 Nowe when the course came of Eſther, the daughter of Abihail, the vncle of Mardocheus (whiche had receyued her as his owne daughter) that she shoulde come in vnto the kyng, she desyred nothyng but what Hegai the kynges chamberlayne the keeper of the women sayde: and Eſther founde fauour in the syght of al them that looked vpon her.
16 And Eſther was taken vnto kyng Ahasuerus into his house royall, in the tenth moneth (which is the moneth Tebeth) in the seuenth yeere of his raigne.
17 And the kyng loued Eſther aboue al the women, and she founde grace and fauour in his syght, moꝛe then all the virgins, so that he set the crowne of the kyngdome vpon her head, and made her quene in steede of Vasthi.
18 And the kyng made a great feast vnto al his princes and seruantes, which feast was because of Eſther, and caused the prouinces to be in c quietnesse, and gaue gyftes as became the royaltie of a kyng.
19 And when the virgins were geathered togeather the seconde tyme, Mardocheus sate in the kynges gate.
20 And as yet had not Eſther shewed her kinrede and her people, accordyng as Mardocheus had bidden her: for Esther dyd after the woorde of Mardocheus, lyke as yf she had ben yet vnder his gouernance.

21 At the same tyme (whyle Mardocheus sate in the kynges gate) two of the kynges chamberlaynes, Bigthan & Theres, which kept the doore, were wroth, and sought to lay theyr handes on the kyng Ahasuerus:

22 Whereof also Mardocheus gate knowledge, and tolde it vnto queene Esther, and Esther certified the kyng thereof in Mardocheus name.

23 And when inquisition was made, it was founde so, and they were both hanged on tree: and it was written in the Chronicles before the kyng.

¶ The.iii.Chapter.

1. Haman after he was exalted, obteyned of the king, that al the Iewes shoulde be put to death, because Mardocheus had not done hym worship as other had.

1 After these actes dyd kyng Ahasuerus promote Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite, and set hym on hygh, and set his seate aboue al the princes that he had with hym.

2 And al the kynges seruantes that were in the kynges gate, bowed theyr knees, and reuerenced Haman, for the kyng had so commaunded concernyng hym: but Mardocheus a bowed not the knee, neyther did hym reuerence.

a. This fact of Mardocheus seemed to come by the singuler motion of gods spirite, to the ende he might execute his iust iudgement agaynst wycked Haman, and also bryng Mardocheus to honour for the preseruation of his people: for otherwyse to obey magistrates in al ciuil behauiour, is Gods commaundement. Nehe.2.

3 Then the kynges seruantes whiche were in the kynges gate, sayde vnto Mardocheus, Why transgressest thou the kinges commaundement?

4 And though they spake this dayly vnto him, yet would he not heare them, therefore they tolde Haman, that they might see howe Mardocheus matters would stande, for he had tolde them that he was a Iewe.

5 And when Haman sawe that Mardocheus bowed not the knee vnto hym, nor dyd reuerence vnto hym, he was ful of indignation,

6 And thought it to litle to lay handes only on Mardocheus, for they had shewed him the nation of Mardochens: wherefore he sought to destroy al the Iewes that were throwout the whole empire of Ahasuerus, and that were of ỹ nation of Mardocheus.

b. To knowe what moneth and day shoulde be good to goe about this thyng, that it might haue good successe, but God disapoynteth theyr lots and expectation.

7 In the first moneth (that is the moneth Nisan) in the twelfth yeere of kyng Ahasuerus, they cast Phur, that is a b lot, before Haman from day to day, and from moneth to moneth, to the twelfth moneth, that is the moneth Adar.

8 And Haman sayde vnto kyng Ahasuerus, There is a people scattered abrode, and dispersed among al people in al the prouinces of thine empyre, and theyr lawes are dyuers from al people, and doo not after the kynges lawes, therefore it is not the kynges profite to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written, that they may be destroyed: and so wyl I "way downe ten thousande talentes of syluer, by the handes of them that haue the charge of this businesse, to bryng it into the kynges treasurie. "Or, pay.

10 And the kyng tooke his ryng from his hand, and gaue it vnto Haman the sonne of Amadatha the Agagite the Iewes enimie.

11 And the kyng sayd vnto Haman, Let the syluer be thine, and doo with that people as it pleaseth thee.

12 Then were the kinges "scribes called, on the thirteenth day of the fyrst moneth, and there was written accordyng as Haman commaunded vnto al the kynges officers, and to the captaynes that were ouer euery prouince, and to the rulers of euery people in the countreyes on euery side, accordyng to the wryting thereof, and to euery nation after theyr language, in the name of kyng Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the kynges ryng. "Or, secretaries

13 And the letters were sent by postes into al the kinges prouinces, to roote out, to kyl, and to destroy al Iewes both yong and old, chyldren and women, in one day, vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth (whiche is the moneth Adar) and to spoyle them as a pray.

14 *This was the tenor of the wryting, that there shoulde be a commaundement geuen in al prouinces, and published vnto al people, that they shoulde be redy agaynst the same day. *Reade vers.7.

15 And the postes went in al hast according to the kynges commaundement, and in the palace of Susan was the commaundement deuised: and the kyng and Haman sate and dranke, when in the meane tyme the c citie of Susan was disquieted. c. That is, the Iewes which were in Susa.

¶ The.iiii.Chapter.

5. Mardocheus geueth the queene knowledge of the cruel decree of the king agaynst the Iewes. 16. She vvylleth that they pray for her.

1 When Mardocheus perceiued al that was done, he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the middes of the citie, and cryed loude and lamentable,

2 And came before the kynges gate, but he might myght not enter within the kyngs gate, because he had sackcloth on.

3 And in al prouinces, countreyes, & places, as farre as the kinges word and commaundement came, there was great lamentation among the Iewes, fasting, weeping, and mourning, and many lay in sackclothes and in ashes.

4 So Esthers maydens, and her chamberlaynes, came, and tolde it her: then was the queene exceedyngly astonyed, and she sent rayment that Mardocheus shoulde put on, and lay the sackcloth from hym: but Mardocheus woulde not take them.

5 Then called Esther Hathach, one of the kynges chamberlaynes, whiche stoode before her, and gaue hym a commaundement vnto Mardocheus, to knowe what it was wherefore he dyd so.

6 So Hathach went forth to Mardocheus vnto the streete of the citie, whiche was before the kynges gate:

7 And Mardocheus tolde hym of all that had come vnto hym, and of "the summe of syluer that Haman had promised to way downe into the kynges treasurie, because of the Iewes, yf he woulde destroy them.

8 And he gaue hym the coppe of the kynges commaundement that was deuised at Susan to destroy them, that he myght shewe it vnto Esther, and to speake to her, and to charge her that she shoulde goe in vnto the king, and make her prayer and supplication vnto hym for her people.

9 And when Hathach came in, he tolde Esther the wordes of Mardocheus.

10 And againe Esther spake vnto Hathach, and commaunded hym to say vnto Mardocheus, 11 Al the kynges seruauntes, and the people in the prouinces of the kyng knowe, that whosoeuer commeth within the court vnto the kyng, whether it be man or woman, which is not called, "the commaundement is, that the same shall dye, except the kyng holde out the golden scepter vnto hym, for then he shall lyue: but I haue not ben called to come in vnto the kyng now this thirtie dayes.

12 And when Mardocheus was certified of Esthers wordes, 13 Mardocheus bade say agayne vnto Esther, Thinke not with thee selfe that thou shalt escape in the kynges house more then all the Iewes.

14 For yf thou holdest thy peace at this tyme, then shall the Iewes haue "helpe and deliueraunce out of an a other place, and thou and thy fathers house shalbe destroyed: And who knoweth whether thou art come to the kyngdome "for this cause sake?

15 Esther bade them geue Mardocheus this aunsweare,

16 Goe and geather all the Iewes that are founde at Susan, and fast ye for me, that ye eate not and drynke not in three dayes, neyther day nor nyght, I and my maydens wyl fast lykewyse: and so wyll I go in vnto the kyng, whiche thyng is yet contrarie to the commaundement, & b if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mardocheus went his way, and dyd accordyng to al that Esther had commaunded hym.

" Or, there is a lawe of his.

" Or, breathing.

a This Mardocheus spake in the confidence of that fayth whiche al Gods chyldren ought to haue, whiche is, that GOD woulde deliuer them by one meanes or other.

" Or, for such a tyme.

b I wyl put my lyfe in daunger, and referre the successe to God, seeyng it is for his glorie, and deliuerance of his people.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1. Esther entreth in vnto the king, and byddeth him and Haman to a feast. 11. Haman prepareth a gallows for Mardocheus.

1 AND on the third day, Esther put on her royall apparell, and stoode in the court of the kynges palace within, ouer agaynst the kynges house: and the kyng sate vppon his royall seate in the kynges palace, ouer agaynst the gate of the house.

2 And whē the kyng saw Esther the queene standyng in the court, she founde grace in his syght: and the kyng helde out the golden scepter that was in his hande: So Esther stept forth, and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then sayd the kyng vnto her, What wylt thou, queene Esther? and what requirest thou? aske euen the halfe of the empire, and it shalbe geuen thee.

4 And Esther aunsweared, If it please the kyng, let the kyng and Haman come this day vnto the banquet that I haue prepared for hym.

5 And the king sayd, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath sayde. So the kyng and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 And the kyng sayde vnto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? And what requirest thou? If it be euen the halfe of the empire, it shalbe done.

7 Then aunswered Esther, and sayd, My petition and desyre is,

8 If I haue founde grace in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to geue me my petition, & to fulfyl my request, then let the kyng and Haman, come to the banquet that I shal prepare for them, and so wyl I do to morowe as the kyng hath sayde.

9 Then went Haman forth the same day ioyfull and merry in his mynde: but when Haman sawe Mardocheus in the kynges gate, gate, that he stoode not vp, nor mooued for hym, he was ful of indignation at Mardocheus.

10 Neuertheless, Haman refrayned hym selfe, and when he came home, he sent and called for his freendes, and Zares his wyfe.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his chyldren, & al the thinges wherin the kyng had a promoted hym so greatly, and how that he had set hym aboue the princes, and seruantes of the kyng.

12 Haman sayde moreouer, Yea Esther the queene dyd let no man come in with the king vnto the banquet that she had prepared, except me: and to morow am I bidden vnto her also with the kyng.

13 But in all this am I not satisfied, as long as I see Mardocheus the Iewe sittyng at the kynges gate.

14 Then sayde b Zares his wyfe, and all his freendes vnto hym, Let them make a gallous of fyftie cubites hygh, & to morowe speake thou vnto ỹ kyng that Mardocheus may be hanged thereon: then goe thou in merply with the kyng vnto the bāquet. And Haman was wel content withall, and caused the gallous to be made.

a. Thus the wicked when they are promoted, in stead of consyderyng their charge, & humbling them selues, waxe ambitious, disdayneful, and cruell.

b. The comfort and counsel whiche he receiued of his wyfe, & friends, through the prouidence of God, was turned to his destruction.

¶ The.vi. Chapter.

1. The king turneth ouer the Chronicles, and findeth the fidelitie of Mardocheus, 10. and commaundeth Haman to cause Mardocheus to be had in honour.

1 THe same nyght could not the kyng sleepe, and he commaunded to bring the " Chronicles and stories: and they were read before the kyng.

2 Then it was founde written, howe Mardocheus had told that Bigthana and Theres the kynges two chamberlaynes whiche kept the " doores, sought to lay handes on kyng Ahasuerus.

3 And the kyng sayde, What honour and dignitie hath ben geuen to Mardocheus therefore? Then sayd the kynges seruantes that ministred vnto hym, There is nothing at all doone for hym.

4 And the kyng sayde, Who is in the court? (for Haman was come into the court without before the kynges house, that he myght speake vnto the kyng to hang Mardocheus on the tree that he had prepared for hym.)

5 And the kynges seruantes saide vnto him: Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the kyng sayde, Let hym come in.

6 And when Haman came in, the kyng sayd vnto hym, What shalbe done vnto the man whom the kyng woulde fayne bring vnto worship? (Haman thought in his hart, Whom delyteth the kyng to bring vnto worship more then me?)

7 And Haman aunswered the kyng, Let the man whom the kyng pleaseth to bring vnto worshyp, be brought hyther,

8 That he may be arayed with the royall garmentes which the king vseth to weare, and the horse that the kyng rydeth vppon, and that the crowne royall may be set vpon his head:

9 And let this rayment and horse be deliuered vnder the hande of one of the kynges most noble princes, that they may aray the man withall, whom the kyng is disposed to bring to honour, and cause hym to ryde vpon the horse through the streete of the citie, and proclayme before hym: Thus shall it be doone to the man whom the kyng pleaseth to bring to honour.

10 And the kyng sayde to Haman, Make haste, and take as thou hast sayde, the rayment and the horse, and doo euen so vnto Mardocheus the Iewe, that sitteth before the kynges gate: and let nothyng fayle of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then tooke Haman the rayment, and the horse, and arayed Mardocheus, & brought him on horsebacke through the streete of the citie, and proclaymed before hym, Thus shall it be doone vnto the man whom the kyng is disposed to honour.

12 And Mardocheus came agayne to the kings gate: but Haman gate hym home in all the hast mournyng, & his head couered:

13 And tolde Zares his wyfe, and all his freendes, euery thyng that had befallen hym. Then sayde his wyse men, and Zares his wyfe vnto hym, If it be Mardocheus of the seede of the Iewes, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not preuayle agaynst hym, but shalt surely a fall before him.

14 And whyle they were yet talkyng with hym, came the kynges chamberlaynes, and caused Haman to make haste to come vnto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

a. That God sometyme putteth in the mouth of the very wicked, to speake that thing which he hath decreed to come to passe.

3. The queene prayeth for her selfe, and her people. 6. She accuseth Haman, and he is hanged on the gallous which he had prepared for Mardocheus.

1 AND the kyng and Haman came to banquet with queene Esther.

2 And the kyng sayde agayne vnto Esther on the seconde day at the banquet of wyne, What is thy petition, queene Esther, that it may be geuen thee? and what requirest

" Or, the booke of recordes, and the Chronicles.

" Or, thresholdes.

requirest thou? yf it be euen to halfe of the Empire, it shalbe done.

3 And Esther the queene answeared, and sayde, If I haue found grace in thy sight, O king, & yf it please the king, then graunt me my lyfe at my desyre, and my people for my petitions sake.

4 For we are solde, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slayne, and to perishe: and would God that we were solde to be bondmen, and bondwomen, then would I holde my tongue: although the enimie coulde not recompence the kinges a losse.

a Meaning, the tribute which the Iewes payd vnto the king.

5 Then king Ahasuerus answeared, & sayd vnto queene Esther, Who is he? and where is he that dare presume in his minde to doo after that maner?

6 And Esther said, The enimie and aduersarie is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was exceedingly afrayde before the kyng and the queene.

7 And the king arose from the banquet, and from the wine in his displeasure, and vvent into the palace garden: and Haman stoode vp, and besought queene Esther for his life: for he sawe that there was a mischeefe prepared for him of the king alredy.

8 And when the king came agayne out of the palace garden into the place where they dranke wine, Haman had laide him vpon the bed that Esther sate vpon. Then sayde the kyng, Wyll he force the queene also before me in the house? As soone as that word went out of the kinges mouth, they b couered Hamans face.

b This was the maner of the Persians, when one was out of the kynges fauour.

9 And Harbona one of the chamberlaynes that stoode before the kyng, sayde, Beholde, there standeth yet a gallous in Hamans house, fiftie cubites high, whiche he had made for Mardocheus, that spake good for the kyng. Then the kyng sayde, Hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallous that he had made for Mardocheus: Then was the kinges wrath pacified.

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

1. After the death of Haman, vvas Mardocheus exalted. 14. Comfortable letters are sent vnto the Iewes.

1 The same day dyd king Ahasuerus geue the house of Haman, ỹ Iewes enimie, vnto queene Esther, and Mardocheus came before the king: for Esther told what he was vnto her.

2 And the king tooke of his ring whiche he had taken from Haman, and gaue it vnto Mardocheus. And Esther set Mardocheus ouer the house of Haman.

3 And Esther spake yet more before ỹ king, and fell downe at his feete weeping, and besought him that he woulde put away the wickednesse of Haman the Agagite, and his deuice that he had imagined agaynst the Iewes.

4 And the kyng held out the golden scepter toward Esther. Then rose Esther, & stood before the king,

5 And saide, If it please the king, and yf I haue found grace in his sight, and yf it be aeceptable before the king, and I please him, then let it be written, that the letters of the deuice of Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite may be called agayne, which letters he wrote to destroy the Iewes which are in all the kinges prouinces.

6 For how can I suffer and see the euil that shall come vnto my people? or howe can I beare and looke vpon the destruction of my kinrede?

7 And the king Ahasuerus said vnto queene Esther, and to Mardocheus the Iewe, Beholde, I haue geuen Esther the house of Haman, whom they haue hanged vppon a tree, because he layd hand vpon the Iewes.

8 Wryte ye also for the Iewes as it liketh you in the kinges name, and seale it with the kinges ring: For the wrytinges that were written in the kinges name, and sealed with the kinges ring, durst no man disanull.

9 Then were the kinges scribes called at the same time, euen in the third moneth (that is in the moneth a Siuan) on the three and twentieth day thereof, and it was written accordyng to all as Mardocheus commaunded vnto the Iewes, and to the princes, to the deputies and captaynes in the prouinces whiche are from India vnto Ethiopia, namely, an hundred, twentie, and seuen prouinces, vnto euery prouince accordyng to the wryting thereof, and vnto euery people after their speache, and to the Iewes accordyng vnto their wryting and language.

a Which conteyneth part of May, and part of Iune.

10 And he wrote in the kyng Ahasuerus name, and sealed it with the kinges ryng, and by postes that rode vpon horses, and swift young Mules, sent he the wrytynges,

11 Wherein the king graunted the Iewes, in what cities so euer they were, to geather them selues togeather, and to b stande for their lyfe, and for to roote out, to slay, and to destroy all the power of the people and prouince that would trouble them, both chyldren and women, and to spoyle their goodes:

b That is, to defend them selues agaynst all that woulde assayle them.

12 Upon one day in al the prouinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, vppon the thirteenth day day of the twelfth moneth, whiche is the moneth Adar.

13 The tenor of the writing was, how there shoulde be a commaundement geuen in all and euery prouince, and published among all people, and that the Iewes should be redy agaynst that day to auenge them selues on their enimies.

14 And so the postes that rode vpon the swift Horses and Mules, made haste with all speede to execute the kinges woord: and the commaundement was deuised in the pallace of Susan,

15 And Mardocheus went out from ỹ king in royall apparel, of * yelowe and whyte, and with a great crowne of golde, being arayed with a garment of " silke and purple: and the citie of Susan reioyced and was glad.

16 And vnto the Iewes there was come lyght and gladnesse, ioy and worship.

17 In all prouinces and cities into what place so euer the kinges woorde and commaundement reached, there was ioy and myrth, a feast and good dayes among the Iewes: insomuch that many of the people in the land became Iewes, for the feare of the Iewes came vpon them.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

At the commaundement of the king, the Iewes put theyr aduersaries to death. 14. The tenne sonnes of Haman are hanged.

1 IN the twelfth moneth (that is, the moneth Adar) vpon the thirteenth day of the same, when the kinges woorde and commaundement drewe neare to be put in execution, in the day that the enimies of the Iewes hoped to haue power ouer them, it turned contrary: for the Iewes had rule ouer them that hated them.

2 For then gathered the Iewes togeather in their cities within all the prouinces of kyng Ahasuerus, to lay hande on suche as woulde doo them euill, and no man coulde withstand them: for the feare of them was come ouer all people.

3 And all the rulers in the prouinces, and princes, and deputies, and officers of the king, promoted the Iewes: for the feare of Mardocheus came vpon them.

4 For Mardocheus was great in the kings house, and the report of him was noysed in all the prouinces: for this man Mardocheus waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Iewes smote all their enimies with the stroke of the swoorde, and slaughter, and destruction, and dyd what they would vnto their enimies.

6 And at the palace of Susan, the Iewes destroyed a fyue hundred men.

7 And slue Pharsandatha, Dalphon, Asphatha,

8 Phoratha, Adalia, Aridatha,

9 Pharmastha, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha,

10 The tenne sonnes of Haman the sonne of Hamadatha, the enimie of the Iewes: but " on his goodes they layd no handes.

11 At the same time was the kyng certifyed of the number of those that were slayne in the palace of Susan.

12 And the king sayd vnto queene Esther, The Iewes haue slayne and destroyed fiue hundred men in the palace of Susan, and the ten sonnes of Haman: What haue they done thinkest thou in other lands of the king? And what is thy petition, that it may be geuen thee? or what requirest thou more to be done?

13 Esther answeared, If it please the kyng, let him suffer the Iewes whiche are in Susan, to morowe also to doo accordyng vnto this dayes decree, that they may hang Hamans ten sonnes vpon the tree.

14 And the king charged to doo so: and the decree was deuised at Susan, and they hanged Hamans ten sonnes.

15 For the Iewes that were in Susan, gathered them selues togeather vppon ỹ fourteenth day of the moneth Adar, and slue three hundred men at Susan: but on theyr goodes they layd no handes.

16 As for the other Iewes that were in the kinges prouinces, they came togeather, and stood for their liues, and had rest from their enimies, and slue of their enimies seuentie and fiue thousand, howbeit, they layde no handes on their goodes.

17 This they dyd on the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same moneth rested they, whiche day they held with fasting and gladnesse.

18 But the Iewes that were at Susan, came togeather, both on the thirteenth day, and on the fourteenth: and on the fyfteenth day of the same they rested, and helde that day with fasting and gladnesse.

19 And therefore the Iewes that dwelt in the villages, and vnwalled townes, helde the fourteenth day of ỹ moneth Adar with gladnesse and feasting, and b kept holy day, and euery one sent presentes vnto his neighbour.

20 And Mardocheus wrote these woords, and sent letters vnto all ỹ Iewes that were in al the prouinces of king Ahasuerus, both nygh and farre:

21 That they shoulde make a lawe among them them selues, and holde the fourteenth and fyftenth day of the moneth Adar yeerely, 22 As the dayes wherein the Iewes came to rest from their enimies, and as a moneth wherein their payne was turned to ioy, and their sorowe into a ioyfull day: and that in those dayes they shoulde make feastes and gladnesse, and one to sende gyftes vnto an other, and to distribute vnto the poore.

23 And the Iewes promised to doo as they had begun, and as Mardocheus had written vnto them:
24 Because Haman the sonne of Hamadatha the Agagite, all the Iewes enimie, had deuised agaynst the Iewes, howe he might destroy them, and caused to cast Phur (that is a lot) for to consume them, and to bring them to nought.
25 "But when Esther came before the king, he commaunded by letters, that his wicked deuice, whiche he imagined agaynst the Iewes, shoulde be turned vppon his owne head, and that he and his sonnes shoulde be hanged on the tree.
26 For the whiche cause they called these dayes Phurim, because of the name of the lot, and because of all the woordes of this writyng, and what they them selues had seene, and what had come vnto them:
27 And the Iewes ordeyned, and tooke it vpon them and their seede, and vpon al such as ioyned them selues vnto them, that they woulde not misse, but obserue these two dayes yeerely, according as they were written and appoynted in their season.
28 And that these dayes are to be remembred, and to be kept of chylders chyldren among all kynredes in all landes and cities, in these dayes of Phurim, which are not to be ouerslypt among the Iewes, and the memoriall of them ought not to perishe from their seede.
29 And queene Esther the daughter of Abihail, and Mardocheus the Iewe, wrote with all authoritie to confirme this second writyng of Phurim.
30 And he sent the letters vnto al the Iewes, to the hundred twentie and seuen prouinces of the empire of Ahasuerus, with woordes of peace and trueth:
31 To confirme these dayes of Phurim in their tyme appoynted, according as Mardocheus the Iewe, and Esther the queene had appoynted them: and they bounde their "soule and their seede to fasting and prayer. " Or, seede.
32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these woordes of Phurim, and was written in the booke.
33 And the kyng Ahasuerus layde tribute vpon the lande, and vpon the iles of the sea.
34 And all the actes of his power, and of his myght, and the declaration of the dignitie of Mardocheus, where with the kyng magnified hym, be they not written in the bookes of the Chronicles of the kynges of Medes and Persia?
35 For Mardocheus the Iewe, was the seconde next vnto kyng Ahasuerus, & great among the Iewes, and accepted among the multitude of his brethrē, as one that seeketh the wealth of his people, & speaketh peaceably for al his seede.

22 In all theſe thynges dyd Iob not offend, nor charged God foolyſhly.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

9. Iobs wyfe tempted hym to forſake God. 11. His three freendes viſite hym.

1 AND on a day the chyldren of God came and ſtoode before the Lord, and Satan came alſo among them, and ſtoode before the Lorde.

2 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, From whence commeſt thou? Satan aunſweared the Lord, and ſayde, I haue gone about the lande, and walked thyrough it.

3 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, Haſt thou not conſydered my ſeruant Iob? howe there is none lyke vnto hym in the earth, a perfect & a iuſt man? one that feareth God, and eſcheweth euyll, and continueth ſtyll in his vprightneſſe, although thou mouedſt me agaynſt hym, to deſtroy hym a without cauſe.

a. God to Iobs iudgement, because he ſed not God, God tryed him with plagues cauſeleſſe. Satans ſuggeſtion.

4 And Satan aunſweared the Lorde, and ſayd, b Skynne for ſkynne, yea, a man wyl geue all that euer he hath for his lyfe.

b. That is, many men rather loſe all they haue, then their lyues.

5 But lay thyne hande nowe vpon hym, and touche his bone and his fleſhe, and he ſhall curſe thee to thy face.

6 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Satan, Loe, he is in thyne hande, but ſaue his lyfe.

7 So went Satan forth from the preſence of the Lorde, and ſmote Iob with ſore byles, from the ſole of his foote, vnto his crowne.

8 And he tooke a potſharde to ſcrape hym: and he ſate downe among the aſhes.

9 Then ſayde his wyfe vnto hym, Doeſt thou continue yet in thy perfectneſſe? curſe God, and dye.

10 But he ſayde vnto her, Thou ſpeakeſt lyke a foolyſh woman: ſhal we receiue good at the hand of God, and d not receiue euil? In all theſe thyngs dyd not Iob ſinne with his lippes.

c. For he was appointed vnto ſyn, blaſphemie, curſed God. Leuit. 24. the angry he ſhould ſoone ſpeake his pacyence. d. That he be patient, adherre, reioyce in he ſtedfaſt ſperite.

11 Nowe when Iobs three freendes hearde of all the trouble that came vpon hym, they came euery one from his owne place namely Eliphaz the Themanite, Bildad the Suhite, and Zophad the Naamathite: for they were agreed togeather, to come to ſhewe their compaſſion vpon hym, and to comfort hym.

12 So when they lift vp theyr eyes a farre of, they knew him not: then they cryed, and wept, and euery one of them rent his clothes, & sprinckled dust vpon their "heades in the ayre.

13 They sate them downe by him also vpon the ground seuen dayes and seuen nightes, and none spake a woord vnto him, for they sawe that his greefe was very great.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1. Iob complayneth, and curseth the day of his birth. 11. He desyreth to dye, as though death were the end of all mans miserie.

1 AFter a this, opened Iob his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Iob answeared, and sayd,

3 *Let the day perish wherein I was borne, b and the night in the whiche it was sayde, There is a man childe conceiued.

4 The same day be turned to darkenesse, and not regarded of God from aboue, neyther let the lyght shine vpon it.

5 But let it be stayned with darkenesse and the shadowe of death, let the dimme cloude fall vpon it, which may make it terrible, as a most bitter day.

6 Let the darke stormie ouercome that night, and let it not be ioyned vnto the dayes of the yeere, nor counted in the number of the monethes.

7 Desolate be that night, and without gladnesse.

8 Let them that curse the day, and that be redy to raise vp mourning, geue it also theyr curse.

9 Let the starres of that nyght be dimme though darknesse of it, let it looke for light, but haue none, c neyther let it see the dawnyng of the day:

10 Because it shut not vp the doores of my mothers wombe, nor hyd sorowe from mine eyes.

11 Why dyed I not in the byrth? Why dyd not I perishe as soone as I came out of the wombe?

12 Why set they me vpon their knees? Why gaue they me sucke with their brestes?

13 Then shoulde I nowe haue lyen styll, I should haue slept, and been at rest,

14 Like as the kinges and "lordes of the earth, whiche haue builded them selues "speciall places:

15 Or as the princes that haue had golde, and their houses ful of siluer:

16 Or why was not I hyd, as a thing borne out of time, either as young chyldren which neuer sawe the lyght?

17 There d must the wicked ceasse from theyr tyrannie, and there suche as laboured valiantly, be at rest.

18 There the prisoners e rest togeather, they heare no more the voyce of the oppressour:

19 There are small and great, and the seruant is free from his maister.

20 Wherfore is the light geuen to him that is in miserie? and lyfe vnto them that haue heauie hartes?

21 Whiche long for death, and finde it not, though they searche more for it, then for treasures:

22 Which reioyce exceedingly, and be glad when they can finde the graue,

23 From whom their endes are hyd, and conceyled by God?

24 For my sighes come before I eate, and my rorynges are powred out like the water.

25 For the thing that I f feared is come vpon me, and the thing that I was afrayde of, is happened vnto me.

26 Was not I happy? Had I not quietnesse? Was I not in rest? and nowe commeth such miserie vpon me.

d. That is, death is the end and helpe from the tyrannie and wickednesse of them.

e. Here Iob declareth the sore plagues he bare, counting him selfe in worse state then the vilest persons, & bound prisoners: of which cares, after opinion of the flesshe he accompteth death the onely end.

f. That is, aduersitie, whiche beyng in prosperitie, he feared.

¶ The iiii. Chapter.

1. Eliphaz blameth Iob for impaciencie, 7. vniustice, and for the presumption of his owne righteousnesse.

1 AND Eliphaz the Themanite answeared, and sayde,

2 If we assay to commune with thee, wylt thou be discontent? a But who can withhold him selfe from speakyng?

3 Beholde, thou hast been an instructer of many, & hast strengthened þ b weery hands.

4 Thy woords haue set vp him that was fallyng, thou hast refreshed the weake knees.

5 But nowe it is come vpon thee, and thou art greeued: it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is this thy feare, thy confidence, thy hope, and thy c vpryght liuing?

7 Consider, I pray thee, who euer perished being an innocent? or when were the godly destroyed?

8 For as I haue proued by experience, they that plowe iniquitie, and sowe wretchednesse, reape the same.

9 With the blast of God they perishe, with the breath of his nosethrils are they consumed away.

10 The roaring of the Lion, and the voyce of the Lion, and the teeth of Lions whelpes are pulled out.

11 The d Lion perisheth for lacke of pray, and the Lions whelpes are scattered abroade.

a. Because of thy sore affliction, and thy impatiencie.

b. Meanyng, thou hast holpe and comforted many in miserie, and canst thou not rule thee selfe now.

c. By this he gathereth that Iob was but an hypocrite, and had not perfect feare nor trust in God.

d. That is, God wyl punishe tyrantes, whiche are compared to Lions, although men neglecting theyr office, do winke at them

12 But

12 But where as a thing was e hid from me, yet myne eare hath receiued a little thereof.
13 In the thoughtes and visions of the night, when sleepe commeth on men, 14 Feare came vpon me, and dreade, whiche made all my bones to shake.
15 The winde passed by before my presence, and made the heares of my flesshe to stand vp.
16 It stoode, and I knewe not the face thereof, an image there was before myne eyes, and in the stylnesse heard I a voyce.
17 Shal man be more iust then God? or shall a man be purer then his maker?
18 Beholde, he founde not trueth in his seruantes, * and in his angels there was folly:
19 How muche more in them that dwell in f houses of clay, and whose fundation is but dust, whiche shalbe consumed, as it were with a moth?
20 They shalbe smitten from the morning vnto the euening: yea they shall perishe for euer, when no man regardeth them.
21 Is not their royaltie gone away with them? they shal dye truely, and not in wysdome.

e. Here Eliphaz sheweth the maner of diuine reuelation by the holy ghost, saying that whiche he wyll nowe declare, is not humane reason, but as reuealed vnto hym from God.

*2. Pet. 2. 4.

f. Meanyng mans body, which is nothyng but dust and clay. 1. Cor. 15.

¶ The v. Chapter.

1. 2. Eliphaz shewveth the difference betweene the children of God, and the vvicked.

1 CRye, I pray thee, yf there be any that wyll answeare thee, and a looke thou vpon any of the holy.
2 As for the foolishe man, wrathfulnesse killeth him, and enuie slayeth the ignorant.
3 I haue seene mee selfe when the foolishe was deepe rooted, and suddenly I cursed his habitation.
4 His children were without prosperitie, and they were slayne in the gate, and there was no man to deliuer them.
5 His haruest was eaten of the hungry, and taken from among the thornes, & the thirstie dranke vp their labour.
6 It is not the earth that bringeth forth iniquitie, neither commeth sorowe out of the ground:
7 But man is borne vnto labour, like as the sparkes flee vp.
8 But b I would alke counsel at the Lorde, and talke with God:
9 Whiche doth great thinges, and vnsearcheable, and marueyles without number.
10 He geueth rayne vpon the earth, & powreth water vpon the streetes, 11 To set vp them that be of lowe degree, and that those which are in heauinesse may be exalted to saluation.
12 He destroyeth the deuises of the subtyll, so that theyr handes are not able to performe that which they doo enterprise.
13 He compasseth the wyse in theyr owne craftinesse, and maketh foolishe the counsel of the wicked.
14 They runne into c darknesse by fayre day, & grope at the noone day, as in ỹ night.
15 But he deliuereth the poore from the swoord, from their threatninges, and from the violence of the mighty.
16 He is the hope of the poore, and ỹ mouth of the wicked shalbe stopped.
17 Behold, * blessed is the man whom God correcteth, therfore refuse not thou the chastening of the almighty.
18 For he maketh a wound, and he healeth: he smiteth, and his hande maketh whole agayne.
19 He shall deliuer thee in d sixe troubles, and in the seuenth there shall no euill come to thee.
20 In hunger he shal saue thee from death, and when it is warre, from the power of the swoord.
21 Thou shalt be hydde from the scourge of the tongue, and when destruction commeth thou shalt not neede to feare.
22 In destruction and dearth thou shalt be merry, and shalt not be afraid of the beastes of the earth.
23 For the e stones of the land shalbe confederate with thee, and the beastes of ỹ feelde shalbe at peace with thee.
24 And thou shalt know that thy dwelling place shalbe in rest, and thou shalt visite the habitation, and shalt f not sinne.
25 Thou shalt see also that thy seede shalbe great, and thy posteritie as the grasse vppon the earth.
26 Thou shalt come also to thy graue in a full age, like a corne sheafe cut downe in due season.
27 Loe, this we our selues haue proued by experience, and euen thus it is: hearken thou to it also, that thou mayest take heede to thee selfe.

a. He wylleth Iob to consider the example of all that haue liued godly, whether any of the were plagued in such sort as he was.

b. If I were in thy case, I would craue helpe of God, sayth Eliphaz.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1. Iob answeareth, that his paine is more greeuous then his fault. 8. He vvysheth death. 14. He complayneth of his freendes.

1 BUt Iob answeared, and sayde,
2 O that my complaynt were a truely weyghed, and my punishment layde in the ballances togeather:
3 For nowe it would be heauier then the sand of the sea: and this is the cause that my woordes fayle me.
4 For the arrowes of the almighty are vpon me, the poyson thereof hath dranke vp my spirite, and the terrible b feares of God are set agaynst me.

5 Dooth

5 Doeth the wylde Asse roze when he hath grasse? oz loweth the Oxe when he hath fodder?
6 That whiche is vnsauerie, c shal it be eaten without salte? oz is there any taste in the whyte of an egge?
7 The thynges that sometyme I might not away withall, are nowe my meate foz very sozowe.
8 O that I myght haue my desyze, and that God woulde graunt me the thyng that I long foz:
9 O that God woulde begyn and smyte me, that he woulde let his hande goe and take me cleane away:
10 Then shoulde I haue some comfoz, yea, I woulde desyze hym in my payne that he would not spare, d foz I wyl not denie the woozdes of the holy one.
11 Foz what power haue I to endure? and what is myne ende, "that my soule myght be patient?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones? oz is my flesshe of brasse?
13 Is it not so that there is in me no helpe: and that my " substaunce is taken from me?
14 He that is in tribulation, ought to be comforted of his neyghbour: but the feare of the almyghtie is cleane away.
15 Myne owne brethren passe ouer by me, as the water brooke, and as the ouerflowyng of waters whiche doo hastyly goe away.
16 Which are blackish by reason of the Ice, and wherein the snowe is hyd.
17 Whiche when they haue passed by, doo vanishe: and when the heate commeth, they vayle out of their place.
18 They departe from the course of their woonted chanel to other places, they runne in vayne, and perysshe.
19 They that went to e Theman consydered them, and they that went to Saba wayted foz them.
20 But they were confounded in their hope, they came thyther, and were ashamed.
21 Euen suche truely are ye, nowe that ye see my miserie ye are afrayde.
22 Dyd I desyze you to bzyng vnto me, oz to geue me any of your substaunce?
23 To delyuer me from the enimies hande, oz to saue me from the hande of the tyrantes?
24 Teache me, and I wyl hold my tongue: and wherein I haue erred, cause me to vnderstande.
25 Howe strong are the woozdes of trueth? and whiche of you can rebuke oz reproue them?
26 Doo ye imagine to reproue f woozds, that the talke of the afflicted shoulde be as the wynde?
27 Ye fal vppon the fatherlesse, and dygge a pyt to ouerthzowe your owne freende.
28 And therefoze be content, and g looke nowe vppon me, and I wyll not lye before your face.
29 Turne I pray you, "be indifferent iudges: turne agayne, and ye shal see myne vngyltynesse, whether there be any vnryghteousnesse in my tongue, oz vayne woozdes in my mouth.

g. To consider my cause, whether I faine or no.
" Heb. let there be none iniquitie.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1. Iob shewyth the shortnesse and miserie of mans lyfe.

1 IS there not an appoynted tyme to man vpon earth? are not his dayes also lyke the dayes of an a hyred seruant?
2 Foz lyke as a bonde seruant desyzeth the shadowe, and as an hyzelyng woulde fayne haue the rewarde of his woozke:
3 Euen so haue I laboured whole moneths long in vayne, and many a carefull nyght haue I tolde.
4 When I layd me downe to sleepe, I said, O when shall I aryse? and b measuryng the euenyng, I am euen ful with tossyng to and fro vnto the dawnyng of the day.
5 My flesshe c is clothed with woozmes, and dust of the earth: my skynne is wythered and become hozrible.
6 My dayes passe ouer moze speedyly then a Weauers shuttle, and are spent without hope.
7 O remember that my lyfe is but a winde, and that myne eye shall no moze see pleasures:
8 Yea and the eye that hath seene me, shall see me no moze: foz yet thou d fasten thyne eye vpon me, I come to nought.
9 The cloude is consumed and vanished away: so he that goeth downe to the graue e shal came no moze vp,
10 Noz turne agayne into his house, neyther shal his place knowe hym any moze.
11 Therfoze f I wyl not spare my mouth, but I wyll speake in the trouble of my spirite, and muse in the bytternesse of my mynde.
12 Am I a sea oz a Whale fyshe, that thou keepest me so in pryson?
13 When I say, My bed shall comfoze me, I shall haue some refreshyng by talkyng to mee selfe vpon my couche:
14 Then fearest thou me g with dreames, and makest me so afrayde through visions, 15 That my soule wysheth rather to perysshe

a. Meanyng, that his cause is woorse then either the hirelyng, or bonde man.
b. Declaryng his sore payne, in that eache houre was lothsome and greeuous vnto hym.
c. Hereby he sheweth why he was despysed, in that his disease was very strange and horrible.
d. That is, fasten thy iudgement, which is so heauie that I can not beare it.
e. Before the generall iudgement.
f. That is seeing my lyfe vanisheth as the wynde, and that there is no returne after death, I wyl refreine mee selfe by expressing the greefes of my burdened mynde.
g. That is, I am in extreme afflictions continually nyght and day.

and dye, then my bones to remayne.

16 I am weerie, I ſhal not lyue alway: h O ſpare me then, for my dayes are but vanitie.

17 What i is man that thou doeſt magnifie hym? and that thou ſetteſt thy hart vpon hym?

18 Thou viſiteſt hym early and euery day, euery moment doeſt thou trie hym.

19 Why k goeſt thou not fro me, nor letteſt me alone, ſo long tyl I may ſwalowe downe my ſpyttle?

20 I haue offended, what ſhal I doo vnto thee, O thou preſeruer of men? Why haſt thou ſet me as a marke againſt thee, ſo that I am a burden to mee ſelfe?

21 Why doeſt thou not pardon my treſpaſſes, and take away myne iniquitie? Behold, nowe muſt I ſleepe in the duſt, and yf thou ſeekeſt me in the morning, I ſhall not be.

h. Seeyng I haue ſo litle tyme to lyue, geue me ſome reſt.
i. As though Iob had ſayd, there is no cauſe why thou ſhouldſt eſteme man.
k. Why doeſt thou not ceaſſe to punyſhe me?

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

Bildad ſhevveth that Iob is a ſinner, becauſe God punyſheth the vvicked, and preſerueth the good.

1 THEN anſwered Bildad the Suhite, and ſayde,

How long wylt thou talke of ſuche thynges? howe long ſhall the woordes of thy mouth be as a a myghtie wynde?

3 Doeth God peruert the thyng that is lawful? or doeth the almyghtie deſtroye the thyng that is ryght?

4 For ſeeyng that b thy ſonnes ſinned agaynſt hym, dyd not he ſende them into the place of their iniquitie?

5 Yf thou wouldeſt nowe reſorte vnto God betymes, and make thy prayer to the almyghtie,

6 Yf thou wouldeſt lyue a pure and godlye lyfe: ſhould he not awake vp vnto thee immediatly, and make the habitation of thy ryghteouſneſſe proſperous?

7 Inſomuch that wherein ſo euer thou haddeſt litle afore, thou ſhouldeſt haue nowe great abundance.

8 Enquyre I pray thee c of the former age, and ſearche diligentlye among their fathers:

9 (For we are but of d yeſterday, and conſyder not that our dayes vpon earth are but a ſhadowe.)

10 Shall not they ſhewe thee, and tel thee, and vtter the woordes of their hart?

11 Maye a e ruſhe growe without moyſtneſſe? or may the graſſe growe without water?

12 No, but whyleſt it is nowe in his greeneneſſe, though it be not cut downe, yet wythereth it before any other hearbe:

13 So are the pathes of al that forget God, and f hypocrites hope ſhal come to nought.

14 His confidence ſhalbe deſtroyed, and his truſt ſhalbe a f Spyders webbe.

15 He ſhall leane vpon his houſe, but it ſhall not ſtande: he ſhal holde hym faſt by it, yet ſhal it not endure.

16 But the greene tree in the Sunne ſhooteth foorth his branches in the garden.

17 The rootes thereof are wrapped about the fountayne, & are folden about the houſe of ſtones.

18 Yf any plucke it from his place, and it denie, g ſaying, I haue not ſeene thee:

19 Beholde, it wyl reioyce by this meanes, yf it may growe in another moulde.

20 Beholde, God wyll not caſt away a vertuous man, neyther wyll he " helpe the vngodly.

21 Thy mouth ſhall he fyll with laughyng, and thy lippes with gladneſſe.

22 They alſo that hate thee, ſhalbe clothed with ſhame, and the dwelling of the vngodly ſhal come to nought.

a. He declareth that thoſe mens woords whiche wyll deminiſhe any thyng from the iuſtice of God, are but as a puffe of wind that vaniſheth away.
b. And therefore are iuſtlye plagued, but thou rather art more bound to God, becauſe he hath geuen thee ſpace to repent.
c. Here Bildad confirmeth his ſayinges by the auctoritie of the fathers.
" Iſa. 143. 4.
d. That is, lately borne.
e. Meanyng, that as a ruſhe without moyſture can not growe: ſo can not an euyll man lyue, without repentance moiſtened with Gods grace.
f. Whiche ſpunne ſo and ſo ſweepe away wherein ſhe kened houſe of wycked, rychelth his habitacion.
g. That is that there marueth thyng proue ther ſhe had ſtrength therof.
" Or, lay vngodly hands.

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

Iob declareth the myghtie powuer of God, and that mans ryghteouſneſſe is nothyng.

1 IOB anſweared, and ſayde,

2 I knowe it is ſo of a trueth: for how may a man compared vnto God, be a iuſtified?

3 Yf he wyl argue with hym, he can not anſweare hym one thyng of a thouſande.

4 He is wyſe in hart, & myghtie in ſtrength: who hath been fierce againſt hym, and hath proſpered?

5 He b tranſlateth the mountaynes or euer they be aware, it is he that ouerthroweth them in his wrath.

6 He remoueth the earth out of her place, that the pyllers thereof ſhake withal.

7 He commaundeth the Sunne, and it ryſeth not: he cloſeth vp the ſtarres as vnder a ſeale.

8 He hym ſelfe alone ſpreadeth out the heauens, and goeth vpon the " waues of the ſea.

9 He maketh the waynes of heauen, c the Dzion, the ſeuen Starres, and the ſecrete places of the South.

10 He doeth great thynges & vnſearchable: yea and woonders without number.

11 Loe, d when he goeth by me, I ſhall not ſee hym, and when he paſſeth, I ſhall not perceyue hym.

12 Yf he be haſtie to take awaye, who wyll make a. Iob reaſoneth and diſputeth with God, and that in ſuche oration, as ſeeming nothing iuſtice in God, compared

b. Here with the mightie power of God, whereof Iob doeth argue the mans make him e reckone it? or who wyl say vnto hym, What doest thou?

13 God wyl not withdrawe his anger, and the most mightie doo stowpe vnder hym?

14 Howe muche lesse shal I answeare him? or howe shoulde I finde out my woordes with hym?

15 For though I were righteous, yet might I not geue hym one woorde agayne, but meekely submit mee selfe to hym as my iudge.

16 If I had called vpon hym, and he had answeared me, f yet woulde I not beleeue that he heard my voyce:

17 He troubleth me so with the tempest, and woundeth me out of measure without a cause.

18 He wyl not suffer me to take my breath, but fylleth me with bitternesse.

19 If men wyl speake of strength, loe he is strong: yf men wyl speake of iudgement, who shalbe my pleader?

20 If I wyll g iustifie mee selfe, myne owne mouth shal condemne me: yf I wyl be a perfect man, he shal proone me a wycked dooer.

21 Though I were perfect, yet I knowe not my soule, and am weerie of my lyfe.

22 This is one poynt, and therfore I sayd, He destroyeth both the perfect & vngodly.

23 And though he slay sodenly with the scourge, wyll he laugh at the punishment of the innocent?

24 As for the earth it is geuen ouer into the hande of the wicked, and he shal h couer the faces of the iudges thereof: if not, where is he, or who is he? that can shewe the contrarie?

25 My dayes are more swyft then a runner, they are gone, & haue seene no good thing.

26 They are passed away as the shippes that be good vnder sayle, and as the Eagle that fleeth to the pray.

27 If I say, I wyll forgeat my complayning, I wyl ceasse from my wrath, & comfort mee selfe:

28 Then am I afrayde of all my sorowes, for I knowe that thou wylt not iudge me innocent.

29 If I be wycked, why then i labour I in vayne?

30 If I washe mee selfe with snowe water, and make mine handes neuer so cleane at the wel:

31 Yet shalt thou "dip me in the myre, and k mine owne clothes shal defile me.

32 For he that I must geue answeare vnto, and with whom I goe to the lawe, is not a man as I am:

33 Neyther is there any dayes man to laye his hande betweene vs.

34 Let hym take his rodde away from me, yea let hym make me no more afrayde of hym, 35 And then shal I answeare hym without any feare: but "because I am not so, I hold me styl.

"Or, I haue nothyng to make for me.

¶ The.x. Chapter.

1. Iob is vweerie of his lyfe, and setteth out his frayleneſſe before God. 20. He deſyreth hym to ſtay his hande. 22. A deſcription of death.

1 MY soule is a cut of though I lyue, I wyl powre out my complaint against mee selfe, and wyll speake out of the very "heauinesse of my soule.

2 I wyl say vnto God, O b doo not condenne me, but shewe me wherefore thou contendest with me:

3 Thinkest thou it wel done to oppresse me? to cast me of, beyng the woorkes of thy handes? and to c maynteyne the counsel of the vngodly?

4 Hast thou fleshly eyes? or doest thou looke as a man looketh?

5 Or are thy dayes as the dayes of d man? and thy yeeres as mans yeeres?

6 That thou makest suche inquisition for my wyckednesse, & searchest out my sinne?

7 Thou knowest e that I haue not doone wickedly, and that none can deliuer me out of thyne hande.

8 Thy handes haue made me, and fashioned me altogeather round about, wylt thou then destroy me?

9 Remember, I beseeche thee, that thou madest me as the moulde of the earth, and shalt bring me into dust agayne.

10 Hast thou not powred me as it were mylke, & turned me to cruddes lyke cheese?

11 Thou hast couered me with skynne and flesshe, and ioyned me togeather with bones and sinowes.

12 Thou hast graunted me lyfe, and done me good: and thy f visitation hath preserued my spirite.

13 Thou hast hyd these thynges in thyne hart, yet I am sure that thou remembrest this thyng.

14 If I did sinne, thou haddest an eye vnto me, and shalt not pronounce me innocent from mine offence.

15 If I haue done wyckedly, wo is me therfore: yf I haue done ryghteously, yet g dare I not lyft vp my head, so ful am I of confusion, and see mine owne miserie.

16 And let it increase, hunt me as a Lion, but thou wylt returne and shewe thee selfe marueylous vpon me.

a. I am more lyke to a dead man, then to one that liueth.

"Or, bitternesse.

b. That is, in thy secrete iudgement doo not lay thinges to my charge.

c. Wylt thou helpe the wycked, and leaue me destitute?

d. That is, changeable, as though he woulde say, Art thou not the same God that thou wast wont to be, merciful & good to Iob?

e. That is, I can not offend, by reason thou keepest me low in affliction.

f. Thy fatherly care and prouidence whereby thou preseruest me.

g. That is, I wyl walke in meeke humilitie.

Yf if 17 Thou

*or, plagues.

17 Thou bryngest freshe *witnesse agaynst me, and thy wrath increasest thou vpon me: dyuers and many are the plagues that I am in.

18 Wherefore hast thou brought me out of the wombe? O that I had perished, and that no eye had seene me.

19 And that I were as though I had not been, but brought from the wombe to the graue.

20 Are not my dayes fewe? Let hym then leaue of from me, and let me alone, that I may comfort mee selfe a litle,

21 Before I go thyther from whence I shall not turne agayne, euen to the land of darkenesse and shadowe of death:

22 Yea a lande as darke as darkenesse it selfe, and into the shadowe of death where is k none order, but the light is there as darkenesse.

k. That is, no difference betweene lyght and darkenesse.

¶ The.xi.Chapter.

1. Iob is vniustly blamed of Sophar. 7. The maiestie of God can not be searched. 14. God is merciful to the repentant. 18. The godly shal lyue in safetie.

1 THen answeared Sophar the Naamathite, and sayde,

2 Shoulde not he that maketh many woordes be answeared? Shoulde he that a babbleth muche be commended therein?

a. For not he that speaketh much, but he that speaketh truely, speaketh wel.

3 Shoulde thy lyes make men holde theyr peace? and when thou mockest others shall no man make thee ashamed?

b. Here Sophar layeth to Iobs charge wordes that he spake.

4 For thou hast sayde, b my doctrine is pure, and I am cleane in thine eyes.

c. Sophar goeth about to proue Iob to be iustly plagued.

5 But O c that God woulde speake, and open his lippes agaynst thee,

6 That he might shew thee the d secretes of wysedome, howe thou hast deserued double, accordyng to ryght: Knowe therefore that GOD hath forgotten thee for thine iniquitie.

d. Which is, not to stande in iustifiyng thee selfe.

7 Art thou able to finde out the secretes of God? Or wylt thou atteyne to the perfectnesse of the almightie?

8 He is e higher then heauen, what art thou able to doo? deeper then the hel, howe wylt thou then knowe hym?

e. If man be not able to comprehende the heyght of heauen, the deapth of hel, the length of the earth, and the breadth of the sea, whiche are but creatures, howe can he atteyne to the perfect knowledge of the creator.

9 The measure of hym is longer then the earth, and broder then the sea.

10 Though he turne all thynges vpside downe, close them in, and geather them togeather, who wyl turne hym from his purpose?

11 For it is he that knoweth vayne men, he seeth theyr wyckednesse also, shoulde he not then consider it?

12 Yet vayne man woulde be wyse, though man newe borne, is lyke a wylde asses coult.

13 If thou preparedst thyne hart, and lyftedst vp thine handes towarde hym:

14 If thou wouldest put away the wickednesse which thou hast in hande, so that no vngodlinesse dwell in thy house:

15 Then mightest thou f lyft vp thy face without " shame, and then shouldest thou be sure, and haue no neede to feare.

f. Ducke the quier des of that tem pest.

16 Then shouldest thou forgeat thy miserie, and thinke no more vpon it then vppon the waters which passeth by.

17 Then shoulde thy " lyfe be as cleare as the noone day, thou shouldest shine foorth, and be as the morneyng.

18 Then mightest thou be bolde, because there is hope, and take thy rest quietly, as compassed with a trenche.

19 *Then mightest thou lye downe, and none to make thee afrayde, yea many a one shoulde make suite vnto thee.

20 As for the eyes of the vngodly, they shal fayle, and they shal not escape, and theyr hope shalbe sorowe of mynde.

¶ The.xii.Chapter.

1. Iob accuseth his freendes of ignorance. 7. He declareth the myght and power of GOD. 17. And howe GOD changeth the course of thynges.

1 AND Iob answeared, and sayde,

2 Then no doubt ye are the people, and a wysedome shall perysh with you.

3 But I haue " vnderstandyng as wel ye, and am not inferiour to you: yea, who knoweth not these thynges?

4 *I am as one mocked of his neyghbour, who calleth vpon GOD, and he heareth hym: the iust and the vpright is laughed to scorne.

5 Beyng as a lyght b despysed in the hartes of the ryche, and as one redy to fall.

6 The houses of robbers are in wealth and prosperitie, and they that malitiously meddle agaynst God, dwel without care in those thynges that God hath c geuen rychly with his hande.

7 Aske the cattayle, d and they shal enfourme thee: the foules of the ayre, and they shal tel thee.

8 Speake to the earth, and it shal shewe thee: or to the fyshes of the sea, and they shal certifie thee.

9 What is he, but he knoweth that the hand of the Lorde made al these?

10 In

10 In whose hand is the f soule of euery lyuyng thyng, and the breath of all " mankynde?
11 Doeth not the eares discerne the woordes? and the mouth take the meate?
12 Among olde persons there is wysedome, and in age is vnderstandyng.
13 Yea, with GOD is wysdoome & strength, counsel, and vnderstandyng.
14 Behold, yf he g breake downe a thing, who can set it vp agayne? yf he shutte a thyng, who wyl open it?
15 Behold, yf he withholde the waters, they dryue vp: yf he let them goe, they destroy the earth.
16 With hym is strength and wysedome, both the deceyuer and he that is deceyued are h his.
17 He carrieth away the wyse men as it were a spoyle, and maketh the iudges fooles.
18 He looseth the rule of kyngs, and gyrdeth their loynes with a bonde.
19 He leadeth away the great men into captiuitie, and turneth the myghtie vpsyde downe.
20 He stoppeth ỹ mouth of them that speake trueth, and disappointeth the aged of their vnderstandyng.
21 He powreth contempt vppon Princes, and maketh the strength of the myghtie weake.
22 Looke what lyeth hydde in darknesse, he declareth it openly, and the very shadowe of death bryngeth he to lyght.
23 He encreaseth the people, and destroyeth them, he maketh them to multiplie, and diminisheth them.
24 He taketh away the hart of them that be heades of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in the wyldernesse out of the way.
25 They grope in the darke without lyght, and he maketh them to stacker lyke a dronken man.

¶ The .xiii. Chapter.

Iob prayeth vnto God that he vvould not handle hym rygorously.

1 LOE, a al this haue I seene with mine eye, heard with myne eare, and vnderstande it.
2 What ye knowe, that same doo I knowe also, neyther am I inferiour vnto you.
3 Neuertheless, I talke with the almighty, and my desyre is to commune with God.
4 As for you, ye are woorkmaisters of lyes, and b vnprofytable Phisitions altogether.
5 Would God ye kept your tongue, for then myght ye be taken for wyse men.
6 Nowe heare my reasonyng, and ponder the argument of my lippes.
7 Wyll you speake c wyckedly for Gods defence, and talke deceitefully for his cause?
8 Wyl ye accept the person of hym? or wyll ye contende for God?
9 Shall that helpe you when he calleth you to reckonyng? or as one man mocketh another, doo ye so mocke hym?
10 He shall surely reprooue you, yf ye doo secretly accepte any person.
11 Shal not his excellencie make you afraid? shal not his feare fal vpon you?
12 Your d remembrance is lyke vnto dust, and your bodyes lyke the claye.
13 Holde your tongues before me, that I maye speake, and let come on me what wyl.
14 Wherefore doo I e teare my flesh with my teeth, and f put my soule in myne handes?
15 Loe, though he slaye me, yet wyl I truste in hym: but I wyll reprooue myne owne wayes in his syght.
16 He shalbe my saluation: for there may no g hypocrite come before hym.
17 Heare diligently my woordes, and ponder my sayinges with your eares.
18 Behold, now haue I prepared my iudgement, and knowe that I shalbe founde h ryghteous.
19 What is he that wyll i goe to law with me? yf I nowe holde my tongue, I dye.
20 Neuertheless, doo not these two thyngs vnto me, and then wyl I not hyde mee selfe from thee.
21 Withdrawe thyne hande farre from me, and let not the fearefull dread of thee make me afrayde.
22 Then call, and I wyl aunsweare: or let me speake, and geue thou me an aunsweare.
23 Howe many are my misdeedes & sinnes? let me knowe my transgressions and offences.
24 Wherefore hydest thou thy face, and holdest me for thy enimie?
25 Whylt thou breake a leafe dryuen to and fro, and wylt thou pursue the drye stubble?
26 For thou laiest sharply to my charge, and punyshest me for the synnes of my youth.
27 Thou puttest my feete also in the k stockes, and lookest narowly vnto all my pathes, and makest the prynt thereof in the heeles of my feete.
28 And I as a rotten thyng doo consume away, as a garment that is moth eaten.

a. Marke what I shal lay agaynst you, for I blame you not in that ye declare gods power, but because you fayne a carnal and humane iustice to be in hym: and so so true thynges ye cõclude lyes.

d. Your fame shal come to nothyng.
e. That is, sore vexe and torment mee selfe as though I should rent and teare my flesh with teethe.
f. That is, to set my lyfe in dangers.
g. Here it appeareth that Iobs trust and hope in God was not al perished, discharging hym selfe of hypocrisie, wherewith they charged hym.
h. That is, not condemned for my sinnes, as you doo reason.
i. To proone that God plagueth me for mine offences.

k. Thou makest me thy prisoner, and doest so oppresse me, that I can not styrre hand nor foote.

¶ The.xiiii. Chapter.

1. Iob describeth the shortnesse and miserie of the lyfe of man. 14. Hope susteyneth the godlye. 22. The condition of mans lyfe.

1 MAN that is borne of a woman hath but a shoꝛt tyme to lyue, and is full of miserie.

2 He commeth vp, and is cut downe a lyke a floure: he fleeth as it were a shadow, and continueth not.

3 Doest thou b open thyne eyes vpon such one, and bryngest me into thy iudgement?

4 Who can make it cleane that commeth of an vncleane thyng? no body.

5 The dayes of man surely are determined, the number of his moneths are knowen only vnto thee, thou hast appoynted hym his boundes whiche he can not goe beyonde.

6 Goe from hym, that he may rest, vntyl his day c come whiche he looketh foꝛ, lyke as an hyꝛelyng doth.

7 Foꝛ yf a tree be cut downe, there is some hope yet that it wyl sprowte & shoote foorth the branches agayne.

8 Though the roote of it be waxen olde in the earth, and the stocke thereof be dead in the grounde:

9 Yet when it geatteth the sent of water, it wyll budde and bryng foorth boughes, lyke as a tree that is planted.

10 d But as foꝛ man, when he is dead, perysshed, and consumed away, what becõmeth of hym?

11 As the waters passe from the sea, and as the flood decayeth and dryeth vp:

12 So man after he is asleepe ryseth not, he shall not wake tyll the heauens be no moꝛe, noꝛ ryse out of his sleepe.

13 O that thou wouldest hyde me in the graue, and keepe me secret vntyl thy wrath were past, and to appoynt me a tyme wherin thou myghtest remember me.

14 Maye a dead man lyue agayne? All the dayes of my lyfe wyl I wayte styl, tyll my changyng shal come.

15 Thou shalt e cal me and I shal answere thee, " despyse not thou the woꝛke of thine owne handes.

16 Foꝛ now thou f numbꝛest al my goings, and geuest no delay vnto my sinne.

17 Myne iniquitie is sealed vp as it were in a g bagge, and thou addest punyshment vnto my wyckednesse.

18 The mountaines fal away at the last, the rockes are remoued out of their place.

19 The waters pearse through the very stones by litle and litle, the floodes washe away the grauel and earth: so shalt thou destroy the hope of man.

20 Thou preuaylest styl against him, so that he passeth away: thou changest his " estate, and puttest hym from thee.

21 And whether his children come to woꝛshyp, oꝛ no, he can not tell: and yf they be men of lowe degree, he knoweth not.

22 But whyle his h flesshe is vpon hym, it must haue soꝛowe: & his soule shall mourne within hym.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

Eliphas blameth Iob, because he chalengeth wysedome and pureness to hym selfe.

1 THen answeared Eliphas the Themanite, and sayde,

2 Shal a wyse mans answere be as the wynde, and fyl his belly with the a wynd of the East?

3 Shall he reproue with a woꝛde that is nothyng woꝛth, and speake the thynges whiche can doo no good?

4 Surely thou hast cast of feare, and refrayneste prayer before God.

5 Foꝛ thy mouth setteth foorth thyne owne iniquitie, seeing thou hast chosen the tongue of the craftie.

6 Thyne owne mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea thyne owne lippes shape an answeare agaynst thee.

7 b Art thou the firste man that euer was borne? oꝛ wast thou made before the hyls?

8 Hast thou heard the secret counsel of God? and doest thou restrayne wysedome to thee selfe?

9 What knowest thou that we knowe not? and what vnderstandest thou, but we can the same?

10 * With vs are both olde & aged men, yea, such as haue lyued longer then thy father.

11 Thynkest thou it a smal thyng of the consolations of GOD? " with thee is a lying woꝛde.

12 Why doeth thyne c harte so bewitche thee? and wherefoꝛe wynckest thou with thyne eyes, 13 That thy mynde is so d puft vp against God, and letteste suche woꝛdes goe out of thy mouth?

14 What is man, that he shoulde be cleane? and he whiche is borne of a woman, whereby he myght be ryghteous?

15 Beholde, he doeth not " trust his saintes, yea the heauens are not cleane in his syght:

16 Howe muche moꝛe then an abominable and vile man, whiche e dꝛynketh wickednesse lyke water.

17 I wyl tel thee, heare me, and I wyl shew thee that I haue seene:

18 Whiche wyse men haue tolde, and ha[illegible] not hydde that whiche they receyued fr[illegible] their fathers:

19 [illegible] to

a. This expresseth mans shortnesse of lyfe, & the vnstablenes thereof, beyng compared to a floure, to a shadowe, and to the grasse in the feelde.

b. Meanyng, that seyng man is so fraile, he should not handle hym so extremely.

c. That is, death whiche he desyreth as the hirelyng wayteth in the ende of his labour to receyue his wages.

d. Iob saith not this as hauyng no hope of immortalitie, but as one sore tormented

e. Thou plagueste me nowe, yet when thou shalt cal me vp at doomes day, I shal answeare thee, for thou art mercyful.

" Oꝛ, thou shalt loue.

f. That is, thou hast al my deedes numbred, spare me therefore.

g. Thou keepest al my sinnes in store, & sufferest none vnpunyshed.

a. Woordes to no effect spoken, are likened to the East wynde, which dryeth vp the moysture as soone as it falleth: so fondly the woordes vaynely pro- as soone as be spoken.

b. That is, thou so ancient that al wisdome is in thy head?

*Eccle.18.12

" Oꝛ, is there any secrete thyng within thee?

c. As one dyng in thyne owne conceite.

d. So readie answering at thy pleasure the Holy Ghost answering in thy spirite.

" Oꝛ, among

e. Which a desire as he that thyrstie drynketh.

19 Unto whom alone the earth was geuen, and no stranger went among them.
20 The f vngodly sorroweth al the dayes of his life, as it were a woman with chyld, and the g number of a tyrantes yeeres are vnknowen.
21 A feareful sounde is euer in his eares, and when he is in peace, the destroyer shal come vpon hym.
22 He beleeueth neuer to be deliuered h out of darkenesse: for the swoorde is alwayes before his eyes.
23 He wandreth abrode for bread where it is, knowing that the day of darkenesse is redy at his hande.
24 Trouble and anguishe wyl make him afrayde, they shal preuayle agaynst hym, as a kyng with his armie.
25 For he hath stretched out his hande agaynst God, and armed hym selfe agaynst the almightie.
26 He runneth proudely vppon hym, and with a stiffe necke fighteth he agaynst him.
27 Where as he i coureth his face with fatnesse, and maketh his body wel lykyng.
28 Therefore shal his dwellyng be k in desolate cities, & in houses which no man inhabiteth, but are become heapes of stones.
29 He shal not be riche, neither shal his substance continue, neyther shal the prosperitie thereof be prolonged vpon the earth.
30 He shal neuer depart out of darkenesse, the flame l shal drie vp his branches, with the blast of the mouth of God shal he be taken away.
31 He beleeueth not that he erreth in vanitie, and yet vanitie shalbe his recompence.
32 He shal perishe afore his tyme be worne out, and his m branche shal not be greene.
33 He shalbe plucked of as an vntimely grape from the vine, and shal let his flowre fal as the Olyue doeth.
34 For the congregation of hypocrites shalbe desolate, and the fyre shal consume the houses of suche as are greedy to receyue gyftes.
35 He conceaueth trauayle, and beareth vanitie, and their belly bryngeth foorth deceyte.

Psal. 59. 4. Psal. 7. 15.

¶ The. xvi. Chapter.

1. Iob moued by the importunacie of his freendes, 7. counteth vp what extremitie he is, 19. and taketh God to witnesse of his innocencie.

1 Iob answeared, and sayde,
2 I haue oft tymes heard suche thynges: a miserable geuers of comfort are ye, all the sort of you.
3 "Shal not vayne woordes come yet to an ende? or what maketh thee bolde so to answeare?
4 I coulde speake as ye doo also: but would God that your b soule were in my soules steede, then coulde I frame woordes for you, and shake my head at you:
5 I would strengthen you with my mouth, and release your payne with the talkyng of my lippes.
6 For al my woordes my sorowe wyll not ceasse: and c though I holde my tongue, what am I eased?
7 But nowe he hath made me weerie, thou hast made desolate al d my congregation.
8 And that thou e hast fylled me with wrinckles, my flesshe is recorde, & my leannesse riseth vp agaynst me, and beareth witnesse thereof in my face.
9 His wrath hath torne me, he hateth me, and gnasheth vpon me with his teeth: mine enimie looketh fiercely vppon me with his eyes.
10 They haue opened their mouthes wyde vpon me, and f smitten me vpon the cheeke despitefully, they gather them selues together agaynst me.
11 God hath shut me vp with the vngodly, and deliuered me g into the handes of the wycked.
12 I was in wealth, but he hath brought me to nought: he hath taken me by the necke, he hath al to shaken me, and set me as a marke for hym selfe.
13 His h archers compasse me round about, he woundeth my reynes, & doeth not spare, my "bowels hath he i powred vppon the grounde.
14 He hath geuen me one wounde vpon another, and is fallen vpon me lyke a giant.
15 I haue sowed a sackecloth vpon my skyn, and wallowed my "head in the dust.
16 My face is wytherd with weeping, and in mine eyes is the shadowe of death.
17 Howebeit there is no wyckednesse in my handes, but my prayer is cleane.
18 O earth couer not thou my blood, and let my crying finde no roome.
19 For loe, my witnesse is in heauen, and he that knoweth me is in the heyght.
20 My freendes geue me many woordes to scorne, and mine eye powreth out teares vnto God.
21 O that a body might pleade with God, as one man doeth with other.
22 Yet the number of my yeeres is come, and the way that I must goe is at hande, from whence I shal not turne agayne.

a. Or, vvoordes of vvynde.
b. Woulde ye suffered that which I suffer.
c. For God wyl haue his pleasure ouer me.
d. My honseholde children, and substance.
e. Not by reason of yeeres, but by reason of my greefe, shewyng his extreme payne.
f. That is, despitefully handled me, whiche strikyng on the cheeke signifieth.
g. To prooue hym, and not to destroy hym.
h. His plagues and afflictions wherewith he vexeth me.
"Or, gall.
i. God hath not onely stricken outwardly my body and al my substance, but also touched my inwarde partes.
"Hebr. horne.

¶ The.xvii.Chapter.

1. Iob sayth that he consumeth awaye, and yet doeth patiently abyde it. 10. He exhorteth his freendes to repentance, 13. shewyng that he looketh but for death.

1 MY breath is corrupt, my dayes are shortened, I am harde at deathes doore.

2 a "Frowarde men are with me, and mine eye must continue in the bitternesse of them.

3 O deliuer me, and b looke out one to be my suretie in thy syght: What is he that knoweth who wyl promise for me?

4 For thou hast withholden their hartes c from vnderstandyng, therefore shalt thou not set them vp on hygh.

5 He that speaketh flatterie to his freende, the eyes of his chyldren shal fayle.

6 He hath made me a bywoorde of the people, whereas afore I was theyr "ioy.

7 Mine eye is dimme for very heauinesse, and al my strength is lyke a shadowe.

8 Vertuous men therefore shal wel consyder this, and the innocent shal take part agaynst the hypocrite.

9 The ryghteous also wyll d keepe his way, and he that hath cleane handes, wyl euer be stronger and stronger.

10 As for all you, turne you, and "geat you hence, I pray you, seeyng I can not finde one wyse man among you.

11 My dayes are past, and my counsayles and thoughtes of my hart are vanished away, 12 Changing the night into day, and the lyght approchyng into darkenesse.

13 Though I tary neuer so muche, yet the graue is my house, and I haue made my bed in the darke.

14 I sayde to corruption, Thou art my father: and to the woormes, You are my mother, and my sister.

15 e Where is then nowe my hope? or who hath consydered the thing that I looke for? My hope shal goe downe with me into the pit, and lye with me in the dust.

2. In al Iobs extreme afflictions, yet this one made the rest most greeuous, that they that shoulde chearefully comfort hym, dyd cruelly vexe hym and mocke hym.

"Or, mockers.

b. That is, make promise with me O god, that I may talke with thee, for I wyl not reason with them, for they are fooles.

c. That they can not vnderstand the cause of my punyshment: but iudge me wycked, not knowyng thy wysedome, whereby thou doest afflict thy chyldren.

"Or, tabret.

d. Though the godly see themselues afflicted of God as the wycked are, yet they dispayre not, knowyng that the iust also are punished for proofe of them.

"Or, come nowe

e. Seeyng I am but corruption.

¶ The.xviii.Chapter.

Bildad rehearseth the paynes of the vnfaythful and wycked.

1 THen answeared Bildad the Suhite, and sayde,

2 When wyl ye make an ende of your woordes? Marke wel, and then we wyll speake.

3 Wherefore are we counted as beastes, and reputed so vyle in your syght?

4 Ye destroyeth hym selfe with his anger: shal the earth be forsaken, or any stone remooued out of his place a because of thee?

5 Yea the lyght of the vngodly shalbe put out, and the sparke of his fyre shal not shine.

6 The b light shalbe darke in his dwelling, and his candle shalbe put out with him.

7 The steppes of his strength shalbe restrayned, and his owne counsayle shal cast hym downe:

8 For his feete are taken as it were in the net: and he walketh vpon the snares.

9 The grinne shal take hym by the heele, and the thirstie of blood shal catche hym.

10 The snare is layde for hym in ỹ ground, and a pitfal in the way.

11 Fearefulnesse shal make hym afrayde on euery side, and shal driue hym to his feete.

12 c Hunger shalbe his strength, and destruction shalbe redy at his side.

13 He shal d eate the strength of his owne skynne, euen the fyrst borne of death shall eate his strength.

14 His hope shalbe rooted out of his dwellyng, and shal bryng hym to the e kyng of feare.

15 Other men shal dwel in his house, and it shalbe none of his, and brimstone shalbe scattered vpon his habitation.

16 His rootes shalbe dryed vp beneath, and aboue shal his branche be cut downe.

17 His remembrance shal perishe from the earth, and he shal haue no name in the streete, 18 They shal drine hym from the f lyght into darkenesse, and chase hym cleane out of the worlde.

19 He shal neyther haue "chyldren nor kinsfolkes among his people, no nor any posteritie in his dwellynges.

20 They that come after hym shalbe astonied at g his day, and "they that goe before shalbe afrayde.

21 Suche are nowe the dwellynges of the wycked, and this is the place of hym that knoweth not God.

a. That is, god change not accustomed order of his operation for those and not afflict the wycked in his order is.

b. His wysedome shal perishe, and from this place you the ende of the Chapter, Bildad goeth about to proone Iob wycked, because God punyssheth him as he doeth the wycked man.

c. That he shal not attayne to that which he desyreth: al his power and might shal be taken away by hunger.

d. Meaning the vngodly shal haue the destruction of the strength of his owne skynne, that is, of his chyldren and posteritie.

e. Which is death, the most fearefull and terrible of all thynges.

f. From prosperitie vnto aduersitie.

"Or, sonne, nor nemeuo.

g. That is, his fall.

"Or, elder, Or, ancient.

¶ The.xix.Chapter.

1. Iob reproueth his freendes, 15. and reciteth his miseries and greeuous paynes. 25. He assureth hym selfe of the general resurrection.

1 IOb answeared, and sayde,

2 Howe long wyl ye vexe my soule, and trouble me with woordes?

3 Loe, ten tymes haue ye reproched me, and are not ashamed, but haue laughed me to scorne.

4 Be it that I haue erred in deede, myne errour then remayneth with mee a selfe.

5 But yf ye wyll aduaunce your selues against me, and rebuke me for the shame that is come vpon me:
6 Knowe this then, that it is b God which hath ouerthrowen me, and hath compassed me with his net.
7 If I complayne of the violence that is done vnto me, I can not be heard: and if I crye, there is no sentence geuen with me.
8 He hath hedged vp my way that I c can not passe, and he hath set darkenesse in my pathes.
9 He hath spoyled me d of myne honour, & e taken the crowne away from my head.
10 He hath destroyed me on euery syde, and I am "gone: my hope hath he taken away, as a tree pluckt vp by the roote.
11 His wrath is kindeled agaynst me, he taketh me as though I were his enimie.
12 His f men of warre come togeather, whiche made their way ouer me, and besieged my dwelling rounde about.
13 He hath put my brethren farre away frō me, and myne acquaintance are also become strangers vnto me.
14 Myne owne kynsfolkes haue forsaken me: and my best acquainted haue forgotten me.
15 "The seruauntes and maydens of myne owne house tooke me for a stranger, and I am become as an aliant in their sight.
16 I called my seruaunt, and he gaue me no answeare: no though I prayed hym with my mouth.
17 Myne owne wyfe myght not abyde my breath, though I prayed her for the childrens sake of myne owne body.
18 Yea, the "young men despised me, and when I rose they spake euyl vpon me.
19 All my most familiers abhorred me: and they whom I loued best, are turned agaynst me.
20 My bone cleaueth to my skynne, and to my flesh, onely there is left me the skynne about my teeth.
21 Haue pitie vpon me, haue pitie vpon me, O ye my freendes, for the hand of God hath touched me.
22 Why doo ye persecute me as God doth, and are not satisfied with my flesh?
23 O that my woordes were now wrytten, O that they were put in a booke, 24 And grauen with an iron pen in lead, or in stone, to continue,
25 For I am sure that my redeemer lyueth, and that I shall g ryse out of the earth in the latter day, 26 And "shalbe couered agayne with my skynne, and shal see God in my flesh:
27 Whom I mee selfe shall see, and myne eyes shal behold, and none other for me: this my hope is layde vp in my bosome.
28 But ye sayde, Why is he persecuted: and there was a deepe matter in me.
29 h But beware of the sword: for the sword wyll be auenged of wickednesse, and be sure that there is a iudgement.

a. As though he would say, what haue you to do with that, that it is myne, and not yours.
b. He declareth that his affliction cōmeth of God, though he be not able to feele y cause in hym selfe.
c. That is, I cā not go frō these my afflictions.
d. That is, of my riches and substance.
e. That is, destroyed my children: for the crowne of the aged are chyldren chyldren, as it is in the prouerbes.
"Or, vndone.
f. That is, his great plagues lyght on me.
"Or, they that dwelt with me.
"Or, selfe.
"Or, see.
g. Some reade, that he shall stande last on the earth, meaning, y Christe shal come at the latter end vnto iudgement, and rayse vp them y lye in the dust.
"Or, though after my skin the wormes destroy this body, yet shall I, &c.
h. That is, the iudgement of God, the reuenger of iniquity: meaning, though their wicked endeuour tooke place nowe, yet God wyll hereafter confyder hym, and be reuenged of the cuyll.

¶ The. xx. Chapter.

1. Sophar sheweth that the wicked and the couetous shal haue a short ende, 22. though for a tyme they florishe.

1 THen aunswered Sophar the Naamathite, and sayde,
2 For the same cause do a my thoughts compell me to aunswere, and therfore make hast.
3 I haue sufficiently heard the b checkyng of my reproofe, therefore the spirite of my vnderstanding causeth me to aunsweare.
4 Knowest thou not this of olde, and since God placed man vpon earth,
5 c That the gladnesse of the vngodly hath ben short, and that the ioy of hypocrites continued but the twincklyng of an eye?
6 Though he be magnified vp to the heauē, so that his head reacheth vnto the cloudes:
7 Yet he perisheth for euer lyke his dounge, in so muche that they whiche haue seene hym, shal say, Where is he?
8 He shall vanishe as a dreame, so that he can no more be founde, and shal passe away as a vision in the nyght.
9 So that the eye which saw hym before, shal haue no more sight of hym, and his place shall "knowe hym no more.
10 His chyldren shall please the poore, and his handes shal restore their goodes.
11 Frō his youth his bones are ful of sinnes, whiche shall lye downe with hym in the "earth.
12 When wickednesse was sweete in his mouth, he hyd it vnder his tongue.
13 That he fauoured, that would he not forsake, but kept it close in his throte.
14 The bread that he dyd eate, is turned to the poyson of serpentes within his body.
15 The riches that he deuoured shal he parbreake agayne: for GOD shal drawe them out of his belly.
16 He shall sucke the gall of serpentes, and the adders tongue shall slay hym:
17 So that he shall no more see the riuers and brookes of hony and butter.
18 The thyng he hath laboured for, shall he restore, and d shal not eate of it: great trauayle shall he make for riches, but he shall not

a. Because Iob bragged of his innocencie (as they thought) Sophar enterrupted his talke, as though he boasted in vayne, for that God accepteth none but y repentant sinner.
b. For two causes Sophar spake: one, because Iob in aunswearing toucheth hym: and for that he deemed his knowledge sufficient to aunsweare agayne.
c. Sophar cōtinueth to the ende of this chapter, alleageth true sentences: but he erreth, in that he thought Iob for impiety & hypocrisie to be plagued.
"Or, dust.
d. For euyll gotten goodes God wyll soone take away, and restore to them from whom they were craftily spoyled and rauened.

not enioy them,
19 Because he hath oppressed the poore, and not helped them: houses hath he spoyled, & not buylded them.
*Eccle.5.12 20 *Because he coulde not perceiue when his belly was well, through his greedy desire, he shall not escape.
e. That is, his heires and executours shall gape in vayne. 21 There e shall none of his meate be left, therefore shall no man looke for his goodes.
22 When he had plenteousnesse of euery thyng, yet was he poore, though he was helped on euery syde.
23 And it shal come to passe, that wherwith he purposed to fyl his belly, God shal powre the furie of his wrath thereon, and shall cause his indignation to raigne vpon hym, and vpon his meate.
24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bowe of steele shal strike him through.
25 The swoorde is drawen out, and goeth through the body, and glistereth of his gall: so feare shall come vpon hym.
f. That is, fire from heauen: & here Saphar toucheth Iob, for that his friendes & children were consumed by fire. g. There is nothyng hyd that shal not be opened, & the earth shall eyther be vnfruitefull, or bryng foorth thinges hurtfull to the wicked. h. Spoken against God. 26 All darkenesse shalbe hyd in their secrete places, f an vnkindeled fire shall consume hym: and looke what remayneth in his house, it shalbe destroyed.
27 The heauen shal g declare his wickednesse, and the earth shall take part agaynst hym.
28 The substance that he hath in his house shalbe taken away, and perishe in the day of the Lordes wrath.
29 This is the portion that the wicked man shall haue of God, and the heritage that he may looke for of GOD, because of his q woordes.

¶ The.xxi. Chapter.

1. Iob declareth howe the prosperitie of the wicked maketh them proude, 15. insomuche that they blaspheme God.

1 IOB aunswered, and sayde,
2 O heare diligently my woordes, and that shalbe in steade of your consolations.
3 Suffer me that I may speake, and when I haue spoken, mocke on.
a. As though he shoulde say, My cause is before God whom I can not escape, and not before you. 4 Is it with a man that I make this disputation? which if it were so, should not my spirite then be in soore trouble?
b. That is, keepe scilence: 5 Marke me, & be abashed, and b lay your hande vpon your mouth.
6 For when I consyder, I am afrayde, and my flesshe is smitten with feare.
*Or, seede. 7 *Wherefore do wicked men lyue, come to their olde age, and encrease in rychesse?
8 Their *chyldren lyue in their syght, and their generation before their eyes.
9 Their houses are safe from all feare, and the rod of God is not vpon them.
10 Their bullocke gendereth, and that not out of tyme, their Cowe calueth, and is not vnfruitefull.
11 They send forth their chyldre by flockes, and their sonnes daunce.
12 They beare with them tabrets & harpes, and reioyce in the sound of the instruments of musicke.
13 They spend their dayes in wealthynesse, but c sodaynely they goe downe to the graue.
c. Not beyng plagued with long sickenesse. 14 They say also vnto God, d Go from vs, we desyre not the knowledge of thy wayes.
d. They say this, not with tongue, but by the wickednesse and impietie of their hart, though they seeme so to say. 15 Who is the almightie, that we shoulde serue hym? and what profite shoulde we haue yf we shoulde pray vnto hym?
16 Loe, there is vtterly no goodnesse in their hande, therefore wyll I not haue to do with the counsell of the vngodly.
e. That is, their great felicitie & wealth. 17 Howe oft shal e the candle of the wicked be put out, and their destruction come vpon them? O what sorowe shall God geue them for their part in his wrath?
18 Yea, they shalbe euen as hay before the winde, and as chaffe that the storme carieth away.
19 God wyll lay vp the sorowe of the father for his chyldren: and when he rewardeth hym, he shall knowe it.
20 Their owne miserie shall they see with their eyes, and drinke of the feareful wrath of the almyghtie.
f. For the wicked dye no wares, & neuer endure the course of their dayes to y end. 21 For what careth he for his house after his death, when the f number of his monethes is cut short?
22 Seeyng God hath the highest power of al, who can teache hym any knowledge?
g. Meaning the wicked: where Iob sayeth, that it is not for vs to reason with God why he doth thus plague the iust, & prosper the vniust, for who can teache God wysedome? 23 g One dyeth in his full strength, beyng in al ease and prosperitie, 24 His breastes are full of mylke, and his bones runne ful of marowe.
h. And this he meaneth by the godly. 25 Another dyeth in the h bitternesse of his soule, and neuer eateth with pleasure.
i. Howbeit, thinke me not wicked because I am plagued. 26 They shal sleepe both alyke in the earth, and the wormes shal couer them.
k. Thus they call Iobs iudgement by scorning and mocking at it. 27 Behold, i I know what ye thynke, yea & the subtiltie that ye imagine against me.
28 For ye say, k Where is the princes palace, and where is the dwelling of the vngodly?
29 Haue ye not asked them that goe by the way? doubtlesse ye can not deny their tokens, 30 That the wicked is kept vnto the day of destruction, and the vngodly shalbe brought forth to the day of wrath?
l. For no man can iudge by the wicked mens prosperitie what shall become of the 31 l Who dare declare his way to his face? who wyll reward hym for that he doth?
32 Yet shall he be brought to his graue, and dwel among the heape of the dead.

33 Then

33 Then shal the m slimie valley be sweete vnto him, all men also must folowe hym, as there are innumerable gone before him.

34 Howe vayne then is the comfort that ye geue me, seeing falshood remayneth in all your answeares?

m. Meanyng the vngodly and euil person.

The xxii. Chapter.

1. Eliphaz affyrmeth that Iob is punished for his sinnes. 6. He accuseth him of vnmercifulnesse. 13. and that he denyed Gods prouidence. 21. He exhorteth hym to repentance.

1 SO Eliphaz the Themanite gaue answeare, and saide,

2 May a man be profitable vnto God, as he that is wyse may be profitable vnto him selfe?

3 Is it any aduantage to the almighty, that thou art righteous? or shall it profyte hym that thou makest thy wayes perfect?

4 Is he afraide to reproue thee, and to step foorth with thee into iudgement?

5 Is b not thy wickednesse great, and thy vngracious deedes innumerable?

6 For thou c hast taken the pledge from thy brother for nought, and robbed the naked of their clothing.

7 To suche as were weery, hast thou geuen no water to drinke, and hast withdrawen bread from the hungry.

8 But the mighty man had the earth, and he that was in auctoritie dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widdowes away emptie, and the armes of y fatherlesse were broken.

10 Therefore art thou d compassed about with snares, and sodenly vexed with feare.

11 Shouldest thou then see no e darknesse? shoulde not the water floodde runne ouer thee?

12 Is not God on high in the heauen? beholde the height of the starres, howe hygh they are.

13 Wylt thou therefore say, Howe f should GOD knowe? can he iudge throughe the darke cloude?

14 The cloudes couer him, that he may not see, and he walketh on the top of heauen.

15 Hast thou marked the way of the woorld, wherein wicked men haue walked?

16 Which were cut downe out of time, and whose fundation was as an ouerflowing riuer, 17 Which sayd vnto God, Go from vs: and what could the almighty doo for them?

18 He fylled theyr houses with good things: but the counsel of the vngodly be farre from me.

19 The righteous sawe it, and were glad, and the innocent laughed them to scorne.

20 Is our substance hewen downe? As for the remnant of them, the g fyre hath consumed.

21 Therefore h reconcile thee vnto God, and be at peace: so shall all thinges prosper with thee right well.

22 Receiue, I pray thee, the lawe at his mouth, and lay vp his woordes in thyne hart.

23 For yf thou wylt turne to the almighty, thou shalt be i built vp, and put all vnrighteousnesse from thy dwellyng.

24 Thou shalt lay vp golde as plentiful as the dust, and the golde of Ophir as the flintes of the riuers.

25 Yea, almighthy God shalbe thy defence, and thou shalt haue plentie of siluer.

26 Then shalt thou haue thy delight in the almighty, and lyft vp thy face vnto God.

27 Then shalt thou make thy prayer vnto hym, and he shall heare thee, and thou shalt " keepe thy promises.

28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and he shall establishe it vnto thee, and the k lyght shall shine in thy wayes.

29 When the vvicked he cast downe, thou shalt say, I am lifted vp: and God shal saue the humble person.

30 The innocent shal deliuer the Iland: l it shalbe preserued by the pureneſſe of thyne handes.

g. Meanyng the vngodly and euil person.

h. Eliphaz exhorteth Iob to repentance by the great goodnesse that commeth thereof.

i. God vvyl restore vnto thee all thy substace.

" Or, pay thy vowes.

k. That is, the fauour of God.

l. The place fareth the better, vvhere the righteous are.

The xxiii. Chapter.

1. Iob affyrmeth that he both knoweth and feareth the power and sentence of the iudge, 10. and that he is not punished onely for his sinnes.

1 IOb answeared, and sayde,

2 Though my talke be this day in bitternesse, and my plague greater then my gronyng,

3 O that I a might know him, and fynde him, & that I might come before his seate:

4 I would pleade my cause before him, and fyll my mouth with argumentes:

5 I would know what answeare he would geue me, and vnderstand what he woulde say vnto me.

6 Wyl he pleade agaynst me with his great power? No, but he wyl make me the stronger.

7 There the righteous might dispute with hym, so should I be deliuered for euer from my iudge.

8 Beholde, though I goe forward, I fynde him not: yf I goe backward, I can get no knowledge of him:

9 Yf I goe on the left side where he dooth his woorke, I can not attayne vnto him: agayne, yf I goe on the ryght side, he hydeth him selfe, that I can not see him.

a. Iob being admonished before to returne to God, sayth, if I should come to him, vvhere is he, or vvhere might I finde him, to pleade my cause before him?

10 But

10 But as for my way, he knoweth me, and tryeth me, that as the golde I may be tryed.

11 My b foote dooth keepe his path, his lye way haue I holden, and wyll not goe out of it.

12 I wyll not forsake the commaundement of his lippes, I haue esteemed the woordes of his mouth more then my necessary foode.

13 He is one, and c who can turne him? he bringeth to passe what he desyreth.

14 He d perfourmeth the thing that is appoynted for me, and many such things doth he.

15 This is the cause that I shrinke at his presence, so that when I consider him, I am afraide of him.

16 For God maketh my hart soft, and the almighty putteth me in feare, 17 Because I am not cut of before the darkenesse, neyther hath he couered the darke fro my face.

b. That is, gods wayes, prouyng therefore him selfe not to deserue suchgreeuous plagues and afflictions for his faultes.
c. For God is immutable, and his decrees stand fast.
d. That is, he hath decreed thus to punishe me appoynted hereunto, although I can not atteyne to the secrete iudgement of God therein, and therefore doo feare his presence.

Iob describeth the vnckednesse of men, and sheweth what curse belongeth to the vncked. 12. How all thinges are gouerned by Gods prouidence. 17. and the destruction of the vncked.

1 WHy should not the a times be hidden from the almighty, and they that knowe him, see not his dayes?

2 For some men remoone the land markes, robbe men of their cattell, and feede of the same.

3 They dryne away the asse of the fatherlesse, and take the widdowes ore for a pledge.

4 They cause the poore to turne out of the way, so that the poore of ỹ earth hide them selues togeather.

5 Beholde, as wylde asses in the desart goe they forth to their woorke, & ryse betimes to spoyle: Yea the very b wylderneſſe ministreth foode for them and theyr chyldren.

6 They reape the corne feelde that is not their owne, and geather the vineyard of the vngodly which they possesse vniustly.

7 They cause the naked to lodge without garment, and without couering in the cold.

8 They are wette with the shewres of the mountaynes, & imbrace the rocke for want of a couerynge.

9 They plucke the fatherlesse from the breſt, and take the pledge from the poore.

10 They let him goe naked without clothyng, and haue taken away the sheafe of the hungry.

11 They that labour in theyr oyle milles, and treade their wine presses, suffer thirst.

a. The doinges of men are such and so variable, that it seemed to Iob that god was ignorant & careleſſe, because he punished not the wicked, nor reuenged the godly.

b. That is, they liue by robbery and theft.

12 Men of the citie cry out, the soules of the slayne also cry out, yet God regarderh not their complaint.

13 Those are they that flee from the lyght, they knowe not his wayes, nor continue in his pathes.

14 The murderer ryseth early, and killeth the poore and needie, and in the nyght is as a theefe.

15 The e eye of the adulterer wayteth for the darkneſſe, and sayth, There shall no eye see me: and hydeth his face.

16 In the darke they digge through houses, whiche they marked for them selues in the day time: they knowe not the lyght.

17 The morning is to them euen as the shadowe of death: yf one knowe them they are in the terrours of the shadowe of death.

18 The vngodly is d swift vpon the water: their portion shalbe cursed in the earth, and he shall not beholde the way of the vineyardes.

19 As the dry ground and heate e consume the snowy waters: so shal the graue the sinners.

20 The f pitifull man shall forget hym, he shalbe sweete to the woorms, he shalbe no more remembred, and his wickednesse shalbe broken as a tree.

21 He hath oppressed the barren that can not beare, and vnto the wyddowe hath he done no good.

22 He g drue the mighty after him with his power, and when he was gotten vp, no man was sure of lyfe.

23 And though they gaue him to be in safetie, yet his eyes are vpon theyr wayes.

24 They are exalted for a little, but shortly are gone, brought to pouertie, and taken out of the way, yea, and vtterly pluckt of as the eares of corne.

25 Is h it not so? who wyl then reproue me as a lyer, and say that my woordes are nothyng woorth?

e. Not only the tyrant, but also the adulterer escapeth free, and is not corrected.

d. He fleeth the waters for his succour.

e. Although such abominable sinners liue vncorrected in this world, yet at the length shal deuour them suddenly.
f. Because they pitied not others, they shal not be pitied at all.
g. That is, after they haue plagued and oppressed the poore & needy, they wyl oppresse the king & mighty also.

h. Then syr not, and none of you can proue me.

¶ The xxv Chapter.

Bildad prooueth that no man is cleane, nor without sinne before God.

1 THen answeared Bildad the Suhite, and sayde,

2 a Power and feare is with him, who maketh peace in his highneſſe.

3 Is there any number of his armies? and vpon whom shall not his lyght aryse?

4 But how may a man, compared vnto God, be iustified? or howe can he be cleane, that is borne of a woman?

5 Behold, the moone "shyneth not, and the starres are vncleane in his sight.

a. Bildad would proone here that God pluggeth the iuste yet afterward he prospereth and because God deale not so with Iob, he concludeth that he was wicked.
" Compared with God.

6 Howe

6 Howe muche more then man that is but "corruption, and the sonne of man which is but a woorme.

"Or, worme.

¶ The.xxvi.Chapter.

1. Iob sheweth that no man can helpe God, and prooueth it by his wonderfull workes.

1 IOB aunsweared, and sayde, a
2 Whom hast thou helped? hym that is without strength? sauest thou the arme that hath no strength?
3 Where is the counsell that thou shouldest geue hym whiche hath no wysedome? hast thou taught hym that is very wyse?
4 To whom hast thou spoken these wordes? who made the breath to come out of thy mouth?
5 b Are not dead thynges shapen vnder the waters, and in places neare vnto them?
6 Hel is naked before hym, and destruction hath no couering.
7 He stretched out the North ouer the emptie place, and hangeth the earth vpon nothyng.
8 He byndeth the water in his cloudes, and the cloude is not broken vnder them.
9 c He holdeth backe the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloude before it.
10 He hath compassed the waters with certayne boundes, d vntyl the day and night come to an ende.
11 The e very pyllers of heauen tremble and quake at his reproofe.
12 He stylleth the sea with his power, and through his wysedome smyteth he the strength thereof.
13 His spirite hath garnished the heauens, & his hande hath made the crooked serpent.
14 Loe, these are part of his wayes: but how litle a portion heare we of hym? who can vnderstande the thunder of his power?

a. Here Iob condemneth them, for that they speaketh not enough to his prayse, nor needeth their mans worde neyther cõforteth hym being ryde of comfort.

b. That is, such thynges are in y waters without lyke as mettals and suche lyke, wherin is expressed Gods great power.

c. His throne of maiestie, which are the heauẽs, he couereth frõ vs.

d. That is, so long as y world endureth.

e. Not that heauen hath pyllers, but by the pyllers he vnderstandeth all thynges vnder heauen.

¶ The.xxvii.Chapter.

1. The constancie and perfectnesse of Iob. 13. The reuarde of the wicked, and of the tyrauntes.

1 AND Iob proceeded, and went forth in his parable, saying,
2 a As God lyueth, whiche hath taken away my iudgement, and the almighty that hath vexed my mynde:
3 Whyle the breath is in me, and the wynd that GOD hath geuen me is in my nosethirlles,
4 My lyppes shall talke of no vanitie, and my tongue shal speake no deceit.
5 God forbyd that I shoulde graunt your cause to be ryght: as for me, vntyll myne ende come, wyll b I neuer goe from myne innocencie.
6 My righteous dealyng keepe I fast, whiche I wyll not forsake: my hart shal not reproue me c of my dayes.
7 Therefore d myne enimie shalbe founde as the vngodlye, and he that taketh part agaynst me, as the vnryghteous.
8 For e what hope hath the hypocrite, though he be neuer so couetous, if God take away his soule?
9 Wyll f God heare his crye when trouble commeth vpon hym?
10 Hath he suche delyght in the almyghtie, g that he dare alway cal vpon God?
11 I wyll teache you in the "name of God, and the thyng of the almyghty wyll I not keepe from you.
12 Beholde, all ye your selues haue seene it, why then do ye thus vanishe in vanitie?
13 Saying, This is the portion that the wicked haue of God, and the heritage that tyrantes shal receiue of the almyghty.
14 If he haue many chyldren they shall perishe with the sword, and his posteritie shal haue scarsenesse of bread.
15 His remnant shalbe buryed in death, and his wydowes shall not weepe.
16 Though he heape vp syluer as the dust, and prepare rayment as the claye:
17 He may wel prepare it, but the godly shal put it on, and the innocent shall deale out the syluer.
18 He buyldeth his house as h the "moth, and as a booth that the watchman maketh.
19 When the ryche man sleepeth, he shal not be geathered to his fathers: they opened their eyes, and he was gone.
20 Terrour taketh holde vpon hym as waters, and the tempest stealeth hym away in the nyght season.
21 A vehement East wynde carryeth hym hence, & he departeth, a storme hurleth hym out of place.
22 God shall cast vpon hym suche thynges and not spare hym, he woulde fayne flee out of his hande.
23 Then shal men clap their handes at hym, and hysse hym out of his place.

a. This was the order of the Hebrues to sweare.

b. That is, I wyl not cõfesse y God plagues me for myne offence.

c. Of my former lyfe past.

d. That is, but cause they reprehended me vnworthyly, they rather might be accõpted wicked, and the plagues shal light on them, and be ryd from me.

e. What auayleth it a man yf he gayne all the world, and loose his owne soule?

f. We haue no greater gyft of God then the spirit of prayer, whereby yf we pray, God doeth heare vs.

g The hypocrite neyther trusteth nor prayeth to god: yea though he pray, God wyll not heare hym.

"Or, hande.

h. Whiche breedeth in an other mans garment, & is soone shaken out.

"Or, spyder.

¶ The.xxviii. Chapter.

1. Iob sheweth that the wisdome of God is vnsearchable.

1 THere is a place where siluer is brought out of, and where golde is tryed,
2 Where iron is digged out of the grounde, and stones resolued into brasse.
3 God bryngeth the darkenesse to an ende, and searcheth out all perfection, the stones hydden in darkenesse, and in the deepe shadowe.

4 The flooddes breake out agaynſt the inhabitantes, and the vvaters forgotten a of the foote, whiche were hyghet then a man, are gone away.

5 b Out of the ſame earth commeth bread, and vnder it, as it were, fire is turned vp.

6 The c ſtones of it are a place of Saphires, and the duſt of it is golde.

7 There is a way that the birdes knowe not, that no Aultures eye hath ſeene:

8 Wherein the Lions whelpes walke not, and where no Lion commeth.

9 He d putteth his hande vppon the ſtonie rockes, and ouerthroweth the mountaynes by the rootes.

10 Ryuers flow out of the rockes, and looke what is pleaſant his eye ſeeth it.

11 He byndeth the flooddes that they do not ouerflowe: and the thyng that is hyd bringeth he to lyght.

12 Where then is wyſedome founde? and e where is the place of vnderſtandyng?

13 No man can tell howe f worthy a thyng it is, neyther is it founde in the lande of the lyuyng.

14 The deepe ſayth, It is not in me: the ſea ſayth, It is not with me.

15 It can not be gotten for gold, neyther may the price of it be bought with any ſyluer.

16 No golde of Ophir, no precious Onyx ſtones, no Saphires may be valued with it.

17 No, neyther golde nor Diamonde ſhalbe equall vnto it, the exchange of it ſhal not be for the place of fine golde.

18 No mention ſhalbe made of Coral, nor of the Gabis: for wyſedome is more precious then pearles.

19 The Topas of Ethiopia ſhall not be equall vnto it, neyther ſhal it be valued with pure golde.

20 Whence then commeth wyſedome, and where is the place of vnderſtandyng?

21 It is hyd from the eye of all men liuyng, and hyd from the foules of the "ayre.

22 Deſtruction and death ſay, We haue heard the fame thereof with our eares.

23 God ſeeth the way thereof, and knoweth the place thereof.

24 For he beholdeth the endes of the world, and looketh vpon all that is vnder heauen.

25 When he wayed the wyndes, and meaſured the waters,

26 When he made a decree for the rayne, & a way for the lyghtnynges of the thunder:

27 Then dyd he ſee it, then declared he it, prepared it, and knewe it.

28 And vnto man he ſayd, g To feare the Lorde is wyſedome, and to forſake euyll is vnderſtandyng.

a. Whiche a man can not wade thorowe.

b. As the fruitful fieldes tilled & plowed bringeth forth corn: ſo it beyng deepely digged, there are found ſtones, out of the whiche fire is ſtroken.

c. The Saphires doo ſhyne with golden pointes, ſo that here by Saphires is meante cloddes of gold. All theſe things are foūd, but Gods wyſedome who can reache?

d. Here he ſheweth gods power, yͤ earth may be dygged, hyls ouerthrowen, a fountaine made among ſtones, ryuers turned frō their courſe, but Gods wyſedome is not to be founde.

e. Gods wyſedome is partly ſeene in theſe worldly things, but his heauēly wiſedome & ſecret iudgement is hidde, and vnknowen to all men.

f. That is, it paſſeth mans capaſſitie to atteyne to it.

"Or, heauen.

g. Meanyng by this, that man hath ſo much of this excellent wiſdome of god as he doth ſhew in vertue of lyuyng, due obedience, & feare of hym.

¶ The. xxix. Chapter.

1. Iob vvisheth the proſperitie of his tyme paſt. 7. He ſetteth foorth authoritie, 12. iuſtice, and equitie.

1 MOreouer Job proceeded and went forth in his parable, ſaying,

2 O that I were as I was in the moneths paſt, and in the dayes when God preſerued me:

3 When his a light ſhined vpon my head, when I went after the ſame lyght, and ſhynyng euen through the darkeneſſe:

4 As it ſtoode with me when I was young, when God proſpered my houſe:

5 When the almyghtye was yet with me, when my chyldren ſtoode about me:

6 When I waſhed my b ſteppes with butter, and when the ſtonie rockes gaue me ryuers of oyle:

7 When I went out to the gate, euen to the iudgement ſeate, and when I prepared my ſeate in the ſtreete:

8 The c young men ſaw me, and hid themſelues, and the aged d aroſe, and ſtoode vp:

9 The e princes left of their talkyng, and layde their hande to their mouth:

10 The mightie kept ſtyll their voyce, and their tongue cleaued to the rooſe of their mouth.

11 When the earth heard me, it bleſſed me: and when the eye ſawe me, it gaue witneſſe to me.

12 For I deliuered the poore when he cried, and the fatherleſſe, and hym that had none to helpe hym.

13 The bleſſyng of hym that was redy to peryſhe, came vppon me, and I cauſed the wydowes hart to reioyce.

14 I put vpon me ryghteouſneſſe, which couered me as a garment, and equitie was my crowne.

15 I was an eye to the blynde, and a foote to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poore: and when I knewe not the cauſe, I ſought it out diligently.

17 I brake the iawes of the vnryghteous man, and pluckt the ſpoyle out of his teeth.

18 Then I ſayde, I ſhal dye in my neſt: and I ſhal multiply my dayes as the ſande.

19 For my roote was ſpread out by the waters ſide, and the deawe lay vpon my "corne.

20 Myne honour encreaſed more and more, and my bowe was "euer the ſtronger in mine hande.

21 Vnto me men gaue eare, me they regarded, and kept ſilence at my counſel.

22 After my wordes they aunſweared not, and my talke droppes vpon them.

23 They

a. That is, as his ſtrength preſerued me.

b. That is, I had all thinges moſt abundantly. For mylke and oyle ſignifie plenty: and here Iob deſcribeth his felicitie in time paſt, to the increaſe of his greefe.

c. As Iob had at his countenaunce & behauiour learned of this youthful lyghtneſſe.

d. Knowyng both his wyſedome and eloquence.

e. Only to heare hym, for the great wyſedome that appeared in hym, excelling them cauſed their tongues to ſtick in ſilence.

"Or, horne.

"Or, vnuanquiſhed.

23 They f wayted for me as for the rayne, and gaped vpon me as the grounde dooth to receiue the latter shewre.

24 When I laughed on them, they g beleeued it not, and the light of my countenance would they not put out.

25 I tryed out theyr way, I sate as cheefe, and dwelt as a king with his armie about him: and when they were in heauinesse, I was their comforter.

f. That is, most swiftly.

g. It is the manner among the Hebrues to haue their garmentes sowed round in euery part, sauyng a hole only in the highest of it, to put foorth the necke.

¶ The.xxx.Chapter.

1. Iob complayneth that he is contemned of the vilest, 11. 21. because of his aduersitie and affliction. 23. Death is the house of al fleshe.

1 BUt a nowe they that are younger then I, haue me in derision: whose fathers I would haue thought scorne to haue set with the dogges of my cattell.

2 Whereto might the strength of b theyr handes profite me? for the time was but lost among them.

3 For very c miserie and hunger they fled into the wylderneſſe, a darke place, horrible, and wast,

4 Plucking vp * nettles among the bushes, and the Iuniper rootes for theyr meate.

5 And when they were driuen foorth, men cryed after them, as it had been after a theefe.

6 Theyr d dwelling was in the cliftes of brookes, yea in the caues and dennes of the earth.

7 Among the bushes went they about crying, and vnder the thornes they geathered them selues togeather.

8 They were the children of fooles and villaynes, which are the vilest in the earth.

9 Nowe am I their song, and am become their iesting stocke.

10 They abhorre me, and flee farre from me, and stayne my face with spittell.

11 Because God hath loosed my corde, and humbled me, they haue loosed the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand ryse the young men againſt me, they haue hurt my feete, treadyng vpon me, as vppon the wayes whiche they would destroy.

13 My * pathes haue they cleane marred, it was so easie for them to doo me harme, that they needed no man to helpe them.

14 They fell vppon me, as it had been the breaking in of vvaters, & came in by heapes to destroy me.

15 Feare is turned vpon me, and they pursue my soule as the winde, and my health passeth away as f a cloude.

16 Therefore is my soule nowe powred out vpon me, and the dayes of my trouble haue taken holde vpon me.

17 My bones are pearsed through in the night season, and my sinowes take no rest.

18 For the vehemencie of sorowe is my garment changed, whiche compasseth me about, as the g coller of my coate.

19 He hath cast me into the myre, and I am become like asshes and dust.

20 When h I crye vnto thee, thou dooest not heare me: and though I stande before thee, yet thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art become myne enimie, & with thy violent hand thou takest part againſt me.

22 In times past thou diddest i set me vpon hygh, to be caryed as it were aboue y wind, but nowe hast thou geuen me a very sore fall.

23 Sure I am that thou wylt bring me vnto death, euen to the lodging that is due vnto all men liuing.

24 Notwithstandyng, thou wylt not stretch out thyne hande againſt him that is in the graue, though men crye in his destruction.

25 Dyd not I weepe with him that was in trouble? Had not my soule compassion vppon the poore?

26 Yet whereas I looked for good, euyll came vnto me: and k where I wayted for light, there came darkneſſe.

27 My bowelles seethe in me without rest, for the dayes of my trouble are come vppon me.

28 I went mournyng without heate, I stoode vp in the congregation, and cryed.

29 I am a brother of dragons, and a felowe of Estriches.

30 My skin vpon me is turned to blacke, and my bones are brent with heate.

31 My harpe is turned to mournyng, and my instrumentes of musicke, into the voyce of them that weepe.

f. That is, they watchreuve all my doonges, without helpe of any other.

h. Iob sayth not this as blaming God, but greeuous affliction mooued affection.

i. That is, thou diddest set me in high auctoritie, and suddenly thou puttest me downe.

k. In steade of comfort they gaue me mocks

¶ The.xxxi.Chapter.

Iob rehearseth the innocencie of his liueyng, and number of his vertues.

1 I Made a a couenant with myne eyes, that I would not looke vpon a mayden.

2 For howe great a portion shal I haue of God from aboue: and what inheritance of the almighty from an hygh?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and some strange thyng to the woorkers of iniquitie?

a. In this chapter Iob declareth his vpryght liuing not to boast againſt God, but to refell the false slaunder of his aduersaries.

4 Dooth

4 Dooth not he see my wayes, and tell all my goinges?
5 If I haue walked in vanitie, or yf my feete haue runne to deceiue:
6 Let me be weyghed in an euen ballance, that God may see myne innocencie.
7 If my steppe haue turned out of the way, and myne hart walked after mine eyes, and yf any blot haue cleaued to myne handes:
8 Then shall I sowe, and another eate: yea my "posteritie shalbe cleane rooted out.
9 If my hart haue been deceiued by a woman, or yf I haue layd wayte at my neyghbours dooze:
10 Then let my wyfe b grind vnto another man, and let other men "lye with her.
11 For this is a wickednesse, and sinne that is woorthy to be iudged:
12 Yea, a c fyre that vtterly should consume and roote out all my increase.
13 If I euer thought scorne to do right vnto my seruauntes and maydens when they had any matter agaynst me, 14 When God d wyl syt in iudgement, what shall I doo? and when he wyll visite me, what answeare shall I geue him?
15 He that e fashioned me in my mothers wombe, made he not him also? were we not both shapen alike in our mothers bodyes?
16 If I denied the poore of their desyre, or haue caused the eyes of the wyddowe to wayte in vayne:
17 If I haue eaten my f morsel alone, that the fatherlesse hath not eaten thereof:
18 (For from my youth mercy hath brought me vp as a father, & hath guided me from my mothers wombe.)
19 If I haue seene any perishe for want of clothing, or any poore lacking rayment:
20 If his loynes haue not blessed me, because he was warmed with the fleece of my sheepe:
21 If I haue lift vp mine hand against the fatherlesse, when I saw that I might helpe him in the gate:
22 Then let myne arme fall from my shoulder, and myne arme be broken from the bone.
23 For I haue feared the vengeance of god, and knewe very vvell that I was not able to beare his burden.
24 Haue I put my trust in golde? or haue I saide to the wedge of golde, Thou art my confidence?
25 Haue I reioyced because my power was great, and because my hand gat so much?
26 Dyd I g beholde the sunne when it shined? or the moone walkyng in her brightnesse?
27 Hath my hart been secretly deceiued? or dyd I kisse myne owne hand?
28 (That were a wickednesse woorthy to be iudged: for then shoulde I haue denied the God that is aboue.)
29 Haue I reioyced at the hurt of mine enimie? or was I glad that any harme happened vnto him?
30 I neuer suffered my mouth to sinne by wishyng a curse to his soule.
31 Dyd not the men of myne owne houshold say, Who shall geue vs of his flesh? we can not be satisfyed.
32 The stranger dyd not lodge in ỹ streete, but I opened my doores vnto him that went by the way.
33 Haue I kept secrete my sinne, and hidde mine iniquitie in my bosome, as Adam did?
34 If I feared a great multitude, or the despising of the meanest of a familie, I would haue kept scilence, and not gone out of the h doore.
35 O that I had one whiche woulde heare me: beholde my signe that the almighty wyl witnesse for me, though myne aduersarie write a booke agaynst me.
36 Surely I wyll take it vpon my i shoulder, and as a garlande binde it about my head.
37 I wyl tell him the number of my goings, and goe vnto him, as to a k prince.
38 If my lande l crye agaynst me, or that the m forowes therof make any complaint:
39 If I haue eaten the fruites thereof vnpaide for, yea yf I haue greeued the soules of the "maisters thereof:
40 Then let thistles growe in steede of wheate, and cockle for barley.

Here end the vvoordes of Iob.

¶ The.xxxii. Chapter.

6. Elihu reproueth them of follie. 8. Age maketh not a man vvyse, but the spirite of God.

1 SO these three men ceassed to answeare Iob, a because he held him selfe a righteous man.
2 But Elihu the sonne of Barachel the Busite, of the kinred of Ram, was very sore displeased at Iob, because he called him selfe iust before God.
3 And with Iobs three freendes he was angry also, because they had found no answere, and yet condemned Iob.
4 Nowe taryed Elihu tyll they had ended their communication with Iob: for they were elder then he.
5 So when Elihu sawe that these three men were not able to make Iob answeare, he was mistcontent.
6 Therefore Elihu the sonne of Barachel,

"Or, plantes.

b. Let her be a bond slaue to another man. "Or, bowe downe vppon her.

c. Though mans punishment for adulterie be omitted, yet Gods plague wyll neuer rest to consume and roote it out.

d. That is, yf I in lawe haue reiected the cõplaint of my seruant, what should I doo when God calleth me to lawe.

e. Iob expresseth the cause why he did pity his seruantes, for that they had one creator, and both made of the same substance.

f. Meanyng that he hath been beneficial to the poore, so the fatherlesse and wyd. dowes.

g. Dyd I vse to woorship the sunne or moone, as other gentiles whiche were idolaters.

h. Meanyng that he dyd not hold his peace or keepe at home in the iust suite or cause of any i. That is, I wyl carry the booke true as aduersarie should make vpon my shoulder, I wyl accept it for a great gift, meanyng, he would confesse his faule, yf he had offended.

k. That is, a great personage.

l. That is, yf the hyreling that hath laboured in the land, haue been defrauded of his wages by me.

m. That is, yf I haue by violence cõpelled my lande to be eared, and not geuen foode to the labourers.

"Or, husbandmen.

a. The holy ghost reade, was not in his owne chel, the Buzite, answeared, and sayde, I am young, and ye be men of age, I was afrayd, & durst not shewe foorth my mynde.

7 For I thought thus within mee selfe, It becommeth "old men to speake, and the "aged to teache wysedome.
8 Euery man no doubt hath a mynde, but it is the inspiration of the almyghtie that geueth vnderstanding.
9 Great men are not alwaye wyse, neyther doeth euery aged man vnderstande "the thyng that is lawfull:
10 Therfore I say, Heare me: and I wyll shewe you also myne vnderstandyng.
11 For when I had wayted tyll ye made an ende of your talkyng, and heard your wysedome, b what argumentes ye made in your communication, 12 Yea, when I had diligentlye pondered what ye sayde, I founde not one of you that made any good argument against Iob, that coulde answeare his woordes.
13 Lest ye shoulde say, We haue c founde out wysedome, God shal cast hym downe, and no man.
14 He hath not spoken vnto me, and I wyl not answeare hym as ye haue doone.
15 For they were so abashed, that they could not make answeare, nor speake one woord.
16 When I had waited (for they spake not, but stoode styl, and answeared no more,) 17 Then answeared I in my turne, and I shewed myne opinion.
18 For I am full of "matter, and the spirite within me compelleth me.
19 Behold, my d belly is as the wyne whiche hath no vent, lyke the newe bottels that burst.
20 Therefore wyll I speake, that I may take breath: I wyl open my lippes, and make answeare.
21 I wyl e regarde no maner of person, no man wyl I spare.
22 For yf I woulde goe about to f please men, I knowe not howe soone my maker woulde take me away.

¶ The.xxxiii. Chapter.

Elihu accuseth Iob of ignoraunce. 14. He sheweth that God hath diuers meanes to instructe man, and to drawe hym from sinne.

1 WHerfore heare my woordes, O Iob, and hearken vnto al that I wyl say.
2 Beholde, I haue nowe opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoke in my throte.
3 My hart doeth order my woordes aryght, and my lippes talke of pure wysedome.
4 The "spirite of God hath made me, and the breath of the almyghtie hath geuen me lyfe.
5 Yf thou canst geue me answeare, prepare thee selfe, and stande before me.
6 Beholde, b before God, I am euen as thou: for I am fashioned and made euen of the same moulde.
7 Beholde, my terrour shal not feare thee, neyther shal my hande be heauie vpon thee.
8 c Nowe hast thou spoken in myne eares, and I haue heard the voyce of thy woordes:
9 I am cleane without any faulte, I am innocent, and there is no wyckednesse in me:
10 But loe, he hath pycked a quarel against me, and taketh me for his enimie:
11 He hath put my feete in the stockes, and looketh narowly vnto al my pathes.
12 Beholde, in this hast thou not doone ryght, I wyl make answere vnto thee, that God is greater then man.
13 And why doest thou then stryue against hym: for he shall not geue thee accompts of al his woordes.
14 For God speaketh d once or twyce, and yet man vnderstandeth it not.
15 In dreames and visions of the nyght, when slumbryng commeth vpon men, that they fal asleepe in their beddes, 16 He openeth the eares of men, and correcteth them:
17 That he maye withdrawe man from his purposes, and delyuer hym from e pryde, 18 And keepe his soule from the graue, and his lyfe from the swoorde.
19 He chasteneth hym with syckenesse vpon his bedde, he layeth sore punyshment vpon his bones:
20 So that his f lyfe maye away with no breade, and his soule abhorreth to eate any dayntie meate:
21 Insomuch that his flesthe is cleane consumed away, and his bones are broken, that they can not be seene.
22 His soule draweth vnto the graue, and his lyfe to "death.
23 Nowe yf there be a messenger, one among a thousande, sent for to speake vnto man, and to shewe hym the ryght way:
24 Then the Lorde is mercifull vnto hym, and sayth, He shalbe delyuered, that he fall not downe to the graue: for I am sufficiently reconciled.
25 Then shall his flesthe be as freshe as a chyldes, and shal returne, as in the dayes of his youth.
26 He shal pray vnto God, and he wyl be fauourable vnto hym, and he shall see his face with ioye, for he wyl render vnto man his ryghteousnesse.
27 A respect hath he vnto men, let man then

b. Iob before desyred to pleade his cause before God without feare, therefore sayth Elihu, I am here in gods steade, whom thou needest not to feare: for I am made of the matter that thou art.
c. I haue heard the boast of thy ryghteous lyfe, that thou art innocent and iust, therefore I wyl not proue thee wycked of thy former life, but by these thy woordes
d. God speaketh two maner of wayes vnto men, eyther by sleepe, or by his rod of sickenesse, and other plagues.
e. For to beate downe ỹ pryde of man, GOD sendeth his plagues.
f. That is, sickenesse that decayeth lyfe, can take no sustenance.
"Or, to the buryers.

say, I haue offended, I dyd vnryghteously, and it hath doone me no good.

28 He hath delyuered my soule from destruction, and g my lyfe shal see the lyght.

g. That is, my soule shall appeare cleare in the lande of the lyuyng.

29 Loe, al these woorketh GOD "alway with man,

" Heb. twyce or thrice.

30 That he bryng backe his soule from the graue to the lyght, euen the lyght of the lyuyng.

31 Marke wel, O Job, and heare me: hold thee styl, and I wyl speake.

32 But yf thou hast any thyng to say, then h answeare me, and speake, for I desyre to iustifie thee.

h. That is, to shew thee selfe iust, and not wycked.

33 Yf thou hast nothyng, then heare me, and hold thy tongue, and I shal teach thee wisedome.

¶ The.xxxiiii.Chapter.

2. Elihu chargeth Iob that he calleth him selfe righteous. 12. He sheweth that God is iust in iudgement.

1 ELihu answeared, and sayde,

2 Heare my woordes, O ye a wyse men, hearken vnto me, ye that haue vnderstandyng:

a. Here Elihu prooueth that God can not be vniust, because he is the iudge of the worlde, the gouernor and creator of al.

3 For the eare discerneth woordes, and the mouth tasteth meates.

4 As for b iudgement, let vs seeke it out among our selues, that we may knowe what is good.

b. Let vs scan the cause by reasonyng vpryghtly.

5 For Job hath sayde, I am ryghteous, and God hath c taken away my iudgement.

c. That is, he hath not dealte with me accordyng to the equitie of my cause.

6 In my ryght I must be a lyer: my wound is incurable without my fault.

7 Where is there suche a one as Job, that d drynketh vp scornefulnesse lyke water,

d. That is, for his foolishnesse he beareth the scornefull reproofes of the mockers.

8 Whiche goeth in the companie of wycked doers, and walketh with vngodly men?

9 For he hath sayde, It profyteth a man nothyng that he shoulde walke with God.

10 Therefore hearken vnto me, ye that haue vnderstandyng: farre be it from God that he shoulde meddle with wickednesse, and farre be it from the almighty that he should meddle with vnryghteous dealyng.

11 For he shal reward man after his woorkes, and cause euery man to fynde accordyng to his wayes.

12 Sure it is that God wil not doo wickedly, neither wyl the almightie peruert iudgement.

13 Who ruleth the earth but he? or who hath placed the whole worlde?

14 Yf he set his hart vpon man, and geather vnto hym selfe his 'spirite and his breath:

" Psalm. 103 29.

15 Al flesshe shal come to nought at once, and man shal turne agayne vnto dust.

16 Yf thou nowe haue vnderstanding, heare this, & hearken to the voyce of my woordes:

17 Maye he be a e ruler that loueth not ryght? wylt thou iudge hym wycked that is most iust?

e. As the Elihu wo say, is it that the & wicked be rulers nocentes mit wicked or inferiors contraries ces, or to refuse kyng? how muche ought he to doo God the of al 18 Wylt thou say vnto a kyng, thou art wycked? or to princes, ye are vngodly.

19 "God hath no respect vnto the persons of the princes, and regardeth not the ryche more thē the poore: for they be al the woorke of his handes.

20 In the f twynckelyng of an eye shal they dye, and the people shalbe troubled at mydnight, and passe away, and the myghty shalbe taken away without hande.

21 For his eyes looke vpon the waies of man, and he seeth al his goynges.

22 There is no darkenesse nor shadowe of death, that can hide the wycked doers from hym.

23 For God wyl not laye vpon man more then he hath synned, that he shoulde enter into iudgement with hym.

24 He shal destroy the mightie without setkyng, and shal set other in their g steade.

25 Therfore shall he declare their woorkes: he shal h turne the nyght, and they shalbe destroyed.

26 The vngodly doeth he punish i openly,

27 Because they turned backe from hym, and woulde not consyder al his wayes:

28 Insomuche that they haue caused the voyce of the k poore to come vnto him, and nowe he heareth the complaynt of suche as are in trouble.

29 Whē he geueth quietnes, who can make trouble? and when he hydeth his face, who can beholde hym? whether it be vpon nations, or vpon one man onely?

30 Because the hypocrite doeth raigne, and because the people are snared.

31 Surely of God only it can be said, I haue pardoned, I wyl not destroy.

32 Yf I haue gone amysse, enfourme thou me: yf I haue doone wrong, I wyll leaue of.

33 Wyll he perfourme the thyng through thee? for thou hast reprooued his iudgement, thyne is the choyse, & not myne: but speake on what thou knowest.

34 Let men of vnderstandyng tel me, and let a wyse man hearken vnto me.

35 Job hath not spoken of knowledge, neyther were his woordes accordyng to wysedome.

36 O l father, let Job be "wel tryed, because he hath answeared for wycked men:

" Or, very the ende.

37 Yea aboue his synne he doeth wyckedly, triumpheth among vs, and multiplieth his woordes agaynst God.

¶ The.xxxv.Chapter.

6. Neyther doeth godlineſſe profite, or vngodlineſſe hurt God, but man. 18. The vvycked crye vnto God, and are not heard.

1 ELihu a ſpake moreouer and ſayde,
2 Thinkeſt thou it right that thou ſayeſt, I am more ryghteous then God?
3 For thou ſayeſt, What aduantage wyl it be vnto thee, and what profite ſhal I haue yf I be clenſed from my ſinne?
4 I wyl anſweare thee a woorde, and thy b companions with thee.
5 Looke vnto the heauen, and beholde it, conſyder the c cloudes, which are hygher then thou.
6 If thou haſt d ſinned, what haſt thou done againſt hym? if thine offences be many, what haſt thou done vnto hym?
7 If thou be e ryghteous, what geueſt thou hym? or what wyl he receyue of thyne hande?
8 Thy wyckednesſe may hurt a man as thou art, and thy ryghteouſneſſe may profite the ſonne of man.
9 They which are oppreſſed, crye out vpon the multitude, yea they crye out for the power of the mightie.
10 But none ſayth, Where is GOD that made me? and that geueth "vs occaſion to prayſe hym in the nyght?
11 Which teacheth vs more then the beaſtes of the earth, and geueth vs more wyſedome then the foules of heauen.
12 If any f ſuche complayne, no man geueth anſweare, and that becauſe of the wickednesſe of proude tyrantes.
13 For God wyl not heare vanitie, neyther wyl the almightie regarde it.
14 Although thou ſayeſt to God thou wylt not regard it: yet iudgement is before him, truſt thou in hym.
15 But nowe becauſe his anger hath not viſited, neyther called men to accompt with great extremitie:
16 Therefore doeth Iob open his mouth in vayne, and he maketh many woordes without knowledge.

¶ The.xxxvi.Chapter.

1. Elihu ſheweth the power of God, 6. and his iuſtice, 9. and wherefore he puniſheth. 13. The propertie of the vvycked.

1 ELihu alſo proceeded, and ſayde,
2 Holde thee ſtyl a litle, and I ſhall ſhewe thee what I haue yet to ſpeake on Gods behalfe.
3 I wyl open vnto thee yet farre hygher knowledge, and wyl aſcribe righteouſneſſe vnto my maker.
4 And truely my woordes ſhal not be vayne, ſeeyng he is with thee that is a perfect in knowledge.
5 Beholde the great God caſteth away no man, for he hym ſelfe is b mightie in power and wyſedome.
6 As for the vngodly, he ſhal not preſerue hym, but ſhal helpe the poore to their right.
7 He ſhal not turne his eyes away from the ryghteous, but as c kynges ſhal they be in theyr throne, he ſhal ſtablyſhe them for euer, and they ſhalbe exalted.
8 But if they be layde in chaynes, or bounde with the bondes of trouble, 9 Then wyl he d ſhewe them theyr woorke, and theyr ſinnes which they haue committed ſtoutly.
10 He openeth his eare alſo to diſcipline, and warneth them to leaue of from theyr wyckednesſe.
11 If they nowe wyl take heede and ſerue hym, they ſhal weare out theyr dayes in proſperitie, and theyr yeers in pleaſure.
12 But if they wyl not hearken, they ſhall goe through the ſwoorde, and periſhe, or euer they be aware.
13 As for e hypocrites in hart, they ſhal heape vp wrath for them ſelues, for they call not vpon him, though they be his priſoners.
14 Thus ſhal theyr ſoule peryſhe in "fooliſhneſſe, and theyr lyfe among the fornicatours.
15 The poore ſhal he deliuer out of his affliction, and "rounde them in the eare when they be in trouble.
16 Euen ſo woulde he take thee out of the ſtraite place, into a brode place in the whiche there is no ſtraitneſſe: yea and make thy table quiet, replenyſhed with fatneſſe.
17 Neuertheleſſe, f thou haſt commended the iudgement of the vngodly, and euen ſuche a iudgement and ſentence ſhalt thou ſuffer.
18 And ſeeyng there is g wrath vvith GOD beware leſt he take thee away in thy wrath, and al that thou haſt to redeeme thee, can not deliuer thee.
19 Thinkeſt thou that he wyl regarde thy rycheſſe? he ſhal not care for golde, nor for all them that excell in ſtrength.
20 Spende not the nyght in carefull thoughtes, howe he deſtroyeth the people out of their place.
21 Beware that thou turne not aſide to wickednesſe, which hytherto thou haſt choſen more then affliction.
22 Behold, God is of a mightie high power: where is there ſuch a teacher as he?
23 Who wyl reproue him of his way? who wyl ſay vnto hym, Thou haſt done wrong?

a. And therefore credite my ſayinges, for I come to plead for Gods cauſe.
b. And therefore he wyl not deſtroy the iuſt, the wyſe, and the godly, ſeeyng they are therein lyke vnto hym.
c. So God doeth exalt the godly, and they that loue hym.
d. If he ſhal plague the ryghteous, he wyl declare the cauſe of the ſame.
e. Hypocrites that confeſſe God in theyr mouthes and not in theyr hartes, wyl not acknowledge theyr offence, and ſo runne into deſperation and confuſion.
"Or, youth.
"Or, open theyr eares.
f. Thou haſt alowed the counſell of the wicked, & layde aſyde the counſel of God as vniuſt.
g. Meanyng, thou ſhalt be in paynes which can not be releaſed for any price.

24 Remember that thou doo magnifie his woorke, which men doo prayse.
25 All men see it, yea men doo beholde it a farre of.
26 Beholde, so great is God, that he passeth our knowledge, h neyther can the number of his yeeres be searched out.
27 He turneth the water to smal droppes, he driueth his cloudes togeather to rayne:
28 Whiche rayne the cloudes doo droppe, and let fall abundantly vpon men.
29 Who can consyder the i spreading out of his cloudes, the coueringes of his tabernacle?
30 Beholde, he doeth stretch his light vpon it, and coureth the bottome of the sea.
31 For by these "gouerneth he his people, and geueth them abundance of meate.
32 With the cloudes he hideth the light, and at his commaundement he breaketh out.
33 Which dashing vpon the next cloudes, shewe tokens of wrath.

h. For he is God from euerlasting, without beginning or ending.

i. Gods maiestie is woonderfully declared in his creatures.

" Or, iudgeth.

¶ The xxxvii. Chapter.

2. Elihu proueth that the vnsearchable wysedome of God is manifest by his woorkes, 4. as by the thunder, 6. the snowe, 9. the whirle wynd, 11. and the rayne.

1 AT a this also my hart is astonied, and mooued out of his place.
2 Heare b then the sounde of his voyce, and the noyse that goeth out of his mouth.
3 He directeth it vnder the whole heauen, and his light vnto the endes of the worlde.
4 A roring voyce foloweth it: for his glorious maiestie geueth a thunder clap, and he wyl not stay when his voyce is heard.
5 God thundereth marueylously with his voyce, great thynges doeth he, whiche we can not comprehende.
6 He commaundeth the snowe, and it falleth vppon earth: he geueth the rayne a charge, and the shewres haue their strength and fal downe.
7 With the force of the rayne he shutteth men vp, that all men may knowe c his woorkes.
8 The beastes d creepe into their dennes, and remayne in theyr places.
9 Out of the south commeth the tempest, and colde out from the north wynde.
10 At the e breath of GOD hoare frost is geuen, and the brode waters are frosen.
11 He maketh the cloudes to labour, in geuyng moystnesse, and againe, with his light he driueth away the cloude.
12 He turneth the heauens about by his gouernement, that they may doo what so euer he commaundeth them vppon the whole worlde.
13 He causeth rayne to come, whether it be for punishment, or for his lande, or to doo good to them that seeke hym.
14 Hearken vnto this, O Iob, stande styll, and consyder the woonderous woorkes of God.
15 Dydst thou knowe when God disposed them? and caused the f light of his cloudes to shine?
16 Hast thou knowen the varietie of the cloudes, and the woonderous woorkes of hym which is perfect in knowledge?
17 And howe thy clothes are warme, when the lande is styl through the south wynde?
18 Hast thou helped hym to spread out the heauens, which are strong, and bryght as a g moulten glasse?
19 Teache vs what we shal say vnto hym: for we are vnmeete to frame our talke, because of h darkenesse.
20 Shall it be tolde hym what I say? Shall man speake when he shalbe destroyed?
21 For men see not the lyght that shyneth in the cloudes, but the wynde passeth and clenseth them.
22 The " fayre weather commeth out of the north, the prayse thereof is to God, who is terrible.
23 It is the almightie, we can not finde hym out: he is excellent in power & iudgement, and abundant in iustice: he afflicteth not.
24 Let men therefore i feare hym: for there shal no man see hym that is wyse in his owne conceyte.

a. That is, at Gods woonderful creatures, as the thundre, and suche lyke.
b. As though he woulde say, the thunder is the dreadful voyce of God.
c. Whiche woorkes are as it were a confirmation of Gods maiestie: for as soone as the thunder commeth, they flee for feare, wherin they shewe theyr owne weakenesse, and doo witnesse a maiestie of god on hygh.
d. Not onely mã, but beastes also are witnesses of Gods power and maiestie, whé they runne to theyr dennes for feare of the thunder.
e. Meanyng, the wyndes which are called the breath of God, whiche as they blowe hot or colde, so they freese or thawe the waters, making them lesser and greater.

f. That is, lyghtning.

g. For the clearenesse bryghtnesse them.

h. That is, our ignorance.

¶ The xxxviii. Chapter.

GOD speaketh to Iob, and declareth the ignorance of man in the consyderation of his creatures.

1 THen answeared the Lord vnto Iob out of the a whirle wynde, and sayde,
2 What is he that b darkeneth his counsel by woordes without knowledge?
3 Girde vp thy c loynes lyke a man: for I wyl question with thee, geue me an answeare.
4 Where d wast thou when I layde the fundations of the earth? tel me, if thou hast vnderstandyng.
5 Who hath measured it, knowest thou? or who hath spread the line vpon it?
6 Whereupon are the fundations set? or who layde the corner stone thereof?

a. To shewe his maiestie, and to abase Iob, before whom he spake.
b. That is, darkeneth & couerly & obscureth.
c. That is, prepare thee to answeare.
d. Inferring by this that he coulde not be concerned in the woonderful woorkes, neyther his wysedome searchable by any dowe of death?

ther? or looſe the bandes of Orion?

thou mayeſt ſet vp the ordinaunce thereof vpon the earth?

des, that they may powre downe a great rayne vpon thee?
35 Canſt thou ſende the lyghtnynges, that they may goe theyr way, ſaying vnto thee, Loe here are we?

who ſtylleth the vehement "waters of the neſſe, and the clottes to cleaue faſt together?

when his young ones crye vnto God, and flee about for lacke of meate?

i. They yce couered it, as though it were paued with ſtone.
"Or, Arthuros.

"Or, bottels.
k. For ſo groweth the earth by the want of rayne.
l. After he had ſhewed his maruailes aboue, he commeth to the earthly creatures, as though God would ſay, The thinges on the cloudes are vnknowen vnto thee, yea euen thyngs on earth thou durſt not do: howe much leſſe then durſt thou to reache to Gods ſecrete wyſdome?

¶ The xxxix. Chapter.

God proceedeth in declaryng the ignoraunce of Iob, in the conſyderation of his marueylous vvoorkes, in beaſtes and fovvles.

1 KNoweſt thou the time when the wylde Goates bryng fooorth their young among the rockes? or layeſt thou wayte when the Hyndes vſe to calue?
2 Canſt thou number the monethes that they goe with young? or knoweſt thou the tyme when they bryng fooorth?
3 They lye downe, they calue their young ones, & they are deliuered of their trauayle and payne:
4 Yet theyr young ones growe vp, and waxe fat through good feedyng with corne: they goe fooorth, and returne not agayne vnto them.
5 Who letteth the wylde Aſſe to goe free? or who looſeth the bondes of the wylde Aſſe?
6 Euen I whiche haue geuen the wylderneſſe to be their houſe, and the b barrayne lande to be their dwellyng.
7 He ſcorneth the multitude of the citie, neyther regardeth the crying of the driuer:
8 But ſeeketh his paſture about the moun-taynes, and folowyth the greene graſſe.

a. He cheefly reciteth theſe beaſtes, for they bryng fooorth their younglinges with greateſt payne.

b. Some reade, Salt places, meanyng, barrayne grounde.

9 Wyll

9 Wyll the e Unicorne do thee ſeruice, or abyde ſtyll by thy cribbe?
10 Canſt thou bynde the yoke about the Unicorne in the forowe, to make hym plowe after thee in the valleyes?
11 Mayeſt thou truſt hym becauſe he is ſtrong, or commit thy labour vnto hym?
12 Mayeſt thou beleeue that he wyl bryng home thy "corne, or cary it into thy barne?
13 Gaueſt thou the fayre wynges vnto the Pecockes, or wynges and feathers vnto the Eſtritche?
14 The Eſtritche leaueth her egges in the earth, and heateth them in the duſt.
15 She remembreth not that they myght be troden with feete, or broke with ſome wild beaſt.
16 So harde is ſhe vnto her young ones, as though they were not hers, and d laboureth in vayne without any feare.
17 And that becauſe God hath e taken wiſedome from her, and hath not geuen her vnderſtandyng.
18 When her tyme is that ſhe mounteth on hygh, ſhe careth neyther for the horſe, nor the ryder.
19 f Haſt thou geuen the horſe his ſtrength? or learned hym to ney couragiouſly?
20 Canſt thou make hym afrayde as a graſſhopper? his ſtoute neying is fearefull.
21 He breaketh the ground with the hooſes of his feete he reioyceth in his ſtrength, and runneth to meete the harueſt men.
22 He mocketh at feare, & is not afrayd, neither ſtarteth he backe from the ſwoorde.
23 Though the quiuers rattle vppon hym, though the ſpeare and ſhielde gliſter:
24 Yet ruſheth he in fiercely, beatyng the grounde, he regardeth not the noyſe of the trumpettes:
25 But when the trumpets make moſt noyſe, he ſayth, "Tuſh, for he ſmelleth the battaile a farre of, the noyſe of the captaynes, and the ſhowtyng.
26 Commeth it through thy wyſdome, that the Goſhauke fleeth with her wynges towarde the g South?
27 Doth the Eagle mount vp, and make his neſt on high at thy commaundement?
28 He abydeth in ſtony rockes, and dwelleth vpon the hygh toppes of mountaynes:
29 From whence he ſeeketh his pray, and looketh farre about with his eyes.
30 His young ones alſo ſucke vp blood: and where any dead body lyeth, there is he.

e. If thou cãſt not rule the Vnicorne, canſt thou knowe Gods ſecretes, or appoynt him to do thy wyll?

"Or, ſeede.

d. The Eſtritch when ſhe hath laied her egges, hydeth them in the ſand, and by the heate of the ſunne, the yong are brought foorth, but ſhe leaueth the egs as careleſſe, forgettyng the place where ſhe put them, and ſo her labour is vayne.
e. To be naturall towarde her owne.
f. Thus in all creatures the glorie of Gods maieſtie is dedeclared.

"Or, ha, ha,

g. That is, flee into the regiõs y are hot, when cold commeth.

¶ The xl. Chapter.

God declareth the weakeneſſe of Iob, by comparing the ſame to his great worker, and to the ſtrength of Behemoth.

1 MOreouer, the Lorde ſpake vnto Iob, and ſayde,
2 Shal he whom the almyghtie wyl chaſten, contende with hym? Shoulde not he which diſputeth with God, geue hym an aunſweare?
3 Then Iob a aunſwered the Lorde, ſaying,
4 Behold, I am vile, what ſhal I aunſwere thee? therefore I wyll lay my hande vpon my mouth.
5 Once haue I ſpoken, but I wyll say no more: yea twyſe, but I wyll proceede no further.
6 Then aunſwered the Lorde vnto Iob out of the whirle wynde, and ſayde, 7 Gyrde vp thy loynes nowe lyke a man: I wyll demaunde of thee, and make thou anſweare.
8 Wylt thou b diſanull my iudgement? or wylt thou condemne me, that thou mayeſt be ryghteous?
9 Is thy "power thē lyke the power of God? maketh thy voyce a ſounde as his doth?
10 Decke thee ſelfe nowe with excellencie and maieſtie, and aray thee ſelfe c with beautie and glory.
11 Caſt abrode the indignatiõ of thy wrath, and beholde euery one that is proude, and abaſe hym:
12 Looke on euery one that is arrogant, and bryng hym lowe, and deſtroy the wicked in their place:
13 Hyde them in the duſt togeather, and couer their faces in d ſecrete.
14 Then wyll I confeſſe vnto thee alſo, that e thyne owne ryght hande ſhall ſaue thee.
15 Beholde the beaſt f Behemoth, whom I made with thee, whiche eateth hay as an oxe:
16 Loe howe his ſtrength is in his loynes, and what power he hath in the nauell of his belly.
17 When he wyll he ſpreadeth out his tayle lyke a Cedar tree, the ſinowes of his ſtones are knit togeather.
18 His bones are ſtrong as braſſe, yea, his bones are lyke ſtaues of trou.
19 He is the begynning of the wayes of god, he that made hym, wyll make his g ſwoorde to approche vnto hym.
20 Surely the mountaynes bryng him fooyth graſſe, where al the beaſtes of the feeld take their paſtime.
21 He reſteth hym in the ſhade, in the couert of the reede and fennes.
22 The trees couer him with their ſhadow, and the wyllowes of the brooke compaſſe hym about.
23 Beholde, he drynketh vp whole ryuers, h where he vseth to haunt, and couereth with hay, or prouender, whiche so soone as he espieth, he runneth hastyly vnto it, and into the pitte, and then the Hunter thrusteth through the nose, because it is the tenderest parte.

¶ The.xli. Chapter.

God setteth foorth the malice, the members, the strength, and the pride of Lemathan.

1 CAnst thou drawe out a Leuiathan with an hooke? or binde his tongue with a corde?

2 Canst thou put a hooke in the nose of him? or bore his iawe through with a naule?

3 Will he make many fayre woordes with thee, or flatter thee?

4 Will he make a couenant with thee? or wilt thou take him for a seruant for euer?

5 Wilt thou take thy pastime with him, as with a birde, wilt thou binde him for thy maidens?

6 That thy companions may make a banquet of him, or shal he be parted among the marchantes?

7 Canst thou fyl the basket with his skinne? or the fysshe panyer with his head?

8 Lay thyne hand vpon him, b remember the battel, and doo no more.

9 Behold, his hope is in vayne: for shal not one perishe euen at the sight of him?

10 No c man is so fierce that dare stirre him vp: Who is able to stand before me?

11 Or who hath geuen me any thing afore hand, that I may reward him agayne? All thinges vnder heauen are myne.

12 I wyl not kepe secret his great strength, his power, nor his comely proportion.

13 Who can discouer the d face of his garment? or who shal come to him with a double bridle.

14 Who e shall open the doores of his face? for he hath horrible teeth round about.

15 His scales are as it were strong shieldes, so fastened togeather as yf they were sealed:

16 One is so ioyned to another, that no ayre can come in:

17 One hangeth so vpon another, and sticketh so togeather, that they can not be sundred.

18 His f neesinges make a glistring lyke light, and his eyes like the "morning shine.

19 Out of his mouth goe torches, & sparkes of fyre leape out.

20 And out of his nosethrilles there goeth a smoke, lyke as out of an whot seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath maketh the coles burne, and the flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his necke there remayneth strength, and nothing is too labourous for him.

23 The members of his fleshe are ioyned and cleaue fast togeather, and can not be mooued.

24 His hart is as hard as a stone, and as fast as the "Stithie that the Smith smiteth vpon.

25 When he moueth him selfe, the mighty are afraide, and feare troubleth them.

26 If any man drawe out a woord at hym, he wyll not moone, neyther for the speare, iauelyn, nor brestplate.

27 He setteth as muche by iron, as by a straw, and as much by brasse, as by a rotten sticke.

28 He starteth not away from the arrowe: and as for slyng stones, they are as stubble vnto him.

29 He counteth the dartes as strawe, he laugheth him to scorne that shaketh the speare.

30 g Sharpe stones are vnder him, and he lyeth vpon sharpe thinges, as vpon the soft myre.

31 He maketh the h deepe to boyle like a pot, and stirreth the sea togeather lyke an oyntment.

32 He maketh the i path to shine after him, and he maketh the depe to seeme all hoarie.

33 Upon earth there is no power lyke vnto his: for he is so made that he feareth not.

¶ The.xlii. Chapter.

6. The repentance of Iob. 9. He prayeth for his frendes, 12. and his goodes are restored double vnto him.

1 THen Iob answeared the Lorde, and sayde,

2 a I know that thou hast power ouer al thinges, and that there is no thought hid vnto thee.

3 For who can keepe his owne counsayle so secrete, but it shalbe knowen: therfore haue I spoken that I vnderstoode not, euen the thinges that are to woonderfull for me, and passe myne vnderstandyng.

4 b hearken thou vnto me also, and let me speake: answeare vnto the thing that I wyl aske thee.

5 I haue heard of thee by the hearyng of the eare, but nowe myne eye c seeth thee.

a. Iob confesseth the omnipotencie of God, and bewayleth his offence that he spake he wyst not what.

b. Iob desyreth to learne of God.

c. He sawe him not but by his woord, which is the face and image of God.

6 Where-

6 Wherefore I geue myne owne selfe the blame, and take repentance in the dust and asshes.

7 Nowe when the Lorde had spoken these woordes vnto Iob, the Lorde saide to Eliphaz the Themanite, I am displeased with thee and thy two freendes: for ye haue not spoken of me the d thing that is right, like as my seruant Iob hath done.

8 Therefore take you nowe seuen Oxen, and seuen Rammes, and goe to my seruant Iob, and offer vp for your selues a whole burnt offering, and my seruant Iob shall pray for you: him wyl I accept, & not deale with you after your foolishnesse, in that ye haue not spoken of me the thing whiche is ryght, like as my seruant Iob hath done.

9 So Eliphaz the Themanite, and Bildad the Suhite, and Sophar the Naamathite, went, and dyd accordyng as the Lorde commaunded them: the Lord also accepted the *person of Iob.

10 And the Lorde e turned the captiuitie of Iob when he prayed for his freends: Yea, the Lorde gaue Iob twyse as muche as he had before.

11 And then came there vnto him f all his brethren, all his sisters, and al they that had been of his acquaintance g afore, and dyd eate bread with him in his house, and had compassion on him, and comforted him ouer all the trouble that the Lorde had brought vpon him: euery man also gaue him a certaine sum of money, and a *iewel of golde.

12 So the Lord blessed the last dayes of Iob more then the fyrst: for he hadde fourteene thousand Sheepe, sixe thousand Camels, a thousand yoke of Oxen, and a thousande shee Asses, 13 He had seuen sonnes also, & three daughters.

14 The first daughter, called he h Iemima, the second, i Cezia, and the third, k Cerenhaphuch.

15 In all the lande were no women founde so fayre as the daughters of Iob: and their father gaue them inheritance among their brethren.

Beatus vir. Psalme.j.

BLessed is that man that hath not walked in the counsel of ỹ vngodlye, nor stande in the way of synners: and hath not syt in the seat of the scorneful.

2 But his delight is in the lawe of the lorde: *and in his lawe wyl he exercise hym selfe day and nyght.

3 *And he shalbe lyke a tree planted by the water side: that wyl bring foorth his fruite in due season.

4 His leafe also shal not wyther: and looke what so euer he doeth, it shal prosper.

5 As for the vngodly it is not so with them: but they are like the chaffe which the wind scattereth away (from the face of ỹ earth.)

6 Therefore the vngodly shall not be able to stande in the iudgement: neyther the sinners in the congregation of the ryghteous.

7 But the Lorde knoweth the way of the ryghteous: and the way of the vngodly shal perishe.

Quare fremuerunt. Psalme.ij.

1 WHy doo the heathen *so furiously rage togeather: and why doo the people imagine a vayne thyng?

2 The kynges of the earth stande vp, and the rulers take counsel togeather: agaynst the Lorde, and agaynst his annoynted.

3 Let vs breake theyr bondes a sunder: and cast away theyr cordes from vs.

4 He that dwelleth in heauen shal laugh them to scorne: the Lorde shal haue them in derision.

5 Then shall he speake vnto them in his wrath: & vexe them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet haue I set my kyng: vpon my holy hyl of Sion.

7 *I wyl preache the lawe, whereof the Lorde hath sayde vnto me: thou art my sonne, this day haue I begotten thee.

8 Desyre of me, and I shal geue thee, the heathen for thine inheritance: and the vttermost partes of ỹ earth for thy possession.

9 *Thou shalt bruise them with a rodde of iron: and breake them in peeces like a potters vessel.

10 Be wyse nowe therefore, O ye kynges: be learned ye that are iudges of the earth.

11 Serue the Lorde in feare: and reioyce vnto hym with reuerence.

12 Kisse the sonne lest he be angry, and so ye perishe from the ryght way: yf his wrath be kindled (yea but a litle) blessed are al they that put theyr trust in hym.

Domine quid. Psalme.iij.

1 LOrde *howe are they encreased that trouble me: many are they that rise agaynst me.

2 Many one there be that say of my soule: there is no helpe for hym in his God.

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defender: thou art my worshipper, & the lyfter vp of my head.

4 I dyd cal vpon the Lord with my voyce: and he heard me out of his holy hyl.

5 I layde me downe and sleapt, and rose vp agayne: for the Lorde susteyned me.

6 I wyl not be afrayde for ten thousandes of people: that haue set them selues against me rounde about.

7 Vp Lorde, and helpe me, O my God: for thou smitest all mine enimies vppon the cheeke bone, thou hast broken the teeth of the vngodly.

8 Saluation belongeth vnto the Lorde: and thy blessyng is vpon the people.

Cum inuocarem. Psalme.iiij.

1 HEare me when I cal, O God of my ryghteousnesse: thou hast set me at libertie when I was in trouble, haue mercie vppon me, and hearken vnto my prayer.

2 O ye sonnes of men, howe long wyl ye blaspheme myne honour: and haue suche pleasure in vanitie, & seeke after leasyng?

3 Knowe this also, that the Lorde hath chosen to hym selfe the man that is godlye: when I cal vpon the Lorde, he wyll heare me.

4 *Stand in awe, and sinne not: commune with your owne hart, and in your chamber, and be styl.

5 Offer the sacrifice of ryghteousnesse: and put your trust in the Lorde.

6 There be many that say: who wyl shewe vs any good?
7 Lorde lyft thou vp: the lyght of thy countenance vpon vs.
8 Thou hast put gladnesse in my hart: since the time that they corne and wine and oyle encreased.
9 I wyl lay me downe in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou Lorde onely that makest me dwel in safetie.

Verba mea auribus. Psalme.v.

1 PVnder my wordes, O Lorde: consyder my meditation.
2 O hearken thou vnto the voyce of my callyng, my kyng and my GOD: for vnto thee wyl I make my prayer.
3 My voyce shalt thou heare betymes, O Lorde: early in the morning wyl I direct my prayer vnto thee, and wyl looke vp.
4 For thou art the God that hast no pleasure in wyckednesse: neyther shal any evyl dwel with thee.
5 Such as be foolishe shal not stande in thy syght: for thou hatest all them that worke vanitie.
6 Thou shalt destroy them that speake leasyng: the Lord wyl abhorre both the bloodthirstie and deceytful man.
7 But as for me, I wil come into thy house, euen vpon the multitude of thy mercie: and in thy feare wyl I worshyp towarde thy holy temple.
8 Leade me, O Lorde, in thy righteousnesse, because of mine enimies: make thy way playne before my face.
9 For there is no faithfulnesse in his mouth: their inwarde partes are very wickednesse.
*Psal.13. 3. Rom.3. 13. 10 *Their throte is an open sepulchre: they flatter with their tongue.
11 Destroy thou them, O God, let them perishe through their owne imaginations: cast them out in the multitude of their vngodlinesse, for they haue rebelled agaynst thee.
12 And let al them that put their trust in thee reioyce: they shal euer be geuyng of thankes, because thou defendest them, they that loue thy name shalbe joyful in thee.
13 For thou Lorde wylt geue thy blessyng vnto the ryghteous: and with thy fauourable kyndnesse wylt thou defende hym, as with a shielde.

Domine ne in furore. Psalme.vi.

Euenyng prayer.

1 O Lorde rebuke me not in thine indignation: neyther chasten me in thy displeasure.
2 Haue mercie vpon me, O Lord, for I am weake: O Lorde heale me, for my bones are vexed.
3 My soule is also sore troubled: but Lorde howe long wylt thou punishe me?
4 Turne thee, O Lorde, and deliuer my soule: O saue me for thy mercies sake.
5 For in death no man remembreth thee: and who wyl geue thee thankes in the pit?
6 I am weerie of my gronyng, euery night washe I my bedde: and water my couche with my teares.
7 My beautie is gone for very trouble: and worne away because of al mine enimies.
8 *Away from me al ye that worke vanitie: for the Lorde hath heard the voyce of my weepyng. *Mat.7.23. and.25.41. Luke.13.27.
9 The Lorde hath heard my petition: the Lorde wyl receyue my prayer.
10 Al myne enimies shalbe confounded and sore vexed: they shalbe turned backe and put to shame sodenly.

Domine deus meus. Psalme.vii.

2 Lest he deuoure my soule lyke a Lion, and teare it in peeces: whyle there is none to helpe.
3 O Lord my God, if I haue done any such thyng: or yf there be any wyckednesse in my handes.
4 If I haue rewarded evyl vnto hym that dealt freendly with me: yea I haue delyuered him that without any cause is myne enimie.
5 Then let mine enimie persecute my soule and take me: yea let hym treade my lyfe downe vpon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust.
6 Stande vp, O Lorde, in thy wrath, and lyft vp thee selfe: because of the indignation of mine enimies, aryse vp for me in the iudgement that thou hast commaunded.
7 And so shal the congregation of the people come about thee: for their sakes therefore lyft vp thee selfe agayne.
8 The Lorde shal iudge the people, geue sentence with me, O Lorde: accordyng to my ryghteousnesse, and accordyng to the innocencie that is in me.
9 Oh let the wyckednesse of the vngodly come to an ende: but guide thou the iust.

Confitebor tibi. Psalm. ix.

Morning prayer. 1 I Wyl geue thankes vnto thee, O Lord, with my whole hart: I wyl speake of al thy marueylous workes.

2 I wyll be glad and reioyce in thee: yea, my songues wyl I make of thy name, O thou most hyghest.

3 Whyle myne enimies are driuen backe: they shal fall and perysshe at thy presence.

4 For thou hast mainteyned my ryght and my cause: thou art set in the throne that iudgest ryght.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, and destroyed the vngodly: thou hast put out their name for euer and euer.

6 O thou enimie, destructions are come to a perpetuall ende: euen as the cities whiche thou hast destroyed, their memorial is perished with them.

7 But the Lord shal endure for euer: he hath also prepared his seate for iudgement.

8 For he shal iudge the worlde in ryghteousnesse: and minister true iudgement vnto the people.

9 The Lorde also wyll be a defence for the oppressed: euen a refuge in due tyme of trouble.

10 And they that knowe thy name, wyl put their trust in thee: for thou Lorde hast neuer fayled them that seeke thee.

11 O prayse the Lorde whiche dwelleth in Sion: shewe the people of his doynges.

12 For whē he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembreth them: and forgetteth not the complaynt of the poore.

13 Haue mercie vpon me, O Lord, consyder the trouble whiche I suffer of them that hate me: thou that lyftest me vp from the gates of death.

14 That I may shewe al thy prayses within the portes of the daughter of Sion: I wyl reioyce in thy saluation.

15 The heathen are suncke downe in the pit that they made: in the same net which they hyd priuyly, is their owne foote taken.

16 The Lorde is knowen to execute iudgement: the vngodly is trapped in the worke of his owne handes.

17 The wycked shalbe turned into hel: and al the people that forgeat God.

18 For the poore shal not alway be forgotten: the patient abydyng of the meeke shall not perysshe for euer.

19 Up Lorde, and let not man haue the vpper hande: let the heathen be iudged in thy syght.

20 Put them in feare (O Lorde:) that the heathen maye knowe them selues to be but men.

Vt quid domine. Psalm. x.

1 WHy standest thou so farre of (O Lorde:) and hydest thy face in the needeful tyme of trouble?

2 The vngodly for his owne lust doeth persecute the poore: let them be taken in the craftie wylynesse that they haue imagined.

3 For the vngodly hath made boaste of his owne hartes desyre: and speaketh good of the couetous whom God abhorreth.

4 The vngodly is so proude, that he careth not for God: neyther is God in all his thoughtes.

5 His waies are alway greeuous: thy iudgements are farre aboue out of his syght, and therefore defieth he al his enimies.

6 For he hath sayde in his hart, tushe, I shal neuer be caste downe: there shall no harme happen vnto me.

9 For he lyeth waytyng secretely: euen as a Lion lurketh he in his denne, that he maye rauyshe the poore.

10 He doeth rauyshe the poore: when he getteth hym into his net.

11 He falleth downe and humbleth him self: that the congregation of the poore may fall into the hande of his captaynes.

12 He hath sayd in his hart, tushe, God hath forgotten: he hydeth away his face, and he wyl neuer see it.

13 Aryse (O Lorde God) and lyft vp thyne hande: forget not the poore.

14 Wherfore should the wycked blaspheme God: whyle he doeth say in his hart, tushe, thou God carest not for it?

15 Surely thou hast seene it: for thou beholdest vngodlynesse and wrong.

16 That thou mayest take the matter into thy hande: the poore committeth hym selfe vnto thee, for thou art the helper of the freendlesse.

17 Breake thou the power of the vngodly and malitious: take away his vngodlynes, and thou shalt fynde none.

5 Nowe for the comfortlesse troubles sake of the needie: and because of the deepe syghing of the poore.

6 I wyl vp (sayth the Lord:) and wyl helpe euery one from hym that swelleth agaynst hym, and wyl set them at rest.

7 The wordes of the Lord are pure wordes: euen as the syluer whiche from the earth is tryed and purified seuen tymes in the fyre.

8 Thou shalt keepe them (O Lorde:) thou shalt preserue them from this generation for euer.

9 The vngodly walke on euery syde: when they are exalted, the chyldren of men are put to rebuke.

11 For why? thou *ſhalt not leaue my ſoule in hel: neyther ſhalt thou ſuffer thyne holy one to ſee corruption. *Act.2.31. and.13.35.
12 Thou ſhalt ſhewe me the path of lyfe, in thy preſence is the fulneſſe of ioy: and at thy ryght hande there is pleaſure for euermore.

Exaudi domine iuſtitiam. Pſalme.xvii.

1 HEare the ryght, O Lorde, conſyder my complaint: and hearken vnto my prayer, that goeth not out of faigned lippes.
2 Let my ſentence come forth from thy preſence: and let thine eyes looke vpon the thyng that is equal.
3 Thou haſt proued and viſited mine hart in the night ſeaſon, thou haſt tryed me, and ſhalt finde no wyckednes in me: for I am vtterly purpoſed that my mouth ſhall not offende.

4 Becauſe of mens wooꝛkes that are done agaynſt the wooꝛdes of my lippes: I haue kept me from the wayes of the deſtroyer.
5 O holde thou vp my goynges in thy pathes: that my footeſteppes ſlip not.
6 I haue called vpon thee, O God, foꝛ thou ſhalt heare me: encline thine eare to me, and hearken vnto my wooꝛdes.
7 Shewe thy marueylous louing kindneſſe, thou that art the ſauiour of them whiche put theyꝛ truſt in thee: from ſuche as reſiſt thy ryght hande.
8 Keepe me as the apple of an eye: hyde me vnder the ſhadowe of thy wynges.
9 From the vngodly that trouble me: mine enimies compaſſe me rounde about, to take away my ſoule.
10 They are encloſed in theyꝛ owne fat: and theyꝛ mouth ſpeaketh pꝛoude thynges.
11 They lye wayting in our way on euery ſide: turning theyꝛ eyes downe to the grounde.
12 Like as a Lion that is greedy of his pꝛay: and as it were a Lions whelpe lurkyng in ſecrete places.
13 Vp Loꝛde, diſapoynt hym, and caſt hym downe: deliuer my ſoule from the vngodly which is a ſwooꝛde of thine.
14 From the men of thy hande, O Loꝛde, from the men, I ſay, & from the euyl wozld: which haue theiꝛ poꝛtion in this life, whoſe bellies thou fylleſt with thy hyd treaſure.
15 They haue chyldꝛen at theyꝛ deſyꝛe: and leaue the reſt of their ſubſtance foꝛ theyꝛ babes.
16 But as foꝛ me, I wyl beholde thy pꝛeſence in ryghteouſneſſe: and when I awake vp after thy lykeneſſe, I ſhalbe ſatiſfied with it.

Euenyng prayer. Heb.2.13.

1 I Wyl loue thee (O Loꝛde) my ſtrength, the Loꝛde is my ſtonie rocke and my defence: my "ſauiour, my God, and my might, in whom I wyl truſt, my buckler, the hoꝛne alſo of my ſaluation, and my refuge.
2 I wyl cal vpon the Loꝛde, which is wooꝛthy to be pꝛayſed: ſo ſhal I be ſafe from myne enimies.
3 The ſoꝛowes of death compaſſed me: and the ouerflowynges of vngodlineſſe made me afrayde.
4 The paynes of hel came about me: the ſnares of death ouertooke me.
5 In my trouble I wyl cal vpon the Loꝛde: and complayne vnto my God.
6 So ſhal he heare my voyce out of his (holy) temple: and my complaint ſhal come before hym, it ſhal enter euen into his eares.
7 The earth trembled and quaked: the very foundations alſo of the hylles ſhooke, and were remooued, becauſe he was wꝛoth.
8 There went a ſmoke out of his pꝛeſence: and a conſuming fyꝛe out of his mouth, ſo that coales were kindled at it.
9 He bowed the heauens alſo and came downe: and it was darke vnder his feete.
10 He rode vpon the Cherubims, and dyd flee: he came fleeyng vppon the winges of the wynde.
11 He made darkeneſſe his ſecret place: his pauilion rounde about hym, with darke water and thicke cloudes to couer hym.
12 At the bꝛightneſſe of his pꝛeſence his cloudes remooued: hayleſtones, and coales of fyꝛe.
13 The Loꝛde alſo thundꝛed out of heauen, and the hygheſt gaue his thunder: hayleſtones and coales of fyꝛe.
14 He ſent out his arrowes, and ſcattered them: he caſt foꝛth lyghtninges, and deſtroyed them.
15 The ſpꝛinges of waters were ſeene, and the foundations of the rounde woꝛlde were diſcouered at thy chydyng, O Loꝛde: at the blaſtyng of the bꝛeath of thy diſpleaſure.
16 He ſhal ſende downe from the hygh to fetche me: and ſhal take me out of many waters.
17 He ſhal deliuer me from my ſtrongeſt enimie, and from them which hate me: foꝛ they are to mightie foꝛ me.
18 They pꝛeuented me in the day of my trouble: but the Loꝛde was my vpholder.
19 He bꝛought me fooꝛth alſo into a place of libertie: he bꝛought me fooꝛth, euen becauſe he had a fauour vnto me.
20 The Loꝛde ſhal rewarde me after my ryghteous dealyng: accoꝛdyng to the cleanneſſe of my handes ſhal he recompence me.
21 Becauſe I haue kept the wayes of the Loꝛde: and haue not foꝛſaken my God as the wycked doeth.
22 Foꝛ I haue an eye vnto all his lawes: and wyl not caſt out his commaundements from me.
23 I was alſo vncoꝛrupt befoꝛe hym: and eſchewed myne owne wyckedneſſe.
24 Therefoꝛe ſhal the Loꝛde rewarde me after my ryghteous dealyng: and accoꝛdyng vnto the cleanneſſe of my handes in his eye ſight.
25 With the holy, thou ſhalt be holy: and with a perfect man, thou ſhalt be perfect.
26 With the cleane, thou ſhalt be cleane: and and with the frowarde, thou ſhalt learne frowardneſſe.

27 For thou ſhalt ſaue the people that are in aduerſitie: and ſhalt bryng downe the high lookes of the proude.

28 Thou alſo ſhalt lyght my candle: the Lorde my God ſhall make my darkeneſſe to be lyght.

92 For in thee I ſhall diſcomfite an hoſt of men: and with the helpe of my God I ſhall leape ouer the wall.

30 The way of God is an vndefyled way, the woorde of the Lorde alſo is tryed in the fire: he is the defender of all them that put their truſt in hym.

31 For who is God, but the Lorde: or who hath any ſtrength, except our God?

32 It is God that gyrdeth me with ſtrength of warre: and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feete lyke Hartes feete: and ſetteth me vp on hygh.

34 He teacheth my hands to fight: and mine armes ſhal breake euen a bowe of ſteele.

35 Thou haſt geuen me the defence of thy ſaluation: thy ryght hande alſo ſhall holde me vp, and thy louyng correction ſhal make me great.

36 Thou ſhalt make roome yenough vnder me for to goe: that my footeſteppes ſhal not ſlyde.

37 I wyll folowe vpon myne enimies, and ouertake them: neyther wyll I turne agayne tyll I haue deſtroyed them.

38 I wyll ſmyte them, that they ſhall not be able to ſtande: but fall vnder my feete.

39 Thou haſt gyrded me with ſtrength vnto the battayle: thou ſhalt throw downe mine enimies vnder me.

40 Thou haſt made myne enimies alſo to turne their backes vpon me: and I ſhall deſtroy them that hate me.

41 They ſhall crye, but there ſhalbe none to helpe them: yea euen vnto the Lorde ſhall they crye, but he ſhall not heare them.

42 I wyll beate them as ſmall as the duſt before the wynde: I wyll caſt them out as the claye in the ſtreetes.

43 Thou ſhalt deliuer me frō the ſtriuings of the people: and thou ſhalt make me the head of the Heathen.

44 A people whom I haue not knowen: ſhall ſerue me.

45 As ſoone as they heare of me, they ſhall obey me: but the ſtrange chyldren ſhal diſſemble with me.

46 The ſtrange chyldren ſhal fayle: and be afrayde out of their priſons.

47 The Lorde lyueth, and bleſſed be my ſtrong helper: and prayſed be the God of my ſaluation.

48 Euen the God whiche ſeeth that I be auenged: and ſubdueth the people vnto me.

49 It is he that deliuereth me from my (cruell) enimies, and ſetteth me vp aboue myne aduerſaries: thou ſhalt ryd me from the wicked man.

50 *For this cauſe wyl I geue thankes vnto thee (O Lorde) among the Gentiles: and ſing prayſes vnto thy name. *Rom.15.9.

51 Great proſperitie geueth he vnto his king: and ſheweth louyng kyndneſſe vnto Dauid his annoynted, and vnto his ſeede for euermore.

1 THE heauens declare the glorye of God: and the firmament ſheweth his handy woorke. Morning prayer.

2 One day telleth another: and one nyght certifieth another.

3 There is neyther ſpeache nor language: but their voyces are hearde among them.

4 *Their ſounde is gone out into al landes: and their woordes into the endes of the worlde. *Rom.10.18

5 In them hath he ſet a tabernacle for the ſonne: whiche commeth forth as a bryde-grome out of his chamber, and reioyceth as a giant to runne his courſe.

6 It goeth forth from the vttermoſt part of the heauen, and runneth about vnto the ende of it agayne: and there is nothyng hyd from the heate thereof.

7 The law of the Lorde is an vndefiled law, conuertyng the ſoule: the teſtimonie of the Lord is ſure, and geueth wiſdome vnto the ſimple.

8 The ſtatutes of the Lorde are ryght, and reioyce the hart: the commaundement of the Lord is pure, and geueth lyght vnto the eyes.

9 The feare of the Lorde is cleane, and endureth for euer: the iudgementes of the Lord are true, and ryghteous altogeather.

10 More to be deſired are they then golde, yea then muche fyne golde: ſweeter alſo then hony, and the hony combe.

11 Moreouer, by them is thy ſeruant taught: and in keepyng of them there is great rewarde.

12 Who can tell howe oft he offendeth? O cleanſe thou me from my ſecrete faultes.

13 Keepe thy ſeruaunt alſo from preſumptuous ſinnes, leſt they geat the dominion ouer me: ſo ſhall I be vndefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

14 Let the woordes of my mouth, and the meditation of my hart: be (alway) acceptable in thy ſight.

15 O Lorde: my strength and my redeemer.

Exaudiat te Dominus. Psalm xx.

1 THE Lord heare thee in the day of trouble: the name of the God of Iacob defende thee.
2 Sende thee helpe from the sanctuarie: and strength thee out of Sion.
3 Remember all thy offerynges: and accept thy burnt sacrifice.
4 Graunt thee thy hartes desire: and fulfyll all thy mynde.
5 We wyll reioyce in thy saluation, & triumphe in the name of the Lorde our God: the Lorde perfourme all thy petitions.
6 Nowe knowe I that the Lord helpeth his annoynted, and wyl heare him from his holy heauen: euen with the wholsome strength of his ryght hande.
7 Some put their trust in charets, and some in horses: but we wyl remember the name of the Lorde our God.
8 They are brought downe and fallen: but we are ryssen and stande vpryght.
9 Saue Lord, and heare vs, O kyng of heauen: when we call vpon thee.

Domine in virtute. Psal. xxi.

1 THE kyng shall reioyce in thy strength, O Lorde: exceedyng glad shall he be of thy saluation.
2 Thou hast geuen hym his hartes desire: and hast not denyed hym the requeste of his lippes.
3 For thou shalt preuent hym with the blessinges of goodnesse: and shalt set a crowne of pure golde vpon his head.
4 He asked lyfe of thee, and thou gauest hym a long lyfe: euen for euer and euer.
5 His honour is great in thy saluation: glorie and great worshyp shalt thou lay vpon hym.
6 For thou shalt gene hym euerlastyng felicitie: and make hym glad with the ioy of thy countenaunce.
7 And why? because the kyng putteth his trust in the Lorde: and in the mercy of the most hyghest, he shall not miscarie.
8 All thyne enimies shal feele thy hande: thy ryght hande shall fynde out them that hate thee.
9 Thou shalt make them lyke a fierie ouen in tyme of thy wrath: the Lord shal destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.
10 Their fruite shalt thou roote out of the earth: and their seede from among the children of men.
11 For they intended mischiefe against thee: and imagined suche a deuice as they are not able to perfourme.
12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight: and the strings of thy bow shalt thou make redy against the face of them.
13 Be thou exalted Lorde in thyne owne strength: so wyll we sing and prayse thy power.

1 MY God my God (looke vpon me) *why hast thou forsaken me: and art so farre from my health, and from the wordes of my complaynt? Euening prayer. Mat. 27. 46. Mar. 15. 34.
2 O my GOD, I crye in the day tyme, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest.
3 And thou continuest holy: O thou worshyp of Israel.
4 Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou diddest deliuer them.
5 They called vpon thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.
6 But as for me, I am a worme, and no man: a very scorne of men, and the outcast of the people.
7 *All they that see me, laugh me to scorne: they shoote out their lippes, and shake their head, saying, Mat. 27. 39

9 But thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe: thou wast my hope when I hanged yet vpon my mothers breastes.
10 I haue been left vnto thee euer since I was borne: thou art my God, euen from my mothers wombe.
11 O goe not from me, for trouble is harde at hande: and there is none to helpe me.
12 Many Oxen are come about me: fatte bulles of Basan close me in on euery side.
13 They gape vppon me with their mouthes: as it were a rampyng and roaryng Lion.
14 I am powred out lyke water, and all my bones are out of ioynt: my hart also in the myddest of my body is euen lyke melting wax.
15 My strength is dryed vp lyke a potshard, and my tongue cleaueth to my gummes: and thou shalt bryng me into the dust of death.

23 O prayse the Lorde ye that feare him: magnifye him all ye of the seede of Iacob, and feare him all ye of the seede of Israel.
24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the lowe estate of the poore, he hath not hyd his face from him: but when he called vnto him, he heard him.
25 My prayse is of thee in the great congregation: my vowes wyl I perfourme in the sight of them that feare him.
26 The poore shall eate and be satisfyed: they that seeke after the Lorde, shall prayse him, your hart shal liue for euer.
27 All the endes of the worlde shal remember themselues, and be turned vnto the Lorde: and all the kinredes of the nations shall woorshyp before him.
28 For the kingdome is the Lordes: and he is the gouernour among the people.
29 All suche as be fat vpon earth: haue eaten and woorshipped.
30 All they that goe downe to the dust shall kneele before him: and no man hath quickned his owne soule.
31 My seede shall serue him: they shalbe counted vnto the Lorde for a generation.
32 They shall come, and the heauens shall declare his righteousnesse: vnto a people that shalbe borne, whō the lord hath made.

Ad te domine. Psalm xxv.

1 VNto thee, O Lorde, wyll I lyft vp my soule, my God, I haue put my trust in thee: O let me not be confounded, neither let myne enimies triumph ouer me.
2 For all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed: but such as transgresse without a cause, shalbe put to confusion.
3 Shew me thy wayes, O Lord: and teache me thy pathes.
4 Leade me foorth in thy trueth, and learne me: for thou art the God of my saluation, in thee hath been my hope all the day long.
5 Cal to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies: and thy louing kindnesse whiche haue been euer of olde.
6 Oh remember not the sinnes and offences of my youth: but according to thy mercy thinke thou vppon me (O Lorde) for thy goodnesse.

7 Gracious

7 Gracious and righteous is the Lord: therfore wyll he teache sinners in the way.
8 Them that be meeke shall he guide in iudgement; and such as be gentle, them shal he learne his way.
9 All the pathes of the Lorde are mercy and trueth: vnto suche as keepe his couenaunt and his testimonies.
10 For thy names sake, O Lorde: be mercifull vnto my sinne, for it is great.
11 What man is he that feareth the Lorde: him shall he teache in the way that he shall chuse.

15 Turne thee vnto me, and haue mercie vpon me: for I am desolate, and in miserie.
16 The sorowes of my hart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my troubles.
17 Looke vpon myne aduersitie and miserie: and forgeue me all my sinne.

12 My foote standeth ryght: I wyll prayse the Lorde in the congregation.

Dominus illuminatio. Psalm xxvii.

1 THE Lord is my lyght, and my saluation, whom then shall I feare? the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom then shall I be afraide? Euenyng prayer.
2 When the wicked (euen myne enimies and my foes) came vpon me to eate vp my flesh: they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an host of men were layd against me, yet shall not my hart be afraide: and though there rose vp warre against me, yet wyll I put my trust in him.
4 One thing haue I desyred of the Lorde, which I wyl perfourme: euen that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the dayes of my lyfe, to behold the fayre beautie of the Lorde, and to visite his temple.
5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle: yea in the secrete place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me vp vpon a rocke of stone.
6 And nowe shall he lyft vp myne head: aboue myne enimies round about me.
7 Therefore wyl I offer in his dwellyng an oblation with great gladnesse: I wyl syng, and speake prayses vnto the Lorde.
8 Hearken vnto my voyce, O Lorde, when I crye vnto thee: haue mercie vpon me, and heare me.
9 My hart hath talked of thee, seeke ye my face: thy face Lorde wyll I seeke.
10 O hide not thou thy face from me: nor cast thy seruant away in displeasure.
11 Thou hast been my succour, leaue me not: neyther forsake me, O God of my saluation.
12 When my father and my mother forsake me: the Lorde taketh me vp.
13 Teache me thy way, O Lorde: and leade me in the right way, because of myne enimies.
14 Deliuer me not ouer into the wyl of mine aduersaries: for there are false witnesses ryssen vp against me, & suche as speake wrong.
15 I should vtterly haue fainted: but that I beleeue verily to see the goodnesse of the Lorde in the land of the liuing.

12 Thou haſt turned my heauyneſſe into ioy: thou haſt put of my ſackcloth, and girded me with gladneſſe.

13 Therfore ſhal euery good man ſing of thy prayſe without ceaſſyng: O my God, I wil geue thankes vnto thee for euer.

In te domine ſperaui. Pſalm.xxxi.

1 IN thee, O Lorde, haue I put my truſt: let me neuer be put to confuſion, deliuer me in thy ryghteouſneſſe.

2 Bowe downe thine eare to me: make haſte to deliuer me.

3 And be thou my ſtrong rocke, & the houſe of defence: that thou mayeſt ſaue me.

4 For thou art my ſtrong rocke, & my caſtle: be thou alſo my guyde, and leade me for thy names ſake.

5 Drawe me out of the net that they haue laid priuily for me: for thou art my ſtrength.

*Luk.23.46 6 *Into thy handes I commende my spirit: for thou hast redeemed me, O Lorde, thou God of trueth.

7 I haue hated them that holde of superstitious vanities: and my trust hath been in the Lorde.

8 I wyll be glad, and reioyce in thy mercy: for thou hast consydered my trouble, & hast knowen my soule in aduersities.

9 Thou hast not shut me vp into the hande of the enimie: but hast set my feete in a large roome.

10 Haue mercy vpon me, O Lorde, for I am in trouble: and myne eye is consumed for very heauinesse, yea my soule, and my body.

11 For my lyfe is waren old with heauynes: and my yeeres with mournyng.

12 My strength kayleth me, be cause of myne iniquitie: and my bones are consumed.

13 I became a reproofe among all myne enimies, but specially among my neyghbours: & they of myne acquaintance were afrayde of me, and they that dyd see me without, conueyghed them selues from me.

14 I am cleane forgotten as a dead man out of mynde: I am become lyke a broken vessel.

15 For I haue hearde the blasphemie of the multitude: and feare is on euery side, while they conspire togeather agaynst me, and take their counsayle to take away my lyfe.

16 But my hope hath been in thee, O Lorde: I haue sayde, thou art my God.

17 My tyme is in thy hand, deliuer me from the hande of myne enimies: and from them that persecute me.

18 Shewe thy seruaunt the lyght of thy countenaunce: and saue me for thy mercies sake.

19 Let me not be confounded, O Lorde, for I haue called vpon thee: let the vngodly be put to confusion, and be put to silence in the graue.

20 Let the lyeing lippes be put to silence: whiche cruelly, disdaynefully, and despitefully speake agaynst the ryghteous.

21 O how plentiful is thy goodnesse which thou hast layde vp for them that feare thee: and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, euē before the sonnes of men!

22 Thou shalt hyde them priuily by thyne owne presence, from the prouokyng of all men: thou shalt keepe them secretely in thy tabernacle, from the stryfe of tongues.

23 Thankes be to the Lord: for he hath shewed me maruelous great kyndnesse in a strong citie.

24 And when I made hast, I sayde: I am cast out of the sight of thyne eyes.

25 Neuertheless, thou hearddest the voyce of my prayer: when I cryed vnto thee.

26 O loue the Lord al ye his saintes: for the Lord preserueth them that are faythful, and plenteously rewardeth the proude doer.

27 Be strong and he shal stablish your hart: all ye that put your trust in the Lorde.

Beati quorum. Psal.xxxii.

1 BLessed is he whose *vnrighteousnesse is forgeuen: and whose sinne is couered. Euening prayer. *Rom.4.7.

2 Blessed is the man vnto whom the lord imputeth no sinne: and in whose spirite there is no guyle.

3 For whyle I held my tongue: my bones consumed away, through my dayly complaynyng.

4 For thy hande is heauy vpon me day and nyght: and my moysture is like the drought in sommer.

5 I wyl knowledge my sinne vnto thee: and myne vnryghteousnesse haue I not hyd.

6 *I sayde, I wyll confesse my sinnes vnto the Lord: and so thou forgauest the wickednesse of my sinne. *Esai.65.24

7 For this shal euery one that is godly make his prayer vnto thee, in a tyme when thou mayest be founde: but in the great water flooddes, they shall not come nygh hym.

8 Thou art a place to hyde me in, thou shalt preserue me from trouble: thou shalt compasse me about with songes of deliuerance.

9 I wyll enfourme thee, and teache thee in the way wherein thou shalt goe: and I wil guyde thee with myne eye.

10 Be ye not lyke to horse and mule whiche haue no vnderstandyng: whose mouthes must be holden with byt and bridle, least they fall vpon thee.

11 Great plagues remayne for the vngodly: but who so putteth his trust in the Lorde, mercy imbraceth hym on euery syde.

12 Be glad, O ye ryghteous, and reioyce in the Lord: and be ioyfull all ye that are true of hart.

Exultate iusti. Psalm.xxxiii.

1 REioyce in the Lorde, O ye ryghteous: for it becommeth well the iuste to be thankfull.

2 Prayse the Lorde with Harpe: sing Psalmes vnto hym with the Lute, and instrument of ten strynges.

3 Syng vnto the Lorde a newe songue: sing prayses lustily (vnto hym) with a good courage.

4 *For the woorde of the Lorde is true: and all his woorkes are faythful.
5 He loueth righteousnesse and iudgement: the earth is ful of the goodnesse of the Lord.
6 By the woorde of the Lorde were the heauens made: and all the hostes of them by the breath of his mouth.
7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as it were vppon an heape: and layeth vp the deepe as in a treasure house.
8 Let all the earth feare the Lorde: stande in awe of hym, all ye that dwel in the woorlde.
9 *For he spake, and it was doone: he commaunded, and it stoode fast.
10 The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: and maketh the deuices of the people to be of none effecte, (and casteth out the counsel of princes.)
11 The counsell of the Lorde shal endure for euer: and the thoughtes of his hart from generation to generation.
12 Blessed are the people whose God is the Lorde Iehouah: and blessed are the folke that haue chosen hym to be their inheritance.
13 The Lorde looked downe from heauen, and beheld all the children of men: from the habitation of his dwelling, he consydereth all them that dwel in the earth.
14 He fashioneth all the hartes of them: and vnderstandeth all their woorkes.
15 There is no kyng that can be saued by the multitude of an host: neyther is anye mightie man delyuered by muche strength.
16 An horse is counted but a vayne thyng to saue a man: neyther shal he delyuer anye man by his great strength.
17 Beholde, the eye of the Lorde is vppon them that feare hym: and vpon them that put their trust in his mercie.
18 To delyuer their soules from death: and to feede them in the tyme of dearth.
19 Our soule hath patiently tarried for the Lorde: for he is our helpe, and our shielde.
20 For our hart shal reioyce in hym: because we haue hoped in his holy name.
21 Let thy mercyfull kyndenesse (O Lorde) be vpon vs: lyke as we haue put our trust in thee.

Benedicam Dominum. Psalm. xxxiii.

1 I Wyll alwaye geue thankes vnto the Lorde: his prayse shall euer be in my mouth:
2 My soule shal make her boast of the Lord: the humble shall heare thereof, and be glad.
3 O prayse the Lorde with me: and let vs magnifie his name together.
4 I sought the Lord, and he heard me: yea, he delyuered me out of al my feare.
5 They had an eye vnto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.
6 Loe, the poore cryeth, and the Lorde heareth hym: yea and saueth hym out of al his troubles.
7 The angel of the Lord tarrieth rounde about them that feare hym: and delyuereth them.
8 O taste and see howe gracious the Lorde is: blessed is the man that trusteth in hym.
9 O feare the Lorde ye that be his saintes: for they that feare hym, lacke nothyng.
10 The Lions doo lacke, and suffer hunger: but they that seeke the Lorde: shall want no maner of thyng that is good.
11 Come ye chyldren, and hearken vnto me: I wyll teache you the feare of the Lorde.
12 *What man is he that lusteth to lyue, and woulde fayne see good dayes: kepe thy tongue from euyl, and thy lippes that they speake no guyle. *1.Pe.3.10.
13 Eschewe euyl, and doo good: seke peace, and ensue it.
14 *The eyes of the Lord are ouer the ryghteous: and his eares are open vnto their prayers. *Ecl.25.22.
15 The countenance of the Lord is agaynst them that doo euyl: to roote out the remembraunce of them from of the earth.
16 The ryghteous crye, and the Lorde heareth them: and delyuereth them out of all their troubles.
17 The Lorde is nygh vnto them that are of a contrite hart: and wyl saue suche as be of an humble spirite.
18 Great are the troubles of the ryghteous: but the Lorde delyuereth hym out of all.
19 He keepeth all his bones: so that not one of them is broken.
20 But myschiefe shal slay the vngodlye: and they that hate the ryghteous shalbe desolate.
21 The Lorde delyuereth the soules of his seruantes: and all they that put their trust in hym, shal not be destitute.

Iudica domine nocentes. Psalm xxxv.

1 PLeade thou my cause, O Lord, with them that stryue with me: and fyght thou against them that fyght against me. Mornyng prayer.
2 Laye hande vpon the shielde and buckler: and stande vp to helpe me.
3 Bryng foorth the speare, and stop the way against agaynst them that persecute me: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backe, and brought to confusion, that imagine mischeefe for me.

5 Let them be as the dust before the winde: and the angel of the Lord scattering them.

6 Let their way be darke and slipperie: and let the angel of the Lorde persecute them.

7 For they haue priuily layd their net to destroy me without a cause: yea euen without a cause haue they made a pit for my soule.

8 Let a sodayne destruction come vpon hym vnawares, and his nette that he hath layde priuily, eate hym selfe: that he may fall into his owne mischeefe.

9 And my soule be ioyfull in the Lorde: it shall reioyce in his saluation.

10 All my bones shall say, Lorde, who is like vnto thee, whiche deliuerest the poore from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poore, and him that is in miserie, from him that spoyleth him.

11 False witnesse dyd ryse vp: they layde to my charge thinges that I knewe not.

12 They rewarded me euyll for good: to the great discomfort of my soule.

13 Nouertheless, when they were sicke, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soule with fastyng: and my prayer shall turne into myne owne bosome.

14 I behaued mee selfe as though it hadde been my freende or my brother: I went heauily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in myne aduersitie they reioyced, and gathered them togeather: yea, the very abiectes came togeather against me vnawares, making mowes at me, and ceassed not.

16 With the flatterers were bulle mockers: which gnashed vpon me with their teeth.

17 Lorde, howe long wylt thou looke vpon this: O deliuer my soule from the calamities whiche they bring on me, and my darling from the Lions.

18 So wyl I geue thee thankes in the great congregation: I wyll prayse thee among much people.

19 O let not them that are myne enimies triumph ouer me vngodly: neither let them wincke with their eyes that hate me without a cause.

*Ioh.15.25.

20 And why? they? communyng is not for peace: but they imagine deceitful wordes against them that are quiet in the land.

21 They gaped vpō me with their mouthes, and sayde: fye on thee, fye on thee, we sawe it with our eyes.

22 This thou hast seene, O Lord: hold not thy tongue then, goe not farre from me, O Lorde.

23 Awake and stand vp to iudge my quarel: auenge thou my cause, my GOD and my Lorde.

24 Iudge me, O Lorde my God, according to thy righteousnesse: and let them not triumph ouer me.

25 Let them not say in their hartes, there, there, so woulde we haue it: neyther let them say, we haue deuoured him.

26 Let them be put to confusion and shame togeather that reioyce at my trouble: let them be clothed with rebuke and dishonor, that boast them selues against me.

27 Let them be glad and reioyce that fauour my righteous dealyng: yea let them say alway, blessed be the Lorde, which hath pleasure in the prosperitie of his seruant.

28 And as for my tongue, it shalbe talkyng of thy righteousnesse: and of thy prayse all the day long.

Dixit iniustus. Psalm.xxxvi.

1 MY hart sheweth me the wickednesse of the vngodly: that there is no feare of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth him selfe in his owne sight: vntyl his abominable sinne be found out.

3 The wordes of his mouth are vnrighteous, and full of deceyte: he hath left of to behaue him selfe wysely, and to doo good.

4 He imagineth mischeefe vpon his bed, and hath set him selfe in no good way: neyther dooth he abhorre any thing that is euyll.

5 Thy mercie, O Lorde, reacheth vnto the heauen: and thy faythfulnesse vnto the cloudes.

6 Thy righteousnesse standeth like ye strong mountaynes: thy iudgementes are like the great deepe.

7 Thou Lorde shalt saue both man & beast, howe excellent is thy mercy, O God: and the chyldren of men shall put their trust vnder the shadowe of thy wynges.

8 They shalbe satisfied with the plenteousnesse of thy house: and thou shalt geue them drinke of thy pleasures, as out of the riuer.

9 For with thee is the well of lyfe: and in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue thy louing kindnesse vnto them that knowe thee: and thy righteousnesse vnto them that are true of hart.

11 O let not the foote of pryde come against me: and let not the hand of the vngodly cast cast me downe.

12 There are they fallen (all) that worke wickednesse: they are cast downe, and shal not be able to stande.

Noli emulari. Psalm.xxxvii.

Euenyng prayer. Pro.23.17. and.24.1.

1 FRET *not thee selfe because of the vngodlye: neyther be thou enuious agaynst the euyl doers.
2 For they shall soone be cut downe lyke the grasse: and be withered euen as the greene herbe.
3 Put thou thy trust in the Lorde, and be dooyng good: dwel in the lande, and verily thou shalt be fedde.
4 Delyght thou in the Lorde: and he shall geue thee thy hartes desyre.
5 Commit thy way vnto the Lord, and put thy trust in hym: and he shal bryng it to passe.
6 He shal make thy ryghteousnesse as cleare as the lyght: and thy iust dealyng as the noone day.
7 Holde thee styl in the Lorde, and abide patiently vpon hym: but greeue not thee selfe at hym whose way doeth prosper, against the man that doeth after euyll counselles.
8 Leaue of from wrath, and let goe displeasure: fret not thee selfe, els shalt thou be mooued to doo euyl.
9 Wicked doers shalbe rooted out: and they that patiently abyde the Lord, those shal inherite the lande.
10 Yet a litle whyle, and the vngodly shalbe cleane gone: thou shalt loke after his place, and he shalbe away.
11 But the meeke spirited shal possesse the earth: and shalbe refreshed in the multitude of peace.
12 The vngodly secketh counsel against the iust: and gnasheth vppon hym with his teeth.
13 The Lord shall laugh hym to scorne: for he hath seene that his day is comming.
14 The vngodly haue drawē out the sword, and haue bended their bowe: to cast downe the poore and needie, and to slay such as be of a vright conuersation.
15 Their swoorde shall goe through their owne harte: and their bowe shalbe broken.
16 A small thyng that the ryghteous hath: is better then great rychesse of the vngodly.
17 For the armes of the vngodly shalbe broken: and the Lorde vpholdeth the ryghteous.
18 The Lorde knoweth the dayes of the godly: and their inheritance shall endure for euer.
19 They shal not be confounded in the perilous tyme: and in the dayes of dearth they shal haue yenough.
20 As for the vngodly they shal perishe, and the enimies of the Lord shal consume as the fat of Lambes: yea, euen as the smoke shal they consume away.
21 The vngodly borroweth, and payeth not agayne: but the ryghteous is mercyful and liberal.
22 Such as be blessed of God, shall possesse the lande: and they that be cursed of hym, shalbe rooted out.
23 The Lord ordereth a good mans going: and maketh his waye acceptable to hym selfe.
24 Though he fal, he shal not be cast away: for the Lorde vpholdeth hym with his hande.
25 *I haue been young, and nowe am olde: and yet sawe I neuer ỹ righteous forsaken, nor his seede beggyng their bread. *Eccl.2.15.
26 The ryghteous is euer mercyfull, and lendeth: and his seede is blessed.
27 Flee from euyll, and doo the thyng that is good: and dwel for euermore.
28 For the Lorde loueth the thyng that is vright: he forsaketh not his that be godlye, but they are preserued for euer.
29 The vngheous shalbe punyshed: as for the seede of the vngodlye, it shalbe rooted out.
30 The ryghteous shall inherite the lande: and dwel therein for euer.
31 *The mouth of the vngheous is exercised in wysedome: and his tongue wyll be talkyng of iudgement. *Esai.51.7.
32 The lawe of his God is in his hart: and his goyng shal not slyde.
33 The vngodly seeth the ryghteous: and seeketh occasion to slay hym.
34 The Lorde wyl not leaue hym in his hand: nor condemne him whē he is iudged.
35 Hope thou in the Lorde, and keepe his way, and he shall promote thee, that thou shalt possesse the lande: when the vngodlye shal perysshe, thou shalt see it.
36 I mee selfe haue seene the vngodlye in great power: and flourysshyng lyke a greene bay tree.
37 And I went by, and loe he was gone: I sought hym, but his place coulde no where be founde.
38 Keepe innocencie, and take heede vnto the thyng that is vright: for that shal bryng a man peace at the last.
39 As for the transgressours, they shall perysshe together: and the ende of the vngodly is, they shalbe rooted out at the last.
40 But the saluation of the ryghteous commeth of the Lorde: whiche is also their strength in the tyme of trouble.

41 And the Lorde shal stande by them, and saue them: he shall delyuer them from the vngodly, and shall saue them, because they put their trust in hym.

Domine ne in furore Psalm.xxxviii.

Mornyng prayer.

1 PVT me not to rebuke (O Lord) in thyne anger: neyther chasten me in thy heauie displeasure.

2 For thyne arrowes stycke fast in me: and thy hande presseth me sore.

3 There is no health in my flesshe, because of thy displeasure: neyther is there any rest in my bones, by reason of my synne.

4 For my wyckednesses are gone ouer my head: and are lyke a sore burden too heauie for me to beare.

5 My woundes styncke and are corrupte: through my foolyshnesse.

6 I am brought into so great trouble and miserie: that I goe mournyng all the day long.

7 For my loynes are fylled with a sore disease: & there is no whole part in my body.

8 I am feeble and sore smytten: I haue rored for the very disquietnesse of my hart.

9 Lord, thou knowest al my desyre: and my gronyng is not hyd from thee.

10 My hart panteth, my strength hath fayled me: and the lyght of myne eyes is gone from me.

11 My louers and my neighbours did stand looking vpon my trouble: and my kynsmen stoode a farre of.

12 They also that sought after my lyfe, laid snares for me: and they that went about to doo me euyll, talked of wyckednesse, and imagined deceyte al the day long.

13 As for me, I was lyke a deafe man, and hearde not: and as one that is dumbe, whiche doeth not open his mouth.

14 I became euē as a man that heareth not: and in whose mouth are no reprooues.

15 For in thee, O lord, haue I put my trust: thou shalt answeare for me, O Lorde my God.

16 I haue requyred that they (euen myne enimies) shoulde not triumphe ouer me: for when my foote slypt, they reioyced greatlye agaynst me.

17 And I truely am set in the plague: and my heauynesse is euer in my syght.

18 For I wyl confesse my wyckednesse: and be sorie for my synne.

19 But myne enimies liue, and are mighty: and they that hate me wrongfully, are many in number.

20 They also that reward euyl for good, are agaynst me: because I folowe the thyng that good is.

21 Forsake me not, O Lorde my God: be not thou farre from me.

22 Haste thee to helpe me: O Lorde God of my saluation.

Dixi, custodiam. Psalm.xxxix.

1 I Sayde, I wyll take heede to my wayes: that I offende not in my tongue.

2 I wil kepe my mouth (as it were with a bridle:) whyle the vngodlye is in my syght.

3 I helde my tongue, and spake nothyng: I kept scilence, yea euen from good wordes, but it was payne and greefe to me.

4 My hart was whot within me, and while I was thus musyng, the fyre kyndeled: and at the last I spake with my tongue.

5 Lorde, let me knowe myne ende, and the number of my dayes: that I may be certified howe long I haue to lyue.

6 Beholde, thou hast made my dayes as it were a span long, and myne age is euen as nothyng in respect of thee: and verylye euery man lyuyng is altogeather vanitie.

7 For man walketh in a vaine shadowe, and disquieteth hym selfe in vayne: he heapeth vp ryches, and can not tel who shal geather them.

8 And nowe Lorde what is my hope: truely my hope is euen in thee.

9 Delyuer me from all myne offences: and make me not a rebuke vnto the foolyshe.

10 I became dumbe, and opened not my mouth: for it was thy doyng.

11 Take thy plague away from me: I am euen consumed by the meanes of thy heauie hande.

12 When thou with rebukes doest chasten man for synne, thou makest his beautie to consume away lyke as it were a moth fretting a garment: euery man therfore is but vanitie.

13 Heare my prayer, O Lorde, & with thyne eares consyder my callyng: holde not thy peace at my teares.

14 For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as al my fathers were.

15 Oh spare me a litle, that I may recouer my strength: before I goe hence, and be no more seene.

Expectans expectaui. Psalm.xl.

1 I Wayted patiently for the Lorde: and he enclyned vnto me, and hearde my callyng.

2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the myre and clay: and set my feete vpon the rocke, and ordered my goinges.
3 And he hath put a newe song in my mouth: euen a thankesgeuing vnto our God.
4 Many shal see it, and feare: and shal put their trust in the Lorde.
5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lorde: and turned not vnto the proude, and to such as goe about with lyes.
6 O Lorde my God, great are thy woonderous woorkes which thou hast done: lyke as be also thy thoughtes whiche are to vs warde, and yet there is no man that ordereth them vnto thee.
7 If I woulde declare them, and speake of them: they shoulde be moe then I am able to expresse.
Heb. 10. 5. 8 *Sacrifice and meate offering thou wouldest not haue: but mine eares thou hast opened.
9 Burnt offerynges and sacrifices for sinne hast thou not requyred: then sayde I, loe I come.
10 In the volume of the booke it is written of me, that I shoulde fulfyl thy wyl, O my God: I am content to doo it, yea, thy lawe is within my hart.
11 I haue declared thy ryghteousnesse in the great congregation: loe I wyl not refraine my lippes, O Lord, and that thou knowest.
12 I haue not hid thy righteousnesse within my hart: my talking hath been of thy trueth, and of thy saluation.
13 I haue not kept backe thy louyng mercie and trueth: from the great congregation.
14 Withdrawe not thou thy mercie from me, O Lorde: let thy louyng kyndnesse and thy trueth alway preserue me.
15 For innumerable troubles are come about me, my sinnes haue taken suche holde vpon me, that I am not able to loke vp: yea they are moe in number then the heares of mine head, and my hart hath fayled me.
16 O Lord, let it be thy pleasure to deliuer me: make haste (O Lorde) to helpe me.
17 Let them be ashamed and confounded together, that seeke after my soule to destroy it: let them be driuen backwarde, and put to rebuke that wishe me euyl.
18 Let them be desolate and rewarded with shame, that say vnto me: fye vpon thee, fye vpon thee.
19 Let al those that seeke thee, be ioyful and glad in thee: and let suche as loue thy saluation, say alway, the Lorde be praysed.
20 As for me, I am poore and needie: bue the Lorde careth for me.
21 Thou art my helper & redeemer: make no long tarying, O my God.

Ceatus qui intelligit. Psalme. xli.

1 BLessed is he that considereth ỹ poore (and needie:) the Lorde shal deliuer hym in the tyme of trouble. Euenyng prayer.
2 The Lorde preserue him and keepe him alyue, that he may be blessed vpon earth: and deliuer not thou him into the wyl of his enimies.
3 The Lorde comfort hym when he lyeth sicke vpon his bed: make thou al his bed in his sickenesse.
4 I sayde, Lorde be mercifull vnto me: heale my soule, for I haue sinned agaynst thee.
5 Mine enimies speake euyl of me: when shal he dye, and his name perishe?
6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanitie: and his hart conceyueth falsehood within hym selfe, and when he commeth foorth, he telleth it.
7 All mine enimies whisper togeather agaynst me: euen agaynst me doo they imagine this euyl.
8 Let the sentence of giltinesse proceede against him: and nowe that he lyeth, let him ryse vp no more.
9 *Yea, euen mine owne familier freende (whom I trusted:) which did also eate of my bread, hath layde great wayte for me. *Ioh. 13. 18. Act. 1. 16.
10 But be thou merciful vnto me, O Lord: rayse thou me vp agayne, and I shal reward them.
11 By this I knowe thou fauourest me: that myne enimie doeth not triumphe agaynst me.
12 And when I am in my health, thou vpholdest me: and shalt set me before thy face for euer.
13 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: worlde without ende, Amen.

Quemadmodum. Psalme. xlii.

1 LYke as the hart desyreth the water brookes: so longeth my soule after thee, O God.
2 My soule is a thirst for God, yea euen for the lyuing God: when shal I come to appeare before the presence of God?
3 My teares haue been my meate day and nyght: whyle they dayly say vnto me, where is nowe thy God?
4 Nowe when I thinke therupon, I powre out my hart by mee selfe: for I went with the multitude, and brought them foorth into the house of God.
5 In the voyce of prayse and thankesgeuing: among suche as keepe holy day.
6 Why art thou so ful of heauinesse (O my soule:) and why art thou so vnquieted within me?

7 Put thy trust in God: for I wyl yet geue hym thankes for the helpe of his countenance.

8 My God, my soule is vexed within me: therefore wyl I remember thee concerning the lande of Jordane, and the litle hyl of Hermon.

9 One deepe calleth another, because of the noyse of the water pipes: al thy waues and stormes are gone ouer me.

10 The Lorde hath graunted his louyng kindnesse on the day time: and in the night season did I syng of him, and made my prayer vnto the God of my lyfe.

11 I wyl say vnto the God of my strength, why hast thou forgotten me: why goe I thus heauily while ỹ enimie oppresseth me?

12 My bones are smitten a sunder, as with a swoorde: whyle mine enimies (that trouble me) cast me in the teeth.

13 Namely, whyle they say dayly vnto me: where is nowe thy God?

14 Why art thou so vexed (O my soule:) and why art thou so disquieted within me?

15 O put thy trust in God: for I wyll yet thanke him, whiche is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

1 GIue sentence with me, O God, and defende my cause agaynst the vngodly people: O deliuer me from the deceytful and wycked man.

2 For thou art the GOD of my strength, why hast thou put me from thee: and why goe I so heauily, whyle the enimie oppresseth me?

3 Oh sende out thy lyght and thy trueth, that they may leade me: and bring me vnto thy holy hyl, and to thy dwellyng.

4 And that I may goe vnto the aulter of God, euen vnto the GOD of my ioy and gladnesse: and vpon the harpe wyl I geue thankes vnto thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou so heauie O my soule: and why art thou so disquieted within me?

6 O put thy trust in God: for I wyl yet geue him thankes, which is the helpe of my countenance, and my God.

Mornyng prayer.

1 WE haue hearde with our eares, O GOD, our fathers haue tolde vs: what thou hast done in their tyme of olde.

2 Howe thou hast dryuen out the heathen with thy hande, and planted them in: howe thou hast destroyed the nations, and cast them out.

3 For they gate not the lande in possession through theyr owne swoorde: neyther was it theyr owne arme that helped them.

4 But thy ryght hande and thine arme, and the lyght of thy countenaunce: because thou hadst a fauour vnto them.

5 Thou art my kyng (O God:) sende helpe vnto Jacob.

6 Through thee wil we ouerthrowe our enimies: and in thy name wyl we treade them vnder that ryse vp agaynst vs.

7 For I wyl not trust in my bowe: it is not my swoorde that shal helpe me.

8 But it is thou that sauest vs from our enimie: and puttest them to confusion that hate vs.

9 We make our boast of God all day long: and wyl prayse thy name for euer.

10 But nowe thou art farre of, and puttest vs to confusion: and goest not forth with our armies.

11 Thou makest vs to turne our backes vpon our enimies: so that they whiche hate vs, spoyle our goodes.

12 Thou lettest vs be eaten vp like sheepe: and hast scattered vs among the heathen.

13 Thou sellest thy people for nought: and takest no money for them.

14 Thou makest vs to be rebuked of our neyghbours: to be laughed to scorne, and had in derision of them that are rounde about vs.

15 Thou makest vs to be a bywoord among the heathen: and that the people shake theyr heades at vs.

16 My confusion is dayly before me: and the shame of my face hath couered me.

17 For the voyce of the slaunderer and blasphemer: for the enimie and auenger.

18 And though al this be come vpon vs, yet doo we not forgeat thee: nor behaue our selues frowardly in thy couenant.

19 Our hart is not turned backe: neyther our steppes gone out of thy way.

20 No not when thou hast smitten vs into the place of Dragons: and couered vs with the shadow of death.

21 If we haue forgotten the name of our God, and holden vp our handes to any strange God: shal not God search it out? for he knoweth the very secretes of the hart.

22 *For thy sake also are we kylled all the day long: and are counted as sheepe appoynted to be slayne. *Rom. 8. 36.

23 Vp Lorde, why sleepest thou: awake and be be not absent from vs for euer.

24 Wherfore hydest thou thy face: and forgettest our miserie and trouble?
25 For our soule is brought lowe, euen vnto the dust: our bellye cleaueth vnto the grounde.
26 Aryse and helpe vs: and delyuer vs for thy mercies sake.

Eructauit cor meum. Psalm.xlv.

1 My hart is indytyng of a good matter: I speake of the thyngs which I haue made vnto the kyng.
2 My tongue is the penne: of a redy writer.
3 Thou art fayrer then the chyldren of men: ful of grace are thy lippes, because GOD hath blessed thee for euer.
4 Gyrde thee with thy swoorde vppon thy thygh, O thou moste myghtie: accordyng to thy worshyp and renowme.
5 Good lucke haue thou with thyne honor: ryde on, because of the woorde of trueth, of meekenesse, and ryghteousnesse, & thy ryght hand shall teache thee terrible thynges.
6 Thyne arrowes are very sharpe, and the people shalbe subdued vnto thee: euen in the myddes among the kynges enimies.
7 *Thy seate (O God) endureth for euer: the Scepter of thy kyngdome is a ryght Scepter. *Heb.1.8.
8 Thou hast loued ryghteousnesse, and hated iniquitie: wherfore God (euē thy God) hath annoynted thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy felowes.
9 All thy garmentes smel of Myrrhe, Aloes, and Cassia: out of the Ivorie palaces, wherby they haue made thee glad.
10 Kynges daughters were among thy honourable women: vpon thy ryght hand did stande the Queene in a vesture of golde (wrought about with diuers colours.)
11 Hearken (O daughter) and consyder, enclyne thyne eare: forget also thyne owne people, and thy fathers house.
12 So shal the kyng haue pleasure in thy beautie: for he is thy Lord (God) and worshyp thou hym.
13 And the daughter of Tyre shalbe there with a gyfte: lyke as the ryche also among the people shall make their supplication before thee.
14 The kings daughter is al glorious within: her clothyng is of wrought golde.
15 She shalbe brought vnto the kyng in raiment of needle woorke: the Virgins that be her felowes shal beare her company, and shalbe brought vnto thee.
16 With ioy & gladnes shal they be brought: and shal enter into the kynges palace.
17 In steade of thy fathers thou shalt haue chyldren: whom thou mayest make princes in al landes.
18 I wyll remember thy name from one generation vnto another: therefore shall the people geue thankes vnto thee world without ende.

Deus noster refugium. Psalm.xlvi.

1 GOD is our hope and strength: a very present helpe in trouble.
2 Therefore wyl not we feare though the earth be mooued: and though the hilles be carried into the myddes of the sea.
3 Though the waters therof rage and swel: and though the mountaynes shake at the tempest of the same.
4 The ryuers of the flood therof shall make glad the citie of God: the holye place of the tabernacle of the most hyghest.
5 God is in the myddest of her, therfore shal she not be remooued; God shal helpe her, and that ryght early.
6 The Heathen make mighty adoo, and the kyngdomes are mooued: but God hath shewed his voyce, and the earth shall melt away.
7 The Lorde of hostes is with vs: the God of Jacob is our refuge.
8 O come hyther, and beholde the woorkes of the Lorde: what destruction he hath brought vpon the earth.
9 He maketh warres to ceasse in al y world: he breaketh the bowe, and knappeth the speare in sunder, and burneth the charlots in the fyre.
10 Be styl then, and knowe that I am God: I wyll be exalted among the heathen, and I wyl be exalted in the earth.
11 The Lorde of hostes is with vs: the God of Jacob is our defence.

1 O Clap your handes together (al ye people:) O syng vnto GOD with the voyce of melodie. Euenyng prayer.
2 For the Lorde is hygh, and to be feared: he is the great kyng vpon al the earth.
3 He shall subdue the people vnder vs: and the nations vnder our feete.
4 He shal choose out an heritage for vs: euen the worshyp of Jacob whom he loued.

8 God raigneth ouer the heathen: God sytteth vpon his holy seate.
9 The Princes of the people are ioyned vnto the people of the God of Abraham: for God (whiche is very hygh exalted) doeth defende the earth as it were with a shielde.

1 GReat is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the citie of our God, euen vppon his holy hyl.
2 The hyll of Sion is a fayre place, and the ioy of the whole earth: vpon the North syde lyeth the citie of the great kyng, God is wel knowen in her palaces as a sure refuge.
3 For loe, the kyngs of the earth: are geathered and gone by togeather.
4 They marueyled to see such thynges: they were astonied, and sodaynely cast downe.
5 Feare came there vpon them, and sorowe: as vpon a woman in her trauayle.
6 Thou shalt breake the shyppes of the sea: through the East wynde.
7 Lyke as we haue heard, so haue we seene in the citie of the Lord of hostes, in the citie of our God: God vpholdeth the same for euer.
8 We wayte for thy louyng kyndnesse (O God:) in the myddes of thy temple.
9 O God, according to thy name, so is thy prayse vnto the worlds end: thy right hand is ful of ryghteousnesse.
10 Let the mount Sion reioyce, and the daughters of Juda be glad: because of thy iudgementes.
11 Walke about Sion, and goe round about her: and tel the towres thereof.
12 Marke wel her bulwarks, set vp her houses: that ye may tel them that come after.
13 For this God is our God for euer & euer: he shalbe our guyde vnto death.

5 Wherefore shoulde I feare in the dayes of wyckednesse: and when the wyckednesse of my heeles compasseth me rounde about:
6 There be some that put their trust in their goodes: and boast them selues in the multitude of their ryches.
7 But no man may delyuer his brother: nor make agreement vnto God for hym.
8 For it cost more to redeeme their soules: so that he must let that alone for euer.
9 Yea, though he lyue long: and see not the graue.
10 For he seeth that wyse men also dye, and perishe togeather: as well as the ignorant and foolishe, & leaue their riches for other.
11 And yet they thinke that their houses shal continue for euer: and that their dwellyng places shal endure from one generation to another, and cal the lands after their owne names.
12 Neuertheless, man wyl not abyde in honour: seeyng he may be compared vnto the beastes that perysh, this is the way of them.
13 This is their foolishnesse: and their posteritie prayse their saying.
14 They lye in the hel lyke shepe, death gnaweth vpon them, & the ryghteous shal haue domination of them in the morning: their beautie shal consume in the sepulchre out of their dwellyng.
15 But God shal delyuer my soule from the place of hel: for he shal receyue me.
16 Be not thou afrayde though one be made ryche: or yf the glorie of his house be encreased.

1 THE Lorde, euen the most myghtie God hath spoken: and called the worlde, from the rysyng vp of the Sunne, vnto the goyng downe thereof. Morning prayer.
2 Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beautie.
3 Our God shal come, and shal not keepe silence: there shal go before hym a consuming fyre, and a mighty tempest shalbe stirred vp rounde about hym.
4 He shall call the heauen from aboue: and the earth, that he may iudge his people.

6 And the heauens shal declare his ryghteousnesse: for God is iudge hym selfe.
7 Heare, O my people, and I wyl speake: I mee selfe wyl testifie agaynst thee, O Israel, for I am God, euen thy God.
8 I wyl not reproue thee, because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt offeringes: because they were not alway before me.
9 I wyl take no bullocke out of thy house: nor bee Goates out of thy foldes.
10 For all the beastes of the Forrest are mine: and so are the cattels vppon a thousande hylles.
11 I knowe al the foules vpon the mountaynes: and the wylde beastes of the feelde are in my syght.
Psal.23.1. 12 *If I be hungry, I wyl not tel thee: for the whole worlde is mine, and all that is therein.

14 Offer vnto God thankesgeuing: and pay thy vowes vnto the most hyghest.
15 And cal vpon me in the tyme of trouble: so wyl I heare thee, and thou shalt prayse me.
16 But vnto the vngodly sayde God, why doest thou preache my lawes: and takest my couenant in thy mouth?
17 Whereas thou hatest to be reformed: and hast cast my woordes behinde thee.
18 When thou sawest a theefe, thou consentedst vnto hym: and hast been partaker with the adulterers.
19 Thou hast let thy mouth speake wickednesse: and with thy tongue thou hast set foorth deceyte.
20 Thou sattest and spakest agaynst thy brother: yea and hast slaundered thyne owne mothers sonne.
21 These thynges hast thou done, and I held my tongue, and thou thoughtest wyckedly, that I am euen suche a one as thee selfe: but I wyl reproue thee, and set before thee the thinges that thou hast done.
22 O consyder this, ye that forgeat God: lest I plucke you away, and there be none to delyuer you.
23 Who so offereth me thankes and prayse, he honoureth me: and to hym that ordereth his conuersation right, wyl I shewe the saluation of God.

Miserere mei deus. Psalme. li.

1 HAue mercie vpon me (O God) after thy great goodnesse: according vnto the multitude of thy mercies, doo away mine offences.
2 Washe me throughly from my wyckednesse: and cleanse me from my sinne.
3 For I knowledge my faultes: and my sinne is euer before me.
4 *Agaynst thee onely haue I sinned, and done this euyl in thy sight: that thou mightest be iustified in thy saying, and cleare when thou art iudged. *Rom.3.4.
5 Behold, I was shapen in wickednesse: and in sinne hath my mother conceyued me.
6 But loe, thou requyrest trueth in the inwarde partes: and shalt make me to vnderstande wysedome secretely.
7 *Thou shalt purge me with hysope, and I shalbe cleane: thou shalt washe me, and I shalbe whiter then snowe. *Leuit.14.6 Num.19.4.
8 Thou shalt make me heare of ioy & gladnesse: that the bones which thou hast broken, may reioyce.
9 Turne thy face from my sinnes: and put out al my misdeedes.
10 Make me a cleane hart (O God:) and renue a ryght spirite within me.
11 Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy spirite from me.
12 O geue me the comfort of thy helpe agayne: and stablishe me with thy free spirite.
13 Then shal I teache thy wayes vnto the wycked: and sinners shalbe conuerted vnto thee.
14 Deliuer me from blood giltinesse, O God, thou that art the God of my health: and my tongue shal sing of thy ryghteousnesse.
15 Thou shalt open my lippes, O Lorde: and my mouth shal shewe thy prayse.
16 For thou desyrest no sacrifice, els would I geue it thee: but thou delightest not in burnt offerynges.
17 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirite: a broken and a contrite hart, O God, shal thou not despyse.
18 O be fauourable and gratious vnto Sion: buylde thou the walles of Hierusalem.
19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of ryghteousnesse, with the burnt offeringes and oblations: then shal they offer young bullockes vpon thine aulter.

Quid gloriaris. Psalme. lii.

2 Whereas the goodnesse of God: endureth yet dayly.
3 Thy tongue imagineth wickednesse: and with lyes thou cuttest lyke a sharpe rasor.
4 Thou hast loued vngratiousnesse more

5 Thou haſt loued to ſpeake al wordes that may doo hurt: O thou falſe tongue.

6 Therefore ſhal God deſtroy thee for euer: he ſhal take thee and plucke thee out of thy dwellyng, and roote thee out of the lande of the lyuing.

7 The ryghteous alſo ſhal ſee this, & feare: and ſhal laugh hym to ſcorne.

8 Loe, this is the man that tooke not GOD for his ſtrength: but truſted vnto the multitude of his ryches, and ſtrengthed hym ſelfe in his wyckednesſe.

9 As for me, I am lyke a greene Olyue tree in the houſe of God: my truſt is in the tender mercie of God for euer and euer.

10 I wyl alwayes geue thankes vnto thee for that thou haſt done: and I wyl hope in thy name, for thy ſaintes lyke it wel.

Euenyng prayer.

1 THE fooliſhe body hath ſayd in his hart: there is no God.

2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable in theyr wyckednesſe: there is none that doeth good.

3 God looked downe from heauen vppon the chyldren of men: to ſee if there were any that woulde vnderſtand and ſeeke after God.

4 But they are al gone out of the way, they are altogeather become abominable: there is alſo none that doeth good, no not one.

5 Are not they without vnderſtandyng that worke wyckednesſe: eating vp my people, as if they woulde eate bread, they haue not called vpon God.

6 They were afrayde where no feare was: for God hath broken the bones of hym that beſeeged thee, thou haſt put them to confuſion, becauſe God hath diſpiſed them.

7 Oh that the ſaluation were geuen vnto Iſrael out of Sion: Oh that the Lorde would deliuer his people out of captiuitie.

2 Heare my prayer, O God: and hearken vnto the wordes of my mouth.

3 For ſtrangers are ryſen vp againſt me: and tyrantes (which haue not God before theyr eyes) ſeeke after my ſoule.

4 Beholde, God is my helper: the Lorde is with them that vpholde my ſoule.

5 He ſhal reward euyl vnto mine enimies: deſtroy thou them in thy trueth.

6 An offeryng of a free hart wyl I geue thee, and prayſe thy name (O Lorde:) becauſe it is ſo comfortable.

7 For he hath deliuered me out of all my trouble: and mine eye hath ſeene his deſyre vpon myne enimies.

5 Fearefulneſſe and tremblyng are come vpon me: and an horrible dread hath ouerwhelmed me.

6 And I ſayde, O that I had wynges like a Doue: for then woulde I flee away, and be at reſt.

7 Loe, then woulde I geat me away farre of: and remayne in the wyldernesſe.

8 I woulde make haſt to eſcape: becauſe of the ſtormie winde and tempeſt.

9 Deſtroy theyr tongues (O Lorde) and diuide them: for I haue ſpyed vnryghteouſneſſe and ſtrife in the citie.

10 Day and night they goe about within the walles thereof: miſchiefe alſo and ſorowe are in the middes of it.

11 Wyckednesſe is therein: deceyte & guyle goe not out of theyr ſtreetes.

12 For it is not an open enimie that hath done me this diſhonour: for then I coulde haue borne it.

13 Neither was it mine aduerſarie that did magnifie hym ſelfe againſt me: for then (peraduenture) I woulde haue hyd mee ſelfe from hym.

2 O deliuer me from the wycked doers: and saue me from the blood thyrstie men.

3 For loe, they lye waytyng for my soule: the myghtye men are geathered against me, without any offence or fault of me, O lord.

4 They run and prepare them selues without my fault: aryse thou therefore to helpe, and beholde.

5 Stande vp (O Lorde God of hostes) thou God of Israel, to visite all the Heathen: and be not mercyfull vnto them that offende of malitious wickednesse.

6 They goe to and fro in the euenyng: they grinne like a dog, and runne about through the citie.

7 Beholde, they speake with their mouth, and swordes are in their lippes: for who doth heare?

8 But thou, O Lorde, shalt haue them in derision: and thou shalt laugh all the Heathen to scorne.

9 My strength wyl I ascribe vnto thee: for thou art the God of my refuge.

10 God sheweth me his goodnesse plenteously: and God shall let me see my desire vpon myne enimies.

11 Slay them not, least my people forget it: but scatter them abrode among thy people, and put them downe, O Lorde, our defence.

12 For the sinne of their mouth, and for the wordes of their lippes, they shalbe taken in their pryde: and why? their preaching is of cursing and lyes.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, consume them that they may perishe: and know that it is God whiche ruleth in Iacob, and vnto the endes of the worlde.

14 And in the euenyng they wyll returne: grinne lyke a dog, and wyll goe about the citie.

15 They wyll run here and there for meate: and grudge yf they be not satisfied.

16 As for me, I wyll sing of thy power, and wyll prayse thy mercye betimes in the mornyng: for thou hast ben my defence and refuge, in the day of my trouble.

17 Vnto thee (O my strength) wyll I sing: for thou, O God, art my refuge, and my mercyfull God.

Deus repulisti nos. Psalm.lx.

1 O God, thou hast cast vs out, and scattered vs abrode: thou hast also been displeased, O turne thee vnto vs agayne.

2 Thou hast mooued the land, and diuided it: heale the sores thereof, for it shaketh.

3 Thou hast shewed thy people heauy thynges: thou hast geuen vs a drynke of deadly wyne.

4 Thou hast geuen a token for such as feare thee: that they may triumph because of the trueth.

5 Therefore were thy beloued deliuered: helpe me with thy right hande, & heare me.

6 God hath spoke in his holynesse, I wyl reioyce and diuide Sichem: and meat out the valley of Sucoth.

7 Gilead is myne, and Manasses is myne: Ephraim also is the strength of my head, Iuda is my lawe geuer.

8 Moab is my washpot, ouer Edom wyll I cast out my shoe: Philistia be thou glad of me.

9 Who wyll leade me into the strong citie: who wyll bryng me into Edom?

10 Hast thou not cast vs out, O God: wylt not thou, O God, goe out with our hostes?

11 O be thou our helpe in trouble: for vayne is the helpe of man.

12 Through God we shall doo great actes: for it is he that shall treade downe our enimies.

1 HEare my crying, O God: geue eare vnto my prayer.

2 From the endes of the earth wyll I call vnto thee: when my hart is in heauynesse.

3 Oh set me vp vpō the rocke that is hygher then I: for thou hast ben my hope, and a strong towre for me agaynst the enimie.

4 I wyll dwell in thy tabernacle for euer: and my trust shalbe vnder the coueryng of thy wynges.

5 For thou, O Lorde, hast heard my desires: and hast geuen an heritage vnto those that feare thy name.

6 Thou shalt graunt the kyng a long lyfe:

lyfe: that his yeeres may endure throughout all generations.

7 He shall dwel before God for euer: O prepare thy louing mercie and faithfulnesse, that they may preserue him.

8 So wyll I alway syng prayse vnto thy name: that I may dayly perfourme my vowes.

Nonne deo. Psalm lxii.

Mornyng prayer.

1 MY soule truely wayteth still vpon GOD: for of him commeth my saluation.

2 He veryly is my strength and my saluation: he is my defence, so that I shall not greatly fall.

3 How long wyll ye imagine mischeefe agaynst euery man, ye shalbe slayne all the sort of you: yea as a totteryng wall shall ye be, and like a broken hedge.

4 Their deuice is only howe to put him out whom God wyll exalt: their delight is in lyes, they geue good woordes with their mouth, but curse with their hart.

5 Neuertheless, my soule wayte thou stylll vpon God: for my hope is in him.

6 He truely is my strength & my saluation: he is my defence, so that I shal not fall.

7 In God is my health and my glory: the rocke of my might, and in GOD is my trust.

8 O put your trust in him alway (ye people:) powre out your hartes before him, for God is our hope.

9 As for the children of men, they are but vayne, the children of men are deceitful vpon the weyghtes: they are altogether lighter then vanitie it selfe.

10 O trust not in wrong and robberie, geue not your selues vnto vanitie: yf richesse encrease, set not your hart vpon them.

11 God spake once and twyse: I haue also heard the same, that power belongeth vnto God.

Ps.16.27 Rom.2.6. 1.Cor.3.8. Galat.6.5.

12 And that thou Lorde art mercifull: *for thou rewardest euery man according to his woorke.

Deus deus meus. Psalm.lxiii.

1 O God, thou art my God: early wyll I seeke thee.

2 My soule thyrsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee: in a barren and dry lande, where no water is.

3 Thus haue I looked for thee in holinesse: that I might beholde thy power and glorie.

4 For thy louing kindnesse is better then the lyfe it selfe: my lippes shall prayse thee.

5 As long as I liue wyll I magnifye thee on this maner: and lift vp my hands in thy name.

6 My soule shalbe satisfyed euen as it were with marowe & fatnesse: when my mouth prayseth thee with ioyfull lippes.

7 Haue I not remembred thee in my bedde: and thought vppon thee when I was wakyng?

8 Because thou hast been my helper: therefore vnder the shadowe of thy wynges wyl I reioyce.

9 My soule hangeth vpon thee: thy ryght hande hath vpholden me.

10 These also that seeke the hurt of my soule: they shall goe vnder the earth.

11 Let them fall vppon the edge of the swoorde: that they may be a portion for Foxes.

12 But the kyng shall reioyce in God, all they also that sweare by him, shalbe commended: for the mouth of them that speake lyes shalbe stopped.

Exaudi deus. Psalm.lxiiii.

1 HEare my voyce, O God, in my prayer: preserue my lyfe from feare of the enmie.

2 Hide me from the gathering togeather of the frowarde: and from the insurrection of wicked doers.

3 Whiche haue whette their tongue like a swoord: and shoote out their arrowes, euen bitter woordes.

4 That they may priuily shoote at him which is perfect: sodainely doo they hit him, and feare not.

5 They courage them selues in mischeefe: and commune among them selues howe they may lay snares, and say that no man shall see them.

6 They imagine wickednesse, and practise it: that they keepe secrete among them selues euery man in the deepe of his hart.

7 But God shal sodainly shoote at them with a swift arrowe: that they shalbe wounded.

8 Yea their owne tongues shall make them fall: insomuch that who so seeth them, shal laugh them to scorne.

9 And all men that see it, shal say, this hath God done: for they shall perceiue that it is his woorke.

10 The righteous shall reioyce in the Lord, and put his trust in him: and all they that are true of hart shalbe glad.

Euenyng prayer.

1 THou, O God, art prayſed in Sion: and vnto thee ſhall the vowe be perfourmed in Hieruſalem.

2 Thou that heareſt the prayer: vnto thee ſhall al fleſhe come.

3 My miſdeedes preuayle againſt me: oh be thou merciful vnto our ſinnes.

4 Bleſſed is the man whom thou chooſeſt and receiueſt vnto thee: he ſhall dwell in thy court, and ſhalbe ſatiſfyed with the pleaſures of thy houſe, euen of thy holy temple.

5 Thou ſhalt ſhewe vs wonderful thinges in thy righteouſneſſe, O God of our ſaluation: thou that art the hope of all the endes of the earth, and of them that remayne in the brode ſea.

6 Whiche in his ſtrength ſetteth faſt the mountaynes: and is gyrded about with power.

7 Whiche ſtilleth the raging of the ſea, and the noyſe of his waues: and the madneſſe of his people.

8 They alſo that dwell in the vttermoſt partes of the earth, ſhalbe afraide at thy tokens: thou that makeſt the outgoinges of the mornyng and euenyng to prayſe thee.

9 Thou viſiteſt the earth, and bleſſeſt it: thou makeſt it very plenteous.

10 The riuer of God is full of water, thou prepareſt their corne: for ſo thou prouideſt for the earth.

11 Thou watereſt her forowes, thou ſendeſt rayne into the little valleys thereof: thou makeſt it ſoft with the drops of rayne, and bleſſeſt the encreaſe of it.

12 Thou crowneſt the yeere with thy goodneſſe: and thy cloudes drop fatneſſe.

13 They ſhall drop vpon the dwellinges of the wylderneſſe: and the little hilles ſhall reioyce on euery ſide.

14 The foldes ſhalbe full of ſheepe: the valleyes alſo ſhall ſtand ſo thicke with corne, that they ſhall laugh and ſyng.

1 OBe ioyfull in God all ye landes: ſyng prayſes vnto the honour of his name, make his prayſe to be glorious.

2 Say vnto God, O howe woonderfull art thou in thy woorkes: through the greatneſſe of thy power ſhall thyne enimies be found lyers vnto thee.

3 For all the worlde ſhall woorſhip thee: ſing of thee, and prayſe thy name.

4 O come hyther, and beholde the woorkes of GOD: howe woonderfull he is in his dooing, toward the chyldren of men.

5 He turned the ſea into drye lande: ſo that they went through the water on foote, there dyd we reioyce thereof.

6 He ruleth with his power for euer, his eyes behold the people: and ſuch as wyl not beleeue, ſhall not be able to exalte them ſelues.

7 O prayſe our God (ye people:) and make the voyce of his prayſe to be heard.

8 Which holdeth our ſoule in lyfe: and ſuffereth not our feete to ſlip.

9 For thou (O God) haſt prooued vs: thou alſo haſt tryed vs, like as ſiluer is tryed.

10 Thou broughteſt vs into the ſnare: and layedſt trouble vpon our loynes.

11 Thou ſuffredſt men to ryde ouer our heades, we went through fyre and water, and thou broughteſt vs out into a wealthie place.

12 I wil goe into thy houſe with burnt offeringes: and wyl pay thee my vowes which I promiſed with my lippes, and ſpake with my mouth when I was in trouble.

13 I wyl offer vnto thee fat burnt ſacrifyces, with the incenſe of Rammes: I wyll offer Bullockes and Goates.

14 O come hyther and hearken, all ye that feare God: and I wyl tel you what he hath done for my ſoule.

15 I called vnto him with my mouth: and gaue him prayſes with my tongue.

16 If I encline vnto wickedneſſe with my hart: the Lorde wyll not heare me.

17 But God hath heard me: and conſidered the voyce of my prayer.

18 Prayſed be God, which hath not caſt out my prayer: nor turned his mercie from me.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. lxviii.

1 LEt God arise, and let his enimies be scattered: let them also that hate hym, flee before hym.

2 Lyke as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou dryue them away: and like as waxe melteth at the fyre, so let the vngodly perysshe at the presence of God.

3 But let the ryghteous be glad and reioyce before God: let them also be mery and ioyfull.

4 O sing vnto God, and sing prayses vnto his name: magnifie hym that rydeth vppon the heauens, as it were vpō an horse, prayse hym in his name, yea and reioyce before hym.

5 He is a father of the fatherlesse, and defendeth the cause of the wydowes: euen God in his holy habitation.

6 He is the GOD that maketh men to be of one mynde in an house, and bryngeth the prisoners out of captiuitie: but letteth the runnagates continue in scarsenesse.

7 O God, when thou wentest forth before the people: when thou wentest through the wyldernesse.

8 The earth shooke, and the heauens dropped at the presence of God: euen as Sinai also was mooued at the presence of GOD, whiche is the God of Israel.

9 Thou, O God, sendedst a gratious rayne vpon thyne inheritaunce: and refreshedst it when it was weery.

10 Thy congregation shall dwell therein: for thou, O God, hast of thy goodnesse prepared for the poore.

11 The Lorde gaue the woorde: great was the companie of the preachers.

12 Kynges with their armies dyd flee, and were discomfited: and they of the housholde diuided the spoyle.

13 Though ye haue lyen among the pottes, yet shall ye be as the wynges of a Doue: that is couered with syluer winges, and her feathers lyke golde.

14 When the almyghtie scattered kynges for their sake: then were they as whyte as snowe in Salmon.

15 As the hyl of Basan, so is Gods hyl: euen an hygh hyl, as the hyl of Basan.

16 Why hoppe ye so, ye hygh hylles, this is Gods hyll, in the whiche it pleaseth hym to dwell: yea, the Lorde wyl abyde in it for euer.

17 The charettes of God are twentie thousande, euen thousandes of angels: and the Lord is among them, as in the holy place of Sinai.

Ephes. 4. 8. 18 *Thou art gone vp on hygh, thou hast led captiuitie captiue, and receiued gyftes for men: yea, euen for thyne enimies, that the Lorde GOD myght dwell among them.

19 Praysed be the Lorde dayly: euen the God which helpeth vs, and powreth his benefites vpon vs.

20 He is our God, euen the God of whom commeth saluation: god is the lorde by whom we escape death.

21 God shal wound the head of his enimies: and the heary scalpe of suche a one as goeth on styll in his wickednesse.

22 The Lorde hath sayde, I wyll bryng my people agayne, as I dyd from Basan: myne owne wyll I bryng agayne, as I dyd sometyme from the deepe of the sea.

23 That thy foote may be dypped in the blood of thyne enimies: and that the tongue of thy dogges may be redde through the same.

24 It is wel seene, O God, how thou goest: howe thou my God and kyng goest in the sanctuarie.

25 The singers goe before, the minstrelles folowe after: in the myddest are the damosels playing with the tymbrelles.

26 Geue thankes O Israel, vnto God the Lorde in the congregations: frō the ground of the hart.

27 There is litle Beniamin their ruler, and the princes of Juda their counsayle: the princes of Zabulon, and the princes of Nephtali.

28 Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee: stablishe the thyng, O God, that thou hast wrought in vs.

29 For thy temples sake at Hierusalem: so shall kynges bryng presentes vnto thee.

30 When the companie of the spearemen, and multitude of the myghtie, are scattered abrode among the beastes of the people (so that they humbly bryng peeces of syluer:) and when he hath scattered the people that delyght in warre.

31 Then shal the princes come out of Egypt: the Morians lande shall soone stretche out her handes vnto God.

32 Sing vnto God, O ye kyngdomes of the earth: O sing prayses vnto the Lorde.

33 Whiche sytteth in the heauens ouer all from the begynnyng: loe, he dooth send out his voyce, yea, and that a myghty voyce.

34 Ascribe ye the power to GOD ouer Israel: his woorshyp and strength is in the cloudes.

35 O God, wonderfull art thou in thy holy places: euen the God of Israel, he wyl geue strength and power vnto his people, blessed be God.

Saluum

Saluum me fac Deus. Psalm. lxix.

Euenyng prayer.

1 SAue me O God: for the waters are come in, euen vnto my soule.
2 I sticke fast in the deepe myre, where no grounde is: I am come into deepe waters, so that the flooddes ranne ouer me.
3 I am wery of my crying, my throte is drie: my syght fayleth me for waytyng so long vpon my God.
4 They that hate me without a cause, are moe then the heares of my head: they that are myne enimies, and woulde destroy me gyltlesse, are myghtie.
5 I payde them the thynges that I neuer tooke: God thou knowest my simplenesse, and my faultes are not hyd from thee.
6 Let not them that trust in thee, O Lorde God of hostes, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seeke thee, be confounded through me, O Lorde God of Israel.
7 And why? for thy sake haue I suffered reproofe: shame hath couered my face.
8 I am become a stranger vnto my brethren: euen an aliant vnto my mothers chyldren.
*Iohn. 2. 18. 9 * For the zeale of thyne house hath euen eaten me: and the *rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.
*Rom. 15. 3.
10 I wept, and chastened mee selfe with fastyng: and that was turned to my reproofe.
11 I put on a sackcloth also: and they iested vpon me.
12 They that syt in the gate, speake against me: and the drunkardes make songues vpon me.
13 But Lorde, I make my prayer vnto thee: in an acceptable tyme.
14 Heare me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercy: euen in the trueth of thy saluation.
15 Take me out of the myre, that I sinke not: oh let me be deliuered from them that hate me, and out of the deepe waters.
16 Let not the water flood drowne me, neyther let the deepe swallowe me vp: and let not the pit shut her mouth vpon me.
17 Heare me, O Lorde, for thy louing kyndnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto me, according to the multitude of thy mercyes.
18 And hyde not thy face frō thy seruant, for I am in trouble: oh haste thee, & heare me.
19 Drawe nygh vnto my soule, and saue it: oh deliuer me, because of myne enimies.
20 Thou hast knowen my reproofe, my shame, and my dishonour: myne aduersaries are all in thy sight.
21 Thy rebuke hath broken my hart, I am ful of heauynesse: I looked for some to haue pitie on me, but there was no man, neyther founde I any to comfort me.
22 They gaue me gall to eate: and * when I was thirstie, they gaue me vineger to drinke.
*Mat. 27. 2 Iohn. 19. 2
23 *Let their table be made a snare to take them selues withall: and let the thynges (that shoulde haue ben for their wealth) be vnto them an occasion of fallyng.
*Rom. 11. 9
24 Let their eyes be blynded, that they see not: & euer bow thou downe their backes.
25 Powre out thyne indignation vpō them: and let thy wrathfull displeasure take holde of them.
26 Let their habitation be voyde: and no man to dwell in their tentes.
*Actes. 1. 20
27 For they persecute hym whom thou hast smitten: and they talke how they may vexe them whom thou hast wounded.
28 Let them fal from one wickednesse to an other: and not come into thy righteousnesse.
29 Let them be wyped out of the booke of the lyuyng: and not be wrytten amōg the ryghteous.
30 As for me, when I am poore, and in heauinesse: thy helpe (O God) shall lyft me vp.
31 I wyll prayse the name of GOD with a songue: and magnifie it with thankesgeuyng.
32 This also shall please the Lorde: better then a Bullocke that hath hornes and hookes.
33 The humble shall consyder this, and be glad: seeke ye after God, and your soule shal lyue.
34 For the Lorde heareth the poore: and despiseth not his prisoners.
35 Let heauen and earth prayse him: the sea and all that mooueth therein.
36 For God wyll saue Sion, and buyld the cities of Iuda: that men may dwell there, and haue it in possession.
37 The posteritie also of his seruantes shal inherite it: and they that loue his name, shal dwell therein.

3 Let thē (for their reward) be soone brought to shame: that crye ouer me, there, there.
4 But let all those that seeke thee, be ioyfull and glad in thee: and let all suche as delight in thy saluation, say alway, the Lorde be praysed.

2 Be thou my ſtrong holde (whervnto I may alway reſorte:) thou haſt promiſed to helpe me, for thou art my houſe of defence, and my caſtle.

3 Deliuer me, O my God, out of the hand of the vngodly: out of the hand of the vnrighteous and cruell man.

4 For thou, O Lord God, art the thing that I long for: thou art my hope, euen from my youth.

5 Through thee haue I been holden vp euer ſince I was borne: thou art he that tooke me out of my mothers wombe, my prayſe ſhall alway be of thee.

6 I am become as it were a monſter vnto many: but my ſure truſt is in thee.

7 O let my mouth be filled with thy prayſe: (that I may ſyng of thy glory) and honour all the day long.

9 For myne enimies ſpeake againſt me, and they that lay wayte for my ſoule, take their counſayle together, ſaying: God hath forſaken him, perſecute him, and take him, for there is none to deliuer him.

10 Goe not farre fro me, O God: my God, haſte thee to helpe me.

11 Let them be confounded and periſhe, that are againſt my ſoule: let them be couered with ſhame and diſhonour, that ſeeke to doo me euill.

12 As for me, I wyl patiently abide alway: and wyll prayſe thee more and more.

13 My mouth ſhal dayly ſpeake of thy righteouſneſſe and ſaluation: for I know no end thereof.

14 I wyll goe forth in the ſtrength of the Lorde God: and wyll make mention of thy righteouſneſſe onely.

15 Thou, O God, haſt taught me from my youth vp vntyll nowe: therefore wyll I tell of thy woonderous woorkes.

16 Forſake me not, O God, in mine old age, when I am gray headed: vntill I haue ſhewed thy ſtrength vnto this generation, and thy power to all them that are yet for to come.

17 Thy righteouſneſſe, O GOD, is very high: and great thinges are they that thou haſt done, O God, who is lyke vnto thee?

18 O what great troubles and aduerſities haſt thou ſhewed me, and yet dydſt thou turne and refreſhe me: yea, and broughteſt me from the deepe of the earth agayne.

19 Thou haſt brought me to great honour: and comforted me on euery ſide.

20 Therefore wyll I prayſe thee and thy faythfulneſſe (O God) playing vpon an inſtrument of muſicke: vnto thee wyl I ſyng vpon the Harpe, O thou holy one of Iſrael.

21 My lippes wyl be faine when I ſyng vnto thee: and ſo wyll my ſoule whom thou haſt deliuered.

16 There shalbe an heape of corne in the earth high vppon the hilles: his fruite shall shake like Libanus, and shalbe greene in the citie, like grasse vpon the earth.

17 His name shall endure for euer, his name shall remayne vnder the sunne among the posterities: which shalbe blessed through him, and all the heathen shall prayse him.

18 Blessed be the Lorde God, euen the God of Israel: whiche onely dooth woonderous thinges.

19 And blessed be the name of his maiestie for euer: and all the earth shalbe fylled with his maiestie. Amen. Amen.

Quam bonus Israel. Psalm. lxxiii.

Euenyng prayer.

1 TRuely God is louing vnto Israel: euen vnto suche as are of a cleane hart.

2 Neuertheless, my feete were almost gone: my treadinges hadde welnygh slipt.

3 And why? I was greeued at the wicked: I doo also see the vngodly in suche prosperitie.

4 For they are in no perill of death: but are lusty and strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like other folke: neyther are they plagued like other men.

6 And this is the cause that they be so holden with pride: and ouerwhelmed with crueltie.

7 Their eyes swell with fatnesse: and they doo euen what they lust.

8 They corrupt other, and speake of wicked blasphemie: their talking is agaynst the most highest.

9 For they stretch foorth their mouth vnto the heauen: and their tongue goeth through the worlde.

10 Therefore fall the people vnto them: and thereout sucke they no smal aduantage.

11 Tushe (say they) howe shoulde God perceiue it: is there knowledge in the most highest?

Loe, these are the vngodly, these prosperworld, and these haue richesse in pos- and I saide, then haue I cleansed n vayne, and washed my handes most said euen as they: I haue condemned the generation of thy children.

15 Then thought I to vnderstand this: but it was too hard for me.

16 Vntyll I went into ỹ sanctuarie of God: then vnderstood I the end of these men.

17 Namely, how thou doest set them in slipperie places: and castest them downe, and destroyest them.

18 O howe sodainely doo they consume: perishe, and come to a fearefull end.

19 Yea, euen like as a dreame when one awaketh: so shalt thou make their image to vanishe out of the citie.

20 Thus my hart was greeued: and it went euen through my reynes.

21 So foolishe was I and ignorant: euen as it were a beast before thee.

22 Neuertheless, I am alway by thee: for thou hast holden me by my right hand.

23 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsell: and after that receiue me with glory.

24 Whom haue I in heauen but thee: and there is none vppon earth that I desyre in comparison of thee.

25 My flesshe and my hart fayleth: but God is the strength of my hart, and my portion for euer.

26 For loe, they that forsake thee, shall perishe: thou hast destroyed al them that commit fornication agaynst thee.

27 But it is good for me to holde me fast by God, to put my trust in the Lord God: and to speake of all thy woorkes (in the gates of the daughter of Sion.)

Vt quid deus. Psalm. lxxiiii.

1 O God, wherefore art thou absent from vs so long: why is thy wrath so hotte agaynst the sheepe of thy pasture?

2 O thinke vpon thy congregation: whom thou hast purchased and redeemed of olde.

3 Thinke vppon the tribe of thyne inheritance: and mount Sion wherein thou hast dwelt.

4 Lyft vp thy feete, that thou mayest vtterly destroy euery enimie: whiche hath doone euyll in thy sanctuarie.

5 Thyne aduersaries roare in the middes of thy congregations: and set vp their banners for tokens.

6 He that hewed tymber afore out of the thicke trees: was knowen to bring it to an excellent woorke.

7 But nowe they breake downe all the carued woorke thereof: with axes and hammers.

8 They haue set fyre vpon thy holy places: and haue defyled the dwellyng place of thy name, euen vnto the ground. *2. Reg. xxv.

9 Yea, they sayde in their harte: let vs make make hauocke of them altogeather: thus haue they burnt vp al the houses of God in the lande.

10 We see not our tokens, there is not one prophet more: no not one is there among vs that vnderstandeth any more.

11 O GOD, howe long shal the aduersarie doo this dishonour: how long shal the enimie blaspheme thy name, for euer?

12 Why withdrawest thou thy hande: why pluckest not thou thy ryght hand out of thy bosome to consume the enimie?

13 *For God is my kyng of old: the help that is doone vpon earth, he doeth it hym selfe. *Psal.l.70.

14 Thou diddest diuide the sea through thy power: thou brakest the heades of the Dragons in the waters.

15 Thou smotest the heades of Leuiathan in peeces: and gauest hym to be meate for the people in the wildernesse.

16 Thou broughtest out fountaynes and waters out of the harde rockes: thou driedst vp myghtie waters.

17 The day is thyne, and the night is thyne: thou hast prepared the lyght and the sunne.

18 Thou hast set al the borders of the earth: thou hast made Sommer and Wynter.

19 Remember this, O Lorde, howe the enimie hath rebuked: and howe the foolyshe people haue blasphemed thy name.

20 O delyuer not the soule of thy Turtle Doue vnto the multitude of the enimies: and forget not the congregation of the poore for euer.

21 Looke vpon the couenant: for al the earth is ful of darknesse and cruel habitations.

22 Oh let not the simple goe away ashamed: but let the poore and needie geue prayse vnto thy name.

23 Aryse, O God, mainteyne thyne owne cause: remember howe the foolyshe man blaspheməth thee dayly.

24 Forget not the voyce of thyne enimies: the presumption of them that hate thee, encreaseth euer more and more.

Confitebimur tibi. Psalm.lxxv.

Morning prayer. 1 VNTO thee (O God) doo we geue thankes: yea, vnto thee doo we geue thankes.

2 Thy name also is so nygh: and that doo thy woonderous workes declare.

3 When I receyue the congregation: I shal iudge accordyng vnto ryght.

4 The earth is weake, and al the inhabiters therof: I beare vp the pyllers of it.

5 I sayd vnto the fooles, deale not so madly: and to the vngodly, set not vp your horne.

6 Set not vp your horne on hygh: and speake not with a stiffe necke.

7 For promotion commeth neither from the East nor from the Weast: nor yet from the South.

8 And why? God is the iudge: he putteth downe one, and setteth vp another.

9 For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wyne is red: it is ful myxt, and he powreth out of the same.

10 As for the dregges therof: al the vngodlye of the earth shal drynke them, and sucke them out.

11 But I wyl talke of the God of Jacob: and prayse hym for euer.

12 Al the hornes of the vngodly also wyll I breake: and the hornes of the ryghteous shalbe exalted.

Notus in Iudea. Psalm.lxxvi.

1 IN Jurie is God knowen: his name is great in Israel.

2 At Salem is his tabernacle: and his dwellyng in Sion.

3 There brake he the arrowes of the bowe: the shielde, the swoorde, and the battel.

4 Thou art of more honour and myght: than the hylles of the robbers.

5 The proude are robbed, they haue slepte their sleepe: and al the men (whose handes were myghtie) haue founde nothyng.

6 At thy rebuke (O God of Jacob:) both the charret and horse is fallen.

7 Thou, euen thou art to be feared: and who maye stande in thy syght when thou art angrie?

8 Thou diddest cause thy iudgement to be heard from heauen: the earth trembled and was styl.

9 When God arose to iudgement: and to helpe al the meeke vpon earth.

10 The fiercenesse of man shall turne to thy praise: and the fiercenesse of them shalt thou refrayne.

11 Promyse vnto the Lord your God, & kepe it, al ye that be round about hym: bring presentes vnto hym that ought to be feared.

12 He shall refrayne the spirite of Princes: and is woonderful among the kinges of the earth.

Voce mea ad dominum. Psalm.lxxvii.

1 I Wyl crye vnto God with my voyce: euen vnto GOD wyl I crye with my voyce, and he shal hearken vnto me.

2 In the tyme of trouble I sought the lord: my sore ranne and ceassed not, in the nyght season my soule refused comfort.

3 When I am in heauynesse, I wyll thynke vpon God: when my hart is vexed, I wyll complayne.
4 Thou holdest myne eyes wakyng: I am so feeble that I can not speake.
5 I haue consydered the dayes of olde: and the yeeres that are past.
6 I cal to remembraunce my songue: and in the nyght I commune with myne owne hart, and searche out my spirites.
7 Wyll the Lorde absent hym selfe for euer: and wyl he be no more entreated?
8 Is his mercie cleane gone for euer: and is his promyse come vtterly to an end for euermore?
9 Hath God forgotten to be gratious: and wyl he shut vp his louyng kyndenesse in displeasure?
10 And I sayde, it is myne owne infirmitie: but I wyl remember the yeeres of the right hande of the most hyghest.
11 I wyl remember the woorkes of the lord: and cal to mynde thy woonders of old time.
12 I wyl thynke also of al thy woorkes: and my talkyng shalbe of thy dooyng.
13 Thy way, O GOD, is holy: who is so great a God as our God?
14 Thou art the God that doeth woonders: and hast declared thy power among people.
15 Thou hast myghtily delyuered thy people: euen the sonnes of Iacob and Ioseph.
16 The waters sawe thee, O God, the waters saw thee, and were afrayd: the depthes also were troubled.
17 The cloudes powred out water, the ayre thundred: and thyne arrowes went abrode.
18 The voyce of thy thunder was heard rounde about: the lyghtnynges shone vpon the grounde, the earth was moued, and shooke withal.
19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy pathes in the great waters: and thy footsteppes are not knowen.
*Exo.14.19. 20 *Thou leddest thy people lyke sheepe: by the hande of Moses and Aaron.

Euenyng prayer.
1 HEare my lawe, O my people: encline your eares vnto the woordes of my mouth.
*Psal.48.5. Math.15.35 2 *I wyl open my mouth in a parable: I wyl declare hard sentences of olde.
3 Which we haue heard and knowen: and suche as our fathers haue tolde vs.
4 That we shoulde not hyde them from the chyldren of the generations to come: but to shewe the honour of the Lorde, his myghtie & woonderful woorkes that he hath done.
5 He made a couenaunt with Iacob, & gaue Israel a lawe: which he commaunded our forefathers to teache their chyldren.
6 That their posteritie myght know it: and the chyldren whiche were yet vnborne.
7 To the intent that when they came vp: they myght shewe their chyldren the same.
8 That they myght put their trust in God: and not to forget the woorkes of God, but to keepe his commaundementes.
9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithles and stubborne generation: a generation that set not their hart aryght, and whose spirite cleaueth not stedfastly vnto God.
10 Lyke as the chyldren of Ephraim: which beyng harnessed & carrying bowes, turned them selues backe in the day of battayle.
11 They kept not the couenant of God: and woulde not walke in his lawe.
12 But forgate what he had doone: and the woonderfull woorke that he had shewed for them.
13 Marueylous thynges dyd he in the syght of our forefathers in the lande of Egypt: euen in the feelde of Zoan.
14 *He diuided the sea, and let them goe through: he made the waters to stande on a heape. *Exo.14.21.
15 In the day tyme also he led them with a cloude: and all the nyght through with a lyght of fyre. *Exo.13.21. and.14.24.
16 *He claue the harde rockes in the wyldernesse: and gaue them drynke thereof, as it had been out of the great depth. *Exod.17.6. Num.20.10
17 He brought waters out of the stony rocke: so that it gushed out lyke the ryuers.
18 Yet for all this, they synned more agaynst hym: and prouoked the most hyghest in the wyldernesse.
19 They tempted God in their hartes: and required meate for their lust.
20 *They spake agaynst God also, saying: *Num.11.4.
shal God prepare a table in the wyldernes?
21 *He smote the stony rocke in deede, that the water gushed out, and the streames flowed withal: but can he geue bread also, or prouide flesh for his people? *Exod.17.6 Num.20.11.
22 *Whē the lord heard this, he was wroth: so the fyre was kyndled in Iacob, and there came vp heauie displeasure agaynst Israel. *Num.11.1.
23 Because they beleeued not in God: and put not their trust in his helpe.
24 So he commaunded the cloudes about: and opened the doores of heauen.
25 *He rayned downe Manna also vpon them for to eate: and gaue them foode from heauen. *Exo.16.14. Num.11.7.
26 *So man dyd eate angelles foode: for he sent them meate yenough. *Iohn.6.31. 1.Cor.10.5

27 He

Pſa.11.31. 27 *He cauſed the Eaſt wynde to blowe vnder heauen: and thꝛough his power he wꝛought in the Southweſt wynde.

28 He rayned fleſhe vpon them as thicke as duſt: and feathered foules lyke as the ſand of the ſea.

29 He let it fal among their tentes: euen rounde about theyꝛ habitation.

30 So they dyd eate and were wel fylled: foꝛ he gaue them theyꝛ owne deſyꝛe, they were not diſapoynted of theyꝛ luſt.

Pſa.11.33. 31 *But whyle the meate was yet in theyꝛ mouthes, the heauie wꝛath of God came vpon them, and ſlue the wealthieſt of them: yea and ſmote downe the choſen men that were in Iſrael.

32 But foꝛ al this, they ſinned yet moꝛe: and beleeued not his woonderous wooꝛkes.

33 Therefoꝛe theyꝛ dayes did he conſume in vanitie: and theyꝛ yeeres in trouble.

34 When he ſlue them, they ſought him: and turned them early and enquired after God.

35 And they remembꝛed that God was their ſtrength: and that the hygh God was their redeemer.

36 Neuertheleſſe, they dyd but flatter hym with theyꝛ mouth: and diſſembled with hym in theyꝛ tongue.

37 Foꝛ their hart was not whole with him: neyther continued they ſtedfaſt in his couenant.

38 But he was ſo merciful: that he foꝛgaue theyꝛ miſdeedes, and deſtroyed them not.

39 Yea, many a time turned he his wꝛath away: and woulde not ſuffer his whole diſpleaſure to aryſe.

40 Foꝛ he conſydered that they were but fleſhe: and that they were euen a wynde that paſſeth away, & commeth not agayne.

41 Many a tyme dyd they pꝛouoke hym in the wyldernesſe: and greeued hym in the deſart.

42 They turned backe and tempted God: and mooued the holy one in Iſrael.

43 They thought not of his hande: and of the day when he deliuered them from the hande of the enimie.

44 Howe he had wꝛought his myꝛacles in Egypt: and his woonders in the feelde of Zoan.

*Exo.7.20. 45 *He turned theyꝛ waters into blood: ſo that they might not dꝛynke of the ryuers.

*Exod.8.6. 46 *He ſent lyce among them, and deuoured them vp: and frogges to deſtroy them.

*Exo.10.13 47 *He gaue their fruites vnto the Caterpyller: and theyꝛ labour vnto the Graſſehopper.

*Exod.9.2. 48 *He deſtroyed theyꝛ vines with hayleſtones: and theyꝛ Mulberie trees with the froſt.

49 He ſmote theyꝛ cattayle alſo with hayleſtones: and theyꝛ flockes with hot thunderboltes.

50 He caſt vpon them the furiouſneſſe of his wꝛath, anger, diſpleaſure, and trouble: and ſent euyl angels among them.

51 He made away to his indignation, and ſpared not theyꝛ ſoule from death: but gaue theyꝛ lyfe ouer to the peſtilence.

52 *And ſmote al the fyꝛſt bogne in Egypt: the moſt pꝛincipall and mightieſt in the dwellinges of Ham. *Exo.12.29.

53 *But as foꝛ his owne people, he led them foꝛth lyke ſheepe: and caryed them in the wyldernesſe lyke a flocke. *Exo.13.19.

54 He bꝛought them out ſafely, that they ſhoulde not feare: and ouerwhelmed theyꝛ enimies with the ſea.

55 And bꝛought them within the boꝛders of his ſanctuarie: euen to his mountayne whiche he purchaſed with his ryght hande.

56 *He caſt out the heathen alſo befoꝛe them: cauſed theyꝛ lande to be diuided among them foꝛ an heritage, and made the tribes of Iſrael to dwel in theyꝛ tentes. *Joſu.13.7.

57 So they tempted and diſpleaſed the moſt high God: and kept not his teſtimonies.

58 But turned theyꝛ backes, and fel away like theyꝛ foꝛefathers: ſtarting aſide lyke a bꝛoken bowe.

59 Foꝛ they greeued hym with theyꝛ hyll aulters: and pꝛouoked hym to diſpleaſure with theyꝛ images.

60 When God heard this, he was wꝛoth: and tooke ſoꝛe diſpleaſure at Iſrael.

61 *So that he foꝛſooke the tabernacle in Silo: euen the tent that he had pitched among them. *1.Reg.4.1.

62 He deliuered theyꝛ power into captiuitie: and theyꝛ beautie into the enimies hande.

63 He gaue his people ouer alſo vnto the ſwoꝛde: and was wꝛoth with his inheritance.

64 The fyꝛe conſumed their young men: and their maydens were not geuen to mariage.

65 Their pꝛieſtes were ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde: and there were no wyddowes to make lamentation.

66 So the Loꝛde awaked as one out of ſleepe: & like a Giant refreſhed with wine.

67 He ſmote his enimies in the hinder partes: and put them to a perpetual ſhame.

68 He refuſed the tabernacle of Joſeph: and choſe not the tribe of Ephꝛaim.

69 But choſe the tribe of Juda: euen the hyl of Sion which he loued.

70 And there he buylded his temple on high: and layde the fundation of it, like the grounde which he hath made continually.

71 *He choſe Dauid alſo his ſeruant: and *1.Re.28.11 2.Reg.7.8.

tooke hym away from the sheepe folde̅s.

*2.Reg.5.2. 72 *As he was folowyng the Ewes great with yong ones, he tooke hym: that he might fede Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

73 So he fed them with a faythful and true hart: and ruled them prudently with all his power.

Mornyng prayer. 1 O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance: thy holy temple haue they defiled, and made Hierusalem an heape of stones.

2 The dead bodies of thy seruantes haue they geuen to be meate vnto the fowles of the ayre: and the flesshe of thy saintes vnto the beastes of the lande.

3 Their blood haue they shedde lyke water on euery side of Hierusalem: and there was no man to burie them.

4 We are become an open shame to our enimies: a very scorne and derision vnto them that are rounde about vs.

5 Lorde howe long wylt thou be angry: shal thy ielousie burne lyke fyre for euer?

*Jere.10.25 6 *Powre out thine indignation vppon the heathen that haue not knowen thee: and vpon the kyngdomes that haue not called vpon thy name.

7 For they haue deuoured Jacob: and layde wast his dwellyng place.

*Esai.64.9. 8 *O remember not our old sinnes, but haue mercie vpon vs, and that soone: for we are come to great miserie.

9 Helpe vs, O God, of our saluation, for the glorie of thy name: O deliuer vs, & be mercifull vnto our sinnes for thy names sake.

10 Wherefore doo the heathen say: where is nowe their God?

11 O let the vengeance of thy seruauntes blood that is shed: be openly shewed vpon the heathen in our syght.

12 O let the sorowful syghyng of the prysoners come before thee: accordyng to the greatnesse of thy power preserue thou those that are appoynted to dye.

13 And for the blasphemie wherewith our neyghbours haue blasphemed thee: rewarde thou them, O Lorde, seuen folde into their bosome.

14 So we that be thy people and sheepe of thy pasture, shal geue thee thankes for euer, and wyll alway be shewyng forth thy prayse, from generation to generation.

6 Thou hast made vs a very strife vnto our neyghbours: and our enimies laugh vs to scorne.

7 Turne vs agayne, thou GOD of hostes: shewe the lyght of thy countenance, and we shalbe whole.

8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, & planted it.

9 Thou madest roome for it: and when it had taken roote, it fylled the lande.

10 The hylles were couered with the shadowe of it: and the boughes thereof were lyke the goodly Cedar trees.

12 Why hast thou then broken downe her hedge: that al they which goe by plucke of her grapes.

13 The wylde Bore out of the wood doeth roote it vp: and the wylde beastes of the feelde deuoure it.

14 Turne thee agayne thou God of hostes, looke downe from heauen: beholde, and visite this vine.

15 And the place of the vineyarde that thy ryght hande hath planted: and the branche that thou madest so strong for thee selfe.

16 It is burnt with fyre, and cut downe: and they shal perishe at the rebuke of thy countenance.

17 Let thy hande be vppon the man of thy ryght hande: and vpon the sonne of man whom thou madest so strong for thine owne selfe.

18 And so wyl not we goe backe from thee: O let vs lyue, & we shal cal vpon thy name.

19 Turne vs agayne, O Lorde GOD of hostes: shewe the light of thy countenance, and we shalbe whole.

11 I had rather be a doore keper in the house of my God: then to dwell in the tentes of vngodlynesse.
12 For the Lorde God is a lyght & defence: the Lord wyl geue grace and worshyp, and no good thyng shal he withhold from them that lyue a godly lyfe.
13 O Lord God of hostes: blessed is the man that putteth his trust in thee.

Benedixisti domine. Psalm. lxxxv.

1 LOrde thou art become gratious vnto thy lande: thou hast turned away the captiuitie of Jacob.
2 Thou hast forgeuen the offence of thy people: and couered al their synnes.
3 Thou hast taken away al thy displeasure: and turned thee selfe from thy wrathful indignation.
4 Turne vs then, O God our sauiour: and let thyne anger ceasse from vs.
5 Wylt thou be displeased at vs for euer: and wylt thou stretche out thy wrath from one generation to another?
6 Wylt thou not turne agayne and quicken vs: that thy people may reioyce in thee?
7 Shew vs thy mercy, O Lord: and graunt vs thy saluation.
8 I wyll hearken what the Lorde God wyll say concernyng me: for he shal speake peace vnto his people, and to his saints, that they turne not agayne.
9 For his saluation is nygh them that feare hym: that glorie may dwel in our lande.
10 Mercie & trueth are met togeather: righteousnesse and peace haue kyssed each other.
11 Trueth shal florysshe out of the earth: and ryghteousnesse hath looked downe from heauen.
12 Yea, the Lorde shal shewe louyng kyndenesse: and our lande shal gene her encrease.
13 Ryghteousnesse shal goe before hym: and he shal direct his goyng in the way.

Inclina domine. Psalm. lxxxvi.

1 BOwe downe thyne eare, O Lorde, and heare me: for I am poore and in miserie. Mornyng prayer.
2 Preserue thou my soule, for I am holy: my God saue thy seruaunt that putteth his trust in thee.
3 Be merciful vnto me, O Lord: for I wyl cal dayly vpon thee.
4 Comfort the soule of thy seruaunt: for vnto thee (O Lorde) doo I lyft vp my soule.
5 * For thou Lorde art good and gratious: and of great mercie vnto al them that cal vpon thee. *Joel. 2. 13.
6 Geue eare Lord vnto my prayer: and ponder the voyce of myne humble desyres.
7 In the tyme of my trouble I wyl cal vpon thee: for thou hearest me.
8 Among the goodes there is none lyke vnto thee (O Lord:) there is not one that can doo as thou doest.
9 All nations whom thou hast made, shall come and worshyp thee, O Lord: and shal glorifie thy name.
10 For thou art great, & doest woonderous thynges: thou art God alone.
11 Teache me thy way (O Lorde) and I wyl walke in thy trueth: O knyt my harte vnto thee, that I may feare thy name.
12 I wyl thanke thee, O Lorde my God, with al my hart: and wyll prayse thy name for euermore.
13 For great is thy mercie toward me: and thou hast delyuered my soule from the nethermost hel.
14 O God, the proud are rysen agaynst me: and the congregations of naughtie men haue sought after my soule, and haue not set thee before their eyes.
15 But thou (O Lord God) art ful of compassion and mercie: long sufferyng, plenteous in goodnesse and trueth.
16 O turne thee then vnto me, and haue mercie vpon me: geue thy strength vnto thy seruaunt, & helpe the sonne of thyne handmayde.
17 Shewe some good token vpon me for good, that they whiche hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou Lorde hast holpen me, and comforted me.

Fundamenta eius. Psalm. lxxxvii.

HEr fundations are vpon the holy hils: the lord loueth the gates of Sion, more then al the dwellynges of Jacob.

2 Very

2 Very excellent thinges are spoken of thee: thou citie of God.
3 I wyl thynke vpon Rahab and Babylon: with them that knowe me.
4 Beholde ye the Philistines also: and they of Tyre, with the Moryans, loe, there was he borne.
5 And of Sion it shalbe reported that he was borne in her: and the most high shal stablishe her.
6 The Lorde shal rehearse it when he wryteth vp the people: that he was borne there.
7 The syngers also and trumpetters shall be rehearse; all my freshe springes shalbe in thee.

Domine deus. Psalme.lxxxviii.

1 O Lorde God of my saluation, I haue cryed day and night before thee: O let my prayer enter in thy presence, encline thine eare vnto my calling.
2 For my soule is ful of trouble: and my life draweth nygh vnto hel.
3 I am counted as one of them that goe downe into the pit: and I haue been euen as a man that hath no strength.
4 Free among the dead, like vnto them that be wounded and lye in the graue: whiche be out of remembrance, and are cut away from thy hande.
5 Thou hast layde me in the lowest pit: in a place of darkenesse, and in the deepe.
6 Thine indignation lieth harde vpon me: and thou hast vexed me with al thy stormes.
7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance farre from me: and made me to be abhorred of them.
8 I am so fast in prysone: that I can not geat foorth.
9 My sight fayleth for very trouble: Lorde I haue called dayly vpon thee, I haue stretched out my handes vnto thee.
10 Doest thou shewe woonders among the dead: or shal the dead ryse vp agayne and prayse thee?
11 Shal thy louing kyndnesse be shewed in the graue: or thy faythfulnesse in destruction?
12 Shal thy woonderous workes be knowen in the darke: and thy righteousnesse in the lande where al thinges are forgotten?
13 Vnto thee haue I cryed, O Lorde: and early shal my prayer come before thee.
14 Lorde, why abhorrest thou my soule: and hidest thou thy face from me?
15 I am in miserie, and lyke vnto hym that is at the poynt to dye: (euen from my youth vp) thy terrours haue I suffered with a troubled mynde.
16 Thy wrathfull displeasure goeth ouer me: and the feare of thee hath vndone me.
17 They came rounde about me dayly lyke water: and compassed me togeather on euery side.
18 My louers and freendes hast thou put away from me: and hid mine acquaintance out of my sight.

Misericordias domini. Psalme.lxxxix.

1 My song shalbe alway of the louing kindnesse of the Lord: with my mouth wyll I euer be shewing thy trueth, from one generation to another. Euenyng prayer.
2 For I haue sayde, mercie shalbe set vp for euer: thy trueth shalt thou stablishe in the heauens.
3 I haue made a couenant with my chosen: I haue *sworne vnto Dauid my seruant. *2.Re.7.11.
4 Thy seede wyl I stablishe for euer: and set vp thy throne from one generation to another.
5 O Lorde, the very heauens shal prayse thy wonderous workes: and thy trueth in the congregation of the saintes.
6 For who is he among the cloudes: that shalbe compared vnto the Lorde?
7 And what is he among the goddes: that shalbe lyke vnto the Lorde?
8 God is very greatly to be feared in the counsel of the saintes: and to be had in reuerence of al them that are about hym.
9 O Lorde God of hostes, who is lyke vnto thee: thy trueth (most mightie Lorde) is on euery side.
10 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: thou stillest the waues thereof when they aryse.
11 Thou hast subdued Egypt, and destroyed it: thou hast scattered thine enimies abrode with thy mightie arme.
12 *The heauens are thine, and the earth is thine: thou hast layde the fundation of the rounde worlde, and al that therein is. *Gene.1.1.
13 Thou hast made the North & the South: Tabor and Hermon shal reioyce in thy name.
14 Thou hast a mightie arme: strong is thy hande, and high is thy right hande.
15 Righteousnesse and equitie is the habitation of thy seate: mercie and trueth shal goe before thy face.
16 Blessed is the people (O Lorde) that can reioyce in thee: they shal walke in the light of thy countenance.
17 Their delight shalbe dayly in thy name: and in thy righteousnesse shall they make their boast.

 18 For

18 For thou art the glorie of their strength: and in thy louyng kyndnesse thou shalt lyft vp our hornes.
19 For the Lorde is our defence: the holy one of Israel is our kyng.
20 Thou spakest sometyme in visions vnto thy saintes, and saydest: I haue layde helpe vpon one that is mightie, I haue exalted one chosen out of the people.
*1.Re.16.12 Act.13.32. 21 *I haue founde Dauid my seruant: with my holy oyle haue I annoynted hym.
22 My hande shal holde hym fast: and my arme shal strengthen hym.
23 The enimie shal not be able to doo hym violence: the sonne of wyckednesse shal not hurt hym.
24 I shal smite downe his foes before his face: and plague them that hate hym.
25 My trueth also and my mercie shalbe with hym: and in my name shal his horne be exalted.
26 I wyl set his dominion also in the sea, and his ryght hande in the flooddes.
27 He shal cal me, thou art my father: my God, and my strong saluation.
28 And I wyl make hym my fyrst borne: higher then the kynges of the earth.
29 My mercy wyl I keepe for him for euermore: and my couenant shal stand fast with hym.
30 His seede also wyl I make to endure for euer: & his throne as the dayes of heauen.
31 But if his chyldren forsake my lawe: and walke not in my iudgementes.
32 If they breake my statutes, and keepe not my commaundementes: I wyl visite their offences with the rod, and their sinne with scourges.
33 Neuertheless my louyng kyndnesse wyl I not vtterly take from hym, nor suffer my trueth to fayle.
34 My couenant wyl I not breake, nor alter the thyng that is gone out of my lippes: I haue sworne once by my holinesse that I wyl not fayle Dauid.
*2.Re.7.16. John.12.34 35 *His seede shal endure for euer: and his seate is like as the sunne before me.
*Apoc.1.5. and.3.5. 36 He shall stande fast for euermore as the moone: & as the *faithful witnesse in heauen.
37 But thou hast abhorred & forsaken thine annoynted: and art displeased at hym.
38 Thou hast broken the couenant of thy seruant: and cast his crowne to the ground.
39 Thou hast ouerthrowen all his hedges: and broken downe his strong holdes.
40 All they that goe by, spoyle hym: and he is become a rebuke to his neyghbours.
41 Thou hast set vp the right hand of his enimies: & made al his aduersaries to reioyce.
42 Thou hast taken away the edge of his swoorde: and geuest him not victorie in the battayle.
43 Thou hast put out his glory: and cast his throne downe to the grounde.
44 The dayes of his youth hast thou shortned: and couered hym with dishonour.
45 Lorde howe long wylt thou hide thee selfe for euer: and shal thy wrath burne like fyre?
46 Oh remember howe short my tyme is: wherefore hast thou made all men for nought?
47 What man is he that lyueth, and shall not see death: and shal he deliuer his owne soule from the hande of hel?
48 Lorde where are thy olde louyng kyndnesses: which thou *swarest vnto Dauid in thy trueth? *2.Re.7.11.
49 Remember (Lorde) the rebuke that thy seruantes haue: and howe I doo beare in my bosome the rebukes of many people.
50 Wherewith thine enimies haue blasphemed thee, and slaundered the foote steppes of thine annoynted: praysed be the Lorde for euermore, Amen, Amen.

Domine refugium. Psalme.xc.

1 LOrde thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another. Mornyng prayer.
2 Before þ mountaynes were brought foorth, or euer the earth and the worlde were made: thou art GOD from euerlasting and world without ende.
3 Thou turnest man to destruction: agayne thou sayest, come agayne ye chyldren of men.
4 *For a thousande yeeres in thy syght, are but as yesterday: seeyng that is past as a watche in the nyght. *2.Pet.3.8
5 Assoone as thou scatterest them, they are euen as a sleepe: and fade away sodainely lyke the grasse.
6 In the morning it is greene and groweth vp: but in the euenyng it is cut downe, dryed vp, and wythered.
7 For we consume away in thy displeasure: and are afrayde at thy wrathful indignation.
8 Thou hast set our misdeedes before thee: and our secrete sinnes in the syght of thy countenance.
9 For when thou art angry, all our dayes are gone: *we bryng our yeeres to an ende, as it were a tale that is tolde. *Eccle.38.
10 The dayes of our age are threescore yeeres and ten, & though men be so strong that they come to fourescore yeeres: yet is their strength then but labour and sorowe, so soone passeth it away, and we are gone.
11 But who regardeth the power of thy wrath:

wrath: for euen thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

12 O teache vs to number our dayes: that we may apply our hartes vnto wysedome.

13 Turne thee agayne (O Lorde) at the last: and be gratious vnto thy seruantes.

14 O satisfie vs with thy mercy, and that soone: so shall we reioyce and be glad al the dayes of our lyfe.

15 Comfort vs agayne nowe after the tyme that thou hast plagued vs: and for the yeeres wherein we haue suffered aduersitie.

16 Shewe thy seruauntes thy woorke: and their chyldren thy glory.

17 And the glorious maiestie of the Lorde our GOD be vpon vs: prosper thou the woorke of our handes vpon vs, O prosper thou our handy woorke.

Qui habitat. Psalm.xci.

1 WHo so dwelleth vnder the defence of the most hygh: shal abyde vnder the shadowe of the almyghtie.

2 I wyll say vnto the Lorde, thou art my hope and my strong holde: my God, in him wyll I trust.

3 For he shall deliuer thee from the snare of the hunter: & from the noysome pestilence.

4 He shall defende thee vnder his wynges, and thou shalt be safe vnder his feathers: his faythfulnesse & trueth shalbe thy shielde and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afrayd for any terrour by nyght: nor for the arrow that fleeth by day.

6 For the pestilence that walketh in the darkenesse: nor for the sickenesse that destroyeth in the noone day.

7 A thousande shall fall beside thee, and ten thousande at thy ryght hande: but it shall not come nygh thee.

8 Yea, with thyne eyes shalt thou beholde: and see the rewarde of the vngodly.

9 For thou Lord art my hope: thou hast set thyne house of defence very hygh.

10 There shall no euyll happen vnto thee: neyther shall any plague come nygh thy dwellyng.

11 *For he shall geue his angels charge quer thee: to keepe thee in all thy wayes. *Mat.4.6. Luke.4.10.

12 They shal beare thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foote agaynst a stone.

13 Thou shalt goe vppon the Lion and Adder: the young Lion and the Dragon shalt thou treade vnder thy feete.

14 Because he hath set his loue vppon me, therfore shal I deliuer hym: I shal set him vp, because he hath knowen my name.

15 He shall call vpon me, and I wyll heare hym: yea, I am with him in trouble, I wyl deliuer hym, and bryng hym to honour.

16 With long lyfe wyll I satisfie hym: and shewe hym my saluation.

Bonum est confiteri. Psal.xcii.

1 IT is a good thyng to geue thankes vnto the Lorde: and to sing prayses vnto thy name, O most hyghest.

2 To tell of thy louyng kyndnesse early in the morning: and of thy trueth in the nyght season.

3 Vpon an instrument of ten strynges, and vppon the Lute: vppon a loude instrument, and vpon the Harpe.

4 For thou Lord hast made me glad thorow thy woorkes: and I wyll reioyce in geuyng prayse for the operations of thy handes.

5 O Lorde howe glorious are thy woorkes: and thy thoughtes are very deepe.

6 An vnwyse man dooth not well consyder this: and a foole doth not vnderstande it.

7 When the vngodly are greene as ỹ grasse, and when all the woorkes of wickednesse do florishe: then shall they be destroyed for euer, but thou Lorde art the most hyghest for euermore.

8 For loe, thyne enimies (O Lorde) loe thine enimies shal perishe: and all the woorkers of wickednesse shalbe destroyed.

9 But my horne shalbe exalted lyke the horne of an Unicorne: for I am annoynted with freshe oyle.

10 Myne eye also shall see his lust of myne enimies: and myne eare shall heare his desyre of the wicked that ryse vp agaynst me.

11 The righteous shal florishe lyke a Palme tree: and shall spreade abrode lyke a Cedar in Libanus.

12 Suche as be planted in the house of the Lorde: shall florishe in the courtes (of the house) of our God.

13 They shall also bryng foorth more fruite in their age: and shalbe fat and wel lykyng.

14 That they may shewe how true the Lord my strength is: and that there is no vnrighteousnesse in hym.

Dominus regnauit. Psalm.xciii.

2 He hath made the round worlde so sure: that it can not be moued.

6 Thy testimonies, O Lorde, are very sure: holynesse becommeth thyne house for euer.

Deus vltionum. Psalm.xciiij.

1 O Lorde God to whom vengeance belongeth: thou God to whom vengeance belongeth, shewe thee selfe.
2 Aryse thou iudge of the world: & rewarde the proude after their deseruyng.
3 Lorde, howe long shal the vngodly: howe long shall the vngodly triumphe?
4 Howe long shal al wicked doers speake so disdaynefully: and make suche proude boastyng?
5 They smyte downe thy people, O Lorde: and trouble thyne heritage.
6 They murder the wydowe and the stranger: and put the fatherlesse to death.
7 And yet they say, tushe, the Lorde shall not see: neyther shall the God of Jacob regarde it.
8 Take heede, ye vnwyse among the people: O ye fooles when wyll ye vnderstande?
9 He that planted the eare, shall he not heare: or he that made the eye, shall he not see?
10 Or he that nurtureth the Heathen: it is he that teacheth man knowledge, shall he not punishe?
*1.Cor.3.20 11 *The Lorde knoweth the thoughtes of man: that they are but vayne.
12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest (O Lorde:) and teachest hym in thy lawe.

14 For the Lorde wyll not fayle his people: neyther wyll he forsake his inheritance.
15 Untyll ryghteousnesse turne agayne vnto iudgement: all such as be true in hart shall folowe it.
16 Who wyll ryse vp with me agaynst the wicked: or who wyll take my part agaynst the cuyll doers?
17 If the Lorde had not helped me: it had not fayled but my soule had been put to silence.
18 But when I sayd, my foote hath slipped: thy mercy (O Lorde) helde me vp.
19 In the multitude of the sorowes that I had in my hart: thy comfortes haue refreshed my soule.
20 Wylt thou haue any thyng to doo with the stoole of wickednesse: which imagineth mischiefe as a lawe?
21 They geather them togeather agaynst the soule of the ryghteous: and condemne the innocent blood.
22 But the Lorde is my refuge: and my God is the strength of my confidence.
23 He shall recompence them their wickednesse, and destroy them in their owne malice: yea, the Lorde our God shall destroy them.

Venite, exultemus. Psal.xcv.

1 O Come, let vs sing vnto the Lorde: let vs hartily reioyce in the strength of our saluation.
2 Let vs come before his presence with thankesgeuing: and shewe our selues glad in hym with Psalmes.
3 For the Lorde is a great God: and a great kyng aboue al Gods.
4 In his hande are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hylles is his also.
5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his handes prepared the drye lande.
6 O come, let vs worshyp and fall downe: and kneele before the Lorde our maker.
7 For he is (the Lord) our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his handes.

10 Tell it out among the heathen that the Lorde is king: and that it is he which hath made the round world so fast that it can not be mooued, and howe that he shal iudge the people righteously.
11 Let the heauens reioyce, and let the earth be glad: let the sea make a noyse, and all that therein is.
12 Let the feelde be ioyfull, and all that is in it: then shall all the trees of the wood reioyce before the Lorde.

Domine exaudi. Psalm Cii.

1 HEare my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come vnto thee.

2 HYde not thy face from me in the time of my trouble: encline thyne eares vnto me when I call, O heare me, and that right soone.

3 For my dayes are consumed away like smoke: and my bones are brent vp as it were a fyre brand.

4 My hart is smitten downe and wythered like grasse: so y I forget to eate my bread.

5 For the voyce of my groning: my bones wyl scarse cleaue to my flesh.

6 I am become like a Pellican in the wyldernesse: and like an Owle that is in the desart.

7 I haue watched, and am euen as it were a Sparowe: that sitteth alone vppon the house toppe.

8 Myne enimies reuile me all the day long: and they that are mad vpon me, are swoyne together against me.

9 For I haue eaten ashes as it were bread: and mingled my drinke with weeping.

10 And that because of thyne indignation and wrath: for thou hast taken me vp, and cast me downe.

11 My dayes are gone like a shadowe: and I am wythered like grasse.

12 But thou (O Lord) shalt endure for euer: and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

13 Thou shalt aryse, and haue mercie vpon Sion: for it is time that thou haue mercie vpon her, yea the time is come.

14 And why? thy seruantes thinke vppon her stones: and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

15 The heathen shall feare thy name, O Lorde: and all the kinges of the earth thy maiestie.

16 When the Lord shal build vp Sion: and when his glory shall appeare.

17 When he turneth him vnto the prayer of the poore destitute: and despiseth not their desyre.

18 This shalbe written for those that come after: and the people which shalbe borne, shall prayse the Lorde.

19 For he hath looked downe from his sanctuarie: out of the heauen dyd the Lorde beholde the earth.

20 That he might heare the mournynges of such as be in captiuitie: and deliuer the chyldren appoynted vnto death.

21 That they may declare the name of the Lorde in Sion: and his worshyp at Hierusalem.

22 When the people are greathered together: and the kingdomes also to serue the Lorde.

23 He brought downe my strength in my iourney: and shortned my dayes.

24 But I sayde, O my God, take me not away in the middes of myne age: as for thy yeeres they endure throughout all generations.

25 Thou

Pſal.10. 25 *Thou Lord in the begynnyng haſt layd the fundation of the earth: and the heauens are the worke of thy handes.

26 They ſhall periſh, but thou ſhalt endure: they all ſhall waxe olde as doth a garment.

27 And as a veſture ſhalt thou change them, and they ſhalbe changed: but thou art the ſame, and thy yeeres ſhall not fayle.

28 The chyldren of thy ſeruantes ſhall continue: and their ſeede ſhall ſtande faſt in thy ſyght.

Benedic anima mea. Pſalm Ciii.

1 PRayſe the Lorde, O my ſoule: & al that is within me prayſe his holy name.

2 Prayſe the Lorde, O my ſoule: and forgeat not all his benefites.

3 Which forgeueth al thy ſinne: and healeth all thyne infirmities.

4 Whiche ſaueth thy lyfe from deſtruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and louyng kyndneſſe.

5 Which ſatiſfieth thy mouth with good thynges: makyng thee young and luſtie as an Eagle.

6 The Lorde executeth ryghteouſneſſe and iudgement: for all them that are oppreſſed with wrong.

7 He ſhewed his wayes vnto Moſes: his workes vnto the chyldren of Iſrael.

Pſa.14.18. 8 *The Lorde is ful of compaſſion and mercy: long ſufferyng, and of great goodneſſe.

9 He wyll not alway be chydyng: neyther keepeth he his anger for euer.

10 He hath not dealt with vs after our ſinnes: nor rewarded vs accordyng to our wickednes.

11 For looke how high the heauen is in comparyſon of the earth: ſo great is his mercie alſo towarde them that feare hym.

12 Looke howe wyde alſo the Eaſt is from the Weſt: ſo farre hath he ſet our ſinnes from vs.

13 Yea, lyke as a father pytieth his owne chyldren: euen ſo is the Lorde mercifull vnto them that feare hym.

14 For he knoweth whereof we be made: he remembreth that we are but duſt.

15 The dayes of man are but as graſſe: for he floriſheth as a flowre of the fielde.

16 For aſſoone as the wynde goeth ouer it, it is gone: and the place thereof ſhal know it no more.

17 But the mercyfull goodneſſe of the Lord endureth for euer and euer vpon them that feare hym: and his ryghteouſneſſe vppon chylders chyldren.

18 Euen vpon ſuche as kepe his couenant: and thynke vpon his commaundementes to do them.

19 The Lorde hath prepared his ſeate in heauen: and his kyngdome ruleth ouer al.

20 O prayſe the Lorde, ye angels of his, ye that excell in ſtrength: ye that fulfyll his commaundement, and hearken vnto the voyce of his wordes.

21 O prayſe the Lorde, all ye his hoſtes: ye ſeruantes of his that do his pleaſure.

22 O ſpeake good of the Lord all ye workes of his, in all places of his dominion: prayſe thou the Lorde, O my ſoule.

Benedic anima mea. Pſalm Ciiii.

1 PRaiſe the Lord, O my ſoule: O Lord my God, thou art become exceedyng glorious, thou art clothed with maieſtie and honour. Euening prayer.

2 Thou deckeſt thee ſelfe with light, as it were with a garment: and ſpreadeſt out the heauens lyke a curtayne.

3 Which layeth the beames of his chamber in the waters: and maketh the cloudes his chariot, and walketh vppon the wynges of the wynde. *Heb.1.7.

4 He maketh his angels ſpirites: and his miniſters a flamyng fyre.

5 He layde the fundations of the earth: that it ſhoulde neuer moone at any tyme.

6 Thou couereddſt it with the deepe, lyke as with a garment: the waters ſtande in the hylles.

7 At thy rebuke they flee: at the voyce of thy thunder they are afrayde.

8 They goe vp as hygh as the hylles, and downe to the valleyes beneath: euen vnto the place whiche thou haſt appoynted for them.

9 Thou haſt ſet them their boundes which they ſhal not paſſe: neyther turne agayne to couer the earth.

10 He ſendeth the ſpryngs into the ryuers: whiche runne among the hylles.

11 All beaſtes of the feelde drinke therof: and the wylde aſſes quenche their thirſt.

12 Beſide them ſhall the foules of the ayre haue their habitation: and ſing among the branches.

13 He watereth the hylles from aboue: the earth is filled with the fruit of thy workes.

14 He bryngeth forth graſſe for the cattell: and greene hearbe for the ſeruice of men.

15 *That he may bryng foode out of the earth, and wyne that maketh glad the hart of man: and oyle to make hym a chearefull countenance, & bread to ſtrēgth mans hart. *Joſu.9.13.

16 The trees of the Lord alſo are ful of ſap: euen the Cedars of Libanus, whiche he hath planted.

17 Wherein the byrdes make their neaſtes:

and

and the fyre trees are a dwellyng for the storke.

18 The hygh hylles are a refuge for the wylde goates: and so are the stony rockes for the conies.

19 He appointed the moone for certayne seasons: and the Sunne knoweth his goyng downe.

20 Thou makest darkenesse, that it may be nyght: wherein all the beastes of the forrest do moone.

21 The Lions roaryng after their pray: doo seeke their meate at God.

22 The Sunne aryseth, and they get them away togeather: and lay them downe in their dennes.

23 Man goeth forth vnto his worke, and to his labour: vntyll the euenyng.

24 O Lord, how manifolde are thy workes: in wysedome hast thou made them all, the earth is full of thy richesse.

25 So is the great and wyde sea also: wherein are thynges creepyng innumerable, both small and great beastes.

26 There goe the shyppes, and there is that Leuiathan: whom thou hast made to take his pastyme therein.

27 These wayte all vppon thee: that thou mayest geue them meate in due season.

28 When thou geuest it them, they geather it: and when thou openest thyne hande, they are filled with good.

29 When thou hydest thy face, they are troubled: when thou takest away their breath, they dye, and are turned agayne to their dust.

30 When thou lettest thy breath goe forth, they shalbe made: and thou shalt renue the face of the earth.

31 The glorious maiestie of the Lorde shall endure for euer: the Lorde shall reioyce in his workes.

32 The earth shall tremble at the looke of hym: yf he do but touche the hylles they shal smoke.

33 I wyll sing vnto the Lorde as long as I lyue: I wyll prayse my God whyle I haue my being.

34 And so shall my woordes please hym: my ioy shalbe in the Lorde.

35 As for sinners, they shalbe consumed out of the earth, and the vngodly shall come to an ende: prayse thou the Lorde, O my soule prayse the Lorde.

1 O Geue thankes vnto the Lorde, & cal vpon his name: tel the people what thynges he hath doone.

4 Seeke the Lorde and his strength: seeke his face euermore.

5 Remember the marueylous woorkes that he hath done: his wonders, and the iudgementes of his mouth.

3 Bleſſed are they that alway keepe iudgement: and doo righteouſneſſe.
4 Remember me, O Loꝛd, accoꝛding to the fauour that thou beareſt vnto thy people: O viſite me with thy ſaluation.
5 That I may ſee the felicitie of thy choſen: and reioyce in the gladneſſe of thy people, and geue thankes with thyne inheritance.
Iud.7.19. 6 * We haue ſinned with our fathers: we haue done amiſſe and dealt wickedly.
7 Our fathers regarded not thy woonders in Egypt, neyther kept they thy great goodneſſe in remembꝛance: * but were diſobedient at the ſea, euen at the red ſea. *Exo.14.21.
8 Neuertheleſſe, he helped them foꝛ his names ſake: that he might make his power to be knowen.
9 He rebuked the red ſea alſo, and it was dꝛyed vp: ſo he led them thꝛough the deepe, as thꝛough a wyldernеſſe.
10 And he ſaued them from the aduerſaries hand: and deliuered them from the hand of the enimie.
11 * As foꝛ thoſe that troubled them, the waters ouerwhelmed them: there was not one of them left. Exo.14.27.
12 Then beleeued they his wooꝛdes: and ſang pꝛayſe vnto him.

18 And the fyꝛe was kindeled in their companie: the flame burnt vp the vngodly.
19 * They made a calfe in Hoꝛeb: and wooꝛſhipped the moulten image. *Exod.32.4
20 Thus they turned their glory: into the ſimilitude of a Calfe that eateth hay.
21 And they foꝛgate God their Sauiour: which had done ſo great thinges in Egypt.
22 Woonderous wooꝛkes in the lande of Ham: and fearefull thinges by the red ſea.

37 And ſhedde innocent blood, euen the blood of their ſonnes & of their daughters: whom they offered vnto the idols of Chanaan, and the land was defiled with blood.

38 Thus were they ſtayned with their owne woorkes: and went a whooring with their owne inuentions.

39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lorde kindled againſt his people: in ſo much that he abhorred his owne inheritance.

40 And he gaue them ouer into the hand of the heathen: and they that hated them were lordes ouer them.

41 Their enimies oppreſſed them: and had them in ſubiection.

42 Many a time dyd he deliuer them: but they rebelled againſt him with their owne inuentions, and were brought downe in their wickedneſſe.

*Deut.30.2 44 *He thought vpon his couenant, and pitied them accoꝛding vnto the multitude of his mercies: yea he made all thoſe that had led them away captiue, to pitie them.

45 Deliuer vs (O Lord our God) and geather vs from among the heathen: that we may geue thankes vnto thy holy name, and make our boaſte of thy prayſe.

Mornyng prayer. 1 OGeue *thankes vnto the Lord, for he is gratious: and his mercie endureth for euer.

*Iud.13.21. 2 Let them geue thankes whom the Lord hath redeemed: and deliuered from the hand of the enimie.

3 And geathered them out of the landes, from the Eaſt and from the Weſt: from the Noꝛth, and from the South.

4 They went aſtray in the wyldernesſe out of the way: and founde no citie to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thyrſtie: their ſoule fainted in them.

6 So they cryed vnto the Lord in their trouble: and he deliuered them from theyꝛ diſtreſſe.

7 He led them foorth by the right way: that they might goe to the citie where they dwelt.

8 O that men woulde therefore prayſe the Lorde for his goodneſſe: and declare the wonders that he doth for ỹ childꝛen of men.

9 For he ſatisfyeth the emptie ſoule: and filleth the hungry ſoule with goodneſſe.

10 Such as ſyt in darkneſſe and in the ſhadowe of death: being faſt bound in miſerie and iron.

11 Becauſe they rebelled againſt the woꝛds of the Lord: and lightly regarded the counſayle of the moſt high.

12 He alſo brought downe their hart through heauineſſe: they fell downe, and there was none to helpe them vp.

13 So when they cryed vnto the Lorde in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their diſtreſſe.

14 For he brought them out of darkneſſe, and out of the ſhadowe of death: and brake their bondes in ſunder.

15 O that men woulde therefore prayſe the Lord for his goodneſſe: and declare ỹ wonders that he doeth for the childꝛen of men.

16 For he hath broken the gates of braſſe: and ſmitten the barres of iron in ſunder.

17 Fooliſhe men are plagued for theyꝛ offence: and becauſe of their wickedneſſe.

18 Their ſoule abhorred al maner of meat: and they were euen hard at deathes dooꝛe.

19 So when they cryed vnto the Lorde in their trouble: he deliuered them out of their diſtreſſe.

20 He ſent his woꝛd and healed them: and they were ſaued from their deſtruction.

21 O that men woulde therefore prayſe the Lorde for his goodneſſe: and declare the woonders that he doeth for the chyldꝛen of men.

22 That they woulde offer vnto him the ſacrifyce of thankes geuing: and tell out his woorkes with gladneſſe.

23 They that goe downe to the ſea in ſhippes: and occupie their buſineſſe in great waters.

24 Theſe men ſee the woorkes of the Lord: and his woonders in the deepe.

25 For at his woꝛd the ſtormie winde aryſeth: which lyfteth vp the waues thereof.

26 They are carried vp to the heauen, and and downe agayne to the deepe: their ſoule melteth away, becauſe of the trouble.

27 They reele too and fro, and ſtagger lyke a dronken man: & are at their wyttes ende.
28 So when they crye vnto the Lord in their trouble: he delyuereth them out of their diſtreſſe.
29 For he maketh the ſtorme to ceaſſe: ſo that the waues thereof are ſtyl.
30 Then are they glad, becauſe they be at reſt: and ſo he bryngeth them vnto the hauen where they woulde be.
31 O that men woulde therefore prayſe the Lord for his goodneſſe: & declare the wonders that he doeth for the chyldren of men.
32 That they woulde exalte him alſo in the congregation of the people: and prayſe him in the ſeate of the elders.
33 Which turneth the floods into a wylderneſſe: and dryeth vp the water ſprynges.
34 A fruitefull lande maketh he barren: for the wyckednes of them that dwel therein.
35 Agayne, he maketh the wylderneſſe a ſtandyng water: and water ſprynges of a drye grounde.
36 And there he ſetteth the hungrie: that they may buylde them a citie to dwel in.
37 That they maye ſowe their lande, and plant Vineyardes: to yeelde them fruites of encreaſe.
38 He bleſſeth them, ſo that they multiplye exceedyngly: and ſuffereth not their cattell to decreaſe.
39 And agayne, when they are miniſhed and brought lowe: through oppreſſion, through any plague or trouble.
40 Though he ſuffer them to be euil intreated through tyrantes: and let them wander out of the way in the wyldernes.
41 Yet helpeth he the poore out of miſerie: and maketh hym houſholdes lyke a flocke of sheepe.
Pſal.22.19. 42 *The ryghteous wyl conſyder this, and reioyce: and the mouth of all wyckednes ſhalbe ſtopped.
43 Who ſo is wyſe, wyll ponder theſe thynges: and they ſhall vnderſtande the louyng kyndneſſe of the Lorde.

4 For thy mercie is greater then the heauens: and thy trueth reacheth vnto the cloudes.
5 *Set vp thee ſelf (O God) aboue the heauens: and thy glorie aboue al the earth. Pſal.60.7.

7 God hath ſpoken in his holyneſſe: I wyll reioyce therefore and diuide Sichem, and meate out the valley of Sucoth.
8 Gilead is myne, and Manaſſes is myne: Ephraim alſo is the ſtrength of my head.
9 Iuda is my law geuer, Moab is my waſhpot: ouer Edom wyl I caſt out my ſhooe, vpon the Philiſtines wyl I triumphe.
10 Who wyll leade me into the ſtrong citie: and who wyl bryng me into Edom?
11 Haſt not thou forſaken vs, O God: and wylt not thou O God goe forth with our hoſtes?
12 O helpe vs agaynſt the enimie: for vaine is the helpe of man.
13 Through God we ſhall doo great actes: and it is he that ſhall treade downe our enimies.

16 His delyght was in cursyng, and it shall happen vnto hym: he loued not blessyng, therefore shal it be farre from hym.

17 He clothed hym selfe with cursyng, lyke as with a rayment: and it shal come into his bowels lyke water, and lyke oyle into his bones.

18 Let it be vnto hym as the cloke that he hath vpon hym: and as the gyrdle that he is alway gyrded withal.

19 Let it thus happen from the Lorde vnto myne enimies: and to those that speake euil agaynst my soule.

20 But deale thou with me (O Lord God) accordyng vnto thy name: for sweete is thy mercie.

21 O delyuer me, for I am helpelesse and poore: and my hart is wounded within me.

22 I goe hence lyke the shadow that departeth: and am dryuen away as the Grashopper.

23 My knees are weake through fastyng: my flesshe is dryed vp for want of fatnesse.

24 I became also a rebuke vnto them: they that looked vppon me, shaked their heades.

25 Helpe me (O Lorde my God:) oh saue me accordyng to thy mercie.

26 And they shall knowe howe that this is thy hande: and that thou Lorde hast doone it.

27 Though they curse, yet blesse thou: and let them be confounded that ryse vp against me, but let thy seruaunt reioyce.

28 Let myne aduersaries be clothed with shame: and let them couer them selues with their owne confusion, as with a cloke.

29 As for me, I wyl geue great thankes vnto the Lorde with my mouth: and prayse hym among the multitude.

30 For he shall stande at the ryght hande of the poore: to saue his soule from vnryghteous iudges.

1 I Wyl geue thankes vnto the Lorde with my whole hart: secretly amongthe faithful, and in the congregation.

2 The woorkes of the Lorde are great: sought out of al them that haue pleasure therein.

3 His woorke is woorthie to be prayed, and had in honour: and his ryghteousnesse endureth for euer.

5 He hath geuen meate vnto them that feare hym: he shal euer be myndefull of his couenaunt.

6 He hath shewed his people the power of his woorkes: that he maye geue them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The woorkes of his handes are veritie and iudgement: al his commaundementes are true.

8 They stand fast for euer and euer: and are doone in trueth and equitie.

9 He sent redemption vnto his people: he hath commaunded his couenaunt for euer, holy and reuerent is his name.

2 The same is my comforte in my trouble: for thy woorde hath quickened me.
3 The proude haue had me exceedyngly in derision: yet haue I not shrynked from thy lawe.
4 For I remembred thine euerlasting iudgmentes, O Lorde: and receyued comforte.
5 I am horribly afrayde: for the vngodlye that forsake thy lawe.
6 Thy statutes haue been my songues: in the house of my pylgrimage.

8 This I had: because I kept thy cõmaundementes.

Portio mea domine.

1 THou art my portion, O Lorde: I haue promysed to keepe thy lawe.
2 I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole hart: O be mercyful vnto me accordyng to thy woorde.
3 I called myne owne wayes to remembraunce: and turned my feete vnto thy testimonies.
4 I made haste, and prolonged not the time: to keepe thy commaundementes.
5 The congregation of the vngodlye haue robbed me: but I haue not forgotten thy lawe.
6 At midnight I wyll ryse to geue thankes vnto thee: because of thy ryghteous iudgementes.
7 I am a companion of all them that feare thee: and keepe thy commaundementes.
8 The earth, O Lorde, is ful of thy mercie: O teache me thy statutes.

Bonitatem fecisti.

1 O Lord, thou hast dealt gratiously with thy seruant, according vnto thy word.
2 O learne me true vnderstandyng & knowledge: for I haue beleeued thy commaundementes.
3 Before I was troubled I went wrong: but nowe haue I kept thy woorde.
4 Thou art good and gratious: O teache me thy statutes.
5 The proude haue imagined a lye agaynst me: but I wyl keepe thy commaundementes with my whole hart.
6 Their hart is as fat as brawne: but my delyght hath been in thy lawe.
7 It is good for me that I haue been in trouble: that I may learne thy statutes.
8 The law of thy mouth is dearer vnto me: then thousandes of golde and syluer.

Manus tuæ fecerunt me.

1 THy handes haue made me, and fashioned me: O geue me vnderstandyng, that I may learne thy commaundementes. Euenyng prayer.
2 They that feare thee, wil be glad when they see me: because I haue put my trust in thy woorde.
3 I knowe (O Lorde) that thy iudgements are ryght: and that thou of very faythfulnesse hast caused me to be troubled.
4 O let thy mercyful kyndnesse be my comforte: accordyng to thy woorde vnto thy seruaunt.
5 O let thy louyng mercies come vnto me, that I may lyue: for thy lawe is my delyght.
6 Let the proud be confounded, for they goe wyckedly about to destroy me: but I wyll be occupied in thy commaundementes.
7 Let suche as feare thee, and haue knowen thy testimonies: be turned vnto me.
8 O let my hart be sounde in thy statutes: that I be not ashamed.

Defecit anima mea.

1 MY soule hath longed for thy saluation: and I haue a good hope because of thy woorde.
2 Myne eyes long sore for thy woorde, saying: O when wylt thou comforte me?
3 For I am become like a bottel in ỹ smoke: yet doo I not forget thy statutes.
4 Howe many are the dayes of thy seruant: when wylt thou be auenged of them that persecute me?
5 The proude haue dygged pyttes for me: whiche are not after thy lawe.
6 All thy commaundementes are true: they persecute me falsly, O be thou my helpe.
7 They had almoste made an ende of me vpon vpon earth: but I forſooke not thy commaundementes.

8 O quicken me after thy louing kyndneſſe: and ſo ſhal I keepe the teſtimonies of thy mouth.

In eternum domine.

1 O Lorde thy woorde endureth for euer in heauen.
2 Thy trueth alſo remayneth from one generation to another: thou haſt layde the fundation of the earth, and it abydeth.
3 They continue this day according to thine ordinance: for al thinges ſerue thee.
4 If my delight had not ben in thy lawe: I ſhoulde haue periſhed in my trouble.
5 I wyll neuer forgeat thy commaundementes: for with them thou haſt quickened me.
6 I am thine, Oh ſaue me: for I haue ſought thy commaundementes.
7 The vngodly layd waite for me to deſtroy me: but I wyl conſyder thy teſtimonies.
8 I ſee that al thinges come to an ende: but thy commaundement is exceeding brode.

Quomodo dilexi.

1 L Orde, what loue haue I vnto thy lawe: al the day long is my ſtudie in it.
2 Thou through thy cõmaundementes haſt made me wyſer then mine enimies: for they are euer with me.
3 I haue more vnderſtanding then my teachers: for thy teſtimonies are my ſtudie.
4 I am wyſer then the aged: becauſe I keepe thy commaundementes.
5 I haue refrayned my feete from euery euyl way: that I may keepe thy woorde.
6 I haue not ſhronke from thy iudgements: for thou teacheſt me.
7 O howe ſweete are thy woordes vnto my throte: yea ſweeter then hony vnto my mouth.
8 Through thy commaundementes I geat vnderſtanding: therefore I hate al wicked wayes.

Lucerna pedibus meis.

Morning prayer.

1 Thy woorde is a lanterne vnto my feete: and a light vnto my pathes.
2 I haue ſworne, and am ſtedfaſtly purpoſed: to keepe thy ryghteous iudgementes.
3 I am troubled aboue meaſure: quicken me (O Lorde) according vnto thy woorde.
4 Let the free wyl offerynges of my mouth pleaſe thee, O Lorde: and teache me thy iudgementes.
5 My ſoule is alway in my hande: yet doo I not forgeat thy lawe.
6 The vngodly haue layde a ſnare for me: but yet I ſwarued not from thy commaundementes.
7 Thy teſtimonies haue I claimed as mine heritage for euer: and why? they are the very ioy of my hart.
8 I haue applied mine hart to fulfyl thy ſtatutes alway: euen vnto the ende.

Iniquos odio habui.

1 I Hate them that imagine euyl thynges: but thy lawe doo I loue.
2 Thou art my defence and my ſhielde: and my truſt is in thy woorde.
3 Away from me ye wycked: I wyl keepe the commaundementes of my God.
4 O ſtablyſhe me according vnto thy woorde, that I may lyue: & let me not be diſapoynted of my hope.
5 Holde thou me vp, and I ſhalbe ſafe: yea my delight ſhalbe euer in thy ſtatutes.
6 Thou haſt troden downe all them that depart from thy ſtatutes: for they imagine but deceyte.
7 Thou puttеſt away al the vngodly of the earth like droſſe: therefore I loue thy teſtimonies.
8 My fleſhe trembleth for feare of thee: and I am afrayde of thy iudgementes.

Feci iudicium.

1 I Deale with the thyng that is lawful and ryght: O geue me not ouer vnto mine oppreſſours.
2 Make thou thy ſeruant to delight in that which is good: that the proude doo me no wrong.
3 Mine eyes are waſted away with looking for thy health: and for the woorde of thy ryghteouſneſſe.
4 O deale with thy ſeruant according vnto thy louyng mercie: and teache me thy ſtatutes.
5 I am thy ſeruant, O graunt me vnderſtandyng: that I may knowe thy teſtimonies.
6 It is time for thee Lorde to lay to thyne hande: for they haue deſtroyed thy lawe.
7 For I loue thy commaundementes: aboue golde and pretious ſtone.
8 Therefore holde I ſtraight all thy commaundementes: and al falſe wayes I vtterly abhorre.

Mirabilia.

1 Thy teſtimonies are woonderful: therefore doeth my ſoule keepe them.
2 When thy woorde goeth forth: it geueth lyght and vnderſtanding vnto the ſimple.

3 I opened my mouth and drewe in my breath: for my delight was in thy commaundementes.
4 O looke thou vpon me, and be mercifull vnto me: as thou vsest to doo vnto those that loue thy name.
5 Order my steppes in thy woorde: and so shal no wyckednesse haue dominion ouer me.
6 O deliuer me from the wrongfull dealinges of men: and so shal I keepe thy commaundementes.
7 Shewe the light of thy countenance vpon thy seruant: and teache me thy statutes.
8 Mine eyes gushe out with water: because men keepe not thy lawe.

Iustus es domine.

1 RYghteous art thou, O Lorde: and true is thy iudgement.
2 The testimonies that thou hast commaunded: are exceeding righteous & true.
3 My zeale hath euen consumed me: because mine enimies haue forgotten thy woordes.
4 Thy worde is tried to the vttermost: and thy seruant loueth it.
5 I am smal and of no reputation: yet doo not I forgeat thy commaundementes.
6 Thy righteousnesse is an euerlasting righteousnesse: and thy lawe is the trueth.
7 Trouble and heauinesse hath taken holde vpon me: yet is my delight in thy commaundementes.
8 The righteousnesse of thy testimonies is euerlasting: O graunt me vnderstanding, and I shal lyue.

Clamaui in toto corde meo.

Euenyng prayer.

1 I Call with my whole hart: heare me O Lorde, I wyl keepe thy statutes.
2 Yea, euen vpon thee doo I call: helpe me and I shal keepe thy testimonies.
3 Early in the morning doo I crye vnto thee: for in thy woorde is my trust.
4 Mine eyes preuent the night watches: that I might be occupied in thy woordes.
5 Heare my voyce (O Lorde) according vnto thy louing kindnesse: quicken me according as thou art woont.
6 They drawe nigh that of malice persecute me: and are farre from thy lawe.
7 Be thou nigh at hande, O Lorde: for all thy commaundementes are true.
8 As concernyng thy testimonies, I haue knowen long since: that thou hast grounded them for euer.

Vide humilitatem.

1 O Consyder mine aduersitie, & deliuer me: for I doo not forgeat thy lawe.
2 Auenge thou my cause, and deliuer me: quicken me according vnto thy woorde.
3 Healthy is farre from the vngodly: for they regarde not thy statutes.
4 Great is thy mercie, O Lord: quicken me as thou art woont.
5 Many there are that trouble me, and persecute me: yet doo I not swarue from thy testimonies.
6 It greeueth me when I see the transgressours: because they keepe not thy lawe.
7 Consider, O Lord, howe I loue thy commaundementes: O quicken me according to thy louing kyndnesse.
8 Thy woorde is true from euerlasting: all the iudgementes of thy ryghteousnesse endure for euermore.

Principes persecuti sunt.

1 PRinces haue persecuted me without a cause: but my hart standeth in awe of thy woordes.
2 I am as glad of thy woorde: as one that findeth great spoyles.
3 As for lyes I hate and abhorre them: but thy lawe doo I loue.
4 Seuen tymes a day doo I prayse thee: because of thy righteous iudgementes.
5 Great is the peace that they haue which loue thy lawe: and they are not offended at it.
6 Lord I haue looked for thy sauing healthy and doone after thy commaundementes.
7 My soule hath kept thy testimonies: and loued them exceedingly.
8 I haue kept thy commaundementes and testimonies: for all my wayes are before thee.

Appropinquet deprecatio.

1 LEt my complaint come before thee, O Lorde: geue me vnderstanding according to thy woorde.
2 O let my supplication come before thee: deliuer me according to thy woorde.
3 My lippes shal speake of thy prayse: when thou hast taught me thy statutes.
4 Yea, my tongue shall sing of thy woorde: for al thy commaundementes are ryghteous.
5 Let thine hande helpe me: for I haue chosen thy commaundementes.
6 I haue longed for thy sauyng healthy, O Lorde: and in thy lawe is my delyght.
7 Oh let my soule lyue, and it shal prayse thee: and thy iudgementes shal helpe me.
8 I haue gone astray like a sheepe that is lost: Oh seeke thy seruant, for I doo not forgeat thy commaundementes.

Mornyng prayer.

1 WHEN I was in trouble, I called vppon the Lorde: and he hearde me.
2 Deliuer my ſoule, O Lorde, from lying lippes: and from a deceitfull tongue.
3 What rewarde ſhalbe geuen or done vnto thee thou falſe tongue: euen myghtie and sharpe arrowes, with hot burnyng coales.
4 Woe is me, that I am cõſtrayned to dwel with Meſech: and to haue myne habitatiõ among the tentes of Cedar.
5 My ſoule hath long dwelt among them: that be enimies vnto peace.
6 I labour for peace: but when I ſpeake vnto them thereof, they make them redy to battayle.

Leuaui oculos. Pſalm.Cxxi.

2.Chro.20 17. 1 I WYL * lyft vp myne eyes vnto the hylles: from whence commeth my helpe.
2 My helpe commeth euen from the Lorde: which hath made heauen and earth.
3 He wyl not ſuffer thy foote to be mooued: and he that keepeth thee wyll not ſleepe.
4 Beholde, he that keepeth Iſrael: ſhal neither ſlumber nor ſleepe.
5 The Lorde hym ſelfe is thy keeper: the Lorde is thy defence vpon thy ryght hande.
6 So that the Sunne ſhal not burne thee by day: neyther the Moone by nyght.
7 The Lorde ſhal preſerue thee from al euil: Yea, it is euen he that ſhall keepe thy ſoule.
8 The Lorde ſhall preſerue thy goyng out, and thy commyng in: from this tyme forth for euermore.

Letatus ſum. Pſal.Cxxii.

1 I Was glad when they ſayde vnto me: we wyl goe into the houſe of the Lorde.
2 Our feete ſhall ſtande in thy gates: O Hieruſalem.
3 Hieruſalem is buylded as a citie: that is at vnitie in it ſelfe.
4 For thyther the tribes goe vp, euen the tribes of the Lord: to teſtifie vnto Iſrael, to geue thankes vnto the name of the Lorde.
5 For there is the ſeate of iudgement: euen the ſeate of the houſe of Dauid.
6 O pray for the peace of Hieruſalem: they ſhall proſper that loue thee.
7 Peace be within thy walles: and plenteouſneſſe within thy palaces.
8 For my brethren and companions ſakes: I wyll wyſhe thee proſperitie.
9 Yea, becauſe of the houſe of the Lorde our God: I wyll ſeeke to doo thee good.

Ad te leuaui. Pſal.Cxxiii.

1 VNto thee lyft I vp myne eyes: O thou that dwelleſt in the heauens.
2 Beholde, euen as the eyes of ſeruauntes looke vnto the hande of their maiſters, and as the eyes of a mayden vnto the hande of her maiſtreſſe: euen ſo our eyes wayte vpon the Lorde our God, vntyll he haue mercy vpon vs.
3 Haue mercy vpon vs, O Lorde, haue mercy vpon vs: for we are vtterly deſpiſed.
4 Our ſoule is fylled with the ſcornefull reproofe of the wealthy: and with the diſpitefulneſſe of the proude.

Niſi quia. Pſalm.Cxxiiii.

1 IF the Lorde him ſelfe had not ben on our ſyde (nowe may Iſrael ſay:) if the Lorde hym ſelfe had not been on our ſyde when men roſe vp agaynſt vs,
2 They had ſwallowed vs vp quicke: when they were ſo wrathfully diſpleaſed at vs.
3 Yea the waters had drowned vs: and the ſtreame had gone ouer our ſoule.
4 The deepe waters of the proude: had gone euen ouer our ſoule.
5 But prayſed be the Lorde: which hath not geuen vs ouer for a pray vnto their teeth.
6 Our ſoule is eſcaped, euen as a byrde out of the ſnare of the fowler: the ſnare is broken, and we are deliuered.
7 Our helpe ſtandeth in the name of the Lord: which hath made heauen and earth.

Qui confidunt. Pſal.Cxxv.

1 THey that put their truſt in the Lorde, ſhalbe euen as the mount Sion: which may not be remooued, but ſtandeth faſt for euer.
2 The hylles ſtande about Hieruſalem: euen ſo ſtandeth the Lorde rounde about his people, from this tyme forth for euermore.
3 For the rod of the vngodly commeth not into the lot of the righteous: leſt the righteous put their hande vnto wickedneſſe.
4 Do well, O Lord: vnto thoſe that be good and true of hart.
5 As for ſuch as turne backe vnto their owne wickednеſſe: the Lord ſhal leade them forth with the euyll doers, but peace ſhalbe vpon Iſrael.

In conuertendo. Pſal.Cxxvi.

Euenyng prayer.

1 WHen the Lord turned agayne the captiuitie of Sion: then were we like vnto them that dreame.
2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter: and our tongue with ioy.
3 Then ſayde they among the Heathen: the the Lord hath done great thinges for them.

4 Yea, the Lorde hath doone great thinges for vs already: whereof we reioyce.
5 Turne our captiuitie, O Lorde: as the ryuers in the South.
6 They that sowe in teares: shall reape in ioy.
7 He that now goeth on his way weepyng, and beareth forth good seede: shall doubtlesse come agayne with ioy, and bryng his sheaues with hym.

Nisi Dominus. Psalm.Cxxvii.

1 EXcept the Lorde buylde the house: their labour is but lost that buylde it.
2 Except the Lorde keepe the citie: the watchman waketh but in vayne.
3 It is but lost labour that ye haste to ryse vp early, and so late take rest, and eate the bread of carefulnesse: for so he geueth his beloued sleepe.
4 Loe children, and the fruit of the wombe: are an heritage and gyft that commeth of the Lorde.
5 Lyke as the arrowes in the hande of the Giaunt: euen so are the young children.
6 Happy is the man that hath his quiuer ful of them: they shal not be ashamed when they speake with with their enimies in the gate.

Beati omnes. Psal.Cxxviii.

1 BLessed are all they that feare the Lorde: and walke in his wayes.
2 For thou shalt eate the labours of thine handes: O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.
3 Thy wyfe shalbe as the fruitefull vyne: vpon the walles of thyne house.
4 Thy children lyke the Olyue braunches: rounde about thy table.
5 Loe, thus shal the man be blessed: that feareth the Lorde.
6 The Lorde from out of Sion shal so blesse thee: that thou shalt see Hierusalem in prosperitie al thy lyfe long.
7 Yea, that thou shalt see thy childers children: and peace vpon Israel.

Sepe expugnauerunt. Psal.Cxxix.

1 MAny a tyme haue they fought agaynst me from my youth vp: (may Israel nowe say.)
2 Yea, many a tyme haue they vexed me frō my youth vp: but they haue not preuayled agaynst me.
3 The plowers plowed vpon my backe: and made long forowes.
4 But the ryghteous Lord: hath hewen the snares of the vngodly in peeces.
5 Let them be confounded and turned backwarde: as many as haue euyl wyl at Sion.
6 Let them be euen as the grasse growyng vppon the house toppes: whiche withereth afore it be plucked vp.
7 Wherof the mower filleth not his hande neyther he that byndeth vp the sheaues, his bosome.
8 So that they whiche goe by, say not so much as the Lorde prosper you: we wyshe you good lucke in the name of the Lorde.

De profundis clamaui. Psalm.Cxxx.

1 OVt of ỹ deepe haue I called vnto thee (O Lorde:) Lorde heare my voyce.
2 Oh let thine eares consyder wel: the voyce of my complaynt.
3 If thou Lorde wylt be extreeme to marke what is done amisse: oh Lorde who may abyde it.
4 For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.
5 I looke for the Lorde, my soule doth wayte for hym: in his worde is my trust.
6 My soule fleeth vnto the Lorde: before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watche.
7 O Israel trust in the Lorde, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with him is plenteous redemption.
8 And he shall redeeme Israel: from all his sinnes.

Domine, non est. Psalm.Cxxxi.

1 LOrde, I am not hygh mynded: I haue no proude lookes.
2 I doo not exercise mee selfe in great matters: whiche are to hygh for me.
3 But I refrayne my soule, & keepe it lowe, lyke as a child that is weaned from his mother: yea, my soule is euē as a weaned child.
4 O Israel trust in the Lorde: from this tyme forth for euermore.

Memento Domine. Psal.Cxxxii.

1 LOrde remember Dauid: and all his trouble. Morning prayer.
2 How he sware vnto the Lord: and vowed a vowe vnto the almyghtie God of Jacob.
3 I wyll not come within the tabernacle of my house: nor climbe vp into my bed.
4 I wyll not suffer myne eyes to sleepe, nor myne eye lyddes to slumber: neyther the temples of myne head to take any rest.
5 Untyll I finde out a place for the temple of the Lorde: an habitation for the myghty

God of Jacob.

6 Loe, we heard of the same at Ephrata: and found it in the wood.

7 We wyll goe into his tabernacle: and fal lowe on our knees before his footestoole.

1 BEholde howe good and ioyfull a thing it is: brethren to dwell togeather in vnitie.

2 It is like the precious oyntment vpon the head, that ranne downe vnto the bearde: euen vnto Aarons beard, and went downe to the skirtes of his clothing.

1 BY the waters of Babylō we ſate downe and wept: when we remembred thee, O Sion.

6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleaue to the roofe of my mouth: yea, if I preferre not Hieruſalem in my mirth.
7 Remember the chyldren of Edom, O lord, in the day of Hieruſalem: howe they ſayde, downe with it, downe with it, euen to the ground.

1 I Wyll geue thankes vnto thee, O Lorde, with my whole hart: euen before the goddes wyll I ſyng prayſe vnto thee.
2 I wyl worſhip toward thy holy temple, and prayſe thy name, becauſe of thy louing kindneſſe and trueth: for thou haſt magnified thy name, and thy worde aboue all thinges.
3 When I called vpon thee, thou heardeſt me: and enduedſt my ſoule with muche ſtrength.
4 All the kings of the earth ſhal prayſe thee, O Lorde: for they haue heard the wordes of thy mouth.
5 Yea, they ſhall ſyng in the wayes of the Lorde: that great is the glory of the Lorde.
6 For though the Lorde be high, yet hath he reſpect vnto the lowly: as for the proud, he beholdeth them a farre of.
7 Though I walke in the middes of trouble, yet ſhalt thou refreſhe me: thou ſhalt ſtretch forth thyne hand vpon the furiouſneſſe of myne enimies, and thy right hand ſhall ſaue me.
8 The Lorde ſhall make good his louyng kindneſſe towarde me: yea thy mercie, O Lorde, endureth for euer, deſpiſe not then the workes of thyne owne handes.

Domine, probaſti. Pſalm.Cxxxix.

1 O Lorde, thou haſt ſearched me out and knowen me: thou knoweſt my downe ſitting and myne vpryſing, thou vnderſtandeſt my thoughtes long before. Mornyng prayer.

2 Thou

2 Thou art about my path, and about my bed: and spyest out all my wayes.
3 For loe, there is not a word in my tongue: but thou, O Lorde, knowest it altogether.
4 Thou hast fashioned me behynde and before: and layde thyne hande vpon me.
5 Suche knowledge is to wonderfull and excellent for me: I can not atteyne vnto it.
6 Whyther shal I goe then from thy spirit: or whyther shall I goe then from thy presence?
7 *If I clymbe vp into heauen, thou art there: yf I goe downe to hel, thou art there also. *Amos.9.12
8 If I take the winges of the morning: and remayne in the vttermost partes of the sea.
9 Euen there also shall thy hande leade me: and thy ryght hande shal holde me.
10 If I say, peraduenture the darkenesse shal couer me: then shal my nyght be turned to day.
11 Yea, the darkenesse is no darkenesse with thee, but the nyght is as cleare as the day: the darkenesse and lyght (to thee) are both a lyke.
12 For my raynes are thine: thou hast couered me in my mothers wombe.
13 I wyll geue thankes vnto thee, for I am fearefully and wonderfully made: marueilous are thy woorkes, and that my soule knoweth ryght well.
14 My bones are not hyd from thee: though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.
15 Thyne eyes dyd see my substance, yet being vnperfect: and in thy booke were al my members wrytten.
16 Which day by day were fashioned: when as yet there was none of them.
17 Howe deare are thy counsayles vnto me, O GOD: O howe great is the summe of them?
18 If I tell them, they are moe in number then the sande: when I wake vp, I am present with thee.
19 Wylt thou not slay the wicked, O God: depart from me ye blood thirstie men.
20 For they speake vngratiously agaynst thee: and thyne enimies take thy name in vayne.
21 Do not I hate them, O Lorde, that hate thee: and am not I greeued with those that ryse vp agaynst thee?
22 Yea, I hate them ryght sore: euen as though they were myne enimies.
23 Trye me, O God, and seeke the grounde of my hart: proue me, and examine my thoughtes.
24 Looke wel if there be any way of wickednes in me: & leade me in ẏ way euerlasting.

Eripe me Domine. Psalm.Cxl.

1 DEliuer me, O Lorde, from the euyll man: and preserue me from the wicked man.
2 Which imagine mischiefe in their harts: and stirre vp strife all the day long.
3 *They haue sharpened their tongues like a Serpent: Adders poyson is vnder their lyppes. *Rom.3.14.
4 Keepe me, O Lorde, from the handes of the vngodly: preserue me from the wicked men which are purposed to ouerthrowe my goynges.
5 The proude haue layde a snare for me, and spread a net abrode with cordes: yea, and set trappes in my way.
6 I sayde vnto the Lorde, thou art my God: heare the voyce of my prayers, O Lorde.
7 O Lorde God, the strength of my health: thou hast couered my head in the day of battayle.
8 Let not the vngodly haue his desyre, O Lorde: let not his mischeeuous imagination prosper, least they be to proude.
9 Let the mischiefe of their owne lyppes fall vpon the head of them: that compasse me about.
10 Let hot burnyng coales fall vppon them: let them be cast into the fyre, and into the pit, that they neuer ryse vp agayne.
11 A man full of woordes shall not prosper vpon the earth, euyll shall hunt the wicked person to ouerthrowe hym.
12 Sure I am that the Lorde wyll auenge the poore: and mainteyne the cause of the helpelesse.
13 The ryghteous also shall geue thankes vnto thy name: and the iust shall continue in thy sight.

Domine clamaui. Psal.Cxli.

1 LOrde, I call vppon thee, haste thee to helpe me: and consyder my voyce whē I crye vnto thee.
2 Let my prayer be set foorth in thy sight as the incense: & let the lifting vp of my hands be an euenyng sacrifice.
3 Set a watch (O Lorde) before my mouth: and keepe the doore of my lippes.
4 O let not my hart be enclined to any euyll thyng: let me not be occupyed in vngodly woorkes, with the men that woorke wickednesse, lest I eate of suche thinges as pleaseth them.
5 Let the ryghteous rather smyte me friendly: and reproue me.
6 But let not their pretious balmes breake myne head: yea I wyll pray, yet agaynst their wickednesse.

7 Let their iudges be ouerthrowen in stony places: that they may heare thy wordes, for they are sweete.

8 Our bones lye scattered before the pit: lyke as when one breaketh & heweth wood vpon the earth.

9 But myne eyes looke vnto thee, O Lorde God: in thee is my trust, O cast not out my soule.

10 Keepe me from the snare whiche they haue layde for me: and from the trappes of the wicked doers.

11 Let the vngodly fall into their owne nettes together: and let me euer escape them.

Voce mea ad Dominum. Psalm.Cxlii.

Euening prayer.

1 I Cryed vnto the Lorde with my voyce: yea, euen vnto the Lord dyd I make my supplication.

2 I powred out my complaintes before him: and shewed him of my trouble.

3 When my spirite was in heauynesse, thou knewest my path: in the way wherein I walked haue they priuily layde a snare for me.

4 I looked also vppon my ryght hande: and see, there was no man that would know me.

5 I had no place to flee vnto: and no man cared for my soule.

6 I cryed vnto thee, O Lord, and sayd: thou art my hope and my portion in the lande of the lyuyng.

7 Consyder my cõplaynt: for I am brought very lowe.

8 O deliuer me from my persecutours: for they are to strong for me.

9 Bryng my soule out of prison, that I may geue thankes vnto thy name: which thing yf thou wylt graunt me, then shall the righteous resort vnto my companie.

Domine exaudi. Psalm.Cxliii.

1 HEare my prayer, O Lorde, and consyder my desyre: hearken vnto me for thy trueth and ryghteousnesse sake.

2 And enter not into iudgement with thy seruaunt: for *in thy syght shall no man lyuyng be iustified.

*Exod. 34.7

3 For the enimie hath persecuted my soule, he hath smitten my life downe to ỹ ground: he hath layde me in the darkenesse, as the men that haue ben long dead.

4 Therfore is my spirit vexed within me: and my hart within me is desolate.

5 Yet do I remember the tyme past, I muse vpon all thy woorkes: yea, I exercise mee selfe in the woorkes of thy handes.

6 I stretche forth my handes vnto thee: my soule gaspeth vnto thee as a thirstie lande.

7 Heare me, O Lorde, and that soone, for my spirite waxeth faint: hide not thy face from me, lest I be lyke vnto them that go downe into the pit.

8 O let me heare thy louyng kyndnesse betymes in the mornyng, for in thee is my trust: shewe thou me the way that I should walke in, for I lyft vp my soule vnto thee.

9 Delyuer me, O Lord, from mine enimies: for I flee vnto thee to hyde me.

10 Teache me to do the thyng that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God: let thy louyng spirite leade me forth into the lande of ryghteousnesse.

11 Quicken me, O Lorde, for thy names sake: and for thy ryghteousnesse sake bryng my soule out of trouble.

12 And of thy goodnesse slea myne enimies, and destroy all them that vexe my soule: for I am thy seruant.

Benedictus Dominus. Psal.Cxliiii.

1 BLessed be the Lorde my strength: which teacheth my handes to warre, and my fyngers to fyght. Mornyng prayer.

2 My hope and my fortresse, my castle and delyuerer, my defender in whom I trust: whiche subdueth my people that is vnder me.

3 Lorde, what is man that thou hast suche respect vnto hym: or the sonne of man that thou so regardest hym?

4 Man is lyke a thyng of nought: his tyme passeth away lyke a shadowe.

5 Bowe thy heauens, O Lorde, and come downe: touche the mountaynes, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth the lyghtnyng and teare them: shoote out thyne arrowes, and consume them.

7 Sende downe thyne hande from aboue: deliuer me, and take me out of the great waters, from the hand of strange chyldren.

8 Whose mouth talketh of vanitie: and theyr ryght hande is a ryght hande of wickednesse.

9 I wyll sing a newe songue vnto thee, O God: and sing prayses vnto thee vpon a ten strynged Lute.

10 Thou that geuest victorie vnto kynges: and hast deliuered Dauid thy seruant from the peryll of the sworde.

11 Saue me and deliuer me from the hande of straunge chyldren: whose mouth talketh keth of vanitie, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquitie.

12 That our sonnes may growe vp as the young plantes: and that our daughters may be as the pullished corners of ỳ temple.

13 That our Garners may be full and plenteous with all maner of store: that our sheepe may bring fooorth thousandes, and ten thousandes in our streetes.

14 That our Oxen may be strong to labour, that there be no decay: no leading into captiuitie, and no complayning in our streetes.

15 Happy are the people that be in suche a case: yea, blessed are the people which haue the Lorde for their God.

Exaltabo te deus. Psalm Cxlv.

1 I Wyll magnifye thee, O God my kyng: and I wyll prayse thy name for euer and euer.

2 Euery day wil I geue thankes vnto thee: and prayse thy name for euer and euer.

3 Great is the Lorde, and marueylous worthy to be praysed: there is no ende of his greatnesse.

4 One generation shall prayse thy woorkes vnto an other: and declare thy power.

5 As for me, I wyl be talking of thy worship: thy glory, thy prayse, and woonderous woorkes.

6 So that men shall speake of the might of thy marueylous actes: and I wyll also tell of thy greatnesse.

7 The memorial of thyne abundant kindnesse shalbe shewed: and men shall sing of thy righteousnesse.

8 The Lord is gratious and merciful: long suffering, and of great goodnesse.

9 The Lord is louing vnto euery man: and his mercie is ouer all his woorkes.

10 All thy woorkes prayse thee, O Lorde: and thy saintes geue thankes vnto thee.

11 They shewe the glory of thy kingdome: and talke of thy power.

12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightinesse of thy kingdome: might be knowen vnto men.

13 Thy kingdome is an euerlastyng kyngdome: and thy dominion endureth throwout all ages.

14 The Lord vpholdeth all suche as fal: and lyfteth vp al those that be downe.

15 The eyes of all wayte vpon thee, O lord: and thou geuest them their meate in due season.

16 Thou openest thyne hand: and fyllest al thinges liuing with plenteousnesse.

17 The Lord is righteous in all his wayes: and holy in all his woorkes.

18 The Lord is nigh vnto all them that call vpon him: yea all suche as call vppon hym faythfully.

19 He wyll fulfyll the desyre of them that feare him: he also wyl heare theyr crye, and wyl helpe them.

20 The Lord preserueth all them that loue hym: but scattereth abroade all the vngodly.

21 My mouth shall speake the prayse of the Lorde: and let all flesshe geue thankes vnto his holy name for euer and euer.

Lauda anima mea. Psalm Cxlv.

1 PRayse the Lorde, O my soule, whyle I liue wyl I prayse the Lord: yea as long as I haue any being, I wyll syng prayses vnto my God.

2 O put not your trust in princes, nor in any childe of man: for there is no helpe in them.

3 For when the breath of man goeth fooorth, he shal turne agayne to his earth: and then all his thoughtes perishe.

4 Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his helpe: and whose hope is in the lord his God.

5 * Which made heauen and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: whiche keepeth his promise for euer. *Act.14.25. Apoc.14.7.

6 Whiche helpeth them to right that suffer wrong: which feedeth the hungry.

7 The Lorde looseth men out of prison: the Lorde geueth syght to the blind.

8 The Lorde helpeth them that are fallen: the Lord careth for the righteous.

9 The lorde careth for the strangers, he defendeth the fatherlesse and wyddowe: as for the way of the vngodly, he turneth it vpsyde downe.

10 The lord thy God, O Sion, shalbe king for euermore: and throughout all generations.

Laudate dominum. Psalm Cxlvii.

1 O Prayse the Lorde, for it is a good thing to syng prayses vnto our God: yea a ioyfull and pleasaunt thing is it to be thankfull. Euenyng prayer.

2 The lord dooth build vp Hierusalem: and geather togeather the outcastes of Israel.

3 He healeth those that are broken in hart: and geueth medicine to heale their sicknesse.

4 He telleth the number of the starres: and calleth them all by theyr names.

5 Great is our lord, and great is his power: yea, and his wysdome is infinite.

6 The lorde setteth vp the meeke: and bringeth the vngodly downe to the ground.

7 O syng

7 O syng vnto the Lorde with thankes geuing: syng prayse vpon the Harpe vnto our God.

8 Which couereth the heauen with cloudes, and prepareth rayne for the earth: and maketh the grasse to growe vppon the mountaynes, and herbe for the vse of men.

*Job.39.3. 9 Which geueth fodder vnto the cattel: *and feedeth the young Rauens that call vppon hym.

10 He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse: neyther delighteth he in any mans legges.

11 But the Lordes delight is in them that feare him: and put theyr trust in his mercie.

12 Prayse the Lorde, O Hierusalem: prayse thy God, O Sion.

13 For he hath made fast the barres of thy gates: and hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 He maketh peace in thy borders: and fylleth thee with the floure of wheate.

15 He sendeth forth his commaundement vpon earth: and his worde runneth very swiftly.

16 He geueth snowe like wooll: and scattereth the hoare frost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his yce like morselles: who is able to abide his frost?

18 He sendeth out his worde, and melteth them: he bloweth with his winde, and the waters flowe.

19 He sheweth his worde vnto Jacob: his statutes and ordinances vnto Israel.

20 He hath not dealt so with any nation: neyther haue the Heathen knowledge of his lawes.

Laudate dominum. Psalm.Cxlviii.

1 O Prayse the Lorde of heauen: prayse him in the heyght.

2 Prayse him all ye angels of his: prayse him al his host.

3 Prayse him Sunne and Moone: prayse him all ye Starres and light.

*Dani.3.60 Gene.1.7. 4 *Prayse him all ye heauens: and ye waters that be aboue the heauens.

5 Let them prayse the name of the Lord: for he spake the worde, and they were made, he commaunded, and they were created.

6 He hath made them fast for euer and euer: he hath geuen them a lawe, which shall not be broken.

7 Prayse the Lorde vpon earth: ye dragons, and all deepes.

8 Fyre and hayle, snowe & vapours: winde and stormie, fulfylling his worde.

9 Mountaynes and all hilles: fruitefull trees, and all Cedars.

10 Beastes and all cattell: wormes, and feathered foules.

11 Kinges of the earth, and all people: princes, and all iudges of the worlde.

12 Young men and maydens, olde men and chyldren, prayse the name of the Lorde: for his name only is excellent, and his prayse aboue heauen and earth.

13 He shall exalt the horne of his people, all his saintes shall prayse him: euen the chyldren of Israel, euen the people that serueth him.

Cantate domino. Psalm.Cxlix.

1 O Syng vnto the Lord a newe song: let the congregation of saints praise him.

2 Let Israel reioyce in him that made him: and let the children of Sion be ioyful in their king.

3 Let them prayse his name in the daunce: let them syng prayses vnto him with Tabret and Harpe.

4 For the Lorde hath pleasure in his people: and helpeth the meeke harted.

5 Let the saintes be ioyfull with glory: let them reioyce in their beddes.

6 Let the prayses of God be in their mouth: and a two edged swoord in theyr handes.

7 To be auenged of the heathen: and to rebuke the people.

8 To binde their kinges in chaynes: and their nobles with linkes of iron.

9 That they may be auenged of them, as it is written: such honour haue all his saintes.

Laudate dominum. Psalm.Cl.

1 O Prayse God in his holynesse: prayse him in the fyrmament of his power.

2 Prayse him in his noble actes: prayse him accordyng to his excellent greatnesse.

3 Prayse him in the sound of the Trumpett: prayse him vpon the Lute and Harpe.

4 Prayse him in the Cymbales and daunces: prayse him vppon the strynges and Pype.

5 Prayse hym vppon the well tuned Cymbales: prayse him vppon the loude Cymbales.

6 Let euery thing that hath breath: prayse the Lorde.

The Prouerbes of Solomon.

The first Chapter.

1. The power of the worde of GOD. 7 Of the feare of GOD, and knowledge of his worde. 10. We may not consent to the entysinges of sinners. 20. Wysdome complayneth that she is contemned. 24. The punyshment of them that contemne her.

1 THe Prouerbes of Solomō the sonne of Dauid kyng of Israel:

2 To lerne wisdome & instruction, & to perceyue the wordes of vnderstandyng,

3 To receyue the instruction of wysedome, iustice, iudgement, and equitie:

4 To geue wyt vnto the simple, and that the young men myght haue knowledge and vnderstandyng.

5 The wyse man wyll geue eare, and wyll come by more wysedome, and he that is endued with vnderstanding, shal atteine vnto wyse counsayles.

6 To vnderstande a parable, and the interpretation thereof, the wordes of the wyse, and their darke speaches.

7 *The feare of the Lorde is the begynning of knowledge: but fooles despyse wysdome and instruction. *Eccle.1.16. Psal.110.10

8 My sonne, heare thy fathers doctrine, and forsake not the a lawe of thy mother: a Instruction

9 For they shalbe an encrease of grace vnto thy head, and as a chayne about thy necke.

10 My sonne, yf synners a entyce thee, consent not vnto them. a Lede thee out of the way

11 If they say, Come with vs, let vs laye waite for blood, and lurke priuily for the innocent without a cause.

12 Let vs swallowe them vp lyke the graue quicke and whole, as those that goe downe into the pyt:

13 So shal we fynde al maner of costly ryches, and fyl our houses with spoyles:

14 Cast in thy lot among vs, and let vs all haue one purse.

15 My sonne, walke not thou with them, refrayne thy foote from their wayes.

16 *For their feete runne to euyl, and are hastie to shed blood. *Psal.59.7. Roma.3.15.

17 But as in vayne the net is layde forth before the byrdes eyes:

18 So these lay wayte for the blood of them, and lye priuily for their lyues.

19 Suche are the wayes of euery one that is greedie of gayne, who taketh away the lyfe of the owner therof.

20 Wysedome cryeth without, and putteth forth her voyce in the streetes:

21 She calleth before the congregation in the open gates, and sheweth her wordes through the citie, saying,

22 O ye chyldren, howe long wyll ye loue chyldishnesse? howe long wyl the scorners delyght in scornyng, and the vnwyse hate knowledge?

23 *O turne you at my correction: loe, I wyl expresse my mynde vnto you, and make you vnderstande my wordes. *Esai.65.12 Jerem.7.18.

24 Because I haue called, and ye refused, I haue stretched out my hande, and no man regarded.

25 But all my counselles haue ye despysed, and set my correction at nought:

26 Therefore wyl I also laugh at your destruction, and mocke you, when the thyng that ye feare commeth vpon you,

27 Euen when the thyng that ye be afrayde of, falleth in sodaynely lyke a storme, and your miserie lyke a tempest, yea when trouble and heauynesse commeth vppon you.

28 Then shall they cal vpon me, but I wyl not answeare: they shal seeke me early, but they shal not fynde me:

29 And that because they hated knowledge, and dyd not choose the feare of the Lorde, 30 They wouldē none of my counsell, but despysed al my correction.

31 Therefore shall they eate of the fruite of their owne way, and be fylled with their owne inuentions.

32 For the turning away of the vnwyse shal slay them, and the prosperitie of fooles shal destroy them.

33 But who so hearkeneth vnto me, shall dwell safely, and be sure from any feare of euyl.

¶ The.ii.Chapter.

1. VVysedome exhorteth to obey her 5. She teacheth the feare of God. 6. She is geuen of God. 10. She preserueth from vvyckednesse.

1 MY sonne, yf thou wylt receyue my woordes, and laye vp my commaundementes within thee,
2 That thou wylt enclyne thyne eares vnto wysedome, apply thyne hart then to vnderstandyng.
3 For yf thou criest after wysedome, and criest for knowledge:
4 Yf thou seekest for her as for syluer, and searchest for her as for treasures,
5 Then shalt thou vnderstande the feare of the Lorde, and fynde the knowledge of God.
6 For the Lorde geueth wysedome, out of his mouth commeth knowledge and vnderstandyng.
7 He styreth vp health for the ryghteous: and defendeth them that walke vpryghtlye,
8 That they may keepe the ryght path: and he preserueth the way of suche as doo serue hym with godlynesse.
9 Then shalt thou vnderstande ryghteousnesse, and iudgement, and equitie, yea and euery good path.
10 When wysedome entreth into thyne hart, and thy soule delyghteth in knowledge:
11 Then shall counsel preserue thee, and vnderstandyng shal keepe thee,
12 That thou mayest be delyuered from the euyl way, and from the man that speaketh frowarde thynges:
13 From suche as leaue the wayes of ryghteousnesse, to walke in the wayes of darknesse:
14 Whiche reioyce in dooyng nought, and delyght in the wyckednesse of the euyl:
15 Whose wayes are crooked, and they frowarde in their pathes.
16 That thou mayest be deliuered also from the strange woman, and from her that is not thyne owne, whiche geueth sweete woordes, 17 Forsaketh the husband of her youth: and forgetteth the couenant of her God.
18 For her house is enclined vnto death, and her pathes vnto hel.
19 All they that goe in vnto her, coume not agayne, neyther take they hold of the way of lyfe.
20 Therfore walke thou in the way of such as be vertuous, and keepe the pathes of the ryghteous.
21 For the iust shal dwel in the lande, and they that be perfect shal remayne in it.
22 *But the vngodly shalbe cut of from the earth: and the wicked doers shalbe rooted out of it. *Iob.19.17.

¶ The.iii.Chapter.

2. The vvoorde of God geueth lyfe. 5. Trust in God. 7. Feare him. 9. Honour him. 11. Suffer his correction. 22. To them that folovve the vvorde of God, al thynges shal succeede vvell.

1 MY sonne, forget not thou my lawe, *but see that thyne hart keepe my commaundementes. *Deut.8.1. and.30.16.
2 *For they shal prolong the daies and yeres of thy lyfe, and bryng thee peace.
3 Let mercy & kaythfulnesse neuer goe from thee, bynde them about thy necke, & wryte them in the tables of thyne hart:
4 So shalt thou fynde fauour and good vnderstandyng in the syght of GOD and men.
5 Put thy trust in God with all thyne hart: and leane not vnto thyne owne wyt.
6 In all thy wayes acknowledge hym, and he shal order thy goynges.
7 *Be not wyse in thyne owne conceyte: but feare the Lorde, and departe from euyl: *Rom.12.16
8 So shall thy a nauyll be whole, and thy bones strong. a. That is the whole body.
9 *Honour the Lorde with thy substaunce, and with the fyrstlynges of thyne encrease: *Tobi.4.7. Luk.14.13.
10 So shal thy barnes be fylled with plentyousnesse, and thy presses shall flowe ouer with sweete wyne.
11 *My sonne, refuse not the chastenyng of the Lorde, neyther faynt when thou art corrected of hym. *Heb.12.5. Apoc.3.19.
12 For whom the Lorde loueth, hym he chasteneth, and yet delyghteth in hym, euen as a father in his owne sonne.
13 Wel is hym that fyndeth wysedome, and getteth vnderstandyng:
14 For the marchandise of it is better then the marchandise of syluer, and the gayne thereof is better then golde.
15 She is more worth then pretious stones: and al the thyngs that thou canst delyre, are not to be compared vnto her.
16 In her ryght hande is long lyfe, and in her left hande ryches and honour.
17 Her waies are pleasant waies, and al her pathes are peaceable.
18 She is a tree of lyfe to them that lay hold vpon her: and blessed is he that keepeth her fast.
19 With wysedome hath the Lorde layde the the fundation of the earth, and through vnderstanding hath he stablished the heauens.

20 Through his knowledge the deapthes are broken vp, and the cloudes drop downe the deawe.

21 My sonne, let not these thynges depart from thine eyes, but keepe wysedome and vnderstanding.

22 So they shalbe lyfe vnto thy soule, and grace vnto thy mouth.

23 Then shalt thou walke safely in thy way, and thy foote shal not stumble.

24 If thou sleepest, thou shalt not be afrayde: but shalt take rest, and sleepe sweetely.

25 Thou shalt not be afrayde of any sodaine feare, neither for the violent rushyng in of the vngodly when it commeth.

26 For the Lord shal stande by thy side, and keepe thy foote that thou be not taken.

27 Withdrawe no good thing from them that haue neede, so long as thine hande is able to doo it.

28 Say not vnto thy neyghbour, Goe thy way and come agayne, and to morowe wyl I geue thee: where as thou hast nowe to geue hym.

29 Intende no hurt agaynst thy neyghbour, seeyng he hopeth to dwel in rest by thee.

30 Striue not with any man without a cause, where as he hath done thee no harme.

Psal.36.1. 31 *Folowe not a wycked man, and choose none of his wayes:

32 For the Lorde abhorreth the frowarde: but his " counsayle is among the ryghteous.

Secretum.

33 The curse of the Lorde is in the house of the vngodly: but he blesseth the dwellinges of the ryghteous.

34 As for the scornefull, doeth he not laugh them to scorne: but he geueth grace vnto the lowly.

35 The wyse shal haue honour in possession: but shame is the promotion that fooles shal haue.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

1. VVysdome and her fruites ought to be searched.
14. The vvay of the vvycked must be refused.
20. By the vvoorde of God, the hart, eyes, and course of lyfe must be guyded.

1 HEare O ye chyldren a fatherly instruction, and take good heede, that ye may learne vnderstanding.

2 For I haue geuen you a good doctrine, forsake not ye my lawe.

3 For when I mee selfe was my fathers deare sonne, and tenderly beloued of my mother:

4 He taught me also, and sayde vnto me, Let thine hart receyue my woordes, keepe my commaundementes, and thou shalt lyue.

5 Geat thee wisedome, and geat thee vnderstanding: forgeat not the woordes of my mouth, and shrinke not from them.

6 Forsake her not, and she shal preserue thee, loue her, and she shal keepe thee.

7 The cheefe poynt of wysedome, is to possesse wysedome: and before al thy goodes, to geat thee vnderstanding.

8 Make muche of her, and she shal promote thee, yea if thou embrace her, she shal bring thee vnto honour:

9 She shal beautifie thy head with manifolde graces, and garnishe thee with a crowne of glorie.

10 Heare my sonne, & receyue my woordes, and the yeeres of thy lyfe shalbe many.

11 I haue shewed thee the way of wysdome, and led thee into the right pathes.

12 So that if thou goest in them, there shal no straightnesse hinder thee: and when thou runnest, thou shalt not fall.

13 Take fast holde of doctrine, and let her not goe: keepe her, for she is thy lyfe.

14 Come not in the path of the vngodly, and walke not in the way of the wycked.

15 Abhorre it, and goe not therein, depart aside, and passe ouer by it.

16 For they sleepe not except they haue done mischiefe: and sleepe is taken from them, vntyl they haue done harme.

17 For they eate the bread of wyckednesse, and drinke the wine of robberie.

18 The path of the righteous shineth, as the lyght that is euer brighter and brighter vnto the perfect day.

19 But the way of the vngodly is as the darkenesse, they knowe not where they fall.

20 My sonne marke my woordes, and incline thine eare vnto my sayinges:

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes, but keepe them euen in the middes of thine hart:

22 For they are life vnto those that finde them, and health vnto al their bodies.

23 Keepe thine hart with al diligence, for out of it issueth lyfe.

24 Put away from thee a froward mouth: and let the lippes of slaunder be farre from thee.

25 Let thine eyes beholde that thyng that is right: and let thine eye liddes loke straight before thee.

Do it before

26 Ponder the path of thy feete, and let all thy wayes be ordered aryght.
27 Turne not alyde, eyther to the ryght hande nor to the leaft: but withholde thy foote from euyl.

¶ The.v.Chapter.

3. VVhooredome forbidden, 9. and prodigalitie. 13. He vvylleth a man to lyue on his labour, and to helpe others. 18. To loue his vvyfe. 21. The vvycked taken in theyr owne vvyckedneſſe.

1 MY ſonne geue heede vnto my wyſedome, and bowe thine eare vnto my [a]prudence:
2 That thou mayeſt regarde good counſel, and that thy lippes may keepe knowledge.
3 For the lippes of a ſtrange woman are a dropping hony combe, and her throte is more gliſtering then oyle:
4 But at the laſt ſhe is as bitter as wormewood, and as ſharpe as a two edged ſwoorde.
5 Her feete goe downe vnto death, and her ſteppes pearce through vnto hel.
6 Perchaunce thou wylt ponder the path of her lyfe: ſo vnſtedfaſt are her wayes, that thou canſt not knowe them.
7 Heare me nowe therfore, O ye chyldren, and depart not from the woordes of my mouth.
8 Keepe thy way farre from her, and come not nygh the doores of her houſe.
9 That thou geue not thy honour vnto other, and thy yeeres vnto the cruel.
10 That other men be not fylled with thy vertues, and that thy labours come not in a ſtrange houſe.
11 Yea that thou mourne not at the laſt, when thou haſt ſpent thy body and luſty youth, and then ſay, 12 Alas, why hated I nurture? why did my hart deſpyſe correction?
13 Wherefore was I not obedient vnto the voyce of my teachers, and hearkened not vnto them that enfourmed me?
14 I was come almoſt into al miſfortune, in the middeſt of the multitude and congregation.
15 [a] Drinke of the water of thine owne wel, and of the riuers that runne out of thyne owne ſpryng.
16 Let thy welles flowe out abrode, that there may be ryuers of waters in the ſtreetes:
17 But let them be only thine owne, and not ſtrangers with thee.
18 Let thy wel be bleſſed, and be glad with the wyfe of thy youth.
19 Let her be as the louing Hinde and pleaſant Roe: let her breaſtes alway ſatiſfie thee, and holde thee euer content with her loue.
20 Why wylt thou my ſonne haue pleaſure in a ſtrange woman? and embrace the boſome of a ſtranger?
21 *For euery mans wayes are open in the ſyght of the Lorde, and he pondereth all their goynges. *Iob.34.21.
22 The wyckednеſſe of the vngodly ſhall catche hym ſelfe, and with the ſnares of his owne ſinnes ſhal he be trapped.
23 He ſhall dye without [a] amendement, and for his great fooliſhneſſe he ſhal goe aſtray. [a] Or,inſtruction

4 Let not thine eyes ſleepe, nor thine eye liddes ſlumber.
5 Saue thee ſelfe as a Doe from the hande of the hunter, and as a birde from the hande of the fowler.
6 Goe to the Emmet thou ſluggarde, conſyder her wayes, and learne to be wyſe:
7 She hath no guide nor ouerſeer, nor ruler:
8 Yet in the ſommer ſhe prouideth her meate, and geathereth her foode togeather in the haruеſt.

10 Yea ſleepe on ſtyl a litle, ſlumber a litle, folde thine hands togeather yet a litle, that thou mayeſt ſleepe.

a. Content thee ſelfe with thine owne wyfe, and deſire not other.

12 An vngodly person, a wicked man, goeth with a frowarde mouth.
13 He wynketh with his eyes, he tokeneth with his feete, he teacheth with his fyngers, 14 He is euer imaginyng myscheefe and frowardnesse in his hart, and causeth discorde.
15 Therefore shall his destruction come hastyly vpon hym, sodaynely shal he be all too broken, and not to be healed.
16 These syxe thynges doeth the Lord hate, and the seuenth he vtterly abhorreth.
17 A proude looke, a lying tongue, handes that shedde innocent blood, 18 An hart that goeth about wycked imaginations, feete that be swyfte in runnyng to myscheefe, 19 A false witnesse that byngeth vp lyes, and hym that soweth discorde among brethren.
20 My sonne, keepe thy fathers commaundement, and forsake not the law of thy mother.
21 Tye them continually in thyne hart, and bynde them about thy necke.
22 That shall leade thee when thou goest, preserue thee when thou art asleepe, & when thou awakest talke with thee.
23 For the commaundement is a lanterne, and the lawe a lyght, yea chastenyng and nurture is the way of lyfe:
24 That they may keepe thee from the euyll woman, and from the flatteryng tongue of the strange woman.
25 Lust not after her beautie in thyne hart, lest thou be taken with her fayre lookes.
26 By an harlot a man is brought to begge his bread: and a woman wyll hunt for the pretious lyfe of man.
27 May a man take fyre in his bosome, and his clothes not be brent?
28 Or can one go vpon whot coales, and his feete not be brent?
29 Euen so, whosoeuer goeth into his neighbours wyfe, and toucheth her, can not be vngyltie.
30 Men do not vtterly despyse a theefe that stealeth to satisfie his soule when he is hungrye:
31 But yf he maye be gotten, he restoreth agayne seuen tymes as muche, or els he maketh recompence with al the good of his house.
32 But who so committeth adulterie with a woman, lacketh vnderstandyng: and he that doeth it, destroyeth his owne soule.
33 He getteth hym selfe a plague, and dishonour, and his reproche shal neuer be put out:
34 For the ielousie and wrath of the man wil not be entreated,
35 No though thou wouldest offer him great gyftes to make amendes, he wyl not receiue them.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1. An exhortation to vvysedome, and to the vvord of God. 5. VVhiche vvyl preserue vs from the harlot, 6. vvhose maners are described.

1 My sonne, keepe my woordes, and laye vp my commaundementes by thee.
2 Keepe my commaundementes and my law, euen as the apple of thyne eye, and thou shalt lyue.
3 Bynde them vpon thy fyngers, and wryte them in the table of thyne hart.
4 Say vnto wysedome, thou art my syster, and call vnderstandyng thy kynswoman:
5 That they may kepe thee from the strange woman, and from the forraigne woman, whiche geueth sweete woordes.
6 For at the wyndowe of my house I looked through the wyndowe,
7 And beheld among the simple people, and among the chyldren, a young man voyde of wit,
8 Goyng ouer the streete by the corner in the way toward her house,
9 In the twylyght of the euenyng, when it began nowe to be nyght and darke:
10 And beholde, there met hym a woman, with open tokens of an harlot, subtyl and hyd:
11 So she was ful of loude woordes, and redy to dallye, whose feete couldе not abyde in the house:
12 Now is she without, now in the streetes, and lyeth in wayte at euery corner.
13 She caught hym, and kyssed hym, & was not ashamed, saying,
14 I had a vowe of peace offerynges to pay, and this day I perfourme it:
15 Therefore came I forth to meete thee, that I myght seeke thy face, and so haue I founde thee.
16 I haue decked my bedde with coueryngs of tapessarie, and clothes of Egypt.
17 My bed haue I made to smel of Myrrhe, Aloes, and Cynamom.
18 Come, let vs take our fyl of loue vntyll the mornyng, and let vs solace our selues with the pleasures of loue.
19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone farre of.

20 He hath taken the bagge of money with hym, and wyll returne at the appoynted solemne feast.
21 Thus with manye sweete wooꝛdes she ouercame hym, and with her flatteryng lippes she entysed hym.
22 Sodaynely he folowed her as it were an Oxe led to the slaughter, and like as it were a foole that laugheth when he goeth to the stockes to be punyshed, 23 So long tyll she had wounded his lyuer with her darte, lyke as yf a byrde hasted to the snare, not knowyng that the peryl of his lyfe lyeth thereupon.
24 Heare me nowe therefoꝛe, O my chylde, and marke the wooꝛdes of my mouth:
25 Let not thyne hart wander in her waies, and be not thou deceyued in her pathes.
26 Foꝛ many one hath she wounded and cast downe, yea many a strong man hath been slayne by the meanes of her.
27 Her house is the way vnto hell, and bryng men downe into the chambers of death.

c. VVysdome declareth her excellencie. 11. riches, 15. powuer, 22. eternitie. 32. She exhorteth al to loue and folowe her.

1 DOeth not wysedome crye? doeth not vnderstandyng put foorth her voyce?
2 She standeth in the top of hygh places by the way, in the place of the pathes:
3 She cryeth at the gates of the citie, at the entrie of the dooꝛes.
4 Vnto you, O ye men, sayth she, whom I cal, vnto the chyldren of men doo I lyft vp my voyce.
5 Take heede vnto knowledge, O ye ignoraunt, be ye wyse in hart, O ye fooles.
6 Geue eare, foꝛ I wyl speake of great matters, and open my lippes to tel thynges that be ryght:
7 Foꝛ my mouth shalbe talkyng of the trueth, and my lippes abhoꝛre vngodlynesse.
8 All the wooꝛdes of my mouth are ryghteous, there is no frowardnesse noꝛ falshood in them.
9 They are playne to suche as wyll vnderstande, and ryght to them that fynde knowledge.
10 Receiue my doctrine, and not syluer, and knowledge rather then fyne golde:
11 *Foꝛ wysedome is moꝛe wooꝛth then pretious stones, yea al thynges that thou canst desyre may not be compared vnto it. *Pro.3.13.
12 I wysedome dwell with counsel, & finde out knowledge and vnderstandyng.
13 The feare of the Lord abhoꝛreth wickednesse, pryde, disdeyne, and the euyl way, and a mouth that speaketh wycked thinges I vtterly abhoꝛre.
14 Counsell is myne, and direction, I am vnderstandyng, and I haue strength.
15 Through me kynges raigne, and prynces make iust lawes.
16 By me prynces beare rule, and noble men doo iudge the earth.
17 I am louyng vnto those that loue me: and they that seeke me early, shal fynde me.
18 Riches and honour are with me, yea, durable ryches and ryghteousnesse.
19 My fruite is better then golde and pretious stones, and myne encrease moꝛe wooꝛth then fyne syluer.
20 I wyll guyde thee in the way of ryghteousnesse, and in the myddest of the pathes of iudgement:
21 That I may stablyshe the inheritance of them that loue me, and encrease their treasure.
22 *The Lord hym selfe had me in possession in the begynnyng of his wayes, oꝛ euer he began his wooꝛkes afoꝛetyme. *Sap.9.4.
23 *I haue been oꝛdeyned from euerlasting, and from the begynnyng, oꝛ euer the earth was made. *Eccl.24.4.
24 When I was borne, there were neither depthes noꝛ sprynges of water.
25 Before the fundations of the mountaines were layde, yea, before all hylles was I borne.
26 The earth, and al that is vpon the earth was not yet made, no not the dust it selfe.
27 Foꝛ when he made the heauens, I was present, when he compassed the depthes about:
28 When he hanged the cloudes aboue, whē he fastened the sprynges of the deepe.
29 When he shut the sea within certayne boundes, that the waters shoulde not goe ouer their markes that he commaunded, when he layde the fundations of the earth:
30 I was with hym "oꝛderyng all thynges, delyghtyng daylye, and reioycyng alway before hym. "Or, as one brought vp.
31 As foꝛ the rounde compasse of this woꝛld I make it ioyfull, foꝛ my delyght is to be among the chyldren of men.
32 Therefoꝛe hearken vnto me, O ye chyldren, blessed are they that keepe my wayes.
33 O geue eare vnto nurture, be wyse, and refuse it not: Blessed is the man that heareth me, watchyng dayly at my gates, and geuyng attendaunce at the postes of my dooꝛes.
34 Foꝛ whoso fyndeth me, fyndeth lyfe, and shal obteyne fauour of the Lord.

35 But who so offendeth agaynst me, hurteth his owne soule: and they that hate me, are the louers of death.

¶ The.ix.Chapter.

2. Wysedome calleth al to her feast. 7. The scorner wyl not be corrected. 10. The feare of God. 13. The conditions of an harlot.

1 WYsedome hath buylded her house, and hewen out seuen pyllers:
2 She hath kylled her victualles, powred out her wine, and prepared her table.
3 She hath sent forth her maydens to crye vpon the highest place of the citie,
4 Who so is without knowledge, let hym come hyther: And to the vnwyse she sayde,
5 O come on your way, eate my bread, and drinke my wine whiche I haue powred out for you.
6 Forsake foolishnesse, and ye shal lyue: and see that ye goe in the way of vnderstandyng.
7 Who so reproueth a scorneful person, getteth hym selfe dishonour: and he that rebuketh the vngodly, staineth him selfe.
8 Reproue not a scorner, lest he owe thee euyl wyl: but rebuke a wyse man, and he wyl loue thee.
9 Geue a discrete man but an occasion, and he wyl be the wyser: teache a ryghteous man, and he wyl encrease in knowledge.
*Psal.111.10. *Prou.1.7. Eccl.1.16. 10 *The feare of the Lord is the beginning of wysedome: and the knowledge of holy thinges is vnderstanding.
11 For through me thy dayes shalbe prolonged, and the yeeres of thy lyfe shalbe many.
12 If thou be wyse, thy wysedome shall doo thee selfe good: but if thou thynkest scorne thereof, it shalbe thine owne harme.
13 A foolishe retchlesse woman full of wordes, and suche a one as hath no knowledge, 14 Sitteth at the doore of her house, and in the high places of the citie,
15 To call suche as goe by, and that walke straight in her wayes.
16 Who so is ignorant sayth she, let hym come hyther: and to the vnwyse she sayth, 17 Stolen wares are sweete, and the bread that is priuily eaten hath a good taste.
18 And he doeth not consyder that they are but dead which be there, & that her ghestes are in the deepe of hel.

¶ The.x.Chapter.

In this Chapter, and all that folowe vnto the thirtieth, the wyse man exhorteth by dyuers sentences, which he calleth parables, to folowe vertue and flee vice, and sheweth also what profite commeth of wysedome, and what hynderance proceedeth of foolishnesse.

1 A Wyse sonne maketh a glad father: but an vndiscrete sonne is an heauinesse vnto his mother.
2 Treasures that are wyckedly gotten, profite nothyng: but righteousnesse deliuereth from death.
3 The Lorde wyl not let the soule of the ryghteous suffer hunger: but he taketh away the richesse of the vngodly.
4 An idle hande maketh poore: but a quicke labouring hande maketh riche.
5 Who so geathereth in sommer is wyser but he that is sluggishe in harueste, bringeth him selfe to confusion.
6 Blessynges are vpon the head of the righteous: and the mouth of the vngodly keepeth mischiefe in secrete.
7 The memorial of the iust shal haue a good report: but the name of the vngodly shal stincke.
8 A wyse man wyl receyue *warnyng: but a prating foole shalbe punished. *Or, commandementes.
9 He that walketh vprightly walketh surely; but who so goeth a wrong way, shalbe knowen.
10 *He that winketh with his eye, wyll cause sorowe: but he that hath a foolyshe mouth, shalbe beaten. *Eccl.27.25
11 The mouth of a ryghteous man is a well of lyfe: but the mouth of the vngodly keepeth mischiefe in secrete.
12 *Hatred stirreth vp strifes: but loue couereth the multitude of sinnes. *1.Pet.4.8. 1.Cor.13.4.
13 In the lippes of hym that hath vnderstandyng, a man shal finde wisedome: but the rodde belongeth to the backe of the foolishe.
14 Wyse men lay vp knowledge: but the mouth of the foolishe is nigh destruction.
15 The riche mans goodes are his strong holde: but the neede of the poore is theyr pouertie.
16 The labour of the ryghteous tendeth to lyfe: but the fruites of the vngodly to sinne.
17 Nurture keepeth the way of lyfe: but he that refuseth to be nurtured, deceyueth him selfe.
18 He that hideth hatred with lying lippes, and he that speaketh slaunder, is a foole.
19 Where muche babling is, there must needes be offence: & he that refrayneth his lippes, is wyse.

20 "The tongue of the iust man is as tryed siluer: but the hart of the vngodly is a thyng of nought.

21 The lippes of the righteous feede a whole multitude: but fooles shal dye in their owne folly.

22 The blessing of the Lorde maketh riche: and bryngeth no sorowe of hart with it.

23 A foole doeth wyckedly: and maketh but a spoyt of it, but wysedome ruleth a man that hath vnderstanding.

24 The thyng that the vngodly is afrayde of, shal come vpon hym: but the righteous shal haue their desyre.

25 As the tempest, so passeth away the vngodly, and is not: but the righteous remayneth sure for euer.

26 As vineger is to the teeth, and as smoke is vnto the eyes: euen so is a sluggishe person to him that sendeth him forth.

27 The feare of the Lorde maketh a long lyfe: but the yeeres of the vngodly shalbe shortened.

28 The patient abiding of the righteous shalbe turned to gladnesse: but the hope of the vngodly shal perishe.

29 The way of the Lorde geueth courage vnto the godly: but it is a feare for wycked doers.

30 The righteous shal neuer be ouerthrowen: but the vngodly shal not remayne in the lande.

31 The mouth of the iust wyl be talkyng of wysedome: but the tongue of the frowarde shal "be cut out.

32 The lippes of the righteous vtter that which is acceptable: but the mouth of the vngodly speaketh frowarde thynges.

The.xi.Chapter.

1 A False ballance is abomination vnto the Lorde: but a true weight pleaseth hym.

2 Where pride is, there is shame also and confusion: but where as is lowlinesse, there is wysedome.

3 The innocent dealing of the iust shall leade them: but the wyckednesse of the offendours shalbe theyr owne destruction.

4 *Riches helpe not in the day of vengeance: but righteousnesse deliuereth from death.

5 The righteousnesse of the innocent ordereth his way, but the vngodly shal fal in his owne wickednesse.

6 The righteousnesse of the iust shal deliuer them: but the wicked shalbe taken in their owne vngodlinesse.

7 *When an vngodly man dyeth, his hope is gone: the confidence of richesse shall perishe.

8 The ryghteous shalbe deliuered out of trouble: and the vngodly shal come in his steede.

9 The dissembler with his mouth hurteth his neyghbour: but thorough knowledge shal the iust be deliuered.

10 When it goeth wel with the ryghteous, the citie is mery: and when the vngodly perishe, there is gladnesse.

11 In the blessyng of the righteous, the citie is exalted: but it is ouerthrowen by the mouth of the wycked.

12 A foole slaundereth his neyghbour: but a wyse man holdeth his peace.

13 A dissemblyng person wyl discouer priuie thinges: but he that is of a faythfull hart, wyl keepe counsayle.

14 Where no counsayle is, there the people "decay: but whereas many are that can geue counsayle, there is wealth.

15 He that is suretie for a stanger, shal smart for it: and he that hateth suretishyp, is sure.

16 A gratious woman getteth honour, but the strong a men atteyne richesse.

17 He that is merciful, doeth hym selfe a benefite: but who so hurteth his neighbour is a tyrant.

18 The vngodly worketh deceytful workes: but he that soweth righteousnesse, shall receyue a sure rewarde.

19 Lyke as ryghteousnesse bryngeth lyfe: euen so to cleaue vnto euyll, bryngeth death.

20 The Lorde abhorreth them that be of a corrupt hart: but he hath pleasure in them that are of an vndefiled conuersation.

21 b Though hande be ioyned in hande, yet the wycked shal not escape: but the sede of the ryghteous shalbe preserued.

22 A fayre woman without discrete manners, is lyke a ryng of golde in a swynes snowte.

23 The desyre of the ryghteous is "acceptable: but the hope of the vngodly is indignation.

24 Some man geueth out his goodes, and is the richer, but the nigarde hauing ynough, wyl depart from nothyng, and yet is euer in pouertie.

25 He that is liberal in geuing, shal haue plentie: and he that watereth, c shalbe watered also hym selfe.

26 Who so hoordeth vp his corne, shalbe cursed among the people: but blessyng shall light vpon his head "that geueth foode.

30 The fruite of the ryghteous is a tree of lyfe: and he that wynneth mens soules is wyse.

¶ The.xii.Chapter.

1 WHo so loueth correctiõ, loueth knowledge: but he that hateth to be reproued, is a foole.

2 A good man is acceptable vnto the Lorde: but the wicked imaginer wil he condemne.

3 A man can not endure in vngodlinesse: but the roote of the ryghteous shall not be mooued.

6 The talkyng of the vngodly is, how they may lay wayte for blood: but the mouth of the ryghteous wyl deliuer them.

7 God ouerturneth the estate of the wicked, and they stande not: but the house of the ryghteous shal stande.

8 A man shalbe commended for his wysedome: but a foole shalbe despised.

9 *He that is despised, and is yet his owne man, is a better then the glorious that lacketh bread.

10 A ryghteous man regardeth the lyfe of his cattell: but the vngodlye haue cruell hartes.

11 *He that tylleth his land, shall haue plenteousnesse of bread: but he that folowth "idlenesse, is a very foole.

12 The desyre of the vngodly is a net of euylles: but the roote of the ryghteous bringeth foorth fruite.

13 The wicked falleth into the snare through the malice of his owne mouth: but the iust shall escape out of al peryl.

14 Man shalbe satisfied with good thynges by the fruite of his mouth: and after the woorkes of his handes shall he be rewarded.

15 The way of a foole is strayght in his owne eyes: but he that hearkeneth vnto counsayle, is wyse.

16 A foole vttereth his wrath in all the haste: but a discrete man couereth his owne shame.

17 *A iust man wyl tell the trueth, and shew the thyng that is ryght: but a false witnesse deceiueth. *Prou.14.5.

18 A slaunderous person pyercketh lyke a swoorde: but a wyse mans tongue is wholesome.

19 The lyppe of trueth shalbe stable for euer: but a dissemblyng tongue is soone chaunged.

20 Deceite is in the hart of them that imagine euyl: but to the counsaylours of peace shalbe ioy.

21 There shall no aduersitie happen vnto the iust: but the vngodly shalbe filled with miserie.

22 The Lorde abhorreth lying lippes: but they that deale truely please hym.

23 A discreete man doeth hyde knowledge: but the hart of fooles babbleth out foolyshnesse.

24 A diligent hande shall haue rule: but the idle shalbe vnder tribute.

25 Heauynesse discourageth the hart of man: but a good woorde maketh it glad agayne.

26 The righteous excelleth his neyghbour: but the way of the vngodly wyll deceiue them selues.

27 The deceitefull man shall not roste that he tooke in huntyng: but the rychesse of the iust man is of great value.

28 In the way of ryghteousnes there is life: and in the same way there is no death.

¶ The.xiii.Chapter.

10 The hart knoweth his owne ſoules bitterneſſe: and the ſtranger ſhall not be partaker of his ioy.

11 *The houſe of the vngodly ſhalbe ouerthrowen: but the tabernacle of the ryghteous ſhal floryſhe. *Pſa. 112. 3.

12 There is a way whiche ſeemeth ryght vnto a man: but the ende thereof are the wayes of death.

13 The hart is ſorowfull, euen in laughter, and the ende of myrth is heauyneſſe.

14 A backeſlydyng hart ſhalbe fylled with his owne wayes, but a good man ſhall depart from hym.

15 An ignorant body beleeueth euery worde: but who ſo hath vnderſtanding looketh wel to his goynges.

16 A wyſe man feareth, and departeth from euyll: but the foole is angry, and counteth hym ſelfe ſure.

17 An vnpatient man dealeth fooliſhly: but he that is well aduiſed, is hated of the foole.

18 The ignorant haue fooliſhneſſe in poſſeſſion: but the wyſe are crowned with knowledge.

19 The euyll ſhall bowe them ſelues before the good: and the vngodly ſhal wayte at the gates of the ryghteous.

20 The poore is hated euen of his owne neyghbours: but the ryche hath manye freendes.

21 Who ſo diſpiſeth his neyghbour, ſinneth: but bleſſed is he that hath pitie of the poore.

22 Without doubt they erre that worke wickedneſſe: but they that muſe vpon good thynges, thinges, vnto such shall happen mercy and trueth.

23 In euery labour there is some profyte: but vayne woordes bring foorth onely penurie.

24 Richesse are as a crowne vnto the wyse: but the ignorance of fooles is very foolishnesse.

25 A faythfull witnesse deliuereth soules: but a deceitfull witnesse bringeth foorth lyes.

26 In the feare of the Lorde is an assured strength: and his children are vnder a sure defence.

27 The feare of the Lord is a well of lyfe, to auoyde the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the kinges honour: but the decay of the people is the confusion of the prince.

29 He that is patient hath much vnderstandyng: but he that is soone displeased, exalteth foolishnesse.

30 A merry hart is the lyfe of the body: but enuie consumeth away the bones.

31 *He that doth a poore man wrong, blaspemeth his maker: but who so honoureth him, hath pitie on the poore. *Pro.17.5.

32 The vngodly is cast away for his iniquitie: but the righteous hath a good hope euen in death.

33 Wysdome resteth in the hart of him that hath vnderstanding, and it shalbe knowen among them that are "vnlearned. "Or, fooles.

34 Righteousnesse setteth vp the people: but "the sacrifyce of the heathen is sinfull. "Or, sinne is a shame to the nations.

35 A discrete seruant is a pleasure vnto the king: but his wrath is against him that dooth "dishonour him. "Or, doth bring shame.

¶ The. xv. Chapter.

1 A Soft answeare appeaseth wrath: but rough woordes stirre vp anger.

2 The tongue of such as be wyse vseth knowledge aryght: as for a foolishe mouth, it bableth out nothing but foolishnesse.

3 The eyes of the Lorde in euery place beholdeth both the good and the bad.

4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of lyfe: but the frowardnesse thereof dooth make sadde the spirite.

5 A foole despiseth his fathers correction: but he that taketh heede when he is reprooued, shall haue the more vnderstandyng.

6 The house of the righteous is full of richesse: but in the "fruites of the vngodly there is "trouble. "Or, reuenues. "Or, decayes.

7 The lips of the wyse do sowe knowledge: but the hart of the foolishe doo not so.

8 *The Lord abhorreth the sacrifyce of the vngodly: but the prayer of the righteous is acceptable vnto him. *Eccl.34.23

9 The way of the vngodly is an abomination vnto the Lorde: but who so followeth righteousnesse, him he loueth.

10 Correction is greeuous vnto him that forsaketh the way: and who so hateth correction shall dye.

11 Hel and destruction "are before the Lord: how much more then the hartes of the children of men? "Or, are knowen to the Lorde.

12 A scornefull body loueth not one that rebuketh hym: neyther wyll he come vnto the wyse.

13 *A merry hart maketh a cheareful countenaunce: but by the sorowe of the hart the minde is heauy. *Pro.17.22

14 The hart of him that hath vnderstandyng doeth seeke knowledge: but ỳ mouth of fooles is fed with foolishnesse.

15 All the dayes of the poore are "miserable: but a "quiet hart is a continuall feast. "Or, euyll. "Or, merry.

16 Better is a little with the feare of the Lorde: then great treasure, and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbes with loue, then a fatte Oxe with euyl wyll.

18 An angry man stirreth vp strife: but he that is patient, "stylleth discord. "Or, appeaseth.

19 The way of the slouthfull man is an hedge of thornes: but the way of the righteous is playne.

20 A wyse sonne maketh a glad father: but a foolishe man despiseth his mother.

21 Foolishnesse is ioy to him that is destitute of knowledge: but a man of vnderstandyng walketh vpryghtly.

22 Thoughtes without counsayle shal come to nought: but where as men are that can geue good counsayle, there is stedfastnesse.

23 "A ioyfull thing it is to a man when his counsayle is followed: and howe good is a woorde spoken in season? "Or, ioy is it to a man in the answeare of his mouth.

24 The way of lyfe "is on high to the wyse, that a man shoulde beware of hell beneath. "Or, leadeth vnto heauen.

25 The Lorde wyll breake downe the house of the proude: but he shall make fast the borders of the wyddowe.

26 The Lord abhorreth the imaginations of the wicked: but the woordes of the pure are pleasant.

27 The greedy couetous man rooteth vp his owne house: but who so hateth rewards shall liue.

28 The hart of the righteous studyeth his answeare aunſweare afore: but the wicked mans mouth ſpueth out miſcheefe.

29 The Lorde is farre from the vngodly: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

a. The cheareſulneſſe of the countenance gladdeth other men.

30 The clearneſſe of the eye a reioyceth the hart: and a good name feedeth the bones.

31 The eare that hearkeneth to the reformation of lyfe, ſhall dwell among the wyſe.

32 He that refuſeth to be reformed, deſpiſeth his owne ſoule: but he that ſubmitteth him ſelfe to correction, is wyſe.

33 The feare of the Lorde is the ryght ſcience of wyſedome: and lowlineſſe goeth before honour.

¶ The.xvi.Chapter.

13 Righteous lips are pleaſant vnto kings, and them that ſpeaketh the c trueth, ſhal he loue.

14 The kinges diſpleaſure is a meſſenger of death: but a wyſe man wyll pacifye it.

15 The chearefull countenance of the king, is lyfe: and his louing fauour is as a cloud of the latter rayne.

16 To haue wyſedome in poſſeſſion, is better then to haue golde: and to geat vnderſtandyng, is rather to be choſen then to haue ſiluer.

17 The path of the righteous is to eſchewe euill: and who ſo looketh wel to his wayes, keepeth his owne ſoule.

18 Pryde goeth before deſtruction: and an high mind before the fall.

19 Better it is to be of humble minde with the lowly, then to diuide the ſpoyles with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wyſely, obteyneth good: and bleſſed is he that putteth his truſt in the Lorde.

21 Who ſo is wyſe in hart, ſhalbe called prudent: and the ſweeteneſſe of his lippes encreaſeth learning.

22 Underſtanding is a well of lyfe vnto him that hath it: as for the chaſtenyng of fooles, it is but fooliſhneſſe.

23 A wyſe hart ordereth his mouth wyſely, and miniſtreth learnyng vnto his lippes.

24 Fayre woordes are an hony combe, a refreſhing of the minde, and health of the bones.

28 A froward body cauſeth ſtrife: and he that is a blabbe of his tongue, maketh diuiſion among princes.

29 A wicked man beguileth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He ſhutteth his eyes to deuiſe miſcheefe, and mooueth his lippes to bring euyll to paſſe.

31 Age is a crowne of worſhippe, yf it be found in the way of righteouſneſſe.

32 A patient man is better then one ſtrong: and he that can rule him ſelf, is more worth then he that winneth a citie.

33 The lottes are caſt into the lappe: but the ordering thereof ſtandeth all in the Lorde.

21 There are many deuises in a mans hart: neuertheless, the counsayle of the Lord shal stande.

5 Counsayle in the hart of man, is lyke deepe water: but a man of vnderstandyng wyll drawe it out.

6 Many there be that would be called good doers: but where shall one finde a faythfull man?

7 The children of the iust man whiche walketh vprightly, shalbe blessed after hym.

19 *The craftie deceitfull bewrayeth secret counsayle: therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lippes.

20 *Who so curseth his father and mother, his light shalbe put out in the deapth of darknesse.

21 The heritage that commeth hastyly at the fyrst, shal not be blessed at the ende.

22 *Say not thou, I wyl recompence euil: but put thy trust in the Lorde, and he shall deliuer thee.

23 Diuers weyghtes are an abomination vnto the Lorde, and a false ballance is not good.

24 The Lorde ordereth euery mans goinges: how can a man then vnderstand his owne way?

25 It is a snare for a man to deuoure that which is holy, and after the vowe to make inquirie.

26 A wyse king disperseth the vngodly, and bringeth the wheele ouer them.

27 The lanterne of the Lorde is the breath of man, searching all the inward partes of the body.

28 Mercie and trueth preserueth the kyng: and with louing kindnesse his seate is holden vp.

¶ The xix. Chapter.

29 An vngodly man hardneth his face: but the iust reformeth his owne way.

30 There is no wysedome, there is no vnderstandyng, there is no counsayle agaynst the Lorde.

31 The Horse is prepared agaynst the day of battayle: *but the Lorde geueth victorie.

*Or, Safetie is of the Lorde.

¶ The xxii. Chapter.

*Eccle.7.2.

1 A Good *name is more to be desyred then great richesse: and louing fauour is better then siluer and gold.

2 The riche and poore meete togeather: the Lord is the maker of them all.

3 A wyse man seeth the plague, and hydeth him selfe: but the foolishe goe on still, and are punished.

4 By humilitie and the feare of the Lorde: commeth richesse, honour, and lyfe.

5 Thornes and snares are in the way of the froward: but he that dooth keepe his soule, wyll flee farre from them.

6 Teache a childe what way he should goe: for he shall not leaue it when he is olde.

7 The riche ruleth the poore, & the borower is seruant to the lender.

8 He that soweth wickednesse, shall reape wickednesse: and the rod of his anger shall fayle.

9 *He that hath a bountiful eye shalbe blessed: for he geueth of his bread to the poore. *Gen.14.

10 Cast out the scornefull man, and so shall strife goe out with him: yea variance and slaunder shall ceasse.

11 Who so loueth cleannesse of hart, for the grace of his lippes the kyng shalbe his freend.

12 The eyes of the Lorde preserue knowledge: and he ouerthroweth the woordes of the transgressour.

13 The slouthfull body sayth there is a Lion without, I might be slayne in the streete.

14 The mouth of strange women is a deepe pit, wherein he falleth that the Lorde is angrie withall.

15 Foolishnesse is bounde in the hart of the childe: and the rodde of correction shall driue it away.

16 Who so dooth a poore man wrong, to encrease his owne richesse, and geueth vnto the riche, at the last commeth to pouertie him selfe.

17 Bowe downe thyne eare, and heare the woordes of the wyse, apply thy minde vnto my doctrine:

18 For it is a pleasant thing yf thou keepe them in thyne hart, and order them in thy lippes, 19 That thou mayest put thy trust in the Lorde, I haue shewed thee this day *the thing that thou knowest.

20 Haue not I warned thee *very oft with counsayle and learnyng, 21 That I might make thee knowe the trueth: that thou with the veritie mightest answeare them that send vnto thee.

22 Robbe not the poore, because he is poore, and oppresse not the simple in iudgement.

23 For

23 For the Lord hym selfe wyl defend their cause, and do violence vnto them that haue vsed violence.
24 Make no freendshyppe with an angrye wylful man, and walke not with the furious:
25 Lest thou learne his wayes, and receyue hurt to thy soule.
26 Be not thou one of them that bynd their hande vppon promyse, and are suretie for a or, detes, a weyghtie causes.
27 For yf thou hast nothyng to paye, b or, why cau-sest thou hym to take. b they shall take away thy bedde from vnder thee.
28 Thou shalt not remooue the auncient lande marke, whiche thy fore elders haue set.
29 Seest thou not that they whiche be diligent in their busynesse, stande before kynges, and not among the simple people.

¶ The.xxiii. Chapter.

1 When thou sittest to eate with a noble man, consyder diligently what is set before thee.
2 Measure thyne appetite, yf it be greedyly set.
3 Be not desyrous of his daintie meates, for meate beguyleth and deceyueth.
4 Take not ouer great trauayle to be riche, beware of suche a purpose.
5 Wylt thou set thyne eyes vpon the thyng whiche

6 Eate thou not the bread of hym that hath an

7 For as though he thought it in his hart, he sayth, eate, & drynke: where as his hart is not with thee.
8 The morselles that thou hast eaten, shalt thou parbreake, and loose those sweete wordes.
9 Tell nothyng into the eares of a foole: for he wyl despyse the wysdome of thy wordes.
10 Remoone not the olde lande marke, and come not within the feelde of the fatherlesse:
11 For their redeemer is myghtie, euen he shal defende their cause agaynst thee.
12 Applye thyne hart vnto correction, and thyne eares to the wordes of knowledge.
b Pro.13.24. Eccle.30.1. 13 *Withhold not correction from the child: for yf thou beatest hym with the rodde, he shal not dye thereof:
b. From destruction. 14 Yf thou smyte hym with the rodde, thou shalt delyuer his soule from b hel.
15 My sonne, yf thyne hart receyue wysedome, my hart also shal reioyce:
16 Yea, my reynes shalbe very glad, yf thy lippes speake the thyng that is ryght.
17 Let not thyne hart be ielous to folowe synners, but keepe thee styll in the feare of the Lorde al the day long: * Pro.24.1. Psal.36.1.
18 For veryly there is an a or, a reward a end, and thy patient abydyng shal not be cut of.
19 My sonne, geue eare, and be wyse, and set straygght thyne hart in the way of the Lorde.
20 Keepe not companie with wyne bybbers, and riotous eaters of flesshe:
21 For suche as be drunkardes and riotous, shal come to pouertie: and he that is geuen to muche sleepe, shall goe with a ragged coate.
22 Geue eare vnto thy father that begate thee, and despyse not thy mother when she is olde.
23 Purchase trueth, wysedome, nurture, and vnderstandyng, and sel them not.
24 The father of the ryghteous shal greatlye reioyce: and he that begetteth a wyse chylde, shal haue ioy of hym.
25 Doo so that thy father and mother may be glad of thee, and that she that bare thee may reioyce.
26 My sonne, geue me thyne harte, and let thyne eyes haue pleasure in my wayes:
27 For an whoore is a deepe graue, and a strange woman is a narowe pyt.
28 She lyeth in wayte as for a pray, and encreaseth the transgressours amongest men.
29 Who hath woe? who hath sorowe? who hath stryfe? who hath a or, murmuryng. a brawlyng? and who hath woundes without a cause?
30 Who hath red eyes? euen they that be euer at the wyne, and seeke excesse.
31 Loke not thou vpon the wyne, how red it is, and what a colour it geueth in the glasse.
32 It goeth downe sweetely, but at the last it byteth lyke a Serpent, and styngeth lyke an Adder.
33 Thyne eyes shall beholde a some reade, strange visions. a strange women, and thyne harte shall vtter lewde thynges:
34 Yea, thou shalt be as though thou layest in the middest of the sea, or sleepest vpon the top of the mast of a shyp.
35 They haue beaten me, shalt thou say, and I was not sicke, they haue stryeken me, and I felt it not, when I am well wakened, I wyl go to the drynke agayne.

¶ The.xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Be not thou * enuious to folowe wicked men, and desyre not to be among them: * Pro.23.17. Psal.36.1.

2 For their hart imagineth to doo hurt, and their lyppes talke myscheefe.
3 Through wysedome is an house buylded, and with vnderstandyng is it "set vp: "Or, stablyshed.
4 Through discretion shal the chambers be fylled with al costly and pleasant ryches.
5 A wyse man is euer strong: yea, a man of vnderstandyng encreaseth strength.
6 For with discretion must warres be taken in hande: and whereas are many that can geue counsel, there is health.
7 Wysdome is too high a thyng for a foole: for he dare not open his mouth in the gate.
8 He that imagineth myscheefe, may wel be called an vngratious person.
9 The wycked thought of the foolyshe is synne: and the scorneful is an abomination vnto men.
a. Aduersitie doth try a man what he is.
10 a Yf thou faynt in the day of aduersitie, thy strength is smal.
*Psal.82.4. 11 *Delyuer them that are drawen vnto death, and ceasse not to preserue them that are led to be slayne.
12 Yf thou wylt say, Beholde, I knewe not of it: doeth not he that pondereth the harte consyder it? And he that keepeth thy soule, knoweth he it not? Shal he not also recompence euery man accordyng to his workes?
13 My sonne, eate thou honie, because it is good, and the honie combe, for it is sweete vnto thy mouth:
14 So sweete shal the knowledge of wysedome be vnto thy soule when thou hast founde it, and there shalbe hope, & thy hope shal not be cut of.
15 Laye not priuie wayte (O wycked man) agaynst the house of the ryghteous, & spoyle not his restyng place.
16 For a iust man falleth seuen tymes, and ryseth vp agayne: but the vngodly fall into myscheefe.
17 Reioyce not thou at the fall of thyne enimie, and let not thyne hart be glad when he stumbleth:
18 Lest the Lorde when he seeth it be angrye, and turne his wrath from hym vnto thee.
*Psal.37.1. 19 *Fret not thee selfe because of the malitious, neither be thou enuious at the wicked:
20 For there shalbe no ende of plagues to the wycked man, and the "candle of the vngodly shalbe put out. "Or, reuvarde.
21 My sonne, feare thou the Lorde and the kyng, and keepe no companie with them that flyde backe from his feare:
22 For their destruction shal ryse sodaynly: and who knoweth the aduersitie that maye come "from them both? "Or, of them both.

These are also the sayinges of the wyse.

23 *It is not good to haue respecte of anye person in iudgement. *Leui.19.15 Deut.1.17.
24 He that sayth vnto the godly, Thou art ryghteous: hym shall the people curse, yea, the comminaltie shal abhorre hym.
25 But they that rebuke the wigodly, in them doeth God delyght, and a rych blessyng shal come vpon them.
36 Euery man shal kysse his lyppes that geueth a good answeare.
27 Make redy thy woorke that is without, and looke well vnto that whiche thou hast in the feelde, and then buylde thyne house.
28 Be not a false witnes agaynst thy neyghbour, and speake no falshood with thy lyppes.
29 *Say not, I wyl handle hym euen as he hath dealt with me, and wyl reward "euery man accordyng to his deedes. *Pro.20.22 "Or, the man.
30 I went by the feelde of the slouthful, and by the vineyarde of the foolyshe man:
31 And loe, it was al couered with nettles, and stoode ful of thornes, and the stone wal was broken downe.
32 This I sawe, and consydered it wel: I looked vpon it, and tooke it for a warnyng.
33 Yea sleepe on styl I say, a litle, slumber a litle, folde thy handes togeather yet a litle:
34 So shal powertie come vnto thee as one that trauayleth by the way, and necessitie lyke a weaponed man.

¶ The.xxv.Chapter.

These are also parables of Solomon, vvhich the men of Hezecia king of Iuda copied out.

1 IT is the glorie of God to keepe a thyng secrete: but the kings honour is to search out a thyng.
2 The heauen is hygh, the earth is deepe: and the kynges hart is vnsearchable.
3 Take the drosse from the syluer, and there shalbe a vessel for the Fyner.
4 Take away the vngodly from the kyng, and his seate shalbe stablyshed with ryghteousnesse.
5 Put not foorth thee selfe in the presence of the kyng, and "preasse not into the place of great men: "Or, stand not in.
*Luk.14.10 6 *For better is it that it be sayd vnto thee, Come vp hygher: then thou to be put lower in the presence of the Prince whom thou seest with thyne eyes.
7 Be not "hastie to goe to lawe: lest haplye thou "Or, be not hastie to stryue.

thou knowest not what to doo when thy neighbour hath confounded thee.

8 Handle thy matter with thy neyghbour him selfe, and discouer not thy secrete to another:

9 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamie doo not ceasse.

10 A woorde spoken in due season, is lyke apples of golde in a grauen woorke of syluer.

11 Who so reproueth a wyse man that hath an obedient eare, is as a golden earyng, and an ornament of fine golde.

12 As the colde of snowe in the tyme of harueste: so is a faythful messenger to them that sende hym, for he refresheth his maisters minde.

13 Who so maketh great boastes "and geueth nothyng, is like cloudes and wynde without rayne. "Or, false liberalitie.

14 *With patience is a prince pacified, and with a soft tongue is rigorousnesse broken. *Prou.15.1. "Or, mercie.

15 If thou findest hony, eate so muche as is sufficient for thee: lest thou be ouerful, and parbreake it out agayne.

16 Withdrawe thy foote from they neyghbours house: lest he be weerie of thee, and so hate thee.

17 Who so beareth false witnesse agaynst his neighbour, he is "a very club, a swoord, and a sharpe arrowe. "Or, a mawle.

18 The confidence that is put in an vnfaythful man in time of trouble, is lyke a broken tooth, and a slyding foote.

19 Who so taketh away a mans garment in the colde weather, is "like vineger vpon lime, or like him that syngeth songes to an heauie hart. "Or, Salpeter, nyter, or nitre.

20 *If thine enimie hunger, feede hym, yf he thyrste, geue hym drinke: *Ro.12.19, 21 For so shalt thou heape coales of fyre vpon his head, and the Lorde shal reward thee.

22 The north wind driueth away the raine: euen so doeth an angry countenance a backbiters tongue.

23 *It is better to sit in a corner vppon the house toppe, then with a brawling woman in a wyde house. *Prou.21.9, 24 Good newes from a strange countrey, are as colde water to a thirstie soule.

25 A ryghteous man fallyng downe before the vngodly, is like a troubled wel, and a spryng that is corrupted.

26 *As it is not good to eate to much hony: so curiously to searche the glory of heauenly thynges, is not commendable. *Eccl.3.22.

27 He that can not rule "hym selfe, is lyke a citie that is broken downe, and hath no walles. "Or, his spirite.

¶ The xxvi. Chapter.

1 LYke as snowe is not meete in sommer and raine in harueste: euen so is woorshyp vnseemely for a foole.

2 As the birde and the swalowe take their flight to flee here and there: so the curse that is geuen in vayne, shal not light vpon a man.

3 Vnto the horse belongeth a whippe, to the asse a bridle: and a roode to the fooles backe.

4 Geue not the foole an answeare after his foolishnesse, least thou become lyke vnto hym.

5 But make the foole an answeare to his foolishnesse, least he be wyse in his owne conceyte.

6 As he that cutteth of his messengers feete endamageth hym selfe: so doeth he that committeth a message to a foole.

7 Lyke as in a lame man his legges are not equal: euen so is a parable in a fooles mouth.

8 He that setteth a foole in hygh dignitie, that is euen as if a man would bynd a "stone in a slyng. "Or, vvould hide a pretious stone in an heape of stones.

9 As is a thorne in the hand of a drunkard: so is a parable in a fooles mouth.

10 The mightie that fourmed all thinges, rewardeth the fooles and transgressours.

11 *Lyke as the dogge turneth agayne to his owne vomite: euen so a foole beginneth his foolishnesse agayne afre the. *2.Pet.2.22

12 If thou seest a man that is wyse in his owne conceyte: there is more hope in a foole then in hym.

13 *The slouthful sayth, there is a Lion in the way, and a Lion in the middest of the streetes. *Pro.22.13.

14 Like as the doore turneth about vppon the hinges: euen so doeth the slouthful walter him selfe in his bed.

15 *The slouthful body "thrusteth his hand into his bosome, and it greeueth him to put it agayne to his mouth. *Pro.19.24 "Or, hydeth.

16 The sluggarde thynketh him selfe wyser then seuen men "that sit and teache. "Or, that can render a reason

17 Who so goeth by and medleth with other mens strife: he is lyke one that taketh a dogge by the eares.

18 As he that faigneth hym selfe madde, casteth firebrandes, deadly arrowes and dartes:

19 So doeth a dissembler with his neyghbour, and sayth, Am not I in spoort?

20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: euen so, where the talebearer is taken away, there the strife ceaseth.

*Eccl.38.12 21 *As coales kindle heate, and wood the fyre: euen so doeth "a brawling felow stirre vp variaunce.

"Or, a contentious.

"Or, as flattringes. 22 A talebearers woordes are like "men that strike with hammers, and they pearse the inwarde partes of the body.

23 Burning lippes and a wicked hart, are like a potsharde couered with siluer drosse.

24 An enimie wyll dissemble with his lippes, and layeth vp deceyte in his hart.

"Or, many. 25 But when he speaketh fayre, beleeue hym not, for there are "seuen abominations in his hart.

26 Hatred may be couered by deceyte: but the malice thereof shalbe shewed before the whole congregation.

*Eccl.10.8. Eccl.27.30. 27 *Who so diggeth vp a pit, shal fal therein: and he that rolleth vp a stone, it wyl returne vpon hym.

28 A lying tongue hateth the afflicted: and a flattering mouth worketh mischiefe.

¶ The.xxvii.Chapter.

1 MAke not thy boast of to morowe: for thou knowest not what a day may bryng foorth.

2 Let another man prayse thee and not thine owne mouth, yea other folkes, and not thine owne lippes.

*Eccl.22.18 3 *The stone is heauie, & the sande waighty: but a fooles wrath is heauier then them both.

4 Wrath is a cruel thyng, and furiousnesse is a very tempest: but who is able to abide enuie.

5 Open rebuke is better then secrete loue.

6 Faythful are the woundes of a louer: but the kysses of an enimie are "cruel.

"Or, deceytful.

*Iob.6.6. 7 *He that is ful abhorreth an hony combe: but vnto hym that is hungry, euery "sowre thyng is sweete.

"Or, bitter.

8 He that oft tymes flitteth, is like a byrde that forsaketh her nest.

9 Baulme and sweete incence make the hart meerie: so sweete is that freende that geueth counsayle from the hart.

10 Thine owne freende and thy fathers freende see thou forsake not, and goe not into thy brothers house in time of thy trouble: for better is a "freende at hande, then a brother farre of.

"Or, neyghbour.

11 My sonne be wyse, and make me a glad hart, that I may make answeare vnto my rebukers.

12 A wyse man seeing the plague, wyl hide hym selfe: as for fooles they goe on styl and suffer harme.

13 *Take his garment that is suretie for a stranger, and take a pledge of hym for the vnknowen sake. *Pro.20.16

14 "He that is to hastie to prayse his neighbour aboue measure, shalbe taken as one that geueth hym an euyl report. "Or, he that prayseth his freende with a loude voyce early in the morning: it shalbe counted to hym as a dispraysse.

15 A brawling woman and the roofe of the house dropping in a raynie day, may wel be compared togeather:

16 He that stylleth her stylleth the wynde, and stoppeth the smel of oyntment in his hande.

17 Like as one iron whetteth another, so doeth one man "comfort another. "Or, sharpe the countenance of another.

18 Who so keepeth his figge tree, shal eate the fruites thereof: so he that wayteth vpon his maister, shal come to honour.

19 *Like as in one water there appeare diuers faces: euen so diuers men haue diuers hartes. *1.Cor.2.15.

20 Hel and destruction are neuer full: euen so the eyes of men can neuer be satisfied.

21 *As is the fining pot for the siluer, and the furnace for golde: so is a man tryed by the mouth of hym that prayseth hym. *Eccl.14.4. and.17.3.

22 Though thou wouldest bray a foole with a pestell in a morter like firmitie corne: yet wyl not his foolishnesse goe from hym.

23 Be thou diligent to knowe the state of thy cattel thee selfe, and looke well to thy flockes.

24 For richesse abideth not alway, and the crowne endureth not for euer.

25 The hay groweth, the grasse commeth vp, & hearbes are geathered in the mountaynes.

26 *The lammes shal cloth thee, and for the goates thou shalt haue money to thy husbandrie. *1.Tim.6.

27 Thou shalt haue goates mylke ynough to feede thee, to vpholde thy household, and to sustayne thy maydens.

¶ The.xxviii.Chapter.

1 THe vngodly fleeth when no man pursueth him: but the ryghteous are bolde as a Lion.

2 For the wickednesse of the land, the prince is oft changed: but through "a man of vnderstanding and wysedome, a realme endureth long. "Or, men,

3 One poore man oppressyng another by violence, is lyke a raging raine that destroyeth the "fruite. "Or, foode.

4 They that forsake the lawe, prayse the vngodly: but suche as keepe the lawe are greeued greeued at them.

5 Wycked men vnderstand not iudgement: but they that seeke the Lorde, vnderstande al thynges.
6 *Better is the poore that walketh in his vprightnesse: then he that peruerteth his wayes, and is ryche.
7 Who so keepeth the lawe, is a chyld of vnderstandyng: but he that "is a companion of riotous men, shameth his father.
8 He that by vsurie and vniust gaynes geathereth ryches: he shall lay them in store for a man that wyl pitie the poore.
9 He that turneth awaye his eare from hearyng the lawe, his prayer shalbe abominable.
10 Who so causeth the ryghteous to goe astray by an euyl way, shall fal into his owne pyt: but the iust shall haue good thynges in possession.
11 The ryche man thynketh hym selfe to be wyse: but the poore that hath vnderstandyng, "can perceyue hym wel ynough.
12 When ryghteous men doo reioyce, there is great glorie, but when the wycked come vp, the man is tryed.
13 He that hydeth his synnes, shall not prosper: but who so knowledgeth them, and forsaketh them, shal haue mercie.
14 Wel is him that standeth alway in awe: as for hym that hardeneth his hart, he shall fal into mischeefe.
15 As a roaring Lion and an hungry Beare, so is an vngodlye Prince ouer the poore people.
16 Where the Prince is without vnderstandyng, there is great oppression and wrong: but yf he hateth couetousnesse, he shall long raigne.
17 He that by violence sheddeth any mans blood, shalbe a runnagate vnto his graue, and no man shalbe able to succour hym.
18 Who so leadeth an innocent lyfe, shalbe saued: but he that goeth frowarde wayes, shal once haue a fal.
19 *He that tylleth his land, shal haue plentousnesse of bread: but he that followeth vile persons, shal haue pouertie ynough.
20 A faythfull man shalbe fylled with blessynges: *and he that maketh haste to be ryche, shal not be vngyltie.
21 To haue respect of persons in iudgement, is not good, for that man wyl doo wrong, yea euen for a peece of bread.
22 He that wyll be ryche all too soone, hath an euyl eye, and considereth not that pouertie shal come vpon hym.
23 He that folowyng my precepts, rebuketh a man, shall fynde more fauour at the last then he that flattereth hym.
24 Who so robbeth his father and mother, and sayth it is no synne: the same is the companion of a "destroyer.
25 He that is of a proude stomacke, styreth vp stryfe: but he that putteth his trust in the Lord, shalbe wel fedde.
26 He that trusteth in his owne hart, is a foole: but he that dealeth wysely, shalbe safe.
27 He that geueth vnto the poore, shall not lacke: but he that hydeth his eyes from them, shal haue many a curse.
28 When the vngodly are come vp, men are fayne to hyde them selues: but when they perysh, the ryghteous encrease.

"Or, of a murderer.

¶ The.xxix. Chapter.

1 HE that is styfnecked, and wyl not be refourmed, shal sodaynely be destroyed "without any helpe.
2 When the ryghteous are in authoritie, the people doo reioyce: but when the wycked beare rule, the people mourne.
3 Who so loueth wysedome, maketh his father a glad man: * but he that kepeth companie with harlots, spendeth away "that he hath.
4 With true iudgement the kyng stablisheth the lande: but yf he be a man that oppresse the people with geatherynges, he turneth it vpsyde downe.
5 Who so flattereth his neyghbour, layeth a net for his feete.
6 The synne of the wycked is his owne snare: but the righteous doeth syng and reioyce.
7 The ryghteous consydereth the cause of the poore: but the vngodly regardeth no vnderstandyng.
8 Scorneful men bryng a citie into a snare: but wyse men turne away wrath.
9 Yf a wyse man contendeth with a foole: whether he be angrye or laugh, there is no rest.
10 The bloodthyrstie hate the ryghteous: but the iust a seeke his soule.
11 A foole vttereth al his mynde at once: but a wise man keepeth it in tyl afterward.
12 Yf a Prince delyght in lyes, al his seruantes are vngodly.
13 The poore and the "lender meete togeather, and the Lorde lyghteneth both their eyes.
14 The feare of the kyng that "faythfullye iudgeth the poore, shall continue sure for euermore.
15 The rodde and correction geueth wysedome, but a chylde left to his owne wyl, bryngeth his mother to shame.

"Or, and not be cured.

"Luk.15.13.
"Or, his substaunce.

"Or, vsurer.

"Or, truely.

a. That is, delyuer his soule: or saue his lyfe

16 When the vngodly are multiplyed, wyckednesse encreaseth: but the ryghteous shal see their fal.

17 Nurture thy sonne with correction, and thou shalt be at rest: yea he shal doo thee good at thyne hart.

18 When the woord of God is not preached, the people perysheth: but wel is hym that keepeth the lawe.

19 A stubborne seruant wyll not be the better for woordes: for though he vnderstand, yet wyl he not regarde them.

20 Seest thou a man that is hastie to speake vnaduisedly? there is more hope in a foole then in hym.

21 He that delicately bryngeth vp his or, his sonne. seruaunt from a chylde, shal make hym his maister at length.

The ende of the Prouerbes of Solomon.

¶ The booke of the preacher, other-wyse called Eccleſiaſtes, whiche is Solomon the king.

For Solomon is called in ſcripture by three ſundry names. The one, Solomon, that is, the maker of peace. The ſeconde Idida, that is, beloued of God. The thyrde Eccleſiaſtes, that is, a preacher, teaching that true and eternal felicitie conſiſteth not in any worldly wyſedome or abundance of richeſſe, or in carnall pleaſure, which al be but vayne and tranſitorie: but he prooueth that true felicitie conſiſteth in a whole ioyning our ſelues to GOD by pure religion, that is, with a ſyncere fayth and the feare of God, obſeruyng his commaundementes.

¶ The firſt Chapter.

2. All thynges in this vvorlde are ful of vanitie and of none indurance. 13. All mens vvyſedome is but follie and greefe.

1 THe wooꝛdes of the pꝛeacher the ſonne of Dauid kyng of Hieruſalem.

a. He doeth not condemne the creatures and gyftes of God as euyl: but the carefull ſeeking of them, and the pride and truſt that man hath in worldly thynges.

2 a All is but moſt vayne vanitie, ſayth the pꝛeacher, and all is moſt vayne I ſay and but playne vanitie.

3 Foꝛ what els hath a man of al the labour that he taketh vnder the ſunne?

4 One generation paſſeth away, another commeth: but the earth abydeth ſtyl.

5 The ſunne aryſeth, the ſunne goeth downe, and returneth to his place, that he may there ryſe vp agayne.

6 The winde goeth toward the ſouth, and turneth vnto the noꝛth, fetcheth his compaſſe, whirleth about, and goeth fooꝛth, and returneth agayne to his circuites from whence he did come.

*Eccl. 40. 11 7 *Al flooddes runne into the ſea, and yet is the ſea it ſelfe not fylled: foꝛ looke vnto what place the waters runne, thence they come to flowe agayne.

8 Al thinges are ſo hard to be knowen, that no man can expꝛeſſe them: the eye is not ſatiſfied with ſyght, the eare is not fylled with hearyng.

9 The thyng that hath been, commeth to paſſe agayne, and the thyng that hath been done, ſhalbe done agayne: there is no newe thyng vnder the ſunne.

10 Is there any thyng whereof it may be ſayde, Loe, this is newe? foꝛ it was long agoe in the tymes that haue been befoꝛe vs.

11 The thyng that is paſt is out of remembꝛance: euen ſo the thynges that are foꝛ to come, ſhal no moꝛe be thought vppon among them that come after.

12 I mee ſelfe the pꝛeacher was kyng ouer Iſrael at Hieruſalem,

13 And did applie my mynde to ſeeke out and ſearch foꝛ the knowledge of al thinges that are done vnder heauen: (Suche tꝛauayle and labour hath God geuen vnto the chyldꝛen of men, to exerciſe them ſelues therein.)

14 Thus haue I conſydered al theſe thinges that come to paſſe vnder the ſunne: and loe, they are al but vanitie and veration of mynde.

15 b The crooked can not be made ſtraight, noꝛ the imperfection of thynges can be numbꝛed.

b. Man is not able of his owne power to reſourme that is amiſſe, and to ryſe vp from ſinne, nor to knowe his imperfection and weakeneſſe, to doo any thyng that is good, without the grace of God.

16 I communed with mine owne hart, ſaying, Loe, I am come to great eſtate, and haue gotten moꝛe wyſedome then all they that haue been befoꝛe me in Hieruſalem.

17 Yea my hart had great experience of wiſdome and knowledge: foꝛ thereunto I applyed my mynde, that I might knowe what were wiſedome and vnderſtandyng, what were errour and foolyſhneſſe: and I perceyued that this was alſo but a veration of mynde.

18 Foꝛ

18 For where muche wysedome is, there is also great trauayle and disquietnesse: and the more knowledge a man hath, the more is his care.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

1. pleasures, sumptuous buyldynges, rychesse, and possessions are but vanitie. 14. The wyse and the foole hath both one ende touchyng the bodyly death.

1 THEN sayde I thus in my hart, Nowe goe to, a I wyll take myne ease, and haue good dayes: but loe, that is vanitie also.

2 Insomuche that b I sayde vnto the man geuen to laughter, Thou art mad: and to myrth, What doest thou?

3 c So I thought in my hart to geue my flesshe vnto wyne, and agayne to apply my mynde vnto wysdome, and to comprehende foolyshnesse: vntyll the tyme that among al the thynges which are vnder the Sunne, I myght see what were best for men to doo so long as they lyue vnder heauen.

4 d I made gorgeous fayre woorkes: I buylded my house, and planted vineyardes.

5 I made me Orchardes and Gardens of pleasure, planted trees in them of all maner of fruites.

6 I made pooles of water, to water the greene and fruitefull trees withall.

7 I bought seruauntes and maydens, and had a great housholde: as for cattell and sheepe I had more substaunce of them, then all they that were before me in Hierusalem.

8 I geathered togeather syluer and golde, and the cheefe treasures of kyngs & landes: I haue prouided me men singers and women singers, and the delyghts of the sonnes of men, as a woman taken captiue, and women taken captiues.

9 And I was greater and in more worshyp then al my predecessours in Hierusalem, for wysedome remayned with me.

10 And looke what so euer my eyes desyred, I let them haue it: and where in so euer my hart delyghted or had any pleasure, I withholde it not from it: Thus my hart reioyced in all that I dyd, and this was my portion of al my trauayle.

11 But when I consydered all the woorkes that my handes had wrought, and all the labour that I had taken therin: loe, al was but vanitie and vexation of mynde, and nothyng of any value vnder the Sunne.

12 e Then turned I me to consyder wysedome, errour, and foolishnesse (for what is he among men that myght be compared to me the kyng in suche woorkes?)

13 And I sawe that wysedome excelleth foolyshnesse, as farre as lyght doth darkenesse.

14 *Pro.17.24. *For a wyse man hath his eyes in his head, but the foole goeth in darkenesse: I perceiued also that they both f had one ende.

15 Then thought I in my mynde, yf it happen vnto the foole as it doth vnto me, what needeth me then to labour any more for wisedome? So I confessed within my hart that this also was but vanitie.

16 For the wyse are euer as litle in remembraunce as the foolyshe: for the dayes shall come g when all shall be forgotten: yea, the wyse man dyeth as wel as the foole.

17 Thus began I to be weery of my lyfe, insomuche that I coulde away with nothyng that is doone vnder the Sunne: for all was but vanitie and vexation of mynde.

18 h Yea, I was weery of my labour which I had taken vnder the Sunne, because I shoulde be fayne to leaue them vnto another man that commeth after me.

19 i And who knoweth whether he shalbe a wyse man or a foole? and yet shall he be lorde of all my labours, which I with such wisedome haue taken vnder the Sunne: This is also a vayne thyng.

20 So I turned me to refrayne my mynde from all such trauayle as I tooke vnder the Sunne, 21 For as muche as a man shoulde weerie hym selfe with wysedome, with vnderstandyng and opportunitie, and yet be fayne to leaue his labours vnto another that neuer sweate for them: This is also a vayne thyng, and great miserie.

22 For what getteth a man of al the labour and trauayle of his mynde, that he taketh vnder the Sunne?

23 But heauynesse, sorow, and disquietnesse all the dayes of his lyfe, insomuche that his hart can not rest in the nyght: This is also a vayne thyng.

24 Is it not better then for a man to eate and drynke, and his soule to be meery in his labour? yea, I sawe that this also is a gyft of GOD.

25 For who wyll eate, or goe more lustily to his woorke then I?

26 And why? GOD geueth to the man that is good before hym, wysedome, vnderstandyng, and gladnesse: but vnto the sinner he geueth weerynesse, that he may geather and heape togeather the thyng that afterwarde shalbe geuen vnto hym whom it pleaseth GOD: This is nowe a vayne thyng,

f. They both suffer lyke aduersitie in this worlde, or as touchyng the corruption of the body, they dye both alike.

g. Meanyng in this worlde.

h. That he myght seeke the true felicitie which is in God.

i. He rebuketh men that maketh carefull prouidence to enriche their heires by vnlawful meanes, to their owne damnation, not knowing who or what they shalbe, eyther good or euyll.

thyng, yea, a very disquietnesse and vexation of mynde.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

a. All thynges haue theyr tyme. 14. The vvorkes of God are perfect, and cause vs to feare hym. 17. God shall iudge both the iust and vniust.

a. Although true felicitie is not to be put in any worldly thyng: yet God hath appoynted all necessarie thynges to be doone in due tyme, order, and measure.

1 EVery a thyng hath a tyme, yea, al that is vnder the heauē hath his conuenient season.

2 There is a tyme to be borne, and a tyme to dye: there is a tyme to plant, and a tyme to plucke vp the thyng that is planted.

3 A tyme to slay, and a tyme to make whole: a tyme to breake downe, and a time to build vp.

4 A tyme to weepe, and a tyme to laugh: a tyme to mourne, and a tyme to daunce.

5 A tyme to cast away stones, and a tyme to geather stones togeather: a tyme to imbrace, and a tyme to refrayne from imbracing.

6 A tyme to wynne, and a tyme to loose: a tyme to spare, and a tyme to spende.

7 A tyme to cut in peeces, and a tyme to sow togeather: a tyme to keepe silence, and a tyme to speake.

8 A tyme to loue, and a tyme to hate: a time of warre, and a tyme of peace.

9 What hath a man els that doth any thing, but weerynesse and labour?

b. God hath appoynted that euery man should diligently trauayle and take paynes in his vocation, to the ende he would haue him humble & feare God.

10 b For as touchyng the trauayle and carefulnesse whiche God hath geuen vnto men, I see that he hath geuen it them to be exercised in it.

11 All thynges hath he made beautifull in their tyme, yea, further then this, he hath planted the world in their hartes, that man may not comprehende the worke that God maketh from the begynnyng to the ende.

12 So I perceiued that in those thynges there is nothyng better for a man, then to be merry, and to doo well as long as he lyueth.

13 For all that a man eateth and drynketh, yea, what so euer a man enioyeth of all his labour, that same is a gyft of God.

14 I considered also, that what so euer God doth, it continueth for euer, & that nothing can be put vnto it, nor taken from it, and that GOD doth it, to the intent that men shoulde feare hym.

15 The thyng that hath ben, is nowe: and the thyng that is for to come, hath ben afore tyme: for God restoreth agayne the thyng that was past.

16 Moreouer, I sawe vnder the Sunne vngodlynesse in the steede of iudgement, and iniquitie in the steede of ryghteousnesse.

17 Then thought I in my mynde, God shal separate the ryghteous from the vngodly: and then shalbe the tyme and iudgement of al counsels and woorkes.

18 I communed with myne owne hart also concernyng the chyldren of men, howe God hath chosen them, and yet letteth them appeare as though they were beastes.

c. There is difference betwixt a man & a beast as touching the body whiche of them both dyeth: the soule of man liueth immortally, and the body of man reth vp agayn by the mighty power of the spirite of God.

19 c For it happeneth vnto men, as it dooth vnto beastes, euen one condition vnto them both: as the one dyeth, so dyeth the other: yea, they haue both one maner of breath: so that in this, a man hath no preheminence aboue a beast, but are all subdued vnto vanitie.

20 They goe all vnto one place: for as they be all of dust, so shal they all turne vnto dust agayne.

d. The immortality of ſ soule is not knowen by carnall reason or sensible by the worke of spirite of God in vs, of the children of men.

21 d Who knoweth the spirite of man that goeth vpwarde: and the breath of the beast that goeth downe to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceiue that there is nothyng better for a man, then to be ioyfull in his labour, for that is his portion: but who wyll bryng hym to see the thyng that shall come after hym?

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

1. The innocent are oppressed. 4. Mens labours are full of abuse and vanitie. 9. Mans societie is necessarie. 13. A young man poore and wyse, is to be preferred before an olde king that is a foole.

1 SO I turned me, and considered al the violent wrong that is vnder the Sunne: and beholde the teares of suche as were oppressed, and there was no man to comfort them, or that woulde delyuer or defend them from the violence of their oppressours.

2 Wherefore I "iudged those that are dead, to be more happy then those that be alyue:

"or, praised.

a. He speaketh here according to the iudgement of flesh, whiche can not well abyde persecution and trouble.

3 a Yea, hym that is yet vnborne, to be better at ease then they both: because he seeth not the miserable woorkes that are done vnder the Sunne.

b. The more perfect that the woorke is, the more it is enuyed of ſ wicked.

4 b Agayne, I sawe that all trauayle and diligence of labour that euery man taketh in hande, was doone of enuie agaynst his neyghbour: This is also a vayne thing, and a vexation of mynde.

c. For idlenesse destroyeth hym selfe.

5 c The foole foldeth his hands togeather, and eateth vp his owne flesh.

6 One handfull sayth he is better with rest, then both the handes full with labour and trauayle of mynde.

7 Moreouer I turned me, and beholde yet another mother vanitie vnder the Sunne:

8 There is one man, no moe but him selfe alone, hauing neyther childe nor brother, yet is there no ende of his carefull trauayle, his eyes can not be satisfied with richesse: yet saith he not, for whom doo I take suche trauayle? for whose pleasure doo I thus consume away my lyfe? This is also a vayne and a miserable thing.

9 d Therefore two are better then one, for they may well enioy the profyte of theyr labour: for yf one of them fall, his companion helpeth him vp againe.

10 But woe is him that is alone, for yf he fall, he hath not an other to helpe him vp.

11 Agayne, when two sleepe togeather, they are warme: but how can a body be warme alone?

12 One may be ouercome, but two may make resistance: a three folde gable is not lightly broken.

13 A poore childe being wyse, is better then an olde king that doteth, "and can not beware in time to come.

14 Some one commeth out of prison, and is made a king, and an other whiche is borne in the kingdome, commeth vnto powertie.

15 And I perceyued that all men liuing vnder the Sunne e goe with the second child, that shall stande vp in the steade of the other.

16 As for the people that haue been before him, and that come after him, they are innumerable, and they that come f after hym shal not reioyce of him: This is also a vaine thing, and vexation of minde.

17 When thou commest into the house of God, keepe thy foote, and drawe nygh, that God which is at hand may heare, that thou gyue not the g offeringes of fooles: for they knowe nought but to doo euyl.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1. Not to speake lightly, cheefely in Gods matters. 6. The couetous can neuer haue ynough.

1 BE not hastie with thy mouth, and let not thyne hart speake any thing rashely before God, for God is in heauen, and thou vpon earth: therefore let thy wordes be fewe.

2 For where much carefulnesse is, there are many dreames: and where many wordes are, there men may heare fooles.

3 *Yf thou make a vowe vnto God, be not slacke to performe it, as for folishe vowes, he hath no pleasure in them: if thou promise any thing, pay it.

4 b For better is it that thou make no vowe, then that thou shouldest promise, and not pay.

5 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesshe for to c sinne, neyther say thou before the angel, that it is thy ignorance: for then God wyll be angry at thy voyce, and destroy all the worke of thyne handes.

6 d And why? whereas are many dreames, and many wordes, there are also diuers vanities, but looke that thou feare God.

7 Yf thou seest the poore to be oppressed, and wrongfully dealt withall, so that equitie and right of the lawe is wrested in the land, marueyle not thou at such a thing: for he that is e higher then the highest, regardeth, and there be higher then they.

8 f The encrease of the earth vpholdeth all thinges: yea the king him selfe is maintayned by husbandry.

9 He that loueth money, wyll neuer be satisfied with money: & he that loueth richesse, shalbe without the fruite thereof: This is also a vaine thing.

10 Whereas much richesse is, there are many also that spend them away: and what pleasure more hath he that possesseth them, sauing that he may looke vppon them with his eyes?

11 A labouring man sleepeth sweetely, whether it be little or much that he eateth: but the abundance of the riche wyll not suffer him to sleepe.

12 g Yet is there a sore plague whiche I haue seene vnder the Sunne, namely, richesse kept * to the hurt of him that hath them in possession:

13 For oftentimes they perishe with his great miserie and trouble: and yf he haue a child, it getteth nothing.

14 * Like as he came naked out of his mothers wombe, so goeth he thyther agayne, and carrieth nothing away with him of all his labour.

15 This is a miserable plague, that he shall goe euen as he came away: What helpeth it him then that he hath laboured in the winde?

16 h All the dayes also of his life he dyd eate in the darke with great carefulnesse, sicknesse, and sorowe.

17 Therefore me thinke it is a better and a fayrer thing a man do eate and drinke, and to be refreshed of all his labour that he taketh vnder the Sunne, all the dayes of his lyfe which God geueth him: for this is his portion.

18 For vnto whom so euer God geueth richesse, goodes, and power, he geueth it him to enioy it, to take it for his portion, and to be

Or by intemperate eatyng & drinking, or by saying that you sinned not voluntaryly, but of necessitie, makyng God the authour of sinne.

d. Dreames are not to be credited: but God is to be feared.

be refreshed of his labour: this is the gyft of God.

19 For he thinketh not much howe long he shall liue, for as muche as God fylleth his hart with gladnesse.

¶ The.vi.Chapter.

The miserable estate of him to whom God hath geuen richesse, and not the grace to vse them.

1 There is yet a plague vnder the sunne, and it is a generall thing among men: when GOD geueth a man richesse, goodes, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing of all that his hart can desyre, and yet God geueth him not leaue to enioy the same, but an other man spendeth them: This is a vayne thing, and a miserable plague.

2 If a man begeat a hundred chyldren, and liue many yeeres, so that his dayes are many in number, and yet can not enioye his good, a neyther be buried, as for him, I say that vntimely birth is better then he.

3 For he commeth to nought, and spendeth his time in darknesse, and his name is forgotten.

4 Moreouer, he seeth not the Sunne, and knoweth not of it: and yet hath he more rest then the other.

5 Yea though he liued two thousand yeeres, yet hath he no good lyfe: Come not b all to one place?

6 All the labour that a man taketh, is for him "selfe, and yet his desyre is neuer filled after his minde.

7 For what hath the wyse more then the foole? what helpeth it the poore that c he knoweth to walke with fooles before the liuing?

8 The d cleare sight of the eye is better then that the soule should walke after desyres of the lust: Howbeit, this is also a vaine thing, and a disquietnesse of mind.

9 The thing that hath been, is named alreadye, and knowen that it is euen man hym selfe: neyther may he goe to lawe with him e that is mightyer then he.

10 Many thinges there be that encrease vanitie, and what hath a man els?

11 For who knoweth what is good for man liuing in the dayes of his vayne lyfe, which is but a shadowe? Or who wyll tell a man what shall happen after him vnder the Sunne?

¶ The.vii.Chapter.

Diuers preceptes to folowe that whiche is good, and to auoyde the contrary.

1 A Good name is more worthy then precious ointment: and the a day of death, is better then the day of birth.

2 * b It is better to goe into an house of mournyng, then into a banquetting house: For there is the ende of all men, and he that is liuing, taketh it to hart.

3 c Grauitie is better then to laugh: for when the countenaunce is heauy, the hart is reformed.

4 The hart of the wyse is in the mournyng house: but the hart of the foolishe is in the house of myrth.

5 It is better to geue eare to the chastenyng of a wyse man, then to heare the songue of fooles.

6 For the laughing of fooles is like the d cracking of thornes vnder a pot: and that is but a vayne thing.

7 The wyse man hateth wrong dealing: and abhorreth the hart that coueteth rewardes.

8 Better is it to consyder the end of a thyng then the beginnyng: the pacient of spirite is better then the high minded.

9 Be not hastyly angry in thy minde: for wrath resteth in the bosome of fooles.

10 e Say not thou, What is the cause that the dayes of the olde time were better then they that be nowe? for that were no wyse question.

11 Wysedome with inheritance is good, yet better is it with them that without care may behold the Sunne:

12 For wysedome defendeth as well as money, and the excellent knowledge and wysdome geueth lyfe vnto him that hath it in possession.

13 Consyder the woorke of God, howe that no man can make the thing straight, which he maketh crooked.

14 Vse well the time of prosperitie, and remember the tyme of misfortune: for God dooth so temper the one and the other, that a man f can fynde nothing els.

15 All thynges haue I consydered in the time of my vanitie: that the g iust man perisheth for his righteousnesse sake, and the vngodly liueth in his wickednesse.

16 Therfore be thou neither too righteous, nor ouer wyse, that thou perishe not.

17 Be neyther too vnrighteous also, nor too foolishe, lest thou dye before thy time.

18 It is good for thee to h take holde of this, and not to let that goe out of thy hand: For he that feareth God, commeth forth with them all.

19 Wysdome geueth more courage vnto the wyse, then ten mighty men of the citie.

21 *Take no heede vnto euery woorde that is spoken, lest thou heare thy seruant curse thee: for thyne owne hart knoweth that thou thee selfe also hast oftentymes spoken euyll by other men.

22 All these thynges haue I prooued in wisdome, for I thought to be wyse, but shee went farther from me then shee was before: yea, and so deepe, that I myght not reache vnto her.

23 I applyed my mynde also vnto knowledge, and to seeke and searche out science, wysedome, and vnderstandyng, to knowe the foolyshnesse of the vngodly, and the errour of dotyng fooles.

24 And I founde that a woman is bytterer then death, the whiche hath cast abrode her hart as a net that men fishe with, and her hands are chaines. i Who so pleaseth God, shall escape from her, but the sinner wyll be taken with her.

25 Beholde (sayth the preacher) this haue I diligently searched out and prooued. One thyng must be consydered with an other, that a man may come by knowledge: which as yet I seeke and fynde it not.

26 Among a thousande men I haue founde one: but k not one woman among all.

27 Loe, this onely haue I founde, that God made man iust and ryght: l but they sought many inuentions.

¶ The. viii Chapter.

2. To obey princes and maiestrates. 27. The vvoorkes of God passe mans knovvledge.

1 WHO is wyse? who hath knowledge to make an aunswere? A a mans wysedome maketh his face to shine: but b vnshamefastnes putteth it out of fauor.

2 *Keepe the kynges commaundement, namely, for the oth that thou hast made vnto God for the same.

3 b Be not hasty to goe out of his sight, & see thou continue in no euyll thyng: for what so euer it pleaseth him, that dooth he.

4 Lyke as when a kyng geueth a charge, his commaundement is myghtie: euen so, who may say vnto hym, What doest thou?

5 Who so keepeth the commaundement, shal feele no harme: but a wyse mans hart discerneth the tyme and iudgement.

6 For euery thyng wyll haue opportunitie & iudgement: and this is the thyng that maketh men full of carefulnesse and sorowe.

7 And why? a man knoweth not what is for to come: for who can tel when it shalbe?

8 Neyther is there any man that hath power ouer the spirite, to keepe styl the spirite, nor to haue any power in the tyme of death, nor that can make an ende of the battayle, neyther may vngodlynesse deliuer them that meddle withall.

9 All these thynges haue I consydered, and applyed my mynde vnto euery woorke that is vnder the Sunne, howe one man hath lordeshyp vppon another, to c his owne harme.

c. As commeth oftentimes to tyrauntes and wicked rulers.

10 For I haue seene often ỹ vngodly brought to their graues, d and yet they haue returned into the citie agayne, and e came from the place of holy men, whiche in the citie were growen out of memorie, as were those also that lyued well: This is also a vayne thyng.

d. That is, the vngodly hath ben prayſed after their burial.

e. That is, the holy men after their buryall growe out of memorie.

11 f Because nowe that euyll woorkes are not hastily punished, the hart of man geueth hym selfe ouer vnto wyckednesse.

f. Where Iustice is delayed there sinne raigneth.

12 Because an euyll person offendeth an hundred tymes, and God deferreth, geuyng hym long lyfe: therefore am I sure that it shall goe well with them that feare GOD, whiche haue hym before their eyes.

13 Agayne, as for the vngodly, it shall not be wel with hym, neyther shall he prolong his dayes, but euen as a shadowe, so shall he be that feareth not God.

14 Yet is there a vanitie vpon earth: There be iust men vnto whom it happeneth as though they had the woorkes of the vngodly: Agayne, there be vngodly, with whom it goeth as though they had the woorkes of the ryghteous: This haue I called also a vayne thyng.

15 Therefore I commende gladnesse, because a man hath no better thyng vnder the Sunne, then to eate and drynke, and to be meery: g for that shall he haue of his labour all the dayes of his lyfe, whiche God geueth hym vnder the Sunne.

g. This he speketh in the person of a carnal man.

16 And so I applyed my mynde to learne wysedome, and to knowe the trauayle that is in the worlde, and that of suche a fashion, that I suffered not myne eyes to sleepe, neyther day nor nyght.

17 I vnderstoode of all the woorkes of God, but it is not possible for a man to atteine vnto the worke that are done vnder the sunne: and though he bestowe his labour to seeke them out, yet can he not reache vnto them: yea, though a wyse man woulde vndertake to knowe them, yet shal he not finde them.

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

1. By no outvvard thyng can man knovv vvhom God loueth or hateth. 11. No man knovveth his ende. 19. VVisedome excelleth strength.

1 For

1 FOr all these thynges vnrpased I in my minde to seeke out: The ryghteous and wyse, yea, and their seruantes also are in the hande of God, a and there is no man knoweth eyther loue or hate, but al thynges are before them.

a. By any outwarde thing in this life, no man knoweth whether he is loued or hated of god.

2 It happeneth vnto one, as vnto another, it goeth with the righteous, as with the vngodly, b with the good and cleane, as with the vncleane: with hym that offereth, as with hym that offereth not: lyke as it goeth with the vertuous, so goeth it also with the sinner: as it happeneth vnto the periured, so happeneth it also to hym that is afrayde to be forswo̅e.

b. Prosperitie and aduersitie cōmeth in this lyfe, as well to the godly, as to the wicked.

3 Among all thynges that come to passe vnder the Sunne, this is a miserie, that it happeneth vnto all alyke: This is the cause also, that the hartes of men are full of wickednesse, and madde foolishnesse is in theyr hartes, as long as they lyue, vntyll they dye.

4 And why? as long as a man lyueth, he hath an hope: for a c quicke dogge say they is better then a dead Lion.

c. This prouerbe is the saying of the Epicures, the which beleueth not the immortalitie of the soule.

5 For they that be lyuyng, knowe that they shall dye: but d they that be dead, knowe nothyng, neyther deserue they any more, for their memoriall is forgotten.

d. Repentāce after this lyfe, is to late, and vnprofitable.

6 Also their loue and their hatred, and their emnie is nowe perished, neyther haue they any more part in the worlde in all that is done vnder the Sunne.

7 e Goe thou thy way then, eate thy bread with ioy, and drynke thy wyne with a glad hart, for thy workes please God: Let thy garments be alway whyte, and let thy head lacke no oyntmet.

e. The wicked flatter them selues to be in Gods fauour, what so euer they do, for that they do abound in prosperitie.

8 Vse thee selfe to lyue ioyfully with thy wyfe whom thou louest, all the dayes of thy lyfe, whiche is but vayne, that God geueth thee vnder the Sunne all the dayes of thy vanitie: for that is thy portion in this life of all thy labour and trauayle that thou takest vnder the Sunne.

9 What so euer thou takest in hande to doo, that doo with all thy power: for in the graue that thou goest f vnto, there is neyther worke, counsayle, knowledge, nor wisedome.

f. There is no tyme of woorkyng, or repentance after this lyfe.

10 So I turned me vnto other thynges vnder the Sunne, and I sawe that in running it helpeth not to be swyft, in battayle it helpeth not to be strong, to feedyng, it helpeth not to be wyse, to rychesse, it helpeth not to be a man of muche vnderstandyng, to be had in fauour, it helpeth not to be cunnyng: g but that al lyeth in tyme and fortune.

g. Thus the wicked worldlynges are deceiued, attributing to fortune, that whiche is ordered by the secrete prouidence of God, for that the reward according to mens doings is not in this lyfe, but chiefely in the lyfe to come.

11 For a man knoweth not his tyme: but lyke as the fyshes are taken with the angle, and as the byrdes are caught with the snare: euen so are men taken in the perylous tyme, when it commeth sodaynely vpon them.

12 h This wysedome haue I seene also vnder the Sunne, and mee thought it a great thyng.

h. A prayse of wysedome.

13 There was a litle citie, and a fewe men within it: so there came a great kyng and besieged it, and made great bulwarkes against it.

14 And in the citie there was found a poore man, but he was wyse, whiche with his wysedome deliuered the citie, yet was there no body that had any respect to suche a simple man.

15 Then sayde I, wysedome is better then strength: neuertheless, a simple mans wisedome is despised, and his woordes are not hearde.

16 A wyse mans counsayle that is "folowed in silence, is farre aboue the crying of a captayne among fooles.

" Or, heard.

17 * For wysedome is better then harnesse: but one sinner alone destroyeth much goodnesse.

* Supr. 6.

¶ The.x. Chapter.

1. The difference of foolyshnesse and vvysdome. 10 A straunderer is lyke a Serpent that can not be charmed. 15. Of foolyshe kinges and riotous princes. 16. And of good kinges and princes.

1 A Dead flye dooth corrupt sweete oyntment, and maketh it to stynke: euen so oft tymes, he that hath been had in estimation for wysedome and honour, is abhorred because of a litle foolyshnesse.

2 a A wyse mans hart is vppon his ryght hande, but a fooles hart vppon his left.

a. A wise man doth thynges aptly, and with good consideration, but a foole doth contrarie.

3 A foole wyll shewe hym selfe when he goeth by the way, " yet thynketh he that euery man dooth as foolishly as hym selfe.

" Or, and iudgeth foole him self, esteemeth all other men as fooles.

4 If a principal spirit be geuen thee to beare rule, be not negligent then in thyne office: for he that can take cure of him selfe, auoydeth great offences.

5 Another plague is there whiche I haue seene vnder the Sunne, namely, the ignorance that is commonly among pyinces: in that a foole sitteth in great dignitie, and the b ryche are set downe beneath.

b. Riche in wysdome and vertue.

6 I haue seene seruantes ryde vpon horses, and pyinces goyng vpon " theyr feete, as it were seruantes.

the hedge, a serpent shall bite him.
8 Who so remooueth stones, shall haue trauayle withall: and he that heweth wood, shalbe hurt therewith.
9 When an iron is blunt, and the poynt not sharpned, it must be whet agayne, and that with might: euen so dooth wysedome folowe diligence.
10 A backbiter is no better then a serpent that stingeth without hissing.
11 The woordes out of a wyse mans mouth are gracious: but the lippes of a foole wyll destroy himselfe.
12 The beginning of his talking is foolishnesse: and the last woord of his mouth is starke madnesse.
13 A foole is full of woordes, and a man can not tell what shall come to passe: who wyl then warne him of it that shall folowe after him?
14 The labour of the d foolishe is greeuous vnto them, whyle they knowe not howe to goe into the citie.
15 Woe be vnto thee, O thou land, whose king is but a childe, and whose princes are early at their banquettes.
16 But well is thee, O thou lande, whose kyng is come of nobles, and whose princes eate in due season for necessitie, and not for lust.
17 Through slouthfulnesse the balkes fall downe, and through idle handes it rayneth in at the house.
18 Meate maketh men to laugh, and wine maketh them merie: but vnto money are all thinges obedient.
19 f Mishe the king no euill in thy thought, and speake no hurt of the riche in thy priuie chamber: for a birde of the ayre shall betray thy voyce, and with her feathers shall shee bewray thy woordes.

4 He that regardeth the wind, shal not sowe: and he that hath respect vnto the cloudes, shall not reape.
5 Nowe like as thou knowest not the way of the spirite, nor howe the bones doo grow in the wombe of her that is with childe: euen so thou knowest not the woorkes of God, which is the woorkemaister of all.
6 Cease not thou therefore with thy hands to sowe thy seede, whether it be in the morning or in the euenyng: for thou knowest not whether this or that shall prosper, and yf they both take, it is the better.
7 The light is sweete, and a pleasant thing is it for the eyes to looke vpon the sunne.
8 Yf a man liue many yeeres, and be gladde in them all, let him remember the dayes of darknesse which shalbe many, and that followeth: All thinges shalbe but vanitie.
9 Be glad then (O thou young man) in thy youth, and let thy hart be merie in thy young dayes, folowe the wayes of thyne owne hart, and the lust of thyne eyes, d but be thou sure that God shall bring thee into iudgement for all these thinges.

10 The preacher was yet more wyse, and taught the people knowledge, he gaue good heede, sought out the ground, and set forth many parables: His diligence was to finde out acceptable wordes, right scripture, and the woordes of trueth.

14 O ſtand vp then, and come my loue, my beautiful, and come I ſay, O my doue, out of the caues of the rockes, out of the holes of the wal, O let me ſee thy countenance, and heare thy voyce: for ſweete is thy voyce, and fayre is thy face.
15 Get vs k the Foxes, yea the litle Foxes that hurt ỹ vines: for our vines beare bloſſomes.
16 My loue is myne, and I am his, whiche feedeth among the Lyllies vntyll the day breake, and tyl the ſhadowes be gone:
17 l Come agayne, O my beloued, and be lyke a Roe or a young Hart vppon the wyde mountaynes.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1. The Churche deſireth to be ioyned inſeperably to Chriſte her husbande. 6. Her delyueraunce out of the wylderneſſe.

1 BY a nyght in my bedde I ſought hym whom my ſoule loueth: yea, diligently ſought I hym, but I founde hym not.
2 I wyl get vp, thought I, b and goe about the citie, in the wayes in al the ſtreetes wyl I ſeeke hym whom my ſoule loueth: but when I ſought hym, I founde hym not.
3 The watchmen alſo that goe about the citie, founde me, to vvhom I ſayde, Saw ye not hym whom my ſoule loueth?
4 So whē I was a litle paſt them, I found hym whom my ſoule loueth, I haue gotten holde vpon hym, and wyll not let hym goe, vntyl I bryng hym into my mothers houſe, and into her chamber that bare me.
5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, by the Roes and Hyndes of the feelde, that ye wake not vp my loue, nor touch her, tyl ſhe be content her ſelfe.
6 Who is this that cōmeth vp out of c the wylderneſſe lyke vapours of ſmoke, as it were a ſmell of Myrrhe, Frankenceſſe, and al maner ſpyces of the Apotecarie?
7 Beholde, about d Solomons bedſtead there ſtande threeſcore valiant, of the moſte myghtie in Iſrael: they holde ſwoordes euery one, and are expert in warre.
8 Euery man alſo hath his ſwoorde vpon his thygh, becauſe of feare in the nyght.
9 Kyng Solomon had made hym ſelfe a palace of the wood of Libanus, the pylers are of ſylner, "the couerynge of golde, the ſeate of purple, the grounde is pleaſantly paued with loue for the daughters of Hieruſalem.
10 Goe forth (O ye daughters of Sion) and beholde kyng Solomon in the crowne wherwith his mother crowned hym in the day of his marriage, and in the day of the gladneſſe of his hart.

a. Chriſte is not founde by carnal reaſon, but by the ſcripture.

1. The prayſes of the Churche. 7. She is without blemyshe in his ſyght. 9. The loue of Chriſte towarde her.

1 O Howe a fayre art thou my loue, howe fayre art thou? thou haſt b Doues eyes,

a. Chriſt prayſeth his church wherin he hath great delyght.
b. A ſimple fayth, and ſincere.

eyes, beſyde that whiche lyeth hydde within c thy hearte lockes, are lyke the wool of a flocke of Goates that be ſhowne vppon mount Gilead.

c. The fruites of a true fayth.

d. By ỹ teeth, is ſignified faith by the whiche we are al made the ſonnes of God equally.

2 d Thy teeth are lyke a flocke of Sheepe of the ſame bygneſſe whiche went vp from the waſhyng place, where euery one beareth two twynnes, & not one vnfruiteful among them.

3 Thy lippes are lyke a Roſe coloured rybande, thy wordes are louely, thy cheekes are lyke a peece of Pomegranate within thyne heares.

e. By the necke is ſignified the preachers.

4 Thy e necke is like the towre of Dauid, buylded with coſtly ſtones lying out on the ſydes, whereuppon there hang a thouſande ſhieldes, yea all the weapons of the Gyantes.

f. The two breſtes ſignifie the two teſtamentes.

5 f Thy two breſtes are lyke two twynnes of young Roes, which feede among Roſes.

6 O that I myght goe to the mountayne of Myrrhe, and to the hyll of Frankencenſe, tyl the day breake, and tyll the ſhadowes be paſt away.

7 Thou art all fayre (O my loue) and no ſpot is there in thee.

8 Come to me from Libanus (O my ſpouſe) come to me from Libanus: looke from the top of Amna, from the top of Sanir and Hermon, from the Lions dennes, and from the mountaynes of the Leopardes.

9 Thou haſt with loue bewitched my hart, O my ſyſter, my ſpouſe, thou haſt bewitched my hart with one of thyne eyes, and with one chayne of thy necke.

10 O howe fayre are thy breſtes, my ſyſter, my ſpouſe? Thy breſtes are more pleaſant then wyne, & the ſmell of thyne oyntmentes paſſeth al ſpyces.

g. The preachyng of the Goſpel bryngeth foorth much conſolation and profyte.

h. The church is defended by Chriſte.

11 g Thy lippes, O my ſpouſe, drop as the honie combe, yea mylke and honie is vnder thy tongue, and the ſmell of thy garmentes is lyke the ſmel of Libanus.

12 h A garden well locked is my ſyſter, my ſpouſe: a garden wel locked, and a ſealed wel.

13 The fruites that are planted in thee, are like a very paradiſe of Pomegranates with ſweete fruites, as Camphire, Nardus, and Saffron, Calamus, Synamom, with all ſweete ſmellyng trees, Myrrhe, Aloes, and al the beſt ſpyces, a well of gardens, a well of lyuyng waters whiche runne downe from Libanus.

i. He prayeth for the grace of the holy ghoſte towarde the church, without the which nothyng can proſper in it.

14 i Vp thou North wynde, come thou South wynde and blowe vpon my garden, that the ſmel therof may be carried on euery ſyde: yea that my beloued may come into his garden, and eate of the ſweete fruites that growe therein.

¶ The .v. Chapter.

1. Chriſte calleth his Churche to the participation of all his treaſures. 2. She heareth his voyce. 6. She confeſſeth her nakedneſſe, 10. she praiſeth Chriſte her husbande.

1 I Am a come into my garden, O my ſyſter, my ſpouſe, I haue geathered my Myrrhe with my ſpyce: I haue eaten honie with my honie combe, I haue dronken my wyne with my mylke: Eate, O ye freendes, drynke, and be merie, O ye beloued.

a. The garden ſignifieth the church of God, in the whiche Chriſt beſtoweth his ſinguler benefyces.

2 I am aſleepe, but my hart is wakyng: I heare the voyce of my beloued whē he knocketh, ſaying, Open to me, O my ſyſter, my loue, my doue, my darlyng: for my head is ful of deawe, and the lockes of my heare are ful of the nyght droppes.

3 I haue put of my coate, howe can I doo it on agayne? I haue waſhed my feete, howe ſhal I fyle them agayne?

4 My loue put in his hande at the hole, and my hart was mooued within me.

5 I ſtoode vp to open vnto my beloued, and my handes dropped with Myrrhe, and the Myrrhe ranne downe my fyngers vpon the locke.

6 I opened vnto my beloued, but he was departed and gone his way: Nowe when he ſpake, my harte was gone: b I ſought hym, but I coulde not fynde hym: I cryed vpon hym, neuertheleſſe, he gaue me no anſweare.

b. Chriſt doth leaue his for a tyme, for that he would fynde vp in them a greater deſire of hym.

7 So the watchmen that went about the citie, founde me, ſmote me, and wounded me: yea they that kept the walles, tooke awaye my kerchiffe from me.

8 I charge you therefore, O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, yf ye fynde my beloued, that ye tell hym howe that I am ſycke for loue.

9 What maner of man is thy loue aboue other louers, O thou fayreſt among women? Or what can thy loue doo more then other louers, that thou chargeſt vs ſo straytely?

10 As for my loue, he c is whyte and redde coloured, a goodly perſon among ten thouſande.

c. The church ſetteth foorth Chriſte to be of moſt perfection & comelyneſſe.

11 His head is as the moſte fyne golde, the lockes of his heare are buſhed, and blacke as a Crowe.

12 His eyes are as the eyes of doues by the water brookes, as though they were waſhed with mylke, * and are ſet lyke pearles in golde.

* some reade, and remayne by the ful veſſels

13 His cheekes are lyke a garden bed, wherin the Apothecaries plant all manner of ſweete sweete thynges.

14 His lippes are lyke Lilies that droppe sweete smelling Myrrhe: his handes are like golde rynges, hauing inclosed the pretious stone of Tharsis.

15 His body is as the pure Iuorie, deckt ouer with Saphires: his legges are as the pyllers of Marble set vpon sockets of gold.

16 His face is as Libanus, and as the beautie of the Cedar trees.

17 The woordes of his mouth are sweete, yea he is altogeather louely: Suche a one is my loue, O ye daughters of Hierusalem, suche a one is my loue.

¶ The.vi.Chapter.

9. The Churche assureth her selfe of the loue of Christe. 3. The prayse of the Church. 8. She is but one and vndefiled.

1 WHyther is thy loue gone then, O thou fayrest among women? whyther is thy loue departed, and we wyl seeke hym with thee?

a. Christe is euerfruitful in his Churche, which is directly by his Scriptures.

2 a My loue is gone downe into his garden vnto the sweete smellyng beddes, that he may refreshe him selfe in the garden, and geather Lilies.

3 My loue is mine, and I am his, whiche feedeth among the Lilies.

4 Thou art beautiful, O my loue, as is the place Thirza, thou art fayre as Hierusalem, feareful as an armie of men with their banners.

5 Turne away thine eyes from me, for they "haue set me on fyre: thy heary lockes are like a flocke of Goates shorne vpon the mount of Gilead.

"Or, ouercome me.

6 Thy teeth are like a flocke of shorne sheepe, which goe out of the washing place, where euery one beareth twinnes, and not one vnfruitful among them.

7 Thy cheekes are like a peece of a pomegranate within thy lockes of heare.

b. There be many in the Church of god, and diuers orders & degrees, therein.

8 b There are threescore queenes, fourescore wiues, and damsels without number.

c. Diuers particular Churches dispearsed, maketh but one Catholyque Church.

9 c One is my doue, one is my darlyng, she is the onely beloued of her mother, and deare vnto her that bare her: When the daughters sawe her, they sayd she was blessed, yea the queenes and wyues praysed her.

d. Christe looketh vpon his Church subiect to affliction, what fruite it bringeth.

10 What is she this that looketh forth as the morning, fayre as the moone, cleare as the sunne, and feareful as an armie of men with their banners?

11 d I went downe into the nut garden, to see what grewe by the brookes, and to loke if the vineyarde flourished, or if the Pomegranates were not forth.

12 I knewe not that my soule had made me the charlot of the people that be vnder tribute.

13 Turne agayne, turne agayne, O thou perfect one, turne agayne, turne agayne, and we wyl looke vpon thee: What wyll ye see in the e Sulamite? She is like men of warre synging in a companie.

e Sulamite, that is Hierusalem, the which was Shalem, that signifieth peace.

¶ The.vii.Chapter.

1. The beautie of the Churche in all her members. 10. She is assured of Christes loue towardes her.

1 O Howe pleasant are thy treadinges with thy shooes, thou princes daughter? the ioyntes of thy thighes are lyke a fayre iewel, which is wrought by a cunning woorkemaister.

a. Thy nauil is replenished with the ryche knowledge of Gods woorde and heauenly desyres.

2 Thy a nauil is like a rounde goblet, whiche is neuer without drynke.

b. The Church is ful of spirituall treasures.

3 Thy b wombe is like a heape of wheate that is set about with Lilies.

c. The two testamentes commeth from god, and they be of equal authoritie.

4 c Thy two breastes are like two twinnes of young Roes.

d. The preachers ought to be pure.

5 d Thy necke is as it were a towre of Iuorie: thine e eyes also are lyke the water pooles that are in Heshebon, beside the port of Bathrabbim, thy f nose is like the towre of Libanus, which looketh towarde Damascus.

e. The magistrates must be wel instructed in the woorde of God.

f. The iudges of good and euyl.

6 That head that standeth vpon thee is like Carmel, and the heare of thy head is lyke purple, and like a king dwellyng among many water conduites.

7 O howe fayre and louely art thou my darlyng in pleasures?

g. The Church doeth encrease the more it is pressed and persecured.

8 Thy stature is like a g Paulme tree, and thy brestes like the grapes.

9 I sayde, I wyl clime vp into the Paulme tree, and take holde of his high branches.

10 Thy brestes also shalbe as the wine clusters, the smel of thy nosethrilles like as the smel of apples.

11 And thy roofe of thy mouth like the best wine, which is meete for my best beloued, pleasant for his lippes, and for his teeth to chawe.

12 I am my beloueds, and he shal turne him vnto me.

h. Christ wyll cal them that professe his woorde, to account what fruite they doo bryng.

13 O come on my loue, we wyl goe forth into the feelde, and take our lodging in the villages.

i. God geueth his graces to the faythful the which be in his Church.

14 h In the morning wyl we goe see the vineyarde, we wyl see if the vine be sprong forth, if the grapes be growen, and if the Pomegranates be shut out.

15 i There wyl I geue thee my brestes: the Mandragoras geue theyr sweete smell, and beſyde our dooꝛes are al maner of pleaſant fruites both newe and olde, whiche I haue kept foꝛ thee, O my beloued.

2. The Churche vvyll be taught by Chriſte. 3. She is vpholden by him. 6. The vehement loue vvherevvith Chriſte loueth her. 11. She is the vine that bryngeth foorth fruite to the ſpirituall Solomon, vvhiche is Ieſus Chriſte.

a. The fathers of the olde teſtament deſyreth to ſee the incarnation of Chriſte.

1 O That a I might finde thee without, and kyſſe thee, whom I loue as my bꝛother whiche ſuckt my mothers bꝛeaſtes, & that thou ſhalt not be diſpiſed.

2 I wyl leade thee, and bꝛyng thee into my mothers houſe, that thou mightеſt teache me, and that I might geue thee dꝛynke of the ſpiced wine, and of the ſweete ſappe of my Pomegranates.

b. His gratious fauour ſhal preſerue me from deſperation in aduerſity, and from preſumption in proſperitie.

3 His b leaft hande ſhalbe vnder my head, and his ryght hande ſhal embꝛace me.

4 I charge you O ye daughters of Hieruſalem, that ye wake not vp my loue, noꝛ touche her tyl ſhe be content her ſelfe.

5 (What is ſhe this that commeth vp from the wylderneſſe, and leaneth vppon her loue?) I wake thee vp among the apple trees where thy mother conceyued thee, where thy mother I ſay bꝛought thee into the woꝛlde.

c. The Church deſyreth to be ioyned vnto Chriſte by the ſeale of the holy ghoſt.

6 c O ſet me as a ſeale vpon thine hart, and as a ſeale vpon thine arme: foꝛ loue is mightie as the death, and ielouſie as the hel.

7 Her coales are coales of fyꝛe, and a very vehement flame of the Lorde, ſo that many waters are not able to quenche loue, neyther may the ſtreames dꝛowne it: yea yf a man woulde geue all the good of his houſe foꝛ loue, he ſhoulde count it nothyng.

d. The Iewes Churche ſpeaketh this of the Churche of the Gentiles, the which wanted both teſtamentes.

8 d Our ſiſter is but young, and hath no bꝛeſtes: what ſhal we doo foꝛ our ſiſter when ſhe ſhalbe ſpoken foꝛ?

e. The apoſties preacheth to them that are called inwardly of God to ſaluation.

9 e If ſhe be a wall, we ſhal buylde a ſyluer bulwarke thereupon: yf ſhe be a dooꝛe, we ſhal faſten her with booꝛdes of Cedar trees.

10 I am a wal, and my bꝛeſtes like towꝛes, then was I as one that hath founde fauour in his ſyght.

11 Solomon hath a Vineyarde at Baalhamon, and this vineyarde deliuered he vnto the keepers, that euery one foꝛ the fruite thereof ſhoulde geue hym a thouſande peces of ſyluer.

12 My vineyarde which is mine, is in my ſyght: thou (O Solomon) muſt haue a f thouſande, and the keepers two hundꝛed, which keepe the fruite.

f. By this thouſande is ſignified the greateſt profite, which is lyfe euerlaſtyng, which is obteyned by the grace of God, and not by our merites.

13 Thou that dwelleſt in the gardens, O let me heare thy voyce, that my companions may hearken to the ſame.

14 O geat thee away my loue, and be as a Roe oꝛ a young Hart vpon the ſweete ſmelling mountaynes.

2 Heare, O heauens, and hearken, O earth: for the Lord hath spoken, I haue nourished and brought vp children, and they haue doone vnfaythfully agaynst me.

3 The Oxe hath knowen his owner, and the Asse his maisters crib: but Israel hath not knowen, my people hath geuẽ no heede.

4 A sinfull nation, a people laden with iniquitie, a seede of the wycked, corrupt children: they haue forsaken the Lorde, they haue prouoked the holy one of Israel vnto anger, they are gone backwarde.

5 Why shoulde ye be strycken any more? for ye are euer fallyng away: euery head is diseased, and euery hart heauie.

6 From the sole of the foote vnto the head, there is nothyng sounde in it, but woundes, blaynes, and putrifyng sore: they haue not been salued, neyther wrapped vp, neyther molified with the ointment.

7 Your land is wasted, your cities are burnt vp, strangers deuoure your land before your face, & it is made desolate, as it were the destruction of enimies in the tyme of vvarre.

Num.9.29. Deut.19.24

9 *Excepte the Lorde of hostes had left vs a smal remnant, we should haue been as Sodoma, and lyke vnto Gomorra.

*Iere.6.20. Amos.5.22.

10 *Heare the woorde of the Lord ye lordes of Sodoma, and hearken vnto the lawe of our God, thou people of Gomorra.

11 Why offer ye so many sacrifices vnto me, wyl the Lorde say? I am full of the burnt offerynges of Weathers, and of the fatnesse of fedde beastes, b I haue no pleasure in the blood of Bullockes, Lambes, & Goates.

b. God hateth al maner of seruice & workes, seeme they neuer so good, & holy, whē they be doone without fayth and pureneſſe of mynde.

12 When ye come to appeare before me, treadyng in my courtes, who hath required this at your handes?

13 Offer me no moe oblations, for it is but lost labour: incense is an abominable thing vnto me, I may not away with your newe Moones, your Sabbothes, and solemne meetynges, your solemne assemblies are wycked.

14 I hate your newe Moones and appoynted feastes euen from my very hart, they make me weery, I can not abyde them.

17 Learne to doo wel, applye your selues to equitie, delyuer the oppressed, helpe the fatherlesse to his ryght, let the wyddowes complaynt come before you:

18 And then goe too, sayth the Lorde, let vs talke togeather: though your synnes be as redde as scarlet, they shalbe as whyte as snowe: and though they were lyke purple, they shalbe as whyte as wool.

19 Yf ye be wyllyng and obedient, ye shal eate the good of the lande:

20 But yf ye be obstinate and rebellious, ye shalbe deuoured with the swoord: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

21 Howe happeneth it then that the faythful citie, whiche was ful of equitie, is become vnfaythful as a whoore? Ryghteousnesse dwelt in it, but nowe murderers.

22 Thy syluer is turned to drosse, and thy wyne myxt with water.

24 Therfore ſayth the Lord God of hoſtes, the myghtie one of Iſrael: Ah I muſt eaſe me of mine enimies, and auenge me of mine aduerſaries.

25 And I ſhal lay my hande vpon thee, and purely purge away thy droſſe, and take away al thy tynne:

26 And ſet thy iudges agayne as they were ſometyme, and thy ſenators as they were from the begynnyng: and then thou ſhalt be called the ryghteous citie, the faythfull citie.

27 Sion ſhalbe redeemed with equitie, and her conuertes with ryghteouſneſſe.

28 But the tranſgreſſors, and the vngodlye, and ſuche as forſake the Lord, ſhall altogether be vtterly deſtroyed.

29 For ye ſhalbe confounded for the trees whiche ye haue deſyred: and ye ſhalbe aſhamed of the gardens that ye haue choſen.

30 For ye ſhalbe as a tree whoſe leaues are fallen away, and as a garden that hath no moyſtneſſe.

3 The captayne of fiftie, and the honorable, the senatour, the cunning artificer, and the eloquent oratour.
4 And I shal geue children to be their princes, and babes shal rule ouer them.
5 And the people shal eche one of them violently oppresse another, and euery one agaynst his neyghbour: The boy shal presume agaynst the elder, and the person of lowe degree agaynst the honorable.
6 Yea one shal take a freende of his owne kinred by the bosome, and say, Thou hast clothing, thou shalt be our head, and stay this ruine with thy hande.
7 Then shal he sweare, and say, I can not helpe you: there is neyther meate nor clothyng in my house, make me no ruler of the people.
8 For Hierusalem and Juda must decay: because that both their woordes and counsels are agaynst the Lorde, to prouoke the presence of his maiestie to anger.
9 Their very countenaunce bewrayeth them, yea they declare their owne sinnes them selues as Sodome, they hide it not: Wo be to their owne soules, for they haue rewarded euyl vnto them selues.
10 Say to the righteous that it shal goe wel with them: for they shal eate the fruite of their owne studies.
11 But wo be vnto the wycked, for it shalbe euyl with hym: for he shalbe rewarded after his owne woorkes.
12 Children are extortioners of my people, and women rule ouer them: O my people, thy leaders deceyue thee, and corrupt the way of thy footesteppes.
13 The Lorde is here to commune of the matter, and standeth to iudge the people.
14 The Lorde shall enter into iudgement with the elders and princes of his people, and shal say to them, It is ye that haue burnt vp my vineyarde, the spoyle of the poore is in your houses.
15 What meane ye that ye bray as in a morter my people, and grinde the faces of the poore, sayth the Lorde God of hostes?
16 Moreouer, the Lorde hath sayd, Seeing the daughters of Sion are waxen proude, and walke with stretched foorth neckes, and wanton lookes, goyng and trippyng nicely, and tinckling with their feete:
17 Therfore shal the Lord shaue the heades of the daughters of Sion, and shal discouer their fylthinesse.
18 In that day shal the Lord take away the gorgiousnesse of the attyre about their feete, and the cawles, and the rounde tyres after the fashion of the Moone, 19 The sweete perfumes, and the bracelets, and the mufflers.
20 The bonnets, and the sloppes, and the head bandes, and the tablets, and the eare ringes, 21 And rynges, and nose iewels,
22 The costly apparel, and the vailes, and the wymples, and the crisping pinnes,
23 And the glasses, and the fine linnen, and the hoodes, and the lawnes.
24 And in steede of good smel, there shalbe stinke, and in steede of their girdle, a rent, and for wel set heare, there shalbe baldnesse, in steede of a stomacher, a sackcloth, and sunne burnyng for beautie.
25 Thy men shal perishe with the swoorde, and thy valiant souldiers in the battayle O Hierusalem.
26 And her gates shal mourne & bewayle: and she being desolate shal sit vppon the grounde.

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

1. The miserie of the stubburne. 3. A promise of Gods fauour to the residue.

1 IN that day seuen women shal take holde of one man, saying, We wyl finde our selues meate and apparel: onely let vs be called by thy name, to take our shamefull reproofe from vs.
2 a In that day shal the budde of the Lorde be beautiful and glorious, and the fruite of the earth shalbe excellent and pleasant for them that are escaped of Israel.
3 Then shal the remnant in Sion, and the remnant at Hierusalem be called holy: namely, al suche as are written among the lyuing in Hierusalem.
4 b After that the Lorde had washt away the fylthinesse of the daughters of Sion, and hath purged the blood out from Hierusalem

a. The incarnation of Christe, is the ioy of the faythful.

b. They are saued whose sinnes are remitted & washt away with the blood of Christ ſalem in the ſpirit of iugdement, and in the ſpirite of fyre.

5 And vpon al the dwellinges of the hylles of Sion, and vpon her congregations, the Lord ſhal create a cloude and ſmoke by day, and the ſhining of a flaming fyre by nyght: for al the c glory ſhalbe preſerued.

c. Chriſte wyl preſerue and defende the glory, that is, the faythful in al troubles and temptation.

6 And there ſhalbe a tabernacle for a ſhadowe in the day tyme from the heate, and a ſafe place and refuge from weather and rayne.

¶ The.v.Chapter.

1. Of Chriſte and his vineyarde, 8. vvith an execration of couetouſneſſe, 11. drunkenneſſe, 19. and contempt of Gods vvoorde.

1 NOwe wyl I ſyng my beloued freend, a ſong of my freende touchyng his vineyarde: *My beloued freend hath a vineyarde in a very fruitefull plentcous grounde.

*Iere.2. 21. Math.21.33

2 This he hedged, and geathered out the ſtones from it, & planted it with the choyſeſt vine: I n the middeſt of it buylded he a towre, alſo made a vine preſſe therin: a and he looked that it ſhoulde bring him grapes, and it brought foorth wylde grapes.

a. God looketh to receyue of his people the thankful fruites of fayth, and not the vnpleaſant woorkes of faythleſſe ingratitude.

3 Nowe, O citizen of Hieruſalem, and man of Iuda, iudge, I pray thee, betwixt me and my vineyarde.

4 What more coulde haue ben done for it, that I haue not done? Wherefore then hath it geuen wylde grapes, where I loked to haue had grapes of?

5 Wel, nowe I ſhall tel you howe I wyll doo with my vineyarde: I wyl take the hedge from it, that it may periſhe, & breake downe the wall thereof, that it may be troden vnder foote.

6 I wyl lay it waſte, it ſhal neuer be digged nor cut, but beare thornes and briers: I ſhal alſo forbyd the cloudes that they ſhal not rayne vpon it.

7 As for the vineyard of the Lord of hoſtes, it is the houſe of Iſrael: and the man of Iuda, the plant of his pleaſure: of theſe he looked for equitie, but ſee there is oppreſſion for righteouſneſſe, and loe it is a crying.

8 Wo vnto them that ioyne one houſe to an other, and bring one lande ſo nygh vnto another, that there is no more place: Wylt ye be placed alone in the middeſt of the earth?

9 Theſe thinges are in the eares of the Lorde of hoſtes: of a trueth great and fayre houſes ſhalbe without any dweller in them.

10 And ten acres of vines ſhal geue but a quart, and thirtie buſhels of ſeede ſhal geue but an Epha.

11 Wo be vnto them that riſe vp early to folowe drunkenneſſe, continuing vntil night, tyl they be ſet on fyre with wine.

12 In their feaſtes are Harpes and Lutes, Tabrettes and Pipes, and wine: but they regarde not the woorke of the Lorde, & conconſyder not the operation of his handes.

13 Therefore commeth my folke into captiuitie, becauſe they haue no vnderſtandyng: b Their glory is famiſhed with hunger, and their multitude dryed vp with thirſte.

b. Their glory, their noble and honorable perſonages.

14 Therefore gapeth hel, and openeth her mouth marueylous wyde, that their glory, multitude, and wealth, with ſuche as reioyce in her, may diſcende into it.

15 Thus hath man a fal, and is brought lowe, and the high looke of the proude ſhalbe layde downe.

16 But the Lorde of hoſtes ſhalbe exalted in iudgement, and God that is holy, is ſanctified in righteouſneſſe.

17 Then ſhal the sheepe eate as they were wont, & the ryche mens waſtes ſhal c ſtrangers deuoure.

c. Gods children, as though they were ſtrangers, miſerably dealt withal by the oppreſſion of the couetous, ſhal after a tyme repoſſeſſe and enioy the landes and goodes, which the couetous oppreſſours had be conſtrayned to forſake and leaue as waſte.

18 Wo be vnto them that drawe wickedneſſe with cordes of vanitie, and ſinne as it were with a cart rope:

19 Which vſe to ſpeake on this maner, Let hym make ſpeede, and haſten his woorke, that we may ſee it: let the counſel of the holy one of Iſrael come and drawe nygh, that we may knowe it.

20 Wo be vnto them that cal euyll good, and good euyll, whiche make darkneſſe light, and light darkneſſe, that make ſowre ſweete, and ſweete ſowre.

21 *Wo be vnto them that are wyſe in their owne ſyght, and thinke them ſelues to haue vnderſtandyng.

*Prou.3.7. Rom.12.16.

22 Wo be vnto them that are ſtrong to ſuppe out wine, and expert men to ſet vp drunkenneſſe.

23 Wo be vnto them that geue ſentence with the vngodly for rewardes, but condemne the iuſt cauſe of the ryghteous.

24 Therefore like as fyre licketh vp the ſtrawe, and as the flame conſumeth the ſtubble: euen ſo their roote ſhalbe as corruption, and their bloſſome ſhal vaniſhe away like duſt: for they haue caſt away the lawe of the Lorde of hoſtes, and diſpiſed the woorde of the holy one of Iſrael.

25 Therefore is the wrath of the Lord kindled againſt his people, and hath ſtretched foorth his hande vpon them, yea he hath ſmitten them: and the hylles dyd tremble, and their carkaſes dyd lye toorne in the open ſtreetes: and in al this the wrath of God hath not ceassed, but his hande stretched out styll.

of

26 And he shall geue a token to a people of a farre countrey, & shall hysse vnto them from the ende of the earth: and behold, they shal come haistyly with speede.

27 There shall not be one faynt nor feeble among them, no not a sluggishe or sleeppe person: there shall not one of them put of his gyrdle from his loynes, nor loose the latchet of his shoe.

28 His arrowes are sharpe, & all his bowes bent: his horse hoofes are as flynt, and his cart wheeles lyke a whirle wynde.

29 His crye is as it were of a Lion, and he roareth lyke Lions whelpes: they shall roare and hantche vp the pray, and no man shall recouer it, nor geat it from them.

30 In that day he shalbe so fierce vpon hym, as the raging of the sea: then one shall beholde the d lande, and loe, darkenesse and sorowe, and the lyght is darkened in the heauens thereof.

d The lande of Iuda shalbe ouerwhelmed with miserable affliction.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1. Esai sawe the glory of the Lorde. 9. And was sent to propheste the desolation of Iurie.

1 IN the yeere that kyng Dziah dyed, I sawe also the Lorde syttyng vppon an high and glorious seate, and his trayne fylled the temple.

2 And about hym stoode Seraphims, wherof one had syxe wynges, with twayne eache couered his face, with twayne his feete, and with twayne dyd he flee.

3 They cryed also eache one to another on this maner: *Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hostes, the whole earth is full of his glorye. *Apoc.4.8.

4 And the lyntiles of the doore cheekes moued at his crying, and the house was full of smoke.

5 Then sayde I, Woe is me, for I am lost, in as muche as I am a man of vncleane lyppes, and dwell among people that hath vncleane lyppes also: for myne eyes haue seene the kyng the Lorde of hostes.

6 Then flewe one of the Seraphims vnto me, hauyng a hot coale in his hande, whiche he had taken from the aulter with the tongues,

7 And layde it vpon my mouth, and sayde, loe, this hath touched thy a lyppes, & thyne vnryghteousnesse shalbe taken away, and thy sinne forgeuen.

a Gods sierameines are not bare figures: but with the signe and the woord, the matter signified, is exhibited to the faithfull.

8 Also I hearde the voyce of the Lorde on this maner, Whom shall I sende: and who wyll be our messenger? Then I sayd, Here am I, sende me.

9 And he sayde, Goe and tell this people: *Heare in deede, yet vnderstande not: see playnely, and yet perceiue not. *Mat.13.14 Mark.4.12. Luke.8.10. Iohn.12.40

10 Harden the hart of this people, stop their eares, and shut their eyes: lest they see with theyr eyes, heare with their eares, and vnderstande with their hartes, and conuert, and be healed.

11 Then spake I, Lorde, howe long? He answeared, Vntyl the cities be vtterly wasted without inhabitants, and the houses without men, and tyll the lande be also vtterly desolate.

12 For the Lorde shall put the men farre away, and there shalbe great wast in the middest of the lande.

13 Yet in it shall succeede ten kynges, and it shal returne, and be afterwarde wasted: but as the Teyle tree, and the Oke in the fall of their leaues, haue yet the sappe remaynyng in them, euen so, the holy seede shalbe the stay thereof.

b. Christ dwellyng by fayth in his elect, who seeme as dead in the stormy tymes of this worlde, is to them lyfe and stay that they perishe not.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

The Syrians moue battayle agaynst Hierusalem. 14. A virgin shal beare a chylde.

1 IT *happened in the tyme of Ahaz the sonne of Iotham, whiche was the sonne of Uziah kyng of Iuda, that Razin the kyng of Syria, and Pecah the sonne of Romeliah kyng of Israel, went vp towarde Hierusalem to besiege it: but Razin was not able to wynne it. *4.kin.16.5.

2 Nowe when the a house of Dauid heard woorde thereof, that Syria and Ephraim was confederate togeather, his hart quaked, yea, and the hartes also of his people, like as when the trees of the wood are mooued with the wynde.

a. Dauids house, that is, Ahaz.

3 Then sayde God vnto Esai, Goe meete Ahaz, thou, and thy sonne Sear Iasub, at the head of the ouerpoole, in the foote path by the Fullers grounde,

4 And say vnto hym, Take heede vnto thee selfe, and be styll, feare not, neyther be faynt harted: for these two tayles, that is, for these two smokyng fyrebrandes, the wrath and furiousnesse of Razin the Syrian and Romelies sonne:

5 Because that the Syrian, Ephraim, and Romelies sonne, haue wickedly conspired agaynst thee,

6 Saying, We wyll goe vp agaynst Iuda, vexe them, and bryng them vnder vs, and set a kyng there, euen the sonne of Tabel:

7 Thus sayth the Lorde God therto, It shal not so go forth, neyther so come to passe:

8 For the head citie of the Syrians, is Damascus, maſcus, but the head of Damaſcus is Razin: and after threeſcore and fyue yeeres, ſhall Ephraim be no more a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, but the head of Samaria is Romelies ſon: yf ye beleeue not, ſurely ye ſhal not be eſtabliſhed.

*The Epiſtle on the Annuntiation of Marie.

10 *Moreouer, God ſpake agayne vnto Ahaz, ſaying,

11 Require to thee ſelfe a token of the Lorde thy God, whether it be towarde the deapth beneath, or towarde the heyght aboue.

12 Then ſayde Ahaz, I wyll require none, neyther wyll I tempt the Lorde.

13 The prophete aunſweared, Then heare ye of the houſe of Dauid: Is it not yenough for you that ye be greeuous vnto men, but ye muſt greeue my God alſo?

14 Therefore the Lorde hym ſelfe ſhal geue you a token: *Beholde, a virgin ſhal conceyue and beare a ſonne, and ſhall call his name Emmanuel.

*Mat. 1. 23. Luke. 1. 31.

15 Butter and hony ſhall he eate, vntyll he knowe to refuſe the euyll, and chooſe the good.

16 For or euer the chyld come to knowledge to eſchew the euyl, and chooſe the good, the lande that thou ſo abhorreſt, ſhalbe deſolate of both her kynges.

17 The Lorde alſo ſhall ſende a tyme vppon thee, vpon thy people, and vpon thy fathers houſe, ſuche as neuer came ſince the tyme that Ephraim departed from Juda, namely, through the kyng of the Aſſyrians.

17 For at the ſame tyme ſhal the Lorde hiſſe for the flyes that are about the water of Egypt, and for the Bees in the Aſſyrians lande.

19 Theſe ſhal come, and ſhal lyght al in the deſolate valleyes, in the holes of ſtones, and vpon al thornie and buſhie places.

20 At the ſame tyme ſhal the Lord ſhaue the b heare of the head, and the feete, and the bearde cleane of, with the *raſor that he ſhal hyre beyonde the waters: namely, with the kyng of the Aſſyrians.

b: The heare of the head, and the bearde, the princes, & m[illegible] of auctoritie, the feete, the common ſort of people.

*4. Re. 19. 35

21 At the ſame tyme ſhall a man nouryſhe a young cowe, and two ſheepe.

22 Then becauſe of the abundance of milke that they geue, he ſhall eate butter: ſo that euery one whiche remayneth in the lande, ſhal eate butter and hony.

23 At the ſame tyme all vineyardes wherin there ſhalbe a thouſande vynes, wooyth a thouſande ſyluerlynges, ſhalbe turned to bryers and thornes.

24 They ſhal come into the lande with arrowes and bowes, becauſe al the lande ſhall become bryers and thornes.

25 As for all hylles they ſhalbe digged with the mattocke, there ſhall not come vpon the any feare of bryers and thornes: but the cattel ſhalbe dryuen thither, and the sheepe ſhal feede there.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

The deliuerance of the lande by Emmanuel. 14. The ſtone of offence, at vvhich many ſhal ſtumble.

1 Moreouer, the Lorde ſayde vnto me, Take thee a great roule, and wryte in it, as men doth with a pen, Make haſty ſpeede to rob, and haſt to the ſpoyle.

2 And I called vnto me faythfull witneſſes to recorde, Uriah the prieſt, and Zachariah the ſonne of Barachiah.

3 After that, went I vnto the prophetiſſe, and ſhe conceiued, and bare a ſonne: Then ſayde the Lorde to me, Geue hym his name, A ſpeedy robber, An haſty ſpoyler.

4 For why? or euer the chylde ſhall haue knowledge to crye my father and mother, ſhal the rycheſſe of Damaſcus, & the ſpoyle of Samaria be taken away before the king of the Aſſyrians.

5 The Lord ſpake alſo vnto me agayne, ſaying,

6 For ſo muche as this people refuſeth the ſtyl runnyng water of Silo, & put their delight in Razin and Romelies ſonne:

7 Beholde, the Lorde ſhall bryng myghtie and great flooddes of water vppon them, namely, the kyng of the Aſſyrians, with al his power, which ſhal climbe vp vpon al his flooddes, and runne ouer all his banckes,

8 And ſhall breake in vppon Juda, he ſhall flowe and paſſe through, tyll he come vp to the necke thereof: he ſhall fyll alſo the wyldernesſe of thy lande with his wynges, O Emmanuel.

9 Breake downe, O ye people, a and ye ſhalbe broken downe, hearken to, all ye of farre countreyes, muſter you, and you ſhalbe broken downe, prepare you, and you ſhalbe torne in peeces.

a: Mans policie and deuice without God, preuayleth nought.

10 Take your counſayle togeather, yet ſhal your counſayle come to nought: determyne the matter, yet ſhall it not proſper: for God is with vs.

11 For the Lord ſpake thus to me in a mightie propheſie, b and warned me that I ſhould not walke in the way of this people, ſaying,

b. Affiance is to be put in God, and not in mans policie or helpe.

12 Ye ſhal not ſpeake vvoordes of Conſpiracie, in al thinges when this people ſhall ſay, Conſpiracie: feare them not, neyther be afrayde of them.

13 But ſanctifie the Lorde of hoſtes, let hym be be your feare and dread.

14 For he shalbe the holy place to flee to, * and a stone to stumble at, the rocke to fall vpon, a snare and net to both the houses of Israel, and the inhabiters of Hierusalem.

15 And many among them shall stumble and fall, and be broken, yea they shalbe snared and taken.

16 c Binde vp the testimonie, seale the lawe in my disciples.

17 And I wyll wayte vppon the Lorde that hydeth his face from the house of Iacob, and I wyl looke for him.

18 * But loe, as for me & the children which the Lorde hath geuen me, we are to be a token and a woonder in Israel from the lord of hostes, whiche dwelleth vpon the hill of Sion.

19 And yf they say vnto you, Aske counsell at the Soothsayers, Witches, Charmers, and Coniurers: then make them this answere, Is there a people any where that asketh not counsel at his God? shoulde men runne vnto the dead for the liuing?

20 Geat thee to the d lawe, the testimonie: and yf they speake not after this woorde, there is no light in them.

21 And they shal wander through this land hardly bestead and hungry, and when they suffer hunger, they wyll be out of pacience, and curse their king and their God, and shall looke vpward and downeward to the earth.

22 And behold, there is trouble and darkenesse, dimnesse is round about him, and he shalbe driuen into darknesse.

23 Neuertheless, the darkenesse shall not be such as was in her veration, when at the fyrst he lightly afflicted the lande of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthali, and afterward did more greeuously afflict her by the way of the sea beyonde Iordane in Galilee of the heathen.

¶ The.ix.Chapter.

He prophesieth of Christes nativitie and dominion.

1 THE people that walked in darknesse haue seene a great light: As for them that dwell in the land of the shaddowe of death, vpon them hath the light shined.

2 Thou hast multiplied the people, and not encreased their ioy: they reioyce before thee, euen as men make merry in harvest, and they be ioyfull, as men that doo diuide the spoyle after the victory.

3 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, the staffe of his shoulder, and the rodde of his oppressour, * as in the day of Madian. *Iud.7.22.

4 And truely euery battayle that the warrier maketh, is done with confused noyse, and defyling their garmentes with blood, but this battayle shalbe with burning and consuming of fyre.

5 For vnto vs a a childe is borne, and vnto vs a * sonne is geuen, vpon his shoulder doeth the rule lye, *and he is called with his owne name, Woonderfull, The geuer of counsell, The mighty God, The euerlastyng father, The prince of peace.

6 He shal make no ende to encrease the rule and peace, & shall syt vpon the seate of Dauid, and in his kingdome, to order the same, and to stablishe it with equitie and ryghteousnesse from hencefoorth for euermore: This shall the zeale of the Lorde of hostes bring to passe.

7 The Lorde sent a woord into Iacob, the same is come into Israel.

8 And al the people of Ephraim shal know, and they that dwell in Samaria that say with pride and high stomackes on this maner, 9 The tyle woorke is fallen downe, but we wyll builde it vp with squared stones: the Mulberie tymber is broken, but we wyll set it vp agayne with Cedar.

10 But the Lorde shall strengthen the enimies of Razin, and ioyne his aduersaries togeather agaynst him.

11 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behinde, & shall deuoure Israel with open mouth: After all this is not the wrath of the Lorde ceassed, but yet his hand is stretched out still.

12 For the people turneth not vnto him that chastiseth them, neyther doo they seeke the Lorde of hostes.

13 Therefore hath the Lorde rooted out of Israel both head and tayle, bough, and reede in one day.

14 By the head, is vnderstande the Senatour and honourable man, and by the tayle, the prophete that preached lyes.

15 For the guides of this people are deceiuers, and those that be gouerned, are vtterly lost.

16 Therefore shall the Lorde haue no pleasure in their young men, neyther haue pitie of their fatherlesse and wyddowes: for they are altogeather hypocrites and wicked, and all their mouthes speake folly: After all this, is not the Lordes wrath ceassed, but yet his hand is stretched out styll.

17 For vngodlynesse burneth as a fyre, and it a. Christe his kingdome and his names. *Iohn.3.16. *Or, and his name shalbe called. Or, & (the holy ghost) shall call his name it ſhal deuoure bryers and thornes, and ſhal burne as in the thicket of wood, and the vvicked aduaunce them ſelues, as the ſmoke is carried vp.

18 Through the wrath of the Lord of hoſtes is the land full of darkneſſe, and the people be conſumed as it were with fyre: no man doeth ſpare his brother.

19 But he robbeth on the right hand, and doeth famiſhe, he eateth on the left hand, and he ſhall not haue ynough: euery man ſhall eate the fleſhe of his owne arme.

20 Manaſſes ſhall eate Ephraim, and Ephraim Manaſſes, and they both togeather ſhall eate Iuda: After all this is not the Lordes wrath ceaſſed, but yet his hande is ſtretched out ſtyl.

¶ The .x. Chapter.

1. He threatneth the oppreſſours of the poore. 12. And propheſieth againſt Sennacherib.

1 WOE be vnto them that make vnrighteous lawes, and that cauſeth their actuaries to write greeuouſneſſe,

2 Wherethrough the poore are put from their ryght, and my ſeely people robbed of iudgement, that wyddowes may be theyr pray, and that they may rob the fatherleſſe.

3 What wyl ye doo in the time of viſitation, and when deſtructiō ſhal come from farre? to whom wil ye runne for helpe? and where wyl ye leaue your glory?

4 That when I withdrawe my hand, ye come not among the priſoners, nor lye among the dead? After all this doeth not the wrath of the Lorde ceaſſe, but yet is his hand ſtretched out ſtil.

5 O Aſſur which art the ſtaffe of my wrath, in whoſe hand is the rod of myne indignation,

6 I wyl ſend him among theſe hypocritiſhe people: among the people that haue deſerued my diſkauour wyll I ſende him: that he vtterly robbe them, ſpoyle them, and treade them downe like the myre in the ſtreete.

7 Howbeit, his meanyng is not ſo, neyther thinketh his hart on this faſhion: but he imagineth howe he may roote out and deſtroy much people.

8 For he ſayth, Are not my princes all kinges?

9 Is not Chalno as eaſie to winne, as Charchamis? Is it harder to conquer Hamath then Arphad? or is it lighter to ouercome Damaſcus, then Samaria?

10 As vvho ſay, I were able to winne the kingdomes of the idolaters and their gods, but not Hieruſalem and Samaria.

11 Shal I not doo vnto Hieruſalem and her images, as I dyd vnto Samaria and her idolles?

12 Wherefore it ſhall come to paſſe, that as ſoone as the Lorde hath perfourmed his whole woorke * vpon the hill of Sion and Hieruſalem, then wyll I viſite the fruite of the ſtout hart of the king of Syria, with his proud lookes. *4. Reg. 19. 32.

13 For he ſtandeth thus in his owne conceyte. This doo I through my wyſedome: for I am wyſe, I am he that remoueth the landes of the people, I rob their treaſure, and haue pulled downe the inhabitantes like a valiant man.

14 My hand hath found out the ſtrength of the people as it were a neſt: and like as egges that were layde here and there are geathered togeather, ſo doo I geather all countreys, and there was none ſo bolde as to mooue the wing, that dare open his mouth, or once whiſper.

15 Shall the axe boaſt it ſelfe againſt hym that heweth therewith? or ſhall the ſawe make any bragging againſt him that ruleth it? That were euen like as yf the rod dyd exalt it ſelfe againſt him that beareth it, or as though the ſtaffe ſhould magnifye it ſelf, as vvho ſay, it were no wood.

16 Therefore ſhall the Lorde the GOD of hoſtes ſend among his fatlinges leanneſſe, & burne vp his glory as it were with a fire.

17 And the light of Iſrael ſhalbe that fyre, and his holy one ſhalbe the flambe: and it ſhall kindle and burne vp as thornes and bryers in one day.

18 Yea all the glory of his woods & feeldes ſhalbe conſumed with body and ſoule, and they ſhalbe as an hoſt of men, whoſe ſtanderde bearer fayleth.

19 The trees alſo of his wood whiche remayne, ſhalbe of ſuche a number, that a childe may tell them.

20 After that day, ſhall the remnant of Iſrael, & ſuche as are eſcaped out of the houſe of Iacob, ſeeke no more comfort at him that ſmote them: but vnfaignedly ſhall they truſt vnto the Lorde, the holy one of Iſrael.

21 * The remnant, euen the poſteritie of Iacob, ſhall conuert vnto God the mighty one. *Rom. 9. 27.

22 For though thy people, O Iſrael, be as the ſand of the ſea, yet ſhall the remnant of them conuert vnto hym: the decreed conſumption ouerflowerth with righteouſneſſe.

mined in the myddest of the whole worlde.
24 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God of hostes, Thou my people that dwellest in Sion, be not afrayd for the king of the Assyrians, he shall smyte thee with a rodde, and shall lyft vp his staffe agaynst thee, as the Egyptians dyd sometyme.
25 But soone after shall my wrath and indignation be fulfylled in the destruction of them:
26 Moreouer, the Lorde of hostes shal styrre vp a scourge for hym, * lyke as was the slaughter of Madian vpon the rocke Oreb, and as the destruction of the Egyptians, when he lyfted vp his rod vpon the sea. *Iud.7.25.
27 Then shal his burden be taken from thy shoulders, and his yoke from thy necke, yea the same yoke shalbe destroyed because of the vnction.
28 He shall come to Aiath, and goe through tharde Migron, at Michmas shall he lay vp his harnesse.
29 They shall goe ouer the foorde: Geba shalbe their restyng place, Rhama shalbe afrayd, Gibea Saul shal flee away.
30 Lyft vp thy voyce, O daughter Gallim, geue eare to Laisa, thou poore Anathoth.
31 Madmena shal tremble for feare: but the citizens of Gabim are manly.
32 Yet shall he remayne at Nob that day: after that, shall he lyft vp his hande agaynst the mount of the daughter Sion, the hyll of Hierusalem.
33 But see, the Lorde GOD of hostes shall breake downe the bough with feare, he shall hewe downe the proude, and fell the hygh minded.
34 The thickettes also of the wood shal be roote out with iron, and Libanus shal haue a fall through the myghtie.

¶ The xi. Chapter.

i. He propheseth of the nativitie of Christe, and of his people. 6. Of the remnant of Israel. 10. And of the fayth of the Heathen and Gentiles.

1 AND there shal come a * spring foorth of the a stemme of "Iesse, and a young shoote shall growe out of his roote. *Act.13.23. Christ shal. a borne of the stocke of Dauid. "Esai.
2 The spirite of the Lorde shall rest vpon hym, the spirite of wisdome and vnderstandyng, the spirite of counsayle and strength, the spirite of knowledge, and of the feare of the Lorde,
3 And shal make hym of deepe iudgement in the feare of God: for he shall not geue sentence after the thyng that shalbe brought before his eyes, neyther reprooue after the hearyng of his eares:
4 But with righteousnesse shal he iudge the poore, and with equitie shall he reprooue the symple of the worlde, * and he shall smyte the worlde with the rodde of his b mouth, and with the breath of his mouth shall he slay the vngodly. *2.Thes.2.8 b. The armour of Christ and of his kyngdome.
5 Ryghteousnesse shalbe the gyrdle of his loynes, and faythfulnesse the gyrdyng vp of his reynes.
6 The Woolfe shall dwel with the Lambe, and the Leoparde shall lye downe by the Goate: Bullockes, Lions, and cattayle, shal keepe companie togeather, so that a litle chylde shall leade them.
7 The Cowe and the Beare shall feede togeather, and their young ones shall lye togeather: the Lion shall eate strawe lyke the Oxe or the Cowe.
8 The chylde whyle he sucketh, shall haue a desyre to the Serpentes nest, and when he is weaned, he shall put his hande into the Cockatrice denne.
9 No man shal do euyl vnto another, no man shall destroy another in all the hyl of my holynesse: for the earth shalbe ful of the knowledge of the Lorde, euen as the sea floweth ouer with water.
10 * And in that day shall the Gentiles enquire after the roote of "Iesse, which shalbe set vp for a token vnto the people, and his rest shalbe glorious. *Rom.15.12 "or, Isai.
11 At the same tyme shall the Lorde take in hande agayne to recouer the remnant of his people, whiche shalbe left alyue, from the Assyrians, Egyptians, Arabias, Moryans, Elamites, Chaldees, Antiochians, and fro the Ilandes of the sea.
12 And he shall set vp a token among the Gentiles, and geather together the dispearsed of Israel, yea, c the outcastes of Iuda, from the foure corners of the worlde.
13 The hatred of Ephraim also, and enmies of Iuda, shalbe cleane rooted out: Ephraim shal beare none euyll wyll to Iuda, and Iuda shal not vexe Ephraim.
14 But they both togeather shall flee vppon the shoulders of the Philistines towarde the West, and spoyle them togeather that dwell towarde the East: the Idumites and the Moabites shall come vnder theyr handes, and the Amonites shalbe obedient vnto them.
15 The Lorde also shall cleaue the tongues c of the Egyptians sea, and with his mighty wynde shall he lyft vp his hand ouer Nilus, and shall smyte his seuen streames, and make men goe ouer drye shod. c. The tongue, that is, the arme of the sea that hyndereth the passage.

The ſongue of the Church for the obteynyng of the victorie, and ouercommyng of the vvorlde.

1 AND in that day thou ſhalt ſay, O Lord, I wyll prayſe thee, for thou waſt diſpleased at me: but refrayne thou from thy wrath, and comfort me.

2 Beholde, God is my ſaluation, in whom I wyll truſt, and not be afrayde: for *the Lorde God is my ſtrength and my ſongue, he alſo is become my ſaluation.

*Exod.15.2. Pſal.117.14

3 Therefore with ioy ſhall ye drawe water out of the welles of ſaluation:

4 And then ſhall ye ſay,* Geue thankes vnto the Lord, call vpon his name, declare his workes among the people, keepe them in remembrance, for his name is excellent.

*1.Chro.15.16. Pſal.104.1.

5 Sing prayſes vnto the Lorde, for he hath done great thynges, as it is knowen in all the worlde.

6 Crye out, and ſyng, thou that dwelleſt in Sion: for great is the holy one of Iſrael in the middeſt of thee.

¶ The.xiii.Chapter.

He propheſieth the deſtruction of Babylon, the captiuitie and the commyng agayne of the people.

a. Burden, that is, the propheſie

1 THis is the a burde of Babylon, which Eſai the ſonne of Amos dyd ſee.

2 Lyft vp the banner vppon the hygh hyl, call vnto them, wagge your hande, that they may goe into the gates of the princes.

3 I haue commaunded my ſanctified, I haue alſo called my valiant ones, ioying in my honour to execute my wrath.

4 There is a noyſe of a multitude in the mountaynes, lyke as of a great people, a ruſhing as though the kyngdomes of the nations came togeather: the Lorde of hoſtes muſtereth his armie to battayle.

5 They come out of a farre countrey from the ende of the heauen, euen the Lorde hym ſelfe, with the miniſters of his wrath, to deſtroy the whole lande.

6 Mourne ye, for the day of the Lorde is at hande, and ſhall come as a deſtroyer from the almyghtie.

7 Therefore ſhall all handes be letten downe, and all mens hartes ſhall melte away,

8 They ſhal ſtande in feare, carefulneſſe and ſorowe ſhal come vpon them, and they ſhall haue payne as a woman that trauayleth with childe: one ſhalbe abaſhed of another, and theyr faces ſhall burne lyke the flambe of fyre.

9 Beholde, the day of the Lorde ſhall come terribly, and full of indignation, furie, and wrath, to make the lande waſt, and to roote out the ſinners thereof.

10 For the ſtarres and planettes of heauen ſhal not geue her lyght, * the Sunne ſhalbe darkened in the riſing, and the Moone ſhall not ſhyne with her lyght.

*Ezech.32. Ioel.3.15. Mat.24. Mar.13. Luke.21.

11 And I wyll viſite the wickedneſſe of the worlde, and the ſinnes of the vngodly. The hygh ſtomackes of the proude wyll I take away, and wyll lay downe the boaſtyng of the tyrant.

12 I wyl make a man dearer then fine gold, and a man to be more worthy then a golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I wyll ſhake the heauens, and the earth ſhall remooue out of her place, in the wrath of the Lorde of hoſtes, and in the day of his fearefull indignation.

14 And Babylon ſhalbe as an hunted or chaſed Doe, and as a ſheepe that no man taketh vp: euery man ſhall turne to his owne people, and flee eache one to his owne lande.

15 Who ſo is found, ſhalbe ſhot through: and who ſo taketh their part, ſhalbe deſtroyed with the ſworde.

16 *Theyr chyldren ſhalbe ſlayne before their eyes, their houſe ſpoyled, and theyr wyues rauyſhed.

*Pſal.136.

17 For loe, I ſhall bryng vp the Medes againſt them, which ſhal not regarde ſyluer, nor be deſyrous of golde.

18 With bowes ſhal they deſtroy the young men, and haue no pitie on women with chylde, and their faces ſhall not ſpare the chyldren.

19 And Babylon, that glory of kyngdomes, and beautie of the Chaldees honour, ſhalbe deſtroyed, * euen as GOD deſtroyed Sodome and Gomor.

*Gen.19.25. Ierr.50.40.

20 It ſhall not endure for euer, neyther ſhal there be any more dwellyng there, from generation to generation: the Arabians ſhall pitche no tentes there, neyther ſhal the ſhepheardes make theyr foldes there anye more.

21 But fearefull wilde beaſtes ſhall lye there, and the houſes ſhalbe full of great Dwles, Eſtriches ſhall dwell there, and Apes ſhall daunce there.

22 Wylde Cattes ſhall crye in the palaces, and Dragons ſhalbe in the pleaſant houſes: and as for Babylons tyme, it is at hande, and her dayes ſhal not be prolonged.

¶ The

¶ The.xiiii.Chapter.

1. The returne of the people from captivitie, the prosperitie of the people of GOD, and affliction of theyr enimies. 13. The pride of Babylon.

1 BVT the Lorde wyll be mercifull vnto Jacob, & wyll yet choose Israel againe, and set them in their owne lande, strangers shall cleaue and geat them to the house of Jacob.

2 The people shall take them, and carry them home to their owne lande: and the house of Israel shal possesse them in the land of the Lorde, that they may be seruants and handmaydens: and they shal take those prisoners, whose captiues they had been before, and rule those that had oppressed them.

3 When the Lorde nowe shall bring thee to rest from thy trauayle, feare, and hard bondage that thou wast laden with all:

4 Then shalt thou vse this mockage vppon the king of Babylon, and say, How happeneth it that the oppressour leaueth of? Is the golden tribute come to an end?

5 The Lorde hath broken the scepter of the vngodly, and the rod of the lordly.

6 Which rod in anger smiteth ỹ people with continuall strokes, and in wrath raigneth ouer the nations persecuted without compassion.

7 And therefore the whole worlde is nowe at rest and quietnesse, and men syng for ioy.

8 Yea euen the Fyrre trees, and Cedars of Libanus, reioyce at thy fall, saying, Nowe that thou art layde downe, there come no moe vp to hewe downe vs.

9 Hell also beneath trembleth to meete thee at thy comming, and for thy sake hath rayled his dead, all mighty men, and princes of the earth, all kinges of the earth stand vp from their seates,

10 That they may all answeare and speake vnto thee, Art thou become weake also as we? Art thou become like vnto vs?

11 Thy pompe and thy pride is layd downe into the pit, and so is the melody of thy instruments. Woormes be layde vnder thee, and woormes be thy couering.

12 Howe art thou fallen from heauen, O Lucifer, thou fayre morning childe? Howe hast thou gotten a fall, euen to the ground, which dyddest weaken the nations?

13 For thou saydest in thyne hart, I wyll climbe vp into heauen, and exalt my throne aboue beside the starres of God, I wyll syt also vppon the mount of the congregation toward the North.

14 I wyl climbe vp aboue the cloudes, and wyll be like the highest of all.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought downe to the deepe of hell, to the sides of the lake.

16 They that see thee, shall narowly looke vpon thee, and thinke in them selues, saying, Is this the man that brought all landes in feare, and made the kingdomes afrayde?

17 Is this he that made the worlde in a maner waste, and layde the cities to the grounde, which let not his prisoners goe out?

18 The kinges of the nations lye euery one in his owne house with woorship.

19 And thou art cast out of thy graue like a fylthy abominable branche, like as dead mens rayment that are shotte through with the swoorde, and goe downe to the stones of the deepe, as a dead coarse that is troden vnder feete.

20 Thou art not buried with them, euen because that thou hast wasted thy land, and destroyed thy people: the generation of the wicked shalbe out of memorie for euer.

21 Let there a way be sought to destroy their children that be in their fathers wickednesse, that they come not vp agayne to possesse the lande, and fyll the worlde full of enimies.

22 I wyll stand vp agaynst them, sayth the Lorde of hostes, and roote out the name and remnant, sonne, and sonnes sonne, of Babylon, sayth the Lorde.

23 I wyll geue it to the Otters, and wyll make water puddels of it, & I wyll sweepe them out with the besome of destruction, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

24 The Lord of hostes hath swoorne an oth, saying, It shall come to passe as I haue determined, and shalbe fulfylled as I haue deuised.

25 So that the Assyrian shal I destroy in my land, and vppon my mountaynes wyll I treade him vnder foote, wherethrough his yoke shal come from them, and his burden shalbe taken from their shoulder.

26 This deuice hath God taken thoorowe the whole worlde, and this his hande is stretched out ouer all people.

27 For yf the Lorde of hostes determine a thyng, who is able to disanull it? And yf he stretche foorth his hande, who may turne it agayne?

28 * The same yeere that kyng Ahaz dyed, was this burden: *2. Chr. 28. 27.

29 Reioyce not thou whole Palestina, because the rodde of him that beateth thee is broken: for out of the serpentes roote there shall come an Adder, and his fruite shalbe a fyerie fleeing woorme.

30 But the fyrst borne of the poore shall be fed, and the simple shal dwel in safetie: thy roote also will I destroy with hunger, & it shall ſhal ſlay the remnant.

31 Mourne thou port, weepe thou citie, for, O whole lande of Paleſtina, thou art laide waſte: for there ſhall come from the North a ſmoke, that not one alone may abide at home in his times.

32 What ſhal one then anſwere the meſſengers of the Gentiles? For the Lorde hath ſtabliſhed Sion, and the poore of his people that be therein, ſhall put their truſt in it.

A prophecie againſt Moab.

1 THIS is the burden vpon Moab: Ar of Moab was deſtroyed and ouerthrowen in the nyght ſeaſon, Kir alſo in Moab was deſtroyed and periſhed in the nyght.

2 Moab went vp to the idolles houſe, euen to Dibon to the high places to weepe: for Neba and Moab ſhall mourne for Medba. All their heades were balde, and all their beardes ſhauen.

*Iere.48.39 Ezech.7.18. 3 *In her ſtreetes are they gyrded about with ſackcloth: in al the toppes of her houſes and ſtreetes ſhalbe nothing but mournyng and weeping.

4 Helbon and Eleale ſhall crye, that their voyce ſhalbe heard vnto Iahaz: and therefore the armed ſouldiers alſo of Moab ſhall bleare out and cry for very ſorowe of their myndes.

5 Woe ſhal my hart be for Moabs ſake, they ſhal flee vnto the citie of Zoar, which is like a fayre young bullocke of three yeeres olde, for they ſhall all goe vp to Luith weeping: euen ſo by the way toward Horonaim they ſhall make lamentation for their vtter deſtruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim ſhalbe dryed vp, by reaſon whereof the graſſe is withered, the hearbes deſtroyed, and the greene thinges gone.

7 Therefore the goodes that remayneth in Moab, and the richeſſe thereof, they ſhall carrie to the brooke of wyllowes.

8 For the crye went ouer the whole land of Moab, vnto Eglaim, and vnto Beer-Elim was there nothing but mournyng.

9 Becauſe the waters of Dimon were full of blood, I wyll adde more vpon Dimon: and Lions vpon the remnant of the lande, and on them that are eſcaped from Moab.

¶ The xvi.Chapter.
The deſtruction of Moab.

1 SEnde the Lorde of the worlde a Lambe from the rocke that lyeth toward the deſart, vnto the hill of the daughter Sion.

2 For as for the daughters of Moab, they ſhalbe as a a trembling birde that is put out of her neſt: for they ſhal carry them vnto Aaron.

6 We haue heard of the pride of Moab, he is very proude, preſumptuous, arrogant, and full of indignation, and vayne are his lyes.

7 *Therefore ſhall Moab make lamentation, becauſe of the Moabites that ſhalbe ſlayne, yea they ſhal wayle togeather: becauſe of the fundations of the citie that is made of bricke ſhall ye complaine, euen ye lame people that are left onely behinde. *Ier.48.

¶ The .xvii. Chapter.

A prophecie agaynst Damascus.

1 This is the burden vpon Damascus: beholde, Damascus is taken awaye to be no more a citie, but shalbe an heape of broken stones.

2 The waste cities of Aroer shalbe foldes for cattel, whiche shal lye there, and there shalbe none to fray them away.

3 Ephraim also shall no more be strong, and Damascus shal no longer be a kyngdome; and the remnant of Syria shalbe as the glorie of the chyldren of Israel, sayth the Lord of hostes.

4 And in that day it shall come to passe, that the glorie of Jacob shalbe made very thyn, and the fatnesse of his flesshe shall waxe leane.

5 And he shalbe as one that gathereth vp corne in harueste, euen lyke hym whose arme reapeth the eares of corne: he shalbe also lyke hym that gathereth eares of corne in the valley of Rephaim.

6 Some gatheryng in deede shal there be left in it, euen as in the shaking of an Oliue tree there remayne two or three berries in the top of the vppermost bough, and foure or fyue in the brode fruiteful branches therof, sayth the Lorde God of Israel.

7 Then shall man turne agayne to his maker, and his eyes shal haue respect to the holy one of Israel.

8 As for the aulters, whiche are his owne handy woorke, he shall not regarde them, and the thyng that his fyngers hath made, as groues and images, those shal he not cast his eyes vnto.

9 In that day shall their strong cities be as the forsaken shrubbes and branches, whiche they left because of the chyldren of Israel, and the lande shalbe desolate.

10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy saluation, and hast not been myndefull of thy strong rocke: therefore shalt thou set pleasant plants, and shalt graffe the branch of another mans vine.

11 In that day shalt thou make thy plant to growe, and early in the mornyng shalt thou make thy seede to florysshe: the harueste shalbe gone in the day of inheritance, and there shalbe sorowe without hope of comfort.

12 Woe shalbe to the multitude of muche people, which shal make a sound lyke to the noyse of the sea, and the violence of the nations, whiche shal rage lyke the rushyng in of many waters.

13 Euen lyke many waters shall the people rage, God shal rebuke hym, and he shall flee farre of, he shalbe chased away lyke as dyse strawe vppon the mountaynes before the winde, and lyke a thyng that turneth before the storme.

14 At euen beholde there is trouble, and or euer it be morning, loe it is gone: this is the portion of them that oppresse vs, and the lot of them that robbe vs.

¶ The .xviii. Chapter.

1. An exhortation to the Ethiopians, and the countreyes nygh adioynyng to them. 7. The vocation of the Gentiles.

1 O That lande that trusteth vnder the shadowe of wynges, that lande which is beyonde the waters of Ethiopia,

2 Sendyng messengers by the sea, euen in vesselles of reedes ouer the water: Get you hence ye speedy messengers, to a nation that is scattered abrode, and robbed of that they had, a fearful people from their begynnyng hytherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whose lande the flooddes haue spoyled.

3 Al the inhabiters of the worlde, & indwellers of the earth, looke vp when he setteth vp a token in the mountaines, and hearken when he bloweth with the Trumpe.

4 For so the Lorde sayde vnto me, as for me, I wyl take my rest, and loke vpon the matter in my habitations, lyke a fayre heate after the rayne, and lyke a cloude of deawe in the heate of harueste.

5 For afore the harueste, when the branche is growen, there shall come rype fruite of the floure: and he shal cut downe the encrease with sythes, and the branches shal he take away with hookes.

6 Thus shall they be left together vnto the foules of the mountaines, and to the beastes of the earth: for in Sommer the byrdes shal remaine vpon it, and euery beast of the land shalbe vpon it in Wynter.

7 In that tyme shall there a present be brought vnto the Lorde of hostes, euen a people that is scattered abrode and robbed of that they had, that same people whiche haue been fearful from their begynnyng hitherto, a nation troden downe by litle and litle, whose land the flooddes haue spoyled, to the place of the name of ỹ Lord of hostes, euen to the mount Sion.

¶ The.xix.Chapter.

1. He propheſieth againſt Egypt, 18. and the vocation of the Gentiles to Chriſte.

1 THE burden of Egypt. Beholde, the Lorde rydeth vpon a ſwyft cloude, and ſhall come into Egypt, and the idols of Egypt ſhal tremble at the preſence of hym, and the hart of Egypt ſhall quake in the myddeſt of her.

2 And I wyl ſet the Egyptians one againſt another, ſo that one brother ſhall fyght againſt another, and one neyghbour againſt another, citie againſt citie, and realme againſt realme.

3 The mynde alſo of Egypt ſhalbe cleane without counſel within it ſelfe, and the deuice that they take wyl I deſtroy: and they ſhal ſeeke counſel at idols, and at ſorcerers, at wourkers with ſpirites, and at ſoothſayers.

4 And the Egyptians wyl I geue ouer into the hande of a marueylous cruell lorde, and a myghtie kyng ſhal haue dominion ouer them, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes.

5 The waters of the ſea ſhall fayle, and the ryuers ſhal decreaſe, and be dryed vp.

6 The waters ſhalbe drawen out, the ryuers of Egypt ſhalbe emptied and dried vp, the reedes and flagges ſhalbe cut downe.

7 The graſſe in the ryuer, and by the ryuers banke, & al that groweth by the ryuer, ſhall wyther away, and be brought to nought.

8 The Fiſhers alſo ſhal mourne, and al they that caſt angle into the water ſhal make lamentation, and they that lay forth their net beſyde the waters, ſhalbe rooted out.

9 Moreouer, they that wourke in flaxe, and make fyne wourkes, ſhalbe confounded, and ſo ſhal they that weaue open wourkes.

10 For their open wourkes ſhall euen be deſtroyed, and all they that make pondes and ſlues for fyſhe, ſhal come to nought.

11 But you foolyſhe princes of Zoan, ye wyſe counſellers of Pharao, whoſe wit is turned to foolyſhneſſe, howe ſay ye vnto Pharao, I am come of wyſe men, and of auncient kynges?

12 Where are thy wyſe men? Let them tell thee yf they can, what the Lorde of hoſtes hath deuiſed vpon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fooles, the princes of Noph are deceiued, they haue deceyued Egypt, euen they that were taken for the cheefe ſtay therof.

14 In the myddeſt of it hath the Lord powred the ſpirit of wickedneſſe: and they haue deceyued Egypt in euery wourke therof, euen as a drunken man ſtaggereth in his vomite.

15 Neyther ſhall the a head or tayle, the branche or reede, be able to doo any wourke in Egypt.

16 In that day ſhall Egypt be lyke vnto women: it ſhalbe afrayd, and ſtand in feare at the motion of the hande of the Lorde of hoſtes, whiche he ſhaketh ouer it.

17 And Egypt ſhalbe afrayde of the land of Juda: ſo that euery one that maketh mention of it ſhalbe afrayde thereat, becauſe of the counſel of the Lorde of hoſtes, which he deuiſed for it.

18 In that day ſhal fyue cities in the land of Egypt ſpeake the language of Chanaan, and ſweare by the Lorde of hoſtes: the citie of deſolation ſhalbe called one of them.

19 In that day ſhall the aulter of the Lorde be in the myddeſt of the land of Egypt, and this tytle beſyde it, Vnto the Lorde.

20 And it ſhalbe a token and a witneſſe vnto the Lorde of hoſtes in the land of Egypt: for they ſhal crye vnto the Lorde, becauſe of ſuch as trouble them, and he ſhal ſend them a Sauiour, and a great man to delyuer them.

21 And the Lorde ſhalbe knowen in Egypt, and the Egyptians ſhal knowe the Lorde in that day, and doo ſacrifice and oblation, yea, they ſhal vowe a vowe vnto the Lorde, and perfourme it.

22 The Lorde alſo ſhall ſmyte Egypt ſore, and heale them againe: and they ſhalbe conuerted vnto the Lorde, and he ſhalbe entreated of them, and ſhal heale them.

23 In that day ſhal there be a common way out of Egypt into Aſſyria, and Aſſyria ſhal come into Egypt, and Egypt into Aſſyria: ſo that the Egyptians and the Aſſyrians ſhal ſerue the Lorde together.

24 In that day ſhall the nation of Iſrael be the thyrde with Egypt and Aſſyria: and they ſhalbe bleſſed in the myddeſt of the lande, 25 Whiche lande the Lorde of hoſtes hath bleſſed, ſaying, Bleſſed is my people of Egypt, Aſſur alſo is the wourke of my hands, and Iſrael is myne inheritance.

a. By the head and branch are meant ỹ honorable & cheefeſt of the landby tayle & reede, the multitude and lower ſort of people.

¶ The.xx.Chapter.

Againſt Egypt and Ethiopia.

1 IN the yere that Tharthan came vnto Aſdod, when Sargon the kyng of Aſſyria had ſent hym, and had fought againſt Aſdod, and taken it:

2 At the ſame tyme ſpake the Lord by the hande of Eſai the ſonne of Amos, ſaying, Go & take of the ſackcloth from thy loynes, and put of thy ſhooe from thy foote. And he dyd ſo, walkyng naked and barefoote.

3 And

3 And the Lorde sayde, Like as my seruant Esai hath walked naked and barefoote, for a signe and woonder three yeeres vpon Egypt and Ethiopia:

4 Euen so shal the kyng of Assyria take away out of Egypt and Ethiopia chyldren and olde men naked and barefoote, with theyr loynes vncouered, to the great shame of Egypt.

5 They shalbe brought in feare also, and be ashamed of Ethiopia theyr hope, and of Egypt wherein they are woont to glory.

6 And they that dwel in the same Ile shall say in that day, Beholde, suche is our hope, whyther shal we flee for helpe, that we may be deliuered from the kyng of Assyria: and howe shal we escape?

¶ The.xxi. Chapter.

Against Babylon, Idumea, and Arabia.

a The waste sea is Babylon or Caldee.

1 THe burden of the a waste sea. Euen as the stormie weather passeth through at the noone day from the wyldernesse, so shal it come from the terrible lande.

2 A greeuous vision was shewed vnto me: let one deceytful offendour come against another, and one destroyer against another: vp Elam, lay siege thou of Midia, al theyr gronyng haue I layde downe.

3 Therefore are my loynes fylled with sorowe, heauinesse hath taken hold vpon me, as the panges of a woman that is trauayling: it made me stoupe when I heard it, and it vexed me when I sawe it.

4 My hart panted, fearefulnesse came vpon me: the night of my voluptuousnesse hath he turned against me into feare.

5 While they garnished the table, the watchman looked: and whyle I was eatyng and drynkyng, it was sayde, Vp ye captaynes, take you to your shielde.

6 For thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto me, Goe and set a watchman to tel what he seeth.

7 And he sawe a charret whiche two horsemen sate vpon, with the caryage of an Asse, and the caryage of a Cammel: so he looked, and tooke diligent heede.

Psalme. 2. 1. 8 *And he cryed, a Lion, my Lorde, I stande continually vpon the watche towre in the day tyme, and am appoynted to keepe my watche euery nyght.

9 And beholde, here commeth a charret of men, with two horsemen, and he answeared and sayde, *Babylon is fallen, it is fallen, and al the images of her goddes hath he smitten downe vnto the grounde.

Iere. 51. 8. Apoc. 14. 8.

10 Thou art he whom I must threshe, and thou belongest to my corne floore: this that I heard of the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, haue I shewed vnto you.

11 The burden of Duma. He calleth to me out of Seir: Watchman what hast thou espied by night: watchman what hast thou espied by night?

12 The watchman sayde, The morning commeth, and so doeth the night: yf ye wyl aske me any question, then aske it, returne and come agayne.

13 The burden concernyng Arabia. In the woods of Arabia shal ye tary all nyght, euen in the streetes of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitours of the lande of Thema brought foorth water to hym that was thirstie, they preuented hym that was fled away with theyr bread.

15 For because of swordes they are become fugitiue, euen for the drawen sworde, and for the bent bowe, and because of the greeuousnesse of warre.

16 For thus hath the Lorde sayde vnto me, There is yet a yeere, accordyng to the yeeres of an hyred seruant, and all the glorie of Cedar shal fayle.

17 And the number of them that shal escape from the bowes, shalbe minished by the mightie chyldren of Cedar: for the Lorde God of Israel hath spoken it.

¶ The.xxii. Chapter.

A prophecie against Hierusalem.

1 THe burden of the a valley of vision. What hast thou to doo here, that thou clymest to the house toppe? a. Hierusalem is meant by the valley of vision

2 Thou that art full of tumultuousnesse, thou troublesome and proude citie: thy slayne men are neyther put to death with the sworde, nor dead in battayle.

3 All thy captiues are fugitiue togeather, the archers haue taken them prysoners: all they I say that are founde in thee, are in captiuitie togeather, and they also that fledde farre of.

4 Therefore sayd I, Let me alone, & I wyl make lamentation: ye shal not be able to comfort me, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.

5 For this is a day of trouble, of ruine, and of destruction, that the Lorde the GOD of hostes wyl bryng to passe in the valley of vision, breakyng downe the citie, and crying vnto mountaynes.

6 Elam bare the quiuer with a charret of footemen and horsemen, & the citie of Cir shewed the shielde open.

7 The cheefe valley also was full of charrets, and the horsemen set their faces directly towarde the gate.

8 And in that day did the enimie take away the couer of Juda, and then didſt thou loke towarde the b armour of the houſe of the foreſt.

b. The armorie that Solomon made and furniſhed with munition. 1.kyng.7.

9 Ye haue ſeene alſo the broke̅ places of the citie of Dauid, howe that they are many, and ye geathered togeather the waters of the lower poole.

10 As for the houſes of Hieruſalem, ye haue numbred them, and the houſes haue ye broken downe, to make the wal ſtrong.

11 A pit alſo haue ye made betweene the two walles for the waters of the old poole, c and haue not regarded the maker thereof, neyther had reſpect vnto hym that faſhioned it long agoe.

c. The Lorde doeth not forbyd to make prouiſion of ſure defence agaynſt the enimies, ſo that our truſt be put in hym, and not in our forteſſes and ſtrong holdes. *1.Co.15.12

12 And in that day dyd the Lorde God of hoſtes cal men vnto weeping and mourning, to baldneſſe and gyrding about with ſackcloth.

13 And beholde, they haue ioy and gladneſſe, ſlaying oxen, and kyllyng ſheepe, eatyng fleſhe, and drynking wine: * let vs eate and drynke, for to morowe we ſhal die.

14 And it came to the eares of the Lorde of hoſtes, This iniquitie ſhal not be purged from you tyl ye dye, ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes.

15 Thus ſayth the Lorde God of hoſtes, Goat you vnto yonder treaſurer, euen vnto Sebna, which is the ruler of the houſe.

16 What haſt thou to doo here? and whom haſt thou here? that thou ſhouldeſt here hewe thee out a ſepulchre, as it were one that heweth him out a ſepulchre on high, or that graueth an habitation for him ſelfe on an harde rocke?

17 Beholde, O thou man, the Lorde ſhall cary thee away into captiuitie, and ſhall ſurely couer thee with confuſion.

18 The Lord ſhal turne thee ouer like a ball with his hands and ſhal ſende thee into a farre countrey: there ſhalt thou dye, and there in ſteede of the charrettes of thy pompe, ſhal the houſe of the Lorde haue confuſion.

19 I wyl driue thee from thy place, and out of thy dwelling ſhal he ouerthrowe thee.

20 And in that day ſhal I cal my ſeruaunt Eliacim the ſonne of Helcia:

21 And with thy garmentes wyl I clothe him, and with thy girdle wyl I ſtrength hym: thy power wyl I alſo commit into his hande, and he ſhalbe a father of ſuch as dwel in Hieruſalem, and in the houſe of Juda.

Iob.12.14. Apoc.3.7. 22 *And the key of the houſe of Dauid wyl I lay vpon his ſhoulder: ſo that he ſhal open, and no man ſhut, he ſhal ſhut, and no man open.

23 And I wyl faſten him as a nayle in a ſure place, and he ſhalbe the glorious ſeate of his fathers houſe.

24 Moreouer, al generations and poſteri-ties ſhal hang vppon hym all the glory of their fathers houſe, al veſſels both great and ſmal, and al inſtrumentes of meaſure and muſicke.

25 In that day, ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, ſhal the nayle that is faſtened in the ſure place, depart and be broken, and fal: and the burden that was vpon it ſhalbe pluckt away, for ſo the Lorde hath ſpoken.

¶ The.xxiii.Chapter.

1. A propheſie agaynſt Tyrus. 17. and a promiſe that it ſhalbe reſtored agayne.

1 THE burden of Tyre. Mourne ye ſhippes of Tharſis, for there commeth ſuche deſtruction, that ye ſhal not haue an houſe to enter into, and that there ſhall be no trafficke out of the lande of Cittim, they haue knowledge of this plague.

2 Be ſtyl ye that dwel in the Ile, the marchantes of Sidon, & ſuch as paſſe ouer the ſea, haue made thee plenteous.

3 The corne that groweth by the great waters of Nilus, and the fruites of the riuer, were her victualles, ſo that it became a common mart of nations.

4 Be aſhamed thou Zidon: for the a ſea, euen the ſtrength of the ſea, hath ſpoken, ſaying, I haue not trauayled nor brought forth chyldren, nor nouriſhed vp young men, or brought vp virgins.

a. By the ſea & the ſtrength of the ſea is meant Tyrus

5 When tydinges commeth to the Egyptians, they ſhalbe ſorie for the rumour of Tyre.

6 Goat you to Tharſis, mourne you that dwel in the Ile.

7 Is not this that glorious citie of yours, whiche hath ben of olde antiquitie? her owne feete ſhal cary her forth, to be a ſiourner in a farre countrey.

8 Who hath deuiſed this againſt Tyre that b crowneth her ſelfe? whoſe marchantes are princes, and whoſe factours are honourable in the worlde.

b. That crowneth her ſelfe, that is, whiche boaſteth her ſelfe to be as were ſ Queene of al cities on the ſea coaſte.

9 Euen the Lorde of hoſtes hath deuiſed this, to put downe the pryde of al ſuche as be glorious, and to miniſhe al them that be proude vpon the earth.

10 Goat thee out of the lande lyke a floodde vnto the daughter of Tharſis, for thou haſt no more ſtrength.

11 He that ſmote the kyngdomes togeather, holdeth out his hand ouer the ſea: euen the Lorde hym ſelfe hath geuen a commaun-dement dement agaynst the same common place of marchandise, that they shall vtterly destroy the myght thereof.

12 And he sayde, Make no more thy boaste, O virgin, thou daughter Sidon, thou shalt be brought downe: vp, get thee ouer vnto Sittim, where neuertheles thou shalt haue no rest.

13 Behold, this people came not of the Chaldees, but Assur made them strong with great Shyps, they set vp the strong holdes thereof, and destroyed his palaces: and he brought it in decay.

14 Mourne ye Shyppes of Tharsis, for your strength is brought downe.

15 And in that day shall Tyre be forgotten seuentie yeeres, according to the yeeres of one kyng, and after the ende of seuentie yeeres shal Tyre syng as doeth an harlot.

16 Take an Harpe, and goe about the citie, thou harlot that hast been forgotten, make sweete melodie, sing moe songues, that thou mayest be had in remembrance.

17 And after the ende of the seuentie yeeres, shal the Lorde visite Tyre, and she shall conuert vnto her reward, and shal commit fornication with al the kingdomes of the earth that are in the worlde.

18 Their occupying also and their rewarde shalbe holy vnto the Lorde: their gaynes shal not be layde vp nor kept in store, but it shalbe theirs that dwel before the Lord, that they may eate yenough, and haue clothyng sufficient.

¶ The .xxiiii. Chapter.

A prophesie of tribulation to come vpon the world, because of sinne.

1 BEholde, the Lorde maketh the earth waste and emptie, he turneth it vpsyde downe, and scattereth abrode the inhabiters thereof.

Leui.19. 2 *And the Priest shalbe as the people, and the maister as the seruaunt, the maistresse lyke the mayde, the seller lyke the buyer, he that lendeth vpon vsurie, lyke hym that boroweth vpon vsurie, the creditor as the detter.

3 The land shalbe cleane wasted, and vtterly spoyled: for so the Lorde hath spoken.

4 The earth is sorye and consumeth away, the world is feeble and perysheth, the proud people of the earth are come to nought.

5 The earth also is become vnprofitable vnder the inhabiters thereof, whiche haue transgressed the lawes, changed the ordinaunce, broken the euerlastyng couenaunt.

6 Therefore hath the curse consumed the earth, and they that dwell therein are fallen into treshasse: Wherfore the inhabiters of the earth are perished with drought, and fewe men are left behynde.

7 The wine faileth, the vine hath no might, al they that haue ben mery of hart are come to mournyng.

8 The myrth of Tabrets is layd downe, the noyse of such as haue made mery is ceassed, the ioy at the Harpe is at an ende.

9 They shal drynke no more wyne with myrth, strong drynke shalbe bytter to them that drynke it.

10 The citie of vanitie is broken downe, euery house is shut vp, that no man maye come in.

11 In the streetes is there a crying, because of wyne, all cheare is vanyshed away, the myrth of the lande is gone.

12 In the citie is left desolation, and the gate is smytten with destruction.

13 For in the myddes of the lande, euen among the people, it shall come to passe as at the shakyng of Oliues, and as the grapes are when the wyne haruest is doone.

14 They shall lyft vp their voyce, and make a mery noyse, and in magnifiyng of the Lorde shal they crye out of the Weast.

15 Wherfore prayse ye the Lorde in the valleys, euen the name of the Lord God of Israel in the Iles of the sea.

16 From the vttermoste parte of the earth haue we heard prayses and myrth, because of the righteous: and I sayde, I knowe a thing in secrete, I knowe a thing in secrete, woe is me, ỳ transgressours haue offended, the transgressours haue greuously offended.

17 Fearefulnesse, the pyt, and the snare are vpon thee, O thou that dwellest on the earth.

Jer.48.44 18 *It wyl come to passe, that whosoeuer escapeth the fearefull noyse, shal fal into the pyt, and he that commeth vp out of the pyt, shalbe taken with the snare: for the windowes from an hygh are open, and the fundations of the earth are mooued.

19 The earth is vtterly broken downe, the earth hath a sore ruine, the earth quaketh exceedyngly.

20 The earth shall reele too and fro lyke a drunkard, and shalbe remooued lyke a tent, and the iniquitie therof shalbe heauy vppon it, it shall fall, and not ryse vp agayne.

21 And in that day shall the Lorde visite the host aboue that is on hygh, and the kynges of the worlde that are vpon the earth.

22 And they shalbe geathered togeather as they that be in prysons, and they shalbe shut vp in warde, and after many daies shal they be visited.

23 The Moone shalbe abashed, and the Sunne aſhamed, when the Lorde of hoſtes ſhal raigne in mount Sion and in Hieruſalem with wooꝛſhyp, and in the ſyght of ſuch as ſhalbe of his counſel.

¶ The.xxv. Chapter.

A thankes geuyng to God for his vvorkes.

1 THou art my Lord my God, I wyl magnifie thee, I wyl geue thankes vnto thy name, foꝛ thou haſt bꝛought woonderful thynges to paſſe, accoꝛdyng to thyne old counſel, truely and faythfully.

3 Thou haſt made a citie an heape of ſtones, and bꝛought a ſtrong towne into decay: the habitation of ſtrangers haſt thou made to be no citie, neyther ſhal it be buylded any moꝛe.

3 Therefoꝛe ſhall the myghtie people geue glozie vnto thee, the citie of the valiant heathen ſhal feare thee.

4 Foꝛ thou haſt been a ſtrength vnto the pooꝛe, and a ſuccour foꝛ the needie in his trouble, a refuge agaynſt euyl weather, a ſhadowe agaynſt the heate: foꝛ the blaſt of ragyng men is lyke a ſtoꝛme that caſteth downe a wal.

5 Lyke as the heate in a dꝛye place waſteth al thynges: ſo ſhalt thou ſuppꝛeſſe the noyſe of aliantes, the heate is abated with the ſhadowe of the cloude, euen ſo ſhal God aſſwage the noyſe of the cruel tyꝛantes.

6 And in this mountayne ſhall the Lorde of hoſtes make vnto al people a feaſt of plenteous and delicate thynges, euen of moſt pleaſant and dayntie dyſhes.

7 And in this mountayne ſhall the Lorde deſtroy the couerynge that all people are wꝛapped in, and the hangyng that is ſpꝛead vpon al nations.

8 As foꝛ death he hath deſtroyed it foꝛ euer, and the *Lorde God ſhal wype away teares from al faces, and the rebuke of his people ſhal he take away out of al the earth, foꝛ ſo the Lorde hath ſayde. *Apo.7.17. and.21.4.

9 And in that day it ſhalbe ſayde, Loe, this is our God, we haue wayted foꝛ hym, and he ſhal ſaue vs, this is the lozd in whom we haue hoped, we wyl be merie, and reioyce in the ſaluation that commeth of hym.

10 Foꝛ in this mountayne ſhal the hande of the Lorde ceaſſe, and Moab ſhalbe thꝛeſhed vnder hym, euen as ſtrawe is troden to doung on the dounghyl.

11 And he ſhall ſtretche out his hande in the myddeſt of them, as he that ſwymmeth caſteth out his handes to ſwymme: and with the ſtrength of his handes ſhall he bꝛyng downe their pꝛyde.

12 The ſtrong holde alſo and defence of thy walles hath he ouerthꝛowen & caſt downe, and bꝛought them to the grounde, euen vnto duſt.

¶ The.xxvi. Chapter.

A ſong of delyuerannce of the people.

1 IN that day ſhall this ſongue be ſong in the lande of Juda, We haue a ſtrong citie, ſaluation ſhal God appoynt in ſteade of walles and bulwarkes.

2 Opē ye the gates, that the ryghteous people which keepeth the trueth may enter in.

3 By an aſſured purpoſe wylt thou pꝛeſerue perfecte peace, becauſe they put their truſt in thee.

4 Put ye your truſt alway in the Lorde, foꝛ in the Lorde God there is ſtrength foꝛ euermoꝛe.

5 Foꝛ he hath bꝛought downe the high minded citizens: as foꝛ the pꝛoude citie, he hath bꝛought it lowe, euen to the grounde ſhall he caſt it downe, and bꝛyng it vnto duſt.

6 The foote, euen the foote of the pooꝛe, and the ſteppes of ſuche as be in neceſſitie ſhall treade it downe.

7 The path of equitie wylt thou graunt vnto the iuſt, O thou moſt ryghteous, thou ſhalt oꝛder the path of hym that is ryghteous.

8 Yea in the way of thy iudgementes, O Lorde, haue we put our truſt in thee: thy name alſo, and the remembꝛaunce of thee, is the thyng that our ſoule longeth foꝛ.

9 Myſoule hath longed foꝛ thee al the night, and with my ſpirite whiche is within me wyll I ſeeke thee early in the moꝛnyng: foꝛ when thy iudgementes are in the earth, the inhabiters of the woꝛlde ſhall learne ryghteouſneſſe.

10 Shall the vngodlye man be fauoured, whiche hath not learned ryghteouſneſſe, but doeth wyckedly in the earth, where nothyng ought to be doone, but that whiche is ryghteous: he ſhal not ſee the glozye of the Lorde.

11 Lozd, when thy hande is lyft vp to ſtrike, they ſee it not, but they ſhal ſee it, and be confounded with ỹ zeale of the people, and the fyre that conſumeth thyne enimies ſhal deuoure them.

12 Lozd, vnto vs thou ſhalt pꝛouide peace: foꝛ thou alſo haſt wꝛought al our woꝛkes in vs.

13 O Lorde our God, other lordes beſides thee hath ſubdued vs: but we wyl be mindful only of thee, and of thy name.

14 The dead wyll not lyue, they that be out of lyfe wyl not ryſe agayne, therfoꝛe haſt thou thou visited and rooted them out, and destroyed al the memorie of them.

15 Thou hast increased the people, O Lord, thou hast increased the people, thou art glorious, thou hast sent them farre of vnto all the coastes of the earth.

16 Lorde, in trouble haue they visited thee, they powred out their prayer when thy chastening was vpon them.

17 Like as a woman with childe that draweth nygh towards her trauayle, is sory and cryeth in her paynes: euen so haue we ben in thy syght, O Lorde.

18 We haue ben with childe and suffered payne, as though we had brought foorth wind: for there is no saluation in the earth, neyther doo the inhabiters of the worlde submit them selues.

19 Thy dead men shal lyue, euen as my body shal they ryse agayne: awake and syng ye that dwel in dust, for thy deawe is euen as the deawe of herbes, and the earth shal cast out them that be vnder her.

20 Come my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doores about thee, hyde thee selfe for a litle whyle, vntyl the indignation be ouerpast.

Exod. 3. 21 For beholde, the Lorde is comming out of his place, to visite the wickednesse of suche as dwell vppon earth: the earth also shal disclose her blooddes, and shal no more hide them that are slayne in her.

¶ The .xxvii. Chapter.

A propheſie of the comming of Christe, and destruction of idolatrie.

1 IN that day the Lord with his sore, great, and mightie swoorde, shal visite a Leuiathan the fugitiue serpent, euen Leuiathan that crooked serpent, & he shal slay the dragon that is in the sea.

a Myſtica. Leuiathan is the great. multitudes in this ment kingdome Satan, and his myſtie tyrans of the world. Christ, perfection of his re.

2 In the day see that ye syng of the congregation, whiche is the vineyarde that bryngeth foorth the best wine:

3 Euen I the Lorde doo keepe it, in due seasons shal I water it: and lest the enimie doo it any harme, I wyl both nyght and day preserue it.

4 There is no displeasure in me, els when the vineyard bryngeth me forth bryers and thornes, I would goe through it by warre, and burne it vp togeather.

God calleth vnto his worde his strength, be. that therby ſtrengthneth them, and byrdeneth them vnto his ayde. 5 Let it take holde of my b strength, and it shalbe at one with me, euen at one shal it be with me.

6 The dayes are comming that Jacob shal take roote, Israel shalbe greene and flourish, and the worlde shalbe filled with fruite.

7 Hath he smitten hym as sore as he did the the other that smote hym? Or is he slayne with so sore a slaughter as they that slue hym?

8 Thou wylt punishe it in the branches, yet not beyonde measure: for in the day that the east winde bloweth sore, it taketh away the fruites.

9 By this meanes therefore shal the iniquitie of Jacob be purged, and this is al the fruite namely the c taking away of his sinne, if he make all the stones of the aulter of idols, as chalke stones that are beaten in sunder, that their groues and images rise not vp agayne.

c: God vseth afflictions, as meanes to call men to repentance, whereupon foloweth forgeuenesse of sinnes.

10 Els shal the strong citie be desolate, and the habitation forsaken and left lyke a wyldernesse: there shal the Calfe feede, and there shal he lye, and eate vp the grasses thereof.

11 When the branches of it are drye, they are broken of, and the women come and set them on fyre: for it is a people of no vnderstandyng, and therefore he that made them, shal not fauour them, and he that created them, shal geue them no grace.

12 And in that day shal the Lorde make a threshyng from the middes of the riuer Euphrates, vnto the riuer of Egypt, and ye chyldren of Israel shalbe gathered togather one to another.

13 In that day shal the great trumpe be blowen, so that they which were lost in the land of Assyria, and they that were banished in the lande of Egypt, shal come and woorshyp the Lorde in the holy mount of Hierusalem.

¶ The .xxviii. Chapter.

1. Agaynst the pryde of Ephraim, 9. and agaynst false prieſtes and preachers.

1 WO be vnto the crowne of pryde, euen vnto the drunken people of Ephraim, whose great pompe is as a floure that fadeth away vpon the head of the valley of suche as be in wealth, and are ouerladen with wine.

2 Beholde, there commeth a vehement and sore day from the Lorde, lyke an vnmeasurable hayle and perillous tempest, euen lyke the force of mightie & horrible waters that violently beareth downe al thinges.

3 The crowne of the pryde of the drunken Ephraimites shalbe troden vnder foote.

4 So that the floure of his fayrenesse and beautie, which is in the head of the valley of fatnesse, shal fade away as doeth an vntymely rype fygge before harueſt: whiche when a man espieth, he loketh vpon it, and whyle it is yet in his hande he eateth it vp.

5 In that day ſhal the Lorde of hoſtes be the crowne of glorie and diamonde of beautie vnto the reſidue of his people.

6 He wyl be alſo a ſpirite of perfect knowledge to him that ſitteth in iudgement, and ſtrength vnto them that turne away the battel to the gate of the enemie.

7 But they are out of the way by reaſon of wine, yea farre out of the way are they thorowe ſtrong drynke: the prieſt alſo and the prophete are gone aſtray by the meanes of ſtrong drinke, they are drunken with wine, they go amiſſe thorow ſtrong drinke, they fayle in propheſying, and ſtumble in iudgement.

8 For al tables are ful of vomit and fylthineſſe, that no place is cleane.

9 Whom then ſhal ſuche one teache knowledge? and whom ſhal he make to vnderſtande the thyng that he heareth? for they are as ignorant as young chyldren that are taken from the mylke, and are weaned.

10 For they that be ſuche, muſt take after one leſſon, another leſſon, after one commaundement, another commaundement, for one rule, another rule, after one inſtruction, another inſtruction, there a litle, and there a litle.

*I.Co.14.21 11 *For he that ſpeaketh vnto this people, is euen as one that vſeth rudeneſſe of ſpeache, and a ſtrange language.

12 If any man ſay vnto them, Loe, this is the reſt wherewith ye may eaſe hym that is weerie, this is the refreſhing: they wyl not hearken.

13 Therefore ſhal the woorde of the Lorde be vnto them leſſon vpon leſſon, commaundement vpon commaundement, rule vpon rule, inſtruction vpon inſtruction, there a litle, and there a litle: that they may goe on, and fal backwarde, be bruiſed, tangled, and ſnared.

*Mat.21.4. a. Who ſo through fayth doeth ſtay hym ſelfe vppon Chriſt, in haſtie going forward, ſhal not fal that is, ſhal not fayle of that he hopeth to obteyne.

14 Wherefore heare the woorde of the Lorde ye mockers, ye that haue rule of this people which is at Hierusalem.

15 Becauſe ye haue ſayde, We haue made a couenant with death, and with hel are we at agreement: and though there goe forth a ſore plague, it ſhal not come vnto vs, for we haue made falſehood our refuge, and vnder vanitie are we hyd.

b. The Goſpel is compared to haile & floodes, for that it breaketh downe and caryeth away idolatrie and ſuperſtition, wherin men doo truſt in vayne.

16 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, *Beholde, I lay in Sion for a fundation a ſtone, euen a tryed ſtone, a pretious corner ſtone, a ſure fundation: who ſo beleeueth, let hym not be to a haſtie.

17 Iudgement alſo wyll I lay to the rule, and righteouſneſſe to the ballance, ſo that the b hayle ſhal sweepe away as a broome your vayne confidence, and the priuie place of your refuge ſhall the waters runne ouer.

18 And thus the couenaunt that ye made with death, ſhalbe diſanulled, and your agreement that ye made with hel, ſhall not ſtande, yea when the ſore plague goeth forth, ye ſhalbe troden downe vnder it.

19 From the tyme that it goeth forth, it ſhal take you away: for early in the morning euery day, yea both day and nyght, ſhal it goe thorough, & when the noyſe thereof is perceyued, it ſhal gender veration.

20 For the bed is narowe, and not large, and the couering ſo ſmal, that a man can not wynde him ſelfe vnder it.

21 *For the Lorde ſhal ſtande as in mount Perazim, and ſhalbe wroth lyke as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may doo his woorke, his ſtrange woorke, and bring to paſſe his act, his ſtrange act. *I.Re.5.20 I.Chr.14.11 Ioſ.10.12.

22 Nowe therefore ſee that ye be no mockers, leſt your puniſhment encreaſe: for I heard of the Lorde of hoſtes, that there ſhal come a ſhort ende vpon the whole earth.

23 Heare ye then, & hearken vnto my voyce, conſyder and ponder my ſpeache.

24 Doeth not the huſbandman plowe all the day, and openeth and breaketh the clots of his grounde, that he may ſowe?

25 When he hath made it playne, wyl he not ſpread abrode the fitches, and ſowe commin, and caſt in wheate by meaſure, and the appoynted barly and rye in theyr place?

26 God wyl inſtruct hym to haue diſcretion, euen his God wyl teache hym.

27 For fitches ſhal not be threſhed with an harowe, neyther ſhal a cart wheele be brought thorough the commin: but the fitches are beaten out with a ſtaffe, and commin with a rodde.

28 But the ſeede that bread is made of is threſhed, though it be not alway a threſhyng, and the cart wheele muſt be brought ouer it, leſt he grynde it with his teeth.

29 This alſo commeth of the Lorde of hoſtes, which wooreth with woonderful wyſedome, and bringeth excellent woorkes to paſſe.

¶ The.xxix.Chapter.

A propheſie againſt Hieruſalem, and againſt the vayne traditions of men.

1 WO vnto thee, O Ariel, Ariel, thou citie that Dauid dwelt in: Goe on from yeere to yeere, and let the ſacrifices be ſlayne.

2 I wyl lay ſiege vnto Ariel, ſo that there ſhalbe heauineſſe and ſorowe in it: and it ſhalbe shalbe vnto me euen an aulter of slaughter.

3 I wyl besiege thee rounde about, and wyl fyght against thee through a bulwarke, and wyl reare vp ditches against thee.
4 Thou shalt be brought downe, and shalt speake out of the grounde, and thy speache shal goe lowe out of the dust:
5 Thy voyce also shal come out of ỹ ground, lyke the voyce of a witche, and thy talkyng shal whysper out of the dust.
6 Moreouer, the noyse of the strange enimies shalbe lyke thinne dust, and the multitude of tyrauntes shalbe as drye strawe that can not tarrie: euen sodaynely and in haste shal their blast goe.
7 Thou shalt be visited of the lord of hostes, with thunder, earthquake, and with a great noyse, with stormе and tempest, and with the flambe of a consumyng fyre.
8 And the multitude of al nations that fight agaynst Ariel, shalbe as a dreame seene by nyght: euen so shal they be that make warre against it, and strong holdes to ouercome it, and that lay any siege vnto it.
9 In conclusion, it shalbe euen as when an hungry man dreameth that he is eatyng, & when he awaketh, his soule is emptie, or as when a thirstie man dreameth that he is drynking, when he awaketh he is yet faynt, and his soule hath appetite: euen so shal the multitude of all nations be that fighteth against mount Sion.
10 Ponder these things once in your minds, and wonder: Blynded are they them selues, and the blynde guydes of other, they are dronken, but not with wyne: they are vnstable, but not through strong drynke, 11 For the Lorde hath couered you with a dumbyng spirit, and hath closed your eyes: your prophetes also and rulers that shoulde see, them hath he couered.
12 And the vision of al the prophetes, is become vnto you as the wordes of a booke that is sealed vp, whiche men deliuer to one that is learned, saying, Reade thou in it: and he sayth, I can not, for it is sealed.
13 And the booke is geuen to him that is not learned, saying, Reade thou in it: and he sayth, I am not learned.
14 Therefore thus hath the Lorde sayde, *For as muche as this people, when they be in trouble, do honour me with their mouth, and with their lyps, but their hart is farre from me, and the feare which they haue vnto me, proceedeth of a commaundemēt that is taught of men: *Mat.15.8. *Esa.29.13.
15 Therefore wyll I do marueyles among this people, euen marueylous thynges I say and a woonder: for the wysedome of their wyse men shall perishe, and the vnderstandyng of their wytty men shall hyde it selfe. *1.Cor.1.19.
16 *Woe vnto them that keepe secrete theyr thoughtes, to hyde theyr counsayle from the Lorde, and to doo their woorkes in darkenesse, saying, *Who seeth vs? and who knoweth vs? *Abdi.1.8. *Eccl.23.15.
17 Doubtlesse your destruction is in reputation as the Potters claye: and dooth the woorke say of hym that made it, He made not me? And doth an earthen vessell say of hym that fashioned it, He had no vnderstandyng?
18 Is it not harde at hande that Libanus shalbe turned into a lowe feelde, & that the lowe feelde shalbe taken as the wood?
19 And in that day shal deafe men heare the woordes of the booke, and the eyes of the blynde shall see euen out of the cloude, and out of darkenesse.
20 The meeke spirited also shalbe merry in the Lorde, and the poore among them that be lowly shall reioyce in the holy one of Israel:
21 For he that dyd violence is brought to nought, and the scornefull man is consumed, and they rooted out that made haste early to vnryghteousnesse,
22 Makyng a man to sinne in the woorde, and that tooke hym in a snare, whiche reproued them in the open place, and they that haue turned the cause of the ryghteous to nought.
23 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde to the house of Jacob, euen thus sayth he that redeemed Abraham, Jacob shall not nowe be confounded, nor his face pale.
24 But when he seeth his chyldren the woorke of my handes in the myddes of hym, they shall sanctifie my name, and prayse the holy one of Jacob, and feare the God of Israel.
25 They also that haue been of an erronious spirite, shall come to vnderstandyng, and they that haue been scornefull, shall learne doctrine.

¶ The.xxx. Chapter.

1. Agaynst them that forsake the counsayle of GOD, and cleaue to the counsayle of men. 3. The prophete also threateneth the remnant of the people, that after the destruction of Hierusalem vvent into Egypt.

1 ALAS for those disobedient chyldren, sayth the lord, that they wyl take counsayle, and not of me, that they wyll take a secrete aduise, and not out of my spirite, and therfore adde they sinne vnto sinne.

2 Euen

2 Euen they that walke to goe downe into Egypt, and haue aſked no queſtion at my mouth, but ſeeke ſtrength in the myght of Pharao, & truſt in the ſhadowe of Egypt.

3 Therefore ſhal the ſtrength of Pharao be your confuſion, and the truſt in the ſhadowe of Egypt your ſhame.

4 For his captaynes were at Zoan, and his embaſſadours came vnto Hanes.

5 They were aſhamed of the people that coulde doo them no good, and that myght not helpe them, nor ſhewe them any profite, but were their confuſion and rebuke.

6 The burden of the beaſtes of the South. In a lande of trouble and anguiſhe, from whence ſhal come the young and olde Lion, the Uiper, and fierce Serpent, that fleeth agaynſt them that vppon coltes beare theyr rycheſſe, and vpon Camels their treaſures, to a people that can do them no good.

7 For vayne and nothyng worth ſhall the helpe of the Egyptians be: therefore haue I cryed vnto Hieruſalem, they ſhall haue ſtrength ynough, yf they wyll ſettle theyr myndes in quietneſſe.

8 Nowe therfore go thy way, and write this before them in a table, & note it in a booke, that it may finally remayne and be kept ſtyl for euer.

9 For this is an obſtinate people, and diſſembling chyldren, chyldreh that refuſe to heare the lawe of the Lorde.

10 For they ſay vnto the ſeers, See not: and to them that be cleare of iudgement, Looke not out ryght thynges for vs: but ſpeake fayre wordes vnto vs, looke out errours, 11 Get you out of this way, depart out of this path, and turne the holy one of Iſrael from vs.

12 Wherefore thus ſayth the holy one of Iſrael, Becauſe your hartes ryſe agaynſt this worde, and becauſe you truſt in wrong dealyng, and peruerſe iudgement, and put your confidence therein:

13 Therefore ſhal ye haue this miſcheefe for your deſtruction and fall, lyke as an hygh wall that falleth becauſe of ſome ryft or blaſt, whoſe breakyng commeth ſodaynely.

14 And the hurt thereof is lyke an earthen veſſel which breaketh without helpe, ſo that in the burſtyng of it, there is not founde one ſheuer to fetche fyre in, or to take water withal out of the pit.

15 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, euen the holy one of Iſrael, In repentaunce, and in reſt ſhall ye be ſafe, in quietneſſe and ſure confidence ſhalbe your ſtrength, but ye haue had no luſt thereto.

16 For he haue ſayd, No, but we wyl eſcape through horſes, therefore ſhall ye flee, and we wyll get vs vp vppon ſwyfte beaſtes, and therefore ſhall your perſecutours be ſwyfter.

17 A thouſand ſhal flee at the rebuke of one, and at the rebuke of fyue, ſhal ye al flee, tyll ye be left as a ſhyp maſte vppon the toppe of a mountayne, and as a beakon vppon an hyll.

18 Therefore dooth the Lorde cauſe you to wayte, that he may haue mercy vpon you, to the intent that he may haue the preheminence when he is gratious vnto you: for the Lorde is the God of iudgement, bleſſed are all they that hope in hym.

19 If the people remayne in Sion, and at Hieruſalem, thou ſhalt not be in heauyneſſe: but at the voyce of thy complaynt ſhall he haue mercy vppon thee, and when he heareth it, he ſhall geue thee an anſweare.

20 And though the Lord geue you the bread of trouble, and the water of aduerſitie, thy rayne ſhalbe no more ſo ſcant, but thine eyes ſhall ſee thy rayne, 21 Yea, and thyne eare ſhall heare the talkyng of hym that doth ſpeake behynde thee: This is the way, walke ye in it, turne not aſyde, neyther to the ryght hande, nor to the left.

22 Ye ſhal deſtroy alſo the couerynge of your ſyluer images, and the decking of your golden idols, euen as fylthyneſſe ſhalt thou put them away, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto it, Get thee hence.

23 Then ſhall GOD geue rayne vnto thy ſeede that thou ſhalt ſowe the ground withall, and bread of the encreaſe of the earth, whiche ſhalbe fat and very plenteous: in that day alſo ſhall thy cattayle be fedde in large paſtures.

24 The Oxen lykewyſe, & the young Aſſes that eare the grounde, ſhall eate cleane prouender, whiche is purged with the wynde and the fanne.

25 Fynally, vppon euery hygh mountayne and hyll ſhalt there be ryuers, and ſtreames of waters in the day of the great ſlaughter when the towres fall.

26 Moreouer, the lyght of the Moone ſhalbe as the lyght of the Sunne, and the Sunne lyght ſhalbe ſeuen fold, and haue as muche ſhine as in ſeuen dayes beſyde, when the Lorde byndeth vp the ſore of his people, and healeth the ſtroke of theyr wounde.

27 Beholde, the name of the Lorde commeth from farre, and his preſence is ſo hot, that no man is able to abyde: his lyppes are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a conſumyng fyre, 28 His breath is a behement flood of water that reacheth vp to the necke: that he maye syft away the heathen in the Syue of vanitie, and his breath is a bridle of errour in the iawes of the people.

29 And ye shal syng like as in the night when the holy solemnitie begynneth, and ye shall haue gladnesse of hart, lyke as when one commeth with a pype vnto the hyl of the Lorde, & to the most myghtie one of Israel.

30 And the Lorde shall cause his glorious voyce to be heard, and shal declare his stretched out arme with a terrible countenance, and with a flame of a consuming fyre, with noysome lyghtnyng, with a shewre, & with haylestones.

31 For through the voyce of the Lorde shall Assur be destroyed, which smote other men with rye rodde.

32 And it shall come to passe, that whithersoeuer he goeth, the rodde shall cleaue vnto him which the lord shal lay vpon him, with Tabrets and Harps: and with great warre shal he fyght agaynst his host.

33 For the fyre of hell is ordeyned from the begynnyng, yea euen for the kyng is it prepared: this hath the Lord set in the deepe, and made it wyde, the burnyng whereof is fyre and muche wood: the breath of the Lord, whiche is lyke a ryuer of brymstone, doeth kyndle it.

¶ The.xxxi.Chapter.

He curseth them that forsake God, and seeke for the helpe of men.

1 WOE vnto them that goe downe into Egypt for helpe, and trust in horses, and put their confidence in charets, because they be many, and in horsmen, because they be lustie and strong: but they regarde not the holy one of Israel, and they aske no question at the Lorde.

2 And he neuertheles is wyse, & wyl plague the wycked, and goeth not from his woord, he wyll aryse agaynst the housholde of the frowarde, and agaynst the helpe of euyl doers.

3 Nowe the Egyptians are men, and not God, and their horses flesshe, and not spirit: and as soone as the Lorde stretcheth out his hand, then shall the helper fall, and he that shoulde haue been helped, and they shal altogeather be destroyed.

4 For thus hath the Lorde spoken vnto me, Lyke as the Lion and Lions whelpe roreth vpon the pray that he hath gotten, and is not afraid though the multitudes of Shepheards crye out vpon hym, neyther abashed for al the heape of them: so shal the Lord of hostes come downe to fyght for mount Sion, and defende his hyl.

5 Lyke as the byrdes flutter about their nestes: so shal the Lorde of hostes keepe, saue, defende, and deliuer Hierusalem.

6 Therfore, O ye children of Israel, turne agayne vnto him whom ye haue oftentimes forsaken.

7 For in that day euery man shall cast out his idols of syluer, and his idols of golde, which ye haue made with your owne handes vnto your sinne.

8 Assur also shalbe slayne with the swoorde, not with a mans swoorde, neyther shall the swoorde of any man deuoure hym, and he shal flee from the slaughter, and his choyse young men shalbe discomfyted.

9 He shall goe for feare to his strong holdes, and his princes shal flee from his standard, sayth the Lorde, whose fyre is in Sion, and his furnace in Hierusalem.

¶ The.xxxii.Chapter.

The condition of good rulers and officers.

1 BEholde, a kyng shal gouerne after the rule of ryghteousnesse, and the princes shal rule accordyng vnto the ballance of equitie.

2 And that man shalbe vnto men as a defence for the wynde, and as a refuge for the tempest, lyke as a ryuer of water in a dryestie place, and the shadowe of a great rocke in a drye lande.

3 The eyes of seeyng shall not be dymme, and the eares of them that heare shall take diligent heede.

4 The hart of the vnwyse shall attayne to knowledge, and the vnperfect tongue shall speake playnely and distinctly.

5 Then shal the foolyshe nigarde be no more called gentle, nor the churle liberal.

6 But the nigarde wyll speake nygardly, and his hart wyll worke euyll, and play the hypocrite, and imagine abominations agaynst God, to make the hungry leane, and to withhold drynke from the thirsty.

7 The weapons of the churlyshe are euyll, he deuiseth noysom deuises, that he may beguyle the poore with deceitefull woordes, yea euen there as he shoulde geue sentence with the poore.

8 But the liberall person imagineth honest thinges, and commeth vp for liberalitie vnto promotion.

9 Vp ye ryche and idle women, herken vnto my voyce, ye careles daughters marke my woordes.

10 Many

10 Many yeeres & dayes ſhall ye be brought in feare, O ye careleſſe women: for the vintage ſhall fayle, and the harueſt ſhall not come.

11 Be abaſhed, you that liue in abundance, tremble you that liue careleſſe, caſt of your rayment, make your ſelues bare, and put ſackcloth about you.

12 For as the infantes weepe when theyr mothers teates are dryed vp: ſo ſhall you weepe for your fayre feeldes and fruitefull vineyardes.

13 My peoples feelde ſhal bring thornes and thyſtels: and ſo ſhall it be in euery houſe of voluptuouſneſſe, and in euery citie that reioyceth.

14 The palaces alſo ſhalbe broken, and the greatly occupied cities deſolate: the towres and bulwarks ſhal become dennes for euermore, where wylde aſſes take their pleaſure, and ſheepe their paſture.

15 Vnto the time that the ſpirite be powred vpon vs from aboue, and that the wylderneſſe be a fruiteful feelde, and the plenteous feelde be reckoned for a wood.

*Eſai.29.17 16 *Then ſhal equitie dwell in the deſart, and righteouſneſſe in a fruitefull land.

17 And the woorke of righteouſneſſe ſhalbe peace, and her fruite reſt and quietneſſe for euer.

18 And my people ſhall dwell in the Innes of peace, and in ſure dwellinges, in ſafe places of comfort.

19 And when the hayle falleth, it ſhall fall in the wood, and the citie ſhalbe ſet lowe in the valley.

20 O howe happy ſhall ye be when ye ſhall ſafely ſowe your ſeede beſide al waters, and driue thyther the feete of your Oxen and Aſſes.

¶ The.xxxiii. Chapter.

Threatnynges againſt the Aſſyrians. 20. A deſtruction of them that ſhall ſee the Lorde.

1 WOE to thee that deſtroyeſt, when thou waſt not deſtroyed, thou breakeſt the league, whereas none hath broke it with thee: for when thou ſhalt leaue deſtroying, thou thee ſelfe ſhalt be deſtroyed: and when thou ceaſeſt from breaking the league, then ſhall they breake it to thee.

2 O Lorde, haue mercie vpon vs, we haue put our whole truſt in thee: be an arme to ſuch early, and our health in the time of trouble.

3 At that confuſe noyſe the people fled, and at thyne exalting, ỹ heathen were ſcattered.

4 And the ſpoyles ſhalbe geathered, whiche ſhalbe yours, as are the geathering of Buchus, and the multitude going to it ſhalbe as Locuſtes runnyng too and fro.

5 The Lord is exalted, for it is he that dwelleth on high, he hath fylled Sion with iudgement and righteouſneſſe.

6 And a ſure ſtablithing of the times, ſhalbe ſtrength, health, wyſedome, and knowledge: and the very feare of the Lord ſhalbe the treaſure of it.

7 Behold, the meſſengers ſhal crie without: and the ambaſſadours of peace ſhall weepe bytterly.

8 Their ſtreetes are waſte, there walketh no man therin: GOD hath broken the appoyntment, the cities are caſt awaye, and men are nothyng regarded.

9 The deſolate earth is in heauyneſſe, Libanus is ſhamed and hewē downe, Saron is lyke a wyldernes, Baſan and Charmel are ſpoyled of their fruites.

10 And therefore ſayth the Lorde, I wyl vp nowe, nowe wyl I be aduaunced, now wyl I be exalted.

11 Ye ſhal conceyue ſtubble, and beare ſtraw: and your ſpirite ſhalbe the fyre, that it may conſume you.

12 And the people ſhalbe burnt lyke lyme, and as thornes burnt that are hewē of, and caſt in the fyre.

13 Nowe hearken to, ye that are farre of, howe I haue doone, and conſyder my power, ye that are at hande.

14 The ſynners at Sion are afrayde, a ſodayne fearefulneſſe is come vpon the hypocrites: What is he among vs, ſay they, that ſhal dwel by the conſumyng fyre? Which of vs may abyde the euerlaſtyng heate?

15 *He that leadeth a godlye lyfe, and ſpeaketh the trueth, he that abhorreth gaines by violence and deceite, he that keepeth his hand that he touche no reward, which ſtoppeth his eares that he heare no counſell againſt the innocent blood, whiche holdeth downe his eyes that he ſee no euyl: *Pſal.14.2.

16 He it is that ſhall dwell on hygh, whoſe ſafegarde ſhalbe in a bulwarke of rockes: to hym ſhalbe geuen meate, and his waters ſhal not fayle.

17 Thyne eyes ſhall ſee the kyng in his glory, euen the king of the farre countreys ſhall they ſee.

18 Thyne hart ſtudied for feare, thinkyng thus: * What ſhall then become of the Scribe? of the receiuer of our money? what of him that taxed our fayreſt houſes? *1.Cor.1.19

19 There ſhalt thou not ſee a cruel people of a ſtrange tongue, to haue ſo defuſed a language that it may not be vnderſtanded, neither ſo ſtrange a ſpeach but it ſhalbe perceiued.

20 Looke vpon Sion, the head citie of our solemne feastes: thyne eyes shall see Hierusalem that glorious habitation, the tabernacle that neuer shal remoove, whose nayles shal neuer be taken out world without end, whose cordes euery one shall neuer corrupt.

21 For the glorious maiestie of the Lord shal there be present among vs, as a place where fayre brode riuers & streames are, through the whiche, shall neyther Galley rowe, nor great shyp sayle.

22 For the Lorde is our iudge, the Lorde is our lawe geuer, the Lorde is our kyng, and he hym selfe shalbe our sauiour.

23 Thy tacklyng is loosed, therefore it can not make fast the mast, nor spread the sayle: then there is dealed great spoyle, yea, lame men runne after the pray.

24 There lyeth no man that sayth, I am sicke: but al is taken away from the people that dwell there.

¶ The .xxxiiii. Chapter.

The last destruction of the synagogue, in vvhiche the kingdome and priesthood of the people vvas translated to the Churche and congregation of Christe.

1 COme ye Heathē, and heare, take heede you people: hearken thou earth, and al that is therein, thou rounde compasse, and al that dwelleth therupon.

2 For the Lorde is angrye with all people, and his displeasure is kyndeled agaynst all the multitude of them, he hath destroyed them, and deliuered them to the slaughter.

3 So that their slayne shalbe cast out, and their bodyes shall stynke, that euen the very hylles shalbe wet with the blood of them.

4 All the starres of heauen shall waste, and the heauens shal folde together as a roule, and all the starres thereof shall fall, lyke as the leaues fall from the vines and figge trees.

5 For my swoorde shalbe bathed in heauen, and shal immediatly come downe to iudgement vpon Idumea, and vppon the people whiche I haue cursed.

6 And the Lordes swoorde shalbe full of blood, and be rustie with the fatnesse and blood of Lambes and Goates, with the fatnesse of the kydneyes of weathers: For the Lorde shall kyll a great offeryng in Bozra, and a great slaughter in the lande of Idumea.

a God declareth his loue & care to preserue his Churche by his seuere punishing of the enemies to his Churche.

7 There shall the Unicornes fal with them, and the Bulles with the Giantes, and their lande shalbe throughly soked with blood, and their grounde corrupt with fatnesse.

8 For it is the a day of Gods vengeaunce, and the yeere of recompence for the reuenge of Sion.

9 And his floods shalbe turned to pitche, and his earth to brymstone, and therewith shall the lande be kyndeled.

10 So that it shall not be quenched day nor nyght, but smoke euermore, and so foorth lye waste: and no man shall goe through it for euer.

11 *But Pellicanes, Storkes, great Owles, and Rauens, shall haue it in possession, and dwell therein: for God shall spread out the lyne of desolation vpon it, and the stones of emptinesse. *Soph. 2.14

12 Her nobles shal cal, and there is no kingdome: and al her princes shalbe nothyng.

13 Thornes shal grow in their palaces, nettles and thistles in their strong holdes, that the Dragons may haue their pleasure therin, and that they may be a court for Estriches.

14 There shall straunge visures and monstercus beastes meete one another, and the wylde keepe companie together, there shal the Lamia lye and haue her lodgyng.

15 There shall the Owle make her neast, buylde, be there at home, and bryng foorth her young ones: there shall the Kites come together, eche one to his lyke.

16 Seeke through the booke of the Lorde, and reade it: there shal none of these things be left out, there shal not one nor suche lyke faile: for his mouth commaundeth, and that same doth his spirite geather together, or fulfyl.

17 He hath cast the lot for them, and to those beastes hath his hand diuided it by the line: therefore those shall possesse it for euer, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

¶ The .xxxv. Chapter.

Of the tyme and kingdome of Christe.

1 BUT a the desart and wyldernesse shal reioyce, the waste grounde shalbe glad, and flourishe as the Lilie.

a. The barren nature of mankynde to all goodnesse, shalbe made fruitefull by grace promised in Christ. Deut. 30 and. 31.

2 She shall flourish pleasantly, and be ioyful, and euer be geuing thankes more and more: For the glory of Libanus, the beautie of Charmel and Saron, shalbe geuen her: These shall knowe the honour of the Lord, and the maiestie of our God.

3 And therefore b strength the weake handes, and comfort the feeble knees.

b. God geueth strength of grace to the feeble consciences by preaching the word.

4 Say vnto them that are of a fearful hart, Be of good cheare, and feare not, beholde, your God commeth to take vengeaunce, and you shall see the reward that God geueth:

God

God commeth his owne ſelfe, and wyl deliuer you.

*Mat.15.30 5 *Then ſhal the eyes of the blynde be lyghtened, and the eares of the deafe opened.

6 Then ſhal the lame men leape as an Hart, and the dumbe mans tongue ſhall geue thankes: for in the wylderneſſe there ſhal welles ſpryng, and flooddes of water in the deſart.

7 The dry ground ſhal turne to riuers, and the thirſtie to ſprynges of water: whereas Dragõs dwelt afore, there ſhal grow ſweet flowres and greene rushes.

8 There ſhalbe foote pathes, and common ſtreetes, this ſhalbe called the holy way, no vncleane perſon ſhal goe through it, for the Lord hym ſelfe ſhal goe with them that way, and the wayfayrer nor ignorant ſhal not erre.

9 There ſhalbe no Lion, and no rauenyng beaſtes ſhall come therein, nor be there, but men redeemed ſhal goe there free and ſafe.

10 And the redeemed of the Lorde, I ſay, ſhal conuert, & come to Sion with thankeſgeuing: euerlaſting ioy ſhal they haue, pleaſure and gladneſſe ſhalbe among them, and as for al ſorowe and heauyneſſe, it ſhal vaniſhe.

¶ The.xxxvi. Chapter.

Hieruſalem is beſieged by Sennacherib, in the tyme of king Ezecias.

*4.kin.18.13 1 IN the fourteenth yeere of kyng Ezecias,
2.Chro.32.1 came Sennacherib kyng of the Aſſyrians downe, to laye ſiege vnto al the ſtrong cities of Juda, to conquer them.

2 And the kyng of the Aſſyrians ſent Rabſaceh from Lachis towarde Hieruſalem, agaynſt Ezecias, with an exceedyng hoſt, whiche ſet hym by the conduite of the ouer poole, in the way that goeth through the Fullers lande.

3 And ſo there came forth vnto hym Eliacim, Helcias ſonne, the cheſe ouer the houſeholde, Sobna the ſcribe, and Joah Aſaphs ſonne, the ſecretarie:

4 And Rabſaceh ſayde vnto them, Tel Ezecia that the great kyng ſayth thus vnto hym, What preſumption is this that thou truſteſt vnto?

5 I ſayde ſurely that thou truſteſt in vayne woordes, when counſayle and ſtrength are neceſſarie to battayle: but now wherto truſteſt thou, that thou rebelleſt agaynſt me?

6 Loe, thou putteſt thy truſt in a broke ſtaffe of reede, I meane Egypt, whiche he that leaneth vppon, it goeth into his hande, and ſhooteth it through: euen ſo is Pharao the kyng of Egypt, vnto al them that truſt in hym.

7 But yf thou wouldeſt ſay vnto me, We truſt in the Lorde our God: Is not he that GOD whoſe hygh places and aulters Ezecia tooke downe, and commaunded Juda and Hieruſalem to worſhip only before this aulter?

8 Nowe therefore deliuer hoſtages, that thou rebel no more againſt my lord the king of the Aſſyrians, and I wyl geue thee two thouſande horſes, yf thou be able to ſet men vpon them.

9 Howe dareſt thou reſyſt the power of the ſmalleſt prince that my Lorde hath? howe dareſt thou truſt in the charettes and horſemen of Egypt?

10 Moreouer, thynkeſt thou that I am come vp hyther to deſtroy this lande without the Lordes wyl? The Lorde ſayd vnto me, Goe vp agaynſt this lande, and deſtroy it.

11 Then ſayde Eliacim, Sobna, and Joah, vnto Rabſaceh, Speake to vs thy ſeruants, we pray thee, in the Syrians language, for we vnderſtande it wel, and ſpeake not to vs in the Jewes tongue, leſt the folke heare whiche lyeth vpon the wal.

12 Then aunſweared Rabſaceh, Hath my maiſter ſent me to ſpeake this onely to thy maiſter & thee? hath he not ſent me to them alſo that lye vppon the wal? that they may be compelled to eate their owne doung, and drynke their owne ſtale with you?

13 And Rabſaceh ſtoode ſtyffe, & cryed with a loude voyce in the Jewes tongue, & ſayde, Nowe take heede howe the great kyng of the Aſſyrians geueth you warnyng.

14 Thus ſayth the kyng, Let not Ezecia deceiue you, for he ſhal not be able to deliuer you.

15 Moreouer, let not Ezecia comfort you in the Lorde, when he ſaith, The Lorde without doubt ſhal defende vs, and ſhal not geue ouer this citie into the handes of the kyng of the Aſſyrians.

16 Hearken not to Ezecia, for thus ſayth the king of Aſſyria, Obteine my fauour, encline to me, ſo may euery man enioy his vineyardes and fygge trees, and drynke the water of his ceſterne:

17 Vnto the tyme that I come me ſelfe, and bryng you into a lande that is lyke your owne, wherein is wheate and wyne, which is both ſowen with ſeede, and planted with vineyardes.

18 Let not Ezecia deceiue you, when he ſayth vnto you, The Lorde ſhal deliuer vs: myght the God of the Gentiles keepe euery mans lande from the power of the kyng of the Assyrians?

of

19 Where is the god of Hemath and Arphad? where is the god of Sepharuaim? and who is able to defende Samaria out of my hand?
20 Or which of all the gods of these landes hath deliuered their countrey out of my power? Is the Lorde in deede able to deliuer Hierusalem from my hand?
21 Unto this Ezecias messengers held their tongues, and answeared not one woord: for the king had charged them that they should geue him no answeare.
22 So came Eliacim Helcias sonne the cheefe ouer the houshold, Sobna the scribe, and Joah Asaphs sonne the secretarie, vnto Ezecia with rent clothes, and tolde him the woordes of Rabsacch.

¶ The. xxxvii. Chapter.

1. Ezecia humbleth him selfe before the Lord. 35. The armie of Sennacherib is slayne of the angel of the lord, 38. And he him selfe his killed of his owne sonnes.

1 When Ezecia heard that, he rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth, and went into the temple of the Lorde.
2 But he sent Eliacim the cheefe ouer the houshold, and Sobna the Scribe, with the eldest priestes, clothed in sacke, vnto the prophete Esai the sonne of Amos.
3 And they sayd vnto him, Thus sayth Ezecia, This is the day of trouble, of plague, and of blasphemie: for ỹ children are come to the place of birth, but there is no power to bring them foorth.
4 The Lord thy God no doubt hath well consydered the woordes of Rabsacch, whom his Lorde king of the Assyrians hath sent to defie and blaspheme the liuing God, with such woordes as the Lorde thy God hath heard right well: and therefore lyft vp thy prayer for the remnant that yet are left.
5 So the seruantes of the king Ezecia came to Esai.
6 And Esai gaue them this answeare, Say thus vnto your lorde, Thus sayth the Lord, Be not afraide of the woordes that thou hast heard, wherewith the king of the Assyrians seruantes haue blasphemed me.
7 Beholde, I wyl rayse vp a winde agaynst hym, and he shall heare a rumour, and he shall goe agayne into his countrey, there wyll I destroy him with the swoord in his owne land.
8 Now when Rabsacch returned, he found the king of Assyria laying siege to Libnas: for he had vnderstandyng that he was departed from Lachis.
4.Re.19.9 9 *And there came a rumor that Tharacah kyng of Ethiopia was come forth to warre agaynst him: and when the kyng of Assyria heard that, he sent other messengers to king Ezecia with this commaundement.
10 Say thus to Ezecia king of Juda, Let not thy God deceiue thee, in whom thou hopest, and sayest, Hierusalem shall not be geuen into the handes of the king of Assyria.
11 For Loe, thou knowest well howe the kinges of Assyria haue handled al the lands that they haue subuerted: and hopest thou to escape?
12 Were the people of the Gentiles, whom my progenitours conquered, deliuered at any time through their goddes? As namely, Gosan, Haran, Rezeph, and the chyldren of Eden, which were at Thalassar?
13 Where is the king of Hemath, and the kyng of Arphad, and the king of the citie Sepharuaim, Eua, and Ana?
14 Nowe when Ezecia had receiued the letter of the messengers, and read it, he went vp into the house of the Lorde, and opened the letter before the Lorde.
15 And Ezecia prayed vnto the Lorde in this maner.
16 O Lorde of hostes, thou God of Israel, whiche dwellest vpon Cherubim, thou art the God that only is God of all the kyngdomes of the worlde, for thou only hast created heauen and earth, 17 Encline thyne eare Lorde, and consyder, open thyne eyes Lorde, and see, and ponder all the woordes of Sennacherib, which hath sent his embassage to blaspheme the liuyng God.
18 It is true, O Lord, that the kinges of Assyria haue conquered all kingdomes and landes, 19 And cast their gods in the fyre: for those were no goddes, but the woorkes of mens handes, of wood, or stone, therefore haue they destroyed them.
20 Nowe therefore deliuer vs, O Lord our God, from the hands of Sennacherib, that all the kingdomes of the earth may knowe that thou only art the Lorde.
21 Then Esai the sonne of Amos sent vnto Ezecia, saying, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Whereas thou hast made thy prayer vnto me as touching Sennacherib the kyng of Assyria, 22 This is the answeare that the Lord hath geuen concernyng him: Despised art thou and mocked, O daughter Sion, he hath shaken his head at thee, O daughter of Hierusalem, 23 But thou Sennacherib, whom hast thou defyed and blasphemed? Agaynst whom hast haſt thou lifted vp thy voyce, and exalted proude lookes? euen againſt the holy one of Iſrael.

24 Thou with thy ſeruantes haſt blaſphemed the Lord, and thus holdeſt thou of thee ſelfe: I wyll couer the high mountaynes and ſydes of Libanus with my horſemen, and there wyll I cut downe the high Cedar trees, and the fayreſt Fyrre treest I wil vp into the height of it, and into the cheefeſt of his tymber woodes.

25 Yf there be no water, I wyll graue and drynke: and as for waters of defence, I wil dry them vp with the feete of myne hoſt.

26 Yea, haſt thou not heard what I haue taken in hand, and brought to paſſe of olde time? That ſame wyl I doo nowe alſo, and waſte, deſtroy, and bring ſtrong cities vnto heapes of ſtones.

27 For their inhabiters ſhalbe like lame men brought in feare and confounded: they ſhalbe like graſſe and greene hearbes in the feelde, like haye vpon the houſe toppes, that wythereth before it be growen vp.

28 I knowe thy wayes, thy going forth, and thy comming home, yea and thy madneſſe againſt me.

29 Therefore thy furiouſneſſe againſt me, and thy pryde is come before me, I wyll put my ryng in thy noſe, and my bridle bit in the chawes of thee, and turne thee about, euen the ſame way that thou cameſt.

30 I wyl geue thee alſo this token, O Ezekia, this yeere ſhalt thou eate ſuche as groweth of it ſelfe, and the ſeconde yeere that whiche ſpringeth agayne of the ſame, and in the thirde yeere ye ſhall ſowe and reape, yea ye ſhall plant vineyards, and enioy the fruites thereof.

31 And ſuch of the houſe of Juda as are eſcaped, ſhall come togeather, and the remnant ſhall take roote beneath, and bring forth fruite aboue.

32 For the eſcaped ſhall goe out of Hieruſalem, and the remnant from the mount Sion: and this ſhall the zeale of the Lorde of hoſtes bring to paſſe.

33 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, concernyng the king of the Aſſyrians, He ſhall not come into this citie, and ſhall ſhoote no arrowe into it, there ſhall no ſhielde hurt it, neyther ſhall they caſt diches about it.

34 The ſame way he came he ſhall returne, and not come into this citie, ſayth the lorde.

35 And I wyl keepe and ſaue this citie, ſaith he, for myne owne, and for my ſeruant Dauids ſake.

Reg. 19. 36 *Thus the angel of the Lord went forth, and ſlue of the Syrians hoſt, an hundred 48. 24 foure ſcore and fyue thouſande: and when men aroſe vp early in the morning, beholde they were ſlaine, & al lay ful of dead bodies.

37 So Semacherib the kyng of the Aſſyrians brake vp, and dwelt at Ninue.

38 Afterwarde it chaunced as he prayed in the temple of Neſroch his god, that Adramalech and Sarazer his owne ſonnes ſlue him with the ſwoord, and fled into the land of Armenia: and Aſarhaddon his ſonne raigned in his ſteede.

¶ The. xxxviii. Chapter.

1. Ezecia is ſicke vnto death, 5. but is yet reuiued by the Lorde, and liueth fifteene yeeres after. 10. For vvhich benefite he geueth thankes.

1 ABout this time was *Ezecia ſicke vnto death, and the prophete Eſai the ſonne of Amos came vnto him, and ſaide, Thus commaundeth the Lord, Set thyne houſe in order, for thou muſt dye, and ſhalt not eſcape. *2. Re. 20. 1. 2. Pa. 32. 24.

2 Then Ezecia turned his face toward the wall, and prayed vnto the Lorde:

3 And ſayde, Remember, O Lorde, I beſeeche thee, that I haue walked before thee in trueth and a ſtedfaſt hart, and haue done the thing that is pleaſant to thee. And Ezecia wept ſore.

4 Then ſaide God vnto Eſai,

5 Goe, and ſpeake vnto Ezecia, The Lord God of Dauid thy father ſendeth thee this woord, I haue heard thy prayer, and conſydered thy teares: beholde, I wyll put fyfteene yeeres moe vnto thy lyfe,

6 And deliuer thee and thy citie alſo from the hand of the king of Aſſyria: for I wyll defend the citie.

7 And take thee this token of the Lord, that he wyll doo it as he hath ſpoken.

8 Behold, I wyl returne the ſhadowe of Ahaz dyall that nowe is layde out with the Sunne, & bring it ten degrees backward. So the Sunne turned tenne degrees backward, the which he was deſſended afore.

9. A thankes geuing vvhiche Ezecia king of Iuda vvrote, vvhen he had been ſicke, and vvas recouered.

10 I thought I ſhoulde haue gone to the gates of hel, when myne age was ſhortned, and haue wanted the reſidue of my yeeres.

11 I ſpake within mee ſelfe, I wyll neuer viſite the Lorde, the Lorde I ſay, in this life: I wyll neuer ſee man among the dwellers of the world.

12 Myne age is folden togeather, and taken away from me lyke a ſhepheardes cottage, I haue hewē of my life by my ſinnes, like as as a Weauer cutteth of his webbe: he wyl with pynyng sycknesse make an ende of me, yea he wyl make an ende of me in one day.

13 I thought I would haue lyued vntyl the morowe, but he hurled my bones lyke a Lion: and in one day thou wylt make an ende of me.

14 Then chattered I like a Swalowe, and lyke a Crane, and mourned lyke a Doue, I lyft vp myne eyes vnto the height: O Lorde sayde I, my sycknesse keepeth me downe, ease thou me.

15 What shal I say? The Lord hath made a promyse to me, yea and he hym selfe hath performed it: I wyl therefore so long as I lyue, remember this bytternes of my life.

16 O Lorde, to all those that shal lyue hereafter, yea to al men shall it be knowen, that euen in those yeres I haue a ioyful life, and that it was thou that causedst me to sleepe, agayne, thou hast geuen lyfe to me.

17 Beholde, bytter as gal was my penfyuenesse, so sore longed I for health, and it was thy pleasure to delyuer my lyfe from the fylthie pyt: for thou it is, O Lord, that hast cast al my synnes behynde thy backe.

18 For hel praiseth not thee, death doeth not magnifie thee: they that go downe into the graue prayse not thy trueth:

19 But the lyuyng, yea the lyuyng knowledge thee, as I doo this day: the father telleth his chyldren of thy faythfulnesse.

20 To heale me it is the Lordes woorke, and we wil syng my songues in the house of the Lorde al the dayes of our lyfe.

21 And Esai sayd, Take a plaster of fygges, and lay it vpon the sore, so shal it be whole.

22 Then sayde Ezecia, O what a miracle is this, that I shall goe vp into the house of the Lorde.

¶ The.xxxix.Chapter.

Ezecia is reproued of Esai, because he shewed his treasure vnto the Embassadours of Babylon.

4.Ki.20.12 1 AT the same tyme * Merodach Baladans sonne, kyng of Babylon, sent letters & presents to Ezecia: for he vnderstoode that he had been sycke, and was recouered agayne.

2 And Ezecia was glad therof, and shewed them the house of his treasures, of syluer and golde, of spyces, and rootes, of pretious oyles, and al that was in cubbordes and treasure houses: there was not one thyng in Ezeckias house, and so throughout al his kyngdome, but he let them see it.

3 Then came Esai the prophet to kyng Ezecia, and sayde vnto hym, What haue the men sayde, & from whence came they vnto thee? Ezecia answered, They came out of a farre countrey vnto me, out of Babylon.

4 Esai sayde, What haue they looked vpon in thy house? Ezecia answeared, Al that is in my house haue they seene, and there is nothyng in my treasure but I shewed it them.

5 Then said Esai vnto Ezecia, Understand the woorde of the Lorde of hostes:

6 Beholde, the tyme wyll come, that euery thyng whiche is in thyne house, and al that thy progenitours haue layde vp in store vntyl this day, shalbe carried to Babylon, and nothyng left behynde, thus sayth the Lord.

7 Yea & a part of thy sonnes that shall come of thee, and whom thou shalt beget, shalbe carried hence, and become gelded chamberlaynes in the kyng of Babylons court.

8 Then sayde Ezecia to Esai, Good is the woorde of God whiche thou hast tolde me. He sayde moreouer, For there shalbe peace and faythfulnesse in my tyme.

¶ The.xl Chapter.

1. The commyng of Saint Iohn Baptist. 9. The preparation of the Apostles. 11. The callyng of the Gentiles.

The Epistle on saint Iohn Baptistes day.

1 COmfort my people, O ye Prophetes, comfort my people, sayth your God.

2 Comfort Hierusalem at the harte, and tell her that her trauayle is at an ende, that her offence is pardoned, that she hath receyued at the Lordes hande sufficient correction for al her synnes.

3 * A voyce cryeth in wyldernesse: Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight the path of our God in the desart. *Math.3.3. Mark.1.3. Luk.3.4. John.1.23.

4 Al valleys shalbe exalted, and euery mountayne and hyll layde lowe: what so is crooked shalbe made strayght, and the rough shalbe made playne.

5 For the glory of the Lord shall appeare, for all flesh shall at once see that the mouth of the Lorde hath spoken it.

6 * The same voyce spake, Nowe crye. And the prophete answeared, What shal I crye? That al flesh is grasse, and that al the goodlynesse therof is as the floure of the feelde. *Eccle.4.18. Iames.1.11. 1.Pet.1.24.

7 The grasse is wythered, the floure falleth away, for the breath of the Lorde bloweth vpon them: of a truth ỳ people are grasse.

8 The grasse wythereth, and the floure fadeth away: * yet the woord of our God endureth for euer. *Ioh.12.34.

9 Goe vp vnto the hygh hyl, O Sion, thou that bryngest good tydynges, lyft vp thy voyce with power, O thou preacher Hierusalem, lyft it vp without feare, and say vnto the cities of Iuda, Beholde your God.

10 Beholde, the Lorde God shal come with power, and ſhal of him ſelfe beare rule with his arme: beholde his rewarde with hym, and his woorkes before hym.

*Eze.34.23. Iohn.10.11. 11 *He ſhall feede his flocke lyke an heardman, he ſhall geather the lambes togeather with his arme, and carrie them in his boſome, and ſhall kyndely entreate thoſe that beare young.

12 Who hath meaſured the waters in his fyſt? who hath meaſured heauen with his ſpan, and hath comprehended all the earth of the worlde in three meaſures? who hath weyghed the mountaynes and hylles in a ballance?

*Wiſd.9.13. Rom.11.34. 1.Cor.2.6. 13 *Who hath directed the ſpirite of the Lord? or who gaue hym counſel, and ſhewed hym?

14 Who is of his counſell, and geueth hym vnderſtanding, & hath taught hym the path of iudgement? who taught hym cunnyng, & opened to hym the way of vnderſtandyng?

15 Beholde, al people are in compariſon of him as a drop of a bucket ful, and are compted as the leaſt thing that ỹ ballance weigheth: yea and the Iſles he taketh vp as a very litle thyng.

16 Libanus is not ſufficent to miniſter fyre to his offeryng, and all the beaſtes thereof are not yenough for one ſacrifice.

17 All people in compariſon of hym are reckoned as nothyng: yt they be cõpared with him, leſſe then nothyng, & as it that is not.

*Act.17.29. 18 *To whom then wyll ye lyken God, or what ſimilitude wyl ye ſet vp to hym?

19 Shal the Caruer make hym a carued image? and ſhal the Goldſmyth couer him with gold, or caſt hym into a fourme of ſyluer plates?

20 Moreouer, ſhall the image maker, that the poore man which is diſpoſed, may haue ſomethyng to ſet vp alſo, ſeeke out, & chooſe a tree that is not rotten, & carue therout an image that moueth not?

21 Knowe ye nothing? heard ye neuer of it? hath it not been preached vnto you ſince the begynnyng? haue ye not been enfourmed of this by the fundation of the earth?

22 It is he that ſitteth vpon the circle of the world, whoſe inhabiters are in compariſon of hym but as Graſhoppers: he ſpreadeth out the heauens as a coueryng, he ſtretcheth them out as a tent to dwel in.

23 He bryngeth princes to nothyng, and the iudges of ỹ earth as though they were not.

24 So that of them it may be ſayde, They be not planted nor ſowen agayne, neyther their ſtocke rooted againe in the earth: for as ſoone as he bloweth vppon them, they wither and fade away lyke the ſtrawe in a whyrlewynde.

25 To whom nowe wyll ye lyken me, and whom ſhal I be lyke, ſayth the holy one?

26 Lyft vp your eyes on hygh, and conſyder who hath made thoſe thinges whiche come out by ſo great heapes, and he calleth them al by their names: there is nothyng hydde from the greatneſſe of his power, ſtrength, and myght.

27 Howe may then Jacob thynke? or may Iſrael ſay, My wayes are hydde from the Lorde, & my God knoweth not of my iudgementes.

28 Knoweſt thou not, or haſt thou not heard that the euerlaſtyng God, the Lorde whiche made all the corners of the earth, is neyther weerie nor faynte? and that his wyſedome can not be comprehended?

29 It is he that geueth ſtrength vnto the weery, and power vnto the faynt.

30 Chyldren are weery and faynt, and the ſtrong men fal:

31 But vnto them that haue their truſt in the Lord, ſhal ſtrength be encreaſed: Egles wynges ſhall growe vpon them, when they runne they ſhal not fal, and when they goe they ſhal not be weerie.

¶ The.xli.Chapter.

Of the goodneſſe and mercy of God towarde the people.

1 BE ſtyl you a Iſlandes, and hearken vnto me: let the people laye their ſtrength together, let them come hyther, and thẽ ſhewe their cauſe: we wyll goe to the lawe togeather.

2 Who rayſed vp the b iuſt man from the Eaſt, and called hym to goe footh? who caſt downe the people, & ſubdued the kinges before hym? that he may throwe them al to the grounde with his ſwoorde, and ſcatter them lyke ſtubble with his bowe.

3 He followeth vpon them, and goeth ſafely hym ſelfe, and that in a way where before his foote had not troden.

4 Who hath made & created theſe thynges? euẽ he that called the generations from the begynnyng, * euen I the Lorde whiche am the fyrſt, and with the laſt.

5 The Iſles ſawe and did feare, & the endes of the earth were abaſhed, drewe nygh, and came thyther.

6 Euery man helped his neighbour, & ſayde to his brother, Be ſtrong.

7 The Carpenter cõforted the Goldſmyth, and the Goldſmyth ỹ Hammerman, ſaying, Solder wyl do very wel in it: and they faſtened it with their nayles, that it ſhoulde not be mooued.

8 But thou Iſrael art my ſeruant, thou Jacob whom I haue choſen, thou art the ſeede of Abraham my beloued.

a. By the Iſlandes, god meaneth the Gentiles, whom he reprocheth for their idolatry.

b. By the iuſt man, is meant Abraham, who beyng called out of Vr of the Chaldeans, who beyng iuſtified by fayth, became the father of many nations, whom god alway defended agaynſt all his enimies.

Apoc.1.17.

9 Thou

9 Thou art he whom I led from the endes of the earth: for I called thee euen from among the glorious men of it, and sayde vnto thee, Thou art my seruant, I haue chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 Be not afrayde, for I am with thee: Melt not away as waxe, for I am thy GOD, to strength thee, helpe thee, and keepe thee with the right hande of my ryghteousnesse.

11 Beholde, al they that resist thee shal come to confusion and shame, and thine aduersaries shalbe destroyed & brought to nought.

12 So that who so seeketh after them, shall not finde them, thy destroyers shal perisher: and so shal they that vndertake to make battel agaynst thee, be as that is not, and as a thyng of nought.

13 For I the Lord thy God wyl strengthen thy right hande, euen I that say vnto thee, Feare not, I wyl helpe thee.

14 Be not afrayde, thou litle worme Iacob, and thou despised Israel: for I wyl helpe thee, sayth the Lorde, and the holy one of Israel thy redeemer.

15 Beholde, I wyl make thee a treadyng carte, and a newe flayle, that thou mayest thresshe and grinde the mountaynes, and bryng the hylles to powder.

16 Thou shalt fanne them, and the winde shal carry them away, & the whirle winde shal scatter them: but thou shalt reioyce in the Lorde, and shalt delight in the holy one of Israel.

17 When the thyrstie and poore seeke water and finde none, and when theyr tongue is drye of thirst, I geue it them, sayth ỹ Lord, I the God of Israel forsake them not.

18 I bryng foorth flooddes in the hylles, and welles in the plaine feeldes: I turne the wyldernesse to ryuers, and the drye lande to conduites of water.

19 I plant in the waste grounde trees of Cedar, Boxe, Myrre, and Oliues, and in the drie I set Firre trees, Elmes, & Hawthornes togeather.

20 Al this doo I, that they altogeather may see and marke, perceyue with theyr hartes, and consyder that the hande of the Lorde maketh these thynges, and that the holy one of Israel bryngeth them to passe.

21 Stande at your cause sayth the Lorde, and bryng foorth your strongest grounde, sayth the kyng of Iacob.

22 Let them bryng foorth theyr gods, and let theyr gods tel vs what shal chaunce hereafter, yea let them shewe vs the thinges that are past what they be, let them declare them vnto vs, that we may take them to hart, and knowe them hereafter.

23 Eyther shewe vs thynges for to come, and tel vs what shalbe done hereafter, so shal we knowe that ye are goddes: doo some thyng eyther good or bad, so wyl we both knowledge the same, and tel it out.

24 Beholde, ye are goddes of nought, and your makyng is of nought: yea abominable is the man that hath chosen you.

25 Neuertheless, I haue waked vp one from the north, and he shal come from the east, he shal cal vpon my name, and shal treade vpon princes as vpon claye, and as the potter treadeth downe the myre. Cyrus.

26 Who declareth this from the beginning, and we wyl knowe hym: or from the olde tymes, and we wyl confesse and say that he is ryghteous? but there is none that sheweth or declareth any thyng, there is none also that heareth your woordes.

27 The first is he that shal say to Sion, Behold, behold they are present: and to Hierusalem it selfe wyl I geue an euangelist.

28 But when I consyder there is not a man among them, nor any that can geue counsel, nor that when I examine them that can answeare one woorde.

29 Loe wicked are they, & vayne, with the thinges also that they take in hande, yea their images are but wind & vaine things.

¶ The.xlii. Chapter.

The commyng of Christe.

1 BEhold, this is my seruant vpon whom I leane, *my elect in whom my soule is pacified, I haue geuen my spirite vpon hym, that he may shewe foorth iudgement among the Gentiles. *Mat.12.18.

2 He shal not be an outcryer, nor lyft vp his voyce, his voyce shal not be hearde in the streetes.

3 And a bruysed reede shal he not breake, and the smoking flare shal he not quenche: but faythfully & truely shal he geue iudgement.

4 He shal not be pensiue nor careful, that he may restore ryghteousnesse vnto the earth: & the gentiles also shal looke for his lawes.

5 For thus sayth God the Lorde vnto him, euen he that made the heauens and spread them abrode, and set foorth the earth with her encrease, which geueth breath vnto the people that is in it, and spirite to them that dwel therein.

6 I the Lorde haue called thee in righteousnesse, and wyl holde thee by the hande, and wyl also defende thee, *and geue thee for a couenant of the people, to be the light of the gentiles. *Esai.49.6.

7 That thou mayest open the eyes of the blinde, let out the prysoners from theyr bondes, and them that sit in darkenesse out of the dungeon house.

8 Euen I am the Lorde, & this is my name:
*Eſai.48.11 * and my glory wyl I geue to none other, neither mine honour to grauen images.
9 Beholde, olde thynges are come to paſſe, and newe thynges doo I declare, and or euer they come I tel you of them.
10 Syng vnto the Lorde a newe ſong of thankeſgeuyng, blowe out his prayſe from the ende of the worlde: they that be vppon the ſea, and al that is therein prayſe hym, the Iſles and they that dwel in them.
11 Let the wylderneſſe with the cities lyft vp her voyce, the townes alſo that they of Cedar dwel in: let them be glad that ſit vpon rockes of ſtone, and let them crye downe from the hygh mountaynes, 12 Aſcribing glory vnto the Lord, and magnifiyng him among the Gentiles.
13 The Lorde ſhal come forth lyke a Giant, & take a ſtomacke to hym like a freſhe man of warre: he ſhal roare and crye, and ouercome his enimies.
14 I haue long holden my peace ſayth the Lorde, a I haue ben ſtyl and refrayned mee ſelfe, but nowe I wyl crye lyke a trauaylyng woman, and at once wyl I deſtroy and deuoure.
15 I wyl make waſte both mountayne and hyl, and drie vp euery greene thyng that groweth thereon: I wyl drie vp ỹ flooddes to become Ilandes, & drinke vp the ryuers.
16 I wyl bring the blinde into a ſtreete that they know not, and leade them into a footepath that they are ignorant in: I ſhal make darkeneſſe light before them, and the thyng that is crooked to be ſtraight: Theſe thinges haue I doone vnto them, and not forſaken them.
17 They are fallen backe, yea and let them be aſhamed earneſtly that hope in idols, and ſay to the moulten images, Ye are our goddes.
18 Heare O ye deafe men, and ſharpen your eyes to ſee, O ye blynde.
19 Who is blynde but my ſeruant? or ſo deafe as b my meſſenger, whom I ſent vnto them? for who is ſo blinde as the perfect man, and ſo blinde as the Lordes ſeruant?
20 Thou haſt ſeene muche, and keepeſt nothing: the eares are open, & no man heareth.
21 The Lorde is merciful vnto them for his righteouſneſſe ſake, that his woorde might be magnified and prayſed:
22 c But the people them ſelues is robbed and troden vnder the foote, chayned in dungeons, and they al, I ſay, are ſhut into priſon houſes: they be carryed away captiue, and no man doeth looſe them: they be troden vnder foote, and no man doeth labour to bring them agayne.
23 But who is he among you that pondereth this, that conſydereth it, and taketh it for a warning in time to come?
24 Who gaue Jacob to be troden vnder foote, and Iſrael to be ſpoyled? Did not the Lorde? Becauſe we haue ſinned againſt him, & haue had no delight to walke in his wayes, neither ben obedient vnto his lawe:
25 Therefore he hath powred vpon him his wrathful diſpleaſure and ſtrong battel, and hath fyred him on euery ſide, yet wyl he not vnderſtande: he burneth him vp, yet ſinketh it not into his hart.

a. Chriſt for a tyme deferreth as it were with payne, to delyuer his elect from the tyrannie of antichriſte, but at the tyme appoynted he wyl enforce hym ſelfe, as a woman in her trauayle, to deliuer his people.

b. By the ſeruant, meſſenger, and the perfect man, he meaneth the Iewes and their prieſtes, who ought of all other people to haue had knowledge, and ſo haue ſerued God perfectly.

c. A greeuous ſentence againſt thoſe that wyl not beholde the light when it ſhineth, nor beleeue Gods woorde when it is preached.

¶ The.xliii.Chapter.

1. God promiſeth to ſende his Chriſte vvhich ſhall delyuer his people. 7. He forgeueth ſinnes for his ovvne ſake.

1 BVt nowe the Lorde that made thee, O Jacob, and he that faſhioned thee, O Iſrael, ſayth thus, Feare not, for I haue redeemed thee, I haue called thee by thy name, thou art mine owne.
2 If thou goeſt through the water, I wyll be with thee, the ſtrong flooddes ſhal not ouerwhelme thee: and if thou walkeſt through the fyre, it ſhal not burne thee, and the flame ſhal not kindle vpon thee:
3 For I am the Lorde thy God, the holy one of Iſrael thy ſauiour: I gaue Egypt for thy deliuerance, the Ethiopians and the Sabees for thee:
4 Becauſe thou waſt deare in my ſight, and becauſe I ſet by thee and loued thee: I wyl geue ouer al men for thee, and deliuer vp al people for thy ſake.
5 Feare not, for I am with thee, I wyl bring thy ſeede from the eaſt, and gather thee togeather from the weſt.
6 I wyl ſay to the north, Let goe: and to the ſouth, Keepe not backe: but bring me my ſonnes from farre, and my daughters from the endes of the worlde,
7 Namely all thoſe that be called after my name: For them haue I created, faſhioned, and made for mine honour.
8 Bring forth that people which is blinde and yet hath eyes, whiche are deafe although they haue eares.
9 If al nations come in one, and be geathered togeather, which among them ſhal declare ſuch thinges, and tel vs the thynges that are paſt: let them bring their witneſſe, ſo that they be iuſt: els let them heare, and ſay, It is trueth.
10 You are my witneſſes, ſayth the Lorde, and my ſeruaunt whom I haue choſen: therefore be certified, and geue me faythful credence, and conſyder that I am he before whom there was neuer any God, neyther ſhalbe any after me.

Dte.13.4. 11 *I am, euen I am the onely Lord, and beside me there is no sauiour.

12 I gaue warning, I made whole, I taught you when there was no strange god among you: and this record must ye beare me your selues, sayth the Lord, that I am God.

13 And euen he am I who was from the beginning, and there is none that can take any thyng out of my hande: I doo the worke, and who shalbe able to let it?

14 Thus sayth the Lord the holy one of Israel your redeemer, For your sake I haue sent to Babylon, and brought it downe: al they are fugitiue with the Chaldees, whose sorowful crye is in their Shyppes.

15 I am the Lord your holy one, which haue made Israel, & am your kyng.

16 Thus sayth the Lorde, euen he that maketh a way in the sea, and a footepath in the myghty waters.

17 It is he which bryngeth foorth the charrets and horses, the host & power of warre, that they may fal togeather, and neuer ryse, and be extinct, lyke as towe are they quenched.

18 Remember not thynges of olde, and regarde nothyng that is past.

*2.Cor.5.17 Esaia. 21.5 b Christ is the way, the worlde the desart, the doctrine of the Gospel, the waters, the wylde beastes, the cruel and superstitious maheuers.

19 *Behold, I shal make a newe thyng, and shortly shal it appeare, and shall you not knowe it? I wyl make a a way in the desart, and ryuers of water in the wyldernes.

20 The wylde beastes shal worshyp me, the Dragons and the young Estriches: for I shall geue water in the wylderneſſe, and streames in the desart, that they may geue drynke to my people whom I chose.

21 This people haue I made for me selfe, and they shal shewe foorth my prayse.

22 For thou Jacob wouldest not call vpon me, but thou haddest an vnlust toward me, O Israel.

23 Thou gauest me not thy beasts for burnt offerynges, neyther dyddest honour me with sacrifices: I haue not been chargeable vnto thee in offerynges, neyther greeuous in incense.

24 Thou boughtest me no deare spyce with thy money, neyther powredst the fat of thy sacrifices vpon me: but thou hast laden me with thy synnes, and weeryed me with thy vngodlynesse.

25 Whereas I yet, euen I am he onely that for myne owne selues sake doo away thyne offences, and forget thy synnes, so that I wyl neuer thynke vpon them.

26 Put me nowe in remembraunce, for we wyll reason togeather: and shewe what thou hast for thee to make thee ryghteous.

27 Thy fyrst father offended sore, and thy rulers haue synned agaynst me:

28 Therefore I * prophaned the princes of the sanctuarie, I dyd curse Jacob, & gaue Israel into reproofe.

* Or, slue.

¶ The.xliii.Chapter.

Christe promiseth to delyuer his Churche vvithout any her desertes.

1 SO *heare nowe, O Jacob my seruaunt, and Israel whom I haue chosen. *Jere.30.10

2 For thus sayth the Lorde that made thee, fashioned thee, and helped thee euen from thy mothers wombe: Be not afrayd, O Jacob my seruaunt, thou ryghteous whom I haue chosen.

3 * For I shall powre water vpon the drye ground, and ryuers vpon the thyrstie: I shal powre my spirite vpon thy seede, and my blessyng vpon thy stocke: *Joel.2.28. Actes.2.17. John.7.38.

4 They shal grow together lyke as ỹ grasse, and as the wyllowes by the waters syde.

5 One shall say, I am the Lordes: another shal call hym selfe after the name of Jacob: the thyrd shal subscribe with his hand vnto the Lord, and geue hym selfe vnder the name of Israel.

6 Thus hath the Lord spoken, euen the king of Israel, and his redeemer the Lorde of hostes: * I am the fyrst and the last, and besydes me there is no God. Esai.41.4. Apoc.1.17.

7 Yf any be lyke me, let him call foorth the thyng past, and openlye shewe it, and laye it playne before me what hath chaunced since I appoynted the people of the worlde, and what shalbe shortly, or what shal come to passe in tyme to come let them shewe these thynges. Esai.48.12

8 Be not abashed nor afrayde: for haue not I euer tolde you hitherto, and warned you? ye can beare me record your selues: is there any God except me, or any maker, that I shoulde not knowe hym?

9 Al Caruers of images are but vayne, and the carued image that they loue can doo no good: they must beare recorde them selues, that seeyng they can neyther see nor vnderstande, they shalbe confounded.

10 Who dare then make a god, or fashion an image that is profytable for nothyng?

11 Behold, al the felowshyp of them must be brought to confusion, & truely al the woorkmaisters of them are men: they shall all be geathered togeather, they shal stande, tremble, and be confounded one with another.

12 *The Smyth maketh an Axe, and tempereth it with whot coales, and fashioneth it with hambers, & woorketh it with al the strength of his armes, yea sometyme he is faint for very hunger, and so thyrstie that he hath no more power. *Wisd.13.11. Jere.10.3.

13 The Carpenter or image Caruer taketh measure of the tymber, & spreadeth foorth his line, he marketh it with ſome colour, he plaineth it, he ruleth it, and ſquareth it, and maketh it after the image of a man, and accordyng to the beautie of a man, that it may ſtande in the houſe.

14 Moreouer, he goeth out to hewe Cedar trees, he bryngeth home Elmes and Okes, and takyng a bolde courage, he ſeeketh out the beſt tymber of the wood: he hym ſelfe hath planted a Pine tree, whiche the rayne hath ſwelled.

15 Whiche wood ſerueth for men to burne: Of this he taketh and warmeth hym ſelfe withal, he maketh a fyre of it to bake bread, and maketh alſo a god thereof to honour it, and a grauen image to kneele before it.

16 One peece he burneth in the fyre, with an other he rofteth fleſhe, that he maye eate roſt his belly ful: with the thyrde he warmeth hym ſelfe, and ſayth, Aha, I am well warmed, I haue been at the fyre.

17 And of the reſidue he maketh hym a god, and a grauen image for hym ſelfe: he kneeleth before it, he worſhyppeth it, he prayeth vnto it, and ſayth, Delyuer me, for thou art my God.

18 Yet men neyther conſyder nor vnderſtande, becauſe their eyes be ſtopped that they can not ſee, and their hartes that they can not perceyue.

19 They ponder not in their myndes, for they haue neyther knowledge nor vnderſtanyng to thynke thus, I haue brent one peece in the fyre, I haue baked bread with the coales thereof, I haue roſted fleſh withal, and eaten it: and I wyl now of the reſidue make an abominable idoll, & fal downe before a rotten peece of wood.

20 Thus doeth he but looſe his labour, and his hart whiche is deceyued, doeth turne hym aſyde, ſo that none of them can haue a free conſcience to thynke, Doo not I erre?

21 Conſyder this, O Iacob and Iſrael, for thou art my ſeruaunt: I made thee, that thou myghteſt ſerue me, O Iſrael forget me not.

22 As for thine offences, I haue dryuē them away lyke the cloudes, and thy ſynnes as the myſt: turne thee agayne vnto me, for I haue redemed thee.

23 Be glad ye heauens, for the Lorde hath dealt gratiouſly with his people, let al that is here beneathe vppon the earth be ioyful: reioyce ye mountaines & woods, with al the trees thereof, for the Lorde hath redeemed Iacob, & wyl ſhewe his glory vpon Iſrael.

24 Thus ſayth the Lord thy redeemer, euen he that faſhioned thee from thy mothers wombe, I the Lorde doo all thynges mee ſelfe alone, I onely ſpread out the heauens, and I onely haue layde abrode the earth by my owne ſelfe.

25 I deſtroy the tokens of wytches, & make the ſoothſayers fooles: As for the wyſe, I turne them backward, and make their cunnyng foolyſhneſſe.

26 He doeth ſet vp the purpoſe of his ſeruant, and fulfylleth the counſel of his meſſengers: concernyng Hieruſalem he ſayth it ſhalbe inhabited, and of the cities of Iuda they ſhalbe buylded agayne, and I wyll repayre their decayed places.

27 He ſayth to the depth, Be dry: and, I wyl drye vp water flooddes.

28 He ſayth of Cyrus, He is my heardman, ſo that he ſhall fulfyl all thynges after my wyl: he ſayth alſo of Hieruſalem, It ſhalbe buylded: and of the temple, It ſhalbe faſt grounded.

¶ The .xlv. Chapter.

The commyng of Chriſte, and the callyng of the Gentiles.

1 THus ſaith the Lord vnto Cyrus his annoynted, whom I haue taken by the ryght hande, to ſubdue nations before hym: I wyl looſe the a loynes of kynges, and I wyl open the gates before his face, and the gates ſhal not be ſhut.

a The loynes, that is, the power & ſtrength.

2 I wyll goe before thee, and make the crooked ſtraight: I ſhal breake the braſen dores, and burſt the iron barres.

3 I ſhall geue thee hydde treaſures, and the thyng whiche is ſecretely kept: that thou mayeſt knowe that I am the Lorde God of Iſrael, which haue called thee by thy name.

4 For Iacob my ſeruaunts ſake, and for Iſrael my choſen, I called thee by thy name, and ordeined thee or euer thou kneweſt me.

5 I am the Lorde, and there is none other, for without me there is no god, I haue prepared thee or euer thou kneweſt me.

6 Therfore they ſhal knowe from the riſing of the Sunne, vnto the going downe of the ſame, that al is nothyng without me: for I am the Lorde, and there is els none.

7 It is I that created lyght and darkneſſe, I make peace and trouble: yea euen I the Lorde doo al theſe thynges.

8 Ye heauens from aboue drop downe, and let the cloudes rayne ryghteouſneſſe: the earth open it ſelfe, let ſaluation and ryghteouſnes grow forth, let it bring them forth together: I the Lord haue created hym.

9 Woe be vnto hym that ſtryueth with his maker, let the potſharde ſtryue with the potſhardes of the earth: * Sayth the clay to the Potter, What makeſt thou? or, Thy worke is not perfectly doone.

* Iere. 18. Rom. 9.

10 Woe

10 Wo be vnto him that sayth to his father, What begeattest thou? and to his mother, What bearest thou?

11 Thus sayth the Lorde, euen the holy one and maker of Israel, Aske me of thynges for to come concernyng my sonnes, and put me in remembraunce as touchyng the woorkes of mine handes.

12 I haue made the earth, and created man vpon it: with my handes haue I spread foorth heauen, and geuen a commaundement for al the host thereof.

13 I shal wake him vp with righteousnesse, and order al his wayes: he shal buylde my citie, and let out my prysoners, & that neyther for gyftes nor rewardes, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

14 Thus sayth the Lord, The occupiers of Egypt, the marchantes of the Ethiopians and Sabees shal come vnto thee with tribute, they shalbe thine, they shal folowe thee, and goe with chaines vpon their fete, they shal fal downe before thee, and make supplication vnto thee: for God, without whom there is none other God, shalbe with thee.

15 O howe profounde art thou, O God, thou God and sauiour of Israel?

16 Confounded are they al and put to dishonour, they are gone hence together with shame, euen the makers of images.

17 But Israel shalbe saued in the Lorde with an euerlasting saluation: ye shal not come to shame nor confusion worlde without ende.

18 For thus sayth the Lorde (that created heauen, the God that made the earth and fashioned it, and set it foorth, he dyd not make it for nought, but to be inhabited) I am the Lorde, without whom there is none other.

19 I haue not spoken secretely, neyther in darke places of the earth: I sayde not in vayne to the seede of Jacob, Seeke me: I am the Lord, which when I speake doo declare the thing that is righteous and true.

20 Geather you and come togeather, drawe nygh hyther you that escaped of the people: they haue no vnderstandyng that set vp the stockes of their idols, and pray vnto a god that can not helpe them.

21 Drawe nygh, come hyther, and let them aske counsel one at another, & shewe foorth what is he that tolde this before, or who spake of it euer since the beginning: haue not I the Lorde done it? without whom there is none other God, the true God and sauiour, and there is els none but I.

22 And therefore turne you vnto me all ye endes of the earth, that ye may be saued: for I am God, and there is els none.

23 I sweare by mee selfe, out of my mouth commeth the worde of ryghteousnesse, and that may no man turne: *but al knees shal bowe vnto me, and al tongues shal sweare by my name,

*Ro.14.11. Phil.2.10.

24 Saying, Uerily in the Lorde is my righteousnesse and strength, to hym shal men come, but al they that thynke scorne of him shalbe confounded.

25 And the whole seede of Israel shalbe iustified, and glorie in the Lorde.

¶ The.xlvi. Chapter.

1. Idolatrie is reproued. 3. The health that commeth by Christe is prophesied.

1 BEl is fallen, Nabo is broken downe, whose images were a burden for the beastes and cattayle, to ouerlade them, and to make them weerie.

2 They are suncke downe and fallen togeather, for they may not ease thē of their burden, therfore must they goe into captiuitie.

3 Hearken vnto me, O house of Jacob, and al ye that remayne yet of the house of Israel, whom I haue borne from your mothers wombe, & brought you vp from your byrth.

4 It is euen I whiche shal beare you vnto your last age: I haue made you, I wyl also nourishe you, beare you, and saue you.

5 Whom wyl ye make me lyke, or to whom wyl ye make me equal or compare me, that I shoulde be lyke hym?

6 Take out syluer and golde out of your purses, and waigh it, and hyre a goldsmyth to make a god of it, that men may kneele downe and woorshyp it:

7 *Yet must he be taken on mens shoulders and borne, and set in his place, that he may stande, and not moue out of his place: and yf one crye vnto hym, he geueth no answeare, and deliuereth not the man that calleth vpon hym from his trouble.

*Baru.6.26

8 Consyder this wel, and be ashamed, goe in to your owne selues.

9 Remember the thinges that are past since the beginning of the worlde, that I am God, and that there is els no God, yea and that there is nothyng lyke vnto me.

10 In the beginning of a thyng, I shewe the ende thereof, and I tel before thynges that are not yet come to passe: My deuice standeth stedfastly stablished, and I fulfyll all my pleasure.

11 I cal a byrde out of the east, and the man by whom my counsayle shalbe fulfylled out of strange countreyes: as I haue spoken, so wyl I bring to passe: assoone as I thinke to deuise a thyng, I doo it.

12 Heare me, O ye that are of an hygh stomacke, but farre from righteousnesse:

13 I ſhal bring forth my ryghteouſneſſe, it is not farre, and my health ſhal not tary long away: I wyl lay health in Sion, and in Iſrael my glorie.

¶ The.xlvii.Chapter.

The vvoorde of the Lorde againſt Babylon.

1 BUt as for thee, O daughter, thou virgin Babylon, ſit thou downe in the duſt, ſit vpon the grounde, there is no throne, O thou daughter of Chaldea, for thou ſhalt no more be called tender and pleaſant.

2 Bring forth the querne & grinde meale, vntruſſe thy broydred heare, put of thy ſhooes, make bare thy knees, and wade through the water riuers.

Naum.3.5. 3 Thy filthineſſe ſhalbe diſcouered, and thy priuities ſhalbe ſeene: for I wyl auenge me of thee, and wyl ſhewe no mercy to thee, as I doo to other men.

4 Our redeemer is called the Lord of hoſtes, the holy one of Iſrael.

5 Sit ſtyl, holde thy tongue, geat thee into ſome darke corner, O daughter Chaldea: for thou ſhalt no more be called Lady of kyngdomes.

6 I was ſo wroth with my people, that I puniſhed mine inheritance, and gaue them into thy power, neuertheleſſe, thou ſhewedſt them no mercie, but euen the very aged of them diddeſt thou oppreſſe right ſore with thy yoke.

7 And thou thoughteſt thus, I ſhalbe lady for euer, and beſide al that, thou haſt not regarded theſe thynges, neyther remembred what was the ende of that citie Hieruſalem.

8 Heare nowe therefore thou delicate one that ſitteſt ſo careleſſe, and ſpeakeſt thus in thine hart, I am alone, and without me is there none, I ſhal neuer be wyddowe nor deſolate againe.

*Eſai.51.19. Reue.18.7. 9 *And yet both theſe thynges ſhal come to thee, vpon one day in the twincklyng of an eye, namely wyddowhood and deſolation: they mightily fall vpon thee, for the multitude of thy witches, and for the great heape of thy coniurers.

10 For thou haſt truſted in thy wickedneſſe, and haſt ſayde, No man ſeeth me: thyne owne wyſedome and cunnyng hath deceyued thee, in that thou haſt ſayde in thyne hart, I am alone, and without me there is none.

11 Therefore ſhal trouble come vpon thee, and thou ſhalt not knowe from whence it ſhall ryſe: miſchiefe ſhall fall vppon thee, which thou ſhalt not be able to put of, a ſodayne vtter deſtruction ſhal come vppon thee or euer thou be ware.

12 Nowe goe to thy coniurers, and to the multitude of thy witches with whom thou haſt weeried thee ſelfe from thy youth, yf they may helpe thee, or ſtrength thee.

13 Thou haſt hitherto had many counſels of them: So let the heauen gaſers, and the beholders of ſtarres, and moone prophetes, come on nowe and deliuer thee, yea and let them ſhewe when theſe newe thynges ſhall come vpon thee.

14 Beholde, they ſhalbe lyke ſtrawe, which if it be kindled with fyre, no man may rid it for the vehemencie of the flame, and yet it geueth no ſynders to warme a man by, nor cleare fyre to ſit by.

15 Thus are they with whom thou haſt weeryed thee ſelfe, and thus are thy marchantes that haue ben with thee from thy youth: euery one hath taken his owne way, and none of them ſhal defende thee.

¶ The.xlviii.Chapter.

1. The hypocriſie of the Ievves is reproued. 11. The Lorde alone vvyl be vvoorshypped, vvhiche hath choſen vs, 20. and vvhich ſuccoureth vs for his owne ſake.

1 HEare this, O thou houſe of Iacob, ye that are called by the name of Iſrael, and are come out of one ſtocke with Iuda: whiche ſweare by the name of the Lorde, and beare witneſſe by the God of Iſrael, but not with trueth and ryght.

2 For they are named of the holy citie, and are grounded vppon the GOD of Iſrael, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes.

3 The thinges that I haue ſhewed you euer ſince the beginning, haue I not brought them to paſſe immediatly, as they came out of my mouth, and declared them, and they are come.

4 Howebeit, I knowe that thou art obſtinate, and that thy necke hath an iron ſynowe, and that thy browe is of braſſe.

5 Neuertheleſſe, I haue euer ſince the beginning ſhewed thee of things for to come, and declared them vnto thee or euer they came to paſſe: that thou ſhouldeſt not ſay, Mine idol hath done it, my carued or moulten image hath ſhewed it.

6 Thou heardeſt it before, and beholde it is come to paſſe. And ſhal not ye your ſelues ſhewe forth or confeſſe the ſame? But as for me, I tolde thee before at the beginning newe and ſecrete thynges whiche thou kneweſt not of.

7 And ſome done of olde tyme, wherof thou neuer heardeſt before they were brought to to passe, that thou canst not say, Beholde, I knewe of them.

8 Moreouer, there be some wherof thou hast neyther heard nor knowen, neyther haue ben opened vnto thyne eares afore time. For I knewe that thou wouldest malitiously offende, therefore haue I called thee a transgressour, euen from thy mothers wombe.

9 Neuertheless, for my names sake I wyll withdrawe my wrath, and for my honours sake I wyll patiently forbeare thee, that I do not roote thee out.

10 Beholde, I haue pourged thee, yet not as syluer, I haue chosen thee in the fyre of affliction.

11 And that onely for myne owne sake, yea, euen for myne owne sake wyll I do this: or els what dishonour woulde they doo to my name? surely I wyl not geue my *glory vnto another.

12 Hearken vnto me, O Iacob, and Israel whom I haue called: * I am euen he that is, I am the first and the last.

13 My hande hath layde the fundation of the earth, and my ryght hand hath spanned ouer the heauens: as soone as I call them, they stande togeather.

14 Geather you all togeather, and hearken: Whiche of yonder goddes hath declared this? The Lorde hath a loue vnto hym, and he shall perfourme his wyll agaynst Babel, & declare his power agaynst the Chaldees.

15 I mee selfe alone, euen I haue tolde you this, I dyd cal hym, and bryng hym forth, and he shal make his iourney prosperous.

16 Come to me, and heare this: haue I spoken any thyng darkely since the beginning? From the tyme that this thyng begynneth, I am there: Wherefore the Lord God and his spirite hath sent me.

17 And thus sayth the Lorde God thy redeemer, the holy one of Israel, I am the Lorde thy GOD whiche teache thee profitable thynges, and leade thee the way that thou shouldest goe.

18 O that thou haddest regarded my commaundementes, then had thy wealthynesse ben as the water streame, and thy ryghteousnesse as the waues flowing in the sea.

19 Thy seede also had ben lyke as the sande in the sea, and the fruite of thy body lyke the grauel stones thereof: His name should not be rooted out, nor destroyed before me.

20 Goe away from Babylon, flee from the Chaldees, with a meery voyce speake of this, declare it abrode, and goe forth into the ende of the worlde, say, * The Lord hath redeemed his seruant Iacob.

21 They suffered no thirste, he ledde them through the wyldernesse, and caused the *waters to flowe out vnto them from out of the rocke: he claue the rocke in sunder, and the water gushed out. *Nu. 20. 11.

22 As for the vngodly, *they haue no peace, sayth the Lorde. *Esai. 57. 21

¶ The xlix. Chapter.

6. Christe shal geather togeather all nations be they neuer so farre of.

1 YE Iles hearken vnto me, and take heede ye people from farre: The Lord hath called me from my byrth, & made mention of my name from my mothers wombe.

2 He hath made my mouth lyke a sharpe swoord, vnder the shadowe of his hande hath he defended me, and hyd me in his quiuer as a good arrowe,

3 And sayd vnto me, * Thou art my seruant Israel, I wyl be honoured in thee. *Esai. 51. 16.

4 Then aunswered I, I haue lost my labour, I haue spent my strength in vayne: Neuertheless, I wyl commit my cause and my worke vnto the Lorde my God.

5 And nowe sayth the Lorde, Euen he that fashioned me from my mothers wombe to be his seruant, that I may bryng Iacob agayne vnto hym, albeit Israel wyll not be geathered vnto hym agayne, yet in Goddes sight shall I be glorious, my God shalbe my strength.

6 And he sayde, It is but a small thyng that thou art my seruant, to set vp the kynredes of Iacob, and to restore the destruction of Israel: * For I haue made thee the lyght of the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my health vnto the ende of the worlde. *Esai. 42. 6. Actes. 13. 47

7 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lord, the redeemer and holy one of Israel, concernyng the abhorred and despised among the Gentiles and the seruaunt of them that beare rule, kynges and princes shal see, and aryse, and worshyp, because of the Lorde that is faythfull, and because of the holy one of Israel that hath chosen thee.

8 And thus sayth the Lorde, * In the tyme accepted haue I hearde thee, and in the day of saluation haue I helped thee: I wyl preserue thee, and make thee to be the attonement of the people, that thou mayest helpe vp the earth agayne, and possesse agayne the desolate heritages. *1. Cor. 6. 2.

9 That thou mayest say vnto the prisoners, Goe forth: and to them that are in darkenesse, Come into the lyght: they shall feede thee in the hygh wayes, and geat their pasture in all hygh places.

10 * They shall neyther hunger, nor thirste, *Reu. 7. 16.

heate nor Sunne ſhall not hurt them: for he that fauoureth them ſhall leade them, and geue them drynke of the wel ſprynges.

11 I wyll make wayes vppon all my mountaynes, and my footepathes ſhalbe exalted.

12 And beholde, theſe ſhal come from farre, loe, ſome from the North and Weſt, ſome from the lande of Sinis, vvhiche is in the South.

13 Reioyce ye heauens, and ſing prayſes thou earth, talke of ioy ye hylles: for God hath comforted his people, and wyll haue mercy vpon his that be in trouble.

14 But Sion ſayde, God hath forſaken me, and my Lorde hath forgotten me.

15 Wyll a woman forgeat her owne infant, and not pity the ſonne of her owne wombe? And though they doo forget, yet wyll I not forget thee.

16 Beholde, I haue wrytten thee vp vppon my handes, thy walles are euer in my ſight.

17 They make haſte who buyldeth thee vp agayne: as for thoſe that ouerthrowe thee, and make thee waſte, they ſhall depart from thee.

*Eſai.60.4. 18 *Lyft vp thyne eyes, and looke about thee, al theſe geather them togeather, and come to thee: As truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lord, thou ſhalt put them all vpon thee as an apparel, and gyrde them vnto thee, as a bryde doth her iewels.

19 As for thy lande that lyeth deſolate, waſted, and deſtroyed, it ſhalbe to narrowe for them that ſhall dwell in it, and they that woulde deuour thee, they ſhalbe farre away.

20 Then thy chyldren whom the barren ſhall bryng forth, ſhall ſay in thyne eare, This place is to narrowe, geue place that I may haue roome.

21 Then ſhalt thou thynke by thee ſelfe, Who hath begotten me theſe, ſeeyng I am barren and alone, a captiue and an outcaſt? and who hath nouriſhed them vp for me? I am deſolate and alone, but from whence come theſe?

22 And therfore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyll ſtretche out my hande vnto the Gentiles, and ſet vp my token to the people, they ſhall bryng thee thy ſonnes in their lappes, and carry thy daughters vnto thee vpon their ſhoulders.

23 For kynges ſhalbe thy nurſing fathers, and queenes ſhalbe thy nurſing mothers: they ſhall fall before thee with their faces flat vpon the earth, and lycke vp the duſt of thy feete: that thou mayeſt knowe howe that I am the Lorde, and that who ſo putteth their truſt in me, ſhall not be confounded.

24 Shal the ſpoyle be taken from the myghtie? or the lawfull priſoner from the taker?

25 But thus ſayth the Lorde, The priſoners ſhalbe taken frō the myghtie, and the ſpoyle ſhalbe recouered from the violent: for I wil mainteyne thy cauſe againſt thyne aduerſarie, and I wyll ſaue thy ſonnes.

26 And I wyll feede thyne enimies with their owne fleſhe, and make them drunken with their owne blood, as with ſweete wyne: And all fleſhe ſhall know, O Iacob, that I am the Lorde thy ſauiour, thy noble redeemer.

¶ The.l Chapter.

The Ievves are reproued and alſo called.

1 THus ſayth the Lorde, Where is the byll of your mothers deuorcement, whom I ſent away? or who is the vſurer to whō I ſolde you? Beholde, for your offences are you ſolde, and becauſe of your tranſgreſſion is your mother forſaken.

2 For why would no man receiue me when I came? And when I called, no man gaue me aunſweare: * Is my hande ſhortened that it myght not helpe? or haue I not power to deliuer? loe, at a worde I drynke vp the ſea, and of water flooddes I make drye lande: ſo that for want of water the fiſhe doth corrupt, and dye for thyrſte. *Eſai.59.8.

3 As for heauen, I cloth it with darkeneſſe, and put as it were a ſacke vpon it.

4 The Lorde GOD hath geuen me a well learned tongue, ſo that I can comfort them that are troubled, yea, and that in due ſeaſon: he wakeneth myne eare vp betymes in the morneyng, I ſay betymes in the morning he wyll waken myne eare, that I myght hearken as to the ſchoolemaiſters.

5 The Lorde God hath opened myne eare, and I haue not gayneſayd, nor withdrawen mee ſelfe. The Epiſtle in the Tueſday before Eaſter.

6 *But I offered my backe vnto the ſmiters, and my cheekes vnto the nyppers: I turned not my face from ſhame and ſpittinges, *Mat.26.67.

7 And the Lorde God ſhall helpe me, therefore ſhall I not be confounded: I haue therfore hardened my face lyke a flynt ſtone, for I am ſure that I ſhall not come to confuſion.

8 * He is at hand that iuſtifieth me, who wil then goe with me to lawe? Let vs ſtande togeather, yf there be any that wyll reaſon with me, let hym come here forth to me. *Rom.8.33.

9 Beholde, the Lorde God wyll helpe me, what is he then that can condemne me? loe, they all ſhall ware olde lyke a clothe, the moth ſhal eate them vp.

10 There-

10 Therefore who so feareth the Lorde among you, let him heare the voyce of his seruant: Who so walketh in darknesse, and no light shineth vpon him, let him put his trust in the name of the Lorde, and holde him by his God.

11 But take heede, ye all kindle a fyre, and styre vp the coales: walke on the glisteryng of your owne fire, and in the coales that you haue kindled: This commeth vnto you from my hand, nameiy, that ye shall sleepe in sorowe.

¶ The. Li. Chapter.

Consolation and comfort is promised vnto the faythfull.

1 HEarken vnto me ye that holde of righteousnesse, and ye that seeke the Lorde: take heede to the stone whereout ye are hewen, & to the graue whereout ye are diggd.

2 Consyder Abraham your father, and Sara that bare you, howe that I called him alone, and blessed him, and encreased him.

3 Therefore shall the Lorde comfort Sion, and repaire al her decay, making her desart as a paradise, and her wylderneſse as the garden of the Lord: Myrth and ioy shalbe found there, thankes geuing, and the voyce of prayse.

4 Haue respect vnto me then, O my people, both high and lowe, and lay thyne eare vnto me: for a lawe and an ordinance shall goe forth from me to lighten the Gentiles.

5 It is hard by that my health and my righteousneſse shall goe forth, and the people shalbe ordred with mine arme: the Ilands, that is the Gentiles, shall hope in me, and put their trust in myne arme.

6 Lyft vp your eyes towarde heauen, and looke vppon the earth beneath: for the heauens shall vanishe away like smoke, and the earth shall ware olde like a garment, and they that dwel therin shal perish in like maner: but my saluation shall endure for euer, and my righteousneſse shall not ceasse.

7 Harke vnto me ye that haue knowledge in righteousneſse, thou people that beareſt my lawe in thyne hart: feare not the reuilings of men, be not afraide of theyr blasphemies.

8 For wormes and mothes shall eate them vp like cloth and woll: but my righteousneſse shall endure for euer, and my sauyng health from generation to generation.

9 Wake vp, wake vp, and be strong, O thou arme of the Lorde, wake vp, like as in tyme past, euer, and since the worlde began.

10 *Art not thou the same arme that hast wounded the proude, and hewen the Dragon in peeces? Art not thou euen the same whiche hast dryed vp the deepe of the sea, whiche hast made playne the sea grounde, that the delyuered myght goe through?

11 Therefore the redeemed of the Lord shal turne agayne, and come with ioy vnto Sion, continuall ioy shalbe in their head, and myrth and gladneſse shalbe with them, and sorowe and woe shall flee from them.

12 Yea I, euen I am he that in al thynges geueth you consolation: what art thou then that feareſt a mortal man, and the chylde of man, which goeth away as doth the floure?

13 And forgetteſt the Lorde that made thee, that spread out the heauens, and layde the fundation of the earth: but thou art euer afrayde for the sight of thyne oppressour, which is redy to doo harme: where is the wrath of the oppressour?

14 The exile maketh haste to be loosed, that he dye not in prison, and that his bread fayle hym not.

15 I am the Lorde thy God, that diuide the sea, and his waues shall rage, whose name is the Lorde of hostes.

16 *I haue put my wordes in thy mouth, and haue defended thee in the shadowe of my hande, that I maye plant the heauens, and lay the fundation of the earth, and say vnto Sion, Thou art my people. *Esai. 49.3.

17 Awake, awake, and stande vp, O Hierusalem, thou that from the hand of the Lord hast dronken out the cup of his wrath, thou that hast supped of & sucked out the slumbryng cup to the bottome.

18 For among all the sonnes whom he hath gotten, there is not one that maye holde it vp, and not one to leade it by the hande, of all the sonnes that he hath nourished.

19 *Both these thinges are happened vnto thee, but who is sory for it? yea destruction, wastyng, hunger, and swoorde, but who wyl comfort thee? *Esai. 47.9

20 Thy sonnes lye comfortlesse at the head of euery streete like a taken venison, and are ful of the terrible wrath of the Lorde, and punyshment of thy God.

21 And therefore thou miserable and dronken (howbeit not with wyne) heare this:

22 Thus sayth the Lorde, thy Lorde and God, the defender of his people, Behold, I wil take the slumbryng cup out of his hand, euē the cup with the dregges of my wrath, that from henceforth thou shalt neuer drynke of it more:

23 But I wyll put it into their hande that trouble thee, whiche haue spoken to thy soule, Stowpe downe, that we may go ouer thee, thee, make thy body euen with the ground, and as the ſtreete to goe vpon.

¶ The.lii. Chapter.

An exhortation and comfort to the people of God.

1 VP Sion, vp, take thy ſtrength vnto thee, put on thyne honeſt rayment, O Hieruſalem, thou holy citie: for from this time forth there ſhall no vncircumciſed nor vncleane perſon come in thee.

2 Shake thee from the duſt, aryſe and ſtand vp, O Hieruſalem: plucke out thy necke from the bond, O thou captiue daughter Sion.

3 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Ye are ſolde for nought, therefore ſhall ye be redeemed alſo without any money.

*Gen.46.6. 4 * For thus ſayth the Lorde God, My people went downe afore time into Egypt, there to be ſtrangers, and the king of the Aſſyrians oppreſſed thē without any cauſe.

*Eze.36.20 Rom.2.24. 5 And nowe, what profite is it to me, ſayth the Lorde, * that my people is freely caryed away, and brought into heauineſſe by their rulers, and my name euer ſtyll blaſphemed, ſaith the Lorde?

6 But that my people may know my name, I mee ſelfe wyll ſpeake in that day, Behold here am I.

*Num.1.15. Rom.10.15. 7 * O how beautifull are the feete of the Ambaſſadour that bringeth the meſſage from the mountaine, and proclaimeth peace: that bringeth the good tydinges, and preacheth health, and ſayth vnto Sion, Thy God is the king.

8 Thy watchmen ſhall lyft vp their voyce, with loude voyce they ſhall reioyce togeather: for they ſhal ſee plainely when the lord ſhal conuert Sion.

9 Be glad, O thou deſolate Hieruſalem, and reioyce togeather: for the Lorde hath comforted his people, he hath deliuered Hieruſalem.

10 The Lord hath made bare his holy arme, and ſhewed it forth in the ſight of all the Gentiles, * and all the endes of the earth hath ſeene the ſauing health of our God.

*Pſal.98.2.

*2.Cor.6.7 11 Away, away, * geat you out from hence, and touche no vncleane thing: goe out from among ſuch, and be cleane that beare the veſſel of the Lorde.

12 For ye ſhall not eſcape by rumnyng, nor by fleeing away: but the Lorde ſhall goe before you, and the God of Iſrael ſhal geather you togeather.

a. Chriſte is called Gods ſeruant, for his office ſake, which he exerciſed in the time of his abaſyng him ſelfe in the fleſhe.

13 Beholde, my a ſeruant ſhall deale proſperously, therefore ſhall he be magnifyed, exalted, and greatly honoured.

14 Like as the multitude ſhall woonder vpon him, becauſe his face ſhalbe ſo deformed, and not as mans face, his beautie lyke no man:

15 Euen ſo ſhall the multitude of the Gentiles ſpeake of him, and kinges ſhall ſhutte their mouthes before him: * for they haue ſeene that which was not told to them, and haue vnderſtand that whereof they haue not heard. *Rom.15.

He propheſieth euidently of the paſſion of our Sauiour Ieſus Chriſte.

1 BVT * who hath geuen credence vnto our preaching? or to whom is the arme of the Lorde knowen? *Joh.12. Rom.10.

2 For he dyd growe before the Lorde, lyke as a branche, & as a roote in a dry ground, he hath neyther beautie nor fauour: when we looke vppon him there ſhalbe no fairneſſe, we ſhal haue no luſt vnto him.

3 *He is deſpiſed and abhorred of men, he is ſuche a man as hath good experience of ſorowes and infyrmities: We haue reckoned him ſo vile, that we hid our faces frō him. *Mat.4.17

4 * Howbeit, he only hath taken on him our infyrmitie, and borne our paynes: yet we dyd iudge him as though he were plagued, and caſt downe of God. *Mat.8.17 1.Pet.2.24

5 * Whereas he notwithſtandyng was wounded for our offences, and ſmitten for our wickedneſſe: for the paine of our punishment was layde vppon him, and with his ſtripes are we healed. *1.Cor.15.3

6 * As for vs, we are all gone aſtray like ſheepe, euery one hath turned his owne way: but the Lord hath throwen vpon him all our ſinnes. *Joh.10.11 Mat.26.63

7 * He ſuffered violence, and was euyll intreated, and dyd not open his mouth: he ſhalbe led as a ſheepe to be ſlayne, yet ſhall he be as ſtyl as a Lambe before the ſhearer, * and not open his mouth. Actes.8.32

8 From the priſon and iudgement was he taken, and his generation who can declare? for he was cut of from the ground of the liuing, which punishment did goe vpon him for the tranſgreſſion of my people.

9 His graue was geuen him with the condemned, and with the riche man at his death, * whereas he dyd neuer violence nor vnright, neyther hath there ben any deceytfulneſſe in his mouth. *1.Pet.2.22

10 Yet hath it pleaſed the Lorde to ſmite him with infirmitie, that when he hadde made his ſoule an offering for ſinne, he myght see long lastyng seede: and this deuice of the Lorde shal prosper in his handes.

11 Of the trauayle and labour of his soule shall he see the fruite, and be satisfied: my ryghteous seruant shal with his knowledge iustifie the multitude, for he shal beare theyr sinnes.

12 Therefore wyll I geue hym among the great ones his part, and he shall diuide the spoyle with the myghty, because he geueth ouer his soule to death, *& is reckoned amõg the transgressours: whiche neuertheless hath take away the sinnes of the multitude, and made intercession for the misdoers.

*Gen.15.28 *Luk.22.37.

¶ The.liiii.Chapter.

1. Of the great dominion of Christe. 7. The indignation of God endureth but a short space, but his mercy is euerlasting.

1 BE *glad nowe thou barren that bearest not, reioyce, sing, and be mery, thou that art not with chylde: for the desolate hath moe chyldren then the marryed wyfe, sayth the Lorde.

*Luk.23.29. Galat.4.27.

2 Make thy tent wyder, and spreade out the hangynges of thyne habitation: spare not, laye foorth thy cordes, and make fast thy stakes:

3 For thou shalt be multiplyed on the ryght syde, and on the left, and thy seede shal haue the Gentiles in possession, and dwell in the desolate cities.

4 Feare not, for thou shalt not be confounded: be not ashamed, for thou shalt not come to confusion: yea, thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the dishonour of thy wydowhead.

5 For he that made thee, shalbe thy Lorde and husbande (whose *name is the Lorde of hostes) and thy redeemer shalbe euen the holy one of Israel, & the Lorde of the whole worlde.

*Luk.1.15.

6 For the Lorde hath called thee beyng as a desolate sorowfull woman, and as a young wyfe that was forsaken, sayth thy God.

7 A lytle whyle haue I forsaken thee: but with great mercyfulnesse shall I take thee vp vnto me.

8 When I was angry, I hyd my face from thee for a litle season: but through euerlastyng goodnesse haue I pardoned thee, saith the Lorde thy redeemer.

9 *And this is vnto me as the water of Noe: for lyke as I haue swoorne that I wyll not bryng the water of Noe any more vpon the worlde: so haue I swoorne that I wyl neuer be angry with thee, nor reproue thee.

*Gen.9.11.

10 The mountaynes shall remoue, and the hylles shall fal downe, but my louyng kindnesse shall not moue, and the bonde of my peace shall not fall downe from thee, sayth the Lorde, thy mercyfull louer.

11 Beholde, thou poore, vexed, and despited, I wyll make thy walles of precious stones, and thy fundation of Saphires, 12 Thy wyndowes of Christal, thy gates of fyne cleare stone, and al thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 Thy chyldren shalbe al taught of God, I wyll geue thee plenteousnesse of peace. *Iohn.6.45

14 In ryghteousnesse shalt thou be grounded, and be farre from oppression: for the which thou needest not to be afrayde, neyther for hynderaunce, for it shall not come nygh thee.

15 Loe, who so geathereth togeather agaynst thee, doth it without me, and who so within thee, doth ioyne togeather agaynst thee, shal surely fall.

16 Behold, I make the smyth that bloweth the coales in the fyre, and he maketh a weapon after his handy woorke: I make also the waster to destroy.

17 But al the weapõs that are made against thee, shal not prosper: and as for al tongues that shal resist thee in iudgement, thou shalt ouercome them, and condemne them: this is the heritage of the Lordes seruantes, and theyr ryghteousnesse commeth of me, sayth the Lorde.

¶ The.lv.Chapter.

1. An exhortation and comfort to the people. 9. The fruite and profite that commeth of the vvorde of God.

1 COme to the waters, *all ye that be thirstie, and ye that haue no money, come, buye, that ye may haue to eate: come buye wyne and mylke without any money, or money woorth.

*Eccl.51.3.

2 Wherefore do ye lay out any money for thyng that feedeth not, and spende your labour about the thyng that satisfieth you not? But hearken rather vnto me, and ye shal eate of the best, and your soule shal haue her pleasure in plenteousnesse.

3 Encline your eares, and come vnto me, take heede I say and your soule shall lyue: for I wyll make an euerlastyng couenant with you, *euen the sure mercyes of Dauid.

*Act.13.34.

4 Beholde, I gaue hym for a witnesse amõg the folke, for a prince and a teacher vnto the people.

5 Loe, thou shalt call an vnknowen people: and a people that had no knowledge of thee, shall runne vnto thee, because of the Lorde Lorde thy God, and the holy one of Iſrael whiche glorifieth thee.

6 Seeke the Lorde whyle he may be founde, and call vpon hym whyle he is nygh.

7 Let the vngodly man forſake his owne wayes, and the vnryghteous his owne imaginations, and turne agayne vnto the Lord, ſo ſhal he be mercyfull vnto hym, and to our God, for he is very redy to forgyue.

8 For thus ſayth the Lorde, My thoughtes are not your thoughtes, and your wayes are not my wayes.

9 But as farre as the heauens are hygher then the earth: ſo farre do my wayes exceede yours, and my thoughtes yours.

10 And lyke as the rayne and ſnowe commeth downe from heauē, and returneth not thither agayne, but watereth the earth, maketh it fruitefull and greene, that it may geue corne vnto the ſower, and bread to hym that eateth:

11 So the woorde alſo that commeth out of my mouth, ſhall not turne agayne voyde vnto me, but ſhall accompliſhe my wyll, and proſper in the thyng whereto I ſende it.

12 And ſo ſhal ye goe forth with ioy, and be led with peace: the mountaynes and hylles ſhal ſing with you for ioy, and al the trees of the feelde ſhall clap their handes.

13 For thornes there ſhall growe fyrre trees, and the myrre tree in ſteede of bryers: and this ſhalbe done to the prayſe of the Lorde, and for an euerlaſtyng token that ſhall not be taken away.

¶ The.lvi.Chapter.

1. An exhortation to iudgement and ryghteouſneſſe, and to the ſpiritual keepyng of the Sabboth. 10. Againſt ſhepheardes that deuoure the flocke.

*Wiſd.1. 1 THus ſayth the Lorde, * Keepe equitie, and doo ryght: for my ſauyng health ſhall come ſhortly, and my ryghteouſneſſe ſhalbe opened.

2 Bleſſed is the man that doth this, and the mans chylde whiche keepeth the ſame: he that taketh heede that he vnhalowe not the Sabboth, that is he that keepeth hym ſelfe that he do no euyll.

3 Then ſhall not the ſtraunger whiche cleaueth vnto the Lorde, ſay, Alas the Lord hath ſhut me cleane out from his people: neyther ſhal the gelded man ſay, Loe, I am a drye tree.

4 For thus ſayth the Lorde vnto the gelded that keepeth my Sabboth, namely, that holdeth greatly of the thyng that pleaſeth me, and keepeth my couenant:

5 Vnto them wyll I geue in my houſholde, and within my walles, a better heritage & name then yf they had been called ſonnes and daughters: I wyll geue them an euerlaſtyng name that ſhall not periſhe.

6 Agayne, the ſtraungers that ſticke to the Lorde to ſerue hym, and to loue his name, and to be his ſeruantes, and all they whiche keepe them ſelues that they vnhalowe not the Sabboth, namely, that they fulfyll my couenant:

7 Them wyll I bryng vnto my holy mountayne, and make them ioyfull in my houſe of prayer: their burnt offerynges and ſacrifices ſhalbe accepted vppon myne aulter: for my houſe ſhalbe called an houſe of prayer for all people. *Mat.21.13. Mark.11.17 Luk.19.46.

8 Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD which gathereth togeather the ſcattered of Iſrael, I wyll bryng yet another congregation to hym.

9 Come all ye beaſtes of the feelde, that ye may deuoure all the beaſtes of the wood.

10 For his watchemen all are blynde, they haue altogeather no vnderſtandyng, they are al dumbe dogs, not beyng able to barke, they are ſleepy, ſluggyſhe are they and lye ſnortyng.

11 They are ſhameleſſe dogges that be neuer ſatiſfied: the ſhepheardes alſo in lyke maner haue no vnderſtanding, * but euery man turneth his owne way, euery one after his owne couetouſneſſe with all his power. *Ier.6.13.

12 * Come ſay they I wyl fetche wine, ſo ſhal we fyll our ſelues, that we may be dronken: and to morow lyke as to day, yea, and much more. *Sapi.2.6.

1. The good men are taken away. 3. The vnicked ones take pleaſure in Idolatrie, the godly receyue comfort, the vnieked doth periſhe.

1 THE ryghteous periſheth, and no man regardeth it in his hart: good godly people are taken away, and no man cōſydereth it, namely, that the ryghteous is conueyed away from the wicked.

2 He commeth into peace, and godly men reſt in their chambers, and before the godly man goeth peace.

3 Come hyther therefore ye charmers chyldren, ye ſonnes of the adulterer, and the whoore.

4 Wherein take ye your pleaſure? vppon whom gape ye with your mouth, and bleare out your tongue? are ye not chyldren of tranſgreſſion, and a ſeede of diſſimulation?

5 Ye

5 Ye make your fyres vnder the Okes, and vnder all greene trees, and ye offer children in the valleyes and dennes of stone.

6 Thy part shalbe with the stony rockes by the riuer, yea euen these shalbe thy part: for there thou hast powred meate and drinke offering vnto them: shoulde I delight in that?

7 Thou hast made thy bed vpon high mountaynes, thou wentest vp thyther, and there thou hast slayne sacrifyces.

8 Behinde the doores and postes hast thou set vp thy remembraunce, when thou hadst discouered thee selfe to an other then me, when thou wentest vp, and made thy bed wyder, and with those idols hast thou made a couenant, and louedst their couches where thou sawest them.

9 Thou wentest straight to kinges with oyle and diuers oyntments, that is, thou hast sent thy messengers farre of, & yet art thou fallen into the pit.

10 Thou art weery for the multitude of thyne owne wayes, yet saydest thou neuer, There is no hope: thou hast had the lyfe that thy handes wrought, and therfore thou art careleſſe.

11 For whom wylt thou be abashed or feare, seeing thou hast broken thy promise, and remembrest not me, neither hast me in thyne hart? Thynkest thou that I also wyl hold my peace as afore time, that thou feareſt me not?

12 Yea verily I wyll declare thy goodneſſe and thy woorkes, but they shall not profite thee.

13 When thou cryest, let thy chosen heape deliuer thee: but the winde shall blowe them foorth, and vanitie shall take them all away: neuertheleſſe, they that put their trust in me, shall inherite the land, and haue my holy hill in possession.

14 *And therefore thus he sayth, Make plaine, make plaine, and cleanse the streete, take vp the stumbling blockes out of the way of my people. *Esai.40.4 and.62.10.

15 For thus sayth the high and excellent, euen he that dwelleth in euerlastingneſſe, whose name is the holy one: I dwell high aboue, and in the sanctuarie, and with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirite doo I dwell, that I may heale a troubled minde, and a contrite hart.

16 For I chide not euer, and am not wroth without ende: but the blastyng goeth from me, and is included in the body, & I made the breath.

17 I am wroth with him for his couetouſneſſe, I smite him, I hyde me, and am angry, and he turneth him selfe, and followeth the way of his owne hart.

18 I haue seene his wayes, and I heale him, I leade him, & restore to him comfort, and to those that were sory for him.

19 I make the fruites of thankes geuing, that he may say, Peace, peace, vnto them that are farre of, and vnto them that are nygh, sayth the Lorde, I make him whole.

20 But the wicked are like the raging sea that can not rest, whose water foameth with the myre and grauel.

21 *Euen so the wicked haue no peace, saith God. *Esai.48.21

¶ The lviii. Chapter.

1. The Lord (by the mouth of the prophete) reproueth the people for their fastinges, 5. whiche were full of hypocriſie.

1 CRie nowe as loud as thou canst, leaue not of, lyft vp thy voyce like a Trumpet, and shewe my people their offences, and the house of Iacob their sinnes.

2 For they seeke me dayly, and wyll knowe my wayes, euen as it were a people that did ryght, and had not forsaken the statutes of their GOD: they aske of me concernyng ryght iudgement, and wyll be nigh vnto God.

3 Wherefore fast we, say they, and thou seest it not? we put our liues to straytneſſe, and thou regardest it not?

4 Behold, when ye fast, your lust remaineth styll, for ye doo no leſſe violence to your detters: loe ye fast to strife and debate, and to smite with your fyst without mercie: nowe ye shall not fast thus, that your voyce might be heard aboue.

5 *Thinke ye this fast pleaseth me, that a man should chasten him selfe for a day? and to hang downe his head like a bulrush, and to lye vpon the earth in an heary cloth? Should that be called fasting, or a day that pleaseth the Lorde? *Zach.7.5.

6 Doth not this fasting rather please me, That thou lose the wicked bandes, that thou take of the ouer heauy burdens, that thou let the oppreſſed goe free, and breake all maner of yoke?

7 *To deale thy bread to the hungry, and to bring the poore wandring home into thy house? when thou seest the naked that thou couer him, and hide not thy selfe from thine owne flesh? *Ezec.18.16 Mat.25.35.

8 Then shall thy light breake foorth as the morning, and thy health florish right shortly: righteouſneſſe shall goe before thee, and the glory of the Lord shal embrace thee.

9 Then yf thou callest, the Lorde shall answeare thee, yf thou cryest, he shall say, Here I am: yea yf thou layest away from thee thy burdens, and holdeſt thy fyngers, and ceaſſeſt from vngracious talking:

10 Yf thou haſt compaſſion vppon the hungry, and refreſheſt the troubled ſoule, then ſhall thy light ſpring out in the darkneſſe, and thy darkneſſe ſhalbe as the noone day.

11 The Lorde ſhall euer be thy guide, and ſatiſſie the deſyre of thy hart in the tyme of drought, and fyll thy bones with marowe: thou ſhalt be like a freſhe watered garden, and lyke the fountaine of water that neuer leaueth runnyng.

*Eſai.61.4 12 *Then the places that haue euer been waſte, ſhalbe builded of thee, there ſhalt thou lay a fundation for many kinredes: thou ſhalt be called the maker vp of the breache, and the builder againe of the way to dwell in,

13 Yea yf thou turne thy feete from the ſabboth, ſo that thou doo not the thing whiche pleaſeth thee ſelfe in my holy day, and thou call the pleaſant, holy, and glorious ſabboth of the Lord, and that thou gene him the honour, ſo that thou doo not after thyne owne imagination, neither ſeeke thyne owne wil, nor ſpeake thyne ovvne woordes:

14 Then ſhalt thou haue thy pleaſure in the Lord, and I wyll carry thee high aboue the earth, and feede thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the Lordes owne mouth hath ſo promiſed.

¶ The.lix.Chapter.

1. The Lorde is mighty to ſaue, and redy to heare our requeſtes, 12. our ſinnes are the cauſe vvhy God heareth not vs, neyther graunteth our requeſtes.

Eſai.50.2. Num.11.23. 1 BEhold, the Lordes hand is not ſo ſhortened that it can not helpe, neyther is his eare ſo ſtopped that it may not heare.

2 But your mildeedes haue ſeparated you from your God, and your ſinnes hyde his face from you, that he heareth you not.

*Eſai.1.15. 3 * For your handes are defiled with blood, and your fyngers with vnrighteouſneſſe: your lippes ſpeake lealynges, and your tongue ſetteth out wickedneſſe.

4 No man regardeth righteouſneſſe, and no man iudgeth truely: euery man hopeth in vayne things, and imagineth deceyte, *conceaueth weerineſſe, & bringeth forth euyll.

*Job.15.35. Pſalm.7.15 5 They breede Cockatrice egges, and weaue the Spiders webbe, who ſo eateth of theyr egges dyeth: but yf one treade vpon them, there commeth vp a Serpent.

6 Their webbe maketh no cloth, and they may not couer them with their labours: theyr deedes are the deedes of wickedneſſe, and ỹ woorke of robberie is in their hands.

7 Their feete runne to euyll, and they make haſte to ſhedde innocent blood, their counſels are wicked counſels, harme & deſtruction are in their wayes. *Pro.1.16. Rom.3.15.

8 But the way of peace they knowe not, in their goinges is no equitie: their wayes are ſo crooked, that who ſo euer goeth therein, knoweth of no peace.

9 And this is ỹ cauſe that equitie is ſo farre from vs, and that righteouſneſſe commeth not nygh vs: we looke for light, loe it is darkneſſe, for the morning ſhine, ſee we walke in the darke.

10 We grope like the blinde vpon the wall, we grope euen as one that hath no eyes, we ſtumble at the noone day, as though it were toward night in the falling places, like men that are halfe dead.

11 We rore all like Beares, and mourne ſtyl like Doues: we looke for equitie, but there is none: for health, but it is farre from vs.

12 For our offences are many before thee, and our ſinnes teſtifye againſt vs: yea, we muſt confeſſe that we offend, and knowledge that we doo amiſſe:

13 Namely, tranſgreſſe and diſſemble againſt the Lorde, and fall away from our GOD, vſing preſumptuous and trayterous imaginations, and talking falſe matters in our hartes.

14 And therefore is equitie gone aſyde, and righteouſneſſe ſtandeth farre of, trueth is fallen downe in the ſtreete, and the thing that is plaine and open, may not be ſhewed.

15 Yea, the trueth is taken away, and he that refraineth him ſelf from euyl, muſt be ſpoyled: when the Lord ſawe this, it diſpleaſed him ſore that there was no equitie.

16 He ſawe alſo that there was no man righteous, and he wondred that there was no man to helpe him: wherefore he helde him by his owne power, and he ſtayned him by his owne righteouſneſſe.

17 * He put righteouſneſſe vppon him for a preſtplate, he ſet the helmet of health vpon his head: he put on wrath in the ſteade of clothyng, and tooke ielouſie about him for a cloke. *Ephe.6.17 1.Theſ.5.8.

18 Euen as when a man goeth forth wrathfully to recompence his enimies, and to be auenged of his aduerſaries, he wyll recompence and rewarde the Ilandes.

19 They ſhall feare the name of the Lorde from the ryſing of the Sunne, and his maieſtie vnto the going downe of the ſame: for he ſhall come as a violent water ſtreame, whiche the winde of the Lorde hath moued. *Rom.11.26

20 But vnto * Sion there ſhall come a redeemer redeemer, and vnto them in Iacob that turne from wyckednesse, sayth the Lorde.

21 I wyll make this couenaunt with them (sayth the Lorde:) My spirite that is vpon thee, and the woordes which I haue put in thy mouth, shall neuer go out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy chylders chyldren, from this tyme forth for euermore worlde without ende, sayth the Lorde.

¶ The.lx.Chapter.

1. A consolation and comfort to Hierusalem. 5. The Churche is geathered togeather among the Gentiles by preachyng of the Gospel, 16. and aboundeth vvith al good thynges.

1 GET thee vp betymes, and be bryght, O Hierusalem, for thy lyght cōmeth, and the glory of the Lorde is rysen vp vpon thee.
2 For loe, whyle the darkenesse and cloud couereth the earth, and the people, the Lorde shal shewe thee lyght, and his glorye shalbe seene in thee.
3 The Gentiles shal come to thy lyght, and kynges to the bryghtnesse that springeth forth vpon thee.
Vid.49.18 4 *Lyft vp thyne eyes, and looke rounde about thee: al these geather them selues and come to thee, thy sonnes shal come vnto thee from farre, and thy daughters shal geather them selues to thee on euery syde.
5 Then thou shalt see this, and be glorious, thou shalt maruayle exceedyngly, and thine hart shalbe opened: when the abundance of the sea shalbe conuerted vnto thee, that is, when the riches of the Gentiles shall come vnto thee,
6 The multitude of Camelles shal couer thee, the Dromedaries of Madian & Epha: al they of Saba shall come, bryngyng golde and incense, and shewyng the prayse of the Lorde.
7 Al the cattel of Cedar shalbe geathered vnto thee, the Rammes of Nabaioth shall serue thee, to be offered acceptably vppon myne aulter: and the house of my glory wyl I garnysshe.
8 But what are these that flee here lyke the cloudes, and as the Doues flee yng to their wyndowes?
9 The Iles also shal waite for me, & specially the Shyppes of Tharsis, that they maye bryng thy sonnes from farre, and their syluer and their golde with them, vnto the name of the Lorde thy God, vnto the holye one of Israel that hath glorified thee.
10 Strangers shal buylde vp thy walles, and their kynges shall doo their seruice: for when I was angrye I smote thee, and of my mercy I pardoned thee.
11 *Thy gates shal stande open styll both day and nyght, and neuer be shut, that the host of the Gentiles maye come, and that their kynges may be brought vnto thee. *Apo.21.24
12 For euery people and kyngdome that serueth not thee shal perishe, and be destroyed with vtter destruction.
13 The glorye of Libanus shal come vnto thee, the Fyre trees, Bores, and Cedars togeather, to garnysshe the place of my sanctuarie: for I wyl glorifie the place of my feete.
14 Moreouer, those shal come kneeling vnto thee that haue vexed thee, and all they that despyse thee shall fall downe at thy foote: thou shalt be called the citie of the Lorde, Sion the citie of the holy one of Israel.
15 Because thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee: I wyll make thee glorious for euer and euer, and ioyful throughout al posterities.
16 Thou shalt sucke the mylke of the Gentiles, and kinges breastes shal feede thee, and thou shalt knowe that I the Lorde am thy sauiour and redeemer, the myghtie one of Iacob.
17 For brasse, wyl I geue thee golde, and for iron, syluer: for wood, brasse: and for stones, iron: I wil turne thine oppressiō into peace, and thine exactions into ryghteousnesse.
18 Violence & robbery shall neuer be heard of in thy lande, neyther harme and destruction within thy borders: thy walles shalbe called health, and thy gates the prayse of God.
19 *The Sunne shal neuer be thy day light, and the light of the Moone shal neuer shyne vnto thee: but the Lorde hym selfe shalbe thyne euerlastyng lyght, and thy God shalbe thy glory. *Apo.21.22
20 Thy Sunne shal neuer goe downe, and thy Moone shal neuer be hyd: for the Lorde hym self shalbe thyne euerlastyng lyght, and thy sorowful dayes shalbe ended.
21 The people shalbe al ryghteous and possesse the lande euer, the floure of my planting, the worke of my handes whereof I wyl reioyce.
22 The youngest and least shall growe into a thousande, and the simplest into a strong people: I the Lorde shall shortly bryng this thyng to passe in his tyme.

¶ The lxi. Chapter.

He prophesieth that Christ shalbe annoynted and sent to preache.

1 THE spirite of the Lorde is * vpon me: for the Lorde hath annoynted me, and sent me to preache good tydynges vnto *Luk.4.18.

the poore, that I might binde vp the wounded hartes, that I myght preache delyueraunce to the captiue, and open the prison to them that are bounde:

2 That I myght declare the acceptable yeere of the Lord, & the day of the vengeance of our God: that I myght comfort al them
*Math.5.3. that are in * heauynesse:

3 That I might geue vnto thē that mourne in Sion, that I myght geue, I say, beautie in steade of ashes, ioyful oyntment for sighing, pleasant rayment for an heauie mynde, that they myght be called trees of ryghteousnesse, a plantyng of the Lorde for hym to reioyce in.

*Esai.58.12 4 * They shal buyld the long rough wyldernesse, and set vp the olde desart: they shal repayre the waste places, and suche as haue been voyde throughout many generations.

5 Strangers shal stande and feede your cattel, and the aliants shalbe your ploughmen, and dressers of your Vines.

6 But ye shalbe named the Priestes of the Lorde, and men shal cal you the seruauntes of our God: ye shall enioy the goodes of the Gentiles, and triumphe in their substance.

7 For your great reproofe you shall haue double ioy, and for shame shal they haue ioy of their portion: for they shall haue double possession in their land, and euerlastyng ioy shalbe with them.

8 For I the Lorde which loue ryght, & hate robberie (though it were offered me) shal make their woorkes ful of faythfulnesse, and make an euerlastyng couenaunt with them.

9 Their seede also and their generation shalbe knowen among the Gentiles, and among the people: al they that see them, shal knowe that they are the hygh blessed seede of the Lorde.

10 And therefore I am ioyfull in the Lorde, and my soule reioyceth in God: for he hath put vpon me the garment of saluation, and couered me with the mantle of ryghteousnesse: he shal decke me lyke a brydegrome, and as a bryde that hath her apparel vppon her.

11 For lyke as the grounde bryngeth foorth her fruit, and as the garden shooteth foorth seede: so shal the Lord God cause ryghteousnesse and prayse to florysshe foorth before all the heathen.

¶ The.lxii.Chapter.

A propheſie of the commyng of Christe.

1 FOR Sions sake wyll I not holde my tongue, and for Hierusalems sake I wil not ceasse, vntyl their ryghteousnesse breake forth as the shinyng lyght, and their saluation as a burnyng lampe.

2 Then shal the Gentiles see thy ryghteousnesse, and al kynges thy glory: thou shalt be named with a new name, which the mouth of the Lorde shal shewe.

3 Thou shalt be a crowne in the hand of the Lorde, and a glorious garlande in the hand of thy God.

4 From this time foorth thou shalt neuer be called the forsaken, and thy lande shall no more be called the wyldernesse: but thou shalt be called, My pleasure is in her: and thy land shalbe called the married woman: for the Lorde loueth thee, and thy land shalbe ioyned in marriage.

5 And lyke as a young man taketh a virgin to marriage, so shall thy sonnes be married vnto thee: and as a brydegrome is glad of his bryde, so shall thy GOD reioyce ouer thee.

6 I haue set watchmen vpon thy walles, O Hierusalem, whiche shall neyther ceasse day nor nyght to preache the Lorde: and ye also that remember the Lorde, ye shal not keepe hym close,

7 Nor leaue to speake of hym, vntyll Hierusalem be set vp, and made the prayse of the worlde.

8 The Lord hath sworne by his right hande and by his strong arme, that from hencefoorth he wyl not geue thy corne to be meate for thyne enimies, nor thy wyne wherein thou hast laboured, to be drynke for the strangers.

9 But they that haue geathered in ỹ corne, shal eate it, and geue thankes to the Lorde: and they that haue borne in the wyne, shall drynke it in the court of my sanctuarie.

10 *Goe you, go you through the gates, make *Esai.57.14 daughter Sion, See, thy Sauiour commeth, beholde, he bryngeth his recompence with hym, and his woorke before hym.

12 For they whom the Lorde delyuereth, shalbe called the holy people: and as for thee, thou shalt be named the greatly occupied, and not the forsaken citie.

¶ The.lxiii.Chapter.

7. Of the redemption promysed to the people.

1 What

The Epistle on the Monday before Easter.

1 WHat is he this that commeth from Edom, with red coloured clothes from Bosra? he is honourably arayed, and commeth in mightily with his power: I am he that teacheth ryghteousnesse, and am of the power to helpe.

Apoc.19.12 2 *Wherefore then is thy clothyng red, and thy rayment lyke his that treadeth in the wine presse?

3 I haue troden the presse mee selfe alone, and of al people there is not one with me: thus wyll I treade them downe in my wrath, and set my feete vpon them in mine indignation, and their blood shal be sprong vpon my clothes, and so wyl I stayne al my rayment.

4 For the day of vengeance is assigned in my hart, and the yeere when my people shalbe deliuered, is come.

5 I looked about me, and there was no man to shewe me any helpe, I marueyled that no man helde me vp: then I helde me by mine owne arme, and my feruentnesse susteyned me.

6 And thus wyl I treade downe the people in my wrath, & bathe them in my displeasure, and vpon the earth wyl I lay their strength.

7 I wyl declare the goodnesse of the Lorde, yea and the prayse of the Lord for al that he hath geuen vs, for the great good that he hath done for Israel, which he hath geuen them of his owne fauour, and according to the multitude of his louing kyndnesse.

8 For he sayde, These no doubt are my people, and no shrinking chyldren: and so was he their sauiour.

9 In their troubles, he was also troubled with them, and the angel that went foorth from his presence deliuered them: of very loue and kyndnesse that he had vnto them he redeemed them, he hath borne them and caryed them vp euer since the world began.

10 But after they prouoked hym to wrath, and vexed his holy sprite, he was their enimie, and fought agaynst them hym selfe.

Exo.14.30 11 Yet remembred Israel the olde tyme of Moses and his people, saying, *Where is he that brought them from the water of the sea, with them that feede his sheepe? Where is he that hath geuen his holy sprite among them?

12 He led them by the ryght hande of Moses with his glorious arme, diuiding the water before them, whereby he gate hym selfe an euerlasting name.

13 He led them in the deepe as an horse is ledde in the playne, that they shoulde not stumble.

14 As a tame beast goeth in the feelde, and the sprite of God geueth hym rest: thus (O God) hast thou led thy people, to make thee selfe a glorious name withal.

15 *Looke downe then from heauen, and beholde from the dwellyng place of thy sanctuarie and thy glorie: howe is it that thy ielousie, thy strength, the multitude of thy mercies, and thy louing kyndnesse wyll not be intreated of vs? *Deu.26.15 Baruc.2.16.

16 Yet art thou our father: for Abraham knoweth vs not, neyther is Israel acquainted with vs: but thou Lorde art our father and redeemer, and thy name is euerlasting.

17 O Lord, wherefore hast thou led vs out of the way? wherefore hast thou hardened our hartes that we feare thee not? Be at one with vs agayne for thy seruantes sake, and for the generation of thine heritage.

18 Thy holy people haue had but a litle whyle thy sanctuarie in possession, for our enimies haue troden downe thy holy place.

19 And we were thine from the beginning, when thou wast not their Lorde, for they haue not called vpon thy name.

¶ The.lxiiii.Chapter.

1. The prophete (vnder the personne of the Iewes) bewayleth theyr exile and banishment. 6. Mans righteousnesse is lyke a cloth defiled.

1 O That thou wouldest cleaue the heauens in sunder and come downe, that the mountaynes might melt away at thy presence,

2 Lyke as at an hotte fyre, and that the malitious might boyle away as the water doeth vpon the fyre: whereby thy name might be knowen among thine enimies, and that the gentiles might tremble before thee.

3 When thou wroughtest woonderous strange woorkes, we looked not for them: thou camest downe, and the hylles melted at thy presence.

4 *For since the beginning of the worlde, it hath not ben heard or perceyued, neyther hath any eye seene another god beside thee, whiche doest so muche for them that put their trust in thee. *1.Cor.2.9.

5 Thou helpest hym that doeth right with chearefulnesse, and them that thinke vpon thee in thy wayes: but lo, thou hast ben angry, for we offended, and haue ben euer in sinne, though the worlde haue cleaued to them, yet shal we be saued.

6 We are al as an vncleane thyng, and all our ryghteousnesse are as filthie raggest we fal euery one as the leake, for our ſinnes cary vs away like the wynde.

7 There is no man that calleth vppon thy name, that ſtandeth vp to take holde by thee: therefore hydeſt thou thy face from vs, and conſumeſt vs, becauſe of our ſinnes.

8 But nowe, O Lorde, thou father of ours, we are thy clay, and thou art our potter, and we al are the woorke of thy handes.

*Pſal.78.9. 9 *Be not to ſore diſpleaſed, O Lorde, and keepe not our offences to long in thy remembrance: but conſyder that we all are thy people.

10 The cities of thy ſanctuarie lye waſte, Sion is a wylderneſſe, and Hieruſalem a deſart.

11 Our holy houſe, whiche is our beautie where our fathers praiſed thee, is brent vp: yea, all our commodities and pleaſures are waſted away.

12 Wylt thou not be intreated, O Lord, for al this wylt thou holde thy peace, & ſcourge vs ſo ſore?

¶ The.lxv. Chapter.

The reiectyng of the Ievves, and the callyng of the Heathen.

*Ro.10.20. 1 THey *ſeeke me, that hytherto haue not aſked for me, they fynd me, that hitherto haue not ſought me: I haue ſayde, I am here, I am here, I am founde of a people that neuer called vpon my name.

2 For thus long haue I euer holden out mine handes to an vnfaythful people, that goe not the right way, but after their owne imagination:

3 To a people that is euer defyng me to my face, they make theyr oblations in gardens, and theyr ſmoke vppon aulters of bricke.

4 They lurke among the groues, and lye in the dennes al nyght: they eate ſwines fleſh, and vncleane broth is in theyr veſſels.

5 If thou commeſt nygh them, they ſay, Touche me not, for I am holyer then thou: All theſe men when I am angry, ſhalbe turned to ſmoke and fyre that ſhall burne for euer.

6 Beholde, it is written before my face, and ſhal not be forgotten, but recompenced, I wyl rewarde it them into theyr boſome.

7 I meane your miſdeedes, and the miſdeedes of your fathers togeather, ſayth the Lorde, which haue made theyr ſmokes vppon the mountaynes, and blaſphemed me vpon the hylles: therefore wyl I meaſure theyr olde deedes vnto theyr boſome agayne.

8 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde, Lyke as when newe wine is founde in the cluſter, and one ſayth, Looſe it not, for there is bleſſyng therein: euen ſo wyl I doo alſo for my ſeruantes ſakes, that I wyl not deſtroy them all.

9 But I wyl take a ſeede out of Jacob, and out of Juda one, to take poſſeſſion of my hyl: My choſen ſhal poſſeſſe it, and my ſeruantes ſhal dwel there.

10 Saron ſhalbe a ſheepefolde, and the valley of Achor ſhal geue the ſtalling for the cattayle of my people that ſeeke after me.

11 But as for you, ye are they that haue forſaken the Lorde, and forgotten my holy hyl: ye haue ſet vp an aulter vnto Jupiter, and geuen riche drynke offeringes vnto the planets:

12 Therefore wyll I number you to the ſwoorde, that ye ſhalbe deſtroyed altogether: *for that when I called, no man gaue me anſweare, when I ſpake, ye hearkened not vnto me, but did wyckednes before mine eyes, and chooſe the thynges that pleaſed me not. *Prou.1.24. Jere.7.31. Eſai.66.4.

13 Therefore thus ſayth the Lord God, Beholde, my ſeruantes ſhal eate, but ye ſhall haue hunger: beholde, my ſeruantes ſhall drynke, but ye ſhal ſuffer thirſt: behold, my ſeruantes ſhalbe meerie, but ye ſhalbe confounded:

14 Beholde, my ſeruantes ſhal reioyce for very quietneſſe of hart, but ye ſhal crye for ſorowe of hart, and complayne for veratiō of mynde.

15 Your name ſhal ye leaue accurſed among my choſen: for God the Lorde ſhal ſlay you, and cal his ſeruantes by another name.

16 Who ſo reioyceth vpon earth, ſhall reioyce in the true God, and who ſo ſweareth vpon earth, ſhal ſweare in the true God, for the olde afflictions ſhalbe forgotten, and taken away out of my ſyght.

17 *For loe, I ſhal make a newe heauen and a newe earth: and as for the olde, they ſhal neuer be thought vpon, nor kept in mynde: *2.Pet.3.13. Apoc.21.1.

18 But the Lorde ſayth, Be glad and euermore reioyce for the thynges that I ſhal doo: for why? beholde, I wyl make a ioyful Hieruſalem, and his people ioyful.

19 Yea, I mee ſelfe wyl reioyce with Hieruſalem, and be glad with my people: and the voyce of weepyng and wayling ſhal not be hearde in her from thencefoorth.

20 There ſhal neyther be chylde nor olde man that haue not theyr ful dayes: but when the chylde commeth to an hundred yeeres olde, it ſhal dye, and yf he that is an hundred yeeres of age doo wrong, he ſhalbe curſed.

21 They

21 They shal buylde houses, and dwel in them, they shal plant Vineyardes, and eate the fruite of them.

22 They shal not buylde, and another possesse, they shall not plant, and another eate: but the lyfe of my people shalbe lyke a tree, and myne elect shal enioy styl the woorke of their handes.

23 They shall not labour in vayne, nor beget with trouble: for they are the bygh blessed seede of the Lord, and their fruites with them.

24 *And it shalbe, that or euer they cal, I wil answeare them, while they are yet but thinkyng howe to speake, I wyl heare them. *Psal.31.5.

25 *The Woolfe and the Lambe shal feede togeather, & the Lion shal eate hay lyke the bullocke, but earth shalbe the Serpentes meate: there shal no man hurt nor slay another in al my holy hyl, sayth the Lorde. *Esai.11.6.

¶ The.lx. vi. Chapter.

1. God dwelleth not in temples made by mans hand. 3. He despyseth sacrifices doone without mercy and fayth. 7. God comforteth them that are rebuked for his sake. 23. Among the Christen the Saboth is continuall.

1 THus sayth the Lorde, *Heauen is my seate, and the earth is my footstoole: Where shal nowe the house standе that ye wyl buylde vnto me? And where shalbe the place that I wyl dwel in? *Act.7.48.

2 As for these thynges, my hand hath made them all, and they are all created, sayth the Lorde, whiche of them shal I then regard? Euen hym that is poore and of a lowlye troubled spirite, and standeth in awe of my woordes.

3 For who so slayeth an Oxe for me, doeth me so great dishonour as he that kylleth a man: he that kylleth a Sheepe for me, * knetheth a dogge: he that bryngeth me meate offeringes, offereth swynes blood: who so maketh me a memorial of incense, praiseth the thing that is vnryght: Yet take they such wayes in hande, and their soule delyghteth in these abominations. * Exod.22. Leuit.1.

4 Therefore wyll I also haue pleasure in laughing them to scorne, and the thing that they feare wyl I bryng vppon them: * for when I called, no man gaue answeare, when I spake, they would not heare: but dyd wyckednesse before myne eyes, & chose the thynges that displeased me. * Esai.65.12 Ier.7.13.

5 Heare the woorde of God all ye that feare the thyng which he speaketh: your brethren that hate you, & caste you out for my names sake, say, The Lord is heynous agaynst vs: but you shal see hym in ioy, when they shalbe confounded.

6 Then shalbe heard a great noyse from the citie and the temple, the voyce of the Lorde that wyl rewarde and recompence his enimies:

7 Lyke as when a wyfe bryngeth forth a man child, or euer she suffer the payne of the birth and anguishe of the trauayle.

8 Who euer heard or sawe suche thinges? doth the ground beare in one day? or are the people borne all at once, as Sion trauayled in childbirth, and bare her sonnes?

9 For thus sayth the Lord, Am I he that maketh other to beare, and beare not mee selfe? Am not I he that beareth and maketh barren, sayth thy God?

10 Reioyce with Hierusalem, and be glad with her all ye that loue her, be ioyful with her all ye that mourne for her.

11 For ye shall sucke comfort out of her breastes, and be satisfied: ye shall tast and haue delight in the brightnesse of her glory.

12 For thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyll let peace into her lyke a water flood, and the glory of the heauen like a flowyng streame: then shall ye sucke, ye shalbe borne vpon her sydes, and be ioyfull vpon her knees.

13 For lyke as a childe is comforted of his mother, so shal I comforte you, and ye shalbe comforted in Hierusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your hart shall reioyce, and your bones shal florysh lyke an hearbe: Thus shall the hande of the Lorde be knowen among his seruauntes, and his indignation among his enimies.

15 For beholde, the Lorde shall come with fire, and his charret shalbe lyke a whirle winde: that he may recompence his vengeance in his wrath, and his indignation with the flame of fyre.

16 For the Lorde shall iudge all flesh with the fyre, and with his sword, and there shalbe a great number slayne of the Lorde.

17 Suche as haue made them selues holy and cleane in the gardens, and those that haue eaten swines flesh, mice, and other abominations, shalbe taken away togeather, sayth the Lorde.

18 For I doo knowe their woorkes and thoughtes, and I wyll come to geather all people and tongues: then they shall come and see my glory.

19 Unto them shal I geue a token, and send certayne of them that be delyuered among the gentiles, into Cilicia, Affrica, and Lydia, where men can handle bowes, into Italie, and also Greeke lande: the Iles farre of that haue not heard speake of me, and haue not ſeene my glory, ſhal preach my prayſe among the Gentiles,

20 And ſhall bryng all your brethren for an offeryng vnto the Lord out of al the people, vpon horſes, charrets, and horſlytters, vpon mules and tartes to Hieruſalem my holye hyl, ſayth the Lorde: Lyke as the chyldren of Iſrael bryng the offeryng in cleane veſſels to the houſe of the Lorde.

21 And I ſhal take out certayne of them for to be Prieſtes and Leuites, ſayth the Lord.

*Reue. 21.1. 22 *For lyke as the newe heauen and the newe earth whiche I wyl make, ſhalbe faſt ſtablyſhed by me, ſayth the Lorde: ſo ſhall your ſeede and your name continue.

23 And it ſhall come to paſſe, that from Moone to his Moone, from Sabboth to his Sabboth, al fleſhe ſhal come to worſhip before me, ſayth the Lorde.

24 *And they ſhal goe forth and looke vpon the carrions of them that haue tranſgreſſed agaynſt me: for their wormes ſhal not dye, neyther ſhall their fyre be quenched, and all fleſhe ſhal abhorre them. * Mat. 9.44.

The ende of the Booke of the Prophet Eſai.

The Booke of the Prophet Ieremie.

The firſt Chapter.

1. The ſtocke of Ieremie, and in vvhat tyme he propheſied. 6. He excuſeth hym ſelfe, and vvoulde refuſe the office of a Prophete, becauſe he is young and vnexpert. 8. He is taught of the Lorde, and becommeth holde.

1

THeſe are the Sermons of Ieremie the ſonne of Helciah the prieſt, one of them that dwelt at Anathoth in the lande of Beniamin,

2 When the Lorde had firſte ſpoken with hym in the tyme of Iohiah the ſonne of Amon king of Iuda, in the thirteenth yeere of his raigne.

4 And ſo durynge vnto the tyme of Iehoacim the ſonne of Iohiah kyng of Iuda, and vntyll the eleuenth yeere of Zederiah the ſonne of Iohiah kyng of Iuda were ended, when Hieruſalem was taken, euen in the fyfth moneth.

4 The worde of the Lorde ſpake thus vnto me,

5 Before I faſhioned thee in thy mothers wombe, I dyd know thee: and or euer thou waſt borne, I ſanctified thee, and ordeyned thee to be a Prophet vnto the people.

6 Then ſayde I, O Lorde God, I can not ſpeake, for I am yet but young.

7 And the Lorde anſwered me thus, Say not ſo, I am too young: for thou ſhalt goe to al that I ſhal ſende thee vnto, & whatſoeuer I commaunde thee, that ſhalt thou ſpeake.

8 Be not afrayde of their faces: for I am with thee to delyuer thee, ſayth the Lorde.

9 And with that the Lorde ſtretched out his hand and touched my mouth: and the ſame Lorde ſayde vnto me, *Beholde, I put my wordes in thy mouth. *Ier. 1.9.

10 And beholde, this day doo I ſet thee ouer the people and kyngdomes, that thou mayſt roote out, and breake of, deſtroy, and make waſte, and that thou mayeſt buylde vp and plant.

11 After this the Lorde ſpake vnto me, ſaying, Ieremie, what ſeeſt thou? And I ſaid, I a ſee the rod of an Almonde tree. a. God beweeth to Ieremie the deſtruction of the Iewes by the Babilonians to be at hande.

12 Then ſayde the Lorde vnto me, Thou haſt ſeene ryght, for I wyl make haſte ſpeedyly vpon my worde to performe it.

13 It happened afterwarde that the Lorde ſpake to me agayne, and ſayde, What ſeeſt thou? And I ſayde, I doo ſee a ſeethyng pot, lookyng from out of the North.

14 Then ſayde the Lorde vnto me, *Out of the North ſhal come a plague vpon all the dwellers of the lande. *Ierem. 4.6

15 For loe, I wyll cal al the kynredes of the kyngdomes of the North, ſayth the Lorde, and they ſhall come, and euery one ſhall ſet his ſeate in the gates of Hieruſalem, and in al their walles rounde about, and in al cities of Iuda.

16 And through them ſhall I declare my iudgement vppon all the wickednes of thoſe men that haue forſaken me, that haue burnt burnt incense vnto strange gods, and worshipped the workes of their owne handes.

17 And therefore girde vp thy loynes, aryse, and tel them al that I geue thee in commaundement: Feare them not, lest I destroy thee before them.
Iam.6.27. 18 For beholde, * this day doo I make thee a strong fenced towne, an iron pyller, and a brasen wal against the whole lande, against the kynges and mightie men of Iuda, against the priestes and people of the lande.
19 They shal fight against thee, but they shal not be able to ouercome thee: for I am with thee to deliuer thee, sayth the Lorde.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

1. God rehearseth his benefites done vnto the Ievves. 2. Against priestes and prophetes or preachers that contemne and dispise God. 12. The Ievves are destroyed because they forsooke God, and because they ranne a vvhoore hunting after idolles.

1 MOreouer, the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,
2 Goe thy way, crye in the eares of Hierusalem, and say, Thus saith the Lord: I remember thee, the kyndnesse of thy youth, and the loue of thy dispousyng, in that thou folowedst me through the wyldernesse, in an vntylled lande.
3 Israel was an halowed thing vnto the Lorde, and was his first fruites: all they that deuoure Israel shal offend, misfortune shal fal vpon them, sayth the Lorde.
4 Heare therefore the worde of the Lord, O thou house of Iacob, and al the generations of the house of Israel,
5 Thus sayth the Lorde, What vnfaythfulnesse founde your fathers in me, that they went so farre away fro me, falling to lightnesse, and beyng so vayne?
6 They thought not in their hartes, Where is the Lord that brought vs out of the land of Egypt, that led vs through the wyldernesse, through a desart and rough land, thorowe a drye and deadly lande, yea a lande that no man had gone through, and wherein no man had dwelt?
7 And when I had brought you into a pleasant fertile lande, that ye might enioy the fruites and al the commodities of the same: ye went foorth and defyled my lande, and brought mine heritage to abomination.
8 The priestes them selues said not, Where is the Lorde? They that had the lawe in their handes knewe me not, the shepheards offended against me, the prophetes dyd prophesie in Baal, & folowed such thinges as shal bring them no profite.
9 Wherefore I am constrayned, sayth the Lord, yet againe to contende in iudgement with you, and with your children's children.
10 Goe into the Iles of Cethim, and looke wel: sende vnto Cedar, take diligent heede, and see whether such thynges be done there, 11 Whether the Gentiles them selues haue changed their goddes, whiche yet are no goddes in deede: but my people haue changed a their honour for a thyng that may not helpe them.
12 Be astonished, O ye heauens, be afrayde, and abashed at suche a thyng, sayth the Lorde.
13 For my people hath done two euyls: they haue forsaken mee the wel of the water of lyfe, and digged them pittes, yea vile and broken pittes that can holde no water.
14 Is Israel a bond seruant, or one of the householde: why is he then so spoyled?
15 They roare and crye vpon him as Lions, they haue made his lande waste: his cities are so burnt vp, that there is no man dwelling in them:
16 Yea the children of Noph and Taphnes shal cracke their crowne.
17 Commeth not this vnto thee, because thou hast forsaken the Lorde thy God, euen when he led thee by the way?
18 And what hast thou nowe to doo in the streete of Egypt, to drinke water out of b Nilus? eyther what makest thou in the way to Assyria, to drinke water of ỹ flood?
19 Thine owne wyckednesse shal reproue thee, and thy turnyng away shal condemne thee: that thou mayest knowe and vnderstande howe euyl and hurtful a thyng it is that thou hast forsaken the Lorde thy God, and hast not feared me, sayth the Lord God of hostes.
20 I haue euer broken thy yoke of olde, and burst thy bondes, yet sayest thou, I wyl no more transgresse: but lyke an harlot thou runnest about vpon al high hylles, * and among al greene trees.
21 *Whereas I planted thee a noble vine, and wholly a ryght seede: howe art thou turned then into a bitter vnfruitfull and strange grape?
22 Yea and that so sore that though thou washe thee selfe with Nitrus, and make thee selfe to sauour with that sweet smellyng herbe of Bozith: yet in my sight thou art stayned with thy wickednesse, sayth the Lorde thy God.
23 Howe sayest thou nowe, I am not vncleane, and I haue not folowed Baalim? Loke vpon thine owne walles in ỹ valleyes what thou hast done? thou art lyke a swift dromedarie that goeth easily her way.
24 And thy wantonnesse is lyke a wylde

a. Honor, that is, the faythfull and euerlyuyng God, in whom onely they ought to glory.

b. God reprooueth the people for that they sought remedies, whiche are meant by the water of Nilus and the flood, against theyr euyls, among the Egyptians & Assyrians, where as theyr onely remedie had ben to haue reconciled them selues vnto the Lorde with faythful repentance.
*Iere.3. 6.
*Esai.5. 1.
Hath.21.33

Aſſe that vſeth the wyldernesſe, and that ſnuffeth and blowyth at her wyl: who can tame her? Al they that ſeeke her, ſhall not fayle but fynde her in her moneth.

25 Keepe thy foote from nakednesſe, and thy throte from thirſte, and thou thinkeſt in thee ſelfe, Tushe, I wyl take no forowe, for I haue loued the c strangers, and them wyl I folowe.

c. The propertie of idolatrie is, not only to contemne the voyce of the preacher callyng them to repentance: but ſhameleſſely to prooue the loue of ſtrangers and the folowyng of the, that is, the worſhippyng of ſtockes and ſtones, and ſeruing of God agaynſt his woorde, after theyr owne deuiſes.

26 Like as a theefe that is taken with the deede commeth to ſhame: euen ſo is the houſe of Iſrael come to confuſion, the common people, theyr kynges and rulers, theyr prieſtes and prophetes:

27 For they ſay to a ſtocke, Thou art my father: and to a ſtone, Thou haſt begotten me: yea they haue turned theyr backe vpon me, and not theyr face: but in the tyme of theyr trouble, when they ſay, Stande vp and helpe vs:

28 I ſhal anſwere them, Where are nowe thy goddes that thou haſt made thee? bid them ſtande vp, and helpe thee in the tyme of thy neede: for looke howe many cities thou haſt, O Iuda, * ſo many goddes haſt thou alſo.

*Iere. II. 13.

29 Wherfore then wyl ye goe to lawe with me? ſeeyng ye al are ſynners agaynſt me, ſayth the Lorde.

30 It is but loſt labour that I ſmite your chyldren, for they receyue not my correction: your owne ſworde deſtroyeth your prophetes lyke a deuouryng Lion.

31 Oh generation, hearken vnto the worde of the Lorde: Am I become a wyldernesſe vnto the people of Iſrael? or a lande that hath no lyght? wherefore ſayth my people then, We are lordes, we wyl come no more vnto thee?

32 Doeth a mayde forgeat her rayment, or a bryde her ſtomacher? but my people hath forgotten me a very long whyle.

33 Why beautifieſt thou thy wayes ſo highly, to obteyne fauour therethrough? therefore alſo haſt thou taught wyckednesſe thorowe thy wayes.

34 Upon thy winges is founde the blood of poore and innocent people, whom thou didſt not finde in corners and holes: but thou ſlueſt the prophetes for reproouing al theſe thynges.

35 Yet dareſt thou ſay, I am without ſynne and gilteleſſe, Tushe, his wrath can not come vpon me: beholde, I wyl reaſon with thee, becauſe thou dareſt ſay, I haue not offended.

36 Why gaddeſt thou ſo muche hyther and thyther, to change thy waies? for thou ſhalt be confounded as wel of Egypt as thou waſt of the Aſſyrians.

37 Yea, thou ſhalt goe thy way from them, and ſmite thine handes togeather vpon thy head, becauſe the Lorde ſhal bring that confidence and hope of thine to nought, and thou ſhalt not proſper withal.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

1. God being mereiful, calleth to repentance his people vvhich he had forſaken for theyr vvhoordome vvith idols. 20. He exhorteth Iſrael vnto repentance, promiſing them ſhepheardes that ſhoulde haue the true knovvledge of God. 23. The returne of Iſrael vnto God, confeſſing their offence.

1 COmmonly when a man putteth away his wyfe, and ſhe goeth from him, and marryeth with another, then the queſtion is, Shoulde he reſort vnto her any more after that? (Is not that land then defiled and vncleane?) But as for thee, thou haſt played the harlot with many louers, yet turne agayne to me, ſayth the Lorde.

2 Lyft vp thine eyes to the hygh places, and looke where thou haſt not been defyled: Thou haſt wayted for them in the ſtreetes, and as a murderer in the wyldernesſe, thorowe thy whoredome and ſhameful blaſphemies is the lande defiled.

3 This is the cauſe that the rayne and euenyng deaw hath ceaſſed: thou haſt gotten thee an whoores forehead, and wylt not be aſhamed.

4 Wylt thou not hereafter ſay vnto me, O my father, thou art he that haſt brought me vp, and led me from my youth?

5 Wyl God continue his wrath for euer: wyl he keepe our faultes in memorie to the end? Neuertheleſſe, thou ſpeakeſt ſuche wordes, but thou art euer dooyng worſe and worſe to the vttermoſt of thy power.

6 The Lorde ſayd alſo vnto me in the time of Ioſiah the kyng, *Haſt thou ſeene what that rebellious Iſrael hath done? howe ſhe hath runne vp vpon al the hylles, and among al thicke trees, and there played the harlot? *Iere. 3. 6.

7 Haſt thou ſeene alſo when ſhe had done al this, howe I ſayde vnto her, that ſhe ſhould turne agayne vnto me, and yet ſhe is not returned? Iuda that vnfaythful ſiſter of hers alſo ſawe this:

8 Namely, that after I had wel ſeene the adulterie of the ſhrinking harlot Iſrael, I put her away, and gaue her a byl of diuorcement: for al this, her vnfaythful ſiſter Iuda was not aſhamed, but went backe and played the whoore.

9 Yea, and the wantonneſſe of her whoredome hath defiled the whole lande: for ſhe hath hath committed fornication with stockes and stones.

10 Neuertheleſſe, her vnfaythful ſiſter Iuda is not returned vnto me agayne with her whole hart, but faignedly, ſayth the Lorde.

11 And the Lorde ſayd vnto me, The backeſlyder Iſrael, is more ryghteous then the vnfaythfull Iuda.

12 And therefore goe preache theſe woordes towarde the North, and ſay, Thou diſobedient Iſrael, turne agayne, ſayth the Lorde, and I wyll not bryng my wrath vpon you: for I am mercyfull, ſayth the Lorde, and I wyll not alway beare diſpleaſure againſt thee.

13 But on this condition, that thou knowe thy great blaſpheme, namely, that thou haſt vnfaythfully forſaken the Lorde thy God, and haſt made thee ſelfe partaker of ſtrange goddes vnder all greene trees, and haſt had no wyll to heare my voyce, ſayth the Lorde.

14 O ye diſobedient children, turne agayne, ſayth the Lorde, and I wyl be maryed with you: for I wyl take one out of the citie, and two out of one generation from amõg you, and bryng you into Sion, 15 And wyll geue you heardmen after myne owne mynde, whiche ſhall feede you with learnyng and wyſedome.

16 Moreouer, when ye be encreaſed and multiplyed in the land, then ſaith the Lord, There ſhall no more boaſt be made of the arke of the Lordes Teſtament: no man ſhal thynke vpon it, neyther ſhall any man make mention of it: for from thencefoorth, it ſhall neyther be viſited, neyther ſhall ſuche thyng be done any more.

17 Then ſhall Hieruſalem be called the Lordes ſeate, and al Heathen ſhalbe geathered vnto it for the name of the Lordes ſake whiche ſhalbe ſet at Hieruſalem: and from that tyme forth they ſhall folow no more the imagination of their owne frowarde hart.

18 Then thoſe that be of the houſe of Iuda ſhall goe into the houſe of Iſrael, and they ſhall come togeather out of the North, into the ſame lande that I haue geuen your fathers.

19 I haue thought thus, Howe ſhal I take thee among my children, and geue a pleaſant lande for thyne heritage, yea, and a goodly hoſt of the Heathen? And I ſayde, Cal me father, and ſhrynke not from me.

20 Truely, lyke as a woman fayleth her huſbande, ſo are ye vnfaythfull vnto me, O ye houſe of Iſrael ſayth the Lorde.

21 The voyce of the children of Iſrael was hearde on hygh, weepyng and waylyng: for that they haue defiled their way, and forgotten God their Lorde.

22 O ye diſobedient children, Turne agayne, and ſo ſhall ye heale your backeturninges, Loe, we come vnto thee, for thou art the Lorde our God.

23 Truely in vayne is health hoped for from the hylles, be they neuer ſo many: but the health of Iſrael ſtandeth onely vpon God our Lorde.

24 Confuſion hath deuoured our fathers labour from our youth vp, yea their ſheepe and Bullockes, their ſonnes and daughters.

25 So doo we alſo ſleepe in our confuſion, and ſhame couereth vs: for we and our fathers, from our youth vp vnto this day, haue ſinned againſt the Lorde our God, and haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lorde our GOD.

¶ The .iiii. Chapter.

2. The true repentance or returnyng to GOD. 4 He exhorteth to the circumciſion of the hart. 5. The deſtruction of Iurie is propheſied for the malice of their hartes.

1 O Iſrael, yf thou wylt turne thee, then turne vnto me, ſayth the Lorde, and yf thou wylt put away thyne abominations out of my ſight, thou ſhalt not be mooued,

2 And ſhalt ſweare, The Lorde lyueth in trueth, in equitie, and ryghteouſneſſe, and all people ſhalbe fortunable and ioyfull in hym.

3 For thus ſayth the Lorde to all Iuda and Hieruſalem, * Plowe your lande, and ſowe not among the thornes. *Deut.10.12

4 Be circumciſed in the Lord, and cut away the foreſkynne of your hartes, al ye of Iuda, and al the indwellers of Hieruſalem: that myne indignation breake not out lyke fyre and kyndle, ſo that no man may quenche it, becauſe of the wickednelſe of your imaginations.

5 Preach in Iuda and Hieruſalem, crye out and ſpeake, blowe the trumpets in the land, crye, that euery man may heare, and ſay, Geather you togeather, and we wyl goe into ſtrong cities.

6 Set vp the token in Sion, ſpeede you, and make no tarrying: * for I wyll bryng a great plague, and a great deſtruction from the North. *Ierc.1.14.

7 For the ſpoyler of the Gentiles is broken vp from his place, as a Lion out of his den, that he may make thy lande waſte, and deſtroy the cities, ſo that no man may dwell therein.

8 Where

8 Wherefore gyrde your ſelues about with ſackcloth, mourne and weepe: for the feare-full wrath of the Lorde is not withdrawen from vs.

9 At the ſame tyme ſayth the Lorde, The hart of the kyng and of the princes ſhalbe gone, the prieſtes ſhalbe aſtoniſhed, and the prophetes ſhalbe ſore afrayde.

10 Then ſayde I, O Lorde God, haſt thou then deceiued this people and Hieruſalem, ſaying, Ye ſhall haue peace, and nowe the ſworde goeth through their lyues?

11 Then ſhall it be ſayde to the people and Hieruſalem, A ſtrong wynde in the hygh places of the wylderneſſe commeth through the way of my people, but neyther to fanne nor to cleanſe.

12 After that ſhall there come vnto me a ſtrong wynde from thoſe places, and then wyl I alſo geue ſentence vpon them.

13 For loe, he aryſeth lyke a cloude, and his charets are lyke a ſtormie wynde, his horſes are ſwyfter then the Eagle: Woe vnto vs, for we are deſtroyed.

14 O Hieruſalem, waſhe thyne hart from wickedneſſe, that thou mayeſt be helped: how long ſhal thy vaine thoughtes remaine with thee?

15 For a voyce from Dan, and from the hyll of Ephraim ſpeaketh out, and telleth of a deſtruction.

16 Remember the Heathen, and geue Hieruſalem warnyng, and preache vnto her, that watchers ouer her are comming from farre countreys, they haue cryed out againſt the cities of Iuda.

17 And they haue beſet her about in euery place, lyke as the watchmen in the feelde: for they haue prouoked me to wrath, ſayth the Lorde.

*Oſee.1.8. 18 * Thy wayes and thy thoughtes haue brought thee vnto this, ſuche is thyne owne wickedneſſe and diſobedience: and becauſe it is a bitter thyng, it hath ſtricken thee to the hart.

19 Ah my belly, ah my belly, ſhalt thou crie, howe is my hart ſo ſore? my hart panteth within me, I can not be ſtyll, for I haue hearde the crying of the trumpets, & peales of warre.

20 They crye murder vppon murder, the whole lande ſhall perishe: Immediatly my tentes were deſtroyed, and my hangynges in the twynckling of an eye.

21 How long ſhal I ſee the tokens of warre, and heare the noyſe of the trumpets?

22 Neuertheleſſe, thus ſhal come vpon them, becauſe my people are become fooliſhe, and hath not knowen me: they are the children of fooliſhneſſe, and without any diſcretion: to do euyl they haue wit yenough, but to do wel they haue no wyſedome.

23 I haue looked vpon the earth, and lee, it was waſte and voyde: I looked towarde heauen, and it had no ſhyne.

24 I behelde the mountaynes, and loe, they trembled, and all the hylles were in a feare.

25 I looked about me, & there was no body: and al the byrdes of the ayre were away.

26 I marked well, and the plowed feelde was become waſte, yea, all theyr cities were broken downe at the preſence of the Lorde, and indignation of his wrath.

27 For thus hath the Lord ſayd, The whole lande ſhalbe deſolate, yet wyll I not then haue done.

28 And therfore ſhall the earth mourne, and the heauen be ſory aboue, for the thyng that I haue ſpoken to the prophetes, purpoſed, and taken vpō me to do, ſhal not repent me, and I wyl not goe from it.

29 The whole lande ſhall flee for the noyſe of horſemen and bowmen, they ſhall runne into dennes, into woodes, and clymbe vp the ſtony rockes: all the cities ſhalbe voyde, and no man dwellyng therein.

30 What wylt thou nowe doo, thou beyng deſtroyed? For though thou clotheſt thee ſelfe with ſcarlet, & deckeſt thee with golde, though thou payntest thy face with colours now, yet ſhalt thou trim thee ſelfe in vayne: For thoſe that hytherto haue been thy louers, ſhal abhorre thee, and go about to ſlay thee.

31 For I heare a noyſe like as it were of a woman trauaylyng, and one labouryng of her firſt chylde, euen the voyce of the daughter Sion, that caſteth out her armes, and ſoweth, ſaying, Ah, woe is me, how ſore vexed and faynt is my hart for feare of the murderers?

The v. Chapter.

1. In Iurie is there no righteous or faythful man founde, eyther amongſt the people, or the rulers, for whoſe ſake the Lorde ſhoulde ſpare the citie. 15. Wherefore Iurie is deſtroyed of the Aſſyrians.

1 LOoke through Hieruſalem, behold, and ſee, ſeke through her ſtreetes alſo within, yf ye can finde one man that doth equal and right, or ſeeketh for the trueth, and I ſhal ſpare the citie, ſayth the Lorde.

2 For though they can ſay, The Lord liueth: yet they ſweare to deceiue.

3 Wheras thou (O Lord) lookeſt only vpon fayth and trueth: Thou haſt ſcourged thē, but they tooke no repentance, thou haſt corrected them for amendement, but they refuſed fused thy correction, they made their faces harder then a stone, and would not amend.

4 Therefore I thought in my selfe, Peraduenture they are so simple and foolish, that they vnderstand nothing of the Lords way, and iudgementes of their God.

5 Therefore wyll I goe vnto their heades and rulers, & talke with them, yf they know the way of the Lord, & iudgementes of their God: But these in lyke maner haue broken the yoke, and burst the bondes in sunder.

6 Wherefore a Lion out of the wood hath hurt them, and a Woolfe in the euenyng shal destroy them, the Leopard doth lye lurking by their cities, to teare in peeces all them that come thereout: for their offences are multiplied, and their departing away is encreased.

7 Shoulde I then for all this haue mercie vpon thee? Thy children haue forsaken me, and sworne by them that are no gods: and albeit that I fed them to the full, yet they fal to adulterie, and haunt harlots houses.

Ver.12.11 8 *In the desyre of vncleanly lust they are become like the stoned horse, euery man neigheth at his neyghbours wyfe.

9 Should I not correct this, sayth the lord? shoulde I not be auenged of euery people that is like vnto this?

10 Climbe vp vpon their walles, beat them downe, and a destroy them not vtterly: take away their battlementes, because they are not the Lordes.

11 For vnfaithfully hath the house of Israel and Juda forsaken me, sayth the Lorde.

12 They haue denyed the Lorde, and sayde, It is not he that looketh vpon vs, tushe, there shal no misfortune come vpon vs, we shall see neyther sworde nor hunger.

13 As for the warnyng of the prophetes, it is but winde, yea there is not the woorde of God in them: such thinges shal happen vnto them selues.

14 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde God of hostes, Because ye speake such woordes, beholde, the wordes that are in thy mouth wyl I turne to fyre, and make the people to be wood, that the fyre may consume them.

15 Loe, I wyl bring a people vpon you from farre, O house of Israel, sayth the Lorde, a mighty people, an olde people, a people whose speache thou knowest not, neyther vnderstandest what they say.

16 Their arrowes are sodayne death, yea they them selues be very Giantes.

17 This people shall eate vp thy fruite and thy meate, yea they shal deuoure thy sonnes and thy daughters, thy sheepe and thy bullockes, they shall eate vp thy grapes and figges: As for thy strong and well defenced cities wherein thou didst trust, they shall bring to pouertie, and that through the sworde.

18 Neuertheless, I wyl not then haue done with you, sayth the Lorde.

19 *But yf they say, Wherefore doeth the Lorde our God all this vnto vs? Then answeare them, Because that lyke as ye haue forsaken me, and serued strange goddes in your land, euen so shall ye serue strangers out of your land. *Ierr.16.10

20 Preache this vnto the house of Jacob, and crye it out in Juda, and say thus,

21 *Heare this, thou foolishe and vndiscrete people, Ye haue eyes, but ye see not, eares haue ye, but ye heare not. *Esai.6.9.

22 Feare ye not me, sayth the Lord? wyll ye not tremble at my presence? whiche binde the sea with the sand by a continual decree, so that it can not passe his boundes: for though it rage, yet can it doo nothing, and though the waues thereof doo swell, yet may they not goe ouer.

23 But this people hath a false and obstinate hart, they are departed & gone away from me.

24 They thinke not in their hartes, O let vs feare the Lorde our God, who geueth vs rayne early and late when neede is, whiche keepeth euer styll the haruest for vs yeerely.

25 Neuertheless, your misdeedes haue turned these from you, and your sinnes haue robbed you of good thinges.

26 For among my people are found wicked persons, that priuilie lay snares and wayte for men, to take them, and destroy them.

27 And lyke as a net is full of birdes, so are their houses full of that whiche they haue gotten with falshood and deceyte: Hereof commeth their great substance & richesse.

28 Hereof are they fat and wealthy, and are more mischeuous then any other: * they minister not the lawe, they make no ende of the fatherlesse cause, yea and they prosper: yet they iudge not the poore according to equitie. *Esai.1.13. Zach.7.10.

29 Shoulde I not punishe these thinges, sayth the Lord? should not I be auenged of all such people as these be?

30 Horrible and greeuous thinges are done in the land.

31 The prophetes teache falsly, and the preachers receiue gifts, and my people hath pleasure therein: what wyll come thereof at the last?

The .vi. Chapter.

1. The sinnes for which Hierusalem is afflict. 10 Vncircumcised eares, 13. couetousnesse, 14 deceite. 20. The Lord reiecteth the sacrifices of the Iewes. 22. The comming of the Babylonians is prophesied agayne.

I Come

1 COme out of Hieruſalem, ye ſtrong children of Beniamin, blowe vp the Trumpets ye Thecuites, ſet vp a token vnto Bethcaran: for a plague and a great miſerie appeareth out from ỹ North.
2 I wyll liken the daughter Sion to a fayre and tender woman, and to her ſhal come the a ſhepheardes with their flockes.
3 Their tentes ſhall they pitche rounde about her, & euery one ſhal feede in his place.
4 Make battaile agaynſt her, ſhall they ſay, aryſe, let vs goe vp whyle it is yet day: Alas the day goeth away, & the night ſhadowes fall downe.
5 Aryſe, let vs goe vp by night, and deſtroy her ſtrong holdes.
6 For thus hath the Lorde of hoſtes commaunded, Hewe downe her trees, and ſet vp bulwarkes agaynſt Hieruſalem: for the time is come that this citie muſt be puniſhed, for in her is all malitiouſneſſe.
7 Like as a conduite ſpowteth out waters, ſo ſhe ſpowteth out her wickednеſſe: Rob-berie and vnrighteouſneſſe is heard in her, ſorowe and woundes are euer there in my ſight.
8 Amend thee (O Hieruſalem) leſt I withdraw my hart from thee, and make thee deſolate, and thy lande alſo, that no man dwell in it.
9 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, The reſidue of Iſrael ſhalbe geathered as the remnant of grapes: and therefore turne thyne hand agayne into the baſket, lyke the grape geatherer.
10 But vnto whom ſhall I ſpeake? whom ſhall I warne, that he may take heede?
Their eares are ſo vncircumciſed, that they may not heare: beholde, they take the word of God but for a ſcorne, and haue no luſt thereto.
11 And therefore I am ſo ful of thyne indignation, O Lorde, that I may ſuffer no longer, but ſhed it out vpon the children that are without, and vpon all young men: yea the man muſt be taken priſoner with the wyfe, and the aged with the creeple.
12 Their houſes with their landes & wiues ſhalbe turned into ſtrangers: for I wyll ſtretch out myne hand vpon the inhabiters of this land, ſayth the Lorde.
13 *For from the leaſt to the moſt they hang all vpon couetouſneſſe, and from the pro-phete vnto the prieſt, they goe about falſehood and lyes.
14 And beſide that, they heale the hart of my people with ſweete woordes, ſaying,
Peace, peace: when there is no peace at all.
15 Were they aſhamed when they had committed abomination? Truely nay, they be paſt ſhame, and therefore they ſhall fall among the ſlayne, and in the houre when I ſhall viſite thē, they ſhalbe brought downe, ſaith the Lorde.
16 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Goe into the ſtreetes, conſyder and make inquiſition for the old way, and yf it be the good and right way, * then goe therein, that ye may finde reſt for your ſoules: but they ſay, We wyll not walke therein.
17 Moreouer, I wyll ſet watchmen ouer you, and therfore take heede vnto the voyce of the Trumpet: but they ſay, We wyl not take heede.
18 Heare therefore ye Gentiles, and thou congregation ſhalt knowe what I haue de-uiſed for them.
19 Heare thou earth alſo: Beholde, I wyll cauſe a plague to come vpon this people, euen the fruite of their own imaginations, for that they haue not been obedient vnto my woordes, and to my lawe, but abhorred them.
20 *Wherefore bring ye me incence from Saba, and ſweete ſmelling Calamus from farre countreys? b your whole burnt offe-ringes diſpleaſe me, and I reioyce not in your ſacrifyces.
21 And therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, Be-holde, I wyl lay ſtumbling blockes among this people, and there ſhall fall at them the father with the children, one neighbour ſhal periſhe with an other.
22 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, there ſhal come a people from ỹ North, & a great people ſhall ryſe from the ends of the earth.
23 With bowes and with dartes ſhal they be weaponed, it is a rough and fierce people, and an vnmercifull people, their voyce roareth lyke the ſea, they ryde vpon hoſtes wel appoynted to the battayle againſt thee,
O daughter Sion.
24 The fame of them haue we heard, our armes are feeble, c heauineſſe and ſorowe is come vpon vs, as vpon a woman trauay-ling with childe.
25 Let no man goe forth into the feelde, let no man come vpon the hygh ſtreete: for the ſwoorde and feare of the enimie is on eue-ry ſyde.
26 Wherefore gyrde a ſackcloth about thee,
O thou daughter of my people, ſprinkle thee ſelfe with aſhes: mourne and weepe bitterly, as vppon thyne onely beloued ſonne, for the deſtroyer ſhall ſodaynely fall vpon vs.

28 Therfoꝛe ſhalt thou ſay vnto them, This is the people that neyther heareth the voyce of the Loꝛd their God, noꝛ receiueth his coꝛrection: faythfulneſſe and trueth is cleane rooted out of their mouth.

29 Wherfoꝛe cut of thyne heare O Hieruſalem and caſt it away, take vp a complaynt on hygh: foꝛ the Loꝛde hath caſt away and foꝛſaken the people that he is diſpleaſed with all.

30 Foꝛ the chyldren of Juda haue done euyl in my ſight, ſaith the Loꝛde, they haue ſet vp their abominations in the houſe that hath my name, and haue defyled it:

31 They haue alſo buylded aulters at Thopheth, which is in the valley of the chyldren of Hennom, that they myght burne theyr ſonnes and daughters in fyre: whiche I neuer commaũded them, neyther came it euer in my thought.

32 And therefoꝛe beholde, the dayes ſhall come (ſayth the Loꝛde) that it ſhall no moꝛe be called Thopheth, oꝛ the valley of the childrē of Hennom, but the valley of ſlaughter: foꝛ in Thopheth they ſhalbe buried, becauſe they ſhall els haue no roome.

33 Yea, the dead bodyes of this people ſhalbe eaten vp of the foules of the ayre, and wylde beaſtes of the earth, and no man ſhall fray them away.

Ezech.26.13 34 And as foꝛ the voyce of myrth and gladneſſe of the cities of Juda and Hieruſalem, the voyce of the bryde groome, and of the bryde, I wyl make them ceaſſe: foꝛ the land ſhalbe deſolate.

¶ The.viii.Chapter.

1. The deſtruction of the Ievves. 4. The Lorde moueth the people to amendement, rekenyng vp theyr ſinnes. 20. He reprehendeth the lying doctrine of the prophetes and prieſtes.

1 AT the ſame tyme, ſayth the Loꝛde, the bones of the kynges of Juda, the bones of his pꝛinces, the bones of the pꝛeachers and pꝛophetes, yea, and the bones of the citizens of Hieruſalem, ſhalbe bꝛought out of theyr graues,

2 And layde agaynſt the Sunne, and the Moone, and all the heauenly hoſt, whom they loued, whom they ſerued, whom they ranne after, whom they ſought and wooꝛſhypped: they ſhall neyther be geathered togeather noꝛ buryed, but ſhall lye as doung vpon the earth.

3 And all they that remayne of this wicked generation, ſhall deſire rather to dye then to lyue, wherſoeuer they remaine, and wheras I ſcatter them, ſayth the Loꝛde of hoſtes.

4 Thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto thē alſo, Thus ſayth the Loꝛde, Doo men fall, ſo that they ryſe not vp agayne? oꝛ yf Iſrael repent, wyl not God turne agayne to them?

5 Wherefoꝛe then is this people of Hieruſalem gone ſo farre backe, that they turne not agayne? They are euer the longer the moꝛe obſtinate, and wyll not be conuerted.

6 Foꝛ I haue looked and conſydered, but there is no man that ſpeaketh a good woꝛd, there is no man that taketh repentaunce foꝛ his ſinne, that wyl ſo much ſay, What haue I done? but euery man turneth to his owne courſe, lyke a fierce hoꝛſe headlong to the battayle.

7 The Stoꝛke in the ayre knoweth his appoynted time, the Turtle Doue, the Swallowe, and the Crane, conſyder the tyme of their trauayle: but my people wyl not know the tyme of the puniſhment of the Loꝛde.

8 Howe dare ye ſay then, We are wyſe, we haue the lawe of the Loꝛde among vs? Truely in vayne hath he prepared his pen, and vaynely haue the wryters written it.

9 Therefoꝛe ſhall the wyſe be confounded, they ſhalbe afrayde and taken: foꝛ loe, they haue caſt out the woꝛde of the Loꝛde, what wyſedome can then be among them?

10 Wherfoꝛe I wyl geue their wyues vnto aliantes, and their feeldes to deſtroyers: Foꝛ *from the loweſt vnto the hygheſt they folowe fylthy lucre, and from the pꝛophet vnto the pꝛieſt, they deale all with lyes. *Eſai.55.n. Jerr.6.h

11 Neuertheleſſe, they heale the hurt of my people very ſlenderly, ſaying, Peace, peace: where there is no peace at all.

12 Fye foꝛ ſhame, howe abominable thinges do they, and yet they be not aſhamed, yea, they knowe of no ſhame: Wherefoꝛe in the tyme of their viſitation, they ſhal fal among the dead bodyes, and be ouerthꝛowen, ſayth the Loꝛde.

13 Moꝛeouer, I wyl conſume them in deede (ſayth the Loꝛde) ſo that there ſhall not be one grape vpon the vine, neyther one fygge vpon the fygge tree, and the leaues ſhalbe pluckt of, and the thyng that I haue geuen them, ſhalbe taken from them.

14 Why pꝛolong we the time, let vs geather our ſelues togeather, and go into the ſtrong citie, there ſhall we be in reſt: foꝛ the Loꝛde our God hath put vs to ſilence, and geuen ys water mixt with gall to drinke, because we haue sinned agaynst him.

Ier.14.19 15 * We looked for peace, and we fare not the better, we wayted for the time of health, and loe, here is nothing but trouble.

16 The noyse of his horses is heard from Dan, the whole land is afraid at the neighing of his strong horses: for they are come in, and haue deuoured the land with al that is in it, the cities, and those that dwell therein.

17 Moreouer, I wyll send Cockatrices and Serpentes among you (whiche wyll not be charmed) and they shall bite you, sayth the Lorde.

18 I woulde haue had comfort agaynst sorowe: but sorowe is come vppon me, and heauinesse vexeth my hart.

19 For loe, the voyce of the crying of my people is heard for feare of them that come from a farre countrey: Is not the Lord in Sion? Is not her king in her? Wherefore then haue they greeued me shall the Lord say, with their images and foolishe strange fashions of a forraigne God?

20 The harueſt is gone, the Sommer hath an end, and we are not helped.

21 I am sore vexed because of the hurt of my people, I am heauy and abashed.

22 Is there no tryacle at Gilead? Is there no Phisition there? why then is not the health of my people recouered?

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1. The complaint and bewayling of the prophete, 3. The malice of the people. 24. In the knowledge of God ought we only to reioyce. 26. The vncircumcision of the hart.

1 O Who wyll geue my head water ynough, and a well of teares for myne eyes, that I may weepe night and day for the slaughter of my people?

2 Would GOD that I had a cotage some where farre from folke, that I might leaue my people, and goe from them, for they be al adulterers, and a shrinking sort.

3 They bende their tongues like bowes to shoote out lyes, they ware strong vppon earth: As for the trueth, they may not hing away with all in the worlde, for they goe from one wickednesse to another, & wyl not knowe me, sayth the Lorde.

4 Yea, one must keepe him selfe from another, no man may safely truſt his owne brother: for one brother vndermineth an other, one neighbour beguileth another.

5 Yea one dissembleth with another, & they deale with no trueth: They haue practised their tongues to lye, and taken great paines to doo mischeefe.

6 Thou sittest in the middes of a deceitfull people, which for very dissembling falshod wyll not knowe me, sayth the Lorde.

7 Therefore thus sayth the Lord of hostes, Beholde, I wyl melt them, and try them: for what shoulde I els doo to my people?

8 Their tongues are like sharpe arrowes to speake deceit: * with their mouth they speake peaceably to their neighbour, but priuilie they lay wayte for him. *Psal.28.3.

9 Shoulde I not punishe them for these thinges, sayth the Lorde? or shoulde I not be auenged of any suche people as this?

10 Vpon the mountaynes wyll I take vp a lamentation, and a sorowfull crye, and a mournyng vpon the fayre places of the wylderneſſe: namely, howe they are so brent vp, that no man goeth there any more, yea a man shall not heare one beast crye there: byrdes and cattel are all gone from thence.

11 I wyll make Hierusalem also an heaps of stones, and a denne of venemous wormes: and I wyll make ẏ cities of Iuda so waste, that no man shall dwell therein.

12 What man is so wyse as to vnderstande this? or to whom hath the Lorde spoken by mouth, that he may shewe this, and say, O thou lande, why perisheſt thou so? wherefore art thou so brent vp, and like a wylderneſſe that no man goeth through?

13 Yea the Lorde him selfe tolde the same vnto them that forsooke his lawe, and kept not the thing that he gaue them in commaundement, neyther lived thereafter:

14 But followed the wickednesse of their owne hartes, and serued strange Gods, as their forefathers taught them.

15 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, * Beholde, I wyll feede this people with woormwood, and geue them gall to drinke. *Iere.25.15.

16 I wyll scatter them also among the Heathen, whom neither they, nor their fathers haue knowen: and I wyll send a swoord among them to persecute thē, vntil I bring them to nought.

17 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lord of hostes, Beware of the vengeance that hangeth ouer you, and call for mournyng wyues, and send for wyse women, that they come shortly, 18 And sing a mournyng songue of vs, that the teares may fall out of our eyes, and that our eye liddes may gushe out of water.

19 For there is a lamentable noyse heard of Sion: O howe are we so sore destroyed? O how are we so pyteously cōfounded? We must must forsake our owne naturall countrey, and we are shut out of our owne lodginges.

20 Yet heare the woord of the Lorde (O ye women) and let your eares regarde the woordes of his mouth, that ye may learne your daughters to mourne, and that euery one may teache her neighbour to make lamentation.

21 Namely thus, Death is climing vp in at our wyndowes, he is come into our houses, to destroy the childe before the dooze, and the young man in the streete.

22 But tell thou plainely, Thus sayth the Lorde, The dead bodyes of men shall lye vppon the grounde as the doung vpon the feelde, and as the handfull after the mower, & there shalbe no man to take them vp.

1. Cor.1.31 2. Co.10.17 23 Thus sayth the Lord, Let not the wyse man reioyce in his wysdome, nor the strong man in his strength, neither the riche man in his richesse.

24 But who so wyll reioyce, let him reioyce in this, that he vnderstandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lorde which doo mercy, equitie, and righteousnesse vpon the earth: therefore haue I pleasure in suche thynges, sayth the Lorde.

25 Beholde, the time commeth (sayth the Lorde) that I wyll visite all them whose foreskin is vncircumcised, and the circumcised, 26 The Egyptians, the Iewes, the Edomites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, and the shauen Madianites that dwelt in the wyldernesse: for all the Gentiles are all vncircumcised in the fleshe, but al the house of Israel are vncircumcised in the hart.

¶ The.x. Chapter.

a. The constellations of the starres are not to be feared. 5. Of the vveakenesse of idolles, and of the power of God. 21. Of euyll Curates.

1 HEARE the woord of the Lord that he speaketh vnto thee, O thou house of Israel.

2 Thus sayth the Lorde, Ye shal not learne after the maner of the heathen, and ye shall not be afraide for the tokens of heauen: for the heathen are afraide of such.

3 Yea al the customes and lawes of the Gentiles are nothing but vanitie: They hewe downe a tree in the wood with the handes of the workeman, & fashion it with the axe.

4 They couer it ouer with gold or siluer, they fasten it with nayles and hammers, that it mooue not.

5 It standeth as stiffe as the Palme tree, it can neyther speake, nor goe on foote, but must be borne: be not ye afraide of such, for they can doo neyther good nor euyll.

6 *But there is none like vnto thee, O Lord, and great is the name of thy power. *Apoc.15.4.

7 Who would not feare thee, O king of the Gentiles? for thyne is the dominion: for among all the wyse men of the Gentiles, and in all theyr kingdomes, there is none that may be likened vnto thee.

8 They are altogether brutish and vnwyse in this one thing: a wood is the teachyng of vanitie.

9 Syluer is brought out of Tharsis, and beaten to plates, and golde from Ophir, a worke that is made with the hand of the craftesman, and they are clothed with yelowe silke and scarlette: all these are the worke of cunnyng men.

10 But the Lorde is a true God, a liuing God, and an euerlastyng king: yf he be wroth, the earth shaketh, all the Gentiles may not abide his indignation.

11 As for their Gods, thus shal you say to them, They are no Gods that made neyther heauen nor earth, therefore shall they perishe from the earth, and from all thinges vnder heauen.

12 *But as for our God, he hath made the earth with his power, and with his wysedome dooth he order the whole compasse of the worlde, with his discretion hath he spread out the heauens. *Gen.1.6. Psal.13.5.

13 At his voyce the waters geathered together in the ayre, he draweth vp the cloudes from the vttermost partes of the earth: *he turneth lightnyng to rayne, and bringeth foorth the windes out of their treasures. *Psal.134.7

14 His wysedome maketh all men fooles, and confounded be casters of images: for that they cast is but a vaine thing, and hath no lyfe.

15 The vaine craftesmen with their works that they in their vanitie hath made, shall perishe one with an other in time of visitation.

16 Nevertheless, Jacobs portion is none such: but it is he that hath made al things, and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the Lorde of hostes is his name.

17 Geather vp thy wares out of the lande, thou that art in the strong place.

18 For thus sayth the Lorde, Behold, I wyl nowe throwe as with a stone slyng the inhabiters of this lande at this once, and I wyll bring trouble vppon them, that they shall proove true the woordes that I haue spoken by the prophetes.

19 Alas howe am I hurt? alas howe painfull are my scourges vnto me? for I consyder this sorowe by mee selfe, and I must suffer it.

a. By wood is meant al kinde of matter, whereof images are woont to be made, which although they be garnished with gold and syluer, and clothed in purple & fine lin, and set vp (as some men say) to be lay mens bookes, yet teache they nothyng (sayth the prophete) but vanitie.

20 My tabernacle is destroyed, and all my cordes are broken, my children are gone from me, and can no where be found: Now haue I none to spread out my tent, nor to set vp my hangynges.

21 b For the heardmen are become foolysh, and they haue not sought the Lorde: therefore haue they dealt vnwysely with their cattel, and are all scattered abrode.

22 Behold, the noyse is harde at hande, and great sedition out of the North, to make the cities of Juda a wyldernes, and a dwelling place for Dragons.

23 Nowe I knowe (O Lord) that it is not in mans power to order his owne wayes, or to rule his owne steppes and goynges.

24 *Therefore chasten thou me, O Lorde, but with fauour, and not in thy wrath, lest thou bryng me vtterly to nought.

25 *Powre out thyne indignation vpon the Gentiles that know thee not, and vpon the people that cal not vpon thy name, and that because they haue consumed, deuoured, and destroyed Jacob, and haue made his habitation waste.

¶ The xi. Chapter

1. A curse to them that obey not the worde of Gods promyse. 10. The people of Juda folowyng the steppes of their fathers, worshyppeth strange goddes. 15. The Lorde sayth that he wyll not heare the Leuytes, and forbyddeth also Ieremie to pray for them.

1 THIS is a Sermon whiche the Lord commaunded Ieremie for to preache, saying,

2 Heare the wordes of this couenaunt, and speake vnto the men of Juda, & to all them that dwel at Hierusalem,

3 And say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Cursed be euery one that is not obedient vnto the wordes of this couenaunt,

4 Which I cõmaunded vnto your fathers, what tyme as I brought them out of Egypt from the iron furnace, saying, Be obedient vnto my voyce, and doo accordyng to al that I commaunde you, so shal ye be my people, and I wyl be your God:

5 And wyll keepe my promyse that I haue swome vnto your fathers, namely, that I woulde geue them a lande wiche floweth with mylke and hony, as ye see it is come to passe vnto this day. Then answered I, and sayde, Amen: let it be euen so Lord as thou sayest.

6 Then the Lorde sayde vnto me agayne, Preache this in the cities of Juda, & round about Hierusalem, and say, Heare the wordes of this couenaunt, and keepe them.

7 For I haue diligently exhorted your fathers, euen since the tyme that I brought them out of the lande of Egypt vnto this day, I gaue them warnyng betymes, saying, Hearken vnto my voyce.

8 Neuertheles, they woulde not obey me, nor enclyne theyr eares vnto me: but folowed ỹ wycked imaginations of their owne hartes, and therefore I haue brought vpon them al the wordes of this couenaunt that I gaue them to keepe, which they notwithstanding, haue not kept.

9 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, It is found out that whole Israel, and all the cities of Hierusalem are gone backe.

10 They haue turned them selues to the blasphemies of their forefathers, whiche had no lust to heare my wordes: Euen lykewyse also haue these folowed strange gods, and worshypped them: The house of Israel and Juda haue broken my couenaunt whiche I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus sayth the Lord, Behold, I wyl sende a plague vpon them, whiche they shal not be able to escape, and they shal crye vnto me, and I wyl not heare them.

12 Then shall the townes of Juda, and the citizens of Hierusalem goe and call vpon their goddes vnto whom they made their oblations: but they shal not be able to helpe them in tyme of their trouble.

13 *For as many cities as thou hast, O Juda, so many godds hast thou had also, and looke howe many streetes there be in thee, (O Hierusalem) so many shameful aulters haue ye set vp, aulters I say, to offer vpon them vnto Baal. *Iere.2.28.

14 *Therefore pray not thou for this people, byd neyther prayse nor prayer for them: for though they crye vnto me in their trouble, yet wyl I not heare them. *Iere.14.12

15 What part hath my beloued in my house, seeyng he hath wrought abomination, seruyng many goddes? The holy flesshe offerynges in the temple are gone from thee, O Juda, and thou, when thou hast done euyl, makest thy boast of it.

16 The Lorde called thee a greene Olyue tree, a faire one, a fruitful one, a goodly one: but with great clamour hath the enimie set fyre vpon it, and the branches of it are destroyed.

17 For the Lord of hostes that planted thee, hath deuised a plague for thee (O thou house of Israel and Juda) for the euyl that ye haue doone to prouoke hym to wrath, in that ye dyd seruice to Baal.

18 This (O Lorde) haue I learned of thee, and vnderstand it: for thou hast shewed me their imaginations.

19 But I am as a meeke Lambe, an Oxe that is carried away to be ſlayne, not knowyng that they had deuiſed ſuche a counſel againſt me, ſaying, We wil deſtroy his meate with wood, and dryue hym out of the land of the lyuyng, that his name ſhal neuer be thought vpon.

*1.Chr.28.9 Iere.17.10. and.20.12. Pſal.7.10.

20 *Therfore I wyl beſeche thee nowe (O Lord of hoſtes) thou ryghteous iudge, thou that tryeſt the reynes and the hartes, let me ſee thee auenged of them: for vnto thee haue I committed my cauſe.

21 The Lord therefore ſpake thus of the citizens of Anathoth that ſought to ſlaye me, ſaying, Preache not vnto vs in the name of the Lord, or els thou ſhalt dye of our hands.

22 Thus I ſay ſpake the Lord of hoſtes, Behold, I wyl viſite you, your young men ſhal peryſhe with the ſwoorde, your ſonnes and your daughters ſhall vtterly dye of hunger.

23 So that none ſhal remayne: for vpon the citizens of Anathoth wil I bryng a plague, euen the yeere of their viſitation.

¶ The.xii.Chapter.

thynges reaſonable. *Howe happeneth it that the way of the vngodly is ſo proſperous? and that it goeth ſo well with them whiche without any ſhame offende and liue in wyckednesſe?

2 Thou planteſt them, they take roote, they growe, and bring foorth fruite: they boaſt muche of thee, yet art thou farre from their a reynes.

a. By ſ reynes he meaneth the inwarde affections & ſecretcie of the mynde.

3 But thou Lorde to whom I am well knowen, thou that haſt ſeene and prooued my hart, take them awaye, lyke as a flocke is carried to the ſlaughter houſe, and appoynt them for the day of ſlaughter.

4 Howe long ſhal the lande mourne, and all the hearbes of the feelde peryſh for the wickednesſe of them that dwell therein? The cattel and the byrdes are gone, yet ſay they, Tuſhe, God wyl not deſtroy vs vtterly.

5 Seeyng thou art weery in runnyng with the footemen, howe wylt thou then runne with horſes? In a peaceable ſure land thou mayeſt be ſafe: but howe wylt thou doo in the furious pryde of Iordane?

6 For thy brethren and thy kynrede haue altogeather deſpiſed thee, and cryed out vpon thee altogeather: Beleue them not though they ſpeake fayre woordes to thee.

7 As for me, I ſay, I haue forſaken mine owne dwellyng place, and left myne heritage: I haue geuen that my ſoule b loued ſo wel into the hande of her enimies.

b. He meaneth the citie, and the temple and the people whō he loued intyerely.

8 Myne heritage is become vnto me as a Lion in the wood: it cryed out vpon me, therefore haue I forſaken it.

9 Is not myne heritage vnto me as a ſpeckled byrde? are not the byrdes rounde about agaynſt her? Come and gather ye together al ye beaſtes of the feelde, come, that ye may eate it vp.

10 Diuers heardmen haue broken downe my Vineyard, and troden vpon my portion: of my pleaſant portion they haue made a wylderneſſe and deſart.

11 They haue layde it waſte, and nowe that it is waſte, it ſygheth vnto me, yea, y whole lande lieth waſte, and no man regardeth it.

12 The deſtroyers come ouer the borders in the deſart euery way: for the ſwoorde of the Lord doeth conſume from the one end of the land to the other, and no fleſh hath reſt.

13 They haue ſowen wheate, and reaped thornes, *they haue taken heritage in poſſeſſion, but it doeth them no good: and they were aſhamed of your fruites, becauſe of the great wrath of the Lorde.

*ſome tranſ. they vvere ſory and had no profit.

14 Thus ſayth the Lorde vppon al my euyll neyghbours that laye hande on myne heritage whiche I haue poſſeſſed, euen my people of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyll plucke them namely Iſrael out of their lande, and put out the houſe of Iuda from among them.

15 And when I haue rooted them out, I wyl be at one with them agayne, and I wil haue mercie vpon them, and bryng them agayne euery man to his owne heritage, and vnto his lande.

16 And yf they, namely that trouble my people, wyll learne the wayes of them that ſweare by my name, The Lord lyueth, lyke as they learned my people to ſweare by Baal: then ſhal they be buylt among my people.

17 But yf they wyll not obey, then wyll I roote out the ſame folke, and deſtroy them, ſayth the Lorde.

¶ The.xiii.Chapter.

r. The deſtruction of the Ievves is preſigured, and their ſparſing abrode. 11. VVhy Iſrael vvas receyued to be the people of God, and vvhy they vvere forſaken.

1 Thus

1 Thus sayth the Lorde vnto me, Goe thy way, and geat thee a linnen girdle, and girde it about thy loynes, let it not be wet.

2 Then I got me a girdle, according vnto the commaundement of the Lorde, and put it about thy loynes.

3 After this, the second tyme the Lord spake vnto me agayne.

4 Take the girdle that thou hast prepared, and pat about thee, and geat thee vp, and goe vnto Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rocke.

5 So went I, and hid it at Euphrates, as the Lorde commaunded me.

6 And it happened long after this, that the Lorde spake vnto me, Vp, and geat thee to Euphrates, & fetch the girdle from thence, which I commaunded thee to hide there.

7 Then went I to Euphrates and digged vp, and tooke the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and beholde, the girdle was corrupt, so that it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then sayde the Lorde vnto me,

9 Thus sayth the Lord, Euen so wyl I corrupt the pride of Iuda, and the hygh mynd of Hierusalem.

10 This people is a wicked people, they wyl not heare my woorde, they folowe the wycked imaginations of their owne hart, and hang vpon strange goddes, them they serue, and woorship, & therefore they shalbe as this girdle that serueth for nothyng.

11 For as straightly as a girdle lyeth vppon a mans loynes, so straightly did I bind the whole house of Israel, and the whole house of Iuda vnto me, sayth the Lord: that they might be my people, that they might haue a glorious name, that they might be in honour: but they would not obey me.

12 Therefore lay this riddle before them, and say, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Euery potte shalbe fylled with wine. And they shal say vnto thee, Thinkest thou we knowe not that euery pot shalbe fylled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, I shal fyl all the inhabitours of this lande with drunkennesse, the kynges that sit vppon Dauids stoole, the priestes and prophetes, with all that dwel at Hierusalem.

14 And I wyl set them one agaynst another, yea the fathers agaynst the sonnes, sayth the Lorde, I wyl not pardon them, I wyll not spare them, nor haue pitie vpon them: but destroy them.

15 Heare, geue eare, take not disdayne at it: for it is the Lorde hym selfe that speaketh.

16 Honour the Lorde your God or he take his lyght from you, and or euer your feete stumble in darkenesse at the hyl: lest when you looke for the lyght, he turne it into the shadowe and darkenesse of death.

17 But if ye wyl not heare me that geue you secrete warnyng, I wyl mourne from my whole hart for your stubbernesse: *Piteously wyl I weepe, and the teares shall gushe out of mine eyes, for the Lordes flocke shal be carryed away captiue. *Lamen.1.1.

18 Tel the kyng and the queene, Humble your selues, sit you downe lowe, for your dignitie shalbe throwen downe, and the crowne of your glorie shal fall from your head.

19 The cities towarde the south shalbe shut vp, and no man shal open them: all Iuda shalbe carried away captiue, so that none shal remayne.

20 Lyft vp your eyes, and beholde them that come from the North: where is the flocke Of thou lande that was geuen thee? and where are thy fatte and riche sheepe?

21 To whom wylt thou make thy mone when the enimie shal come vpon thee? for thou hast taught them thee selfe, and made them maisters ouer thee: shal not sorowe come vpon thee as on a woman trauayling with chylde?

22 And if thou wouldest then say in thyne hart, Wherefore come these thinges vpon me? Euen for the multitude of thy blasphemies shal thy hinder partes & thy feete be discouered.

23 May a man of Inde change his skinne, and the cat of the mountayne her spottes? so, may ye that be exercised in euyl, doo good?

24 Therefore wyl I scatter them lyke as the stubble that is taken away with the south wynde.

25 This shalbe your portion, and the portion of your measure wherewith ye shalbe rewarded of me, sayth the Lorde, because ye haue forgotten me, and put your trust in deceptful thynges.

26 Therefore shal I turne thy clothes ouer thy head, and discouer thy shame.

27 Thy adulteries, thy neyghynges, thy shameful whoredome on the hylles in the feeldes, & thy abominations haue I seene. Woe be vnto thee (O Hierusalem) wylt thou neuer be cleansed any more? or when shal that be?

¶ The.xiii.Chapter.

Of the dearth that shoulde come in Iurie.
7. The prayer of the people asking mercie of the Lorde. 10. The vnfaythfull people are not heard. 12. Of prayer, faſting, and of falſe prophetes that ſeduce the people.

1 The woorde of the Lorde ſhewed vnto Jeremie concernyng the dearth of the fruites.

2 Juda hath mourned, his gates are deſolate, they are brought to heauineſſe, euen vnto the grounde, and the citie of Hieruſalem goeth vp.

3 The lordes ſent their ſeruantes to fet the water, and when they came to the welles, they did finde no water, but caryed their veſſels home emptie: they be aſhamed and confounded, and couer their heades.

4 For the grounde is dryed, becauſe there commeth no rayne vpon it: the plowemen alſo be aſhamed and couer their heades.

5 The Hinde alſo forſooke the young fawne that ſhe brought foorth in the feelde, becauſe there was no graſſe.

6 The wylde aſſes did ſtande in the high places, and drewe in their winde lyke the dragons, their eyes did fayle for want of graſſe.

7 Doubtleſſe, our owne wyckednеſſe doeth rewarde vs: but Lorde doo thou according to thy name, though our tranſgreſſions and ſinnes be many, and agaynſt thee haue we ſinned.

8 For thou art the comfort and helpe of Iſrael in the time of trouble: Why wylt thou be as a ſtranger in the land, and as one that goeth his iourney, and commeth in onely to remayne for a nyght?

9 Why wylt thou make thee ſelfe a coward, and as it were a giant, that yet may not helpe? But thou, O Lorde, art in the middeſt of vs, and thy name is called vpon of vs, forſake vs not.

10 Thus hath the Lorde ſayd vnto his people, Seeing they haue had ſuche a luſt to wander abrode, and haue not refrayned their feete: therefore the Lorde hath no pleaſure in them, but he wyl nowe bring agayne to remembrance al their miſdeedes, and puniſhe al their ſynnes.

11 Yea euen thus ſayde the Lorde vnto me,
*Jere.7. 14. * Thou ſhalt not pray to doo this people good.

12 For though they faſt, I wyl not heare their prayers, and though they offer burnt offeringes and ſacrifices, yet I wyl not accept them: for I wyl deſtroy them with the ſwoorde, hunger, and peſtilence.

*Jere.23.21. and.27.21. and.29.8. 13 *Then anſweared I, O Lorde God, the prophetes ſay vnto them, Tuſhe, ye ſhall neede to feare no ſwoorde, and no hunger ſhal come vpon you: but the Lord ſhal geue you ſure reſt in this place.

14 And the Lorde ſayde vnto me, The prophetes preache lyes in my name, whereas I haue not ſent them, neyther gaue I them any charge, neyther did I ſpeake vnto them: yet they preache vnto you falſe viſions, charming, vanitie, and deceytfulneſſe of their owne hart.

15 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, As for thoſe prophetes that preache in my name, whom I neuertheleſſe haue not ſent, and that ſay, Tuſhe, there ſhal no ſwoorde nor hunger be in this lande: with ſwoorde and with hunger ſhal thoſe prophetes periſhe.

16 And the people to whom they preache, ſhalbe caſt out of Hieruſalem, die of hunger, and be ſlayne with the ſwoorde, and there ſhal be no man to burie them, both they, and their wyues, their ſonnes, & their daughters: for thus wyl I powre their wyckednеſſe vpon them.

17 This ſhalt thou ſay alſo vnto them, *Lam.1.16. and.2.18.
*Mine eyes ſhal weepe without ceaſſyng day and nyght: for my people ſhalbe deſtroyed with great harme, and ſhal periſhe with at great plague.

18 For if I goe into the feelde, loe, it lyeth al ful of ſlayne men: If I come into the citie, loe, they be al famiſhed of hunger: yea their prophetes alſo and prieſtes ſhalbe led into an vnknowen lande.

19 Haſt thou then vtterly forſaken Juda? Doeſt thou abhorre Sion? Wherefore haſt thou ſo plagued vs, that we can be healed no more? *We looked for peace, and there commeth no good, for the tyme of health, and loe here is nothing but trouble. *Jere.8.15.

20 We knowledge (O Lorde) al our miſdeedes, and the ſinnes of our fathers: for we haue offended thee.

21 Caſt vs not of (O Lorde) for thy names ſake, forgeat not thy louing kindneſſe, ouerthrowe not the a throne of thine honour, breake not the couenant that thou haſt made with vs.

22 Are there any among the goddes of the gentiles that ſende rayne, or geue the ſhewers from heauen? Art not thou thee ſelfe our Lorde God? we wyl truſt in thee, for thou doeſt al theſe thynges.

a. The temple at Hieruſalem is called ſeate of Gods honour, becauſe he had appoynted that place wherein ſpecially to be honoured, where to offer the tokens of his honour preſence.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

1. The Lorde wyl not heare Moſis and Samuel if they pray for the people, but wyll vvrappe them in many miſeries. 6. The cauſe of ſuche great miſeries.

1 Thus ſpake the Lord vnto me, Though Moſes and Samuel ſtoode before me, yet I haue no hart to this people, driue them away, that they may goe out of my ſyght.

2 And

2 And yf they say vnto thee, Whyther shal we goe? then tell them, the Lorde geueth you this answeare, *Some vnto death, some to the swoorde, some to hunger, some into captiuitie.

3 For I wyl bring foure plagues vpō them, sayth the Lord, The swoord shal slay them, the dogges shall teare them in peeces, the foules of the ayre and beastes of the earth shal eate them vp, and destroy them.

4 I will scatter them about in al kingdomes and landes to be plagued, *because of Manasses the sonne of Ezecia kyng of Iuda, for the thynges that he dyd in Hierusalem.

5 Who shall then haue pitie vpon thee, (O Hierusalem?) who shalbe sory for thee? Or who shal make intercession to obteine peace for thee?

6 Seeyng thou goest from me, and turnest backwarde, sayth the Lord, therfore I dyd stretche out my hande agaynst thee to destroy thee, and I haue been sory for thee so long that I am weery.

7 I haue scattered them abrode with the fanne of euery syde of the lande, I haue wasted my people and destroyed them, yet they haue had no lust to turne from their owne wayes.

8 I haue made their windowes moe in number then the sandes in the sea, vpon the mothers of the chyldren dyd I bryng a destroyer in the noone day: sodaynly and vnawares dyd I sende a feare vppon their cities.

9 She that hath borne seuen chyldren, hath none, her hart is full of sorowe, * the sunne doeth fayle her in the cleare day, she is confounded and fayntie for very heauinesse: As for those that remayne, I wyl delyuer them vnto the swoorde before their enimies, sayth the Lorde.

10 O mother, alas that thou euer dyddest beare me, a brawler & rebuker of the whole lande: though I neuer lent nor receyued vpon vsurie, yet all men speake euyl vppon me.

11 And the Lord answeared me, Verely thy a remnant shall haue wealth: Come not I to thee when thou art in trouble, and helpe thee when thyne enimie oppresseth thee?

12 Doth one iron hurt another? or one mettal, that commeth from the North, another?

13 As for thy riches and treasure, I wil geue them out into a pray: not for money, but because of all thy sinnes that thou hast doone in all thy coastes.

14 *And I wyll bryng thee with thyne enimies into a lande that thou knowest not: for the fyre that is kyndeled in myne indignation, shal burne you vp.

15 O Lorde thou knowest, therfore remember me, and visite me, reuenge me of my persecutors, take me not from this lyfe in the tyme of thy anger: thou knowest that for thy sake I ruffer rebuke.

16 When I had founde thy woordes, I did eate them vp greedylye, they haue made my hart ioyful and glad, for thy name was b called vpon me, O Lorde God of hostes. b. I am called thy prophete.

17 I dwel not among the scorners, neyther is my delight therein: but I dwel alone because of thy hande, for thou hast fylled me with bytternesse.

18 Shal heauinesse endure for euer? Are my plagues then so great that they may neuer be healed? Wilt thou be as one that is false, and as a water that falleth and can not continue?

19 Vpon these woordes, thus sayde the Lord vnto me, If thou wylt turne againe, I shal set thee in my seruice, and if thou wylt take out the thynges that is pretious from the vile, thou shalt be euen as my owne mouth: they shal conuert vnto thee, but turne not thou vnto them.

20 And so shal I make thee a strong brasen wal against this people, they shal fight agaynst thee, but they shal not preuayle: for I me selfe wil be with thee, to helpe thee and deliuer thee, sayth the Lorde.

21 And I wil rid thee out of the handes of the wicked, and deliuer thee out of the handes of tyrantes.

¶ The.xvi.Chapter.

1. He propheſieth the miſerie of the Iewes. 2 He sheweth that the worshypping of images, and the contempt of Gods lawe, is cauſe of their miſerie. 13. He propheſieth the captiuitie of Babylon, and their delyuerance from thence agayne. 19. The callyng of the Gentiles.

1 Thus sayth the Lorde vnto me,
2 Thou shalt take thee no wyfe, nor begeat chyldren in this place.
3 For of the chyldren that are borne in this place, of theyr mothers that haue borne them, and of theyr fathers that haue begotten them in this lande, thus saith the Lord,
4 They shall dye an horible death, no man shal weepe for them, nor bury them, but they shal lye as doung vpon the earth: they shal perysshe through the swoord and hunger, and their bodies shalbe meate for the foules of the ayre, and beastes of the earth, 5 For thus sayth the Lorde, Goe not thou into the house of mournyng, nor come to mourne and weepe for them: for I haue taken my peace from this people, ſayth the Lorde, yea my fauour and my mercies.

6 And in this lande ſhall they dye olde and young, and ſhal not be buryed: no man ſhal beweepe them, no man ſhall clyppe or ſhaue hym ſelfe for them.

7 They ſhal not wring their hands in mournyng wyſe on their dead, one to comfort another: one ſhall not offer another the cup of conſolation to forget their heauyneſſe for their father and mother.

8 Thou ſhalt not goe into their feaſt houſe, to ſit downe to eate or drinke with them:

9 For thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I ſhal take away out of this place the voyce of myrth and gladneſſe, the voyce of the bridegrome & of the bryde, yea and that in your dayes, that ye maye ſee it.

*Ieerem.5.19 10 *Nowe when thou ſhewest this people all theſe wordes, & they ſay vnto thee, Wherefore hath the Lorde deuiſed al this great plague for vs? or what is the offence and ſinne that we haue doone againſt the Lorde our God?

11 Then make thou them this anſwere, Becauſe your fathers haue forſaken me, ſayth the Lord, & haue walked after ſtrange goddes, whom they honoured and worſhipped: but me haue they forſaken, and haue not kept my lawe.

*Ierr.7.26. 12 *And ye with your ſhameful blaſphemies haue exceeded ỹ wickednes of your fathers: for euery one of you hath folowed the frowarde and euyll imaginations of his owne hart, and is not obedient vnto me,

*Ierr.23.8. 13 *Therefore wyll I caſte you out of this lande, into a lande that ye and your fathers knowe not: and there ſhall ye ſerue ſtrange gods day and nyght, there wyl I ſhew you no fauour.

14 Beholde therefore, ſayth the Lorde, the dayes are come that it ſhal no more be ſayd, The Lorde lyueth whiche brought the children of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt:

15 But it ſhalbe ſayde, The Lorde lyueth that brought the children of Iſrael from the North, and from al lands where he had ſcattred them: for I wil bring them againe into the lande that I gaue their fathers.

16 Beholde, ſayth the Lorde, I wyl ſende out many Fyſhers to take them, and after that wyl I ſend out many Hunters, to hunt them from al mountaynes and hylles, and out of the caues of ſtone.

17 For myne eyes beholde all their wayes, and they can not be hyd from my face: neyther can their wycked deedes be kept cloſe out of my ſyght.

18 But fyrſte wyll I ſufficiently rewarde their ſhamefull blaſphemies and ſinnes, becauſe they haue defyled my lande a with their ſtynkyng carrions and their abominations, wherwith they haue fylled myne heritage.

19 O Lorde my ſtrength, my power and refuge in tyme of trouble: the Gentiles ſhall come vnto thee from the ends of the world, and ſay, Verely our fathers haue cleaued vnto lyes, their idols are but vayne and vnprofytable.

20 How can a man make thoſe his goddes, whiche are not able to be goddes?

21 And therefore I wyll once teache them, ſayth the Lorde, I wyll ſhewe them my hande and my power, and they ſhall knowe that my name is the Lorde.

a. Gods ſeruice done according to his worde, ſauoureth ſweetely, that is, pleaſeth God: but Gods ſeruice & worſhip without his word, doth ſauour lyke carrion, that is, it abhorreth and much diſpleaſeth God.

¶ The.xvii. Chapter.

1. The frowardneſſe of the Ievves. 3. Curſed be thoſe that put their confidence in man, and thoſe bleſſed that truſt in God. 9. Mans hart is vvycked. 10. GOD is the ſearcher of the hart. 13. The liuyng vvaters are forſaken. 21. The halovvyng of the Sabboth is commanded.

1 YOur ſinne, O ye of the tribe of Iuda, is written in the table of your harts, and grauen ſo vppon the edges of your aulters with a penne of iron, and with an Adamant clawe:

2 That as the fathers thynke vpon their children, ſo thynke you alſo vpon your aulters, woodes, thycke trees, hygh hylles, mountaynes, and feeldes.

3 Wherefore, O my mount that ſtandeth in the feelde, I wyl make al thy ſubſtance and treaſure to be ſpoyled, for the great ſinne that thou haſt doone vppon the hygh places, throughout all the coaſtes of thy lande.

4 Thou ſhalt be caſt out alſo from the heritage that I gaue thee: and I wyl ſubdue thee vnder the heauie bondage of thyne enimies, in a lande that ye knowe not: for ye haue miniſtred fyre to myne indignation, which ſhal burne euermore.

5 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Curſed be the man that putteth his truſt in man, and that taketh fleſhe for his arme, and he whoſe hart departeth from the Lorde.

6 *He ſhalbe lyke the heath that groweth in wyldernelſe: As for the good thyng that is for to come, he ſhall not ſee it, but dwell in a dry place of the wyldernelſe, in a ſalt and *Jer.48.

and vnoccupied lande.

7 O blessed is the man that putteth his trust in the Lorde, and whose hope is in the Lorde hym selfe.

Psal.1.3. 8 *For he shalbe as a tree that is planted by the water side, whiche spreadeth out the roote vnto moystnesse, whom the heate can not harme when it commeth, but his leafe shalbe greene: And though there growe but litle fruite because of drouth, yet is he not careful, but he neuer leaueth of to bring foorth fruite.

9 Among al thinges, man hath the most deceytful and stubburne hart: Who shal then knowe it?

Reue.2.23. Psal.7.10. 10 Euen I the Lord search out the ground of the hart, and trye the reynes, and rewarde euery man according to his wayes, and according to the fruite of his woorkes.

11 The Partriche maketh a nest of egges, which she layde not: he commeth by riches, but not ryghteously, in the middest of his lyfe must he leaue them behinde him, and at the last be founde a very foole.

12 But thou (O Lorde) whose throne is most glorious, excellent, and of most antiquitie, whiche dwellest in the place of our holy rest:

13 Thou art the comfort of Israel, al they that forsake thee shalbe confounded, al they that doo depart from thee shalbe written in earth: for they haue forsaken the Lorde, the very conduite of the waters of lyfe.

14 Heale me, O Lorde, and I shalbe whole: saue thou me, and I shalbe saued: for thou art my prayse.

15 Beholde, these men say vnto me, Where is the woorde of the Lorde? let it come nowe.

16 Whereas I neuertheless obediently followed thee as a shephearde, and haue not vncalled taken this office vppon me, this knowest thou wel: my woordes also were right before thee.

17 Be not thou terrible vnto me, O Lorde: for thou art he in whom I hope when I am in peryl.

18 Let my persecutours be confounded, but not me: let them be afrayde, and not me: Thou shalt bring vpon them the time of plague, and shalt destroy them right sore.

19 Thus hath the Lorde sayd vnto me, Goe and stande vnder the gate wherethrough the people and the kynges of Juda goe out & in, yea vnder al the gates of Hierusalem,

20 And say vnto them, Heare the woorde of the Lorde, ye kynges of Juda, and al thou people of Juda, and al the citizens of Hierusalem that goe through this gate, 21 Thus the Lorde commaundeth, Take hede for your liues that you cary no burden vpon you in the Sabboth, to bring it thorowe the gates of Hierusalem.

22 Ye shal beare no burden also out of your houses in the Sabboth, you shal doo no labour therein: but halowe the Sabboth, as I commaunded your fathers.

23 Howebeit they obeyed me not, neyther hearkened they vnto me: but were obstinate and stubburne, & neyther obeyed me, nor receyued my correction.

24 Neuertheless, if ye wyl heare me, sayth the Lorde, and beare no burden into the citie through this gate vpon the Sabboth, yf ye wyl halowe the Sabboth, so that ye doo no woorke therein:

25 Then shal there goe through the gates of this citie kinges & princes, that shal sit vpon the throne of Dauid, they shalbe caryed vpon charets, & ride vpon horses, both they and their princes: yea whole Juda, & al the citizens of Hierusalem shal goe here thorowe, and this citie shal euer be inhabited.

26 There shall come men also from the cities of Juda, from about Hierusalem, and from the lande of Beniamin, from the playne feeldes, from the mountaynes, and from the wylderneſſe, whiche shal bryng whole burnt offerynges, sacrifices, oblations, and incense, and offer vp thankesgeuing in the house of the Lorde.

27 But if ye wyl not be obedient vnto me, to halowe the Sabboth, so that ye wyll beare your burdens through the gates of Hierusalem vpon the Sabboth: then shall I set fyre vpon the gates of Hierusalem, and it shal burne vp the houses of Hierusalem, and no man shalbe able to quenche it.

¶ The.xviii.Chapter.

1. God sheweth by the example of a potter that it is in his power to destroy the despisers of his worde, and to helpe them agayne when they amende. 18. The conspiracie of the Iewes agaynst Ieremie. 19 His prayer agaynst his aduersaries.

1 THis is another communication that God had with Ieremie, saying,

2 Arise and goe downe into the potters house, and there shal I tel thee more of my mynde.

3 Nowe when I came to the potters house, I founde him makyng his woorke vpon a wheele.

4 The vessel that the potter made of clay brake among his handes: So he began a newe, and made another vessell accordyng to his mynde.

5 Then sayde the Lorde thus vnto me.

6 May not I doo with you as this potter doeth, O ye houſe of Iſrael, ſaith the Lord? Beholde ye houſe of Iſrael, ye are in my hande, euen as the clay is in the potters hande.

*Rom.9.20. Eſai.45.9. 7 *When I take in hande to roote out, to deſtroy, or to waſte away any people or kyngdome:

*Jere.1.10. 8 *If that people agaynſt whom I haue thus deuiſed, conuert from their wickednelle, I repent of the plague that I deuiſed to bryng vpon them.

9 Agayne, when I take in hande to buylde or to plant a people or a kyngdome:

10 If the ſame people doo euyl before me, and heare not my voyce, I repent of the good that I haue deuiſed for them.

11 Speake nowe therfore vnto whole Juda, and to them that dwel at Hieruſalem, Thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, *I am deuiſing a plague for you, and am takyng a thing in hande agaynſt you: therefore let euery man turne from his euyl way, & take vpon you the thing that is good and right. *Jere.25.5. and.35.10. Jonas.3.9.

12 But they ſayd, No more of this, we wyl folowe our owne imaginations, and doo euery man according to the wylfulneſſe of his owne minde.

13 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, Aſke among the heathen if any man haue hearde ſuche horrible thynges, as the mayden Iſrael hath done?

a. It is extreme madnes to forſake God the only freſhe ſpryng of pure pleaſant waters, who is nigh at hande, and to goe far of to ſeeke fowle and fylthie puddels, wherein there is nothing but vncleane and ſtinking water.

14 a Wyl a man forſake the ſnowe of Libanus, which commeth from the rocke of the feelde? Or ſhal the colde flowyng waters that commeth from another place be forſaken?

15 But my people hath forgotten me, they haue made ſacrifice in vayne, and their prophetes make them fal in their wayes from the auncient pathes, and to goe into a way not vſed to be troden of iuſt men.

*Jere.19. 8. and.49. 10. 16 *Wherethrough they haue brought their lande into an euerlaſting wylderneſſe and ſcorne: ſo that who ſo euer trauayleth thereby ſhalbe abaſhed, and wagge their heades.

17 With an eaſt winde wyl I ſcatter them before their enimies: and when they deſtruction commeth, I wyl turne my backe vpon them, but not my face.

18 Then ſayde they, Come, let vs imagine ſome thyng agaynſt this Jeremie: for the prieſtes ſhal not be deſtitute of the lawe, neyther ſhal the wyſe men be deſtitute of counſel, nor the prophetes deſtitute of the worde of God: Come, and let vs ſmite him with the tongue, and let vs not marke al his wordes.

19 Conſyder me, O Lorde, and heare the voyce of mine enimies.

20 Shal they recompence euyl for good? for they haue digged a pit for my ſoule: Remember howe that I ſtoode before thee to ſpeake good for them, and to turne away thy wrath from them.

21 Therefore let their chyldren dye of hunger, and let them be oppreſſed with the ſwoorde: let their wiues be robbed of their chyldren and become wydowes, let their husbandes be ſlayne, let their young men be kylled with the ſwoorde in the feelde.

22 Let the noyſe be heard out of their houſes when thou bryngeſt the murderer ſodaynely vpon them: for they haue digged a pitte to take me, and layde ſnares for my feete.

23 Yet Lorde thou knoweſt al their counſel, that they haue deuiſed to ſlay me, forgeue not their wyckednelſe, and let not their ſynnes be put out of thy ſyght, but let them be iudged before thee as giltie: this doo thou vnto them in the time of thine indignation.

¶ The.xix.Chapter.

1. He propheſieth the deſtruction of Hieruſalem, for the contempt and diſpyſing of the woorde of God.

1 Thus ſayth the Lorde, Goe thy way and buye thee an earthen pitcher, and bryng foorth the ſenatours and cheefe prieſtes,

2 Unto the valley of the chyldren of Hennom, whiche lyeth without the eaſt gate, and ſhewe them there the woordes that I ſhal tel thee,

3 And ſay thus vnto them, Heare the worde of the Lorde ye kynges of Juda, and ye citizens of Hieruſalem, Thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael: Beholde, I wyl bryng ſuche a plague vpon this place, that the eares of all that heare it ſhall glowe:

4 And that becauſe they haue forſaken me, and vnhalowed this place, and haue offered in it vnto ſtrange gods, whom neyther they, their fathers, nor the kynges of Juda haue knowen: they haue fylled this place alſo with the blood of innocentes.

5 And they haue ſet vp an aulter vnto Baal, to burne their chyldren for a burnt offeryng vnto Baal, whiche I neyther commaunded nor charged them, neyther thought once thereupon.

6 Beholde therefore, the tyme commeth

(ſayth

(ſayth the lord) that this place ſhal no more be called Thopheth, nor the valley of the chyldren of Hennom: but the valley of ſlaughter.

7 For in this place wyll I bryng to nought the counſayle of Iuda and Hieruſalem, and kyll them downe with the ſwoorde before their enimies, and I wyll deliuer them into the handes of them that ſeeke their lyues, and their dead carcaſſes wyll I geue to be meate for the foules of the ayre, and the beaſtes of the feelde.

Leui.26.16. 8 *And I wil make this citie ſo deſolate and deſpiſed, that whoſoeuer goeth therby ſhalbe abaſhed, and ieſt vpon her, becauſe of all her plagnes.

9 I wyll feede them alſo with the fleſhe of their ſonnes and their daughters, yea, euery one ſhall eate vp another in the beſiegyng and ſtraytneſſe wherewith their enimies that ſeeke their lyues ſhal keepe them in.

10 And the pitcher ſhalt thou breake in the ſight of the men that goeth with thee,

11 And ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, Euen ſo wyl I deſtroy this people and citie, as a man breaketh an earthen veſſel that can not be made whole agayne: in Thopheth ſhal they be buryed, for they ſhal haue none other place.

12 Thus wyl I do vnto this place alſo ſaith the Lord, and to them that dwel therin, yea, I wyl make this citie as Thopheth.

13 For the houſes of Hieruſalem, and the houſes of the kynges of Iuda, ſhalbe defiled lyke as Thopheth, and ſo ſhal all the houſes in whoſe roofes they dyd ſacrifice vnto all the hoſt of heauen, and powred drynke offerynges vnto ſtrange goddes.

14 And ſo Ieremie came from Thopheth, where the Lorde had ſent hym to propheſie, and ſtoode in the court of the houſe of the Lorde, and ſpake to all the people, 15 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyll bryng vpon this citie, and vpon euery towne about it, all the plagues that I haue deuiſed agaynſt them, becauſe they haue ben obſtinate, and would not obey my warnynges.

¶ The.xx.Chapter.

a. Ieremie is ſmytten, and caſt into priſon, for preachyng of the vvord of God. 4. He propheſieth the captiuitie of Babylon. 7. He complayneth that he is a mocking ſtocke for the vvord of God. 9. He is compelled by the ſpirite to preache the vvorde.

1 WHen Phaſhur the prieſt, the ſonne of Emmer, chiefe in the houſe of the Lorde, hearde Ieremie preach theſe wordes ſo ſtedfaſtly,

2 He ſmote Ieremie, and put hym in the priſon, that is in the hygh gate of Beniamin, towardes the houſe of the Lorde.

3 The next day folowing, Phaſhur brought Ieremie out of the priſon agayne: Then ſayde Ieremie vnto hym, The Lorde ſhall cal thee no more Phaſhur, that is, excellent and encreaſing, but Magor, that is, feareful and afrayd euery where.

4 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl make thee afrayde, euen thee ſelfe, and all that fauour thee, whiche ſhall periſhe with the ſwoorde of their enimies, euen before thy face, and I wyl geue whole Iuda into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, which ſhal carry ſome vnto Babylon priſoners, and ſlay ſome with the ſwoorde.

5 Moreouer, all the ſubſtaunce of the citie, what ſo euer they haue gotten with their trauayle, al their precious things, and al the treaſure of the kinges of Iuda, wyll I geue into the hands of their enimies, which ſhal ſpoile them, and carry them vnto Babylon.

6 But as for thee (O Phaſhur) thou ſhalt go into captiuitie with all thy houſholde, and to Babylon ſhalt thou come, where thou ſhalt die, and be buryed, thou and all thy fauourers, to whom thou haſt preached lyes.

7 O Lord, yf I am deceiued, then haſt thou a deceiued me, thou enforcedſt me, and haſt preuayled: dayly am I deſpiſed, & laughed to ſcorne of euery man.

a. The prophet aſſureth y truth of his doctine, againſt the ſlaunderer, for it is the worde of God, who can not deceiue, nor be deceiued.

8 For ſince I began to preache, I cryed out agaynſt violence, and exclaymed againſt oppreſſion: for the whiche cauſe they caſt the worde of the Lorde in my teeth, to my reproche continually.

9 Wherefore I thought from hencefoorth not to ſpeake of hym, nor to preach any more in his name, but the worde of the Lord was a very burnyng fire in my hart, and in my bones, which when I would haue ſtopped, I myght not.

10 Verily I hearde the euyl reportes of many, terrour was on euery ſide of me: b complayne vpon hym, ſay they, and we wyll tell his tale: yea, all myne owne companions, and ſuche as were conuerſant with me, lay in wayte for my halting, ſaying, Peraduenture he wylbe deceiued, and ſo ſhall we preuayle agaynſt hym, and be auenged of him.

b. The prieſtes and ſuche as were in authoritie with the king, ſtyrred vp the people to watch narrowly Ieremies ſayinges, yt they could finde him to halt in any thyng wherfore they myght accuſe him to the kyng.

11 But the Lorde ſtoode by me lyke a myghtie Giant, therefore my perſecutours fell, and could do nothyng: they ſhalbe ſore confounded, for they haue done vnwyſely, they ſhal haue an euerlaſtyng ſhame, whiche ſhal neuer be forgotten.

12 And nowe, *O Lord of hoſtes, that triſt the ryghteous, whiche knoweſt the reynes and the very harres, let me ſee them puniſhed, ſhed: for vnto thee I haue declared my cauſe.

*Pſal.7.20.

13 Syng vnto the Lorde, and prayſe him, for he hath deliuered the ſoule of the oppreſſed from the hande of the violent.

*Iob.3.3. 14 *Curſed be the day wherin I was borne, vnhappy be the day wherein my mother brought me forth.

15 Curſed be the man that brought my father the tydynges to make hym glad, ſaying, Thou haſt begotten a ſonne:

16 Let it happen vnto that man, as to the cities c whiche the Lorde turned vpſydedowne, and repented not: let hym heare crying in the morynyng, and at none day lamentable howlyng.

c. The moſt godly men are ſometimes caried away with the vnruly rage of immoderate affection, albeit in this prophet the cauſe of his immoderate zeale was, for that he ſaw this tranayle to ſaue the people to be in vayne, Gods word cõtemned, and all godlyneſſe horneſully deſpiſed.

17 Why ſlueſt thou not me as ſoone as I came out of my mothers wombe? or that my mother had been my graue her ſelf, that the byrth myght not haue come out, but remayned ſtyl in her?

18 Wherfore came I forth of my mothers wombe? to haue experience of labour and ſorowe, and to leade my lyfe with ſhame?

¶ The.xxi.Chapter.

He propheſieth that Zedecias ſhalbe taken, and the citie burned.

1 THeſe are the wordes that the Lorde ſpake vnto Jeremie, what time as king Zedecias ſent vnto hym Phaſhur the ſonne of Melchias, & Sophonias the ſonne of Maaſias prieſt, ſaying,

2 Aſke counſell at the Lorde, we pray thee on our behalfe, for Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon beſiegeth vs: yf the Lorde peraduenture wyl deale with vs accordyng to his marueylous power, and take hym from vs.

3 Then ſpake Jeremie, Geue Zedecias this anſweare:

4 Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyl turne backe the weapons that ye haue in your handes, wherwith ye fyght againſt the king of Babylon and the Chaldees, whiche beſiege you rounde about the walles, and I wyll bryng them togeather into the myddeſt of this citie.

5 And I mee ſelfe wyl fyght againſt you, with an outſtretched hande, and with a myghtie arme, in great diſpleaſure and terrible wrath:

6 And wyl ſmyte them that dwel in this citie, yea, both men and cattell ſhal dye of a great peſtilence.

7 But after this (ſayth the Lord) I ſhal deliuer Zedecias kyng of Juda, and his ſeruantes, his people, and ſuch as are eſcaped in the citie, from the peſtilence, ſwoord, and hunger, into the power of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, yea into the handes of their enimies, into the handes of thoſe that ſolowe vpon their lyues, whiche ſhal ſmyte them with the ſwoorde, they ſhall not pitie them, they ſhall not ſpare them, they ſhall haue no mercie vpon them:

8 And vnto this people thou ſhalt ſay, Thus ſayth the Lorde, *Behold, I lay before you the way of lyfe and death. *Jere.38.

9 Who ſo abydeth in the citie, ſhall perythe eyther with the ſword, with hunger, or peſtilence: but who ſo goeth out to hold on the Chaldees parte that beſiege it, he ſhall ſaue his lyfe, and ſhal wynne his ſoule for a pray.

10 For I haue ſet my face againſt this citie (ſaith the Lorde) to plague it, and to doo it no good: it muſt be geuen into the handē of the kyng of Babylon, and be brent with fyre.

11 And vnto the houſe of the kyng of Juda ſay thus, Heare the woorde of the Lorde.

12 O thou houſe of Dauid, * thus ſayth the Lorde, Miniſter ryghteouſneſſe, and that ſoone, deliuer the oppreſſed from violent power, or euer my terrible wrath breake out lyke a fire, & burne, ſo that no man may quenche it, becauſe of the wickednеſſe of your imaginations. *Jer.22.3

13 Beholde, ſayth the Lorde, I wyll come vppon thee that dwelleſt in the valleyes, rockes, and feeldes, and ſay, Tuſh, who wil make vs afrayde? or who wyll come into our houſes?

14 For I wyll viſite you, ſayth the Lord, becauſe of the wickednеſſe of your inuentions, and wyll kyndle ſuche a fyre in your wood, as ſhal conſume all that is about you.

¶ The.xxii.Chapter.

2. He exhorteth the king of Iuda to iudgement and righteouſneſſe. 9. VVhy Hieruſalem is brought into captiuitie. 11. The death of Sellum the ſonne of Ioſias is propheſied.

1 THus ſayth the Lorde, Goe downe into the houſe of the kyng of Juda, & ſpeake there theſe wordes,

2 And ſay, Heare the worde of the Lorde, thou kyng of Juda, that ſitteſt in the kingly ſeate of Dauid, thou, and thy ſeruants, and thy people, that goeth in and out at theſe gates.

3 Thus the Lorde commaundeth, * Kepe equitie and righteouſneſſe, deliuer the oppreſſed from the power of the violent, do not greeue nor oppreſſe the ſtranger, the fatherleſſe, nor the wydowe, and ſhed no innocent blood in this place. *Jer.22.

4 And

4 And yf ye keepe these thinges faithfully, then shall there come in at the dooze of this house, kinges to syt vpon Dauids seate, they shalbe carried in charrettes, and ryde vpon hozses, both they, and their seruantes, and their people.

5 But yf ye wyll not be obedient vnto these cõmaundements, I sweare by myne owne selfe, sayth the Lozde, this house shalbe waste.

6 Foz thus hath the Lozde spoken vpon the kynges of Iuda, Thou Gilead art vnto me the head of Libanus: shal I not make thee so waste as the cities that no man dwell in?

7 I wyl prepare a destroyer with his weapons foz thee, to hewe downe thy especiall Cedar trees, and to cast them in the fyze.

8 And all the people that goe by this citie, shall speake one to another, * Wherefoze hath the Lozde done thus vnto this noble citie?

9 Then shal it be answeared, Because they haue broken the couenant of the Lozd their God, and haue woozshipped and serued strange goddes.

10 Mourne not ouer the dead, and be not woe foz them: but be sozy foz him that departeth away, foz he commeth not agayne, and seeth his native countrey no mozе.

11 Foz thus saith the Lozd as touching Sellum ỹ sonne of Iosias king of Iuda, which raigned after his father, When he is carried out of this place, he shall neuer come hyther agayne.

12 Foz he shall dye in the place wherevnto he is ledde captiue, and shall see this lande no mozе.

13 Woe woozth him that buildeth his house with vnrighteousnesse, and his parlours with the good that he hath gotten by violence, which neuer recompenceth his neighbours labour, noz payeth him his hyze:

14 Who thinketh in him selfe, I wyl build me a wyde house and gozgeous parlours, who causeth wyndowes to be hewen therein, and the seelynges and ioystes maketh he of Cedar, & painteth them with Sinoper.

15 Thinkest thou to raigne nowe that thou hast inclosed thee selfe with Cedar? Dyd not thy father eate and dzinke and prosper well, as long as he dealt with equitie and righteousnesse.

16 Yea when he helped the oppzessed and powze to their right, then prospered he well, from whence came this, but onely because he knewe me, sayth the Lozde?

17 Neuertheless, as foz thine eyes and thine hart they looke vpon couetousnesse, to shed innocent blood, to doo wzong and violence.

18 And therefoze thus sayth the Lozd against Iehoacim the sonne of Iosias kyng of Iuda, They shal not mourne foz him as they vse to doo, Alas bzother, alas sister: neyther shal they say vnto him, Alas syz, alas foz that noble pzince.

19 But as an Asse shal he be buried, cozrupt, and be cast without the gates of Hierusalem.

20 Clymbe vp the hyll of Libanus, O thou daughter Sion, lyft vp thy voyce vpon Basan, crye from all partes: foz all thy louers are destroyed.

21 I gaue thee warnyng whyle thou wast yet in prosperitie: but thou saydest, I shall not heare: And this maner hast thou vsed from thy youth, that thou wouldest neuer heare my voyce.

22 Al thy heardmen shalbe dzinen with the winde, and thy darlinges shalbe carried away into captiuitie: then shalt thou be bzought to shame and confusion, because of all thy wickednesse.

23 Thou that dwellest vpon Libanus, and makest thy nest in the Cedar trees, O howe little shalt thou be regarded when thy sorowe and panges come vpon thee, as vpon a woman trauayling with childe?

24 As truely as I liue, sayth the Lozde, Though * Cononias the sonne of Iehoacim king of Iuda were ỹ signet of my right hand, yet wyll I plucke him of. * Or, Iechonias.

25 And I wyll geue thee into the hande of them that seeke thy life, and into the power of them that thou feaxest, euen into the power of Nabuchodonosoz the kyng of Babylon, and into the power of the Chaldees.

26 Mozeouer, I wyl send thee and thy mother that bare thee into a strange lande where ye were not bozne, and there shal ye dye.

27 But as foz the lande that ye wyll desyze to returne vnto, ye shall neuer come at it agayne.

28 This man Cononias shalbe like an image robbed and tozne in peeces, and like a vessel wherein there is no pleasure: Wherefoze both he and his seede shalbe sent away, and cast into a land that they knowe not.

29 O thou earth, earth, earth, heare the woozd of the Lozde.

30 Thus sayth the Lozde, Wzyte this man destitute of chyldzen: foz no prosperitie shal this man haue all his dayes, neyther shall any of his seede be so happy as to syt vpon the seate of Dauid, and to beare rule any mozе in Iuda.

2 Wherefore this is the ſaying of the Lorde God of Iſrael concernyng the Shepheards that feede my people, Ye ſcatter and thruſt out my flocke, and looke not vppon them: therefore nowe wyll I viſite the wickednesſe of your imaginations, ſayth the Lord.

*Ezec.34.11 3 * And I wyll geather togeather the remnant of my flocke from all lands that I had driuen them vnto, and wyll bring them agayne to their foldes, that they may growe and encreaſe.

*Ieremi.33.14. Eſai.4.2.

*Deu.33.28. 6 * In his time ſhall Iuda be ſaued, and Iſrael ſhall dwel without feare: and this is the name that they ſhall call him, The Lorde our righteouſneſſe.

7 And therefore behold, the time commeth, ſayth the Lorde, that it ſhalbe no more ſaid, The Lorde liueth whiche brought the chyldren of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt:

*Ieremi.16.13. 8 But, *the Lorde liueth, whiche brought forth and led the ſeede of the houſe of Iſrael out of the North lande, and from all countreys where I had ſcattered them: and they ſhal dwel in their owne land agayne.

9 My hart breaketh in my body, becauſe of the falſe prophetes, al my bones ſhake, I am become like a drunken man, that by the reaſon of wine can take no reſt, for very feare of the Lorde, and his holy wordes,

10 Becauſe the lande is full of adulterers, and throughſwearing it mourneth, and the pleaſant paſtures of the deſart are dryed vp: yea the way that men take is wicked, their power is nothing right.

11 For the Prophetes and the Prieſtes them ſelues are polluted hypocrites, and their wickednesſe haue I founde in my houſe, ſayth the Lorde.

12 Wherefore their way ſhalbe ſlipperie in the darkneſſe wherein they may ſtacker & fall for I wyll bring a plagne vpon them, euen the yeere of their viſitation, ſayth the Lord.

13 I haue ſeene folly among the Prophetes of Samaria that preached for Baal, and deceiued my people of Iſrael.

14 I haue ſeene alſo among the Prophetes of Hieruſalem foule adulterie, & prelimptuous lyes: they take the moſt ſhamefull men by the hand, flattering them, ſo that they can not returne frō their wickednesſe, al theſe with their citizens are vnto me as Sodome, & as the inhabiters of Gomorrhe.

*Ieremi.9.15. 15 * Therefore thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes concernyng theſe prophetes, Behold, I wyl feede them with wormewood, and make them drinke the water of gall: for from the prophetes of Hieruſalem is hypocriſie come into al the lande.

16 And therefore the Lorde of hoſtes geueth you this warnyng, Heare not the wordes of the prophetes that preache vnto you, and deceiue you, truely they teache you vanitie: for they ſpeake the meanyng of their owne hart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.

17 They ſay vnto them that deſpiſe me, The Lord hath ſpoken it, Tuſhe, ye ſhall proſper right well: and vnto all them that walke after the luſt of their owne hart, they ſay, Tuſhe, there ſhall no miſfortune happen you.

18 For who hath ſitten in the counſell of the Lorde, that he hath heard and vnderſtande what he is about to doo? who hath marked his deuice, and heard it?

19 Behold the ſtormie weather of the Lord, that is, his indignation ſhall goe forth, and a violent whyrle winde ſhal fall downe vppon the head of the vngodly.

20 And the wrath of the Lord ſhal not turne agayne, vntyll he perfourme and fulfyl the thought of his hart: and in the latter dayes ye ſhall knowe this meanyng.

*Ieremi.14.14. and.27.15. 21 * I haue not ſent theſe prophetes ſayth the Lorde, and yet they ranne, I haue not ſpoken to them, and yet they preached.

22 But yf they had continued in my counſell, they had opened to my people my wordes, & they had turned my people from their euyll wayes, & wicked imaginations.

23 Am I then God that ſeeth but the thing which is nigh at hand, and not that is farre of, ſayth the Lorde?

24 May any man hide him ſelfe ſo, that I ſhall not ſee him, ſayth the Lorde? doo not I fulfyll heauen and earth, ſayth the Lord?

25 I haue heard wel yenough what the prophets ſay that preache lyes in my name, ſaying, I haue dreamed, I haue dreamed.

26 Howe long wyll this continue in the prophetes hart to tell lyes, and preache the craftie subtiltie of their owne hart?

27 Whose purpose is with the dreames that euery one tell, to make my people forget my name, as their fathers did when Baal came vp.

28 The prophet that hath a dreame, let him tell it, and he that vnderstandeth my word, let him shewe it faythfully: for what hath chaffe and wheate to do together, saith the Lorde?

29 Is not my woorde lyke a fyre, sayth the Lorde, and lyke an hammer that breaketh the harde stone?

30 Therfore thus sayth the Lorde, Behold, I wyll vppon the prophetes that steale my woorde priuily from euery man.

31 Behold, here am I, sayth the Lorde, agaynst the prophetes that make tongues tender to speake, and to say, The Lord hath sayde it.

32 Behold, here am I, sayth the Lorde, agaynst those prophetes that dare prophesie lying dreames, and deceiue my people with their vanitie and inconstant deuices, yet I neuer sent nor commaunded them: they shal do this people no good at al, sayth the Lord.

33 Yf this people, eyther any prophete or priest, aske thee, and say, What is the burden of the Lorde, Thou shalt say vnto them, What burden? I wyll forsake you, sayth the Lorde.

34 And the prophete, priest, or people, that vseth this tearme, The burden of the Lord: hym wyl I visite, and his house also.

35 But thus shal ye say euery one to another, and euery man to his brother, What aunsweare hath the Lorde geuen? or what is the Lordes commaundement?

36 And as for the burden of the Lorde, ye shall speake no more of it, for euery mans owne woorde is his burden: because ye haue altered the woordes of the lyuing God, the Lorde of hostes our God.

37 Thus shal euery man say to the prophets, What aunsweare hath the Lorde geuen thee? or what sayth the Lorde?

38 And not once to name the burden of the Lorde. Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, For as much as ye haue vsed this tearme (The burden of the Lorde) whereas I notwithstandyng sent vnto you, and forbade you to speake of the Lordes burden:

39 Behold, therfore I wyll take you vp as a burden, and wil cast you farre of from my presence, yea, and the citie also that I gaue you and your fathers:

40 And wyll bryng you to an euerlastyng confusion, and into a shame that shall neuer be forgotten.

¶ The.xxiiii. Chapter.

1. The vision of the two paniers of figges. 5. The first vision signifieth, that part of the people shoulde be brought agayne from captiuitie. 8. The seconde, that Zedecias and the rest of the people shoulde be destroyed.

1 The Lorde shewed me a vision: beholde, there stoode two maundes of figges before the temple of the Lorde, after that Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon had led away captiue Iechonias the sonne of Iehoacim kyng of Iuda, the myghtie men also of Iuda, with the workmaisters and cunning men of Hierusalem, vnto Babylon.

2 In the one maund were very good figges, euen lyke those that be first rype: in the other maunde were very noughtie figges, which might not be eaten, they were so euil.

3 Then sayde the Lord vnto me, What seest thou, Ieremie? I sayd, figges, whereof some be very good, and some so euyll that no man may eate them.

4 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, after this maner:

5 Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Lyke as thou knowest the good figges: so shall I know the men led away, whom I haue sent out of this place, into the lande of the Chaldees for their profite:

6 And I wyll set myne eyes vppon them for the best, for I wyl bryng them agayne into this lande, I wyll buylde them vp, and not breake them downe, I wyl plant them, and not roote them out.

7 *And I wyll geue them an hart to knowe howe that I am the Lorde, they shalbe my people, and I wil be their God: for they shal returne vnto me with their whole hart. *Iere.1.33

8 *And lyke as thou knowest the noughtie figges which may not be eaten, they are so euyll: euen so wyl I, sayth the Lorde, cause Zedecias the kyng of Iuda, yea, and all his princes, and the residue of Hierusalem that remayne ouer in this lande, and them also that dwell in Egypt, to be vexed and plagued in kingdomes and landes. *Iere.29.17

9 And I wyll make them to be a reproofe, a common bye woorde, a laughyng stocke and shame in all the places where I shall scatter them.

10 I wyl sende the sworde, hunger, and pestilence among them, vntyll I haue cleane consumed them out of the land that I gaue vnto them and their fathers.

¶ The.xxv. Chapter.

Ieremie prophesieth that they shalbe in captiuitie three score and ten yeeres, because they condemned and despised the woorde of God.

1 A Sermon that was geuen vnto Ieremie vpon all the people of Juda, in the fourth yeere of Iehoacim the ſonne of Joſias kyng of Juda (that was in the firſt yere of Nabuchodonoſor king of Babylon,)

2 Whiche Sermon Jeremie the prophete made vnto all the people of Juda, and to all the inhabiters of Hieruſalem, on this maner,

3 From the thirteenth yeere of Joſias the ſonne of Ammon kyng of Juda, vnto this preſent day (that is euen twentie and three yeeres) the word of the Lord hath ben committed vnto me, and ſo haue I ſpoken vnto you, I haue ryſen vp early, I haue geuen you warnyng in ſeaſon: but ye woulde not heare me.

4 Though the Lord hath ſent his ſeruantes all the prophetes vnto you in ſeaſon: yet woulde ye not obey, ye woulde not enclyne your eares to heare.

*4.kin.17.13 Ioh.n.3.3. 5 He ſayde, *Turne agayne euery man from his euyll way, and from your wicked imaginations, and ſo ſhall ye dwell for euer in the lande that the Lorde promiſed you and your forefathers.

6 And goe not after ſtraunge goddes, ſerue them not, worſhyp them not, and anger me not with the workes of your owne handes, then wyll I not puniſhe you.

7 Neuertheleſſe, ye woulde not heare me, ſayth the Lorde, but haue prouoked me to anger with the workes of your handes, to your great harme.

8 Wherefore thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, Becauſe ye haue not hearkened vnto my worde, 9 Loe, I wyll ſende out, and call for all the people that dwell in the North, ſayth the Lorde, and wyll prepare Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon my ſeruant, and wyll bryng them vpon this lande, and vpon all that dwell therein, and vpon all the people that are about them, and wyll vtterly roote them out: I wyll make them amaſed, a mockage, and a continual deſart.

10 Moreouer, I wyll take from them the voyce of gladneſſe and ſolace, the voyce of the bridegrome, & the bride, the noyſe of the mylſtones, and the lyght of creſſettes.

11 And this whole lande ſhal become a wylderneſſe, and aſtoniſhed: and theſe nations ſhall ſerue the kyng of Babylon threeſcore yeeres and ten.

*Jere.26.10 2.Chr.36.2. 1.Eſd.1.1. Dan.9.2. 12 *When the threeſcore and ten yeeres are expired, I wyll viſite all the wickedneſſe of the kyng of Babylon, & his people, ſayth the Lorde, yea, and the lande of the Chaldees, and wyl make it a perpetual wylderneſſe, 13 And wyl fulfyll all my wordes vpon that lande whiche I haue deuiſed againſt it: yea all that is wrytten in this booke, which Jeremie hath prophecied of all people.

14 So that they alſo ſhalbe ſubdued vnto diuers nations, and great kynges: for I wyll recompence them accordyng to the deedes and workes of their owne handes.

15 For thus hath the Lorde God of Iſrael ſpoken vnto me, * Take this wyne cup of indignation fro my hande, that thou mayſt cauſe all people to whom I ſende thee for to drynke of it: *Apo.16.19.

16 That when they haue drunken therof, they may be mad, and out of their wittes, when the ſword commeth that I wyl ſende among them.

17 Then tooke I the cup from the Lordes hande, and made al people to drynke therof, vnto whom the Lorde had ſent me:

18 But fyrſt the citie of Hieruſalem, and all the cities of Juda, their kinges and princes, to make them deſolate, amaſed, deſpiſed, and hyſſed at, and curſed, accordyng as it is come to paſſe this day.

19 Yea, and Pharao the kyng of Egypt, his ſeruantes, his princes, and his people, altogether one with another:

20 And all kynges of the lande of Hus, all kynges of the Philiſtines lande, Aſcalon, Azah, Accaron, and the remnant of Aſdod,

21 The Edomites, the Moabites, and the Ammonites,

22 All the kynges of Tyrus and Sidon, the kynges of the Iles that are beyonde the ſea, 23 Dedan, Thema, Buz, and all them that dwel in the vttermoſt partes of the worlde.

24 All the kynges of Arabia, and generally all the kynges that dwel in the deſart,

25 All the kynges of Zimri, all the kynges of Elam, al the kynges of the Medes, 26 All the kynges towarde the North, whether they be farre or nygh, euery one againſt his neyghbour, yea, and all the kyngdomes that are vppon the whole earth: and the kyng of Deſach ſhall drynke alſo after them.

27 Therefore ſay thou vnto them, This is the commaundement of the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Drynke, and be drunken: ſpewe, and fal, that ye neuer ariſe, and that through the ſworde whiche I wyll ſende among you.

28 But yf they wyll not receiue the cup of thy hande, and drynke it, then tel them, thus doeth the Lorde of hoſtes threaten you, Drynke it you ſhal, and that ſhortly.

29 For loe, * I begin to plague the citie that my name is geuen vnto, thynke ye then that I wyll leaue you vnpuniſhed? ye ſhall *1.Pet.4.17 not goe quite: for why? I call for a swoord vpon all the inhabiters of the earth, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

30 Therefore tell them all these words, and say vnto them, * The Lorde shal crye from aboue, and his voyce shalbe heard from his holy habitation, with a great noyse shall he crye from his court regall: he shall geue a great voyce like the grape geatherers, and the sounde therof shalbe heard vnto the endes of the worlde.

31 For the Lorde hath a iudgement to geue vpon all people, and wyll hold his court of iustice with all flesshe, and wyll deliuer the vngodly to the swoord, sayth the Lorde.

32 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Beholde, a miserable plague shall goe from one people to another, & a great stormie water shal aryse from al the ends of the earth.

33 And the same day shal the Lord him selfe slay them from one ende of the earth to an other: there shall no mone be made for any of them, none geathered vp, none buried: but shall lye as doung vpon the ground.

34 Mourne, O ye shepheardes, and crye, sprinckle your selues with ashes, O ye rammes of the flocke: for the time of your slaughter and breache is fulfylled, and ye shall fall like vesselles that were much set by.

35 The shepheardes shall haue no way to flee, and the rammes of the flocke shall not escape.

36 Then shall the shepheardes crye horribly, and the rammes of the flocke shall mourne: for the Lord hath consumed their pasture, 37 And their best feeldes lye dead, because of the horrible wrath of the Lorde.

38 They haue forsaken their foldes like as a Lion: for their lande is waste, because of the spoylers furious crueltie, and of his fearefull indignation.

¶ The xxvi. Chapter.

1. Ieremie mouth the people to amendement. 7. He is taken of the Prophetes and Priestes, and brought to iudgement. 23. Vrias the prophete is killed of Ioiakim, contrary to the vvyll of God.

1 IN the beginnyng of the raigne of Iehoakim the sonne of Iosias king of Iuda, came this woorde from the Lorde, saying,

2 Thus sayth the Lord, Stand in the court of the Lordes house, & speake vnto all them which (out of the citie of Iuda) come to do worshyp in the Lordes house, al the words that I commaund thee to say: looke that thou keepe not one woorde backe.

3 (If peraduenture they wyll hearken and turne euery man from his wicked way, that I may also repent of the plague whiche I haue determined to bring vppon them, because of their wicked inuentions)

4 And after this maner shalt thou speake vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde, If ye wyll not obey me, to walke in my lawes whiche I haue geuen you,

5 And to heare the woordes of my seruants the prophets whom I sent vnto you, rysing vp early, and styll sending, yet you haue not hearkened:

6 Then wyll I doo to this house, * as I dyd vnto Silo, and wyll make this citie to be abhorred of al the people of the earth. *1.kin.4.14.

7 And the priestes, the prophetes, and all the people heard Ieremie preache these words in the house of the Lorde.

8 Nowe when he had spoken out all the woordes that the Lorde commaunded him to preache vnto the people, then the priestes, the prophetes, and all the people tooke holde vpon him, and sayde, Thou shalt dye:

9 Howe dareste thou be so bolde as to say in the name of the Lorde, It shall happen to this house as it dyd vnto Silo, and this citie shalbe so waste, that no man may dwell therein?

10 And when al the people were geathered about Ieremie in the house of the Lorde, the princes of Iuda heard of this rumour, and they came soone out of the kynges palace into the house of the Lorde, and sate them downe before the newe doore of the Lorde.

11 Then spake the priestes & the prophetes vnto the rulers, and to all the people these woordes, This man is woorthy to dye: for he hath preached agaynst this citie, as ye your selues haue heard with your eares.

12 Then sayde Ieremie vnto the rulers, and to al the people, The Lorde hath sent me to preache agaynst this house, and agaynst this citie, all the woordes that ye haue heard.

13 * Therfore amend your wayes, and your aduisementes, and be obedient vnto the voyce of the Lorde your God, so shall the Lorde repent of the plague that he hath deuised agaynst you. *Iere.7.3.

14 Nowe as for me, I am in your handes, doo with me as you thinke expedient and good:

15 But this shall ye knowe, yf ye put me to death, ye shall make your selues, this citie, and all the inhabitantes therof, guilty of innocent nocent blood: for this is of a trueth, that the Lorde hath ſent me vnto you, to ſpeake all theſe wordes in your eares.

16 Then ſaide the rulers and the people vnto the prieſtes and prophetes, This man may not be condemned to death, for he hath preached vnto vs in the name of the Lorde our God.

17 The elders alſo of the lande ſtoode vp, and ſayde thus vnto all the people, 18 Micheas the Morathite, whiche was a prophete vnder Ezecias king of Juda, ſpake to all the people of Juda, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, * Sion ſhalbe plowed like a feelde, Hieruſalem ſhalbe an heape of ſtones, & the hyll of the Lordes houſe ſhalbe turned to an hygh wood.

*Mich.3.12.

19 Dyd Ezecias the king of Juda, and all the people of Juda put him to death for this? No verely, but rather feared the lord, and made their prayer vnto him, for the whiche cauſe alſo the Lorde a repented of the plague that he had deuiſed againſt thē: ſhoulde we then doo ſuch a ſhamefull deede agaynſt our ſoules?

a. In the deuine nature there is no ſuch affections or changeablenes: but God is ſayd after the maner of men to repēt, when he doeth not execute that he haddenounced, or doeth defer the plague whiche he had threatned.

20 There was a prophete that preached ſtiffely in the name of the Lord, called Urias, the ſonne of Semaiah of Ciriath-iarim: this man alſo preached agaynſt this citie, and againſt this lande, accordyng to all as Jeremie ſayth.

21 Nowe when Jehoacim the king, with al the eſtates and princes, had hearde his wordes, the king went about to ſlay him: when Urias perceiued that, he was afraid, and fled, and departed into Egypt.

22 Then Jehoacim the king ſent ſeruantes into the lande of Egypt, namely, Elnathan the ſonne of Achbor, and certaine men with him into Egypt;

23 Which fetched Urias out of Egypt, and brought him vnto king Jehoacim, that ſlue him with the ſwoord, and caſt his dead body into the common peoples graue.

24 But Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan helped Jeremie, that he came not into ỹ hands of the people to be ſlayne.

¶ The .xxvii. Chapter.

Jeremie at the commaundement of the Lord, ſendeth bondes to the king of Iuda, and to the other kynges that vvere nygh, vvhereby they are moniſhed to b come ſubiectes vnto Nabuchodonoſor, 6. He vvarneth the people, and the kynges and rulers, that they beleeue not falſe prophetes.

1 IN the beginning of the raigne of Jehoacim the ſonne of Joſias kyng of Juda, came this woord vnto Jeremie from the Lorde, which ſpake thus vnto me,

2 Make thee bondes and chaynes, and put them about thy necke,

3 And ſende them to the kyng of Edom, to the kyng of Moab, to the kyng of Ammon, to the kyng of Tyrus, & to the kyng of Sidon, and that by the meſſengers which ſhal come to Hieruſalem, vnto Zedeciah the king of Juda:

4 And bid them ſay vnto their maiſters, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Speake thus vnto your maiſters;

5 I am he that made the earth, the men, and the cattell that are vpon the grounde, with my great power and ſtretched out arme, and hath geuen it to whom it pleaſeth me.

6 And nowe wyll I deliuer all theſe landes into ỹ power of Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon my ſeruant: the beaſtes alſo of the feelde wyll I geue him, to doo him ſeruice.

7 And all the people ſhall ſerue him, and his ſonne, and his childers childeren, vntyll the time of the ſame land be come, and his time alſo: yea many people and great kings ſhal ſerue him.

8 Moreouer, that people and kingdome which wyl not ſerue Nabuchodonoſor, and that wyll not put their neckes vnder the yoke of the king of Babylon: the ſame people wyll I viſite with the ſwoord, with hunger and peſtilence, vntyll I haue conſumed them in his handes, ſaith the Lord.

9 And therefore folowe not your prophetes, ſoothſayers, expounders of dreames, charmers, and witches, which ſay vnto you, Ye ſhall not ſerue the king of Babylon.

10 For they preache you lyes, to bring you farre from your lande, and that I might caſt you out, and deſtroy you.

11 But the people that put their neckes vnder the yoke of the kyng of Babylon, and ſerue him, thoſe wyll I let remayne ſtyll in their owne land, ſayth the Lorde, and they ſhall occupie it, and dwell therein.

12 All theſe thinges tolde I Zedeciah the kyng of Juda, and ſayde, Put your neckes vnder the yoke of the king of Babylon, and ſerue him and his people, that ye may liue.

13 Why wylt thou and thy people periſhe with the ſwoord, with hunger, with peſtilence, like as the Lorde hath deuiſed for all people that wyll not ſerue the kyng of Babylon?

14 Therefore geue no eare vnto thoſe Prophetes that tell you, Ye ſhall not ſerue the king of Babylon: for they preach you lyes.

15 * Neyther haue I ſent them, ſayth the Lorde;

*Jer.14.15

Lorde: howbeit they are bolde falsly to prophesie in my name, that I myght the sooner dryue you out, and that ye myght perysshe with your Preachers.

16 I speake to the Priestes also, and to all this people: thus sayth the Lord, Heare not the woordes of your prophetes that preache vnto you, and say, Behold the vessels of the Lordes house shal shortly be brought hither agayne from Babylon, for they prophesie lyes vnto you.

17 Heare them not, but serue the kyng of Babylon, that ye may lyue: wherefore wil ye make this citie to be destroyed?

18 But yf they be true prophetes in very deede, and yf the woorde of the Lorde be committed vnto them, then let them pray the Lorde of hostes, that the remnant of the ornamentes whiche are in the house of the Lorde, and in the house of the kyng of Juda and at Hierusalem, be not carried to Babylon also.

4.Ki.25.13 19 *For thus hath the Lorde of hostes spoken concernyng the pyllers, the lauer, the seate, and the residue of the ornaments that yet remayne in this citie,

20 Whiche Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon tooke when he carried away Iechonias the sonne of Iehoacim kyng of Juda, with all the power of Juda and Hierusalem, vnto Babylon captiue.

21 Yea thus hath the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel spoken, as touchyng the residue of the ornamentes of the Lordes house, of the kyng of Juda his house, and of Hierusalem:

Psal.1. 22 They shalbe carried vnto Babylon, and there shal they remaine vntil I visite them, sayth the Lorde: then wyll I bryng them hyther agayne.

¶ The.xxviii.Chapter.

1. The false prophesie of Hananias the Prophete. 12. Ieremie sheweth that the prophesie of Hananias is false, by the example of the other Prophetes.

1 AND it came to passe the same yeere, euen in the begynnyng of the raigne of Zedecia kyng of Juda, in the fourth yeere, the fyfth moneth, that Hananias the sonne of Assur the prophete of Gibeon, spake to me in the *house of the Lord, in the presence of the priestes, and of all the people, and sayde,

1.Kin.3.4.

2 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, the God of Israel, I haue broken the yoke of the king of Babylon,

3 And after two yeeres wyl I bryng againe into this place all the ornamentes of the Lordes house, that Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon caryed away from this place vnto Babylon,

4 Yea I wyl bryng agayne Iechonias the sonne of Iehoacim the kyng of Juda hym selfe, with all the prisoners of Juda that are caried vnto Babylon, euen into this place, sayth the Lorde: for I wyl breake the yoke of the kyng of Babylon.

5 Then the prophet Ieremie gaue answeare vnto the prophet Hananias before all the priestes, & before al the people that were present in the house of the Lorde.

6 And the prophete Ieremie sayde, Amen, the Lorde do that, and graunt the thyng whiche thou hast prophesied, that he may bryng agayne al the ornamentes of the lords house, and restore al the prisoners from Babylon into this place.

7 Neuertheless, hearken thou also what I wyll say; that thou and all the people may heare,

8 The prophetes that were before vs in time past, whiche prophesied of warre, or trouble, or pestilence,

9 Either of peace vpon many nations and great kyngdomes, were prooued by this (yf God had sent them in very deede) when the thyng came to passe whiche the prophete tolde before.

10 And Hananias the prophete toke the chayne from the prophet Ieremies necke, and brake it.

11 And with that sayde Hananias that al the people myght heare, Thus hath the Lord spoken, Euen so wil I breake the yoke of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon from the necke of al nations, yea and that within this two yeere. And so the prophet Ieremie went his way.

12 Nowe after that Hananias the prophete had taken the chayne from the prophete Ieremies necke, and broken it, the woorde of the Lord came vnto the prophet Ieremie, saying, 13 Goe and tel Hananias these woordes, Thus sayth the Lorde, Thou hast broken the chayne of wood, but in steede of wood thou shalt make chaynes of iron.

14 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, I wyll put a yoke of iron vpon the necke of al this people, that they may serue Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, yea and so shal they do: and I wyl geue him the beastes of the feelde.

15 Then sayde the prophete Ieremie vnto the prophete Hananias, Heare me Hananias, The Lord hath not sent thee, but thou bryngest this people into a false beleefe.

16 And therefore thus sayth the Lorde,

Behold, I wyl ſende thee out of the lande, and within a yeere thou ſhalt dye, becauſe thou haſt falſly ſpoken agaynſt the Lorde.

17 So Hananias dyed the ſame yeere, in the ſeuenth moneth.

c. The Epiſtle of Ieremie ſent vnto them that were in captiuitie in Babylon. 10. He propheſieth their returne from the captiuitie after ſeuentie yeeres.

1 THeſe are the woordes of the booke that Ieremie the prophees ſent from Hieruſalem, vnto the pryſoners, the ſenators, prieſtes, prophets, and al the people, whom Nabuchodonoſor had led from Hieruſalem vnto Babylon,

2 After the tyme that kyng Iechonias and his queene, his chamberlaynes, the princes of Iuda and Hieruſalem, the workmaiſters of Hieruſalem, were departed thyther.

3 Whiche booke Elaſah the ſonne of Saphan, and Gamariah the ſonne of Helcia dyd beare, whom Zedecias the kyng of Iuda ſent vnto Babylon to Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon: theſe were the woordes of Ieremies booke.

4 Thus hath the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael ſpoken vnto al the pryſoners that were fled from Hieruſalem to Babylon:

5 Buylde you houſes to dwel therein, plant you gardens, that you may enioy the fruits thereof.

6 Take you wyues to beare you ſonnes and daughters, prouide wyues for your ſonnes, and huſbandes for your daughters, that they may get ſonnes and daughters, and that ye maye multiplye there, and decreaſe not.

7 Seeke after the peace and proſperitie of the citie, wherein ye be pryſoners, and pray vnto the Lorde for it: for in the peace thereof ſhal your peace be.

8 For thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, * Let not theſe prophetes & ſoothſayers that be among you deceyue you, and beleeue not your owne dreames:

*Iere.14.14 Iere.23.21.

9 For why? they preache you lyes in my name, and I haue not ſent them, ſayth the Lorde.

10 But thus ſayth the Lorde, * When ye haue fulfylled ſeuentie yeeres at Babylon, I wyll bryng you home, and of myne owne goodneſſe I wyl carrye you hyther agayne vnto this place.

*Iere.25.10 2.Ch.36.22 1.Eſd.1.1. Dani.9.

11 For I knowe what I haue deuiſed for you, ſayth the Lorde: my thoughtes are to geue you peace, and not trouble, and to geue you an ende as you wyſhe and hope to haue.

12 Ye ſhal crye vnto me, ye ſhal goe and call vpon me, and I wyl heare you.

13 Ye ſhall ſeeke me, and fynde me, yea yf ſo be that you ſeeke me with your whole hart.

14 I wyll be founde of you, ſayth the Lord, and wyl delyuer you out of pryſon, and gather you togeather agayne out of all places wherin I haue ſcattred you, ſayth the lord, and wyl bryng you againe to the ſame place from whence I cauſed you to be caried away captiue.

15 But whereas ye ſay that God hath rayſed you vp prophetes at Babylon, 16 Thus hath the Lord ſpoken to the kyng that ſytteth in the throne of Dauid, and to al the people that dwell in the citie, and to your brethren that are not gone with you into captiuitie:

17 Thus I ſay ſpeaketh the Lorde of hoſtes, *Beholde, I wyl ſende a ſwoorde, hunger, and peſtilence vppon them, and wyll make them lyke vntymely fygges that may not be eaten for bytternelſe:

*Iere.24.

18 And I wil perſecute them with ỹ ſword, with hunger, and peſtilence, I wyl delyuer them vp to be vexed of al kyngdomes, to be curſed, abhorred, laughed to ſcorne, and put to confuſion of al the people among whom I haue ſcattered them:

19 And that becauſe they haue not been obedient vnto my commaundements, ſayth the Lorde, whiche I ſent vnto them by my ſeruantes the prophets: I ſtoode vp early, and ſent vnto them, but they woulde not heare, ſayth the Lorde.

20 Heare therefore the woorde of the Lord, al ye pryſoners, whom I ſent from Hieruſalem to Babylon,

21 Thus hath the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael ſpoken of Ahab the ſonne of Cholaiah, and of Zedecias the ſonne of Maaſiah, which propheſie lyes vnto you in my name, Behold, I wyll delyuer them into the hande of Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, that he maye ſlay them before your eyes,

22 And al the pryſoners of Iuda that are in Babylon, ſhall take this tearme of curſyng, and ſay, Make GOD doo vnto thee as he dyd vnto Zedecias and Ahab, whom the kyng of Babylon roſted in the fyre, 23 Becauſe they ſynned ſhamefully in Iſrael: for they haue not onely defyled their neyghbours wyues, but alſo preached lying woordes in my name, whiche I haue not commaunded them: this I teſtifie & aſſure, ſayth the Lorde.

24 But

24 But as for Semeiah the Nehelamite, thou shalt speake vnto hym:
25 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Because thou hast sent letters in thine owne name vnto all the people that is at Hierusalem, and to Sophoniah the sonne of Maasiah the priest, yea and sent them to al the priestes, saying,
26 The Lorde hath ordeyned thee to be priest in the steede of Iehoida the priest, that thou shouldest be cheefe in the house of the Lorde aboue all prophetes and preachers, and that thou mightest set them vpon the pyllorie, or in the stockes:
27 Howe happeneth it then that thou hast not reproued Ieremie of Anathoth, which neuer leaueth of his prophesying?
28 And beside al this, he hath sent vs worde vnto Babylon, and tolde vs playnely that our captiuitie shal long endure, that we shoulde buylde vs houses to dwel therein, and to plant vs gardens, that we may enioy the fruites thereof.
29 Whiche letter Sophonias the priest read, and let Ieremie the prophete heare it.
30 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto Ieremie, saying,
31 Sende woorde to al them that be in captiuitie, on this maner, Thus hath the Lord spoken concerning Semeiah the Nehelamite: Because that Semeiah hath prophesied vnto you without my commission, and brought you into a false hope:
32 Therefore thus the Lorde doeth certifie you, Beholde, I wyl visite Semeiah the Nehelamite and his seede, so that none of his shal remayne among this people, & none of them shal see the good that I wyll doo for my people, sayth the Lorde, for he hath preached falsely of the Lorde.

¶ The.xxx.Chapter.

1. The returne of the people from Babylon. 8. God by his chastening sheweth that the people is sinful. 16. The destruction of the enemies of Israel.

1 These are the woordes that the Lorde sheweth vnto Ieremie, saying,
2 Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, Write vp diligently al the woordes that I haue spoken vnto thee in a booke.
3 For loe, the time commeth, sayth the Lord, that I wyl bryng agayne the prysoners of my people of Israel and Iuda, sayth the Lorde: for I wyl restore them vnto the lande that I gaue to their fathers, and they shal haue it in possession.
4 Agayne, these woordes spake the Lorde concerning Israel and Iuda.
5 Thus sayth the Lorde, We haue heard a terrible crye, feare, and disquietnesse.
6 For what els doeth this signifie that I see? namely that al strong men smite euery man his hande vpon his loynes, as a woman in the time of her trauayle? Who euer sawe a man trauayle with chylde? Enquyre thereafter and see, yea, al their faces are marueylous pale.
7 *Alas for this day, whiche is so dreadful that none may be lykened vnto it, and alas for the tyme of Iacobs trouble, from the which he shal yet be deliuered. *Ioel.2.11. Amos.5.10. Soph.1.15.
8 For in that day, sayth the Lorde of hostes, I wyl take his yoke from of thy necke, and breake thy bondes, and strangers shal no more haue dominion ouer him:
9 But they shal doo seruice vnto God their Lorde, and to Dauid their kyng, whom I wyl rayse vp vnto them.
10 *And as for thee, O my seruant Iacob, feare not, sayth the Lorde, and be not afrayde, O Israel: for loe, I wyl helpe thee also from farre, and thy seede from the land of their captiuitie: and Iacob shal turne agayne, he shalbe in rest, and haue a prosperous lyfe, and no man shal make hym afrayde: *Esai.44.1. Luke.1.70.
11 For I am with thee, to helpe thee, sayth the Lorde: and though I shal destroy al the people among whom I haue scattered thee, yet wyl I not destroy thee, but correct thee, and that with discretion: for I wyl not vtterly destroy thee.
12 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Thy broosinges are perylous, and thy woundes redy to cast thee into sickenesse.
13 There is no man to meddle with thy cause, or to lay a plaster vppon thee, or to binde vp thy woundes to heale thee.
14 Al thy louers haue forgotten thee, and care nothing for thee: for I haue geuen thee a cruel stroke, and chastened thee roughly, and that for the multitude of thy misdeedes: for thy sinnes haue had the ouer hande.
15 *Why makest thou mone for thy harme? In deede thou art sore wounded and in icopardie: but for the multitude of thy misdeedes and sinnes I haue done this vnto thee. *Iere.15.18.
16 And therefore al they that deuoure thee, shalbe deuoured, and al thine enimies shal be led into captiuitie: al they that make thee waste, shalbe wasted themselues, and al those that robbe thee, wyl I make also to be robbed.
17 For I wyl geue thee thy health agayne, and make thy woundes whole, sayth the Lorde, becauſe they reuiled thee, as one caſt away and deſpiſed: Sion ſayde they is ſhe whom no man regardeth.

18 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl bryng agayne the captiuitie of Iacobs tentes, and defende his dwelling place: the citie ſhalbe buylded in her olde eſtate, and the houſes ſhal haue theyr right fundation.

19 And out of them ſhal goe thankeſgeuing and the voyce of ioye: I wyl multiple them, and they ſhal not be fewe, I wyl endue them with honour, and no man ſhal ſubdue them.

20 Their chyldren ſhalbe as aforetime, and their congregation ſhal continue in my ſyght: and al thoſe that vexe them wyll I viſite.

21 A captayne alſo ſhal come of them, and a prince ſhal ſpring out from the middeſt of them, hym wyl I chalenge to mee ſelfe, and he ſhal come vnto me: for what is he that geueth ouer his hart to come vnto me, ſayth the Lorde?

22 Ye ſhalbe my people alſo, and I wyl be your God.

23 Beholde, on the other ſide ſhal the wrath of the Lorde breake out as a ſtormie water, as a mightie whirle winde, and ſhal fal vpon the heades of the vngodly.

24 The terrible diſpleaſure of the Lorde ſhal not leaue of, vntyl he haue done and perfourmed the intent of his hart, whiche in the latter dayes ye ſhal vnderſtande.

¶ The.xxxi. Chapter.

1. He propheſieth that the people of Iſrael ſhalbe reſtored agayne vnto theyr proſperitie. 18. To be turned from ſinne, is the gyft of God. 27. The byrth of Chriſte is propheſied.

1 AT the ſame tyme, ſayth the Lord, ſhall I be the God of al the generations of Iſrael, and they ſhalbe my people:

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde, The people of Iſrael which eſcaped in the wyldernes from the ſwoorde, founde grace to come into theyr reſt.

3 Euen ſo ſhal the Lorde nowe alſo appeare vnto me from farre, and ſay, I loue thee with an euerlaſting loue, therefore by my mercie I haue drawen thee vnto me.

4 I wyl repayre thee againe, O thou daughter of Iſrael, that thou mayeſt be faſt and ſure: thou ſhalt take thy tabrettes agayne, and goe forth with them that leade the daunce:

5 Thou ſhalt plant vines agayne vpon the hylles of Samaria, and the grape geatherers ſhal plant, and commonly eate of it.

6 For the dayes ſhal come when the watchmen vpon the mount Ephraim ſhal crye, Aryſe, let vs goe vp vnto Sion to our Lord God.

7 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Reioyce with gladneſſe becauſe of Iacob, crye vnto the head of the Gentiles, ſpeake out, ſyng and ſay, O Lorde ſaue thy people the remnant of Iſrael.

8 Beholde, I wyl bryng them agayne from out of the northe lande, and geather them from the endes of the worlde, with the blynde and lame that are among them, with the women that be great with childe, and ſuche as be alſo deliuered: and the companie of them that come agayne ſhalbe great.

9 They ſhal come weeping, and with merciful pitie wyl I bring them hither againe: I wyl leade them to the ryuers of water in a ſtraight way where they ſhal not ſtumble: for I am Iſraels father, and Ephraim is my firſt borne.

10 Heare the woorde of the Lorde, O ye Gentiles, preache in the Iles that lye farre of, and ſay, He that hath ſcattered Iſrael ſhal geather him togeather agayne, & ſhall keepe him as a ſhepheard doeth his flocke.

11 For the Lorde hath redeemed Iacob, and ryd hym from the hande of the violent.

12 And they ſhal come and reioyce vpon the hyl of Sion, and ſhal haue plenteouſneſſe of goodes, which the Lorde ſhal geue them, Namely wheate, wine, oyle, young ſheepe, and calues: and theyr ſoule ſhalbe as a wel watered garden, for they ſhal no more be hungry.

13 Then ſhall the mayde reioyce in the daunce, yea both young and olde folkes: for I wyl turne theyr ſorowe into gladneſſe, and wyl comfort them from theyr ſorowes, and make them ioyful.

14 I wyl powre plenteouſneſſe vppon the hartes of the prieſtes, and my people ſhalbe ſatiſfied with my goodneſſe, ſayth the Lorde.

15 Thus ſayth the Lorde, * The voyce of heauineſſe, weeping, and lamentation, was heard on hygh, euen of Rachel mournyng for her children, and wouldē not be comforted, becauſe they were not. *Mat. 2.

16 But nowe ſayth the Lorde, Leaue of from weeping and crying, withholde thine eyes from teares: for thy labour ſhal be rewarded, ſayth the Lorde, and they ſhal come agayne out of the lande of theyr enimies.

17 Yea thy poſteritie ſhal haue conſolation in this, ſayth the Lorde, that thy chyldren ſhall come agayne into theyr owne lande.

18 More-

18 Moreouer, I hearde Ephraim that was ledde awaye captiue complayne on this maner, O Lorde, thou hast corrected me, and thy chastenyng haue I receyued as an vntamed calfe, conuert thou me, and I shalbe conuerted, for thou art my Lorde God.

19 Yea as soone as thou turnest me, I shall repourme mee selfe, & when I vnderstande, I shall smyte vppon my thygh, for verily I haue cõmitted shameful thyngs: for I haue borne the reproofe and confusion of my youth.

20 Vppon this complaynt I thought thus by mee selfe, Is not Ephraim my deare sonne? Is he not the chylde with whom I haue had al my myrth & pastime? For since the tyme that I first communed with hym, I haue hym euer in remembrance, therfore my hart draweth me vnto hym, gladly and louingly wil I haue mercie vpon him, saith the Lorde.

21 Make thee selfe markes, set vp heapes of stone, set thyne hart vpon the way that thou dyddest walke, and turne agayne, O thou daughter of Israel, turne agayne to these cities of thyne.

22 Howe long wilt thou goe astray, O thou sturdy daughter? for the Lorde wyll worke a newe thyng vpon earth: A woman shal compasse a man.

23 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, It wyl come thereto, that when I haue brought Iuda out of captiuitie, these woordes shalbe hearde in the land and in his cities, The Lorde blesse thee, O thou dwellyng place of ryghteousnesse, O thou holy hyl.

24 And there shall dwel Iuda and al her cities, the Shepheardes & the husbandmen:

25 For I wyl feede the hungrye soule, and refreshe al faynt hartes.

26 When I hearde this, I came agayne to mee selfe, I sawe lyke as I had been waked out of a sweete sleepe, 27 Behold, sayth the Lorde, the dayes come that I wyll sowe the house of Israel and the house of Iuda with men and with cattel.

28 Yea it shall come thereto, that lyke as I haue gone about in times past to roote them out, to scatter them, to breake them downe, to destroy them, and chasten them: euen so wyll I also goe diligently about to buylde them vp agayne, and to plant them, sayth the Lorde.

Exe. 18. 3. 29 Then shal it no more be sayde, *The fathers haue eatẽ a sowre grape, and the chyldrens teethe are set on edge.

30 For euery one shall dye for his owne misdeedes: so that who so eateth a sowre grape, his teethe shalbe set on edge.

31 *Behold, the dayes wyll come, sayth the Lorde, that I wyl make a newe couenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Iuda: *Heb. 8. 8.

32 Not after the couenant that I made with their fathers, when I tooke them by the hande, and led them out of the lande of Egypt, whiche couenant they brake, yea euen when I as an husband had rule ouer them, sayth the Lorde.

33 But this shalbe the couenant that I wyll make with the house of Israel after those dayes, sayth the Lord, *I wyl plant my lawe in the inwarde partes of them, and wryte it in their harts, and wyl be their God, and they shalbe my people. *Ier. 24. 7. Luke. 1. 57. Heb. 8. 10.

34 And from thencefoorth shal no man teach his neyghbour or his brother, and say, *Knowe the Lorde: but they shall all knowe me from the lowest vnto the highest, sayth the Lorde: * for I wyll forgeue their misdeedes, & wyl neuer remember their sinnes any more. *Esai. 54. 13 Amos. 6. 45. *Act. 10. 43.

35 Thus sayth the Lorde, whiche gaue the Sunne to be a lyght for the day, and the Moone & the starres to shyne in the nyght, whiche mooueth the sea, so that the floods thereof waxe fierce, his name is the Lord of hostes, 36 Lyke as this ordinaunce shal neuer be taken out of my syght, sayth the Lorde, so shal the sede of Israel neuer ceasse, but alway be a people before me.

37 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde, Lyke as the heauen aboue can not be measured, and as the fundations of the earth beneathe may not be sought out, so wil I also cast out the whole seede of Israel, for that they haue committed, sayth the Lorde.

38 Behold, the dayes come, sayth the Lorde, that the citie of the Lorde shalbe enlarged, from the towre of Hananeel, vnto the gate of the corner wal.

39 From thence shall the ryght measure be taken before her vnto the hyl top of Gareb, and shal come about Gaath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead carkasses, and of the ashes, and al the feeldes, vnto the brooke of Cedron, and vnto the corner of the horse gate towarde the East, it shalbe holy vnto the Lord, and shal neuer be broken nor cast downe any more.

The .xxxii. Chapter.

1. Ieremie is cast into prysom, because he prophesied that the citie should be taken of the king of Babylon.

1 THese woordes spake the Lord vnto Ieremie, in the tenth yeere of Zedecias kyng of Juda, whiche was the eyghteenth yeere of Nabuchodonoſor,

2 What tyme as the kyng of Babylons hoſt layde ſiege vnto Hieruſalem: but Jeremie the Prophete laye bound in the court of the pryſon, whiche was in the kyng of Judaes houſe,

3 Where Zedecias the kyng of Juda cauſed hym to be layde, becauſe he had prophefied on this maner, Thus ſayth the Lord, Beholde, I wyl deliuer this citie into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, whiche ſhall take it.

4 As for Zedecias the kyng of Juda, he ſhall not be able to eſcape the Chaldees: but ſurely he ſhall come into the handes of the kyng of Babylon, whiche ſhall ſpeake with hym mouth to mouth, and one of them ſhal looke another in the face.

5 And Zedecias ſhalbe carried vnto Babylon, and there ſhal he be vntyl the tyme that I viſite hym, ſayth the Lorde: but yf thou takeſt in hande to fyght agaynſt the Chaldees, thou ſhalt not proſper.

6 And Jeremie ſayd, Thus hath the Lord ſpoken vnto me,

7 Beholde, Hananeel the ſonne of Sellum thyne vncles ſonne ſhal come vnto thee, and requyre thee to redeeme the lande that lyeth in Anathoth, vnto thee ſelfe: for by reaſon of kynred it is thy ryght to redeeme it, and buye it out.

8 And Hananeel myne vncles ſonne came to me in the courte of the pryſon, accordyng to the woorde of the Lorde, and ſayde vnto me, Buye my lande, I pray thee, that lyeth in Anathoth, in the countrey of Beniamin, for by heritage thou haſt ryght to looſe it out for thee ſelfe, therefore redeeme it. Then I perceyued that this was the commaundement of the Lorde:

9 And ſo I bought the land from Hananeel of Anathoth mine vncles ſonne, and weyghed hym there the money, euen ſeuen ſicles, and ten ſyluer pence:

10 And I wrote it in a booke, and ſealed it, and toke witneſſes, and weyghed him there the money vpon the weyghtes.

11 So I tooke the euidence with the copie when it was orderly ſealed.

12 And I gaue the euidence to Baruch the ſonne of Neriah the ſonne of Maaſiah, in the ſyght of Hananeel my coſin, and in the preſence of the witneſſes that be named in the euidence, and before all the Jewes that were there by in the court of the pryſon.

13 I charged Baruch alſo before them, ſaying,

14 The Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael commaundeth thee to take this ſealed euidence with the copie, and to lay it in an earthen veſſel, that it may long continue.

15 For the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael hath determined, that houſes, feeldes, and vineyardes, ſhalbe poſſeſſed agayne in this lande.

16 Nowe whē I had deliuered the euidence vnto Baruch the ſonne of Neriah, I beſought the Lord, ſaying, 17 O Lorde God, it is thou that haſt made heauen & earth with thy great power and hygh arme, and there is nothyng hyd from thee.

18 *Thou ſheweſt mercie vpon thouſandes, thou recompenceſt the wyckednes of the fathers into the boſome of the children that come after them. *Exo.34.7. Deut.5.9.

19 Thou art the great and myghtie God, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes, great in counſell, and excellent in woorke, thyne eyes looke vppon all the wayes of mens chyldren, to rewarde euery one after his way, and accordyng to the fruites of his inuentions.

20 Thou haſt doone great tokens and wonders in the lande of Egypt, as we ſee this day, vppon the people of Iſrael, and vppon thoſe men, to make thy name great, as it is come to paſſe this day.

21 Thou haſt brought thy people of Iſrael out of the land of Egypt with tokens, with woonders, with a myghtie hande, with a ſtretched out arme, and with great terribleneſſe, 22 And haſt geuen them this lande, like as thou haddeſt promiſed vnto their fathers, namely, that thou wouldeſt geue them a land that floweth with milke and hony.

23 Nowe when they came therein and poſſeſſed it, they folowed not thy voyce, and walked not in thy lawe: but al that thou commaundedſt them to doo, that haue they not done, and therfore come al theſe plagues vpon them.

24 Behold, there are bulwarkes made now agaynſt the citie to take it, and it ſhalbe wonne of the Chaldees that beſiege it with ſwoorde, with hunger, and death: and looke what thou haſt ſpoken, that ſame ſhal come vpon them, for loe al thinges are preſent vnto thee.

25 Yet ſayeſt thou vnto me, O Lorde God, and commaundeſt me that I ſhall buye a peece of lande vnto mee ſelfe for mony, and take witneſſes thereto: and yet in the meane ſeaſon the citie is deliuered into the power of the Chaldees.

26 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie, ſaying,

27 Be

27 Beholde, I am the Lorde God of all fleshe: is there any thyng then to hard for me?

28 Therefore thus sayth the Lord, Beholde, I shal delyuer this citie into the power of the Chaldees, and into the power of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, they shal take it:

29 For the Chaldees shal come and wynne this citie, and set fyre vpon it, and burne it, with the gorgious houses, in whose parlours they haue made sacrifice vnto Baal, and powred drinke offeringes vnto strange gods, to prouoke me vnto wrath:

30 For the chyldren of Israel and the chyldren of Iuda haue onely ben doing wyckednesse before me from theyr youth vp, they haue ben only prouoking me to wrath with the woorkes of theyr owne handes, sayth the Lorde.

31 For what hath this citie ben els, but a prouoking of my wrath euer since the day that they buylded it, vnto this houre wherein I cast it out of my syght?

32 Because of the great blasphemies of the chyldren of Israel and Iuda, whiche they haue done to prouoke me, yea, they, theyr kynges, their princes, theyr preestes, theyr prophtes, the men of Iuda, and the citizens of Hierusalem:

33 When I stoode vp early & taught them, and instructed them, they turned theyr backes to me, and not theyr faces, 34 They would not heare to be reformed and corrected: *but set theyr idolles in 4.Re.21.4. the house that is halowed to my name, to defile it.

35 They haue buylded hye places for Baal in the valley of the chyldren of Hennom, to cause their sonnes and daughters to passe through fyre in the honour of Moloch, whiche I neuer commaunded them: neyther came it euer in my thought to make Iuda synne with such abomination.

36 And nowe therefore thus hath the Lord God of Israel spoken concerning this citie, which as ye your selues confesse, shalbe deliuered into the hand of the kyng of Babylon, vvhen it is vvonne with the swoorde, with hunger, and with pestilence.

37 Beholde, I wyl geather them togeather from al landes, wherein I haue scattered them in my wrath, in feareful and great displeasure, & wyl bring them agayne vnto this place, where they shal dwel safely:

Ezec.11.19. 38 *And they shalbe my people, and I wyl be theyr God.

39 And I wyl geue them one hart and one way, that they may feare me al the dayes of theyr lyfe: that they and theyr chyldren after them may prosper.

40 And I wyl set vp an euerlasting couenant with them, namely, that I wyl neuer cease to doo them good, and that I wyl put my feare in theyr hartes, so that they shal not runne away from me.

41 Yea, I wyl haue a lust and pleasure to doo them good, & faythfully to plant them in this land with my whole hart, and with my whole soule.

42 For thus sayth the Lorde, Like as I haue brought al this great plague vppon this people: euen so wyl I also bring vpon them al the good that I haue promised them,

43 And men shal haue theyr possessions in this lande, whereof ye say nowe that it shal neyther be inhabited of the people, nor of cattel, but be deliuered into the handes of the Chaldees:

44 Yea, lande shalbe bought for money, and euidences made thereupon, and sealed before witnesses in the countrey of Beniamin, and rounde about Hierusalém, in the cities of Iuda, in the cities that are vppon the mountaynes, & them that lye beneath, yea, and in the cities that are in the south: for I wyl bring theyr prysoners hyther agayne, sayth the Lorde.

¶ The.xxxiii.Chapter.

1. The prophete is monished of the Lorde to pray for the deliuerance of the people, vvhich the Lord promiseth. 8. God forgeueth synnes, and doeth gratiously to the people for his owne renowne. 13. Of the byrth of Christe.

1 MOreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie agayne when he was yet bounde in the court of the prysone.

2 Thus sayth the Lorde, who made Hierusalem, who fashioned the same to establishe it, whose name is the Lorde,

3 Crye vnto me, and I wyl answeare, and shewe thee great and high thinges whiche were vnknowen vnto thee.

4 Thus I say speaketh the Lorde God of Israel, concernyng the houses of this citie, and the houses of the kynges of Iuda that are broken through the ordinance and the swoorde.

5 The inhabitours of this citie haue come to fight agaynst the Chaldees, and they are fylled with the dead carkasses of men, whom I haue slayne in my wrath and displeasure, when I turned my face from this citie, because of al her wyckednesse.

6 Beholde, sayth the Lorde, I wyl repayre and heale theyr woundes, and make them whole: I wyl open them the large treaſure of peace and trueth,

7 And wyl returne the captiuitie of Juda and Iſrael, and wyl ſet them vp agayne as they were before:

8 From al miſdeedes wherein they offended agaynſt me, I wyl cleanſe them: and al theyr blaſphemies which they haue done agaynſt me, when they regarded me not, I wyl forgeue them.

9 And this ſhal geat me a name, a prayſe and honour among all the people of the earth, which ſhal heare al the good that I wyl ſhewe vnto them, yea, they ſhalbe afrayde and aſtonied at al the good deedes and benefites that I wyl doo for them.

10 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lord, In this place (whereof ye ſay that it ſhalbe a wyldernesſe, wherein neyther people nor cattayle ſhal dwel) in like maner in the cities of Juda, and in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem (which alſo ſhalbe ſo voyde, that neyther people not cattel ſhal dwel there)

11 Shal the voyce of gladneſſe be heard agayne, the voyce of the brydegrome and of the bryde, the voyce of them that ſhal ſyng, Prayſe the Lord of hoſtes, for he is louing, and his mercie endureth for euer: and the voyce of them that offer vp gyftes in the houſe of the Lorde: for I wyl reſtore the captiuitie of this land as it was afore, ſayth the Lorde.

12 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes, It ſhal come yet thereto, that in this lande whiche is voyde from men and cattel, and in al the cities of the lande, there ſhalbe ſet vp ſhepheardes cottages to reſt their flockes.

13 In the cities vpon the mountaynes, and in the cities that lye vpon the playne, and in the cities of the South, in the lande of Beniamin, and rounde about Hieruſalem, and in the cities of Juda, ſhal the ſheepe paſſe agayne vnder the hande of hym that telleth them, ſayth the Lorde.

*Iere.23. 5. 14 *Behold, the tyme commeth ſayth the Lorde, that I wyl perfourme that good thing whiche I haue promiſed vnto the houſe of Iſrael, & vnto the houſe of Juda.

*Deu.33. 28 a. This name hath God geuē to Chriſte, and doeth properly belong to hym alone, but here it is attributed vnto ỹ Church, for that God the father hath eſpouſed Chriſt his ſonne vnto the Church, and hath endowed her with al that is his.

15 In thoſe dayes, and at the ſame time, I wyl bryng forth vnto Dauid the branche of ryghteouſneſſe, and he ſhal doo equitie and righteouſneſſe in the lande.

17 In thoſe dayes ſhal Juda be ſaued, *and Hieruſalem ſhal dwel ſafe: and this ſhalbe her name, a God our ryghteouſneſſe.

17 For thus the Lorde promiſeth, Dauid ſhal neuer want one to ſyt vpon the throne of the houſe of Iſrael:

18 Neyther ſhal the prieſtes and Leuites want one to offer alway before me burnt offerynges, to kindle the meate offeringes, and to prepare the ſacrifices.

19 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto Jeremie after this maner, 20 Thus ſayth the Lorde, May the couenant which I haue made with day & night be broken, that there ſhoulde not be day and night in due ſeaſon?

21 Then may my couenant alſo be broken which I made with Dauid my ſeruant, and ſo he not to haue a ſonne to raigne in his throne, ſo ſhal alſo the prieſtes and Leuites neuer fayle, but ſerue me.

22 For like as the ſtarres of heauen may not be numbred, neyther the ſand of the ſea meaſured: ſo wyl I multiplie the ſeede of Dauid my ſeruant, and the Leuites my miniſters.

23 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lord came to Jeremie, ſaying, 24 Conſydereſt thou not what this people ſpeaketh? Two kinredes ſay they had the Lorde choſen, and thoſe ſame two hath he caſt away: for ſo they haue deſpiſed my people, and they reputed them as though they were no people.

25 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde, If I haue made no couenant with day & night, and geuen no ſtatute vnto heauen & earth:

26 Then wyl I alſo caſt away the ſeede of Jacob and Dauid my ſeruant, ſo that I wyl take no prince out of his ſeede to rule the poſteritie of Abraham, Iſahac, and Jacob: but yet I wyl turne agayne theyr captiuitie, and be merciful vnto them.

¶ The.xxxiiii. Chapter.

1. He threatneth that the citie, and the king Zedecias alſo ſhalbe geuen into the handes of the king of Babylon.

1 THeſe are the woordes which the Lorde ſpake vnto Jeremie, what tyme as Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, and al his hoſt, and al the kyngdomes that were vnder his power, and al his people, fought agaynſt Hieruſalem and al the cities thereof.

2 Thus ſayth the Lord God of Iſrael, Goe and ſpeake to Zedecias the kyng of Juda, and tel hym, the Lorde ſendeth thee this woorde, Beholde, I wyl deliuer this citie into the hande of the kyng of Babylon, he ſhal burne it with fyre.

3 And thou ſhalt not eſcape his handes, but ſhalt be taken priſoner, and deliuered into his power: Thou ſhalt looke the kyng of Babylon in the face, and he ſhal ſpeake to thee mouth to mouth, and then ſhalt thou goe goe to Babylon.

4 Yet heare the worde of the Lorde, O Zedecias thou kyng of Juda, thus sayth the Lorde vnto thee, Thou shalt not be slayne with the swoorde,

2. Chro. 16. 5 But shalt dye in peace: *And as thy forefathers the kynges thy a progenitours were brent, so shalt thou be brent also, and in thy mournyng they shall say, O Lorde: for thus haue I determined, sayth the Lorde.

a Zedecias is promised to be buried after his death: that is, to haue his funerals honorably done.

6 Then sayde Ieremie the prophete all these woordes vnto Zedecias kyng of Juda in Hierusalem, 7 What tyme as the kyng of Babylons host besieged Hierusalem, and the remnaunt of the cities, namely Lachis, and Azecah, which yet remayned of the strong defenced cities of Juda.

8 These are the woordes that the Lord spake vnto Ieremie the prophete, when Zedecias was agreed with all the people of Hierusalem, that there shoulde be proclayned a libertie:

9 So that euery man shoulde let his seruant and handmayde goe free, Hebrue, and Hebruesse, and no Iewe holde his brother as a bonde man.

10 Now as they had consented, al the princes and all the people which had geathered vnto this agreement, that euery man shoulde set at libertie his bondeseruaunt and bondwoman, and no longer to hold them bound: euen so they were obedient, and let them go free:

11 But afterwarde they repented, and tooke agayne the seruauntes and handmaydens whom they had let goe free, & so made them bonde agayne.

12 For whiche cause the woorde of the Lorde came vnto Ieremie from the Lorde hym selfe, saying,

13 Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, I made a couenant with your fathers, when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying,

Exod. 21. 2. Deut. 15. 12. 14 *When seuen yeeres are out, euery man shall let his bought seruaunt an Hebrue goe free, yf he haue serued hym sixe yeeres: but your fathers obeyed me not, and hearkened not vnto me.

15 As for you, ye were nowe turned, and dyd ryght before me, in that ye proclaimed euery man to let his neyghbour goe free, and in that ye made a couenant before me in the temple that beareth my name.

16 But yet ye turned your selues agayne, and blaspheme my name, in this that euery man hath required his seruant and handemayde agayne whom ye had let goe quite and free, and compelled them to serue you agayne, and so to be bondmen and bondwomen.

17 And therefore thus sayth the Lorde, Ye haue not obeied me, euery man to proclaime freedome vnto his brother and neyghbour: wherefore I wyll call you vnto freedome, sayth the Lorde, euen vnto the swoorde, to the pestilence, and to hunger, and wyll make you to be plagued in all kyngdomes of the earth.

18 Yea, those men that haue broken my couenant, and not kept the woordes of the appoyntment whiche they made before me when they hewed the Calfe in two, and when they went through the two halfes thereof,

19 The princes of Juda, the princes of Hierusalem, the gelded men, the priestes, and al the people of the lande which went through the two sydes of the Calfe:

20 Those men wyll I geue into the power of their enimies, and into the handes of thē that folow vpon their liues: and their dead bodyes shalbe meate for the foules of the ayre, and beastes of the feelde.

21 As for Zedecias the kyng of Juda, and his princes, I wyll deliuer them into the power of their enimies, and of them that desyre to slay them, and into the hande of the kyng of Babylons host, whiche is nowe departed from you.

22 But through my commaundement (saith the Lorde) they shall come agayne before this citie, they shall fight agaynst it, wynne it, and burne it: Moreouer, I wyll lay the cities of Juda so waste, that no man shall dwel therein.

¶ The. xxxv. Chapter.

He propoundeth the obedience of the Rechabites, and therby confoundeth the pryde of the Iewes.

1 THE woordes whiche the Lorde spake vnto Ieremie in ỹ raigne of Iehoacim the sonne of Josias kyng of Juda, are these:

2 Goe vnto the house of the Rechabites, and cal them out, and bryng them to the house of the Lord, into some commodious place, and geue them wyne to drynke.

3 Then tooke I Jazaniah the sonne of Ieremie, the sonne of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sonnes, & the whole household of the Rechabites,

4 And brought them in o the house of the Lorde, into the closet of the chyldren of Hanan the sonne of Jegedaliah the man of God, which was by the closet of the princes, that that is aboue the cloſet of Maaſiah the ſonne of Sellum, whiche is the treaſurer.

5 And before the ſonnes of the kynred of the Rechabites, I ſet pottes full of wyne, and cuppes, and ſayde vnto them, Drinke wine.

6 But they ſayde, We wyl drynke no wyne: for Jonadab, the ſonne of Rechab our father, commaunded vs, ſaying, Ye and your ſonnes ſhal neuer drynke wyne, buylde houſes, ſowe no ſeede, plant no vines,

7 Yea, ye ſhall haue no vineyardes: but for all your tyme ye ſhall dwel in tentes, that ye may lyue long in the lande wherein ye be ſtraungers.

8 Thus haue we obeyed the commaundement of Jonadab, the ſonne of Rechab our father, in all that he hath charged vs, and ſo we drynke no wyne all our lyfe long, we, nor our wiues, our ſonnes, & our daughters,

9 Neyther buylde we any houſe to dwell therein: we haue alſo among vs neyther vineyardes, nor corne lande to ſowe:

10 But we dwell in tentes, we obey, and do accordyng vnto al that Jonadab our father commaunded vs.

11 But now that Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon came vp into the land, we ſayd, Come, let vs goe to Hieruſalem, that we may eſcape the hoſt of the Chaldees and the Aſſyrians: and ſo we dwell nowe at Hieruſalem.

12 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto Jeremie, ſaying, 13 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Goe and tel the men of Juda, and the inhabiters of Hieruſalem, Wyll ye not be reformed to obey my wordes, ſayth the Lorde?

14 The wordes whiche Jonadab the ſonne of Rechab commaunded his ſonnes, that they ſhoulde drynke no wyne, are faſt ſtyrely kept, for vnto this day they drinke no wyne, but obey their fathers commaundement: but as for me, I haue ſtand vp early, I haue ſpoken vnto you, and geuē you earneſt warnyng, and yet haue ye not ben obedient vnto me.

15 Yea, I haue ſent my ſeruauntes all the prophets vnto you, I roſe vp early, and ſent you worde, ſaying, *O turne you now euery man from his wicked way, amende your lyues, and goe not after ſtraunge goddes to worſhyp them, that ye may continue in the lande whiche I haue geuen vnto you and your fathers: but ye woulde neyther heare me, nor folowe me.

*Iere. 18. 11. and. 25. 5. Iohn. 3. 8.

16 The children of Jonadab Rechabs ſonne, haue ſtedfaſtly kept their fathers commaundement that he gaue them: but this people is not obedient vnto me.

17 And therefore thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyll bryng vpon Juda, and vpon euery one that dwelleth in Hieruſalem, all the trouble that I haue deuiſed agaynſt them: For I haue ſpoken vnto them, but they woulde not folow, I haue called vnto them, neuertheleſſe they woulde geue me no aunſweare.

18 Jeremie alſo ſpake vnto the houſholde of the Rechabites, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, For as muche as ye haue obeyed the commaundement of Jonadab your father, and kept al his precepts, and done accordyng to all that he hath bydden:

19 Therefore thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Jonadab the ſonne of Rechab ſhall not fayle, but haue one out of his ſtocke to ſtande alway before me.

¶ The. xxxvi. Chapter.

Baruch vvryteth (as Ieremie endyteth) the booke of the curſes agaynſt Iuda and Iſrael.

1 IN the fourth yeere of Jehoacim the ſonne of Joſias the kyng of Juda, came the worde of the Lord vnto Jeremie, ſaying,

2 Take a booke and wryte therein all the wordes that I haue ſpoken to thee agaynſt Iſrael, agaynſt Juda, and agaynſt all the people, from the time that I began to ſpeake vnto thee in the raigne of Joſias, vnto this day:

3 That when the houſe of Juda heareth of the plague whiche I haue deuiſed for them, they may peraduenture turne euery man from his wicked way, that I may forgiue their offences and ſinnes.

4 Then dyd Jeremie call Baruch the ſonne of Neriah, and Baruch wrote in the booke at the mouth of Jeremie, all the wordes of the Lord which he had ſpoken vnto him.

5 And Jeremie commaunded Baruch, ſaying, I am in priſon, ſo that I may not come into the houſe of the Lorde.

6 Therefore goe thou thyther, and reade the booke that thou haſt wrytten at my mouth, namely the wordes of the Lorde, and reade them in the Lordes houſe vpon the a faſting day, that the people, whole Juda, & all they that come out of the cities, may heare.

7 Peraduenture they wyll pray meekely before the face of the Lorde, and turne euery one from his wicked way: for great is the wrath and diſpleaſure that the Lorde hath taken agaynſt this people.

a. When Ioacim the kyng of Iuda heard that the king of Babylons armie was coming to beſiege Hieruſalem, he appoynted a tyme Ieremie and publique faſt for all y people, commaunding them to reſort vnto the temple at the tyme appoynted, and there to make their humble prayers vnto God for peace and his fauour, as the maner of Gods people was in al their diſtreſſes to faſt & pray in faithful repentaunce

8 So

8 So Baruch the ſonne of Neriah dyd accoꝛding to all that Ieremie ẏ pꝛophete commaunded him, readyng the wooꝛdes of the Loꝛde out of the booke in the Loꝛdes houſe.

9 And this was done in the fyfth yeere of Iehoacim the ſonne of Iolias king of Iuda, in the nienth moneth, when it was commaunded that all the people of Hieruſalem ſhould faſt befoꝛe the Loꝛde, and they alſo that were come fꝛom the cities of Iuda vnto Hieruſalem.

10 Then read Baruch the wooꝛdes of Ieremie out of the booke within the houſe of the Loꝛde, out of the treaſurie of Gamariah the ſonne of Saphan the Scribe, whiche is beſide the higher lofte of the newe dooꝛe of the Loꝛdes houſe, that all the people myght heare.

11 Now when Micheas the ſonne of Gamariah the ſonne of Saphan, hearde all the wooꝛdes of the Loꝛde out of the booke, 12 He went dowꝛne to the kings palace, into the Scribes chamber, foꝛ there al ẏ pꝛinces were ſet, Eliſama the Scribe, Dalaiah the ſonne of Semei, Elnathan the ſonne of Achboꝛ, Gamariah the ſonne of Saphan, Zedecias the ſonne of Hananias, with all the pꝛinces.

13 And Micheas tolde them all the wooꝛdes that he heard Baruch reade out of ẏ booke befoꝛe the people.

14 Then all the pꝛinces ſent Iehudi the ſonne of Nathaniah, the ſonne of Selemiah, the ſonne of Chuſi, vnto Baruch, ſaying, Take in thyne hand the booke whereout thou haſt read befoꝛe all the people, and come. So Baruch the ſonne of Neriah toke the booke in his hand, and came vnto them.

15 And they ſaid vnto him, Sit dowꝛne and reade the booke, that we may heare alſo. So Baruch read, that they might heare.

16 Now when they had heard al the wooꝛds, they were abaſhed one vpon an other, and ſayde vnto Baruch, We wyll certifie the king of all theſe wooꝛdes.

17 And they examined Baruch, ſaying, Tell vs, how diddeſt thou wꝛyte all theſe wooꝛds out of his mouth?

18 Then Baruch anſweared them, He ſpake all theſe wooꝛdes vnto me with his mouth, and I wꝛote them in the booke.

19 Then ſaid the pꝛinces vnto Baruch, Goe thy way, hyde thee with Ieremie, ſo that no man knowe where ye be.

20 And they went in to ẏ king to the court, (but they kept the booke in the chamber of Eliſama the Scribe) and tolde the kyng al the wooꝛdes, that he might heare.

21 So the kyng ſent Iehudi to fetche him the booke: whiche he bꝛought out of Eliſama the Scribes chamber, and Iehudi read in it, that the king and al the pꝛinces which were about him might heare.

22 Nowe the kyng ſate in the winter houſe (foꝛ it was in the nienth moneth) and there was a fyꝛe befoꝛe him.

23 And when Iehudi had read three oꝛ foure leaues thereof, he cut the booke in peeces with a penknife, & caſt it into fyꝛe vpon the harth, vntyll the booke was all bꝛent in the fyꝛe vpon the harth.

24 Yet no man was abaſhed thereof, noꝛ rent his clothes, neyther the king him ſelfe, noꝛ his ſeruantes, though they heard all theſe wooꝛdes.

25 Neuertheleſſe, Elnathan, Dalaiah, and Gamariah, beſought ẏ kyng that he would not burne the booke: notwithſtandyng the kyng would not heare them, 26 But commaunded Ierahmel the ſonne of Amelech, Saraiah the ſonne of Ezriel, and Selemiah the ſonne of Abdeel, to laye handes vpon Baruch the Scribe, and vpon Ieremie the pꝛophete: but the Loꝛde kept them out of ſight.

27 Nowe after that the king had bꝛent the booke, & the ſermons which Baruch wꝛote at the mouth of Ieremie, the wooꝛde of the Loꝛde came vnto Ieremie, ſaying, 28 Take another booke, and wꝛyte in it all the foꝛeſayde ſermons that were wꝛitten in the fyꝛſt booke, whiche Iehoacim the kyng of Iuda hath bꝛent.

29 And tell Iehoacim the kyng of Iuda, thus ſayth the Loꝛde, Thou haſt bꝛent the booke, and thoughteſt within thee ſelfe, Why haſt thou wꝛitten therein, that the kyng of Babylon ſhall come, and make this land waſte, ſo that he ſhall make both people and cattel to be out of it?

30 Theꝛefoꝛe thus the Loꝛd ſayth of Iehoacim the king of Iuda, There ſhall none of his generation ſyt vppon the thꝛone of Dauid, his dead coarſe ſhalbe caſt out, that the heate of the day, and the fꝛoſt of the myght, may come vpon him.

31 And I wyl viſite the wickednеſſe of him, of his ſeede, and of his ſeruantes: Moꝛeouer, all the euyl that I haue pꝛomiſed them, though they hearde me not, wyll I bꝛyng vpon them, vpon the inhabiters of Hieruſalem, and vpon all Iuda.

32 Then tooke Ieremie another booke, and gaue it Baruch the Scribe ẏ ſonne of Neriah, which wꝛote therein out of the mouth of Ieremie, all ẏ ſermons that were in the fiꝛſt booke which Iehoacim ẏ king of Iuda dyd bꝛene: & there were added vnto them many moe ſermons, like vnto the foꝛmer.

¶ The.xxxvii.Chapter.

Zedecias ſucceedeth Cononiah, 3. he ſendeth vnto Ieremie to pray for him.

*2 kin.24.4 1 ZEdecias * the ſonne of Joſia, whiche

*Or, Ieconia. land of Juda, in the ſteade of * Cononiah the ſonne of Jehoacim.

2 But neyther he, nor his ſeruantes, nor the people in his land, would obey the wordes of the Lord which he ſpake by the prophete Jeremie.

3 Neuertheleſſe, Zedecias the kyng ſent Jehucal the ſonne of Selemiah, and Sophoniah the ſonne of Maaſiah the prieſt, to the prophete Jeremie, ſaying, O pray thou vnto the Lorde our God for vs.

*Jer.36.26. 4 Nowe Jeremie walked free among the people at that time, * and was not put in priſon as yet.

5 Pharaos hoſt alſo was come out of Egypt: which when the Chaldees which beſieged Hieruſalem perceiued, they departed from thence.

6 Then came the worde of the Lorde vnto the prophete Jeremie, ſaying,

7 Thus ſayth the Lord God of Iſrael, This anſweare ſhall ye geue to the king of Juda, that ſent you vnto me for counſayle: Behold, Pharaos hoſt which is come forth to helpe you, ſhall returne into Egypt into his owne land.

8 But the Chaldees ſhall come agayne, and fyght againſt this citie, winne it, and ſet fyre vpon it.

9 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Deceiue not your owne minds, thinking on this maner, Tulhe, the Chaldees goe nowe their way from vs: No, they ſhall not goe their way.

10 For though ye had ſlayne the whole hoſt of the Chaldees that beſiege you, and that none remayned of them but wounded men, yet ſhould they ſtand vp, and ſet fyre vppon this citie.

11 Now when the hoſt of the Chaldees was broken vp from Hieruſalem for feare of the Egyptians armie, 12 Jeremie went out of Hieruſalem toward the land of Beniamin, to geat him from among the people.

13 And when he came vnder Beniamins port, there was a Porter called Jeriah, the ſonne of Seleniah, the ſonne of Hananiah, which kel vpon him, and tooke him, ſaying, Thy mind is to runne to the Chaldees.

14 Then ſaide Jeremie, It is not ſo, I goe not to the Chaldees: Neuertheleſſe, Jeriah would not beleeue him, but brought Jeremie bound before the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were angry with Jeremie, and ſmote him, and layde him in priſon in the houſe of Jonathan the ſcribe: for they had made that houſe the priſon.

16 Thus was Jeremie put in a dungeon and priſon, and ſo lay there a long time.

17 Then Zedecias the king ſent for him, and called him, and aſked him quietly in his owne houſe, ſaying, Thinkeſt thou this buſineſſe that nowe is in hand, commeth of the Lorde? Jeremie anſwered, Yea that it doeth: and thou (ſayd he) ſhalt be delinered into the king of Babylons power.

18 Moreouer, Jeremie ſayd vnto king Zedecias, * What haue I offended againſt thee, *Jer.9.10.
againſt thy ſeruantes, or againſt this people, that ye haue put me in priſon?

19 Where are your propheres whiche haue propheſied vnto you, and ſayde, That the kyng of Babylon ſhoulde not come againſt you and this land?

20 And therefore heare nowe, O my lorde the kyng, let my prayer be accepted before thee, and ſende me no more into the houſe of Jonathan the Scribe, that I dye not there.

21 Then Zedecias commaunded to put Jeremie in the fore entrie of the priſon, and dayly to be geuen him a cake of bread of the Bakers ſtreete, vntyll all the bread in the citie was eaten vp: Thus Jeremie remayned in the fore entrie of the priſon.

¶ The.xxxviii.Chapter.

By the motion of the rulers, Ieremie is put into a dungeon.

1 SAphatiah the ſonne of Mathan, Gedaliah the ſonne of Phaſhur, Jucal the ſonne of Seleniah, and Phaſhur the ſonne of Melchiah, perceiued the wordes that Jeremie had ſpoken vnto al the people, namely on this maner,

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde, * Who ſo remay- *Jer.21.9.
neth in this citie, ſhall perithe eyther with the ſworde, with hunger, or peſtilence: but who ſo falleth vnto the Chaldees, ſhall eſcape, wynning his ſoule for a pray, and ſhal lyue.

3 For thus ſayth the Lorde, This citie no doubt muſt be deliuered into the power of the king of Babylon, and he alſo ſhal winne it.

4 Then ſayde the princes vnto the king, Syr, we beſeeche you let this man be put to death: for thus he diſcourageth the handes of the ſouldiers that be in this citie, and the handes of all the people, when he ſpeaketh ſuche wordes vnto them: This man laboureth not for peace of the people, but miſcheefe.

5 Zede-

5 Zedecias the kyng answeared, and sayde, Loe, he is in your handes: for the king may deny you nothyng.

6 Then tooke they Ieremie, and cast hym into the dungeon of Melchiah the sonne of Amelech, that dwelt in the fore entrie of the pryson, and they let downe Ieremie with cordes into a dungeon where there was no water, but myre: So Ieremie stacke fast in the myre.

7 Nowe when Abedmelech the Mozian, beyng a chamberlayne in the kyngs court, vnderstoode that they had cast Ieremie into the dungeon,

8 He went out of the kings house, and spake to the kyng, which then sate vnder the port of Beniamin, these wordes,

9 My Lorde the kyng, whereas these men meddle with Ieremie the prophete, they do him wrong, namely in that they haue put him in prison, there to dye for hunger: for there is no more bread in the citie.

10 Then the kyng commaunded Abedmelech the Mozian, and sayde, Take from hence thirtie men, whom thou wylt, and drawe vp Ieremie the prophete out of the dungeon before he dye.

11 So Abedmelech tooke the men with him, and went to the house of the king, and there vnder the treasurie he gate olde ragges and worne cloutes, and let them downe by a corde into the dungeon to Ieremie.

12 And Abedmelech the Mozian sayde vnto the prophet Ieremie, O put these ragges and cloutes vnder thyne arme holes, betwyxt them and the cordes: and Ieremie dyd so.

13 So they drewe vp Ieremie with cordes, and tooke hym out of the dungeon: and he remayned in the fore entrie of the pryson.

14 Then Zedecias the kyng sent, and caused Ieremie the prophete to be called vnto him, into the thirde entrie that is in the house of the Lorde, and the kyng sayd vnto Ieremie, I wyl aske thee somwhat, but hyde nothing from me.

15 Then Ieremie answeared Zedecias, If I be playne vnto thee, thou wylt cause me to suffer death: Yf I geue thee counsayle, thou wylt not folowe me.

16 So the kyng swore an othe secretely to Ieremie, saying, As the Lorde lyueth that made vs these soules, I wyll not slay thee, nor geue thee into the handes of them that seeke after thy lyfe.

17 Then sayd Ieremie vnto Zedecias, Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Yf case be that thou wylt goe forth vnto the kyng of Babylons princes, thou shalt saue thy lyfe, and this citie shal not be brent, yea, both thou and thy houshold shal escape, with your lyues:

18 But yf thou wylt not goe forth to the kyng of Babylons princes, then shal this citie be deliuered into the hands of the Chaldees, whiche shall set fyre vpon it, and thou shalt not be able to escape them.

19 And Zedecias sayde vnto Ieremie, I am afrayde for the Iewes that are fled vnto the Chaldees, lest I come into their handes, and so they to haue me in derision.

20 But Ieremie answered, No, they shall not betray thee: O hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde, I beseech thee, which I speake vnto thee, so shalt thou be well, and saue thy lyfe:

21 But yf thou wylt not go forth, the Lord hath tolde me this playnely,

22 Beholde, all the women that are left in the kyng of Iudaes house, shalbe led forth vnto the kyng of Babylons princes: and they shal say, Thou art deceiued, & the men in whom thou dyddest put thy trust haue gotten thee vnder, and set thy feete fast in the myre, and gone their way from thee.

23 Therfore al thy wyues, with thy children, shall they leade forth vnto the Chaldees, and thou shalt not escape their handes, but shalt be the king of Babylons prisoner, and this citie shalt thou cause to be burnt.

24 Then sayde Zedecias vnto Ieremie, Looke that no body knowe of these wordes, and thou shalt not dye.

25 But yf the princes perceiue that I haue talked with thee, and come vnto thee, saying, O speake, what sayde the kyng to thee, hyde it not from vs, and we wyll not put thee to death, tell vs (we pray thee) what sayde the kyng vnto thee?

26 See thou geue them this answeare, I haue humbly besought the kyng that he would let me lye no more in Ionathans house, that I dye not there.

27 Then came al the princes vnto Ieremie, and asked hym: and he tolde them after the maner as the kyng bad hym. Then they held their peace, and let hym alone: for they perceiued nothyng.

28 So Ieremie abode styll in the fore entrie of the prison, vntyl the day that Hierusalem was wonne.

¶ The.xxxix. Chapter.

1. Nabuchodonosor besiegeth Hierusalem. 4. Zedecias fleeth. 5. He is taken of the Chaldees. 6. His sonnes are slayne. 7. His eyes are thrust out.

1 NOwe* when the citie of Hierusalem was taken (for in the ninth yeere of Zedecias *4.kin. 25.2. Ier. 52.4.

Zedecias kyng of Juda, the tenth moneth, came Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, and al his hoſt, and beſieged Hieruſalē, and fought agaynſt it.

2 And in the eleuenth yeere of Zedecias, in the fourth moneth, the nienth day of the moneth, he brake into the citie.)

3 Then all the princes of the kyng of Babylon came in, and ſate them downe vnder the port: Nergel, Sarezer, Samgarnebo, Sarſachim, Rabſaris, Nergel, Sarezer, Rabmag, with all the other princes of the kyng of Babylon.

4 And whē Zedecias the kyng of Juda with his ſouldiers, ſawe them, then they fledde, and departed out of this citie by nyght, through the kynges garden, and through the port that is betweene the two walles, and ſo the kyng went towarde the wyldernesſe:

5 But the Chaldees hoſt folowed faſt after them, and tooke Zedecias in the feelde of Hiericho, and brought hym priſoner to Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon, vnto Reblath, that lyeth in the lande of Hemath, where he gaue iudgement vpon hym.

6 So the kyng of Babylon cauſed the chyldren of Zedecias, and all the nobles of Juda, to be ſlayne before his face at Reblath,

7 And made Zedecias eyes to be put out, and bounde hym with two chaynes, and ſent hym to Babylon.

8 Moreouer, the Chaldees burnt vp the kynges palace, with the other houſes of the people, and brake downe the walles of Hieruſalem.

9 As for the remnant of the people that were in the citie, and ſuche as were come to hym, and what ſo euer was left of the common ſort, Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne carryed them to Babylon.

10 But Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne let the raſcal people, and thoſe that had nothyng, dwell ſtyl in the lande of Juda, and gaue them vineyardes and corne feeldes at the ſame tyme.

11 Nabuchodonoſor alſo the kyng of Babylon, gaue Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne a charge concernyng Jeremie, ſaying, 12 Take and cheriſhe him, make muche of him, ſee thou do him no harme, but entreate hym after his owne deſire.

13 So Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne, Nabuzarban, Rabſares, Nergel, Sarezer, Rabmag, and all the kyng of Babylons lordes, ſent for Jeremie, 14 And cauſed hym to be fet out of the fore entrie of the priſon, and committed hym vnto Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan, that he ſhoulde cary hym home: and ſo he dwelt among the people.

15 Nowe when Jeremie lay yet bounde in the fore entrie of the priſon, the worde of the Lorde came vnto hym, ſaying,

19 Goe and tell Abedmelech the Mohian, Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Behold, the cruel and ſharpe plague that I haue deuiſed for this citie, wyll I bryng vpon them, and thou ſhalt ſee it:

17 But I wyl deliuer thee in that day, ſayth the Lorde, and thou ſhalt not come in the handes of thoſe men whom thou feareſt:

18 For doubtleſſe I wyll ſaue thee, ſo that thou ſhalt not periſhe with the ſworde: but thy lyfe ſhalbe ſaued, and that becauſe thou haſt put thy truſt in me, ſayth the Lorde.

¶ The.xl Chapter.

1. Ieremie hath licence to goe whyther he wyl. 4. Iohanan propheſieth death vnto Gedaliah.

1 THis is the worde that the Lorde ſpake vnto Jeremie, when Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne had let hym goe free from Ramath, whyther he had ledde hym bounde among all the priſoners that were caryed from Hieruſalem and Juda, vnto Babylon.

2 The cheefe captayne called for Jeremie, and ſayde vnto hym, The Lorde thy GOD ſpake myghtyly before of the miſerie vppon this place.

3 Nowe the Lorde hath ſent it, and performed it, as he hath promiſed: for ye haue ſinned agaynſt the Lord, and haue not ben obedient vnto his voyce, therfore commeth this plague vpon you.

4 Beholde, I looſe the bandes from thy handes this day: yf thou wylt now go with me vnto Babylon, vp then, for I wyll ſee to thee, and prouide for thee: but yf thou wylt not goe with me to Babylon, then remayne here: Beholde, all the lande is at thy wyll, looke where thou thynkeſt conuenient and good for thee to abyde, there dwell.

5 For as yet he was not gone backe agayne to Gedaliah: therefore he ſayd to hym, Goe backe to Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan, whom the kyng of Babylon had made gouernour ouer the cities of Juda, and dwell with hym among the people, or remayne where ſo euer it pleaſeth thee. So the cheefe captayne gaue hym his expences, with a rewarde, and let hym goe.

6 Then went Jeremie vnto Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam, to Mizpa, and dwelt there with him among the people that were

leaſt in the land.

7 Nowe when the captaynes of the hoſt of Juda, which with their felowes were ſcattered abrode on euery ſide in the lande, vnderſtoode that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam gouernour in the land, and that man, wyfe, and childe, yea and the poore men in ỹ lande that were not led captiue to Babylō, ſhould be vnder his iuriſdiction:

8 They came to Gedaliah vnto Miſpá, namely, Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the ſonnes of Careah, Sareah the ſonne of Thanhumeth, the ſonnes of Ephai the Netophatite, Jezaniah the ſonne of Maachati, with their companions.

9 And Gedaliah, the ſonne of Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan ſware vnto them and their felowes in this maner, Be not afraid to ſerue the Chaldees, dwell in the lande, and doo the king of Babylon ſeruice, ſo ſhal ye proſper.

4. King. 25. 24.

10 Beholde, I dwel at Miſpa, to be an officer in the Chaldees behalfe, and to ſatiſfye ſuch as come to vs: therfore gather wine, corne, and oyle, and keepe them in your warehouſes, and dwell in your cities that ye haue in keeping.

11 Yea all the Iewes alſo that dwel in Moab vnder the Ammonites, Idumea, and in all the countreys, when they heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam ỹ ſonne of Saphan gouernour vpon all them that were left in Juda:

12 All the Iewes I ſay returned out of al places where they were fled vnto, and came into the land of Juda to Gedaliah vnto Miſpa, and gathered wine and other fruites, and that very much.

13 Moreouer, Johanan the ſonne of Careah, and all the captaines of ỹ hoſt that were ſcattered on euery ſide in the lande, came to Gedaliah to Miſpa, and ſaide vnto him, 14 Knoweſt thou not that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath ſent Iſmael the ſōne of Nathaniah to ſlay thee? But Gedaliah ỹ ſonne of Ahicam beleeued them not.

15 Then ſayde Johanan the ſonne of Careah vnto Gedaliah in Miſpa theſe wordes ſecretely, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will ſlay Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, ſo that no body ſhall knowe it: Wherefore wyl he kyl thee, that al the Iewes which reſort vnto thee might be ſcattered, and the remnant in Juda perifhe?

16 And Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam ſayd to Johanan the ſonne of Careah, Thou ſhalt not doo it: for they are but lyes that thou ſayeſt of Iſmael.

ỹ The xli. Chapter.

1. Iſmael killeth Gedaliah guyleſully, and many other vvith him. 11. Iohanan folovveth after Iſmael.

1 BVT in the ſeuenth moneth, it happened that Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah the ſonne of Eliſama, one of the kinges blood came, and the greateſt about the king, and ten men with him, vnto Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam to Miſpa, and they dyd eate togeather in Miſpa.

2 And Iſmael ỹ ſonne of Nathaniah, with thoſe ten men that were with him, ſtart vp, and ſmote Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam the ſonne of Saphan with the ſwoord, and ſlue him, whom the king of Babylon had made a gouernour of the land.

3 Iſmael alſo ſlue all the Iewes that were with Gedaliah at Miſpa, and all the Chaldees that he found there waytyng vpon him, and thoſe that were able to fyght he ſlue with him.

4 The next day after that he had ſlayne Gedaliah, the matter was yet vnknowen:

5 And there came fortayne men from Sichem, from Silo & Samaria, to the number of foureſcore, whiche had ſhauen theyr beardes, rent their clothes, and were al beaten, bringing meate offeringes and incenſe in their handes, to offer it in the houſe of the Lorde.

6 And Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah went forth to Miſpa weeping, to meete them: Nowe when he met them, he ſayde, Goe your way to Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam.

7 And when they came in the middeſt of the citie, Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, with them that were with him, ſlue them euen at the middeſt of the pit.

8 Among theſe foureſcore men there were ten that ſayde vnto Iſmael, Oh ſlay vs not, for we haue yet a great treaſure in ỹ fielde, of wheate, barley, oyle, and hony: So he ſpared them, and ſlue them not with theyr brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Iſmael dyd caſt the dead bodyes of the men whom he ſlue becauſe of Gedaliah, had king Aſa cauſed to be made for feare of Baaſa the king of Iſrael, and the ſame pit dyd Iſmael fill with ſlayne men.

10 As for the remnant of the people, ỹ kings daughters, and all the people that were left at Miſpa, vppon whom Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne had made Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam gouernour, Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah carried them away priſoners toward the Ammonites.

11 But

11 But when Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and all they which had been captaynes ouer the kinges hoſt with him, heard of all the wickednesſe that Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah had done:

12 They tooke their companions, & went out for to fight with Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah, and founde him by the great waters that are at Gibeon.

13 Nowe when all the people whom Iſmael led captiue, ſawe Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the other captaines of the hoſt, they were glad.

14 So al the people that Iſmael had carried away frō Miſpa, were brought againe: and when they returned, they came to Iohanan the ſonne of Careah.

15 But Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah fled from Iohanan with eyght companyons, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and all the captaynes of the hoſt that were with him, tooke all the remnant of the people, whom Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah had led away when he had ſlayne Gedaliah the ſonne of Ahicam, whom they alſo had reſerued from him, fighting men, women, and children, and gelded men, whom they brought agayne from Gibeon:

17 And went from thence, and ſate them downe at Geruth Chamaam, whiche lyeth beſide Bethlehem, that they might goe into Egypt for feare of the Chaldees:

18 Of whom they were afraid, becauſe that Iſmael the ſonne of Nathaniah had ſlayne Gedaliah Ahicams ſonne, whom the kyng of Babylon had made gouernour in the lande.

The xlii. Chapter.

a The captaynes aſke counſell at Ieremie what they ought to doo. 19. Ieremie admoniſheth the remnaunt of the people not to goe into Egypt.

1 SO all the captaines of Iohanan ỹ ſonne of Careah, Iezaniah the ſonne of Oſiah, came, with al the people from the leaſt vnto the moſt,

2 And ſayd vnto Ieremie the prophete, O heare our petition, that thou mayeſt pray for vs vnto the Lord thy God, Namely, for al the remnaunt whereof there be fewe of vs left of many, as thou ſeeſt vs:

3 That the Lorde thy God may ſhewe vs a way to goe in, and tell vs what we ſhoulde doo.

4 Then Ieremie the prophete ſayde vnto them, I haue heard you, beholde, I wyll pray vnto God your Lord as ye haue required me: and looke what anſweare the Lord geueth, I ſhall certifie you thereof, & keepe nothing backe from you.

5 And they ſaide vnto Ieremie, The Lorde be a true and faythful witneſſe betwixt vs, that we wyl doo al that the Lorde thy God commaundeth vs.

6 Whether it be good or euill, we wyl hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to whom we ſende thee, that we may proſper when we haue followed the voyce of the Lorde our God.

7 And after ten dayes came the word of the Lord vnto Ieremie.

8 Then called he Iohanan the ſonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the people that were with him, yea and all the people from the leaſt to the moſt,

9 And ſayde vnto them, Thus ſayth ỹ Lord God of Iſrael, vnto whom ye ſent me to lay fooyth your prayers before him:

10 Yf you wyl dwel in this lande, I wyl build you vp, and not breake you downe, I wyl plant you, and not roote you out: for I repent me concernyng the trouble that I haue done to you.

a. Gods repentance is nothing els but that he doeth not proſecute to y vttermoſt his wrath accordyng to the deſerts of the people.

11 Feare not the kyng of Babylon, of whom ye ſtand in awe, O be not afraide of hym, ſayth the Lorde, for I wyl be with you to helpe you, and deliuer you from his hand.

12 I wyl pardon you, I wyl haue mercy vpon you, and cauſe him to pitie you, and bring you agayne into your owne land.

13 Neuertheleſſe, yf ye purpoſe not to dwell in this lande, nor to folowe the voyce of the Lorde your God:

14 But wyll ſay thus, We wyll not dwell here, but goe into Egypt, where we ſhall neyther ſee warre, heare the voyce of the Trumpe, nor ſuffer hunger, there wyl we dwell:

15 Therefore heare nowe the woorde of the Lorde, O ye remnant of Iuda, thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Yf ye be wholy purpoſed to goe into Egypt, and to dwell there as ſtrangers, 16 The ſwoord that ye feared ſhal ouertake you in Egypt: and the hunger whereof ye be afraid, ſhal hang vppon you, and folowe you into Egypt, and there ſhal ye dye.

17 And all they that of ſet purpoſe vndertake to goe into Egypt to ſoiourne there, ſhall periſhe with the ſwoord, with hunger, and peſtilence, not one of them ſhal remaine, there ſhal none eſcape the plague that I wil bring vpon them.

18 For thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Like as my wrath & indignation is moued againſt the inhabiters of Hieruſalem: ſo ſhal my diſpleaſure be kindled

led agaynst you also ye ye got into Egypt, & there ye shalbe reuyled, abhorred, brought to shame & confusion, and as for this place ye shal neuer see it more.

19 The Lorde forbydeth you (O ye remnant of Juda) that ye shall not goe into Egypt: and forgeat not that I haue warned you earnestly this day.

20 For ye haue dissembled with me: for ye sent me vnto the Lord your God, and sayd, O pray thou the Lorde our God for vs, and looke what answeare the Lorde our GOD geueth thee, that bryng vs agayne, and we wyl doo thereafter.

21 Nowe haue I shewed and declared vnto you, but ye haue not obeyed the voyce of the Lorde your God, for the whiche cause he hath sent me to you.

22 Nowe therfore be ye sure that ye shal perishe with the swoorde, with hunger, and pestilence, euen in the same place where your lust is to goe and dwel.

¶ The.xliij. chapter.

1. Johanan carrieth the remnant of the people into Egypt, contrary to the request of Ieremie. 8. Ieremie prophesieth the destruction of Egypt.

1 NOwe when Ieremie had ended al the woordes of the Lord his GOD vnto the people, which to declare the Lord their GOD had sent hym to them, euen al these woordes I say,

2 Azariah the sonne of Osaiah, and Johanan the sonne of Careah, with all the stubborne persons, sayde vnto Ieremie, Thou lyest, the Lorde our God hath not sent thee to speake vnto vs, that we shoulde not goe into Egypt, and dwel there:

3 But Baruch the sonne of Neriah prouoketh thee agaynst vs, that he myght bryng vs into the captiuitie of the Chaldees, that they myght slay vs, and carry vs away prysoners vnto Babylon.

4 So Johanan the sonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the host, and al the people, folowed not the commaundement of the Lorde, namely, to dwell in the lande of Juda:

5 But Johanan the sonne of Careah, and al the captaynes of the host, carried away all the remnant of Juda, that were come togeather agayne from al the heathen, among whom they had been scattered, to dwell in the lande of Juda,

6 Men, women, chyldren, the kyngs daughters, all those that Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne had left with Gedaliah the sonne of Ahicam the sonne of Saphan: they carried away also the Prophete Ieremie, and Baruch the sonne of Neriah,

7 And so came into Egypt: for they were not obedient vnto the commaundement of God. Thus came they to Thaphnis:

8 And in Thaphnis the woorde of the Lord happened vnto Ieremie, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the brycke wall, vnder the doore of Pharaos house in Thaphnis, that all the men of Juda may see,

10 And say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Behold, I wyl send and call for Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon my seruaunt, and wyl set his seate vpon these stones that I haue hid, and he shal spread his tent ouer them.

11 And when he commeth, he shal smyte the lande of Egypt, some with slaughter, some with banishment, and some with the swoorde.

12 He shal set fyre vpon the temple of the Egyptians gods, and burne them vp, & take them selues prysoners: moreouer, he shall aray hym selfe with the land of Egypt, lyke as a Shepheard putteth on his coate, and shall departe his way from thence in peace.

13 The pyllers also of the temple of the Sunne that is in Egypt shall be breake in peeces, and burne the temples of the Egyptians goddes.

¶ The.xliiij. Chapter.

1. He reproueth the people for their idolatrie. 15. They that set lyght by the threatenyng of the Lorde are chastened.

1 THis is the woorde that was shewed to Ieremie concernyng all the Iewes whiche dwelt in Egypt, at Migdol, at Thaphnis, at Noph, and in the lande of Pathures.

2 Thus sayth the Lord of hostes the God of Israel, Ye haue seene al the miserie that I haue brought vppon Hierusalem, and vppon al the cities of Juda: so that this day they are desolate, and no man dwellyng therein.

3 And that because of the great blasphemies whiche they committed, to prouoke me vnto anger, in that they went backe to doo sacrifice and worshyp vnto strange goddes, whom neyther they nor ye, nor your fathers haue knowen.

4 Howbeit, I sent vnto them my seruantes al the prophetes, I rose vp early, I sent vnto them, and gaue them warnyng, O doo no suche abominable thynges, and thynges that I hate.

5 But they wouldē not folowe nor hearken, to turne from their wycke dneſſe, and to doo no more ſacrifice vnto ſtrange goddes.

6 Wherefore myne indignation and wrath was kyndled, and it brent vp the cities of Juda, with the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem, ſo that they were made waſte and deſolate, as it is come to paſſe this day.

7 Nowe therefore thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Howe happeneth it that ye doo ſo great cyll vnto your owne ſoules, thus to deſtroy the men and women, thyldren, and babes of Juda, ſo that none of you is left?

8 Becauſe ye prouoke me to wrath with the woorkes of your owne handes, when ye offer vnto ſtrange goddes in the lande of Egypt, whereas ye be gone to dwel, that ye myght vtterly perythe, and that ye myght be reuyled, and ſhamefully entreated of all nations?

9 Dr haue ye nowe forgotten the wyckednelle of your forefathers, the wyckednelſe of the kynges of Juda and their wyues, the wyckednelſe that ye your ſelues and your wyues haue doone in the land of Juda, and in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem?

10 Yet are ye not ſory this day, ye feare not, neyther walke ye in my lawe, & in my commaundements that I haue geuen vnto you and your forefathers.

11 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, *I am ſtedfaſtly aduiſed and determined to punyſhe you, and to roote out al Juda.

*Amos.9.4.

12 As for the remnant of Juda that purpoſely went into Egypt there to dwel, I wyll take them, and they ſhal al be deſtroyed, in the lande of Egypt ſhall they perythe, being conſumed with the ſwoorde and with hunger: for from the leaſt vnto the moſte, they ſhal perythe with the ſwoord and with hunger. Moreouer, they ſhalbe reuyled, abhorred, ſhamed, and confounded.

13 For I wyll viſite them that dwell in Egypt, as I haue viſited Hieruſalem with the ſwoorde, with hunger, and with peſtilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Juda whiche are gone to dwel in Egypt, ſhalbe left to come agayne into the lande of Juda, although they thynke to come thyther againe, and to dwel there: for none ſhal come agayne but ſuche as are fled away.

15 Then al the men which knewe that their wyues had offred vnto ſtrange goddes, and a great ſorte of wyues that ſtoode there, yea and al the people that dwelt there in Egypt in the citie of Phathures, anſwered Jeremie, and ſayde,

16 As for the woordes that thou haſt ſpoken vnto vs in the name of the Lorde, we wyl in no wyſe heare them:

17 But whatſoeuer goeth out of our owne mouth, that wyl we doo, we wyl doo ſacrifice, and offer oblations vnto the queene of heauen, lyke as we and our forefathers, our kynges and our heades haue doone in the cities of Juda, and in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem: for then had we plenteouſneſſe of victuals, then were we in proſperitie, and no myſfortune came vpon vs:

18 But ſince we left to offer and to doo ſacrifice vnto the queene of heauen, we haue had ſcarteneſſe of all thynges, and perythe with the ſwoorde and hunger.

19 Laſt of al, when we women dyd ſacrifice, Jer.7.18. and offered vnto the queene of heauen: dyd we make her cakes, and powre vnto her drynke offerynges, to doo her ſeruice, without our huſbandes wyſes?

20 Then ſayde Jeremie vnto al the people, to the men, to the women, & to all the folke whiche had geuen hym that anſweare, 21 Dyd not the Lorde remember the ſacrifices, that ye, your forefathers, your kynges and rulers, whiche all the people haue offered in the cities of Juda, in the ſtreetes of Hieruſalem? and hath he not conſydered this in his mynde?

22 In ſo much that the Lord myght no longer ſuffer the wycke dneſſe of your inuentions, and the abominable thynges whiche ye dyd: Is not your lande deſolate & voyde, yea and abhorred, ſo that no man dwelleth therein any more, as it is come to paſſe this day?

23 Did not al this happen vnto you becauſe ye made ſuche ſacrifice, and ſynned againſt the Lord? Ye haue not folowed his voyce, to walke in his lawe, in his ordinances and ſtatutes: yea this is the cauſe that al myſfortune happened vnto you, as it is come to paſſe this day.

24 Moreouer, Jeremie ſpake vnto all the people, & to al the women, Heare the woord of the Lorde al Juda that be in the lande of Egypt, 25 Thus ſayth the Lorde of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Ye and your wyues haue ſpoken with your owne mouth the thyng that ye haue fulfylled in deede, yea thus haue ye ſayde, We wyl not fayle but performe the vowes that we haue vowed, we wyl doo ſacrifice, and powre out drynke offerynges to the queene of heauen: Purpoſely wyl ye ſet vp your owne meanynges, and performe your vowes.

26 And therefore heare the woorde of the

Lorde

Lorde al Juda that dwel in the lande of Egypt: Beholde, I haue ſworne by my great name, ſayth the Lorde, that my name ſhall not be rehearſed through any mans mouth of Juda in al the lande of Egypt, to ſay, The Lorde God liueth.

27 For I wil watch to plague them, & not for their wealth: and al the men of Juda that be in the lande of Egypt ſhall periſhe with the ſworde, and with hunger, vntyll they be vtterly deſtroyed.

28 Neuertheleſſe, thoſe that fled away for the ſworde, ſhal come againe out of Egypt into the land of Juda, but there ſhalbe very fewe of them: and al the remnaunt of Juda that are gone into Egypt there to dwel, ſhal knowe whoſe wordes ſhalbe founde true, theirs, or mine.

29 Take this for a token, that I wyl viſite you in this place, ſayth the Lorde, and that ye may knowe howe that I without doubt wyl performe my purpoſe vppon you, to punyſhe you.

30 Beholde, ſayth the Lorde, I wyl deliuer Pharao Hophra kyng of Egypt, into the handes of his enimies that ſeeke after his lyfe: euen as I gaue Zedechias the kyng of Juda into the handes of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon his enimie, which ſought after his lyfe.

¶ The .xlv. Chapter.

Baruch is reproued of Ieremie.

1 THeſe are the wordes that Jeremie the prophete ſpake vnto Baruch the ſonne of Neriah, after that he had written theſe Sermons in a booke at the mouth of Jeremie, in the fourth yeere of Jehoacim the ſonne of Joſias kyng of Juda, ſaying,

2 Thus ſayth the Lorde God of Iſrael vnto thee O Baruch:

3 Inſomuch as thou thoughteſt thus when thou waſt wayting Woe is me, the Lorde hath geuen me payne for my trauayle, I haue weeried mee ſelfe with ſighing, and haue founde no reſt:

4 Therefore tel hym, O Jeremie, that the Lord ſayth thus: Behold, the thyng that I haue builded, wyl I breake downe againe, and roote out the thyng that I haue planted, yea, this whole lande:

5 And ſeekeſt thou yet promotion? looke not for it, and deſyre it not, for I wyl bryng a miſerable plague vpon al fleſhe, ſayth the Lorde: but thy lyfe wyl I geue thee for a pray, in all places whyther ſo euer thou goeſt.

¶ The .xlvi. Chapter.

1. He propheſieth the deſtruction of Egypt. 27. Deliuerance is promiſed to Iſrael.

1 HEre folowe the wordes of the Lorde to the prophete Jeremie, whiche he ſpake againſt al the gentiles.

2 Theſe wordes folowing preached he to the Egyptians, concerning the hoſte of Pharao Necho kyng of Egypt, when he was in Charchamis beſide the water of Euphrates, what tyme as Nabuchodonoſor the kyng of Babylon ſlue hym, in the fourth yeere of Jehoacim the ſonne of Joſias kyng of Juda.

3 Make redy buckler and ſheelde, and goe forth to fight.

4 Harneſſe your hoſſes, and ſet your ſelues vpon them, ſit your ſalets faſt on, bryng forth ſpeares, ſcoure your ſwordes, and put on your breſt plates.

5 But alas, howe happeneth it that I ſee you ſo afrayde? why ſhrinke ye backe? Their worthies are ſlayne, yea they runne ſo faſt away that none of them looketh behinde him: fearefulneſſe is fallen vppon euery one of them, ſayth the Lorde.

6 The lightest of foote ſhal not flee away, and the worthieſt ſhal not eſcape: towarde the North by the water of Euphrates they did ſtumble and fal.

7 But what is he this that ſwelleth vp as it were a flood, roaring and ragyng like the ſtreames of water?

8 It is Egypt that ryſeth vp lyke the flood, and calleth out the waters with ſo great noyſe: And he ſayde, I wyl goe vp, and wyl couer the earth, I wyl deſtroy the citie with them that are therein.

9 Geat ye vp ye hoſſes, roule forth ye charrets, come forth worthies, ye Ethiopians, ye Libyans with your bucklers, ye Lydians with your bowes.

10 But this day of the Lorde God of hoſtes is a day of vengeance, that he may auenge him of his enimies: The ſworde ſhal deuoure, it ſhalbe ſatisfied and bathed in their blood, for the Lorde God of hoſtes ſhal haue a ſlayne offeryng towarde the North, by the water of Euphrates.

11 Goe vp vnto Gilead, and bryng triacle, O virgin, thou daughter of Egypt: but in vayne ſhalt thou goe to ſurgerie, for thy wounde ſhal not be ſtopped.

12 The heathen haue heard of thy ſhame, and the lande is ful of thy confuſion: for one ſtrong man did ſtumble vpon another, and they are fallen both togeather.

13 Theſe are the wordes that the Lorde spake to the prophete Jeremie, concernyng the commyng of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, which was sent to destroy the lande of Egypt:

14 Preache out through the land of Egypt, and cause it to be proclaymed at Migdol, Noph, & Thaphnis, and say, Stand styl, make thee redy, for the swoorde shal consume thee rounde about.

15 Howe happeneth it that thy mightie worthies are fallen? why stoode they not fast? euen because the Lorde thrust them downe.

16 The slaughter was great, for one fell euer styl vpon another: and they sayde, Up, let vs goe agayne to our owne people, and to our owne natural countrey, from the cruel swoorde.

17 They did crye euen there, Pharao the kyng of Egypt is a kyng of troublesomnesse: he hath ouerpast the appoynted time.

18 As I liue (sayth the kyng whose name is the Lorde of hostes) so surely as Thabor standeth among the mountaynes, & Charmel in the sea: euen so assuredly shall this mischeefe come vpon Egypt.

19 O thou daughter of Egypt, make redy thy geare to flyt: for Noph shalbe voyde and desolate, so that no man shal dwell therein.

20 The lande of Egypt is like a goodly fayre Calfe: but destruction shal come out of the North, I say it commeth.

21 Her waged souldiers that be with her are like fat Calues, they also shal flee away togeather, and not abide: for the day of their slaughter, and the tyme of their visitation shal come vpon them.

22 The crye of them shal make a noyse as the hissyng of serpentes: for they shal enter in with theyr hostes, and come agaynst her with axes, as it were hewers downe of wood.

a. Her wood, that is, the whole multitude of the people, whiche was like a great wood.

23 And they shal cut downe her a wood, saith the Lord, they shalbe innumerable: for they shalbe moe in number then the grasshoppers, so that no man shalbe able to tell them.

24 The daughter of Egypt is confounded, and deliuered into the handes of the people of the North.

25 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, Beholde, I wyl visite that restlesse people of Alexandria, Pharao, and Egypt, yea both their goddes and theyr kynges, euen Pharao and al them that put theyr trust in him:

26 Yea, I wyl deliuer them into the handes of those that seeke after theyr lyues, namely into the power of Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon, and into the power of his seruantes: and after al these thynges, it shalbe inhabited as afore time, sayth the Lorde.

27 Be not thou afrayde, O my seruant Jacob, feare not thou, O Israel: for loe, I wyl helpe thee from farre, and thy seede from the land of their captiuitie: Jacob also shal come agayne and be in rest, he shall prosper, and no man shal doo him harme. Esai.44.1. Jerr.30.10.

28 Feare thou not (O Jacob my seruant) saith the Lord, for I am with thee, and wyl destroy all nations among whom I haue scattered thee: neuertheles I wyl not consume thee, but chasten thee, & correct thee, yea, and that with discretion, neyther wyl I vtterly destroy thee.

¶ The.lxvii.Chapter.

The vvoorde of the Lorde agaynst the Philistines.

1 THese are the woordes that the Lorde spake vnto Jeremie the prophete agaynst the Philistines, before that Pharao smote the citie of Azah.

2 Thus sayth the Lorde, Beholde, there shal waters aryse out of the North, and shal growe to a great flood, runnyng ouer and couering the land and al that is therein, the cities, and them that dwel therein: and the men shal crie, and al they that dwel in the lande shal mourne.

3 At the noyse and stampyng of theyr strong barbed horses, at the shaking of their charrets, and at the rumbling of the wheeles: the fathers shal not looke to their children, so feeble and weerie shal theyr handes be,

4 At the same time when he shalbe there to destroy the whole lande of the Philistines, he shal make waste both Tyrus, Sidon, and the residue of their ayde: for the Lorde wyl destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the Ile of "Caphtor.

or, Capadocia.

5 Baldnesse is come vpon Azah, Ascalon is put to scilence, with the rest of theyr valeyes: Howe long wylt thou teare thee selfe?

6 O thou swoorde of the Lorde, howe long wylt thou not ceasse? Turne agayne into thy sheath, rest, and leane of.

7 But howe can it ceasse, when the Lorde him selfe hath geuen it a charge agaynst Ascalon, and raysed it vp agaynst the cities of the sea coast?

¶ The.lxviii.Chapter.

The vvoorde of the Lorde agaynst the Moabites.

1 Thus

1 THus sayth the Lorde of hostes, the God of Israel, agaynst Moab, Woe be to the citie of Nebo, for it is layde waste, brought to confusion, and Kiriathaim is taken: Misgab is brought to shame and affrayde.

2 Moab can boaste no more of Hesbon, for they haue deuised a mischeefe agaynst it: Come, shal they say, let vs roote them out, that they may be no more a nation, thou also shalt be destroyed, O Madmena, and the swoorde shal persecute thee.

3 A voyce shall crye from Horonaim, Great wastyng and destruction shall come vppon them.

4 Moab is made desolate, her litle ones haue cryed out.

5 For at the goyng vp vnto Luith he arose with lamentation and mournyng, & downe towarde Horonaim they heard a cruel and deadly crye:

'Ier.17.6 6 'Geat you away, saue your lyues, and be lyke vnto the heath in the wyldernesse.

7 For because thou hast trusted in thyne owne woorkes and treasure, thou shalt be taken: Chamos with his Priestes & Princes shal goe away into captiuitie.

8 The destroyer shall come vppon all cities, none shall escape: The valleys shalbe destroyed, and the feeldes shalbe layde waste, lyke as the Lorde hath spoken.

9 Gene wynges vnto Moab, that she geat her away speedylye, for her cities shalbe made so desolate, that no man shall dwell therein.

10 Cursed be he that doeth the woorke of the Lorde fraudulently: and cursed be he that keepeth backe his swoorde from sheddyng of blood.

11 Moab hath euer been ryche and careleste from her youth vp, she hath been styll setled vpon lyes, she was neuer yet put out of one vessel into another, that is, she neuer went away into captiuitie, therefore her taste remayneth, and her sauour is not yet changed.

12 But loe, the tyme commeth, sayth the Lord, that I shal sende her trussers to trusse her vp, whiche shall remooue her from her dwellyng, and emptie her vessels, & breake her wyne pottes.

13 And Moab shalbe ashamed of Chamos, 'Iud.12.29. *lyke as Israel was ashamed of Bethel, wherein she put her trust.

'Esai.16.7. 14 Wherefore doo ye thynke thus, *We are myghtie and strong men of warre:

15 Moab is destroyed, and her cities burnt vp, her chosen young men be slayne, sayth the kyng, whose name is the Lorde of hostes.

16 The destruction of Moab commeth on apace, and her fal is at hande.

17 Al ye neyghbours mourne for her, and al ye that knowe her name, say, O howe happeneth it that the strong staffe & the goodly rodde is thus broken?

18 And thou daughter Dibon, come downe from thy glorie, and syt in thyrst: for he that destroyeth Moab, shal come vp to thee also, and breake downe thy strong holdes.

19 And thou that dwellest in Aroer, geat thee to the streete, and loke about thee, aske them that are fledde and escaped, and say, What thyng is happened?

20 Oh Moab is confounded and ouercome: mourne and crye, tell it out at Arnon that Moab is destroyed.

21 For iudgement shal come vpon the plaine lande, namely, vpon Holon, and Iahzah, and vpon Mephaath, 22 And vpon Dibon, vpon Nabo, & Beth-Deblathaim,

23 Vppon Kiriathaim, and vppon Beth-Gamul, vpon Beth-Maon, 24 And vpon Carioth, vpon Bozra, and al the cities in the lande of Moab, whether they lye farre or neare.

25 The horne of Moab is smytten downe, and her arme broken, sayth the Lord.

26 Make her drunken, for she magnified her selfe aboue the Lorde, that men may clappe their handes at her vomite, and that she also may be laughed to scorne.

27 Diddest not thou laugh Israel to scorne, as though he had been taken with theefe among theeues? for as often as thou makest mention of hym, thou skyppest for ioy.

28 Ye Moabites, leaue the cities, & dwel in rockes of stone, and become lyke Doues that make their nestes in holes.

29 As for Moabs pryde we haue hearde of it, she is very hygh mynded, I knowe her stoutnesse, her boasting, her arrogancie, and the pryde of her stomacke, sayth the Lorde.

30 I knowe (sayth the Lorde) her indignation, she doeth not ryght, her woordes are lyes, and they haue not dealt truely.

31 Therefore wyll I mourne for Moab, for whole Moabs sake: my hart shall lament the men of Kirchares.

32 O thou vineyarde of Sabamah, I wyll weepe for thee as for Iazer: thy vine branches shal come ouer the sea, vnto the sea of Iazer, the destroyer shall breake into thy haruest and grape geatheryng.

33 *Myrth and cheare shalbe taken away from the fertil feelde, and from the lande of Moab: there shalbe no sweete wyne in the presse, the treader shall haue no stomacke to 'Esai.16.10 crye, yea, there ſhalbe none to crye vnto hym.

34 Whiche aforetyme were heard from Heſbon to Eleale, and Jahaz, whiche lyfted vp their voyce from Zoar vnto Horonaim, that bullocke of three yeere olde: the waters alſo of Nemrim ſhalbe dryed vp.

35 Moreouer, I wyll make Moab ceaſſe, ſayth the Lorde, from the offerynges and cenſyng that ſhe hath made vnto her gods in hygh places.

36 Wherefore my hart mourneth for Moab lyke a crowde playing an heauy longue, and for the mens ſake of Kirchares my hart mourneth alſo, euen as a Pype that pypeth a dolefull ſongue: for their ryches which they haue geathered, ſhalbe deſtroyed.

*Eſai.15.3. Eccle.7.18. 37 *Al heades ſhalbe ſhauen, and al beardes clypped of, al handes bounde, and al loynes gyrded about with ſackcloth.

38 Upon all the houſe toppes and ſtreetes of Moab, there ſhalbe lamentable mourning, for I wyll breake Moab lyke an vnprofitable veſſel, ſayth the Lorde.

39 O howe is ſhe deſtroyed? O howe mourneth ſhe? O how doeth Moab hang downe her head, and is aſhamed? Thus ſhal Moab be a laughing ſtocke, and had in deriſion of al them that be rounde about her?

40 For thus ſayth the Lorde, Beholde the enimie ſhall come fleeyng as an Egle, and ſpread his wynges vpon Moab.

41 They ſhal take the cities, and wynne the ſtrong holdes: then the myghty mens hartes in Moab ſhalbe lyke the hart of a woman trauaylyng with chylde.

42 And Moab ſhalbe made ſo deſolate, that ſhe ſhal no more be a people, becauſe ſhe hath ſet vp her ſelfe againſt the Lorde.

43 Feare, pyt, and ſnare, ſhal fal vpon thee, O Moab, ſayth the Lorde.

Eſai.24.17. 44 *Who ſo eſcapeth the feare, ſhall fal into the pyt, and who ſo getteth out of the pyt, ſhalbe taken in the ſnare: for I wyll bryng a yeere of viſitation vpon Moab, ſayth the Lorde.

45 They that are able to flee, ſhall ſtand vnder the ſhadow of Heſbon, for there ſhal goe a fyre out of Heſbon, and a flame from Sion, and ſhall burne vp that prounde people of Moab, and the toppe of thoſe ſeditious chyldren.

46 Woe be vnto thee, O Moab, thou people of Chamos ſhalt peryſhe: yea thy ſonnes and daughters ſhalbe led away captiue.

47 Yet at the laſt wyl I bring Moab out of captiuitie agayne, ſayth the Lorde. Thus farre is of the plague of Moab.

¶ The.xlix.Chapter.

1. The worde of the Lord againſt the Ammonites, 7. againſt Idumea. 13. Damaſcus. 18. Cedar. 34. Elam.

1 AS concernyng the Ammonites, thus the Lorde ſayth, Hath Iſrael no chyldren? or is he without any heire? Why hath your kyng then taken Gad in? Wherefore doeth his people dwell in his cities?

2 Behold therfore, the tyme commeth, ſayth the Lord, that I wyl bring a noyſe of warre into Rabbath, of the Ammonites, and it ſhalbe layde on a deſolate heape, and her cities brent vp, and the Iſraelites ſhalbe lordes ouer thoſe that had them in poſſeſſion afore, ſayth the Lorde.

3 Heſbon ſhal mourne, for Ai ſhalbe rooted out of the grounde, ſayth the Lorde, the cities of Rabbath ſhal crye out, and gyrde them ſelues with ſackcloth, they ſhal mourne and runne about the walles, for their king ſhalbe led away pryſoner, yea his prieſtes and princes with hym.

4 Wherefore glorieſt thou in the a valleys? thy valley hath flowed away, O thou rebellious daughter, and thinkeſt thou that thou art ſo ſafe by reaſon of thy treaſure, that no man ſhal come to thee?

a. The plentifulneſſe of the ſoile, the ſtrong ſituation of the place, and their great wealth, cauſed the Ammonites lyke a wretches wanton gyrle, to blaſpheme the Lordes people, and to be without al feare of enimies.

5 Beholde, I wyll bryng a feare vpon thee, ſayth the Lord God of hoſtes, from al thoſe that be about thee, ſo that ye ſhalbe ſcattred euery man from another, and no man ſhall geather them togeather againe that be fled.

6 But after that, I wyl bryng the Ammonites alſo out of captiuitie agayne, ſaith the Lorde.

7 Upon the Edomites hath the Lord of hoſtes ſpoken on this maner, Is there no more wyſedome in Theman? Is there no more good counſell among his people? Is their wyſedome then turned cleane to nought?

8 Geat you hence, turne your backes, creepe downe into the deepe, O ye cities of Dedan: for I wyll bryng deſtruction vpon Eſau, yea and the day of his viſitation.

9 *If the grape geatherers come vpon thee, ſhoulde they not leaue ſome grapes? If the nyght robbers come vpon thee, ſhould they not take ſo muche as they thought were ynough? * Abdi.5.

10 But I wyll make Eſau bare, and diſcouer his ſecretes, ſo that he ſhal not be able to hyde them: his ſeede ſhalbe waſted away, yea his brethren and his neyghbours, and he hym ſelfe ſhal not be left behynde.

11 Thou ſhalt leaue thy fatherleſſe chyldren behynde thee, and I wyll keepe them, and the thy wyddowes shall take theyr comfort in me.

12 For thus hath the Lord spoken, Behold, they that men thought were vnmeete to drynke of the cup, haue drunken with the fyrst: and thinkest thou then to be free? No, no, thou shalt neyther be quit nor free: but thou must drynke also.

13 For why? I haue sworne by mee selfe, sayth the Lorde, that Bozrah shal become a wyldernesse, an open shame, a laughyng stocke, and cursing, and al her citie shalbe a continual desart.

'Iddias. I. 14 'For I am perfectly informed of the Lorde, that he hath sent a message alredy vnto the heathen: Geather you togeather, and goe forth agaynst her, make you redy to battel:

15 For loe, I wyl make thee but smal among the heathen, & litle regarded among men.

16 Thy hygh stomacke and the pryde of thy hart hath deceyued thee, because thou dwelst in the holes of stonie rockes, and hast the high mountaynes in possession: Neuertheless, though thy nest were as hygh as the Eagles, yet I wyll cast thee downe sayth the Lorde.

17 Moreouer, Idumea shalbe a wyldernesse, who so goeth by it, shalbe abashed, and wonder at al her miserable plagues.

'Gene. 19. 25 18 'Like as Sodome, Gomor, and the cities that lay there about were turned vpside downe, sayth the Lorde: so shal no body dwel in Idumea, and no man shal haue his habitation there.

19 Behold, like as the Lion, so shal a destroyer come vp from the pleasant medowes of Iordane, vnto the strong dwellyng place, and when I haue made him quiet, I wyl make him to flee from her, and al chosen men wyl I set in aray agaynst her: who is lyke vnto me? what is he that wyl striue

Iob. 41. 1. with me? *what shepheard may stande in my handes?

20 Therefore heare the counsel of the Lord that he hath taken vpon Idumea, and his purpose that he hath deuised vpon the citizens of Theman: the least of the flocke shal trayle them, and looke what fayre habitation they haue, they shal make it waste, and them selues also.

21 At the noyse of theyr fal the earth shall quake, the crye of theyr voyce shalbe heard vnto the red sea.

22 Beholde, the enimie shal come, and flee vp hyther lyke as it were an Eagle, and spread his wynges vpon Bozrah: then shal the hartes of the woorthies in Edom be as the hart of a woman trauayling of chylde.

23 Upon Damascus, Hemath, and Aryhad, shal come confusion: for they shal heare euyl tydinges, they shalbe tossed to and fro like the sea that can not stande styl.

24 Damascus shalbe sore afrayde, and shall flee: trembling commeth vpon her, sorowe and payne shal ouertake her, as a woman trauayling of chylde.

25 But howe happeneth it that the famous citie, the citie of my ioy, is not spared?

26 Her young men shal fal in the streetes, and al her men of warre shalbe taken away in that tyme, sayth the Lorde of hostes.

27 I wyl kyndle a fyre in the walles of Damascus, which shal consume the palace of Benhadad.

28 As for Cedar and the kyngdome of Hazor, whom Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon smote, the Lord hath spoken thus vpon them: Aryse, and geat you vp vnto Cedar, and destroy the people towarde the East.

29 Theyr tentes and theyr flockes shal they take away, yea theyr hanginges and theyr vessels, their Cammels also shal they carie away with them: they shal crye to them, feare is on euery side.

30 Flee, geat you farre away, creepe into caues, that ye may dwel there, O ye inhabitours of Hazor, sayth the Lorde: for Nabuchodonosor the kyng of Babylon hath holden a counsel concerning you, and concluded his deuise agaynst you.

31 Arise, and geat you vp agaynst yonder riche and careless people, sayth the Lorde, which haue neither gates nor doore barres, but dwel alone.

32 Their Cammels shalbe a pray, and the droues of theyr cattel dryuen away: Moreouer, those wyl I scatter towarde al the windes, and to the farthest partes of the worlde, yea from al the sides thereof wyl I bryng theyr destruction, sayth the Lorde.

33 Hazor also shalbe a dwellyng for Dragons, and an euerlasting wyldernesse, so that no body shal dwel there, and no man shal haue there his habitation.

34 These are the woordes that the Lorde spake to the Prophete Ieremie concernyng Elam, in the beginning of the raigne of Zedecias kyng of Juda.

35 Thus sayth the Lorde of hostes, Behold, I wyl breake the bowe of Elam, their principal strength.

36 And vpon Elam I wyl bryng the foure windes from the foure quarters of heauen, and wyl scatter them agaynst the same foure windes: and there shalbe no people, but some of Elam shal flee vnto them.

37 For I wyl cause Elam to be afrayde of they enimies, and of them that ſeeke theyr lyues, & wyl bryng vpon them a miſchiefe, euen my wrath, ſayth the Lorde: And I wyl perſecute them with the ſwoorde, ſo long tyl I haue brought them to nought.

38 I wyl ſet my throne in Elam, I wyl deſtroy both the kyng & princes from thence, ſayth the Lorde: but in proceſſe of tyme I wyl bryng Elam out of captiuitie agayne, ſayth the Lorde.

¶ The. L. Chapter.

He propheſieth the deſtruction of Babylon, and the deliuerance of Iſrael, vvhiche vvas in captiuitie.

1 THe woordes that the Lorde ſpake vnto the prophete Jeremie concerning Babylon and the lande of the Chaldees:

2 Preache among the Gentiles, let your voyce be hearde, make a token, crye out, keepe no ſilence, but ſay, Babylon is won, Bel is confounded, and Merodach is ouercome, yea their gods be brought to ſhame, and their images burſt in peeces:

3 For out of the North there doeth come a people agaynſt her, whiche ſhal make her land ſo waſte, that no body ſhal dwel therein, neyther man nor beaſt, for they ſhal flee and depart from thence.

4 In thoſe dayes, and at that tyme, ſayth the Lorde, the chyldren of Iſrael ſhal come, they and the chyldren of Juda, weeping and making haſte, and ſhal ſeeke the Lorde their God.

5 They ſhal aſke the way to Sion, thyther ſhal they turne theyr faces, ſaying, Come, and we wyl cleaue to the Lorde in a couenant that neuer ſhalbe broken.

6 My people haue ben a loſt flocke, my ſhepheardes haue deceyued them, & haue made them goe aſtray vpon the hylles, they haue gone from the mountayne to the litle hyl, and forgotten theyr folde.

7 Al they that came vpon them, haue deuoured them, and theyr enimies ſayd, We haue made no fault agaynſt them, for they haue diſpleaſed the Lord, yea euen the Lorde vvhich is the habitation of theyr ryghteouſnelle, and the hope of their fathers.

8 Flee from Babylon, and depart out of the lande of the Chaldees, and be ye as the rammes that goe before the flocke.

9 For loe, I wyl wake vp an hoſt of people from the Northren lande, and bryng them vpon Babylon, theſe ſhal lay ſiege to it, and winne it: theyr arrowes ſhal not miſſe, lyke as a cunnyng archer ſhooteth not wrong.

10 And the Chaldees ſhalbe ſpoyled, and al they that ſpoyle them ſhalbe ſatiſfied, ſayth the Lorde.

11 Although ye were ſo chearefu̇l and glad to treade downe mine heritage, and fulfylled your pleaſures as the Calues in the graſſe, and triumphed ouer them lyke Bulles vvhen ye had gotten the victorie.

12 Your mothers ſhalbe ſore confounded, and they that bare you ſhal come to ſhame, ſhe ſhalbe the leaſt ſet by among the nations, voyde, waſted, and dryed vp.

13 No man ſhalbe able to dwel there for the feare of the Lorde, but ſhe ſhalbe whole deſolate: al they that goe by Babylon ſhall ſtande ſtyl and be abaſhed, and ſhal woonder at al her plagues.

14 Goe foorth in your aray agaynſt Babylon rounde about, all ye that can handle bowes, ſhoote at her, ſpare no arrowes: for ſhe hath ſinned agaynſt the Lorde.

15 Crye out agaynſt her rounde about: ſhe ſhal yeelde her ſelfe, her fundations ſhal fall, and her walles ſhal come downe, for it ſhalbe the vengeance of the Lorde, yea vengeance ſhalbe taken of her: and as ſhe hath done, ſo deale ye with her.

16 Roote out the ſower from Babylon, and hym that handleth the ſickle in harueſt: for feare of the ſwoorde of the enimie, euery man ſhal geat hym to his owne people, and euery man ſhal flee to his owne lande.

17 Iſrael is a ſcattered flocke, the Lions haue diſpearſed them: * fyrſt the kyng of the Aſſyrians deuoured them, laſt of al this Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon hath bruyſed al theyr bones. *2. kyng. 17. 24.

18 Therefore thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes the God of Iſrael, Beholde, I wyl viſite the kyng of Babylon and his kingdome, as I haue viſited the kyng of the Aſſyrians, 19 And wyl bryng Iſrael againe to his pleaſant paſture, that he may feede vpon Charmel and Baſan, and be ſatiſfied vppon the mount of Ephraim and Galaad.

20 In thoſe dayes, and at the ſame tyme, ſayth the Lorde, yf the offence of Iſrael be ſought for, there ſhal none be founde, if men enquyre for the ſinne of Juda, there ſhalbe none: for I wyl be mercyful vnto them whom I ſuffer to remayne.

21 Goe downe O thou auenger into the enimies lande, and viſite them that dwell therein: downe with them, and ſmyte them vpon the backes, ſayth the Lord, doo accordyng to al that I haue commaunded thee.

22 There is gone about the lande a crye of a ſlaughter and great murder namely in this maner,

23 Howe happeneth it that the hammer of the the whole world is thus broken and hewen in sunder? How vnpleth it that Babylon is become a wyldernes among the heathen on this maner?

24 I mee selfe haue layde a snare for thee, and thou art take vnawares, thou art trapped and snared: for why? thou hast contended agaynst the Lorde.

25 The Lorde hath opened his house of ordinance, and brought forth the weapons of his wrath: for the thing that is doone in the lande of the Chaldees, it is the Lordes of hostes worke.

26 Come agaynst her, for this is her ende, breake vp her chestes, threshe her as ye threshe corne, destroy her, that nothyng shalbe left.

27 Slay al their mightie souldiers, and put them to death: woe be vnto them, for the day and tyme of their visitation is at hande.

28 Me thinke I heare already a crie of them that be fled and escaped out of the lande of Babylon, whiche shewe in Sion the vengeance of the Lorde our God, the vengeance of his temple, yea a voyce of them that crye agaynst Babylon,

29 Cal vp all the archers against Babylon, pitche your tentes rounde about her, that none escape, recompence her as she hath deserued, and according as she hath doone, so deale with her agayne: for she hath set vp her selfe agaynst the Lorde, agaynst the holy one of Israel.

30 Therefore shal her young men fal downe in the stretes, and al her men of warre shalbe rooted out in that day, sayth the Lorde.

31 Beholde, I speake vnto thee, O thou proude, sayth the Lorde God of hostes, for thy day shal come, euen the time of thy visitation.

32 And the proude shall stumble and fal, and no man shal helpe hym vp, I wyll burne vp his cities with fire, and it shall consume all that is rounde about hym.

33 Thus sayth the Lord of hostes, The children of Israel and Iuda suffer violence together, all they that haue them in captiuitie keepe them fast, and wyll not let them goe.

34 But their auenger & redeemer is myghty, whose name is the Lord of hostes, he shal mainteyne their cause, he shall make the lande shake, and iudge them that dwel therin one vvith another.

35 The swoorde shall come vppon the Chaldees, sayth the Lorde, vpon them that dwell in Babylon, vpon their princes, and vppon their wyse men.

36 The swoorde vpon their soothsayers, as for those they shall become fooles: the swoorde vpon their worthies, so that they shal stande in feare.

37 The swoorde vppon their horsemen and charrets, and vppon all the common people that dwell among them, so that they shall all become lyke women: the swoorde vpon their treasure, so that it shalbe stolen away.

38 A drought vppon their waters, so that they shalbe dryed vp: for the lande worshippeth images, and delyghteth woonderfully in idols.

39 Therefore shall wylde beastes, Lamia, and Cat of mountaynes, and Estritches dwell therin: for there shal neuer man dwel there, neyther shall any man haue his habitation there for euermore.

40 Lyke as God destroyed Sodome and Gomor, with the cities that lay thereabout, sayth the Lorde: so shal no man dwell there also, neyther shall any man haue there his habitation. Gen.19.25. Esai.13.19.

41 Beholde, there shall come a people from the North with a great bonde of men, and many kynges shal stande vp from the endes of the earth.

42 They beare bowes and buckelers, cruell are they and vnmercifull: their voyce roareth lyke the ragyng sea, they ryde vppon horses, and come weaponed to fight against thee, O Babylon.

43 As soone as the kyng of Babylon heareth of them, his handes shall wax feeble, sorowe and heauinesse shall come vppon hym as vpon a woman trauayling with chylde.

44 Beholde, lyke as the Lion commeth vp from the swellyng of Iordane, vnto the dens of Ethan, so wyl I dryue them forth, and make them run agaynst her: but whom shall I choose out and ordeyne to suche a thyng? for who is lyke me? or who wyll stryue with me? or what shephearde may stande agaynst me? Iob.41.1.

45 Therefore heare the counsell that the Lorde hath geuen vpon Babylon, and the deuice that he hath taken vpon the lande of the Chaldees, The least among the people shall drawe them out, and looke what pleasant houses they haue, they shall lay them waste.

46 The noyse at the wynnyng of Babylon shall moue the earth, and the crye shalbe heard among the Gentiles.

¶ The.li.Chapter.

1. Howe Babylon shoulde be ouerthrowen. 59. Ieremie geueth his booke to Saraias.

1 Thus

1 THus hath the Lorde ſayde, Beholde, I wyl rayſe vp a perilous wynde agaynſt Babylon, and her citizens that beare enyl wyl agaynſt me.

2 I wyl ſende alſo into Babylon fanners, to fanne her out, and to deſtroy her lande: for in the day of her trouble they ſhalbe about her on euery ſide.

3 Moreouer the Lorde wyl ſay vnto the bowmen, and to them that aduance them ſelues in their armour: Ye ſhal not ſpare her yong men, kyll downe al her hoſt.

4 Thus the ſlayne ſhall fall downe in the lande of the Chaldees, and the wounded in the ſtreetes.

5 As for Iſrael and Juda, they ſhall not be forſaken of their GOD, of the Lorde of hoſtes, yea, a for the holy one of Iſraels ſake, haue the Chaldees filled their lande full of ſinne.

a For the holy one of Iſraels ſake, that is, for the greeuous affliction and great iniurie done to Gods people, whiche he reputeth as done vnto hym ſelfe.

6 Flee away from Babylon, euery man ſaue his lyfe, that ye be not rooted out with her wickednelle: for the tyme of the Lordes vengeaunce is come, yea, he ſhall reward her agayne.

7 Babylon hath been in the Lordes hande a golden cup, that maketh al lande drunken: of her wyne haue all people dronken, therefore are they out of their wittes.

Eſai. 21. 9. Apoc. 18. 8.

8 But ſodaynely is Babylon fallen and deſtroyed: mourne for her, bryng plaſters for her woundes, yf ſhe may peraduenture be healed agayne.

9 We would haue made Babylon whole, ſay they, but ſhe is not recouered: therefore wyll we let her alone, and go euery man into his owne countrey: for her iudgement is come into heauen, and is gone vp into the cloudes.

10 The Lorde hath brought forth our b righteouſneſſe, and therefore come on, we wyll ſhewe in Sion the worke of the Lorde our God.

b How ſo euer the Iewes had deſerued to be plagued at gods hande, yet had ỹ Chaldees no cauſe on their partes why to deale ſo cruelly with them, & ſo God declareth their righteouſneſſe in reſpect to ỹ Chaldees, by puniſhing them, and deliuering his people.

11 Make sharpe the arrowes, and multiply your ſhieldes: for the Lord hath rayſe vp the ſpirite of the kyng of the Medes, whiche hath already a deſire to deſtroy Babylon: this ſhalbe the vengeaunce of the Lorde, and the vengeance of his people.

12 Set vp tokens vpon the walles of Babylon, make your watche ſtrong, ſet your watchmen in aray, yea, hold priuy watches, and yet for al that ſhal the Lorde goe forth with his deuice whiche he hath taken vpon them that dwel in Babylon.

13 O thou that dwelleſt by the great waters, O thou that haſt ſo great treaſure and ryches, thyne ende is come, and the reckenyng of thy wynnynges.

*Amos. 6. 8. 14 *The Lord of hoſtes hath ſworne by him ſelfe, that he wyll ouerwhelme thee with men, lyke graſſehoppers in number, which with a courage ſhall crye alarum alarum agaynſt thee.

15 *Yea, euen the Lorde of hoſtes that with his power made the earth, with his wyſedome prepared the rounde world, and with his diſcretion ſpread out the heauens.

*Gen. 1. 6. Pſal. 135. 6. Jere. 10. 12.

16 As ſoone as he letteth his voyce be heard, the waters in the ayre waxe fierce: he draweth vp the cloudes from the endes of the earth, he turneth the lyghtnynges to rayne, he bryngeth the wyndes out of their ſecrete places.

17 If they be eſteemed by their wyſedome, all men are become fooles: confounded be all the caſters of images, for the thing that they make is but deceite, and hath no breath.

18 Vayne is it, and an erroneous worke, and in the tyme of viſitation it ſhal periſhe.

19 The portion of Jacob is none ſuche: but he that made al thynges, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes, he is the rodde of his inheritance.

b The plaint of gods people.

20 c Thou haſt been myne hammer and weapons for warre: for with thee haue I broken the people in peeces, and with thee haue I deſtroyed kyngdomes.

c Thou haſt ben. This God ſpeaketh vnto Babylon.

21 Through thee haue I beaten to powder horſe and horſemen, yea, the charrettes, and ſuche as ſate vpon them.

22 Through thee I haue broken man and woman, olde and young, bacheler and mayden.

23 Through thee I haue deſtroyed the ſhepheard and his flocke, the huſbandman and his cattell, the princes and the rulers.

24 Therefore wyll I reward the citie of Babylon, and all the inhabitantes of Chaldea, with al the enyl which they haue done vnto Sion, yea, that ye your ſelues ſhall ſee it, ſayth the Lorde.

25 Behold, I come vnto thee thou noyſome d hyl, ſayth the Lorde, thou that deſtroyeſt al landes, I wyl ſtretche out my hande ouer thee, and caſt thee downe from the ſtonie rockes, and wyll make thee a burnt hyl.

d Babylon is called an hyll, although it ſtoode in a low place, and no hyls about it: for that her walles and buildinges were ſo great and high as mountaynes.

26 So that neyther corner ſtones ſhalbe taken any more out of thee, but waſte and deſolate ſhalt thou lye for euermore, ſayth the Lorde.

27 Set vp a token in the lande, blowe the trumpets among the heathen, prouoke the nations agaynſt her, call the kyngdomes of Ararat, Menni, and Aſcanez, agaynſt her, ſet the prince agaynſt her, bryng as great a ſort of terrible horſes agaynſt her, as yf they were graſſehoppers.

28 Prepare agaynſt them the people of the the Medes, with they kynges, princes, and all their cheefe rulers, yea and the whole land that is vnder him.

29 The land also shall shake and be afrayd, when the deuice of the Lord shal come forth against Babylon, to make the lande of Babylon so waste, that no man shall dwell any more therein.

30 The woorthies of Babylon shal loue the battayle, and keepe themselues in strong holdes, their strength hath fayled them, they shalbe lyke women, their dwelling places shalbe burnt vp, their barres shalbe broken.

31 One pursuant shall meete another, yea, one post shall come by another, to bring the kyng of Babylon tydinges that his citie is taken on euery side, 32 The foordes occupied, the fennes burnt vp, and the souldiers sore afraide.

33 For thus sayth the Lorde of hostes the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon hath ben in her time like as a threshing floore, but shortly shall her harueste come.

34 Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon hath deuoured and destroyed me, he hath made me an emptie vessel, he swalowed me vp like a Dragon, and filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 My substance whereof he hath spoyled me, and the thing that was left me, whiche he hath carryed away, crye out against Babylon, sayth the daughter that dwelleth in Sion, yea and my blood also against the Chaldees, sayth Hierusalem.

36 Therefore thus sayth the Lord, Behold, I wyl defend thy cause, and auenge thee, I wyl drinke vp her sea, and drye vp her water springes.

37 Babylon shal become an heape of stones, a dwelling place for Dragons, a fearefulnesse and woondering, and no man shall dwell there.

38 They shall roare togeather like Lions, and as y young Lions when they be angry, so shal they bend themselues.

39 In their heate I wyl geue them a dinner, and they shalbe dronken for ioy: then shall they sleepe an euerlasting sleepe, and neuer wake, sayth the Lorde.

40 I wyll carry them downe to be slayne like Sheepe, like Weathers, and Goates:

41 O howe was Selach wonne? O howe was the glory of the whole land taken: how happeneth it that Babylon is so woondred at among the heathen?

42 The sea is ryssen ouer Babylon, and hath couered her with her great wawes.

43 Her cities are laide waste, the land lyeth vnbuilded and voyde, it is a lande where no man dwelleth, and where no man trauayleth through.

44 Moreouer, I wyll visite Bel at Babylon, and the thing that he hath swalowed vp, that some shall I pluche out of his mouth: the Gentiles also shall run no more vnto him, yea and the walles of Babylon shall fall.

45 O my people, come out of Babylon, that euery man may saue his lyfe from the fearefull wrath of the Lorde.

46 Be not faynt harted, and feare not at euery rumour that shalbe heard in the land: for euery yeere bringeth newe tydinges, and in the yeere folowyng newe rewmges, and robbing in the lande, and lorde vpon lorde.

47 And loe, the time commeth, that I wyll visite the images of Babylon, & the whole land shalbe confounded, yea and her slayne shal lye in the middest of her.

48 Heauen and earth with al that is therein shal reioyce ouer Babylon, when the destroyers shal come vpon her from the north, sayth the Lorde.

49 Like as Babylon hath beaten downe and slayne many out of Israel, so shal there fall many, and be slayne in al her kingdome.

50 Ye that haue escaped the swoord, haste you, stand not styl, remember the Lorde a farre off, and thinke vpon Hierusalem.

51 For we are ashamed to heare the blasphemies, our faces were couered with shame, because the strange aliantes came into the sanctuare of the Lorde.

52 Wherefore behold, sayth the Lorde, the tyme commeth that I wil visite the images of Babylon, and through the whole lande they shal mourne and fall.

53 Though Babylon clymed vp into heauen, and kept her power on high, yet shal I send her destroyers, sayth the Lord.

54 A piteous crye shalbe heard from Babylon, and a great miserie from the lande of the Chaldees.

55 When the Lorde destroyeth Babylon, and when he driueth out the high stomacke and proude boasting, wherewith they haue ben as furious as the wawes of the great water flooddes, & made great crakes with their woordes:

56 For the destroyer shall come vpon her, euen vpon Babylon, which shal take they⁊ woorthyes, and breake their bowes: for the God of recompence, euen the Lord shal sufficiently recompence them.

57 Yea sayth the Lorde I wyll make they⁊ princes, they⁊ wyse men, they⁊ cheefe rulers, their nobles, & they⁊ woorthies dronken, so that they shall sleepe an euerlasting sleepe,

and

and neuer wake: thus ſayth ye kyng, whoſe name is the Lorde of hoſtes.

58 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lord of hoſtes, The thicke wal of Babylon ſhalbe broken, and her high gates ſhalbe burnt vp, and the thing that the Gentiles & the people haue wrought with great trauayle and labour, ſhall come to nought, and be conſumed in the fyre.

59 This is the charge that Jeremie ye prophete gaue vnto Saraiah the ſonne of Nerias the ſonne of Maaſiah, when he went toward Babylon with Zedecias the kyng of Juda, in the fourth yeere of his raigne: now this Saraiah was a peaceable prince.

60 Jeremie wrote in a booke all the miſerie that ſhould come vpon Babylon, yea and al theſe ſermons that be written againſt Babylon,

61 And ſaid Saraiah this charge, When thou commeſt vnto Babylon, ſee that thou reade theſe wordes, 62 And ſay, O Lorde, thou art determined to roote out this place, ſo that neyther people nor cattell ſhall dwell there any more, but to lye waſte for euer.

63 And when thou haſt read out the booke, binde a ſtone to it, and caſt it in the middeſt of Euphrates, 64 And ſay, Euen thus ſhal Babylon ſinke, and be thruſt downe with the burden of trouble that I wyll bring vpon her: ſo that ſhe ſhal neuer come vp agayne. Thus farre are the preachinges of Jeremie.

¶ The.lii. Chapter.

i. He repeateth the taking of Zedecias. 4. Hieruſalem is taken of the Chaldees. 14. The temple is ſpoyled and robbed.

1 ZEdecias * was one and twentie yeeres old when he was made king, and raigned eleuen yeeres in Hieruſalem: his mothers name was Hamutal, Jeremies daughter of Libna.

*4.king.24.17. 2.Chro.36.11.

2 He lined wickedly before the Lorde, euen as Jehoacim dyd.

3 For the Lorde was angry at Hieruſalem and Juda, ſo long tyll he had caſt them out of his preſence: and Zedecias fell from the kyng of Babylon.

4 *But in the nienth yeere of his raigne, in the tenth moneth, the tenth day of the moneth, it happened that Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon with all his hoſt came before Hieruſalem, and beſieged it, & made bulwarkes round about it.

*4.kin.25.1. Jerem.9.13.

5 And this beſieging of the citie endured vnto the eleuenth yeere of king Zedecias.

6 And in the fourth moneth, the nienth day of the moneth, there was a great hunger in the citie, that there were no more victuals for the people of the land.

7 So all the ſouldiers brake away, and fled out of the citie by night, through the way of the porte, betweene the two walles, by the kynges garden: (Nowe the Chaldees had compaſſed the citie round about) yet went thoſe men they way through the wyldernelle.

8 And ſo the Chaldees folowed vpon them, and tooke Zedecias the kyng in the feelde of Jericho, when his hoſt was ruine from him.

9 So they caryed the kyng away priſoner to Reblath, vnto the kyng of Babylon in the land of Hemath, where he gaue iudgement vpon him.

10 The king of Babylon alſo cauſed Zedecias ſonnes to be ſlayne before his face, yea and put all the princes of Juda to death at Reblath.

11 Moreouer, he put out the eyes of Zedecias, and cauſed him to be bound with two chaynes, to be caryed vnto Babylon, and let him lye in priſon tyll he dyed.

12 Nowe the tenth day of the fifth moneth, in the nientieth yeere of Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon, Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne, and the king of Babylons ſeruantes, came vnto Hieruſalem, 13 And burnt vp the houſe of the Lorde: he burnt vp alſo the kinges palace, all the houſes, and all the gorgeous buildinges in Hieruſalem.

14 And the whole hoſt of the Chaldees that were with ye cheefe captayne, brake downe all the walles of Hieruſalem rounde about.

15 As for the poore people, and ſuch folke as was yet left in the citie, whiche alſo were fallen to the king of Babylon, yea and what people as yet remayned, Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne caryed them away priſoners.

16 But the poore people of the countrey dyd Nabuzaradan the cheefe captayne leaue in the lande, to occupie the vineyardes and feeldes.

17 The Chaldees alſo brake the braſen pyllers that were in the houſe of the Lorde, yea the ſeate and the braſen lauer that was in the houſe of the Lorde, and caryed all the mettall of them vnto Babylon.

18 They tooke away alſo the Chaldernes, Shouelles, Fleſhhookes, Sprinklers, Spoones, and all the braſen veſſelles that was occupied in the ſeruice,

19 With the Baſons, Colepans, Sprinklers, iers, pottes, candlestickes, spoones, & cups, wherof some were of golde, and some of syluer.

20 The cheefe captayne tooke also the two pyllers, the lauer, ỳ twelue brasen bullockes that stoode vnder the seate which kyng Solomon had made in the house of the Lorde: and al the vessels conteyned so much metal, that it myght not be weyed.

21 For euery pyller was eyghteene cubites hygh, and the rope that went about it was twelue cubites, and foure fingers thicke, and rounde.

22 Nowe vpon the rope were brasen knops, and euery knop was fiue cubites hygh, and vpon the knoppes were hoopes, and pomegranates rounde about of cleane brasse.

23 After this maner were both the pyllers fashioned with the pomegranates, wherof there were an hundred, nintie, and syxe, which hanged vpō the hoopes round about.

24 The cheefe captayne also tooke Saraiah the hygh priest, and Sophoniah that was cheefe next hym, and the three keepers of the doore.

25 He tooke out of the citie a chamberlayne, whiche was captayne of the souldiers, and seuen men that were the kynges seruantes, which were found in the citie: and Sopher a captayne that vsed to muster the men of warre, with threescore men of the countrey that were taken in the citie:

26 These Nabuzaradan the cheefe captaine tooke, and caryed them to the king of Babylon, vnto Reblath:

27 And the kyng of Babylon caused them to be put to death at Reblath in the land of Hemath: and thus Iuda was led away captiue out of his owne lande.

28 This is the summe of the people whom Nabuchodonosor led away captiue: In the seuenth yeere of his raigne, he caryed away of the Iewes, three thousande, twentie and three.

29 In the eighteenth yeere, Nabuchodonosor caryed away from Hierusalem, eyght hundred, thirtie, and two persons.

30 In the three and twentieth yeere of Nabuchodonosor, Nabuzaradan ỳ cheefe captayne tooke away seuen hundred, fourtie, & fiue Iewes, prisoners. The whole summe of the prisoners is foure thousande, and fiue hundred.

31 In the thirty and seuenth yeere after that Iehoacim the kyng of Iuda was caryed away, in the fiue and twentieth day of the twelfth moneth, Euilmerodach kyng of Babylon (the same yeere that he raigned) gaue Iehoacim the kyng of Iuda his pardon, and let hym out of prison, 32 And spake louyngly to hym, and set his throne aboue the thrones of the other kings that were with hym in Babylon.

33 He chaunged also the clothes of his prison, yea, and dyd eate with hym all his lyfe long.

34 And he had a continuall lyuyng geuen hym of the kyng of Babylon, euery day a certayne thyng alowed hym, al the dayes of his lyfe, vntyll he dyed.

¶ The ende of the booke of the prophete Ieremie.

¶ The first Chapter.

It happened after Israel was brought into captiuitie, and Hierusalem destroyed, that Ieremie the prophete sate weepyng, and sorowfully bewayled Hierusalem, and sighyng and howlyng with an heauy and woefull hart, sayde.

1 Las howe sytteth the citie so desolate, that sometyme was full of people? howe is she become lyke a wydowe, whiche was great amōg nations? howe is she brought vnder tribute, that ruled lands?

Iere.13.17. 2 She weepeth sore in the nyght, so that the teares runne downe her cheekes: for among all her louers, there is none that geueth her any comfort, yea, her next frendes transgresse agaynst her, and are become her enimies.

3 Iuda went away by reason of the affliction and great bondage: she dwelleth among the Heathen, she findeth no rest, al they that persecuted her, tooke her in strayte places, where she coulde not escape.

4 The streetes of Sion mourne, because no man man cõmeth no more to the solemne feastes: all her gates are desolate, her priestes make lamentation, her maydens are carefull, and she her selfe in great heauynesse.

5 Her enimies haue ben rulers ouer her, and her enimies haue prospered, because the Lorde hath chastened her for her great wickednesse: her chyldren are led away captiue before their enimies.

6 All the beautie of the daughters of Sion is away, her princes are become lyke Harts that fynde no pasture, they are dryuen away before their enimie, so that they haue no more power.

7 Now Hierusalem remembred in the time of her miserie and bare estate, al her ioy and pleasure that she hath had in tymes past, seeyng her people is brought downe vnder the power of their enimies, and there is no man for to helpe her: her enimies stand lookyng at her, and laugh her Sabboth dayes to scorne.

8 Hierusalem hath sinned greeuously, therefore is she come in decay: all they that had her in honour, despise her, for they haue seene her fylthynesse, yea, she sigheth, and is *ashamed of her selfe.

*Or, and is turned backeward.

9 Her skirts are defyled, she remembred not her last ende, therefore is her fal so wonderfull, and there is no man to comfort her: O Lord consyder my trouble, for myne enimie hath the vpper hande.

10 The enimie hath put his hande to al the pretious thynges that she had, yea, euen before her eyes came the Heathen in and out of the sanctuarie, whom thou neuertheles hast forbydden to come within thy congregation.

11 All her people seeke their bread with heauynesse, and loke what pretious thing euery man hath, that geueth he for meate to saue his lyfe: consyder, O Lorde, and see howe vyle I am become.

12 Haue ye no regarde al ye that goe foreby, beholde and see yf there be any sorowe lyke vnto myne, wherwith the Lorde hath troubled me in the day of his fearefull wrath.

13 From aboue hath he sent downe a fyre into my bones, and it burneth them cruelly: he hath layd a net for my feete, and thrawen me wyde open, he hath made me desolate, so that I must euer be mournyng.

14 The a yoke of my transgressions is bounde fast to his hande, they are wrapped or vvreathen and come vp about my necke: he hath caused my strength to fayle, the Lorde hath deliuered me into those handes wherout I can not quite mee selfe.

a. The bondage thorowe sinne is most greeuous, which therefore is called the yoke of sinnes, fastened in or to Gods hande, because by no meanes it can be shaken of or remitted, but onely of Gods speciall grace and mercie.

15 The Lorde hath destroyed all the mighty men that were in me, he hath proclaimed an appoynted tyme to slaughter all my best men: the Lorde hath troden downe the daughter of Iuda, lyke as it were in a wine presse.

16 *Therefore do I weepe, and myne eyes gushe out of water: for the comfort that shoulde quicken me, is farre from me: my chyldren are dryuen away, for why? the enimie hath gotten the vpper hande. *Iere.14.17

17 Sion casteth out her handes, and there is no man to comfort her: the Lord hath layde the enimies rounde about Iacob, and Hierusalem is become abominatiõ in the midst of them.

18 The Lorde is ryghteous, for I haue prouoked his countenance vnto anger. O take heede al ye people, & consider my heauynesse, my maydens and my young men are led away into captiuitie.

19 I called for my louers, but they beguyled me, for my priestes and counsaylours, but they perished, euen whyle they sought for meate to saue their lyues.

20 Consyder (O Lorde) howe I am troubled, my wombe is disquieted, my hart turneth about in me, and I am full of heauynesse, because I rebelled stubburnely: the swoorde hurteth me without, and within I am lyke vnto death.

21 They heare my mournyng, but there is none that wyl comfort me: al myne enimies haue heard of my trouble, and are glad therof, because thou hast doone it, and thou hast brought forth the tyme which thou calledst, when they also shalbe lyke vnto me.

22 Let all their wickednesse come before thee, and do thou to them as thou hast done vnto me, for all my trespasses: for my sorowe is very great, and my hart is heauy.

¶ The.ii.Chapter.

1 Alas howe hath the Lorde darkened the daughter of Sion in his wrath? as for the honour of Israel, he hath cast it downe from heauen vnto the earth, and he remembred not his owne footstoole a when he was angry?

a. By the footstoole is meant the temple of Hierusalem.

2 The Lord hath cast out al the habitations of Iacob without any fauour, all the strong places of the daughter of Iuda hath he broken downe in his wrath, and thrawen them downe to the grounde, her kyngdome and her princes hath he prophaned.

3 In the wrath of his indignation he hath broken all the b horne of Israel, he hath withdrawen his right hand frõ the enimie, yea, a flambe of fyre is kyndeled in Iacob, and

b. By horne is meant the power or strength and hath consumed vp all round about.

4 He hath bent his bowe like an enimie, he hath fastened his right hand as an aduersarie, and euery thing that was pleasant to see, he hath slayne: he hath powred out his wrath lyke a fyre into the tabernacle of the daughter of Sion.

5 The Lorde is become lyke as it were an enimie, he hath deuoured Israel, and all his palaces, yea all his strong holdes hath he destroyed, and fylled the daughter of Iuda with much sorowe and heauinesse.

6 His tabernacle as a garden hath he destroyed, his solemne meetinges hath he put downe, the Lord hath brought it so to passe, that the high solemne feastes & Sabbothes in Sion are cleane forgotten: in his heauy displeasure hath he despised the kyng and priestes.

7 The Lord hath forsaken his owne aulter, and hath abhorred his owne sanctuarie, and hath geuen the walles of their towres into the handes of their enimie: their enimies made a noyse in the house of the Lord, as it had been a solemne feast day.

8 The Lorde thought to breake downe the walles of the daughter of Sion, he spread out his lyne, and draue not in his hand tyl he had destroyed them: therefore mourne the turrettes, and the broken walles fal downe together.

9 Her gates are suncke downe to the ground, her barres are broken and smitten in sunder, her king and princes are carried away to the Gentiles: they haue not the lawe, neyther her prophetes haue any vision from the Lorde.

10 The Senatours of the daughter Sion syt vppon the ground in silence, they haue strawed ashes vppon their heades, and gyrded them selues with sackcloth, the maydens of Hierusalē hang downe their heads to the ground.

11 Myne eyes doo fayle through weeping, my bowels doo swell, my liuer is powred vppon the earth, for the great hurt of the daughter of my people, seeing the chyldren and babes dyd sowne in the streetes of the citie.

12 They haue said to their mothers, Where is "bread and drinke? when they fel downe as wounded in the streetes of the citie, and when they dyed in their mothers bosome.

13 What shall I take to witnesse agaynst thee, Or what shal I like to thee, O daughter Hierusalem? To whom shal I compare thee, O thou daughter Sion, to comfort thee withall? thy hart is like a mayne sea, who may heale thee?

14 Thy prophetes haue looked out vayne and foolishe thinges for thee, they haue not shewed thee of thy wickednesse, to keepe thee from captiuitie: but they haue seene out for thee [b] burdens of vanitie and banishment.

15 All they that goe by the way, clap their handes at thee, hissyng and wagging their heades vpon the daughter Hierusalem, and say, Is this the citie that men call so fayre, and the ioy of the whole earth?

16 All thyne enimies gape vpon thee, they hysse and grinde their teeth, saying, Let vs deuoure, for the time that we looke for is come, we haue found and seene it.

17 The Lorde hath fulfylled the thing that he was purposed to doo, and performed his woord that he had [c] deuised long agoe: he hath destroyed and not spared, he hath caused thyne aduersarie to triumph ouer thee, and set vp the horne of thyne enimie.

18 [d] Their hart cryed vnto the Lord, O thou [e] citie of the daughter Sion, let thy teares runne downe like a riuer day and night, rest not, and let not the apple of thyne eye leaue of.

19 Stand vp, crye in the night in the beginnyng of the watch, powre out thyne hart like water before the Lorde: lyft vp thyne handes towardes him, for the liues of thy young chyldren that dye of hunger in the streetes.

20 Behold, O Lord, and consyder to whom thou hast done thus: shall the women then eate their owne fruite, euen chyldren of a spanne long? shall the Priestes and Prophetes be slayne in the Sanctuarie of the Lorde?

21 Young and olde lye through the streetes vppon the grounde, my maydens and young men are slayne with the swoorde, whom thou in the day of thy wrathfull indignation hast put to death, yea euen thou hast put them to death, and not spared them.

22 My [f] terrours that are round about me, hast thou called as it were a feast day, so that in the day of the Lordes wrath none escaped, neyther was any left behind: those that I haue brought vp and nourished, hath myne enimie destroyed.

The iii. Chapter.

1 I Am the man that through the rod of his wrath haue experience of miserie.

2 He droue me forth, and led me, yea into darknesse, but not into light.

3 Surely agaynst me is he turned, he turneth his hand dayly agaynst me.

f. Or, enimies whom I feared

4 My flesh and my skinne hath he made olde, and my bones hath he bruysed.
5 He hath buylded agaynst me, and closed me in with gall and trauayle.
6 He hath set me in darknesse, as they that be dead for euer.
7 He hath hedged me in, that I can not get out, and he hath layde heauy linkes vppon me.
8 Though I cry and call piteously, yet heareth he not my prayer.
9 He hath stopped vp my wayes with squared stones, and made my pathes crooked.
10 He layeth wayte for me lyke a Beare, and as a Lion in a hole.
11 He hath marred my wayes, and broken me in peeces, he hath layd me waste.
12 He hath bent his bowe, and made me as it were a marke [a] to shoote at.
13 The arrowes of his quyuer hath he shot, euen into my reynes.
14 I am laughed to scorne of all my people, they make songes vpon me all the day long.
15 He hath filled me with bitternesse, and made me drunken with Woormewood.
16 He hath smitten my teeth in peeces with stones, and rouled me in the dust.
17 My soule departed from peace: I forgeat all good thinges.
18 And I sayd, My strength and my hope is perished from the Lord.
19 O remember yet my miserie & my trouble, the woormewood, and the gall.
20 Yea in remembring my soule dooth styll remember them, and is humbled within me.
21 I consyder these thinges in my hart, and I geat hope agayne.
22 Namely, it is of the Lordes mercies that we are not vtterly consumed, for truely his pitiful compassion hath not ceassed.
23 Newe mercies shal the Lord shewe vpon thee early in the day springing (O Lorde) great is thy faythfulnesse.
24 The Lord is my portion, sayth my soule, therefore wyll I hope in him.
25 O howe good is the Lorde vnto them that put their trust in him, and to the soule that seeketh after him.
26 The good man with stilnesse and patience tarrieth for the health of the Lorde.
27 Good is it for a man to take the yoke vpon him from his youth vp.
28 He sytteth alone, he holdeth him styll, because he hath taken the Lordes yoke vppon him.
29 He layeth [b] his face vppon the earth, yf there happen to be any hope.
30 He offereth his cheeke to the smiter, he wyl be content with reproches.
31 For the Lorde wyll not forsake for euer.
32 But though he punishe, yet according to the multitude of his mercies he receiueth to grace agayne.
33 For he dooth not plague wyllingly, nor afflict the chyldren of men, 34 To treade all the prisoners of the earth vnder his feete,
35 To decline the iudgement of man before the most high,
36 To condemne a man in his cause: "the Lorde hath not pleasure in such thinges. " the Lorde seeth it not.
37 What is he then that sayth, & it commeth to passe, and the Lord commaunded it not?
38 * Out of the mouth of the most high, goeth not euyl and good? *Amos 3.
39 Wherefore then mourneth the liuyng man? let him mourne for his owne sinne.
40 Let vs looke well vpon our wayes, and remember our selues, and turne againe to the Lorde.
41 Let vs lift our hartes with our handes vnto God that is in the heauens.
42 We haue sinned and rebelled, therefore hast thou not spared.
43 Thou hast couered vs in thy wrath, and persecuted vs: thou hast slayne without any fauour.
44 Thou hast hyd thee selfe in a cloud, that our prayers should not goe through.
45 Thou hast made vs as the offscouring and refuse in the middest of the people.
46 All our enimies gape vpon vs.
47 Feare and a snare is come vpon vs, yea, desolation and destruction.
48 Whole riuers of water gushe out of myne eyes, for the hurt of the daughter of my people.
49 Myne eye runneth, and can not ceasse, for there is no rest,
50 Tyll the Lorde looke downe and consyder.
51 Myne eyes breaketh my hart, because of all the daughters of my citie.
52 Myne enimies hunted me out sharpely lyke a byrde, yea and that without a cause.
53 They haue shut vp my lyfe in a dungeon, and cast stones vpon me.
54 The waters flowed ouer me: then thought I, nowe am I vndoone.
55 I called vpon thy name, O Lorde, out of the deepe pit.
56 Thou hast heard my voyce, withdraw not thine eare from my sighing and crying.
57 Thou drewest nigh vnto me when I called vpon thee: and hast saide, Feare not.
58 Thou (O lord) hast mainteyned the cause of my soule, and hast redeemed my lyfe.
59 O Lorde thou hast seene my wrong, take

[a] Or, for the arrowe.
[b] Or, mouth.

take thou my cause vpon thee.
60 Thou hast seene al their vengeance, and al their deuices agaynst me.
61 Thou hast heard their despiteful woords, O Lorde, yea and al their imaginations agaynst me:
62 The lippes of them that rise against me, and their deuices that they take agaynst me al the day long.
63 Behold also their sitting downe and their rysing vp, nowe I am their song.
64 Rewarde them, O Lorde, according to the woorkes of their handes.
65 Geue them " an obstinate hart, euen thy curse.
66 Persecute them, O Lorde, with thine indignation, and roote them out from vnder the heauen.

¶ The iii. Chapter.

1 O howe is the golde become so dimme? the most fine gold so changed? and the stones of the sanctuarie are scattered in the corner of euery streete?
2 The children of Sion that were alway in honour, and "clothed with the most precious golde: howe are they nowe become like earthen vesselles, the woorke of the potters hand.
3 The dragons geue their young ones sucke with bare breastes: but the daughter of my people is cruell, like the Estriches in the wyldernesse.
4 The tongues of the sucking children cleaue to the roofe of their mouthes for very thirste: the young children aske bread, but there is no man that geueth it them.
5 They that were woont to fare delicately, perishe in the streetes: they that afore were brought vp in purple, make nowe muche of dounge.
6 The sinne of the daughter of my people, is become greater then the a wickednes of Sodome, * that sodaynely was destroyed, and " not taken with handes.
7 Her * abstainers were whyter then the snowe or milke, their colour was freshe, redde as coral, their beautie like the Saphire.
8 But nowe their faces be very blacke, in so muche that thou shouldest not knowe them in the streetes: their skinne cleaueth to their bones, it is withered and become lyke a drie stocke.
9 They that be slayne with the swoord, are happier then suche as dye of hunger, for these perish away as they were stricken thorowe for the lacke of the fruites of the feelde.
10 The women whiche of nature are pitiful, haue sodden their owne children with their hands, that they might be their meate in the miserable destruction of the daughter of my people.
11 The Lorde hath performed his heauie wrath, he hath powred out the furiousnesse of his displeasure: he hath kyndeled a fyre in Sion, whiche hath consumed the foundations thereof.
12 Neyther the kynges of the earth, nor all the inhabiters of the worlde, would haue beleeued that the enimie and aduersarie should haue come in at the gates of Hierusalem.
13 Whiche neuertheles is come to passe for the sinne of her prophetes, and for the wickednesse of her priestes, that haue shed innocent blood in the myddest of her.
14 As blynde men went they stumbling in the streetes, and stayned them selues with blood, so that the Heathen woulde not touche their garmentes.
15 But they cryed vnto them, Flee ye polluted, away, geat you hence, touche not: for they are vncleane, and be remooued, yea they haue sayde among the heathen, They shal no more dwel there.
16 The " countenance of the Lorde hath banished them, and shall neuer looke more vpon them: for they themselues neyther " regarded the priestes, nor pitied their elders.
17 Wherfore our eyes fayled vs, whyleste we yet looked for our vayne helpe, seeyng we euer wayted vpon a people that coulde doo vs no good.
18 They lay so sharpe wayte for vs, that we can not go safe vppon the streetes, for our ende is at hand, our dayes are fulfylled, our ende is come.
19 Our persecuters are swyfter then the Egles of the " aye: they folowed vpon vs ouer the mountaynes, and layde wayte for vs in the wyldernesse.
20 The very breath b of our " mouth, euen the annoynted of the Lorde hym selfe was taken in their net, of whom we sayde, Vnder his shadowe we shalbe preserued alyue among the heathen.
21 And thou, O daughter Edom, that dwellest in the lande of Hus, be glad and reioyce, for the cup shall come vnto thee also, thou shalt be dronken, and " discouer thy nakednesse.
22 Thy sinnes are fully punyshed, O thou daughter Sion, he wyl no more carrie thee away into captiuitie: but thy wickednesse, O daughter Edom, shal he visite, and wyl discouer thy sinnes.

a. The greatnesse of the punishment beweth their sinnes to exceede the sinnes of the Sodomites. The Sodomites were sodaynly consumed with fire, but the Iewes were miserably tormented with hunger, pestilence, and the swoorde, in a long and cruel warre.

The Prayer of Ieremie.

1 CAll to remembrance (O Lorde) what is come vpon vs, consyder and see our [a] confusion.

2 Our inheritance is turned to the strangers, and our houses to the aliantes.

3 We are vnder linges without fathers, and our mothers are as wydowes.

4 We haue dronken our water for money, and our wood haue we by sale.

5 Our neckes are vnder persecution, we are weerie, and haue no rest.

6 Aforetime we yeelded our selues to the Egyptians, and nowe to the Assyrians, onely that we might haue bread ynough.

7 Our fathers (which nowe are gone) haue sinned, and we must beare their wickednesse.

8 Seruauntes haue the rule of vs, and no man deliuereth vs out of their handes.

9 We must gete our [b] liuing with the perill of our liues, because of the [c] drouth of the wyldernesse.

10 Our skinne is made blacke like as an Ouen, for very sore hunger.

11 They rauished the wiues in Sion, and the maidens in the cities of Iuda.

12 The princes are hanged vp with their enimies hande, they haue not honoured the olde sagemens faces.

13 They haue taken yonng men to grynde, and the boyes fayntED vnder the burden of wood.

14 The elders haue ceassed from the gates, and the young men from their songes.

15 The ioy of our hart is gone, our [a] melodious meeting is turned into mourning.

16 The [a] garland of our head is fallen: alas that euer we sinned.

17 Therfore our hart is full of heauinesse, and for these thinges our eyes are dimme.

18 Because of the hill of Sion that is destroyed: insomuch that the Foxes runne vpon it.

19 But thou, O Lorde, remaynest for euer, and thy seate worlde without ende.

20 Wherefore wylt thou styl forget vs, and forsake vs so long?

21 O Lorde, turne thou vs vnto thee, and so shal we be turned, renue our dayes as in olde tymes:

22 But thou hast banyshed vs vtterly, and hast been exceedyngly displeased at vs.

1. The tyme vvherein Ezechiel propheſied, and in vvhat place. 4. His kinrede. 5. The viſion of the foure beaſtes. 16. The faſhion and vvoorke of the vvheeles. 26. The viſion of the throne.

1 IT came to paſſe in the [a] thirtieth yeere in the fourth Moneth, in the fyfth day of the Moneth, that (I being in the myddes of captiuitie, by the ryuer Chebar) the heauens were opened, and I ſawe viſions of God:

2 In the fyfth day of the Moneth, which was the fyfth yeere of kyng Ioachins captiuitie,

3 The woorde of the Lorde came to Ezechiel the Prieſte, the ſonne of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the ryuer Chebar, where the hande of the Lorde was vpon hym.

4 And I looked, and beholde a ſtormie wynde came out of the North, a great cloude, and a fyre folding it ſelfe in the cloude, and a bryghtneſſe rounde about it, and fourth of the myddes thereof as the colour of Amber out of the myddes of the fyre.

5 And out of the myddes thereof, the lykeneſſe of foure [b] beaſtes appeared, and this was their fourme: They had the lykeneſſe of a man.

6 And

[a] After the Iubilee, in whiche yeere the booke of the law was found, which was the 18. yeere of Iosias ſo that 25. yeres after this boke was found, Iechonias was led awaye captiue with Ezechiel (and many of the people) who the fyfth yeere after ſawe thoſe viſions.

[b] Which the foure Cherubims that preſented the glory of God Ezechiel.

6 And euery one had foure faces, and euery one of them had foure wynges.
7 Their feete were straight feete, and the sole of theyr feete like the sole of Calues feete, and they glistered as the appearance of brasse burnished.
8 From vnder theyr wynges vppon all the foure "corners they had mens handes: and they foure had their faces & their winges.
9 Theyr winges were ioyned one to another: when they went, they looked not backe, but eche one went straight forward.
10 But touchyng the similitude of theyr faces, they foure had the c face of a man, and the face of a Lion on the right side, and they foure had the face of an Oxe on the leaft side, they foure also had the face of an Eagle.
11 Thus were their faces: and their winges were spread out aboue, so that two vvinges of euery one were ioyned one to another, & two vvinges couered euery one of theyr bodyes.
12 Euery one went straight forwarde: d whyther as the spirite led them, thyther they went, and returned not in their goeing.
13 And the fashion of the beastes, their appearance was like coales of fyre, burnyng like the appearance of cressets, it ranne among the beastes, and the fyre gaue a glister, and out of the fyre there went lyghtnyng.
14 And the beastes ranne, and returned like lyghtnyng.
15 When I had consydered the beastes, beholde a wheele vpon the earth nygh to the beastes, to "euery of the foure before his face.
16 The fashion and worke of the wheeles was like the colour of e Tharsis, and they foure had one fashion, and theyr fashion and their worke vvas as though it were a wheele in the middle of a wheele.
17 When they went, they went vppon their foure sides: they turned not when they went.
18 They had f ringes, and height, & were fearefull to beholde: and their rynges were full of eyes rounde about them foure.
19 When the beastes went, the wheeles went also by them: and when the beastes were lyft vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyft vp.
20 Whyther so euer the spirite vvas to goe, they went, and thyther vvas the spirite of the wheeles to goe, and the wheeles were lyft vp before them: for the spirite of the beastes was in the wheeles.
21 When the beastes went, they went, and when they stoode, they stoode, and when they were lyfted vp from the earth, the wheeles were lyfted vp before them: for the spirite of the beastes was in the wheeles.
22 And the similitude of the firmament vpon the heades of the beastes, was lyke the colour of Chrystal, wonderful, spread ouer their heades aboue.
23 And vnder the firmament theyr winges were straight forth one towardes another, euery one had two couering them, & g euery one had two couerynge them, eche theyr bodyes.
24 And when they went, I heard the noyse of theyr winges, like the noyse of many waters, as the voyce of the almightie, the voyce of speache as the noyse of an host: when they stoode, they let downe their winges.
25 And there was a voyce from the fyrmament, that was ouer their heades, when they stoode, & had let downe their winges.
26 And aboue the firmament that was ouer their heades, there was the fashion of a throne lyke a Saphire stone: and vpon the similitude of the throne by appearance, as the similitude of a man aboue vpon it.
27 And I sawe as the appearance of Amber and as the similitude of fyre rounde about within, from the appearance of his loynes vpwarde: and from the appearance of his loynes and downewarde I sawe as the lykenesse of fyre, and brightnesse round about it.
28 As the lykenesse of a bowe that is in a cloude in the day of rayne, so was the appearance of the brightnesse rounde about: this was the appearance of the similitude of the glory of the Lorde, and when I sawe it, I h fel vpon my face, and heard one i that spake vnto the voyce of one.

g. He noteth two maner of couerings, foure with winges, stretched vp-warde to couer theyr faces, and the other with the neather wings to couer theyr bodies.

h. Considering the maiestie of God, and the weakenesse of flesshe.
i That is, the Lorde.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

The prophete is sent to call the people from theyr errour.

1 AND then sayde he vnto me, Stande vp vpon thy feete (O thou sonne of man) and I wyl talke with thee.
2 And the spirite entred into me when he had spoken vnto me, and set me vpon my feete, so that I heard him that spake vnto me.
3 And he sayde vnto me, Thou sonne of man, I sende thee to the chyldren of Israel, to a rebellious people, whiche haue rebelled agaynst me, both they and their forefathers haue wyckedly behaued themselues agaynst me, euen vnto this very day.
4 For they are chyldren of a "harde face, "or, impudent.

and ſtiffe hart, I doo ſende thee vnto them, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God.

5 And whether they wyl heare or refuſe (for they are a rebellious houſe) yet they may knowe that there hath ben a prophete among them.

6 And thou ſonne of man feare them not, neyther be afrayde of their wordes, for "byers and thornes are with thee, and thou doeſt dwel among Scorpions: feare not their wordes, nor be abaſhed at their lookes, for they are a rebellious houſe.

"Or, rebels.

7 And thou ſhalt ſpeake my wordes vnto them, whether they wyl heare or refuſe, for they are rebellious.

"Or, heare.

8 Therefore thou ſonne of man, "obey thou al thinges that I ſay vnto thee, and be not thou rebellious like the rebellious houſe: open thy mouth, and a eate that I geue thee.

a. That is, print in thy memory, or receyue in thine hart al my wordes, as Ezech. 3.

9 And I looked, and beholde a hande was ſent vnto me, and loe, in it was a roule of a booke.

10 And he opened it before me, and it was written within and without, & there was written therein b lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

b. That is, gods iudgementes againſt the wycked.

¶ The .ii. Chapter.

1. The prophete beyng fedde with the worde of God, and with the conſtant boldneſſe of the ſpirite, is ſent vnto the people that were in captiuitie. 17. The office of true preachers.

1 AFter this ſayde he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, eate what ſo euer thou findeſt, eate this roule, and goe thy way, and ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he fedde me with this roule.

3 And he ſaid vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, thy belly ſhal eate, and thy bowels ſhalt thou fyll with this roule that I geue thee: then did I eate, and it was in my mouth as ſweete as hony.

4 And he ſayde vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, goe, geat thee vnto the houſe of Iſrael, and declare my wordes vnto them.

5 For not to a people of "profounde lyppes and harde language art thou ſent, but vnto the houſe of Iſrael:

"Or, ſtrange ſpeache.

6 Not to many nations of a ſtrange ſpeach and harde languages, whoſe wordes thou vnderſtandeſt not: certainely yf I had ſent thee vnto them, they woulde haue hearkened vnto thee.

7 But the houſe of Iſrael wyl not hearken vnto thee, for they wyl not hearken vnto me: For al the houſe of Iſrael haue ſtiffe foreheades, and ſtubburne hartes.

8 Beholde therefore, I haue made thy face ſtrong againſt their faces, and thy forehead ſtrong againſt their foreheades.

9 As an Adamant, harder then the flyne ſtone haue I made thy forehead: thou ſhalt not feare them, nor be abaſhed at their lookes, for they are a rebellious houſe.

10 He ſayd moreouer vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, al my wordes that I ſhal ſpeake vnto thee receyue in thine hart, and harken with thine eares.

11 And goe, geat thee to the captiuitie, to the children of thy people, and thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto them, and ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lord God: but ſurely they wyl not heare, neyther wyl they leaue of.

12 With that the ſpirite tooke me vp, and I hearde behinde me a voyce of a great rushyng, ſo vvyt, Bleſſed be the glory of Iehouah from his place.

13 I heard alſo the noyſe of the wynges of the beaſtes ioyning one with another, and the ratlyng of the wheeles that were before them, euen a noyſe of great rushyng.

14 Nowe when the ſpirite lyft me vp and tooke me away, I went in bitternesſe and furie of my ſpirite: but the hande of the Lorde vpon me was ſtrong.

15 Then I came to the captiues in Thelabib that dwelt by the riuer Chebar, and I ſate where they ſate, and I remayned there ſeuen dayes aſtonished among them.

16 And when the ſeuen dayes were expired, the Lorde ſayde vnto me, 17 Thou ſonne of man, * I haue made thee a watcheman vnto the houſe of Iſrael: therefore thou ſhalt heare the worde at my mouth, and geue them warning from me. *Ezech. 33.

18 When I ſhal ſay vnto the wicked, Thou ſhalt ſurely dye, and thou geueſt not hym warnyng, nor ſpeakeſt to admoniſhe the wicked of his euyl way, and ſo to lyue: then ſhal the ſame vngodly man dye in his owne vnryghteouſneſſe, but his blood wyl I requyre of thine hande.

19 Neuertheleſſe, if thou geue warning vnto the wycked, and he yet turne not from his vngodlineſſe & from his wycked way: he ſhal dye in his owne wyckednesſe, but thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule.

20 Agayne, yf a righteous man turne from his ryghteouſneſſe, and doo the thyng that is euyl, I wyl lay a ſtumblyng blocke before hym: and he ſhal dye, becauſe thou haſt not geuen hym warnyng, dye ſhal he in his owne ſinne, ſo that his ryghteouſneſſe whiche he hath doone ſhal not be thought vpon: but his blood wyl I require at thine hande.

21 Ne-

21 Neuertheleſſe, yf thou admonyſhe that ryghteous man, that the ryghteous ſinne not, & ſo the ryghteous doo not ſinne: then ſhall he lyue, becauſe he hath receyued thy warning, and thou haſt deliuered thy ſoule.

22 And the hand of the Lord was there vpon me, and he ſayde vnto me, "Stand vp, and goe into the feelde, that I may there talke with thee.

23 So when I had ryſen vp, and gone forth into the feelde, beholde the a glory of the Lorde ſtoode there, * lyke the glory whiche I ſawe by the ryuer Chebar: then fell I downe vpon my face.

24 And the ſpirite came into me, whiche ſet me vp vpon my feete, and ſpake vnto me, and ſayd vnto me, "Goe thy way, and ſhut thee ſelfe in thy houſe.

25 Beholde, O thou ſonne of man, "they haue prepared bonds againſt thee, and they wyll bynde thee with them, and thou ſhalt not goe out among them.

26 And I wyll make thy tongue b cleaue to the roofe of thy mouth, that thou ſhalt be dumbe, & not be as a reproouer vnto them: for they are a rebellious houſe.

27 But when I ſpeake vnto thee, I wyl open thy mouth, and thou ſhalt ſay vnto them, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Who ſo heareth, let hym heare, who ſo leaueth of, let hym leaue: for they are a rebellious houſe.

¶ The iiii Chapter.

1. The ſiege of the citie of Hieruſalem is ſignified. 9. The long continuaunce of the captiuitie of Iſrael. 16. A hunger is propheſied to come in the captiuitie.

1 THou ſonne of man, take thee a tileſtone, and laye it before thee, and purtray vpon it the citie of Hieruſalem,

2 And lay ſiege againſt it, and buylde a fort againſt it, and caſt a mount againſt it: ſet the campe alſo againſt it, and lay engins of warre againſt it round about.

3 Moreouer, take an iron panne, and ſet it betwixt thee and the citie for an iron wall, then ſet thy face toward it to beſiege it, and make an aſſault againſt it: this ſhalbe a token vnto the houſe of Iſrael.

4 But thou ſhalt ſleepe vppon thy left ſyde, and laye the ſinne a of the houſe of Iſrael vpon it: according to the number of the daies that thou ſhalt ſleepe vpon it, thou ſhalt beare their iniquitie.

5 For I haue layde vpon thee the yeeres of their iniquitie, accordyng to the number of the dayes, euen three hundred and nyentie "dayes, ſo ſhalt thou beare the iniquitie of the houſe of Iſrael.

6 When thou haſt fulfylled theſe dayes, lye downe againe, and ſleepe vpon thy b ryght ſide, * and beare the ſinnes of the houſe of Iuda: fourty dayes haue I appoynted thee, c a day for a yeere, euen a day for a yeere.

7 Therefore ſet nowe thy face towarde the ſiege of Hieruſalem, & diſcouer thine arme, that thou mayeſt propheſie againſt it.

8 Beholde, I wyl laye "chaynes vpon thee, that thou ſhalt not turne thee from one ſyde to another, tyl thou haſt ended the dayes of thy beſiegyng.

9 Wherefore take vnto thee Wheate, Barley, Beanes, Lintels, Millot, and Fitches, and put theſe togeather in a veſſell, & make thee loaues of bread therof, according to the number of the daies "that thou muſt lie vpon thy ſyde, that thou mayeſt haue bread to eate for three hundred and nientie dayes.

10 And the meate that thou eateſt ſhalbe by weyght, namely, twentie ſicles euery day: and from tyme to tyme ſhalt thou eate therof.

11 Thou ſhalt drynke alſo water by meaſure, namely, the ſyxth part of a Hin: from tyme to tyme ſhalt thou drynke.

12 Barley cakes ſhalt thou eate, and them ſhalt thou bake in d mans doung before their eyes.

13 And with that ſayde the Lorde, Euen thus ſhal the chyldren of Iſrael eate their defyled bread among the Gentiles, whither I wyl caſt them.

14 Then ſayde I, Oh Lorde God, beholde, my ſoule was yet neuer ſtayned, for fro my youth vp vnto this houre, I dyd neuer eate of a dead carkaſſe, or of that whiche was ſlayne of wylde beaſtes, neyther came there euer any vncleane fleſhe in my mouth.

15 Wherunto he anſwered me, Loe, I wyl graunt thee e towealins in ſteade of mans doung, and thou ſhalt make thy bread with them.

16 And he ſayde vnto me, * Beholde thou ſonne of man, I wyll breake the f ſtaffe of bread in Hieruſalem, & they ſhall eate their bread with weight and with care, and their water in meaſure, and aſtonyſhment ſhal they drynke, 17 That they hauyng a lacke of bread and water, may be aſtonied one of another, and be conſumed in their iniquitie.

¶ The v. Chapter.

1. The ſigne of the heares, by vvhich is ſignified the deſtruction of the people. 6. The cauſes of the anger of God towarde the people.

1 AND thou ſonne of man, take thee then a ſharpe knyfe, namely, a Barbers rac. That is, for euery yere they haue ſinned, to ſleepe one day.

"Or, bandes.

"Or, thou muſt ſleepe.

d. ſignifyng hereby the great ſcarcitie of fuel and water to burne.

e. To be as fire to bake thy bread with.

* Ezec. 5. 17.

f. That is, the force and ſtrength wherewith it ſhoulde nouriſhe.

ſer, take that to thee, and cauſe it to a paſſe vpon thy head and vpon thy beарde: then take thee weyght ſcales and diuide the heare.

a. To ſhaue thy head and breath.

2 Thou ſhalt burne with fyre the thirde part in the myddes of the b citie, when the dayes of the ſiege are fulfylled, and thou ſhalt take the other third part, & ſmite about it with a knife, and the laſt thirde part thou ſhalt ſcatter in the winde, and I wyll draw out a ſwoord after them.

b. To wyt, of ỳ citie whiche he had purtrayed vppon the bricke. Chap. 4. By the fire he meaneth famine, and peſtilence, wherwith one part periſhed during the ſiege of Nabuchodonozor: by the ſwoord, thoſe that were ſlaine when Zedecias fledde, thoſe that were carryed awaye captiue: and by the ſcatteryng into the winde, thoſe that fled into Egypt, and into other partes after the citie was taken.

3 Thou ſhalt alſo take thereof a fewe in number, and binde them in thy lap.

4 Of them yet ſhalt thou take, and caſt them into the middeſt of the fyre, and burne them in the fyre: therof ſhal a fyre come forth into al the houſe of Iſrael.

5 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde God, This ſame is Hieruſalem, which I ſtāt the middes of nations and countreys round about her.

6 But ſhe hath changed my iudgmentes into wickednеſſe more then the nations, and my ſtatutes more then the countreys that are rounde about her: for they haue refuſed my iudgmentes and my ſtatutes, and haue not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, For your c multiplyng more then the Gentiles that dwell rounde about you, and becauſe ye haue not walked in my lawes, neyther haue ye kept my ordinances, no, ye haue not doone accordyng to the iudgementes of the nations that are rounde about you:

c. Becauſe ye haue encreaſed the number of your idols, and ſuperſtitions, more then the Gentiles.

8 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyll alſo come againſt thee, I mee ſelfe I ſay: for in the middeſt of thee wyll I execute iudgement in the ſyght of the heathen.

9 And I wyll doo in thee as I neuer dyd before and as I wyll neuer doo the like from that time forth, and that becauſe of al thyne abominations.

10 For in the middeſt of thee the fathers ſhal eate their owne ſonnes, and the ſonnes ſhall eate their owne fathers, and I wyll execute iudgement in thee, and the whole remnant of thee wyll I ſcatter into all the windes.

11 Wherefore, as truely as I liue, ſayth the Lorde God, Surely ſeeing thou haſt defyled my ſanctuarie with al maner of abominations, and with al ſhameful offences.

12 For this cauſe wyll I alſo deſtroy thee, myne eye ſhall not ſpare thee, neither wyl I haue any pitie.

13 One thirde part of thee ſhal dye of the peſtilence, and ſhalbe cōſumed of hunger in the middes of thee, another third parte ſhalbe ſlayne downe rounde about thee with the ſwoorde, the other thirde part that remayneth wyll I ſcatter abrode towarde al the windes, and drawe out a ſwoorde after them.

14 Thus wyll myne indignation be perfourmed, and I wyll cauſe my wrath to ceaſſe among them, and I wyl be d comforted: ſo that when I haue fulfylled mine anger againſt them, they ſhal knowe that I the Lorde with a feruent zeloſie haue ſpoken it.

d. That is I wyl not be proūcified yll it be reuenged. Eſai. 1.

15 Moreouer, I wyll make thee waſte, and a reproche among all the heathen that dwel about thee, in the ſyght of all them that goe by thee.

19 So thou ſhalt be a reproche & ſhame, a chaſtiſement and a woondring vnto the nations that are rounde about thee, when I ſhal execute iudgementes in thee, in anger and in wrath, and in ſharpe rebukes, I the Lorde haue ſpoken it:

17 When I ſhall ſhoote among them the perillous e dartes of hunger, which ſhalbe for their deſtruction, therefore ſhall I ſhoote them, becauſe I wyl deſtroy you, I wyll encreaſe hunger vpon you, & wyl breake your ſtaffe of bread.

e. Which the Grashopper, mildewe and what ſo euer were cauſe of famine.

18 "Plagues wyl I ſend vpon you, yea and wicked beaſtes alſo to ſpoile thee, peſtilence and bloodſhedding ſhall come vpon thee, and the ſwoorde wyl I bring ouer thee: I the Lorde haue ſpoken it.

" Or, famine.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

1. He ſhewyth that the people ſhalbe plagued for the ſinne of idolatrie.

1 AND the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thou ſonne of man, * ſet thy face to the mountaynes of Iſrael, and propheſie againſt them.

* Exo. 38.

3 And ſay, Heare the woord of the Lorde God, O ye mountaynes of Iſrael, Thus hath the Lorde God ſpoken to the a mountaynes, hilles, riuers, and dales, Behold euen I wyl bring a ſwoord vpon you, and I wyll deſtroy your high places.

a. He ſpeaketh to all the places where the Idolaters accuſtomed to commit their idolatrie, threatening the deſtruction.

4 Your aulters ſhalbe deſtroyed, and your images of the ſunne ſhalbe broken downe, your ſlayne men wyl I caſt downe before your idols.

5 And the dead carkaſſes of the chyldren of Iſrael wyll I * caſt before their idolles, your bones wyll I ſcatter rounde about your aulters.

* Or, lay.

6 In al your dwellyng places your cities ſhalbe shalbe desolate, and the hygh places layde waste, so that your aulters shalbe made waste and desolate, your idolles shalbe broken [a] and abolished, and your images of the sunne shalbe cut downe, and your workes quite taken away.

7 The slayne shal fal among you: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

8 Yet wyl I leaue a remnant, that you may haue some that shal escape the swoorde among the nations, when ye shalbe scattered throughe the countreyes.

9 And they that escape of you shal thynke vppon me among the heathen where they shalbe in captiuitie, because I haue ben [b]broken: for theyr whorishe hart whiche hath departed from me, and for theyr eyes that haue gone a whoring after their idols: and [c] they shalbe abhorred before theyr owne eyes for the euyls whiche they haue committed in al their abominations.

10 And they shall knowe that I am the Lorde, and that I haue not sayde in vayne, that I woulde doo this euyl vnto them.

11 Thus sayth the Lorde God, [d] Smite thine handes togeather, and stampe with thy feete, & say, Woe worth al the abominations and wickednesses of the house of Israel: for they shal fal with the swoorde, with hunger, and with pestilence.

12 Who so is farre of, shal dye of the pestilence, he that is nigh at hande, shal perysshe with the swoorde, & the remnant that are besieged, shal dye of hunger: thus wyl I satisfie my wrathful displeasure vpon them.

13 And so shal ye knowe that I am the Lord, when theyr slayne men shalbe among theyr idols rounde about their aulters, vpon euery hygh hyl, & toppes of mountaynes, and vnder euery greene tree, and vnder euery thicke oke, euen in the places where they did offer sweete sauour to al theyr idolles.

14 I wyl stretch mine hand out vpon them, and wyl make the land waste and desolate, [e] from the wyldernesse vnto Diblath, throwe al theyr habitations: and they shall knowe that I am the Lorde.

a. Some reade, more desolate then the wyldernesse of Diblath, which was in Syria, and bordered vpon Israel. but it may stande well for ỹ wyldernesse which was South vnto Diblath, which was North, meaning the whole countrey.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1. The ende of al the lande of Israel shal sodaynely come. 20. The cause of the destruction thereof. 23. The prophete is commaunded to shewe the summe of the euyls that are at hande.

1 The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 And thou sonne of man, thus sayth the Lorde God, An ende is come vnto the lande of Israel: yea verily the ende commeth vpon the foure corners of the lande.

3 Nowe shal the ende come vpon thee: for I wyl sende my wrath vpon thee, and wyl [a] punishe thee according to thy wayes, and [b] rewarde thee after al thine abominations.

4 Mine eye shal not spare thee, neyther wyl I haue pitie, but [b] rewarde thee according to thy wayes, and declare thine abominations: then shal ye knowe that I am the Lorde.

5 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, one euyl shal come after another:

6 The ende is here, the ende I say is come, it watched for thee: beholde it is come already.

7 The [a] morning is come vnto thee that dwellest in the lande, the tyme is at hande, the day of trouble is harde by, and not the [b] soundyng agayne of the mountaynes.

8 Nowe I wyl shortly powre out my sore displeasure ouer thee, and fulfyl my wrath vpon thee: I wyl iudge thee after thy wayes, and recompence thee al thine abominations.

9 Mine eye shal not spare, neyther wyl I haue pitie, but [a] rewarde thee after thy wayes, and thine abominations shalbe in the middest of thee: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde that smiteth.

10 Beholde the day, beholde it is come, the morning is gone forth, the rodde [c] flourisheth, pryde hath budded, 11 Crueltie is waxen to a rodde of wickednesse, none of them shal remayne, none of theyr rychesse, [a] not one of theyr seede, and no lamentation shalbe made for them.

12 The tyme commeth, the day draweth nygh: who so buyeth, let hym not reioyce, he that selleth, let hym not be sorye: for wyl wrath is vpon al the multitude thereof.

13 So that the seller shal not come agayne to the thyng that he solde, although theyr lyfe be [d] yet with the lyuing: for when the prophesie was preached vnto al the people, none returned, no man shal [e] strengthen him selfe in the iniquitie of his lyfe.

14 [f] They haue blowen the trumpette, and made al redy, but none goeth to the battel: for my wrath is vppon the whole multitude.

15 The swoorde shalbe without, pestilence and hunger within: so that who so is in the feelde shalbe slayne with the swoorde, and he that is in the citie, shalbe deuoured with hunger and pestilence.

16 But they that flee away from them, shal escape, and shalbe in the mountaynes lyke

a. That is, iudge thee.
b. That is, lay vpon thee.

a. That is, I wyll lay thy wayes vpon thee, and thyne abominations shalbe in the middest of thee.

a. That is, the beginning of thy punishment
b. That is, no vayne or counterfayte crye, as is the ecco in the hylles.

a. That is, lay vpon thee.

c. Meanyng Nabuchodonosor, whom God had appoynted to be a rod to scourge them.
a. That is, none of their pleasures.

d That is, in the yeere of Iubilee, when euery man returned to such possessions as he sold before. Leuit. 25.
e. Iniquitie shal make no man strong against God.
f. The Israelites made a bragge, but theyr hartes fayled them.

the dores of the valleyes, all they shall mourne, euery one for his iniquitie.

17 Al handes shalbe let do[wn], and al knees flyt[e] weare as the water.

Mat.15. 3. Iere.48.37.

18 *They shal girde them selues with sackcloth, feare shal couer them, shame shalbe vpon al faces, and baldnesse vpon theyr heades.

19 Their siluer shal they cast foorth in the streetes, *and theyr golde shalbe despysed: yea theyr syluer and golde shal not be able to deliuer them in the day of the wrath of the Lord, they shal not satisfie theyr soules, neyther fyl theyr *bellies therewith, because g it *was a stumbling blocke of theyr iniquitie.

*Prou.11.4. Eccl.5. 13. Soph.1. 18.

*Or, bowels.

g. Their gold and syluer brought them to this ruine or destruction.

20 He had also set the beautie of his h ornament in maiestie: but they made images of theyr abominations and *fylthinesse in it, therefore haue I set it farre from them.

*Or, this ruine is for their iniquitie.

h. Meanyng the sanctuarie.

21 Moreouer, I wyl geue it into the handes of strangers to be spoyled, and to the wycked of the earth for to be robbed, and they shal pollute it.

*Or, idolles.

22 My face wyl I turne from them, my secrete place shalbe defiled: for *burglers shal goe into it, and pollute it.

*Or, destroyers.

23 Make a chayne: for the land is ful of the i iudgement of blood, and the citie is ful of extortion.

i. That is, of sinnes that deserue death.

24 Wherefore I wyl bryng the most wycked of the heathen to take theyr houses in possession, I wyl make the pompe of the mightie to ceasse, and their k sanctuaries shalbe defyled.

k. That is, theyr temple which was diuided into three partes. Ieremi.61.

25 When destruction is come, they shal seke peace, but they shal haue none.

26 One mischiefe shal folowe another, and one rumour shal come after another: then shal they seeke a vision in vayne at their Prophete, the lawe shal perishe from the priest, and counsel from the auncientes.

27 The king shal mourne, the prince shalbe clothed with desolation, and the handes of the people in the lande shalbe troubled: I wil doo vnto them after their owne waies, accordyng to theyr owne iudgementes wyl I iudge them: and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

¶ The viii. Chapter.

1. An appearance of the similitude of GOD. 3. Ezechiel is brought to Hierusalem in the Spirite. 6. The Lorde sheweth the idolatries of the house of Israel, and cheefely of the priestes.

2. Of the captiuitie of Iechonias, so that there was fourtiene monethes betwixt the first vision and this.

1 AND it was in the a first yeere, in the first moneth, in the fifth day of the moneth, I sate in my house, and the elders of Iuda sate before me, and the hande of the Lorde God fel there vpon me.

2 Then I beheld, and loe, there was a likenesse as the appearance of fyre: from the appearance of his loynes downeward, fyre: and from his loynes vpwarde as the appearance of brightnesse, like the colour of Amber.

3 *And he stretched out the likenesse of an hande, and tooke me by an hearte locke of my head, and the spirite lyft me vp betwixt earth and heauen, and b brought me in a diuine vision to Hierusalem, into the entrie of the inner c gate that lyeth towarde the North, where remayned the *image of emulation and of gayne.

*Dan.13.35

b. This was in the spirite, and not in body.

c. The porche or court where the people assembled.

*Or, idoll.

d. Of emulation, because it displeased God of gayne, because it was set vp and worshipped for gayne and increase of their offeryngs, for the priestes and of their carel and substance, for the people.

4 And beholde, the glory of the God of Israel was in the same place, euen as I had seene it afore in the feelde.

5 And he sayde vnto me, Thou sonne of man, lyft vp thine eyes nowe towarde the North: then lyft I vp mine eyes towarde the North, and beholde northwarde at the gate of the e aulter this *image of emulation was in the entrie,

e. That was in the court where the people had made an aulter to Baal.

*Or, idoll.

6 And he sayd furthermore vnto me, Thou sonne of man, seest thou not what these doo? namely the great abominations that the house of Israel commit in this place, to driue me from my sanctuarie? But turne thee about, and thou shalt see yet greater abominations.

7 And with that brought he me to the court gate, and when I looked, beholde there was a hole in the wal.

8 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, digge nowe in the wal: and when I digged in the wall, beholde there was a doore.

9 And he sayde vnto me, Goe thy way in, and looke what wicked abominations they doo here.

10 So I went in and sawe, and beholde, there were al maner of creeping thynges, f and abominable beastes, and al the idols of the house of Israel paynted vppon the wal rounde about.

f. Which were forbidden in the law. Leuit.11

11 Therefore stoode also before the images threescore and ten men of the auncientes of the house of Israel, and in the middest of them stoode Iaazaniah the sonne of Saphan, with euery man his censer in his hande, and the smoke of the incense ascended as a cloude.

*Or, in the darke.

g. For both their common idolatrie they had their particuler seruice in their secrete places of prayer.

12 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, hast thou seene what the auncientes of the house of Israel doo *secretely, euery one in the g chamber of his imagerie? for they say, The Lorde seeth vs not, the

Lorde

Lorde hath forsaken the earth.

13 And he sayde vnto me, Turne thee yet agayne, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 And with that he brought me to the doore of the gate of the Lordes house towarde the North, and behold there sate women mourning for h Thammuz.

15 Then sayde he vnto me, Hast thou seene this, thou sonne of man? Turne thee yet about, and thou shalt see greater abominations then these are.

16 And so he brought me into the inwarde court of the Lordes house, and beholde, at the doore of the Lordes house, betwyxt the porche and the aulter, there were about twentie & fyue men that turned ther backes vpon the temple of the Lord, and their faces towarde the East, and these worshipped the Sunne Eastwarde.

17 And he sayde vnto me, Hast thou seene this thou sonne of man? Thynketh the house of Juda that it is but a trifle to doo these abominations whiche they do here? for they haue fylled the lande full of wickednesse, and haue returned to prouoke me to anger, and loe, i they are puttyng the *branches to their noses.

18 Therfore wyl I also do somethyng in my wrathful displeasure, so that myne eye shall not spare them, neyther wyll I haue pitie: yea, and though they crye in myne eares with a loude voyce, yet wyll I not heare them.

h The Iewes fayne this was a prophete of the Iewes, who after his death was once a yeere lamented for in the vngle, only of women. Saint Hierome taketh him for Adonis, Venus louer. Other thinke it was Osyrian idol of the Egyptians.

i They smelled on their branches, flowres, or posies in doyng their sacrifice to Venus, whiche yet before God was vile & stinking, how sweet so euer they seemed to them selues.

* Or, such.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1. The destruction of the citie. 4. They that shalbe saued, are marked. 8. A complaynt of the prophete for the destruction of the people.

1 HE cryed also with a loude voyce in mine eares, saying, Drawe neare ye a visitations of the citie, euery man with a destroying weapon in his hande.

a. The persons appoynted to ruine the citie, as Nabuchodonosor and his captaynes.

2 And beholde, then came there b fyue men out of the streete of the vpper gate towarde the North, and euery man a slaughter weapon in his hande: There was one amongst them that had on hym lynnen rayment, and a wryters c Inckhorne by his syde: these went in, and stoode besyde the brasen aulter.

b. Which were fiue angels, in likenes of men.

3 And the glory of the GOD of Israel was gone from the Cherub whereupon it was, to the doore of the house: and he called to the man that had the lynnen rayment vpon hym, and the wryters Inckhorne by his syde.

c. To marke them that should be saued from destruction.

4 And the Lord sayd vnto hym, Go through the myddest of the citie, euen through the myddest of Hierusalem, * and set a marke vppon the foreheades of them that mourne and * are sory for all the abominations that be done therein.

* Exo.12.22 Apoc.7.3.

* Or, crye.

5 And to the other he sayde, that I myght heare, Goe ye after hym through the citie, and smite, let your eyes spare none, neyther haue ye any pitie:

6 Kyl and destroy both old men and young, maydens, chyldren, and women: but as for all those that haue the marke vpon them, see that ye touche them not, and begynne at my sanctuarie. Then they began at the auncient men which were before the house.

7 And he sayde vnto them, Defyle ye the temple, fyl the courtes with the slayne, then goe your way forth. So they went out, and slue downe through the citie.

8 Nowe when they had done the slaughter, and I yet escaped, I fell downe vppon my face, and cryed, saying, Ah Lorde GOD, wylt thou then destroy all the residue of Israel, in powryng out thy wrath vpon Hierusalem?

9 Then sayde he vnto me, The wyckednesse of the house of Israel and Juda is exceeding great, so that the lande is ful of blood, and the citie full of reuolting from God: for they say, The Lorde hath forsaken the earth, and the Lorde seeth it not.

10 As touchyng me also, myne eye shall not spare them, neyther wyl I haue pitie: but wyll recompence their wayes vppon their heades.

11 And behold, the man that had the linnen rayment vpon hym, and the wryters Inckhorne by his syde, reported the matter, and said, As thou hast commaunded me, so haue I done.

¶ The.x. Chapter.

Of the man that tooke hot burnyng coales out of the myddle of the wheeles of the Cherubims.

1 AND as I looked, beholde, in the firmament that was aboue the head of the Cherubims, as it were a Saphire stone made lyke the similitude of a throne, was seene ouer them.

a. Whiche is the first capt. and fyfth verse he called the foure beastes.

2 Then spake he to hym that had the linnen rayment vppon hym, and sayde, * Creepe in betweene the wheeles that are vnder the Cherub, and take thyne handefull of hot coales out from betweene the Cherubims, and scatter them ouer the citie. And he crept

* Or, goe.

*Or, went in.

crept in, that I myght ſee.

3 (Nowe the Cherubims ſtoode vppon the ryght ſyde of the houſe when the man went in, and the cloude fylled the inner court.

4 And the glory of the Lord remooued from the Cherubims, and came vpon the dooze of the houſe: ſo that the temple was filled with a cloude, and the court was full of the ſhine of the Lordes glorie.

5 Yea, and the ſounde of the Cherubims wynges was hearde into the fore court, like as it had ben the voyce of the almighty God when he ſpeaketh)

6 Nowe when he had bydden the man that was clothed in lynnen, ſaying, Take fire from the myddeſt of the wheeles, and from the middeſt of the Cherubims: he went and ſtoode beſyde the wheeles.

7 Then one Cherub reached forth his hand from betweene the Cherubims, vnto the fire that was betweene the Cherubims, and tooke therof, and gaue it into the handes of hym that had on the linnen rayment: which tooke it, and went out.

8 And vnder the wynges of the Cherubims there appeared the lykeneſſe of a mans hande.

9 I looked alſo, and beholde, foure wheeles beſide the Cherubims, one wheele by one Cherub, and another by another Cherub, and the wheeles were to looke vppon after the faſhion of the pretious ſtone Tharſis.

10 As touching their appearance (they were al foure of one faſhion) as if one wheele had ben in another.

11 When they went forth, they went vpon their foure ſides, not turnyng backe in their goyng: for whiche way the head of the fyrſte looked, after it they wēt, ſo that they turned not backe in their goyng.

12 *And their whole bodyes, their backes, their hands, & wynges, yea, and the wheeles alſo, were full of eyes rounde about the foure wheeles.

*Ezech. 1. 8.

13 And to the wheeles, he cryed to them in my hearyng, O wheele.

14 Euery one of them had foure faces, ſo that the face of the fyrſte was the face of a Cherub, and the face of the ſeconde the face of a man, and of the thirde the face of a Liō, and of the fourth the face of an Eagle.

15 And the Cherubims were lyfted vp: this is the beaſt that I ſawe at the water Chebar.

16 Nowe when the Cherubims went, and the wheeles went by them: and when the Cherubims lyft vp their wynges to mount vp from the earth, the ſame wheeles alſo turned not from beſides them.

17 Shortly when they ſtoode, theſe ſtoode alſo, and when they were lyfted vp, the wheeles lyft vp them ſelues alſo with them: for the b ſpirite of the beaſt was in the wheeles.

b. There was one conſent betweene the Cherubims and the wheles.

18 Then the glory of the Lorde departed frō aboue the dooze of the temple, and remayned vpon the Cherubims.

19 And the Cherubims ſtackered with their wynges, and lyft them ſelues vp from the earth in my ſight: when they went, the wheeles were beſides them, and they ſtoode at the dooze of the Eaſt gate of the houſe of the Lord: for the glory of the God of Iſrael was vpon them on hygh.

20 *This is the beaſt that I ſawe vnder the God of Iſrael by the riuer Chebar, and I perceiued that it was the Cherubims.

*Ezech. 1. 4. c. That is the whole bodye of the foure beaſtes or Cherubims.

21 Euery one had foure faces, and euery one foure wynges, and vnder their wynges the lykeneſſe of mens handes.

22 The ſimilitude of their countenaunces, were the very ſame countenaunces which I ſawe at the riuer Chebar, and the ſelf ſame appearances, euery one in his goyng went ſtrayght forwarde.

¶ The .x. Chapter.

1. Who they were that ſeduced the people of Iſrael. 5 Againſt theſe he propheſieth, ſhewing them how they ſhalbe diſpearſed abrode.

1 MOreouer, the ſpirite lyft me vp, and brought me vnto the Eaſt gate of the Lords houſe, which lieth Eaſtward: and beholde, at the entrie of the gate were fyue and twentie men, among whom I ſaw Iaazaniah the ſonne of Azur, and Pheltiah the ſonne of Banaiahu, the rulers of the people.

2 Then ſayde he vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, theſe men imagine miſchiefe, and a wicked counſayle take they in this citie,

a. We ſhal not be pulled out of Hieruſalem, tyl the houre of our death come, as the fleſhe is not taken out of the caldron tyll it be ſodde.

3 Saying, It is not neare, let vs buylde houſes: this Hieruſalem is the a caldron, and we be the fleſhe.

4 Therefore ſhalt thou propheſie againſt them: yea propheſie, O ſonne of man.

5 And with that fell the ſpirite of the Lorde vpon me, and ſayde vnto me, Speake, thus ſaith the Lorde, On this maner haue ye ſpoken (O ye houſe of Iſrael) and I knowe the imaginations of your hartes.

b. Conſtrayned to their owne confuſion: for els they were in what ſenſe this citie was the caldron, and it is becauſe of the dead bodyes that haue been murdred therin, and ſo be as the fleſhe in the caldron.

6 Many one haue ye murdered in this citie, and fylled the ſtreetes full of the ſlayne:

7 Therefore thus ſayth the Lord God, The ſlayne men that ye haue layd in the myddeſt of the citie are the b fleſhe, and this citie is the caldron: but I wyll bryng you out of it.

8 Ye

8 Ye haue feared the ſwoord, and I wyll bring a ſwoord ouer you, ſayth the lord God.
9 And I wyll bring you out of the midſt therof, and deliuer you into the handes of ſtrangers, and wyl execute iudgementes among you.
10 Ye ſhal fal by the ſwoord, in the borders of c Iſrael wyll I iudge you, and ye ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde.
11 This citie ſhal not be your Caldron, neither ſhal ye be the fleſhe in the middeſt therof: but in the borders of Iſrael wyl I "punyſhe you,
12 That ye may knowe that I am the lord, in whoſe commaundementes ye haue not walked, nor kept my lawes, but haue doone after the cuſtomes of the Heathen that lye round about you.
13 Nowe when I prophecied, d Pheltiah the ſonne of Banaiahu dyed, then fell I downe vpon my face, and cryed with a loud voyce, ſaying, Ah lord God, wylt thou then vtterly deſtroy al the remnant in Iſrael?
14 And ſo the woord of the Lord came vnto me on this maner,
15 Thou ſonne of man, thy brethren euen thy brethren the men of thy kinrede, and all the houſe of Iſrael, wholly are they vnto whom the inhabitantes of Hieruſalem haue ſayd, e Withdrawe ye farre from the Lorde, for the land is geuen vs in poſſeſſion.
16 Therefore tell them thus ſayth the Lorde God, Although I ſende them far of among the Gentiles, and ſcatter them among the nations, yet wyl I be to them as a little f ſanctuarie in the landes where they ſhall come.
17 Tel them alſo, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, I wyll geather you agayne out of the nations, and bring you from the countreys where ye be ſcattered, and I wyl geue you the land of Iſrael agayne.
18 And they ſhal come thyther, & they ſhall take away al their idolles, and al their abominations from thence.
19 *And I wyll geue them one hart, and I wyl put a newe ſpirit within their bowels: that ſtony hart wyll I take out of their body, and geue them a fleſhly hart, 20 That they may walke in my commaundementes, and keepe myne ordinances, and doo them, that they may be my people, and I their God.
21 But to the hart of their idols and their abominatiõs their hart goeth, their wayes wyl I bring vpon their owne heades, ſayth the Lorde God.
22 After this dyd the Cherubims lyft vp their wynges, & the wheeles beſides them, and the glory of the God of Iſrael was vpon them on high.
23 So the glory of the Lorde went vp from the middeſt of the citie, and ſtoode vpon the mount of the citie toward the Eaſt.
24 And the ſpirite tooke me vp, & brought me agayne to Chaldea to the captiuitie in a viſion by the ſpirite of GOD: then the viſion that I had ſeene went vp from me.
25 So I ſpake vnto the g captiues all the woordes of the Lorde which he had ſhewed me.

g. Thoſe that were led away captiues with Ieconias.

a That is, in Babylon. kin. 24

d It ſeemed this noble man dyed of ſome terrible death, therefore the prophet feared ſome ſtrange iudgement of God toward the reſt of the people.

e They that remayned ſtyl at Hieruſalem, thus reproched them that were gone into captiuitie, as though they were caſt of and forſaken of God.

f They ſhal be yet a little Church whom he wyl preſerue, though they be diſpeared, and for a time afflicted.

*Ier. 32. 39. Ezec. 36. 27.

¶ The .xii. Chapter.

1. The parable of the captiuitie. 10. The expoſition of the parable, by vvhiche the taking of king Zedecias is ſignified.

1 THE woord of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,
2 Thou ſonne of man, thou dwelleſt in the midſt of a rebellious houſe, whiche haue eyes to ſee, and yet ſee not, eares haue they to heare, and yet heare they not: for they are a rebellious houſe.
3 Therefore (O thou ſonne of man) * prepare thee inſtrumentes to flyt with, and remoone on the day time that they may ſee, yea euen in their ſight ſhalt thou goe from thy place to another place, yf peraduenture they wyl conſyder that they be a rebellious houſe.
4 Thou ſhalt bring foorth thyne inſtrumentes as ſtuffe to flyt with by the day time in their ſight, and thou thee ſelfe ſhalt goe foorth alſo at euenyng before their eyes, as they that goe foorth to flyt.
5 Digge through the wal in their ſight, and carry out thereby.
6 In their ſight ſhalt thou beare vppon thy ſhoulders, and carry it foorth in the darke: hide thy face, that thou ſee not the earth, for I haue made thee a a ſhewe token vnto the houſe of Iſrael.
7 And I dyd ſo as I was commaunded, I brought forth my ſtuffe by day, as the ſtuffe of one that goeth into captiuitie: and in the euenyng I digged through the wall with my handes, and brought it foorth in the darke, and bare it vppon my ſhoulder in their ſight.
8 And in the morning came the word of the Lorde vnto me, ſaying, 9 Thou ſonne of man, hath not the houſe of Iſrael, the rebellious houſe, ſayd vnto thee, b What doeſt thou?
10 Then tell them, thus ſayth the Lorde God, This "burden toucheth the prince at Hieruſalem, and al the houſe of Iſrael that dwell a make thee veſſels to goe into captiuitie.

a. That as thou dooeſt, ſo ſhall they doo, and therefore in thee they ſhall ſee their owne plague and puniſhment.

b. Doo not they deride and mocke thy doinges.

"Or, prophecie.

dwell among them.

11 Tell them, I am your ſhewe token, like as I haue done, ſo ſhall it be doone vnto thē, they ſhall go into bondage & captiuitie.

12 The prince that is among them ſhal loade his ſhoulders in the darke, and get him away, they ſhal breake downe the wal, to carry through by it: he ſhal couer his face, that he ſee not the ground with his eyes.

a. When the king ſhal thinke to eſcape by fleeing, I wyll take him in my net, as Ezec. 17. and 32.

13 My net wyll I c ſpreade out vppon him, and he ſhalbe caught in my net, and I wyl bring him to Babylon in the lande of the Chaldees, which he ſhall not ſee, and yet ſhal he dye there.

c ſeeles.

14 As for all his helpers and all his bandes that be about him, I wyl ſcatter them toward al the windes, and drawe out a ſworde after them.

15 So when I haue ſcattered them among the heathen, & ſtrawed them in the landes, they ſhal know that I am the Lorde.

16 But I wyl leaue a little number of them from the ſworde, hunger, and peſtilence, to tell all their abominations among the heathen where they come, that they may know howe that I am the Lord.

17 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying, 18 Thou ſonne of man, with a feareful trembling eate thy bread, with vnquietneſſe and ſorowe drinke thy water.

19 And vnto the people of the lande ſpeake thou, Thus ſayth the Lord God vpon them that dwel in Hieruſalem, & vpon the lande of Iſrael, They ſhall eate their bread with ſorowe, and drinke their water with deſolation, yea the land after plentifulneſſe ſhalbe layde waſte, for the wickednеſſe of all them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that nowe be well inhabited, ſhalbe voyde, and the lande deſolate, that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

21 Yet came the woord of the Lorde vnto me agayne, ſaying, 22 Thou ſonne of man, what maner of prouerbe is that which ye vſe in the land of Iſrael, ſaying, d The dayes are ſlacke in comming, and al viſions fayle?

b Becauſe they dyd not ſee the propheſies accompliſhed, they contemned them as though they neuer ſhould be fulfilled.

23 Tell them therefore, thus ſayth the Lord God, I wyll make that prouerbe to ceaſe, and they ſhal no more vſe it as a prouerbe in Iſrael: but ſay vnto them, The dayes are at hand, and the effect of euery viſion.

24 There ſhall no viſion be any more in vayne, neyther any flattering diuination within the houſe of Iſrael:

25 For I the Lorde ſpeake it, and what ſoeuer I ſhall ſpeake, it ſhalbe performed, and not be ſlacke in comming any more, yea euen in your dayes, O rebellious houſe, wil I ſpeake the thing, and bring it to paſſe, ſayth the Lorde God.

26 And the woord of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

27 Behold thou ſonne of man, the houſe of Iſrael ſayth on this maner, The viſion that he ſeeth, it wylbe many a day or it come to paſſe: it is farre of yet the time that he propheſieth of.

28 Therefore ſay vnto them, thus ſayth the Lorde God. Al my woordes ſhal no more be delayed, looke what I ſpeake, that ſame ſhall come to paſſe, ſayth the Lorde God.

¶ The. xiii Chapter.

The vvord of the Lorde againſt falſe prophetes, vvhich teache the people the counſels of their owne hartes.

1 THE * woord of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying, * Ezec. 14.

2 Thou ſonne of man, propheſie againſt thoſe prophetes of Iſrael, whiche propheſie, and ſay vnto them that propheſie of their owne hartes, Heare the woord of the Lorde,

3 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Woe be vnto thoſe fooliſhe prophetes that folowe their owne ſpirite, and haue ſeene nothyng.

4 O Iſrael, thy prophetes are like the Foxes in a deſart places.

a. Watching to deſtroy the vineyardes, reade Cantick.

5 For ye haue not ſtande vp in the gappes, nor made a hedge for the houſe of Iſrael, to ſtand in the battayle in the day of the Lorde.

6 They haue ſeene vanitie and lying diuination, ſaying, The Lord ſayth it: and the Lord hath not ſent them, & they haue made men hope that they would confirme the woordes.

7 Haue ye not ſeene vayne viſions, and ſpoken falſe propheſies, when ye ſay, The Lord hath ſpoken it, whereas I neuer ſayde it?

8 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Becauſe ye haue ſpoken vanitie, & haue ſeene lyes: therefore beholde I am againſt you, ſayth the Lord God.

9 Myne hand ſhalbe vpon the prophets that ſee vanities, and diuine lyes: they ſhall not be in the counſel of my people, nor written in the booke of the houſe of Iſrael, neyther ſhall they come in the lande of Iſrael, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde God:

b. What ſoeuer falſe prophet dyd ſay (which is here called the building vp of a wall) other falſe prophets would affyrme the ſame, though he had neyther occaſion nor good ground to bear him

10 And that for becauſe they haue deceiued my people, and tolde them of peace, where no peace was: one ſetteth vp a b wall, and they daube it with vntempered clay.

11 Therefore tell them whiche daube with vntemvntempered morter, that it shal fall: for there shall come a great shower of rayne, I wyll sende hayleſtones to cauſe it to fall, and a great ſtorme of wynde ſhal breake it.

12 And loe when the wall is fallen, ſhall it not then be ſayde vnto you, Where is nowe your *morter that ye daubed withal?

*Lacking.

13 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, I wyll cauſe a ſtormie wynde to breake out in my wrathfull diſpleaſure, ſo that in myne anger there ſhall come a myghtie ſhewre of rayne, and hayleſtones in my wrath to deſtroy it.

14 As for the wal that ye haue daubed with vntempered morter, I wil breake it downe, and make it euen with the grounde, ſo that the fundation therof ſhalbe diſcouered, and it ſhall fall: yea, and ye your ſelues ſhall periſhe in the myds thereof, and ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

15 Thus wyll I perfourme my wrath vpon this wall, and vpon them that haue daubed it with c vntempered morter, and then wil I ſay vnto you, The wall is *gone, and the daubers of it.

*That is, whatſoeuer man of him ſelf deuiſeth forth, vnder the auctoritie of gods worde, and God alloweth it not.

*Is no more.

16 To wit the prophetes of Iſrael, whiche prophecie vppon Hieruſalem, and looke out viſions of peace for it, where as no peace is, ſayth the Lorde God.

17 Wherefore, O thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face againſt the daughters of thy people, whiche prophecie out of their owne hartes, and prophecie againſt them:

18 And ſay, Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Wo be vnto them that ſowe d pyllowes vnder all arme holes, and put kerchifes vppon the heades of euery ſtature, to hunt ſoules. Wyll ye hunt the ſoules of my people, and geue lyfe to the ſoules that come vnto you?

d. These ſuperſtitious women for lucre would prophecie, tel euery mā his fortune, geuing them pyllowes to leane on & kerchifes to couer their heads, that they might the more allure them and bewitche them.

19 And wyll ye poilute me to my people for handfulles of barley, & for peeces of bread, to kyll the ſoules of them that dye not, and promiſe e lyfe to them that lyue not, in lying to my people that heareth your lyes?

e. These ſorceresſes made the people beleeue that they could preſerue lyfe or deſtroy it, and that it ſhould come to euery one accordyng as they prophecied.

20 Wherefore, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl vpon your pyllowes wherwith ye hunt the ſoules to f make them flee, and I wil teare them from your armes, and wyl let the ſoules goe, euen the ſoules that ye hunt to make them flee.

f. Making the people vnto you with deceitfull doctrine, as the fowlers doo the birdes with their ſtales and calles.

21 Your kerchifes alſo wil I teare in peeces, and deliuer my people out of your handes, ſo that they ſhall come no more in your handes to be hunted: and ye ſhal know that I am the Lorde.

22 Seeyng that with your lyes ye diſcomfite the hart of the righteous, whom I haue not diſcomfited agayne, for ſo muche as ye encourage the hande of the wycked, ſo that he may not turne from his wicked way, in promiſing hym lyfe:

23 Therefore ſhall ye ſee no more vanitie, neyther ſhall ye diuine diuinations, for I wyll deliuer my people out of your hande, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

¶. The xiiii. Chapter.

The Lorde denyeth his woorde to the people for their ſinnes ſake.

1 There reſorted vnto me certayne of the elders of Iſrael, and ſate downe by me.

2 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, ſaying,

3 Thou ſonne of man, theſe men haue ſet vp their idols in their hartes, and put the ſtumblyng blocke of iniquitie before their face, ſhoulde I then aunſweare them at their requeſt?

4 Therefore ſpeake vnto them, and ſay vnto them, thus ſaith the Lord God, Euery man of the houſe of Iſrael that ſetteth vp his idols in his hart, and putteth the ſtumbling blocke of his iniquitie before his face, and commeth to the prophete: vnto that man wyll I the Lorde me ſelfe geue aunſweare when he commeth, according to the a multitude of his idols:

a. As Ieroboam hath determined, that is, he ſhalbe led with lyes, according as he delyted therin.

5 That the houſe of Iſrael may be ſnared in their b owne hartes, becauſe they be cleane gone from me all of them through their idols:

b. That is, conuince them by their owne conſciences.

6 Wherefore tell the houſe of Iſrael, Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Returne, and cauſe c to returne from your idolles, and turne your faces from all your abominations:

c. All ſuche as by your example haue declined from God.

7 For euery man, whether he be of the houſe of Iſrael, or a ſtraunger that ſoiourneth in Iſrael, which departeth from me, and ſetteth vp his idols in his hart, and putteth the ſtumblyng blocke of his wickednesſe before his face, and commeth to a prophete for to aſke counſell at me through hym: vnto that man wyll I the Lorde geue aunſweare by myne owne ſelfe:

8 I wyl ſet my face againſt that man, and wyll make hym to be an example for other, yea, and a common bywoorde, and wyl roote hym out of my people, that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

9 And yf that prophete be deceiued when he telleth a thyng, then I *the Lorde me ſelfe haue deceiued that prophet, and wyl ſtretch out my hand vpon hym, to deſtroy hym out of my people of Iſrael.

10 And they ſhalbe puniſhed for their wickednesse, accordyng to the ſinne of hym that asketh, ſhal the ſinne of the prophete be:
11 That the house of Iſrael may wander no more from me, neyther be any more defyled in all their tranſgreſſions: but that they may be my people, and I their God, ſayth the Lorde God.
12 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,
13 Thou ſonne of man, when the lande ſinneth agaynſt me by committing a treſpaſſe, I wyll ſtretche out my hande vpon it, * and breake their ſtaffe of bread, and ſend dearth vpon them, to deſtroy man and beaſt footh of it.

14 And though Noe, Daniel, and Iob, theſe three men were among them: yet ſhall they in their ryghteouſneſſe deliuer but their owne ſoules, ſayth the Lorde God.
15 If I bryng noyſome beaſtes into the land, and they ſpoyle it, and it be ſo deſolate that no man may paſſe through it for beaſtes, 16 If theſe three men were alſo in the midſt thereof, as truely as I lyue ſayth the Lorde GOD, they ſhall ſaue neyther ſonnes nor daughters, but be onely deliuered them ſelues: and as for the lande it ſhalbe waſte.
17 Or, yf I bryng a ſworde vpon the lande and ſay, Sworde goe through this lande, ſo that I ſlay downe man and beaſt in it,
*Or, in the middeſt thereof.
18 And yf theſe three men were * therein: as truely as I lyue, ſayth the Lorde God, they ſhall deliuer neyther ſonnes nor daughters, but onely be * ſaued them ſelues.
*Or, deliuered.
19 If I ſende a peſtilence into this lande, and powre out my fore indignation vpon it in blood, ſo that I roote out of it both man and beaſt,
*Or, in the middeſt of it.
20 And yf Noe, Daniel, and Iob * were therein: as truely as I lyue ſayth the Lorde GOD, they ſhall deliuer neyther ſonne nor daughter, but * ſaue their owne ſoules in their righteouſneſſe.
*Or, deliuer.
21 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Howe muche more when I ſende my foure * troublous plagues vpon Hieruſalem, the ſworde, hunger, perilous beaſtes, and peſtilence, to deſtroy man and beaſt out of it?
*Or, foure ſore and grieuous.
22 Beholde, there ſhalbe a remnant ſaued therin, which ſhal bryng forth their ſonnes and daughters: behold, they ſhal come forth vnto you, & ye ſhall ſee their way, and their enterpriſe, and ye ſhalbe comforted concernyng the euyll that I haue brought vpon Hieruſalem, euen concernyng al that I haue brought vpon it,
23 They ſhall comfort you when ye ſhall ſee their way and workes, and ye ſhall knowe howe that it is not without a cauſe that I haue done all agaynſt Hieruſalem as I did, ſayth the Lorde God.

¶ The. xv. Chapter.

As the vnprofitable vvood of the vine tree is caſt into the fire, ſo ſayth he that Hieruſalem ſhalbe brent.

1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,
2 Thou ſonne of man, what commeth of the vine tree more then of euery other tree, and of the wylde vine among other trees of the foreſt?
3 Doo men take wood of it to make any worke withall? or wyll men take a pinne of it to hang any veſſel thereon?
4 Behold, it is caſt in the fire to be brent, the fire conſumeth both the endes of it, the mids of it is brent: is it meete then for any worke?
5 Seing then that it was meete for no worke beyng whole, muche leſſe may there any thing be made of it, when the fyre hath conſumed and brent it.
6 And therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, As the vine tree that is among the trees of the foreſt, which I haue geuen to the fire to be conſumed, ſo wyl I geue the inhabitants of Hieruſalem.
7 And I wyl ſet my face agaynſt them, they ſhal go out from the fyre, and yet the a fyre ſhall conſume them: then ſhal ye know that I am the Lorde, when I ſet my face againſt them, a. Though they eſcape one danger, yet another ſhall take them.
8 And when I make the land waſte, becauſe they haue ſo ſore offended, ſayth the Lorde God.

¶ The. xvi. Chapter.

The prophete declareth the benefites of God toward Hieruſalem. 60. Mercy is promiſed to the repentant.

1 AGayne the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,
2 Thou ſonne of man, ſhewe Hieruſalem their abominations,
3 And ſay, thus ſayth the Lord GOD vnto Hieruſalem, Thy habitation and kynred is of the lande of a Chanaan, thy father was an Amorite, thy mother an Hittite.

brought thee foorth of the lande of Egypt, and planted thee in this lande to be my Church.
*Or, to ſoften thee.

5 No eye pitied thee to doo any of these thinges for thee, for to haue compassion vppon thee: but thou wast vtterly cast out vppon the fielde, in contempt of thy person in the day of thy birth.

6 Then came I by thee, and sawe thee defiled in thyne owne blood, and I sayde vnto thee whē thou wast in thy blood, Liue, euen when thou wast in thy blood, I saide vnto thee, Liue.

7 I caused thee to multiplie as the budde of the fielde, thou art growen vp, and waxen great, thou hast gotten a maruelous pleasant beautie, thy breastes are fashioned, thy heare is goodly growē, where as thou wast naked and bare.

8 Nowe when I went by thee, and looked vpon thee, behold thy time was come, yea euen the time to woo thee: then spread I my clothes ouer thee to couer thy e dishonestie, yea I made an othe vnto thee, and contracted mee selfe vnto thee (sayth the Lorde GOD) and so thou becamest mine owne.

9 Then washed I thee with water, and purged thy blood from thee, and I annoynted thee with oyle.

10 I clothed thee with broydred worke, and shodde thee with Badgers skinne, and I gyrded thee about with fine linnen, and couered thee with silke.

11 I decked thee with costly apparell, I put bracelets vpon thy handes, a chayne about thy necke, 12 And I put a frontlet vpon thy face, and eareringes vpon thyne eares, and a beautifull crowne vpon thyne head.

13 Thus wast thou deckt with golde, and siluer, and thy rayment was of fine lynnen, and of silke, & of broydred worke: thou didest eate fine flowre, hony, and oyle, maruelous beautiful wast thou, and thou didst luckely prosper into a kingdome.

14 And thy name was spread among the Heathen for thy beautie: for it was perfect through my beautie which I put vpon thee, sayth the Lorde God.

15 But thou hast put thy confidence in thine owne beautie, and played the harlot, because of thy renowme, and hast d powred out thy fornications with euery one that went by, "thou wast his.

16 Thou diddest take thy garmentes, and deckt thy high places with e diuers colours, and played the harlot thereupon, f "they come not, and it shall not be.

17 The goodly iewels whiche I gaue thee of myne owne gold and siluer, hast thou taken and made thee mens images thereof, and committed whoredome with them.

18 Thy broydred garmentes hast thou taken, and deckt them therewith: myne oyle and incense hast thou set before them.

19 My meate whiche I gaue thee, as fyne flowre, oyle, and hony, to feede thee withal, that hast thou set before them for a sweete sauour: and thus it was, sayth the Lorde God.

20 Thou hast taken thyne owne sonnes and daughters whom thou hast begotten vnto me, & these hast thou offered vp vnto them to be g deuoured: is this but a small whoredome of thyne?

21 And thou hast slayne my chyldren, and deliuered them, to cause them to passe thorowe the fyre for them.

22 And yet in all thyne abominations and whoredomes, thou hast not remembred the dayes of thy youth, howe naked and bare thou wast at that time, and wast defiled in thyne owne blood.

23 After al these thy wickednesse (woe, woe vnto thee, sayth the Lorde God,)

24 Thou hast built vnto thee an high place, and hast made thee an high place in euery streete.

25 Thou hast built thyne high place at euery "head of the way, thou hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, thou hast opened thy feete to euery one that came by, and multiplied thy whoredome.

26 Thou hast committed fornication with the h Egyptians thy neighbours whiche were great in flesshe, and thus hast thou increased thyne whoredome to anger me.

27 Behold, I dyd stretch out my hand ouer thee, and dyd minishe thyne ordinarie foode and deliuered thee ouer into the wylles of them that hate thee, euen to the daughters of the Philistines, whiche are ashamed of thyne abominable wayes.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast insatiable: yea thou hast I say with them plaied the harlot, and yet hadst thou not yenough.

29 Thus hast thou furthermore multiplied thy fornication from the land of Chanaan vnto the Chaldees, and yet thou wast not satisfied therewith.

30 How weake is thine hart, sayth the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these, euen the woorkes of a presumptuous woorkyng woman?

31 Buildyng thy high places at the head of euery way, and makest thy hygh places in euery streete: thou hast not been as another whore that holdeth scorne of a reward:

32 But as a wyfe that breaketh wedlocke, and taketh another in steede of her husband.

h. He noteth the great impietie of this people, who first fallyng from God to seeke helpe at strange nations, dyd also at length embrace theyr idolatry, thynkyng thereby to make theyr amitie more sure.

33 Gifres are geuen to all other whoores: but thou geueſt rewardes vnto all thy louers, and rewardeſt them to come vnto thee on euery ſide for thy fornication.

34 It is come to paſſe with thee in thy whoordomes contrary to the vſe of other women, yea there hath no ſuch fornication ben committed after thee: ſeeing that thou geueſt gifres vnto other, and no reward is geuen thee, therefore thou art contrary.

35 Therefore heare the woorde of the Lord, O thou harlot.

36 Thus ſayth the Lord GOD, Becauſe thou haſt i powred out * thy braſſe, and diſcouered thy filthyneſſe through thy fornications with thy louers, and with all the idolles of thyne abominations, and in the blood of thy children whom thou haſt geuen them:

37 Behold therefore, I wyll geather together all thy k louers with whom thou haſt taken pleaſure, yea and al them whom thou haſt loued, and euery one that thou hateſt: I wyl I ſay geather them togeather rounde about againſt thee, and wyll diſcouer thy ſhame before them, that they may ſee al thy filthyneſſe.

38 *Moreouer, l I wyl iudge thee as a breaker of wedlocke and a murderer, and recompence thee thyne owne blood in wrath and ielouſie.

39 I wyl geue thee ouer into their handes, and they ſhall deſtroy thy high place, and breake downe thy high places, they ſhall ſtrip thee alſo out of thy clothes: thy fayre iewels ſhal they take from thee, and ſo leaue thee naked and bare.

40 Yea they ſhall bring a companie vppon thee, which ſhal ſtone thee with ſtones, and thruſt thee through with their ſwoordes.

41 * They ſhall burne vp thy houſes with fyre, and puniſhe thee in the ſight of many women: thus wyl I make thee ceaſſe from playing the harlot, ſo that thou ſhalt geue out no more rewardes.

42 So wyll I make my wrath toward thee to reſt, and my ielouſie ſhall depart from thee, and I wyll ceaſe, and be angry no more.

43 Seeing thou remembreſt not the dayes of thy youth, but haſt fretted me in all theſe thinges: beholde therefore, I wyll bring thyne owne wayes vpon thy head, ſayth the Lorde GOD, ſo that m thou ſhalt not commit any more miſcheefe vppon all thyne abominations.

44 Beholde, all they that vſe common prouerbes, ſhall vſe this prouerbe alſo againſt thee, ſaying, Suche a n mother, ſuche a daughter.

45 Thou art euen thy mothers owne daughter, that haue caſt of her huſband, and her children: yea thou art y ſiſter of thy * ſiſters, which forſooke their huſbandes and their children, your mother is an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 Thyne eldeſt ſiſter is Samaria, ſhe and her p daughters that dwell vppon thy left hand: but the younger ſiſter that dwelleth on thy right hande is Sodoma and her daughters.

47 Yet haſt thou not walked after their wayes, nor done after their abominations, as a little and a little: but in all thy wayes thou haſt been more corrupt then they.

48 As truely as I liue, ſayth the Lord God, Sodoma thy ſiſter, with her daughters, haue not doone as thou haſt doone and thy daughters.

49 *Behold, the ſinnes of thy ſiſter Sodoma, were theſe, q Pryde, fulneſſe of meate, and abundance of idleneſſe, theſe thinges had ſhe and her daughters: beſides that, they ſtrengthed not the hand of the poore and needie.

50 But they were hawty, and committed abomination before me, therefore I tooke them away as I ſawe good.

51 Neyther hath r Samaria doone halfe of thy ſinnes, yea thou haſt exceeded them in thyne abominations, and haſt * iuſtified thy ſiſters in all thyne abominations whiche thou haſt doone.

52 Therfore thou which diddeſt condemne thy ſiſter, beare thyne owne ſhame, for thine owne offences that thou haſt committed more abominable then they dyd, whiche in deede are more righteous then thou art, be thou I ſay aſhamed, and beare thy ſhameful rebuke, ſeeing that thou haſt iuſtified thy ſiſters.

53 Therefore I wyl bring againe their captiuitie, the captiuitie of Sodome and her daughters, and the captiuitie of Samaria and her daughters, and the captiuitie of thy captiues among * them, 54 That thou mayeſt take thyne owne confuſion vpon thee, and be aſhamed of al that thou haſt doone, in that thou haſt comforted them.

55 And thy ſiſter Sodome and her daughters ſhal returne to their former ſtate, Samaria alſo & her daughters ſhall returne to their former ſtate, when thou & thy daughters ſhal returne to your former ſtate.

¶ The.xvii. Chapter.

The parable of the two Egles.

1 THe woord of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, put foorth a parable, and speake a prouerbe vnto the house of Israel,

3 And say, Thus sayth the Lorde GOD, There came a great a Egle with great wynges, yea with a mightie long body, and full of feathers of diuers colours, vpon the mounte of Libanus, and tooke the hyghest branche of a Cedar tree,

4 And brake of the top of his twygges, and carried it into the land of b Marchantes, and set it in a citie of Marchantes.

5 He tooke also of the c seede of the lande, and planted it in a fruiteful grounde, he brought it vnto great waters, and set it in "an open trenche.

6 Then dyd it growe, and was a d spreadyng vine, but e lowe of stature, whose branches turned towarde "it, & the rootes of it were vnder it: Thus there came of it a vine, and it brought foorth branches, & shot foorth buddes.

7 But there was another f Egle, a great one, whiche had great wynges, and many feathers: and behold the rootes of this vine turned towards it, and spread out her branches towardes it, that she myght water it by the trenches of her plantation.

8 It was planted vpon a good soyle beside great waters, so that it should haue brought out branches, and borne fruite, and been a goodly vine.

9 Speake thou therefore, thus sayth the Lorde God, Shal this vine prosper? shal g he not pull vp the rootes thereof, and destroy the fruite thereof, and cause them to dye? al the leaues of her budde shal wyther without great power, or many people to plucke it vp by the rootes thereof.

10 Beholde, it was planted: Shall it prosper therefore? Shal it not be dryed vp and wythered? when the h East wynde shall touche it, it shall wyther in the trenches where it grewe.

11 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

12 Speake nowe to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these thynges doo signifie? Tel them, Beholde the king of Babylon is come to Hierusalem, & hath taken the king therof, and the princes thereof, and hath led them with hym to Babylon.

13 He tooke of the kynges seede, and made a couenaunt with hym, and tooke an othe of hym: the princes of the lande tooke he with hym also,

14 That the kyngdome myght be in subiection, and not lyft vp it selfe, but keepe the couenant, and stande to it.

15 But he rebelled agaynst hym, and sent his Ambassadours into Egypt, that he myght haue horses and muche people: Should he prosper? shal he escape that doeth suche thynges? or shal he breake the couenaunt and escape free?

16 As truely as I lyue, sayth the Lord God, he shal dye at Babylon in the place where the kyng dwelleth that made hym kyng, whose othe he hath despysed, and whose couenaunt he hath broken.

17 Neither shal Pharao with his great host and multitude of people mainteyne hym in the warre, whē they haue cast vp mountes, and buylt a fort to destroy many persons.

18 For seeing he hath despysed the othe, and broken the couenaunt (whereas he yet gaue his i hande therupon) and doone al these thynges, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God, As truely as I lyue, I wyll bryng myne othe that he hath despysed, and my couenaunt that he hath broken, vpon his owne head.

20 I wyll spread my net vpon hym, and he shalbe caught in my net: and I wyll bryng hym to Babylon, and enter into iudgement with hym there, for the trespasse whiche he

b. That is, yf ye haue not communicated in the ſacrifices of idolles.

c. Meanyng, ſuch as were ſet aparte in time of natural and monthly diſeaſes, namely, in tyme of childe byrth, leproſie, and ſuch like, as Leuit. 20.

7 Neither hath oppreſſed any man, but hath reſtoꝛed to the debter his pledge: he that hath not ſpoyled any by violence, hath geuē his bꝛead to the hungꝛye, and hath clothed the naked:

8 And hath not geuen foꝛth vpon vſurie, neyther taken any encreaſe, he hath withdꝛawen his hande from iniquitie, and hath executed true iudgement betweene man and man:

9 And hath walked in my ſtatutes, and kept my iudgementes to deale truely: this is a righteous man, he ſhal ſurely lyue, ſaith the Lorde God.

10 If he nowe geat a ſonne that is a robber, a ſhedder of blood, and doo any one of theſe thynges:

11 Though he doo not al theſe thynges, but either hath eaten vpon the hylles, oꝛ defyled his neyghbours wyfe:

12 Oꝛ hath oppreſſed the pooꝛe and needie, oꝛ ſpoyled by violence, oꝛ hath not reſtoꝛed the pledge, oꝛ hath lyft vp his eyes vnto the idols, oꝛ hath committed abomination:

13 Oꝛ hath geuen foꝛth vpon vſurie, oꝛ hath taken encreaſe: Shall this man lyue? he ſhal not lyue: Seeing he hath doone al theſe abominations he ſhall dye the death, his blood ſhalbe vpon hym.

14 Nowe yf this man geat a ſonne alſo, that ſeeth all his fathers ſinnes whiche he hath doone, and feareth, neyther doeth ſuch like:

15 Namely, that hath not eaten vpon the hyls, neyther hath lyft vp his eyes to the idols of the houſe of Iſrael, noꝛ defyled his neyghbours wyfe:

16 Neyther hath oppreſſed any, noꝛ hath withholden the pledge, neither hath ſpoiled by violence: but hath geuen his bꝛead to the hungꝛy, and hath couered the naked with a garment:

17 Neyther hath withdꝛawē his hand from the afflicted, noꝛ receyued vſurie noꝛ encreaſe, but hath executed my iudgementes, and walked in my ſtatutes: this man ſhal not dye in his fathers ſinne, but ſhal lyue without fayle.

18 As foꝛ his father, becauſe he hath cruelly oppreſſed & ſpoiled his bꝛother by violence, and hath not done good among his people, loe he dieth in his owne ſinne.

19 And yet ſay ye, Wherfoꝛe then ſhould not this ſonne beare his fathers ſinne? Becauſe the ſonne hath doone iudgement and ryghteouſneſſe, he hath kept all my ſtatutes, and doone them: therefoꝛe ſhall he lyue in deede.

20 *The ſame ſoule that ſinneth, ſhall dye, the ſonne ſhall not beare the fathers iniquitie, neyther ſhal the father beare the ſonnes iniquitie: the ryghteouſneſſe of the ryghteous ſhalbe vpon hym, and the wyckednes of the wycked ſhalbe vpon hym ſelfe alſo.

*Deu. 24. 4. king. 14. 2. Chr. 25.

21 But yf the vngodly wil turne away from all his ſinnes that he hath doone, and keepe all my ſtatutes, and doo the thyng that is iudgement and ryght, doubtleſſe he ſhall lyue, and not dye.

22 As foꝛ al his ſinnes that he dyd befoꝛe, they ſhall not be mentioned vnto hym: but in his ryghteouſneſſe that he hath doone he he shal lyue.

23 For haue I any pleasure in the death of a sinner, sayth the Lorde God? shal he not lyue if he returne from his wayes?

24 Agayne, if the righteous turne from his righteousnesse, and doo iniquitie, and shal doo according to al the abominations that the wicked man doeth: shal he lyue? Al the righteousnesse that he hath done shal not be remembred, but in his transgression that he hath committed, in his sinne that he hath sinned, in them he shal dye.

Exe.33.20 25 And yet ye say, The way of the Lorde is not a indifferent. Heare therefore ye house of Israel, is not my way equal? or are not your wayes rather vnequal?

a. To punish the fathers with the children.

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousnesse, & committeth iniquitie, and dyeth in the same: in his iniquitie which he hath committed shall he dye.

27 Agayne, when the wycked turneth away from his wyckednesse that he hath done, and doeth iudgement and ryght, he shal saue his soule alyue.

28 Because he seeth and turneth away from al his iniquitie that he hath committed, he shal surely lyue, and not dye.

Remembreth or remembreth his iniquitie.

29 And yet sayth the house of Israel, The way of the Lorde is not equal. Are not my wayes equal, O ye house of Israel? are not your wayes rather vnequal?

30 Therefore I wyl iudge you, euery man according to his wayes, O ye house of Israel, sayth the Lorde God, Mat.3.2. returne and bring agayne others from al your wyckednesse, so iniquitie shal not be your destruction.

31 Cast away from you al your transgressions whereby ye haue transgressed, & make you a newe hart and a newe spirite: for why wyl ye dye, O ye house of Israel?

32 Seeing I haue no pleasure in the death of hym that dyeth, sayth the Lorde GOD, bring agayne your selues then, and ye shal lyue.

4. King.14. 14. Because therefore one another to repentance.

¶ The xix. Chapter.

The captiuitie of Iehoas and Iehoiakim is signified by the Lions vvhelpes, and by the Lion.

1 THou also take vp a lamentation for the a princes of Israel,

2 And say, Wherefore lay thy mother that Lioneste among the Lions? she nourished her young ones among the Lions whelpes.

3 One of her whelpes she brought vp, and it became a Lion, it learned to catche the pray, and to deuoure folke.

a. That is, Iehoas and Iehoiakim Iosias sonnes, who for their cruelnie and pride are compared vnto Lions.

4 The b heathen heard of him, and caught hym in their snare, and brought hym in hookes vnto the lande of Egypt.

b. Meanyng Pharao Necho kyng of Egypt.

c. chaynes.

5 Nowe when she sawe that she had wayted, and her hope was lost, she tooke another c of her whelpes, & made him a Lion.

c. Which was Iehoiakim.

6 Which went among the Lions, and became a fierce Lion, learned to catche the pray, and to deuoure folke.

7 He destroyed their palaces, and made their cities waste, insomuch that the whole lande, and euery thyng therein, were vtterly desolate through the voyce of his roaryng.

Or, and he knewe their widdowes.

8 Then set the d heathen togeather on euery side of the countreyes agaynst him, layde their nettes for hym, and tooke him in their pit.

d. Nabuchodonosor with his great armie, which was gathered of diuers nations.

9 So they put him in prison in chaynes, and brought him to the kyng of Babylon: they put him in holdes, that his voyce shoulde no more be heard vpon the mountaynes of Israel.

10 As for thy e mother, she is lyke a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she brought foorth fruite and branches by the abundant waters.

e. He speaketh this in the reproche of this wicked king, in whose blood, that is, in the race of his predecessours Hierusalem was & so shoulde haue ben blessed according vnto Gods promises, and flourisheth lyke a fruiteful vine.

11 And she had strong rods for the scepters of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted on hygh among the branches, and she appeared in her heyght with the multitude of her branches.

12 But she was pluckt vp in wrath, cast out vpon the grounde, the East winde dryed vp her fruite, her branches were broken of and withered, as for the rodde of her strength, the fyre consumed them.

*Dcet.13.15.

13 And nowe she is planted in the wylderneste, in a drye and thirstie grounde.

14 And there is a fyre gone out of the rod of her branches, it hath deuoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rodde for a scepter to rule: This is a lamentation, and shalbe for a lamentation.

¶ The xx. Chapter.

The Lorde denyeth that he vvyl answeare them vvhen they pray, for the offence of vnkindnesse vvhich he here obiecteth.

1 IN the a seuenth yeere, the tenth day of the fifth moneth, certayne of the elders of Israel came for to aske counsel at the Lorde, and sate downe before me.

a. Of the captiuitie of Iechonias.

2 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

3 Thou sonne of man, speake vnto the elders of Israel, & say vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Are ye come to enquyre of me? As truely as I lyue, I wyl not be sought of you sayth the Lorde God.

4 Wylt thou iudge them sonne of man, wylt thou iudge them? cause them to understand the abominations of their fathers.

5 And tel them, thus sayth the Lorde God, In the day when I choose Israel, and b lyft vp mine hande vpon the seede of the house of Jacob, and was knowen vnto them, in the lande of Egypt, yea when I lyft vp mine hande ouer them, and sayde, I am the Lorde your God:

6 Euen in the day that I lift vp mine hand vnto them, to bryng them out of the lande of Egypt, into a lande that I had prouided for them, which floweth with mylke and hony, and is pleasant among all other landes:

7 Then sayd I vnto them, Cast away euery man the abominations of his eyes, and defyle not your selues with the idols of Egypt: for I am the Lorde your God.

8 But they rebelled agaynst me, and would not hearken vnto me, they did not cast away euery man the abominations of his eyes, neyther did they forsake the idolles of Egypt: then I sayde I would powre out mine indignation ouer them, and accomplishe my wrath vpon them, yea euen in the middest of the lande of Egypt.

9 And I wrote for my names sake, that it shoulde not be polluted before the heathen among whom they were, to whom I was manifestly knowen, in bryngyng them forth of the lande of Egypt.

10 Nowe when I had caused them to goe out of the lande of Egypt, and brought them into the wyldernesse:

11 *I gaue them my statutes, and shewed them my iudgementes: whiche who so doeth, shal lyue in them.

12 *I gaue them also my Sabboth dayes, to be a token betwirt me and them, and thereby to knowe that I am the Lorde which halowe them.

13 And yet the house of Israel rebelled agaynst me in the wyldernesse, they would not walke in my statutes, they haue cast away my iudgements, which who so doeth, shal lyue in them, *and my Sabboth dayes haue they greatly polluted: then I sayde I would powre out mine indignation vpon them, & consume them in the wyldernesse.

14 And I wrought for my names sake, lest it shoulde be defiled before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet neuertheless I lyft vp my hande vnto them in the wyldernesse, that I would not bryng them into the lande whiche I gaue them, that floweth with mylke and hony, and is a pleasure of al landes:

16 And that because they cast away my iudgementes, and walked not in my statutes, but haue defiled my Sabbothes: for theyr hart was gone after theyr idols.

17 Neuertheless mine eye spared them, so that I would not destroy them, nor consume them in the wyldernesse.

18 Moreouer, I sayde vnto theyr sonnes in the wyldernesse, Walke not in the statutes of your c fathers, keepe not theyr iudgementes, and defile not your selues with theyr idols.

19 I am the Lorde your God, walke in my statutes, keepe my iudgementes, and doo them.

20 Halowe my Sabbothes, for they are a token betwirt me and you: that ye may knowe howe that I am the Lorde your God.

21 Notwithstanding, theyr sonnes rebelled agaynst me also, they walked not in my statutes, they keepe not my iudgementes to fulfyl them, which he that doeth, shal lyue in them, they prophaned my Sabboth dayes, and I sayde I wyl powre out mine indignation ouer them, and accomplyshe my wrath vppon them in the wyldernesse.

22 Neuertheless, I withdrewe my hand, and wrought for my names sake, least it shoulde be defiled in the sight of the heathen, before whom I had brought them forth.

23 I lyft vp my hande to them also in the wyldernesse, that I would scatter them among the heathen, & strawe them among the nations:

24 Because they had not kept my iudgementes, but cast aside my statutes, and broken my Sabbothes, and their eyes were after their fathers idolles.

25 Wherefore I d gaue them also statutes that were not good, and iudgementes wherein they shoulde not lyue.

26 And I defiled them in their owne gyftes, in that they e caused al that openeth the wombe to passe, that I might destroy them, that they might knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

27 Therefore speake vnto the house of Israel thou sonne of man, and thou shalt say vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde GOD, Yet in this also your fathers haue blasphemed me, and greeuously transgressed agaynst me:

28 For after I had brought them into the lande, for the whiche I lyfted vp my hand to geue it vnto them, when they sawe euery hygh hyl, and al thicke trees, they offered there

c. Whether the holy ghost confuteth this sayinge, I wyl leaue to the religious examples of other father, and measure them by Gods worde, whether they be approuable therby or no.

d. Because they would not obey my lawes, I gaue them vp to them selues that they should obey their owne fantasies as verse. 39. Roma. 1.

there their sacrifices, and there they presented their offering of g anger, there also they made their sweete sauours, and powred out their wine offeringes.

29 And I saide vnto them, What is that high place whervnto ye resort? & the name of it is called h Bamah vnto this day.

30 Wherefore speake vnto the house of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God, Are ye not defiled in the wayes of your fathers, and commit ye not whordome after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your giftes, & make your sonnes to passe through the fyre, you are polluted with all your idolles vnto this day: shal I answeare you when I am asked, O house of Israel? As I liue, sayth the Lorde GOD, I * wyll not be sought of you.

32 And that whiche commeth into your minde shal not be at all, which you say, We wil be as the Gentiles, as the kinredes of countreys to serue wood and stone.

33 As truely as I liue, sayth the Lord God, I mee selfe wyl rule you with a mighete hand, with a stretched out arme, and with indignation powred out ouer you.

34 And I will bring you from the people, and geather you out of the countreys wherin ye are scattered, with a mightie hande, with a stretched out arme, and with indignation powred out.

35 And I wil bring you into the i wyldernesse of the people, and there I k wyll be iudged with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wyldernesse of Egypt: so will I pleade with you also, sayth the Lorde God.

37 I wil cause you to passe vnder the rodde, and I wyll bring you into the bond of the conenant.

38 And I wyl * purge out of you the rebels, and them that transgresse agaynst me, and bring them out of the lande of their habitation: as for the lande of Israel they shal not come in it, that you may knowe how that I am the Lorde.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God, Go you and serue euery man his idolles, seeing that ye obey not me: and pollute no more my holy name with your giftes and your idols.

40 For vpon my holy hyll, euen vpon the high hil of Israel, saith the Lorde God, shal all the house of Israel, and all that is in the land worship me: and in the same place wil I fauour them, & there wyl I require your heaue offerings, and the fyrstlinges of your oblations, with all your holy thinges.

41 I wyl accept your sweete sauour, when I bryng you from the nations, and geather you togeather out of the landes wherein ye haue been scattred, that I may be halowed in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde, when I shall bryng you into the land of Israel, into the lande for the whiche I lyft vp my hand to geue it vnto your fathers.

43 There shal ye cal to remembraunce your owne wayes, and al your woorkes wherein ye haue been defyled, and ye shalbe cut of in your l owne syght for al your wickednesse that ye haue doone.

44 And ye shal knowe that I am the Lord, when I deale with you for my names sake, and not after your wicked waies, nor according to your corrupt woorkes, O ye house of Israel, sayth the Lorde God.

45 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

46 Thou sonne of man, set thy face toward the way of m Theman, and drop thy worde toward the n South, and prophesie towarde the forrest of the South fielde, 47 And say to the forrest of the South, Heare the woorde of the Lorde, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl kyndle a fyre in thee, that shall consume al ye o grene trees, with al the dye: the continual flame shal not be quenched, and euery face from the South to the North shalbe burnt therein.

48 And al flesh shall see that I the Lorde haue kindled it, & it shall not be quenched.

49 Then sayde I, Ah Lorde God, they say of me, Doeth not he speake p parables?

The xxi. Chapter.

1. He threatneth the sworde, that is to say, destruction to the citie of Hierusalem.

1 THE woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face towarde Hierusalem, and a drop thy worde towarde the holy places, and prophesie agaynst the lande of Israel.

3 Say to the lande of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I am agaynst thee, and wyl drawe my sworde out of the sheath, and cut of from thee both the b ryghteous and the wycked.

4 Seeing then that I wyll cut of from thee both the ryghteous and the wycked, therefore shall my sworde goe out of his sheathe agaynst all flesh from the c South to the North,

5 That al flesh may know, how that I the Lorde haue drawen my sworde out of the sheathe, and it shal not be put in agayne.

g. Which signifieth an vngodly matter, declaring that they vaunted them selues of their idolatrie, and were not ashamed thereof, though God had commanded expressely that they should haue no other lyfted vp in height by prayer. Exo. 20. * Or, I wyl not answere vnto mens askyng.

l. Your owne cōsciences shall condemne you as woorthy to be cut of from the earth.

m. To wyt, the South.

n. That is, towarde Hierusalem and Iuda, whiche was South from Babylon.

o. That is, both strong & weake in Hierusalem.

p. Because the people saide that the prophete spake darkely, therfore he desireth the Lord to geue them a playne declaration thereof.

a. As doctrine is compared to rayne, euen so here woordes are compared to droppes.

b. That is, so he as seeme to haue an outwarde shewe of ryghteousnesse by obseruation of the ceremonies of ye lawe.

c. Meanyng, through al the lande.

6 Mourne therefore, O thou ſonne of man, yea euen with the d breakyng of thy loynes, mourne bytterly in their preſence.

d. As though thou wer in extreme anguyſh, wherewith thy loynes ſhoulde breake.

7 And yf they ſay vnto thee, Wherfore mourneſt thou? then tel them, For the tydinges that commeth: Al hartes ſhal melt, al handes ſhalbe letten downe, al ſtomackes ſhal faynt, and all knees ſhall goe as water: beholde it commeth, and ſhalbe brought to paſſe, ſayth the Lorde God.

8 Agayne, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,

9 Thou ſonne of man, propheſie and ſpeake, Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Speake, the ſwoorde, the ſwoorde is ſharpened, and well furbiſhed.

10 Sharpened is it to make a great ſlaughter, and furbiſhed that it may glytter: Shal we then make myrth? It contemneth the e rodde of my ſonne as f all other trees.

e. Meanyng, the ſcepter, ſhewyng that it wil not ſpare the kyng, who ſhoulde be as the ſonne of God, and in his place.

f. That is, the reſt of ỳ people

11 Ye hath geuen it to be furbiſhed, to holde it in the hande: this ſwoorde is ſharpened, and furbiſhed, to geue it into the hande of the g ſlayer.

g. To wit, vnto the armie of the Chaldeans.

12 Crie and howle ſonne of man, for it commeth vpon my people, it commeth vpon al the princes of Iſrael: the terrours of the ſwoord ſhalbe vpon my people, ſmyte therfore thou vpon thy thygh.

13 Becauſe it is a tryal, and what yf h it contemne the rod? it ſhalbe no more, ſayth the Lorde God.

h. Meanyng, the ſwoorde of the kyng of Babylon, whiche ſhal not ſpare the ſcepter of Iuda.

14 Propheſie, thou ſonne of man, and ſmyte thy i handes together, and let the ſwoorde be doubled thryſe, euen the ſwoorde of the great ſlaughter, entryng into their priuie chambers,

i. That is, encourage the ſwoorde.

15 To make them faynt at the hartes, and to multiplie their falles, in all their gates haue I geuen the terrour of the ſwoorde: Ah, it is made bryght, and dreſſed for the ſlaughter.

16 Geat thee k one way or other, eyther vpon the ryght hande or vpon the left, whither ſoeuer thy face turneth.

k. He ſpeaketh vnto the ſword, geuing it libertie to range at his pleaſure.

17 I wyll ſmyte my handes togeather alſo, and make my wrathful indignation to reſt: euen I the Lorde haue ſayde it.

18 The woorde of the Lorde came yet vnto me agayne, ſaying, 19 Thou ſonne of man, appoynt thee two l wayes, that the ſwoord of the kyng of Babylon may come: both theſe wayes ſhal goe out of one lande, and chooſe thee a place, at the head of the cities wayes chooſe it.

l. Where the way diuideth and leadeth to many cities.

20 Appoynt a way that the ſwoorde maye come toward Rabbath of the Ammonites, and towarde m Iuda in the defenced Hieruſalem.

m. The tribe of Iuda that kept them ſelues cheefly in Hieruſalem.

21 For the kyng of Babylon ſtoode at the n partyng of the wayes, at the head of the two wayes, conſultyng by diuination, he made his arrowes bryght, conſulted with images, and looked in the lyuer.

n. To know whether he ſhoulde go to warre the Ammonites, or them of Hieruſalem.

22 At his ryght hande was the ſoothſaying for Hieruſalem, to appoynt captaynes, to open their mouth to the ſlaughter, and to lift vp their voyce with the alarum, to ſet battel rammes againſt the gates, to caſt a bulwarke, and to buylde a fort.

23 And it ſhalbe vnto them as a falſe diuination in their ſyght, for the o othes made vnto them: but p he wyl cal to remembraunce their iniquitie, to the intent they may be taken.

o. Becauſe there was a leaguebetwixt the Iewes and the Babylonians, they of Hieruſalem ſhal thynke it a thing left, that this thyng ſhal come to paſſe.

p. That is, his buchcholdenour wyl remember the rebellion of Zedecias, and ſo come vpon them.

24 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, Becauſe ye haue made your iniquitie to be remembred in diſcouerynge your tranſgreſſions, ſo that in al your woorkes your ſinnes myght appeare, becauſe ye are come to remembraunce, ye ſhalbe taken by hande.

q. Meanyng Zedecias.

25 O thou ſhameful wycked q prince of Iſrael, whoſe day is come, euen when wyckednelſe ſhal haue an ende.

26 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, I wyl take awaye the r Diademe, and put of the crowne: this ſhalbe no more the ſame, I wil exalt the humble, & abaſe hym that is high.

r. Some refer this to the prieſthood, which euer more and more decayed vntil Chriſte came, vnto whom of right both belong.

27 Ouerthrowen, ouerthrowen, ouerthrowen wyl I put s it, and it ſhall not be, vntyll he come to whom the iudgement belongeth, and to whom I haue geuen it.

28 And thou, O ſonne of man, propheſie and ſpeake, Thus ſayth the Lorde God to the chyldren of Ammon, and to their blaſphemie, ſpeake thou, The ſwoorde, the ſwoorde is drawen forth alredy to ſlaughter, & furbiſhed to conſume becauſe of the glyttryng:

29 Whyles they ſee vnto thee vanitie, and diuine a lye vnto thee, to put thee with the neckes of the wycked that be ſlayne, whoſe day is come when their iniquitie ſhall haue an ende.

30 Shoulde I cauſe it to returne into his ſheath? In the place where thou waſt created, in the land of thyne habitation wyll I iudge thee.

31 And I wyl powre myne indignation vpon thee, and wyll blowe vpon thee in the fyre of my wrath, and deliuer thee into the handes of deſperate people, which are ſkylful to deſtroy.

32 Thou ſhalt feede the fyre, and thy blood ſhalbe ſhed in the myddeſt of the land: thou ſhalt be put out of remembraunce, for I the Lorde haue ſpoken it.

¶ The xxii. Chapter.

The vnrighteouſnes of the Lords againſt Hieruſalem for manſlaughter, and deſpyſing due honour to their fathers and mothers, and other vnryghteouſneſſe.

1 MOreouer, the woꝛde of the Loꝛd came vnto me, and sayde,

2 Thou sonne of man, wylt thou not a iudge, wylt thou not iudge this bloodie citie? wylt thou not shewe her al her abominations?

3 And tel them, thus sayth the Loꝛde God, The citie sheddeth blood in the middest of it, that her tyme b may come, and maketh idolles c agaynst her selfe, to defyle her selfe.

4 Thou hast made thee selfe gyltie in the blood that thou hast shed, and defyled thee in the idolles which thou hast made: thou hast caused thy dayes to drawe nygh, and made the tyme of thy yeeres to come: therefoꝛe wyl I make thee a reproche among the heathen, and to be a mocking in all landes.

5 Whether they be nygh oꝛ farre from thee, they shal laugh thee to scorne, thou that hast gotten thee so foule a name, and art full of trouble.

6 Beholde the rulers of Israel, euery one in thee was redy to his power to shedde blood.

7 In thee haue they despyted father and mother, in thee haue they oppressed the stranger, in thee haue they vexed the wyddowe and the fatherlesse.

8 Thou hast defyled my holy thynges, and defiled my Sabbothes.

9 Tale tellers are there in thee to shedde blood, in thee are suche as eate vppon the hylles, and in the middest of thee they commit abomination.

10 In thee they discouered their fathers shame, in thee they haue humbled her that was set apart foꝛ pollution.

11 Euery man hath dealt shamefully with his neyghbours wyfe, and abominably defyled his daughter in lawe, in thee hath euery man foꝛced his owne sister, euen his fathers daughter.

12 Yea gyftes haue ben receyued in thee to shed blood, thou hast taken vsurie and increase, thou hast oppressed thy neyghbours by extoꝛtion, and foꝛgotten me, sayth the Loꝛde God.

13 Beholde, I haue d smitten my handes vpon thy couetousnesse that thou hast vsed, and vpon the blood which hath ben shedde in the middest of thee.

14 Is thy hart able to endure? oꝛ may thy handes be strengthened in the dayes that I shal haue to doo with thee? Euen I the Loꝛde that speake it, wyl bryng it also to passe.

15 I wyl scatter thee among the heathen, and straw thee about in the landes, & wyl cause thy fylthinesse to e ceasse out of thee.

16 Yea and thou shalt be thine owne inheritance in the sight of the heathen, that thou mayest knowe that I am the Loꝛde.

17 And the woꝛde of the Loꝛde came vnto me, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, the house of Israel is vnto me as dꝛosse: al they are brasse, tin, iron, and lead in the middest of the furnace, euen dꝛosse of siluer are they.

19 Therfoꝛe thus sayth the Loꝛd God, Foꝛasmuche as ye al are turned into dꝛosse, therefoꝛe beholde I wyl bryng you together vnto Hierusalem.

20 Like as they geather siluer, brasse, iron, tinne, and lead into the middest of the furnace, and the fyre is blowne there vnder to melt them, euen so wyl I geather you in mine anger and in my wrath, and let you remayne there and cause you to f melt.

21 I wyl bryng you togeather, and blowe the fyre of my wrath vpon you, and ye shal be moulten in the middest thereof.

25 There is a h conspiracie of her prophetes in the middest thereof: as a roaring Lion rauenyng his pray they deuoure soules, they haue taken the riche and pretious thynges, they haue made her many wyddowes in the middest thereof.

26 Her priestes haue broken my lawe, and defiled my holy thinges, they put no difference betweene the holy and vnholy, neyther discerne they betweene the cleane and vncleane: they turne their eyes from my Sabbothes, & I am defiled among them.

27 Thy rulers in the middest of thee are like wolues rauening the pray, to shedde blood, and destroy soules foꝛ their owne couetous lucre.

28 As foꝛ her k prophetes, they daube with vntempered moꝛter, they see vanities, and diuine lyes vnto them, saying, The Loꝛde sayth so: whereas the Loꝛde hath not spoken.

¶ The .xxiii. Chapter.

Of the fornication, that is to ſay, of the idolatrie of Samaria and Hieruſalem, vnder the name of Aholah, and Aholibah.

1 THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thou ſonne of man, there were two women the daughters of a one mother.

3 And they committed fornication in b Egypt, they played the harlottes in theyr youth: there were theyr breſtes preſſed, and there they bruyſed the teates of theyr virginitie.

4 The c names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her ſiſter, and they were mine, and they bare ſonnes & daughters: thus were theyr names, Samaria is Aholah, and Hieruſalem Aholibah.

5 Aholah played the harlot d when ſhe was mine, and ſhe was ſet on fyre with her louers the Aſſyrians her neyghbours:

6 Which were clothed with blewe ſylke, both captaynes and princes, they were all pleaſaunt young men, and horſemen riding vpon horſes.

7 Thus ſhe committed her whoredome with them, being al choſen men of Aſſhur, & with al on whom ſhe doted, and defiled her ſelfe with al their idolles.

8 Neyther left ſhe the fornication that ſhe vſed with the Egyptians: for in her youth they e lay with her, they bruyſed the breſtes of her maydenhead, and powred their whoredome vpon her.

9 Wherfore I deliuered her into the handes of her louers, euen into the handes of the Aſſyrians vpon whom ſhe doted.

10 Theſe diſcouered her ſhame, tooke her ſonnes and daughters, and ſlue her with the ſwoorde, an euyl name had ſhe among women: for they had executed iudgement vpon her.

11 Her ſiſter Aholibah ſawe this, and deſtroyed her ſelfe with inordinate loue more then ſhe, and with her fornications, more then her ſiſter with her fornications.

12 She doted vpon the Aſſyrians captaynes and princes her neyghbours, clothed with al maner of gorgeous apparel, horſemen riding vpon horſes, being al pleaſant young men.

13 Then I ſawe that ſhe was defiled, and they tooke both one way.

14 But ſhe encreaſed styl in whoredome: for when ſhe ſawe men painted vpon the wall, the f images of the Chaldees painted with vermilion,

15 And girded with girdles vppon their loynes, and with dyed attyre vpon theyr heades, looking al like princes, after the maner of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the lande where they were borne:

16 As ſoone as ſhe ſawe them, ſhe burnt in loue vpon them, and ſent meſſengers vnto them into the lande of the Chaldees.

17 Nowe when the Babylonians came vnto her in the bed of loue, they defyled her with their whoredome: and ſo was ſhe polluted with them, and her luſt was abated from them.

18 And ſhe diſcouered her whoredome, and diſcloſed her ſhame: then my hart forſooke her, like as my hart was gone from her ſiſter alſo.

19 Neuertheleſſe, ſhe encreaſed her whoredome more, and remembred the dayes of her youth, wherein ſhe had played the harlot in the lande of Egypt.

20 She burnt in luſt vpon their lechers, whoſe fleſhe was like the fleſhe of aſſes, and their yſſue like the yſſue of horſes.

21 Thus thou haſt called to remembrance the fylthineſſe of thy youth, when thy teates were bruyſed by the Egyptians, for the pappes of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus ſayth the Lorde God, I wyl rayſe vp thy louers againſt thee from whom thy hart is departed, and geather them together againſt thee on euery ſide.

23 Namely the Babylonians and al the Chaldees, *rulers, wealthie, and mightie men, with al the Aſſyrians, al pleaſant young men, captaynes, and princes, al valiant and renowmed ryding vpon horſes.

24 Theſe ſhal come vpon thee with charrets, weapons, and wheeles, & great multitude of people, with buckler, ſhielde, and helmet they ſhal beſet thee on euery ſide: I wyl geue iudgement before them, yea they them ſelues ſhal iudge thee according to theyr owne iudgement.

25 I wyl lay mine indignation vpon thee, ſo that they ſhal deale cruelly with thee: they ſhal cut of thy noſe and thyne eares, and thy remnant ſhal fal by the ſwoorde, they ſhal cary away thy ſonnes and daughters, and the reſidue ſhalbe deuoured by the fyre.

26 They ſhal ſtrip thee out of thy clothes, and

a. Meaning Iſrael and Iuda, which came both out of one familie.

b. They became idolaters after the maner of the Egyptians.

c. Aholah ſignifieth a manſion or dwelling in her ſelfe, meaning Samaria, which was the royal citie of Iſrael, and Aholibah ſignifieth, My manſion in her, whereby is meant Hieruſalem, where Gods temple was.

d. Or vnder me, that is, vnder my gouernance, and named the people of God, they became idolaters, forſooke God, and put theyr truſt in the Aſſyrians.

e. The holy ghoſt vſeth theſe termes which ſeeme ſtrange to chaſte eares, to cauſe this wycked vice of idolatrie ſo to be abhorred, that vneth any ſhoulde abyde to heare the name thereof mentioned.

f. This declareth that no wordes are able ſufficiently to expreſſe the rage of idolaters, and therefore the holy ghoſt here compareth them to thoſe whiche in their ragyng lone and fylthy luſtes doe vpon the images and paynted of them ſlay whom they luſt.

* Or, Pekod, and Shoah, and Koa.

* Or, I wyl leaue the puniſhment vnto them.

and take away thy fayre iewels.

27 Thus wyll I make thy wickednesse to ceasse from thee, and thy fornication out of the lande of Egypt: so that thou shalt turne thyne eyes no more after them, and cast thy mynde no more vpon Egypt.

28 For thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl delyuer thee into the handes of them whom thou hatest, yea, euen into the hands of them from whom thyne hart is departed.

29 And they shal deale hatefully with thee, and take away all thy g labour, and leaue thee naked and bare, and the shame of thy fornications h shalbe discouered, both thy wickednesse and thy whoredome.

g. All thy treasures and riches which thou hast gotten by labour.

h. All ỹ worlde shal see thy shamefull forsaking of God to serue idols.

30 I wyll doo these thinges vnto thee, because thou hast gone a whoryng after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister, therefore wyll I geue her cup into thyne hande.

32 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Thou shalt drinke of thy sisters cuppe deepe and large, thou shalt be laughed to scorne, and had in derision, because it conteyneth muche.

i. Meanyng, ỹ the afflictions should be so great, that they should cause the to loose theyr wittes & reason.

33 Thou shalt be fylled with i drunkennesse and sorowe, euen with the cup of destruction and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt drynke it, and sucke it out, and thou shalt breake the sheardes thereof, and teare thyne owne breastes: for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God.

35 Therefore thus sayth the Lord God, For as much as thou hast forgotten me, and cast cast me aside behynde thy backe, so beare nowe thyne owne wickednesse and whoredome.

36 The Lord sayd moreouer vnto me, Thou sonne of man, wylt thou not iudge Aholah, and Aholibah? shewe them their abominations.

37 Namely that they haue broken their wedlocke, and blood is in their hands: and with their idols haue they committed adulterie, and haue also caused their sonnes whom they bare vnto me, to passe by the fire to be their k meate.

k. That is, to be sacrificed to theyr idols. Lande Exec. 16.

38 Yea, and this haue they done vnto me also, they haue defiled my sanctuarie in the same day, & haue prophaned my sabbothes.

39 For when they had slayne their chyldren for their idols, they came the same day into my sanctuarie to defile it: and loe, thus haue they done in the myddest of myne house.

l. They sent into other countreyes to haue riches, as thou shouldest teach them the seruice of theyr idols.

40 And howe muche more is it that they sent for men to come from l farre, vnto whom a messinger was sent, and loe, they came: for whom thou dyddest washe thee self, and paynted thyne eyes, and deckedst thee with ornamentes.

41 Thou satest vppon a stately bedde, and a m table spread before it, whereupon thou hast set myne incense and my oyle.

m. He meaneth the aulters that were prepared for the idols.

42 And a noyse of a merrie companie at " it, and with the men, beside the multitude of the people, were brought men of Saba out of the desart, whiche gaue them bracelettes vpon their handes, and beautifull crownes vpon their heades.

" Or, the table.

43 And I sayde vnto her that was worne in her adulteries, Nowe shall her fornications come to an ende, and she also.

44 And they went in to her as they go vnto a common harlot: euen so went they to Aholah and Aholibah, those wicked women.

45 And the ryghteous men they shal iudge them after the maner of harlottes, and after the maner of murderers: for they are harlottes, and blood is in their handes.

46 Wherefore thus sayth the Lorde God, I wil bring a great multitude of people vpon them, and geue them to be scattered and spoyled.

47 And the multitude shal stone them with stones, and cut them downe with theyr swoordes, they shall slay theyr sonnes and daughters, and burne vp their houses with fyre.

48 Thus wyl I cause wickednesse to ceasse out of the lande, that all n women may be taught not to do after your wickednesse.

n. Meaning al other cities and countreyes.

49 And so they shall lay your wickednesse vppon your owne selues, and the sinnes of your idols shal ye beare: and ye shal knowe that I am the Lorde God.

¶ The. xxiiii. Chapter.

He prooueth the firing of Hierusalem by a parable of a sethyng pot.

1 IN the a nienth yeere, in the tenth moneth, the tenth day of the b moneth, came the worde of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

a. Of Iechonias captiuitie & of ỹ raigne of Zedecias. 2. kin. 25.

b. Called Tebeth, conteyning part of December and part of Ianuarie, in which moneth & day Nabuchodonosor besieged Hierusale.

2 O thou sonne of man, wryte thee the name of this day, yea, euen of this present day: for the kyng of Babylon set hym selfe against Hierusalem this selfe same day.

3 And shewe the rebellious house a parable, and speake vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Prepare a c pot, set it on, and powre water into it.

c. Wherby is meant Hierusalem.

the bones thereof ſeeth wel therein.

6 With that ſayde the Lorde God on this maner, Woe vnto the blooddie citie, to the potte whoſe ſcumme is therein, and whoſe ſcumme is not gone out of it: bring it out e peece by peece, let no f lot fall vpon it.

7 For her blood is in the myddeſt of it, vpon a hygh drye g ſtone hath ſhe powred it, and not vpon the grounde, that it myght be couered with duſt:

8 That it myght cauſe wrath to aryſe, and take vengeance: I haue ſet her blood vpon a hygh drye rocke, that it ſhould not be couered.

9 Wherefore thus ſayth the Lorde God, "O woe be vnto the bloodthirſtie citie, for whō euen I mee ſelfe wyll make a great fyre, 10 And heape on muche wood, and h kindle the fyre, and ſeeth the fleſhe, and "ſpyce the pot, ſo that the very bones ſhalbe brent.

11 Moreouer, I wyl ſet the pot emptie vpon the coales, ſo that the braſſe thereof may be hot and burnt, and the fylthyneſſe of it may be molten in it, and the ſcumme of it ſhalbe conſumed.

12 She hath weeryed her ſelfe with "labour, yet her great ſcumme is not gone of her, in the fyre her ſcumme muſt be conſumed.

13 In thy filthineſſe is wickednеſſe: becauſe I i woulde haue purged thee, and thou waſt not purged from thy fylthyneſſe, thou ſhalt not be purged any more, tyll I haue cauſed myne indignation to reſt in thee.

14 Euen I the Lorde haue ſpoken it: yea, it is come thereto already that I wyll doo it, I wyl not goe backe, I wyl not ſpare, I wil not repent: but accoūding to thy wayes and imaginations ſhal they k iudge thee, ſayth the Lorde.

15 And the word of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying, 16 Thou ſonne of man, beholde, I wyl take away from thee the l pleaſure of thine eyes with a plague, yet ſhalt thou neyther mourne nor weepe, neyther ſhal thy teares runne downe.

17 Mourne in ſilence, make no mournyng of the dead, bynde the tyre of thy head vpon thee, and put on thy ſhoes vpon thy feete, couer not thy lippes, and m eate no mans bread.

18 So I ſpake vnto the people betymes in the mornyng, and at euen my wyfe dyed: then vpon the next morow, I dyd as I was commaunded.

19 And the people ſayd vnto me, Wylt thou not tel vs what this ſignifieth towarde vs, that thou doeſt ſo?

20 I aunſwered them, The worde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying, 21 Tell the houſe of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Beholde, I wyll pollute my ſanctuarie, euen the glory of your power, the pleaſure of your eyes, and your hartes delyte: and your ſonnes and daughters whom you haue left, ſhall fall through the ſworde.

22 Lyke as ye haue done, ſo ſhal ye doo alſo: ye ſhal not couer your lyppes, ye ſhal eate no mans bread.

23 And your tyre ſhalbe vppon your heades, and your ſhoes vpon your feete: ye ſhall neyther mourne nor weepe, but ye ſhal pyne away in your iniquities, and mourne one towardes another.

24 Thus Ezechiel is your ſhewetoken: accordyng to al that he hath done, ye ſhal doo: when it commeth, then ye ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde God.

25 Alſo, thou ſonne of man, ſhall it not be in the day when I take from thē their power, the ioy of their honour, the pleaſure of their eyes, and the n lyftyng vp of their ſoules, their ſonnes and their daughters?

26 In that day ſhal come one that is eſcaped, vntothee, o and bryng it to the hearyng of thyne eares.

27 In that day ſhal thy mouth be opened to hym whiche is eſcaped, that thou mayeſt ſpeake, and be no more dumbe: yea, thou ſhalt be their ſhewe token, that they may knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

8 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, For ſo muche as Moab and Seir doo ſay, Beholde, the houſe of Iuda is lyke as all Gentiles be.

¶ The xxvi Chapter.

1. He propheſieth that Tyrus ſhalbe ouerthrowen, becauſe it reioyced at the deſtruction of Hieruſalem.

1 AND it came to paſſe in the a eleuenth yeere, the fyrſt day of the moneth, the woord of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thou ſonne of man, becauſe that Tyre hath ſpoken vppon Hieruſalem, Haha, the gates of the people is broken, b it is turned vnto me, for nowe that ſhe is deſtroyed I ſhalbe c fylled:

8 Thy daughters that are in the feelde ſhall he ſlay with the ſwoord: but againſt thee he ſhall make bulwarkes, and caſt a mount againſt thee, and lyft vp his ſpeare againſt thee.

¶ The .xxviii. Chapter.

The vvorde of God against the king of Tyrus for his pryde.

1 THe worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,
2 Thou sonne of man, Tell the prince of Tyre, thus sayth the Lord God, Because thou hast a proude hart, and hast sayde, I am a [a] God, I sit in the seate of God, in the myddest of the sea: whereas thou art but a man, and not God, [b] though thou set thyne hart, as the hart of God.
3 Beholde, thou thynkest thee selfe wyser then [c] Daniel, that there is no secretes hid from thee.
4 With thy great wysedome and thyne vnderstandyng thou hast gotten thee great wealthynesse, and geathered treasure of syluer and golde.
5 With thy great wysedome and occupying hast thou encreased thy [1]power, & because of thy great riches thy hart is proude.
6 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, For so muche as thou hast set thyne hart as the hart of God:
7 Behold, I wyl bring strangers vpon thee, euen the terrible nations, these shall drawe out their swoordes vppon the beautie of thy wysedome, and shal defyle thy glory.
8 They shall cast thee downe to the pyt, so that thou shalt dye the death of them that be slayne in the myddest of the sea.
9 Wylt thou say then before them that slay thee, I am a God? where as thou art but a man, and not God, in the handes of them that slay thee.
10 Dye shalt thou the death of the vncircumcised in the handes of the strangers: for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God.
11 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,
12 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon the kyng of Tyre, and tell hym, thus sayth the Lorde God, Thou sealest vp the summe, [e] ful of wysedome and perfite beautie.
13 Thou hast ben in the pleasant garden of God, thou art deckt with all maner of pretious stones, with Rubie, Topas, Dia-monde, Turkis, Onyx, Jasper, Saphyr, E meralde, Carbuncle, and golde: the workmanship of thy timbrels, and of thy pypes

m. Whereby is meant a long time: for it was prophesied to be destroyed but seuentie yeeres. Esai. 23.

a. Like as God is safe in heauē, euē so I am safe that none can come to hurt me.
b. Though thou diddest thinke in thyne hart that thou wast equal with God.
c. Thus he speaketh by derision, for Daniel had declared notable signes of his wysdome in Babylon, whē Ezechiel wrote this.
[1] Or, ryches.
d. Lyke the rest of the Heathen & infidels, which are Gods enimies.
e. He derideth the vayne opinion and confidence that the Tyrians had in their ryches, strength, and pleasures.

that be in thee, was prepared in the day that thou waſt created.

f. He meaneth the royall ſtate of Tyrus, which for the excellencie and glorie therof, he cõpareth to the Cherubims wh che couered ỹ arke. & by this word annoynted, he ſignifieth the ſame.

14 Thou art an f annoynted Cherub that coūereth, and I haue ſet thee in this dignitie, thou waſt vppon the holy mount of God, thou haſt walked in the myds of the ſtones of fyre.

15 From the tyme of thy creation thou haſt been perfite in thy wayes, tyll wyckednesſe was founde in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy marchaundiſe they haue fylled the myddes of thee with crueltie, & thou haſt ſinned: I wyll caſt thee as prophane out of the g mount of God, and I wyll deſtroy thee, O couerynge Cherub, from the myddes of the ſtones of fyre.

g. Thou ſhalt haue no part amõg my people

17 Thy hart was proude in thy beautie, and thrugh thy bryghtneſſe thou haſt deſtroyed thy wyſedome: I wyl caſt thee downe to the grounde, I wyll lay thee before kynges, that they may beholde thee.

h. That is, the honor wherunto I called thee

18 Thou haſt defyled thy h ſanctification with the great wickednesſe of thine vnrighteous occupying: I wyll bryng a fyre from the myddeſt of thee, to conſume thee, and wyl make thee to aſhes vpõ the earth, in the ſight of all them that looke vpon thee.

19 All they that haue been acquaynted with thee among the Heathen, ſhalbe abaſhed at thee: thou haſt been a terrour, and neuer ſhalt thou be any more.

20 And the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

21 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face againſt Sidon, and propheſie vpon it,

22 And ſpeake, Thus ſayth the Lord God, Behold, O Sidon, I wyl vpon thee, and I wyl be glorified in the middeſt of thee: that it may be knowen howe that I am the Lorde, when I ſhall haue executed iudgementes in her, and ſhalbe ſanctified in her.

23 For I wyll ſende peſtilence and bloodſheddyng into her ſtreetes, and the ſlayne ſhall fall in the myddes of her by the ſwoord commyng vpon her on euery ſyde: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.

24 They ſhalbe no more a pricking thorne vnto the houſe of Iſrael, nor a greeuous thorne of all that are rounde about them, and deſpiſed them: and they ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde God.

25 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, When I geather the houſholde of Iſrael togeather againe from the nations among whom they be ſcattered, then ſhall I be ſanctified in them in the ſight of the Gentiles, and they ſhall dwell in the lande that I gaue to my ſeruant Iacob.

26 They ſhall dwel with confidence therein, buyld houſes, and plant vineyardes, yea, with confidence ſhal they dwel therin when I haue executed iudgementes vpon al thoſe that deſpiſe them rounde about, and then ſhall they knowe that I am the Lorde their God.

¶ The .xxix. Chapter.

He propheſieth againſt Pharao, and of the deſolation of Egypt, with the ſparkling abrode of the Egyptians.

1 IN the a tenth yeere, vpõ the twelfth day of the tenth moneth, the woord of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying, a: To wit, of the captiuitie of Ieconias, and of the raigne of Zedecias: but note that the diſpoſition of theſe yeres are not ſet forth according to the order of the times: but according to the neareſt diſtance of the counteyner gaynſt whom they were written. As the ſiege of Tyrus here in the eleuenth yeere, is ſet before this here in ỹ tenth yere, becauſe it was nearer to Iuie then Egypt.

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face againſt Pharao the kyng of Egypt, propheſie againſt hym, and againſt the whole lande of Egypt.

3 Speake, and tell hym, thus ſayth the Lord God, Behold, O Pharao, thou kyng of Egypt, I wyl vpon thee thou great Dragon, b that lyeth in the myddes of his ryuers, thou that ſayeſt, The ryuer is myne, I haue made it for mee ſelfe.

b. He compareth Pharao to a Dragon or Crocodile whiche was wont to haunt the ryuer Nilus.

4 I wyll put c hookes in thy chawes, and hang thy fyſh in thy ryuers vpon thy ſkales: after that, I wyll drawe thee out of the myddes of thy ryuers, yea, and all the fyſhe of thy ryuers ſhal hang vpon thy ſkales.

c. I wyl ſtirre enimies againſt thee, which ſhal plucke thee and thy people that truſt in thee out of thy fare places.

5 I wyll leaue thee in the wylderneſſe both thee and all the fyſhe of thy ryuers: thou ſhalt fall vppon the open feelde, thou ſhalt not be brought togeather, nor geathered: I haue geuen thee for meate to the beaſtes of the feelde, and to the foules of the ayre.

6 That al they whiche dwel in Egypt, may knowe that I am the Lorde, becauſe they haue ben a ſtaffe of reede to the houſe of Iſrael.

7 When they tooke holde of thee with their hande, thou brakeſt and rent all their ſhoulder: and when they leaned vpon thee, thou brakeſt and madeſt all their loynes to ſtande vpright.

8 Therefore thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Beholde, I wyll bryng a ſwoorde vppon thee, and deſtroy out of thee both man and beaſt.

9 Yea, the lande of Egypt ſhalbe deſolate and waſte, and they ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde, becauſe he ſayde, The ryuer is myne, I mee ſelfe haue made it.

10 Beholde therfore, I wyl vpon thee, and vpon thy ryuers, I wyll make the lande of Egypt vtterly waſt and deſolate, from the towre of Seueneh, vnto the borders of Ethiopia.

11 No foote of man ſhall paſſe by it, nor foote foote of beast shal passe by it, neyther shall it be inhabited fourtie yeeres.

12 I wyl make the land of Egypt to be desolate among other waste countreys, and her cities destroyed fourtie yeeres among other destroyed cities: and I wyll scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and strawe them through the countreys.

13 Agayne, thus saith the Lord God, When the fourtie yeeres are expired, I wyll gether the Egyptians togeather agayne out of the nations among whom they were scattered.

14 And I wyl bring the captiuitie of Egypt agayne, and cause them to returne into the land of Pathros, the lande of their habitation, and they shalbe there a d smal kingdome.

d. Meanyng that they should not haue full dominion, but be vnder the Persians, Grecians, & Romans: and the cause is that the Israelites shoulde no more put their trust in them, but learne to depend on god.

15 Yea it shalbe the smallest among other kingdomes, neither shal it exalt it selfe any more aboue the nations: for I wyll so minishe them, that they shall no more rule the nations.

16 And they shalbe no more vnto the house of Israel a trust, whiche bringeth their iniquitie to remembraunce, when they shal looke after them: and they shal knowe that I am the Lord God.

17 In the e twentie and seuenth yeere, the first day of the first moneth, came the worde of the Lord vnto me, saying,

e. Counting from the captiuitie of Iecho. nias.

18 Thou sonne of man, Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon called his armie to serue a great seruice agaynst Tyre: euery head was made balde, and euery shoulder bare, yet had neyther he nor his armie any wages for Tyrus for the seruice whiche he serued agaynst it.

19 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde GOD, Behold, I wyl geue the land of Egypt vnto Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon, that he may take away her multitude, and spoyle her spoyles, and take her pray to pay his host their wages withal.

"the trauayl that toke aboue Tyre.

20 For the "worke whiche he wrought about it, I haue geuen him the lande of Egypt, because they wrought for me, saith the Lorde God.

21 In that day I wyl cause the horne of the house of Israel to budde foorth, and I wyll geue thee the opening of thy mouth in the middes of them: and they shall knowe that I am the Lord.

¶ The .xxx. Chapter.

The destruction of Egypt, and of his cities, is bewayled.

1 THE woord of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, prophesie, and speake, Thus sayth the Lorde God, Howle, woe worth this day:

3 For the day is neare, the day of the Lord is at hand, the darke day, the time of the nations shalbe. "a cloudy day.

4 And the swoord shal come vppon Egypt: and feare shalbe in Ethiopia when ỳ slaine shall fall in Egypt: and they shal take away her multitude, and her fundations shalbe broken downe.

5 Yea Ethiopia, Libya, and Lydia, al their common people, and Chub, and all that be confederate vnto them, shall fall with them through the swoord.

6 Thus sayth the Lorde, The mainteyners of the land of Egypt shall fall, the pride of her power shal come downe, euen from the towre of a Seueneth shal they fall downe in it with the swoord, sayth the Lord God.

a. Which was a strong citie of Egypt.

7 Among other desolate countreys they shalbe made desolate, among other waste cities they shalbe wasted.

8 And they shal know that I am the Lorde, when I haue set a fyre in Egypt, and when al her helpers shalbe destroyed.

9 In that day shall messengers goe foorth from me in ships, to make ỳ careless Moxians afrayde, & feare shall come vpon them, accordyng to the day of Egypt: for loe it commeth.

10 Thus sayth the Lord God, I wyll cause the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hande of Nabuchodonosor kyng of Babylon.

11 He, and his people with him, the terrible nations shalbe brought to destroy the land: they shall drawe out their swoords vppon Egypt, and fyll the lande full of slayne men.

12 I wyl make their riuers drye, and sel the lande into the handes of wicked people: the lande and all that is therein I wyll destroy through the hand of strangers: euen I the Lord haue sayde it.

13 Thus sayth the Lorde God, * I wyl destroy the idolles, and bring the images of b Noph to an ende: there shall no more be a prince of Egypt, and a fearefulnesse wyll I send into the Egyptians lande.

*Zach. 13. 2.

d. Which is supposed of diuers to be the citie of Alexandria.

15 And I wil powre out my wrathful indignation vppon Sin the strength of Egypt, and I wyll destroy the multitude of No.

16 And I wyll kindle a fyre in Egypt, Sin shalbe in great heauinesse, No shalbe rooted out, & Noph shal haue dayly sorowe.

17 The

17 The young men of *Auen, and of *Phibeſech ſhal fal by the ſwoord, and theſe cities ſhal goe into captiuitie.

18 At Tehaphnes the day ſhalbe e darke, when I breake there the barres of Egypt, and when the pompe of her power ſhall ceaſſe in her, a cloude ſhal couer her, and her daughter ſhall goe into captiuitie.

19 Thus wyl I execute my iudgementes in Egypt, and they ſhal know how that I am the Lorde.

20 And in the f eleuenth yeere, vppon the ſeuenth day of the fyrſt moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying, 21 Thou ſonne of man, I haue g broken the arme of Pharao king of Egypt: and loe, it ſhal not be bound vp to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it ſtrong to holde the ſwoord.

22 Therefore thus ſaith the Lord God, Behold, I wyl vpon Pharao king of Egypt, and breake his arme that was ſtrong, but is broken: and I wyl cauſe the ſwoord to fal out of his hand.

23 As for the Egyptians I wyll ſcatter them among the nations, and ſtrawe them in the landes about.

24 Agayne, I wyll ſtrengthen the arme of the king of Babylon, & geue him my ſwoord in his hand, but I wyll breake Pharaos armes, and he ſhall grone the gronynges of a deadly wounded man before him:

25 Yea, I wyll ſtrengthen the king of Babylons arme, and the armes of Pharao ſhal fal downe: and they ſhal knowe that I am the Lord, when I ſhal h geue my ſwoord into the hand of the king of Babylon, that he may ſtretche it out vppon the lande of Egypt.

26 And I wyll ſcatter the Egyptians among the nations, and ſtrawe them in the landes about: and they ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde.

¶ The.xxxi. Chapter.

1. A compariſon of the proſperitie of Pharao with the proſperitie of the Aſſyrians. 10. He propheſieth a like deſtruction to them both.

1 MOreouer, in the a eleuenth yeere, the firſt day of the third moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thou ſonne of Man, ſpeake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, to al his people, Whom art thou b like in thy greatneſſe?

3 Beholde, Aſſur is a Cedar in Libanon, with fayre branches, and with thicke ſhadowing boughes of a high ſtature, and his toppe was among the thicke bowes.

4 The waters made him great, and the deepe ſet him vp on high, with the ryuers runnyng rounde about his plantes, and ſet out her c little ryuers vnto all the trees of the feelde.

5 Therefore was he higher then al the trees of the feelde, and his bowes were multiplied, and his branches were long, because of the multitude of the waters whiche the deepe ſent out.

6 All foules of the *ayre made their neſtes in his branches, vnder his boughes dyd all the beaſtes of the feelde bring foorth their young, and vnder his ſhaddowe dwell all mighty nations.

7 Beautifull was he in his greatneſſe, and in the length of his branches: for his roote ſtoode beſide great waters.

8 No Cedar tree might d hyde him in the garden of God, there was no Fyre trees like his branches, the Cheſtnut trees were not like the boughes of him: all the trees in the garden of God might not be compared vnto him in his beautie.

9 I made him fayre with the multitude of his branches: inſomuch that all the trees in the pleaſant garden of God had enuie at him.

10 Therefore thus ſayth the Lord God, For ſo much as he hath lift vp him ſelfe ſo high, and hath ſhot vp his toppe among the thicke boughes, and his hart is lyft vp in his heyght:

11 I haue therefore deliuered him into the handes of the e mightyeſt among the heathen: he ſhall handle him, for in his wickednesſe haue I caſt him away.

12 And ſtrangers haue deſtroyed him, euen the terrible nations, and haue left him: vpon the mountaynes, and vpon all valleyes haue his boughes fallen, and his boughes are f broken by al the riuers in the lande: and all the people of the earth are departed from his ſhadowe, and haue forſaken him.

13 Vpon his ruine ſhall all the foules of the *ayre remayne, and all the beaſtes of the feelde ſhalbe vpon his branches.

14 So that none of al the trees by the waters ſhalbe exalted in their height, nor ſhoote vp their toppes among the thicke bowghes, neyther ſhall their trees ſtande in their height, as many of them as drinke water: for they are all deliuered vnto death in the neather parts of the earth, in the middes of the chyldren of men, among them that goe downe to the pit.

15 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, in the day when he went downe to the graue, I cauſed a lamentation to be made, I g couered the deepe for him, I reſtrayned the flooddes

a. Of Zedecias raigne, or Ieconias captiuitie.

e. That is, Nebuchodonoſor who afterward was the monarche and only ruler of the world.

f. Here ſignifieth deſtruction of the power of the Aſſyrians & the Babylonians.

*Or, heauen.

g. The deepe waters that cauſed him to mount ſo high meanyng his great abundance and pompe, ſhal nowe lamente they which in mourning were couered with ſackcloth.

floodes therof, and the great waters were stayed, I caused Libanus to mourne for hym, and al the trees of the feeld fainted.

16 I made the heathen shake at the sound of his fal, when I cast him downe to hel with them that descend into the pyt: al the excellent trees of Eden, and the best of Libanus, all that h drynke waters shalbe i comforted in the neather partes of the earth.

17 They also went downe to hell with hym vnto them that be slayne with the swoorde, whiche were his arme, and dwelt vnder his shadowe in the myddest of the nations.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatnesse among the trees of Eden? yet thou shalt be cast downe with the trees of Eden, vnto the neather partes of the earth: in the myddest of the vncircumcised shalt thou sleepe with them that are slayne with the swoorde: This is Pharao and all his multitude, sayth the Lord God.

h That are wounded with swerd.

i To cause an destruction of the kyng of Assiria to seme more horrible, he setteth forth other kynges & princes whiche are dead, as though they reioyced at the fal of suche a tyrant.

¶ The.xxxii.Chapter.

2. The Prophet is commaunded to bewayle Pharao king of Egypt. 12. He propheſieth that deſtruction shal come vnto Egypt through the king of Babylon.

1 IN the a twelfth yeere, the fyrst day of the twelfth moneth, the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, take vp a lamentation vpon Pharao the kyng of Egypt, and say vnto hym, Thou art b lyke a Lion of the heathen, & as a Whale fyshe in the sea: thou drawest out thy ryuers, thou c troublest the waters with thy fete, and stampest in their ryuers.

3 Thus sayth the Lorde God, I wyl spread my net ouer thee with a great multitude of people, these shal make thee come vp into my net.

4 For I wyll leaue thee vpon the lande, and cast thee vpon the open feelde, and I wyl cause al the foules of the ayre to remayne vpon thee, and fyl al the beastes of the feeld with thee.

5 Thy fleshe wyl I lay vpon the hylles, and fyl the valleys with thy d hyghnesse.

6 I wyl e water thyne ouerflowyng lande with thy blood, euen to the mountaynes, and the ryuers shalbe ful of thee.

7 When thou art put out, I wyll couer the heauen, and make his starres dymme: I wyll spread a cloude ouer the Sunne, and the Moone shal not geue her lyght.

8 Al the lyghtes of heauē wil I make darke for thee: and bryng darknes vpon thy land, sayth the Lorde.

9 I wyl stirre vp to anger the hartes of many people, when I bryng thy destruction among the heathen, and vpon the countreyes whiche thou knowest not.

10 Yea I wyll make many people amased at thee, & their kynges shalbe astonyshed with feare for thee, when I shall make my swoord to glytter agaynst their faces: and they shalbe afrayde at euery moment, euery man for his owne lyfe, in the day of thy fal.

11 For thus sayth the Lord God, The kyng of Babylons swoorde shal come vpon thee:

12 With the swoordes of the myghtie wyll I smyte downe thy multitude, they all shalbe terrible nations, and they shall destroy the f pompe of Egypt, and the multitude therof shalbe consumed.

13 I wyll destroy also all the beastes therof from the great waters sydes, neyther shal the foote of man trouble them any more, nor the hooues of beastes trouble them.

14 Then wil I make their waters g depe, and cause their ryuers to runne like h oyle, sayth the Lorde.

15 When I make the lande of Egypt desolate, and when the countrey with all that is therein shalbe layde waste, and when I smyte al them whiche dwel in it, then shall they knowe that I am the Lorde.

16 This is the mournyng when they shall lament her, The daughters of the nations shall lament her, they shall make the lamentation ouer Egypt, and ouer al the people therof, sayth the Lorde.

17 In the twelfth yeere, the fyfteenth day of the moneth, came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, saying,

18 Thou sonne of man, lament for the multitude of Egypt, and i cast them downe, euen them, & the daughters of the famous nations, to the neather partes of the earth, with them that goe downe into the pyt.

19 Whom doest thou passe in k beauty, goe downe and sleepe with the vncircumcised.

20 Among those that be slayne with the swoorde shal they lye, to the swoorde is l she alredy deliuered: drawe her downe, and al her multitude.

21 The m myghtie woorthies shall speake to her out of the myddest of hell, and to her helpers: they are gone downe and sleepe with the vncircumcised that be slayne with the swoorde.

22 Assur is there also with al his company, and their graues round about hym, whiche were slayne and fel al with the swoorde:

23 Whose graues are made in the syde of the pyt, and his multitude are round about his graue, to wit, all the slayne and fallen by the swoorde, whiche cause a feare to be a Which was the fifth yere of the general captiuitie vnder Iechonias.

b Thus the Scriptures compare tyrants to cruel and huge beastes, whiche deuoure al that be weaker then they, and suche as they maye ouercome.

c With the dregges of the carkasses of thyne armie.

d As Nilus ouerfloweth Egypt, so wyl I make thy blood al thyne hoste to ouerflowe it.

f This came to passe in lesse then fourtye yeres after the prophesie.

g The inhabitantes of Egypt shalbe so cleane destroyed, that there shal remayne none to drawe the waters out of the ryuers to water their grounde as before, wher by it shalbe deeper in his channel.

h That is, cleare and vntroubled with feete passing through the foordes.

i That is, prophesie that they shalbe cast downe. Thus the Lorde geueth power both to plant and to destroy by his worde.

k Haue not other kyngdomes more beautiful then thou perysshed?

l That is, Egypt.

m To make y matter more sensible, he bryngeth in Pharao, as though the dead shoulde moste him when he is slayne, and marueyle at hym.

s. He ſetteth out the office of the gouernours and miniſters. 14. He ſtrengtheneth them that deſpayre, and boldeneth them with the promyſe of mercie.

in the lande of the lyuyng.

24 There is Elam alſo, with all his people rounde about his graue, whiche al being ſlayne and fallen with the ſwoꝛde, are gone downe vncircumciſed vnder the earth, whiche neuertheleſſe ſometyme brought feare into the lande of the n lyuyng: they beare their owne ſhame, with the other that be gone downe to the graue.

n. They whiche being aliue were a terrour to al the world, nowe beyng dead, are deſpiſed both of the lyuyng and the dead.

25 They haue made his bedde in the myddeſt of the ſlayne, with al his multitude, their graues are rounde about hym: al theſe vncircumciſed ſlayne by the ſwoꝛde, although they cauſed their feare in the lande of the lyuyng, yet haue they borne their ſhame with them that goe downe to the pit, they are layde in the myddeſt of them that are ſlayne.

o. That is, the Cappadocians, & Italians, or Spanyardes, Ioſephus wryteth.

26 There is o Meſech alſo and Tubal, and their people, and their graues round about hym: theſe all vncircumciſed were ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde, becauſe afoꝛetyme they made the lande of the lyuyng afrayde.

p. Which died not by cruell death, but by courſe of nature, and are honourablye buryed with their coate armour, & ſignes of honour.

27 They ſhall not lye with the p valeant vvhiche are fallen of the vncircumciſed, which are gone downe to the graue with their weapons of warre, and haue layde their ſwoꝛdes vnder their heades: but their iniquitie ſhalbe vpon their bones, becauſe the terrour of their myghtie vvas in the lande of the lyuyng.

28 Yea, and among the vncircumciſed ſhalt thou be deſtroyed, and ſleepe with them that peryſhed through the ſwoꝛde.

29 There is Edom with her kynges and pꝛinces alſo, which with their ſtrength are layde by them that were ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde: yea among the vncircumciſed ſhal they ſleepe, and with them whiche are gone downe into the pyt.

q. That is, the kynges of Babylon.

30 Moꝛeouer, there be al the pꝛinces of the q Noꝛth, with al the Sidonians, whiche are gone downe with the ſlaine: with their feare and ſtrength they are come to confuſion, & lye there vncircumciſed among thoſe that be ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde, and beare their owne ſhame with them that be gone downe to the pyt.

r. Lyke as the wicked reioyce when they ſee other partakers of their miſeries.

s. I wil make the Egyptians to feare me, as they haue cauſed other to feare them.

31 Pharao ſhal ſee them, and be r comfoꝛted ouer all his multitude: Pharao and all his armie ſhalbe ſlayne with the ſwoꝛd, ſayth the Loꝛde God, 32 Foꝛ I haue geuen my feare s in the land of the lyuyng: but Pharao and al his people ſhalbe layde among the vncircumciſed, and among them that be ſlayne with the ſwoꝛde, ſayth the Loꝛde God.

1 AGayne, the woꝛde of the Loꝛde came vnto me, ſaying,

2 Thou ſonne of man, ſpeake to the chyldꝛen of thy people, and tel them, When I ſend a ſwoꝛd vpon a land, yf the people of the land take a man of their coaſtes, and ſet hym to be their a watchman:

a. He ſheweth that the people ought continually to haue gouernors & teachers, whiche maye haue a care ouer them, and to warne them euer of the dangers which are at hande.

3 Yf when he ſeeth the ſwoꝛd come vpon the land, he ſhal blowe the trumpet, and warne the people:

4 Then he that heareth the noyſe of the trumpet, and wyll not be warned, and the ſwoꝛde come and take hym away, his blood ſhalbe vpon his owne head.

5 Foꝛ he heaꝛde the ſounde of the trumpet, and wouꝛde not be warned, therefoꝛe his blood be vpon hym: but he that receyueth warnyng, he ſhal ſaue his lyfe.

6 Agayne, yf the watchman ſee the ſwoꝛde come, and blow not the trumpet, ſo that the people is not warned: yf the ſwoꝛde come then, and take any man from among them: the ſame ſhalbe b taken away in his owne ſinne, but his blood wyl I requyꝛe at the watchmans hande.

b. Signifying, that y wycked ſhal not eſcape punyſhment, though the watchman be negligent: but yf the watchman blow the trumpet, and then he wyll not obey, he ſhal deſerue double punyſhment. Chap.3.

7 And thou, O ſonne of man, I haue made thee a watchman vnto the houſe of Iſrael: therfoꝛe thou ſhalt heaꝛe the woꝛd at c my mouth, & thou ſhalt warne them from me.

c. Which preacheth that he that receyueth not his charge and watchword at the Lordes mouth is a lyer and not a true watchman.

8 Yf I ſay vnto the wycked, Thou wicked, thou ſhalt ſurely dye, and thou ſpeakeſt not to admonyſhe the wycked of his way: that wycked man ſhal dye in his owne ſinne, but his blood wyl I requyꝛe at thy hande.

9 Neuertheleſſe, yf thou warne the wycked of his way to turne from it, and he yet wyll not be turned from his way: then ſhall he dye in his iniquitie, but thou haſt delyuered thy ſoule.

d. Thus the wycked when they heare of Gods iudgementes for their ſinnes, diſpayre of his mercies, and murmuꝛ.

10 Therefoꝛe, O thou ſonne of man, ſpeake vnto the houſe of Iſrael, yea ſay thus, Yf our offences and ſinnes lye vpon vs, and we be conſumed in them, d howe ſhoulde we then lyue?

11 Tel them, As truely as I lyue, ſayth the Loꝛde God, I haue no pleaſure in the death of the wycked, but muche rather that the wycked turne from his way, and lyue: Turne you, turne you from your wycked wayes, foꝛ why wyl ye dye, O ye of the houſe of Iſrael?

12 Therfoꝛe thou ſonne of man, tel the chyldꝛen of thy people, The ryghteouſneſſe of of the ryghteous shal not saue him in the day of his iniquitie: agayne the wickednesse of the wycked shal not ouerthrowe him for it, in the day that he returneth from his wickednesse: neyther shal the ryghteous lyue for e it in the day that he sinned.

13 If I say vnto the ryghteous, He shal surely lyue, and so he trust to his owne ryghteousnesse, and doo sinne: then shall his righteousnesse be no more thought vpon, but in his wickednesse that he hath done, in it he shal dye.

14 Agayne, if I say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt surely dye: and so he turne from his sinnes, and f doo the thing that is lawful and right, 15 Insomuche that the same wycked man geueth the pledge agayne, restoreth that he had taken away by robberie, walketh in the commaundementes of lyfe, and doeth none iniquitie: then shal he surely lyue, and not dye.

16 None of the sinnes that he hath committed shalbe mentioned vnto hym: for insomuche as he doeth nowe the thyng that is lawful and ryght, he shal lyue.

17 And yet the chyldren of thy people say, The way of the Lorde is not equal: but theyr owne way is rather vnequal.

18 When the ryghteous turneth from his ryghteousnesse, and doeth the thing that is wycked, he shal dye therein.

19 But if the wicked turne from his wickednesse, dooing the thing that is lawful and right, he shal lyue therefore.

20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lorde is not equal: O ye house of Israel, I wyl iudge euery one of you after his wayes.

21 In the twelfth yeere, the fifth day of the tenth moneth of our g captiuitie, one which was escaped out of Hierusalem came vnto me, and sayde, The citie is smitten.

22 Nowe the h hande of the Lorde had ben vpon me the euening afore this man which was escaped came vnto me, and had i opened my mouth, vntyl the morowe that he came to me: yea my mouth was opened, so that I was no more dumbe.

23 Then came the woorde of the Lorde vnto me, and sayde, 24 Thou sonne of man, these that dwel in the wasted lande of Israel talke and say, k Abraham was but one man and he had the lande in possession: nowe are we many, and the lande is geuen vs to possesse also.

25 And therefore tel them, thus sayth the Lorde God, In the blood haue ye eaten, your eyes haue ye lyfte vp to idols, and haue shed blood: shal ye then haue the lande in possession?

26 Ye l leane vpon your swordes, ye worke abominations, euery one defyleth his neyghbours wyfe: and shal ye possesse the lande?

l. As they that are redy styl to shedde blood.

27 Say thou thus vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, As truely as I lyue, they that are in the desolate places shall fall by the swoorde, and him that is in the open feelde, wil I geue vnto the beastes to be deuoured: and they that be in the strong holdes and dennes shal dye of the pestilence.

28 For I wyl make the lande desolate and waste, that the pompe of her strength shall ceasse: the mountaynes of Israel shalbe so waste, that no man shal trauayle thereby.

29 Then shal they knowe that I am the Lorde, when I make the land desolate and waste, because of their abominations that they haue wrought.

30 And thou sonne of man, the chyldren of thy people that talke of thee by the waters and in the doores of theyr houses, & speake one to another, euery one to his brother, saying, Come I pray you, let vs heare what woorde is gone foorth from the Lorde:

m. This declareth that we ought to heare Gods worde with such zeale and affection, that we should not onely delyght therein to heare it preached, but also in all poyntes obey it: els we abuse the worde to our owne condempnation, and make of the ministers as though they were iesters to serue mens fantasies.

31 They come vnto thee as the people vseth to come, and my people sit before thee and heare thy woordes, but they doo not thereafter: for in theyr mouthes they make a m iest of them, and theyr hart goeth after theyr couetousnesse.

32 And loe, thou art vnto them as a n iesting song of one that hath a pleasant voyce and can syng wel: for they heare thy woordes, but doo them not.

n. Or a song of pastime and pleasure.

33 When this commeth to passe (loe it commeth) then shal they knowe that there hath ben a prophete among them.

¶ The.xxxiiii.Chapter.

Agaynst shepheardes that despise the flocke of Christ, and seeke theyr owne gayne.

1 AND the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

2 *Thou sonne of man, prophesie agaynst the shepheardes of Israel, prophesie and speake vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde God vnto the shepheardes, Woe be vnto the a shepheardes of Israel that feede them selues: shoulde not the shepheardes feede the flockes?

*Iere.23. 1.

a. By the shepheardes he meaneth the kyng, the magistrates, priestes, and prophetes.

3 Ye eate vp the fatte, ye clothe you with the wool, the best fedde doo ye slay: but the flocke doo ye not feede.

4 The weake haue ye not strengthened, the sicke haue ye not healed, the broken haue ye not bounde togeather, the dryuen away haue ye not brought againe, the lost haue ye not sought: but with force & crueltie haue ye ruled them.

5 They are scattered without a shepheard, yea all the beastes of the feelde b deuoure them, and they goe astray.

b. For lacke of good gouernment and doctrine they perysshe.

6 My sheepe goe wandryng vpon al mountaynes, and vpon euery high hyl, yea my flocke is scattered through al the face of the earth, and there is no man that seeketh or searcheth after them.

7 Therefore, O ye shepheardes heare the worde of the Lorde.

8 As truely as I lyue, sayth the Lorde God, for as muche as my sheepe are robbed and deuoured of all the wylde beastes of the feelde, hauing no shephearde, and seeyng that my shepheardes seeke not my sheepe, but the shepheardes feede them selues, and feede not my sheepe:

9 Therefore heare the worde of the Lorde, O ye shepheardes,

10 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl vpon the shepheardes, and requyre my sheepe from theyr handes, and make them ceasse from feeding of the sheepe, yea the shepheards shal feede them selues no more: for I wyl c deliuer my sheepe out of theyr mouthes, so that they shal not deuoure them after this.

c. By destroying the couetous hyrelings, and restoryng true shepheardes.

11 For thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I, euen I wyl looke to my sheepe mee selfe, and seeke them out.

12 Like as a shepheard when he hath ben among the flocke, seeketh after the sheepe that are scattered abrode: euen so wyll I seeke after my sheepe, and deliuer them out of al places where they haue ben scattered in the d cloudie and darke day.

d. In the day of their affliction and miserie: and this promise is to comfort ỹ Churche in al dangers.

13 I wyl bryng them out from the people, and geather them togeather out of the landes, I wyl bryng them into theyr owne land, and feede them vpon the mountaynes of Israel by the ryuers, and in al the inhabited places of the countrey.

14 I wyl feede them in right good pastures, and vpon the hygh mountaynes of Israel shal their foldes be: there shal they lye in a good folde, and in a fat pasture shal they feede, euen vpon the mountaynes of Israel.

15 I wyl feede my sheepe, and bryng them to theyr rest, sayth the Lorde God.

16 Suche as be lost, wyl I seeke: suche as are driuen away, wyl I bring agayne: suche as be broken, wyl I binde vp: suche as be weake, wyl I make strong: suche as be fat and strong, those wyl I roote out, & feede them with e iudgement.

e. That is, by putting difference betweene the good and bad, & so geue to eyther as they deserue.

17 And as for you, O my sheepe, sayth the Lorde God, I wyl iudge betweene catel and catel, betweene the rammes and the goates.

18 Seemeth it a smal thyng to you to haue eaten vp the good f pasture, and to treade downe the residue of your pasture with your feete also? to dryncke the deepe waters, and to trouble the rest also with your feete?

f. By good pasture & deepe waters is meant ỹ pure worde of God, and the administration of iustice: whiche they dyd not distribute to the poore tyl they had corrupt it.

19 Thus my sheepe must be fayne to eate the thyng that ye haue troden downe with your feete, and to dryncke it that ye with your feete haue defiled.

20 Therfore thus sayth the Lord God vnto them, Behold, I euen I wil iudge betweene the fatte catel and the leane catel, 21 For lomuche as with side and shoulder ye haue shoued, and with your hornes haue pushed al the weake, tyl ye haue scattered them abrode.

22 I wyl saue my sheepe, so that they shall no more be spoyled, yea I wyl iudge betweene catel and catel.

23 * I wyl set vp ouer them a shepheard, and he shal feede them, euen my seruaunt g Dauid, he shal feede them, and he shalbe theyr shepheard.

* Esai. 40. 12 Iohn. 10. 11.

g. Meaning Christe, of whom Dauid was a figure, as Osee. 3.

24 And I the Lorde wyl be theyr God, and my seruaunt Dauid shalbe theyr prince: euen I the Lorde haue spoken it.

25 Moreouer, I wyl make a couenant of peace with them, and cause euyl beastes to ceasse out of the lande: so that they may dwel h safely in the wyldernesse, and sleepe in the woods.

h. This declareth, that vnder Christe the flocke shoulde be truely deliuered from sinne and hel: and so be safely preserued in the Churche, where they shoulde neuer perishe.

26 And I wyl set them as a blessyng round about my hyl, & I wyl cause rayne to come downe in due season, and there shalbe rayne of blessyng.

27 And the tree of the feelde shal yeelde her fruite, and the earth shal geue her encrease: they shalbe safe in theyr lande, and shall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I haue broken the bondes of theyr yoke, and deliuered them out of the handes of those that serued them selues of them.

28 They shal no more be spoyled of the heathen, nor deuoured with the beastes of the lande: but safely shal they dwel, and no man shal fray them.

29 And I wyl rayse vp from them a i plant of renowme, and they shalbe no more k clunged with hunger in the lande, neyther beare the reproche of the heathen any more.

i. That is, the rod that shall come out of the roote of Iesse.

k Or, clensed of hunger seruitude.

30 Thus shal they vnderstande that I the Lorde theyr God am with them, and that they, euen the house of Israel, are my people, sayth the Lorde God:

31 * And ye my sheepe, the sheepe of my pasture,

* Iohn. 10. 11

pasture, are men: and I am your God, saith the Lorde God.

¶ The.xxxv. Chapter.

The destruction that shall come on the mount Seir, that is, on the Idumeans, because they troubled the people of the Lorde.

1 MOreouer, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Thou sonne of man, set thy face toward the mount a Seir, prophesie against it,

3 And say vnto it, Thus saith the lord God, Behold, O thou mount Seir, I wyl vpon thee, I wyll reache out my hande ouer thee, yea waste and desolate wyl I make thee.

4 Thy cities wyl I laye waste, and thou shalt lye voyde, that thou mayst know howe that I am the Lorde.

5 For as much as thou bearest an olde emnitie, and hast put the chyldren of Israel to flyght by the force of the sword, in the tyme of their calamitie, when their iniquitie had an ende:

6 Therefore as truely as I lyue, saith the Lord God, I wyll prepare thee vnto blood, yea blood shal folow vpon thee, except thou b hate blood, euē blood shal persecute thee.

7 Thus wyl I make the mount Seir desolate and waste, & cut out from it hym that passeth out, and hym that returneth:

8 His mountaynes wyl I fyl with his slaine men, thy hylles, valleys, and al thy ryuers, the slayne with the swoorde shal fal in them.

9 I wyl make thee a perpetual wylderneſſe, so that thy cities shall not c returne: that ye may knowe that I am the Lorde.

10 And because thou hast sayde, d Both these nations, and both these landes must be myne, & we wyl haue them in possession, whereas the Lorde was there:

11 Therefore as truely as I lyue, saith the Lorde God, I wyll euen doo accordyng to thy e wrath, & accordyng to thyne enuying which thou hast vsed in thy hatred against them: and I wil make mee selfe f knowen amongest them when I haue iudged thee.

12 Yea, and thou shalt knowe that I the Lorde haue heard of thy blasphemies, whiche thou hast spoken against the mountaines of Israel, saying, They are made waste, and geuen vs to deuoure.

13 Thus with your mouthes ye haue made your boastes against me, yea and multiplied your woordes against me, which I haue heard.

14 Thus sayth the Lorde GOD, To the ioye of all the worlde wyll I make thee waste.

15 And lyke as thou wast glad because the heritage of the house of Israel was destroyed, euen so wyl I doo vnto thee, thou shalt be destroyed, O mount Seir, and all Idumea wholly, and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

¶ The.xxxvi. Chapter.

2. He promiseth to deliuer Israel from the Gentiles. 22. The benefites doone vnto the Ievves, are to be ascribed to the mercye of God, not vnto their deserwynges.

1 THou sonne of man, prophesie vnto the mountaynes of Israel, & speake, *Heare the woorde of the Lorde, O ye mountaynes of Israel.

2 Thus sayth the Lorde God, Because your e enimie hath sayde vnto you aha, the c high places of the worlde are nowe become ours in possession:

3 Prophesie therfore, and speake, thus sayth the Lorde God, For because that they haue made you desolate, and swallowed you vp on euery syde, that ye myght be a possession vnto the residue of the Gentiles, and ye are taken vp in the c lyppes and tongues of men, and to the reproche of the people:

4 Therefore heare the woorde of the Lorde god, O ye mountaines of Israel, thus saith the Lorde God to the mountaines and hils, to the ryuers and valleys, to the waste and desolate places, and to the cities that are forsaken, whiche are spoyled and had in derision on euery syde, among the residue of the heathen:

5 Therfore thus saith the Lord God, Surely in the fyre of my telousie haue I spoken against the residue of the Gentiles, and against al Edom, whiche haue d appointed my lande for their possession, whiche also reioyced from their whole hart with a despyteful stomacke, to cast it out for a pray.

6 Prophesie therefore vpon the land of Israel, and speake vnto the mountaynes and hylles, to the ryuers and dales, thus sayth the Lord God, Behold, this haue I spoken in my telousie and terrible wrath, because ye haue borne the e shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, I haue f lyft vp my hande, surely the heathen that are about you, shal beare their shame.

8 But you, O ye mountaynes of Israel, ye shal g shoote out your braunches, and bryng foorth your fruite to my people of Israel: for they are at hande to come.

a. That is, the Idumeans.
b. That is, the hilly countrie of Iuda.
c. Ye are made a matter of talk and derision vnto all the worlde.
d. They appointed with them selues to haue it, & therfore came with Nabuchodonozor against Hierusalem for this purpose.
e. Because ye haue been a laughing stocke vnto them.
f. By makyng a solemne othe. Chapt. 20.
g. God declareth his mercier & goodnes towarde his Churche, who styl preserueth his Ievvs when he destroyeth his enimies.

9 Beholde, I come vnto you, and vnto you wyl I turne, that ye may be tylled & ſowen.
10 I wyll multiplye men vpon you, euen al the houſe of Iſrael wholly, the cities ſhalbe inhabited, and the decayed places ſhalbe repayred agayne.
11 And I wyl multiplye vpon you man and beaſt, which ſhal encreaſe and bryng fruite: and I wyl cauſe you to dwel after your old eſtate, and be better h vnto you then at the begynnyng: and ye ſhal knowe that I am the Lorde.
12 Yea, I wyl cauſe men to walke vpon i you, euen my people Iſrael, and they ſhal poſſeſſe k thee, and thou ſhalt be their inheritaunce, and thou ſhalt no more henceforth depryue them of men.
13 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, For ſo much as they ſay vnto you, Thou art an l eater vp of men, and a waſter of thy people:
14 Therefore thou ſhalt eate no more men, neyther deſtroy thy people any more, ſayth the Lorde God:
15 Neither wyl I cauſe men to heare in thee the ſhame of the heathen any more: neyther ſhalt thou beare the reproche of the people any more, nor cauſe thy folke to fall any more, ſayth the Lorde God.
16 Moreouer, the woorde of the Lord came vnto me, ſaying,
17 O thou ſonne of man, when the houſe of Iſrael dwelt vpon their owne ground, they defyled them ſelues with their owne wayes and imaginations, ſo that in my ſyght their way was lyke the vncleanneſſe of a remooued woman.
18 Wherefore I powred my wrathful diſpleaſure vpon them, becauſe of the blood that they had ſhed in the lande, & becauſe of their idols wherewith they had defiled it:
19 I ſcattered them alſo among the heathen, ſo that they were ſtrawed about in the landes: accordyng to their wayes, and after their owne inuentions, ſo dyd I iudge them.
20 *And when they entred vnto the heathen whyther they went, they polluted my holye name, when they ſayde of them, Theſe are the people of God, and are gone out of his lande.
21 Then ſpared I my holy m name, which the houſe of Iſrael had diſhonoured among the Gentiles where they came.
22 Therefore tell the houſe of Iſrael, thus ſayth the Lord God, I n doo not this for your ſakes, O houſe of Iſrael, but for my holy names ſake, which ye diſhonoured among the heathen where ye came.
23 Therfore I wyl halowe my great name agayne, * whiche among the Gentiles is polluted, for ye your ſelues haue diſhonored it among them: and the Gentiles ſhall knowe that I am the Lord, ſayth the Lorde God, when I ſhalbe ſanctified in you before your eyes.
24 As for you, I wyl take you from among the heathen, and geather you togeather out of al countreyes, and bryng you agayne into your owne lande.
25 Then wyll I ſprynckle cleane o water vpon you, and ye ſhalbe cleane: yea from al your vncleanneſſe and from al your idols ſhal I cleanſe you.
26 A newe hart alſo wyl I geue you, and a newe ſpirite wyl I put into you: as for that ſtonie hart I wyll take it out of your fleſhe, and geue you a fleſhie hart.
27 I wyl geue my ſpirit among you, & cauſe you to walke in my commaundements, and ye ſhall keepe my iudgementes, and doo them.
28 And ſo ye ſhall dwell in the lande that I gaue to your fathers: and ye ſhalbe my people, and I wyl be your God.
29 I wyl deliuer you from al your vncleanneſſe, I wyl cal for the p corne, and wyl encreaſe it, and lay no famine vpon you.

32 But I wyl not doo this for your ſakes, ſayth the Lorde God, be ye ſure of it: therfore, O ye houſe of Iſrael, be aſhamed and confounded of your owne wayes.
33 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde God, What tyme as I ſhall cleanſe you from all your iniquities, then wyl I make the cities to be inhabited agayne, and the places that be decayed ſhalbe repayred.

¶ The .xxxvii. Chapter.

He prophesieth the bringing agayne of the people beyng in captiuitie. 16. He sheweth the vnion of the ten tribes with the two.

1 THe hande of the Lorde was vppon me, and caryed me out in the spirite of the Lord, and set me downe in the middest of a playne feelde that was ful of a bones.

2 And he led me round about by them, and beholde there was very many in the open feelde, and loe they were very dye.

3 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, thynkest thou these bones may lyue agayne? I answeared, O Lorde God, thou knowest.

4 And he sayde vnto me, Prophesie thou vpon these bones, & speake vnto them: Ye dye bones heare the woorde of the Lorde.

5 Thus sayth the Lorde GOD vnto these bones, Beholde, I wyl cause breath to enter into you, that ye may lyue.

6 I wyl geue you sinowes, and make flesh growe vpon you, and couer you ouer with skinne, and so geue you breath, that ye may lyue, and knowe that I am the Lorde.

7 So I prophesied as I was commaunded: and as I was prophesying, there was a noyse, and loe a great motion, so that the bones came neare togeather, bone to his bone.

8 Nowe when I had looked, beholde they had synowes, and flesh grewe vpon them, and aboue they were couered with skinne: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then sayde he vnto me, Thou sonne of man, prophesie thou towarde the wynde, prophesie and speake to the wynde, thus sayth the Lorde God, Come, O thou "ayre from the foure wyndes, and "blowe vpon these slayne, that they may lyue.

10 So I prophesied as he had commaunded me: then came the breath into them, and they receyued lyfe, and stoode vp vpon their feete, a marueylous great armie.

11 Moreouer, he sayd vnto me, Thou sonne of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: beholde they say, Our bones are dryed vp, our hope is gone, and we are cleane cut of.

12 Therefore prophesie thou, and speake vnto them, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl open your graues, O my people, and cause you to come vp out of your sepulchres, and bryng you into the lande of Israel agayne.

13 So shal ye knowe that I am the Lorde, when I open your graues, O my people, and bryng you b out of your sepulchres.

b. That is, when I bryng you out of these places and townes where ye are captiues.

14 My spirite also wyl I put in you, and ye shal lyue, I wyl set you agayne in your owne lande: and ye shal knowe that I the Lord haue sayd it, and fulfylled it in deede, sayth the Lorde.

15 The woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

16 Thou sonne of man, take one sticke, and write vpon it, Unto Juda and to the chyldren of Israel his companions. Then take another sticke, and write vpon it, Unto Joseph the "stocke of Ephraim, and to all the householde of Israel his companions.

"Or, tree

17 And c ioyne them one to another into one sticke: and they shalbe as one in thy hande.

c. Which signifieth the ioyning togeather of the two houses of Israel and Iuda.

18 Nowe if the chyldren of thy people speake vnto thee, saying, Wylt thou not shewe vs what thou meanest by these?

19 Then geue them this answeare, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl take the d "stocke of Joseph, whiche is in the lande of Ephraim, and of the tribes of Israel his felowes, and wyl put them with hym, euen with the stocke of Juda, & make them one "stocke, and they shalbe one in my hande.

d. This is the house of Israel.

"Or, tree.

"Or, tree.

20 And the sticke whereupon thou writest, shalt thou haue in thy hande, that they may see.

21 And thou shalt say vnto them, thus saith the Lorde God, Beholde, I wyl take the chyldren of Israel from among the heathen vnto whom they be gone, and wil gather them togeather on euery side, & bryng them agayne into their owne lande.

22 "Yea I wyl make one people of them in the lande vpon the mountaynes of Israel, and one kyng shalbe kyng to them al: they shal no more be two peoples, neyther be diuided from henceforth into two kyngdomes.

"Ioh.10.16.

23 They shall also defyle them selues no more with their idolles and abominations, and al their wycked doynges: I wyl saue them out of al their dwellyng places wherin they haue sinned, & wyl so cleanse them, that they shalbe my people, and I wyl be their God.

24 "Dauid my seruant shalbe their kyng, and they al shal haue one shepheard: they shal walke in my iudgementes, and my 25 They ſhal dwel in the lande that I gaue vnto Iacob my ſeruant, whereas your fathers alſo haue dwelt, yea euen in the ſame lande ſhal they, theyr chyldren, & their chylders chyldren dwel for euermore: & my ſeruant Dauid ſhalbe theyr prince for euer.

¶ The xxxviii. Chapter.

He propheſieth that Gog and Magog ſhall come vvith an appoynted hoſt into the lande of promiſe.

1 AND the woorde of the Lorde came vnto me, ſaying,

*Apoc.20.8. 2 *Thou ſonne of man, ſet thy face agaynſt [a] Gog, the lande of Magog, which is the cheefe prince of Meſech and Tubal, and propheſie agaynſt hym,

3 And ſay, thus ſayth the Lorde God, O Gog, thou cheefe prince of Meſech & Tubal, beholde I wyl vpon thee:

4 And I wyl turne [b] thee backe, and put hookes in thy iawes, I wyl bryng thee forth and al thine hoſt, both horſe & horſemen, al armed with al ſortes of armour, a great multitude with ſpeares and ſhieldes, al handlyng ſwoordes.

5 They of [b] Paras, of Chuſh, and Phut, with them euen al hauyng ſhieldes and helmets,

6 Gomer and al his hoſtes, the houſe of Togarma out of the North quarters and al his hoſtes, yea and muche people with thee.

7 Therefore prepare thee, ſet thee ſelfe in aray with al the people that are come vnto thee by heapes, and be thou theyr defence.

8 After many dayes thou ſhalt be viſited, and in the latter yeeres thou ſhalt come into the lande that hath been turned and roſt with the ſwoorde, and geathered togeather agayne out of many people vpon the mountaynes of Iſrael, which haue ben alwayes ſubiect to waſte: but it is brought out of the people, and they dwel al ſafe.

9 Thou ſhalt aſſende and come vp lyke a ſtorme, as a cloude to couer the lande ſhalt thou be: thou with al thine hoſtes, and a great multitude of people with thee,

10 Moreouer, thus ſayth the Lorde God, At the ſame tyme ſhal thinges come into thy mynde, ſo that thou ſhalt thinke [c] vyl thoughtes,

11 And ſay, I wyl vp to the lande of [d] vnwalled villages, I wyl goe to them that be at reſt, whiche dwel ſafely, al dwelling without walles, they haue neyther barres nor gates:

12 To ſpoyle the pray, and to take a bootie, to turne thy hande vppon the deſolate places that are nowe inhabited, and vppon that people that is geathered togeather from among the heathen, which haue gotten catel and goodes, & dwel in the middes of the lande.

13 Then ſhal Saba and Dedan, and the marchantes of Tharſis with al theyr Lions, ſay vnto thee, [e] Art thou come to ſpoyle a pray? haſt thou geathered thy people togeather to take a bootie, to take away ſyluer and gold, to cary away catel and good, and to haue a great pray?

14 Therefore, O thou ſonne of man, thou ſhalt propheſie and ſay vnto Gog, thus ſayth the Lorde God: In that day when my people Iſrael [f] dwelleth ſafe, ſhalt thou not knowe it?

15 And thou ſhalt come from thy place out of the North partes, thou and muche people with thee, whiche ryde al vppon horſes, euen a great multitude and a mightie armie.

16 Yea thou ſhalt come vppon my people of Iſrael, as a cloude to couer the lande: this ſhal come to paſſe in the [g] latter dayes, and I wyl bryng thee vp into my lande, that the heathen may knowe me, when I ſhall be [h] ſatiſfied in thee, O Gog, before theyr eyes.

17 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, Art thou not he of whom I haue ſpoken in old tyme by the handes of my ſeruantes the propheetes of Iſrael, which propheſied in thoſe dayes and yeeres, that I ſhoulde bring thee vpon them?

18 At the ſame tyme when Gog commeth vp into the lande of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde God, ſhal mine indignation ryſe in my wrath:

19 For in my ielouſie and fyre of my wrath haue I ſpoken it, ſurely at that tyme there ſhalbe a great ſhaking in the land of Iſrael.

¶ The .xxxix. Chapter.

1. He threatneth the destruction of Gog and Magog. 13. The graue of Gog and his hoste.

1 THerefore, O thou sonne of man, prophesie agaynst Gog, and speake, thus sayth the Lorde God, Beholde, O Gog, thou cheefe prince of Mesech and Tubal, I wyl vpon thee.

2 And I wyl "turne thee about, and I "wyl a prouoke thee forward, and cause thee to come vp from the North partes, and bryng thee vp to the mountaynes of Israel.

3 And as for thy bowe, I wyl smite it out of thy left hande, and cause thyne arrowes to fall out of thy ryght hande.

4 Thou, with all thyne hoste, and all the people that is with thee, shall fall vppon the mountaynes of Israel: then wil I geue thee vnto the b flockes of byrdes, euen to al feathered foules and beastes of the feelde, to be deuoured.

5 Thou shalt fall vpon the open feelde: for I haue spoken it, sayth the Lorde God.

6 Into Magog, and among those that sitte so careles in the Iles wyll I sende a fyre, and they shal knowe that I am the Lorde.

7 I wyll make also the name of my holynes to be knowen among my people of Israel, and I wyll not let them pollute my holy name any more: but the very Heathen also shal know that I am the Lorde, the holy one of Israel.

8 Behold, it is c come, and it is done, sayth the Lorde God, this is the day whereof I haue spoken.

9 They that dwell in the cities of Israel, shall goe forth, and d set fyre vppon the weapons, and burne them, shieldes and speares, bowes and arrowes, "handstaues, and swords, and they shal burne them with fyre seuen yeere.

a I wyl strike the with sixe plagues.

b I wyl leaue but the sixth part of thee.

a That is, I wil encourage thee with clapping and stroking, as men doo horses when they wyll encourage the.

b Hereby, he signifieth that which is woont to befal in war: that the bodyes of the slayne should be vnburyed.

c That is, this plague is fully determined in my counsel, and can not be changed.

d After this destruction shal befuche peace & tranquilitie, that they shall vse no weapons of warre, but burne them all with fire.

"Or, launces.

10 So that they shal els bryng no wood fro the feelde, neyther hewe downe any out of the wood: for with weapons shal they make their fyre, they shall robbe those that robbed them, and spoyle those that spoyled them, sayth the Lorde God.

11 At the same tyme wyll I gene vnto Gog a place to be buryed in Israel, euen the valley wherethrough men goe towarde the East sea: those that trauayle thereby, shall e stoppe their noses, there shall Gog and all his multitude be buried: and it shalbe called the valley of the "multitude of Gog.

12 Seuen monethes long shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the lande.

13 Yea, all the people of the lande shal burie them, and they shall haue a name when I shalbe glorifyed, sayth the Lorde God.

14 They shall choose out men to goe continually thrugh the lande, to f bury as they passe through those that remayne vpon the grounde, to cleanse it: after the ende of seuen monethes shall they make their searche.

15 And the trauaylers that passe through the land, where they see a mans bone, they shall set vp a token by it, tyll the dead buryers haue buried it also in the valley of "the multitude of Gog.

16 And the name of the citie shalbe called g Hamonah: thus shall they make the lande cleane.

17 And thou sonne of man, thus sayth the Lorde GOD, Speake vnto all feathered foules, yea, and to all the beastes of the feelde, Assemble you togeather, and come, geather you rounde about to my h sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, euen a great sacrifice vppon the mountaynes of Israel, that ye may eate flesh, and drynke blood.

18 Ye shal eate the flesh of the valiant, and drynke the blood of the princes of the lande, of the rammes, of the weathers, of the goates, and of the bullockes, that be all fedde at Basan.

19 Ye shall eate the fatte your belly full, and drynke blood tyll ye be dronken of my sacrifice, which I haue sacrificed for you.

20 Ye shall fyll you at my table with hoorses and "horsemen, with the valiant, and men of warre, sayth the Lorde God.

21 I wyl set my glory also among the Gentiles, that al the Heathen may see my iudgement that I haue executed, and my hande whiche I haue layde vpon them.

22 And the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lorde their God, from that day, and so forwarde.

23 And

46 And the chamber whoſe proſpect is toward the North is for the prieſtes that haue charge to keepe the aulter: theſe are the ſonnes of Sadoc, whiche of the ſonnes of Leui come neare to the Lorde, to miniſter vnto him.

47 So he meaſured the court, which had in length a hundred cubites, and a hundred in breadth, that foure ſquare: and the aulter ſtoode before the houſe.

48 And he brought me to the porche of the h houſe, and meaſured the porche fyue cubites on this ſide, and fiue cubites on that ſide: and the breadth of the gate was three cubites on this ſide, on three cubites on that ſide.

h. That is, of the temple.

i. From North to South.

49 The i length of the porche was twentie cubites, the breadth eleuen cubites, and by ſteppes went men vp to it: by ẏ frontes alſo were pillers, one on this ſide, and another on that ſide.

¶ The.xli. Chapter.

The diſpoſition and deuice of building againe of the temple, and of the other thinges thereto belonging.

1 AFter this he brought me to the temple, and meaſured the frontes, ſixe cubites broade on the one ſide, and ſixe cubites broade on the other ſide, whiche was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 The breadth of the doore was tenne cubites, and the ſides of the doore were fiue cubites on the one ſide, and fiue cubites on the other ſide, and he meaſured the length a thereof fourtie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubites.

a. Of the temple from this doore to the moſt holy place.

3 Then went he in and meaſured the front of the doore two cubites: but the doore it ſelfe was ſixe cubites, and the breadth on the other ſide of the doore was ſeuen cubites.

4 He meaſured the length thereof twentie cubites, and the breadth twentie cubits before the temple: and he ſaid vnto me, This is the moſt holy place.

5 He meaſured alſo the wall of the houſe ſixe cubites, and the breadth of a chamber foure cubites rounde about the houſe on euery ſide.

6 And the chambers were chamber vppon chamber, "three and thyrtie in order: and they entred the wal which was of the houſe for the chambers round about, that they might be faſtened, & not be faſtened in the wall of the houſe.

" three and thirtie foote hygh.

7 There was an enlargyng, and a wynding about, mounting ſtyll vpward to the chambers: for the ſtayre of the houſe was mounting ſtyll vpward rounde about the houſe, therefore the houſe was larger vpward: ſo they went vp from the loweſt chamber to the higheſt by the middeſt.

8 And I ſawe the houſe high round about: the fundations of the chambers were a full cane of ſixe cubites b vp to the ſame holes.

b. That is, great, and of the largeſt ſize.

9 The thickneſſe of the wal which was for the chamber without was fiue cubites, and that whiche remayned was the place of the chambers that were within.

10 And betweene the chambers was the wydeneſſe of twentie cubites rounde about the houſe on euery ſyde.

11 And the doores of the chambers were toward the "place that remayned, one doore toward the North, and another toward the South: and the breadth of the place that remayned, was fiue cubites rounde about.

" Or, voyde ſpace.

12 Nowe the building that was before the ſeparate place at the ende toward the Weſt was ſeuentie cubites hyde: and the wall of the building was fiue cubites thicke round about, and the length nientie cubites.

13 So he meaſured the houſe, whiche was a hundred cubites long, and the ſeparate place and the building with the walles, were a hundred cubites long alſo.

14 The breadth alſo of the forefront of the houſe, and of the ſeparate place toward the Eaſt, was a hundred cubites.

15 And he meaſured the length of the buildyng ouer againſt the ſeparate place which was behinde it, and the chambers on the one ſyde, and on the other ſide, a hundred cubites, with the temple within, and the porches of the court.

16 The dore poſtes, & the narow windowes, and the chambers round about, on three ſides ouer againſt ẏ dore, ſeeled with wood rounde about, and from the grounde vp to the wyndowes: and the wyndowes them ſelues were ſeeled.

17 And from aboue the doore vnto the houſe within and without, and vpon euery wall rounde about within and without, by meaſure.

18 And it was made with c Cherubims and Palme trees, ſo that a Palme tree was betweene a Cherub and a Cherub, and euery Cherub had two faces.

c. That is, Cherubims and Palme trees were grauen & carued in the walles.

19 So that the face of a man was towarde the Palme tree on the one ſide, and the face of a Lion toward the palme tree on ẏ other ſide: thus was it made through all the houſe rounde about.

20 From the ground vnto aboue the doore were Cherubims and Palme trees made and thus vvas the wal of the temple.

21 The postes of the temple were foure squared, and the fashion of the sanctuarie was e appearance lyke appearance.

22 The aulter of wood was three cubites hygh, and two cubites long: the corners, the length, and the walles therof were of wood. And he sayde vnto me, This is the table that shalbe before the Lorde.

23 The temple and the holyest of all had eyther of them two doores.

24 And the doores had two f doores a peece, euen two folding doores, two for the one doore, and two doores for the other.

25 And vpon the doores of the temple there were made Cherubims, and Palme trees, lyke as was made vppon the walles: and thicke beames vppon the forefront of the porche without.

26 And there vvere narrowe wyndowes and palme trees on the one side, and on the other syde, by the sydes of the porche, and vppon the sydes of the house, and thicke beames.

e That is, the inner postes or pieces of the sanctuarie, were like the doore postes of the temple.

f That is, two leaues, one on the one side, & the other on the other side, eyther of the doores.

¶ The. xlii. Chapter.

Of the chambers of the temple for the priestes, and the holy thynges.

1 Then led he me into the vtter court by the way towarde the North, and he brought me into the chamber that vvas ouer agaynst the separate place, which vvas before the buylding towarde the North.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubites vvas the North doore: and the breadth vvas fyftie cubites.

3 Ouer agaynst the twentie cubites whiche were for the inner court, and ouer agaynst the pauement, whiche was for the vtter court, vvas chamber agaynst chamber, three orders.

4 And before the chambers there was a walkyng place of ten cubites wide inwarde, the way of one cubite: and their doores toward the North.

5 Thus the vpper chambers were alway narrower: for those chambers seemed to eate vp these, to vvit the lower and the middlemer of the buylding.

6 For they were in three orders, but had no pyllers as the pyllers of the courtes: therefore were they smaller then the neathermost and the middlemost to recken from the grounde.

7 And the wall that was without ouer agaynst the chambers, towarde the vtter court on the forefront of the chambers, the length therof was fyftie cubites.

8 For the lengthy of the chambers that were in the vtter court, was fyftie cubites, and loe, before the temple was a hundred cubites.

9 And vnder these chambers vvas the entrie from the East: as one goeth vnto them from the vtter court.

10 In the thicknesse of the wall of the court towarde the East, before the separate place, and before the buylding of the chambers.

11 And the way before them after the appearance of the chambers whiche were toward the North: as their length, so was their breadth: and all their entries vvere accordyng to their fashion, and according to their doores.

12 And accordyng to the doores of the chambers that were toward the South, vvas a doore in the head of the way, euen the way directly before the wall toward the East as one entreth.

13 Then sayde he vnto me, The chambers towarde the North, and the chambers towarde the South, whiche are before the separate place, those be holy chambers, wherin the priestes that a approche vnto the Lord must eate the most holy thynges, and there must they lay the most holy thinges, and the meate offeryng, and sinne offeryng, and trespasse offeryng: for it is a holy place.

14 When the priestes come therein, they shall not goe out of the holy place into the vtter court, but there they shal lay vp their garmentes wherin they minister, for they are holy: and shal put on b other garmentes, and so shall approche to those whiche are for the people.

15 Nowe when he had fynished the measuryng of the house within, he led me forth towarde the gate, whose prospect is towarde the East, and he measured it round about.

16 He measured the East side with the measuryng cane, fyue hundred canes, euen with the measuring cane rounde about.

17 And he measured the North side fiue hundred canes, euen with the measuryng cane rounde about.

18 The South syde also measured he fyue hundred canes, by the measuryng cane.

19 He turned about also to the West syde, and measured fyue hundred canes, by the measuryng cane.

20 So he measured it by the foure sydes: it had a wall round about, fiue hundred canes long, and fyue hundred broade, to make a separation betweene the c sanctuarie, and the prophane place.

a That is, which exercise the priestes office, as more fully is declared in the next chapter folowyng. verse. 19.

¶ The. xliii. Chapter.

He seeth the glory of God goyng into the temple from whence it had before departed.

1 SO he brought me to the gate, euen the gate that turneth towarde the Eaſt:

2 And beholde, then came the glory of the GOD of Iſrael from out of the Eaſt, whoſe voyce was lyke a great noyſe of waters, and the earth was lightened with his glorie.

*Ezech. 9. I. 3 *And accordyng to the appearance of the viſion whiche I ſawe, euen accordyng to the viſion whiche I ſawe a when I came to deſtroy the citie: and the viſions were lyke the viſions which I ſawe by the riuer Chebar, and I fel vpon my face.

a. When I propheſied the deſtruction of the citie by the Chaldeans.

b. Which was departed before. Chap. 10.

4 And the b glory of the Lorde came into the houſe by the way of the gate whoſe proſpect is towarde the Eaſt.

*Or, the ſpirite. 5 So a *wynde tooke me vp, and brought me into the innermer court: and beholde, the houſe was ful of the glorie of the Lorde.

6 And I heard one ſpeaking vnto me out of the houſe, and there ſtoode a man by me,

7 And he ſayde vnto me, O thou ſonne of man, this roome is my ſeate, & the place of my footeſteps, whereas I wyl dwel among the children of Iſrael for euermore, c ſo that the houſe of Iſrael ſhall no more defile my holy name, neyther they nor their kynges thorowe their whoredome, and through the dead bodyes of their kynges in their hygh places.

c. He alludeth to Ammon and Manaſſes, who were buryed in their gardens neare the temple, and there had erected vp monumentes to their idols.

8 Albeit they haue ſet their threſholdes by my threſholdes, and their poſtes by my poſtes, and a wall betweene me and them, yet haue they defyled my holy name with their abominations that they haue committed: wherefore I haue conſumed them in my wrath.

9 But nowe let them put away ther whoredome, and the dead bodyes of their kynges out of my ſyght, and I wyll dwell among them for euermore.

10 Therefore, O thou ſonne of man, ſhewe thou the houſe of Iſrael this houſe, that they may be aſhamed of their wickednes, and meaſure them ſelues an example thereat.

11 And if they be aſhamed of al their works: then ſhew them the fourme of the houſe and paterne therof, the goyng out, the commyng in, al the maner thereof, yea, al the ordinances thereof, the figures, and all the lawes thereof, and wryte it in their ſight, that they may keepe the whole faſhion thereof, and al the ordinances thereof, and do them.

d. Deſcription. 12 This is the d lawe of the houſe: vppon the top of the mount ſhal al the limits thereof be, rounde about the moſt holy place, loe, this is the lawe of the houſe.

13 And theſe are the meaſures of the aulter in cubites: the cubite is a cubite & a handebreadth, the bottome ſhalbe a cubite, and the breadth a cubite, and the borders thereof by the edge thereof rounde about was one ſpanne, and this ſhalbe the heyght of the aulter.

14 And from the bottome vpon the ground vnto the lower peece, ſhalbe two cubites, the breadth one cubite: and from the litle peece to the great peece, ſhalbe foure cubites, and the breadth one cubite.

15 The aulter was foure cubites hygh, and from the aulter vpwarde ſtoode foure hornes.

16 And the aulter was twelue cubites long, and twelue cubites broade, ſquare in the foure corners thereof.

17 The frame of the aulter ſhalbe foureteene cubites long, and foureteene broade in the foure ſquare corners therof, and the border about it ſhalbe halfe a cubite, & the bottome thereof ſhalbe a cubite about, and the ſteppes thereof ſhalbe turned towarde the Eaſt.

18 And he ſayde vnto me, Thou ſonne of man, thus ſayth the Lorde God, Theſe are the ordinances of the aulter, in the day whē it is made, to offer burnt offerynges therevpon, and to ſprinkle blood thereupon.

19 And thou ſhalt geue to the prieſtes, to the Leuites that be of the ſeede of Sadoc, and approche vnto me, ſayth the Lorde God, to miniſter vnto me, a young bullocke for a ſinne offeryng.

20 And thou ſhalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the foure hornes of it, and on the foure corners of the frame, and vpon the border round about: thus ſhalt thou cleanſe it, and purge it.

21 Thou ſhalt take the bullocke alſo of the ſinne offeryng, and burne hym in the appoynted place without the ſanctuarie.

22 The ſecond day, take a goate bucke without blemiſhe for a ſinne offeryng, to cleanſe the aulter withall, lyke as it was cleanſed with the bullocke.

23 Nowe when thou haſt made an ende of cleanſing it, then offer a young bullocke without blemiſhe, and a ramme out of the flocke without blemiſhe alſo.

24 Offer them before the Lorde, and let the prieſtes caſt ſalt thereupon, and geue them ſo vnto the Lorde for a burnt offeryng.

25 Seuen dayes ſhalt thou prepare euery day a goate bucke for ſinne, a young bullocke and a ramme of the flocke, both without blemiſhe ſhall they prepare.

26 Seuen dayes ſhal they reconcile & cleanſe the aulter, and e fyll the place thereof.

e. Conſecrate it.

27 When theſe dayes are expired, then vpō the eyght day, and ſo forth, the prieſtes ſhal make your burnt offerynges, and peace

offerynges

offeringes vpon the aulter: so I wyll accept you, sayth the Lord God.

¶ The.xliii. Chapter.

1. He sheweth vvhat doore of the temple is shutte.
6. He is commaunded to vpbraide the people vvith theyr offence.

1 AFter this he brought me agayne to the outward gate of the sanctuarie on the East side, and that was shut.

2 Then saide the Lord vnto me, This gate shalbe styll a shut, and not opened, neyther shall any man goe through it: for the Lorde God of Israel hath entred by it, and it shalbe shut.

3 It is for the prince, the prince him selfe shal syt in it to eate bread before the Lorde: he shall enter by the way of the porche of that gate, & shal go out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought he me toward the North gate before the house: and as I looked, beholde, the glory of the Lord fylled the house of the Lorde, and I fell vpon my face.

5 So the Lord spake vnto me: O thou sonne of man, set thyne hart, and beholde with thyne eyes, and heare with thyne eares, all that I say vnto thee concernyng all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and al the lawes thereof, and marke wel the entryng in of the house, with euery going foorth of the sanctuarie.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious euen to the house of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde God, O house of Israel, ye haue ynough of all your abominations.

7 Seeing ye haue brought into my sanctuarie b straungers, hauing vncircumcised hartes, and vncircuncised flesh, to be in my sanctuarie to pollute my house, when ye offer my bread, fatte, and blood, and they haue broken my couenant because of al your abominations.

8 And he haue not kept the c ordinances of my holy thinges, and ye haue set keepers to keepe my sanctuarie d for you.

9 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, Of al the strangers that dwell among the children of Israel, no straunger vncircumcised in hart, nor vncircuncised in flesh, shal enter into my sanctuarie.

10 But the Leuites that went backe from me when Israel went astray, which straied from me after their idols, e shal beare their iniquitie:

11 And they shalbe ministers in my sanctuarie, and keepe the gates of the house, and minister in the house: they shall slay the burnt offeringes, and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them, to serue them.

12 Because they serued before their idolles, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquitie: therefore haue I lyft vp my hand agaynst them, sayth the Lord God, & they shal beare their iniquitie.

13 And they shall not come neare vnto me, to doo the office of a priest vnto me, neyther shal they come neare vnto any of myne holy thinges in the most holy place: but they shal beare their owne shame and abominations which they haue done.

14 And I wyll make them keepers of the watch of the house, for al the seruice therof, and for al that shalbe done therein.

15 But the Priestes, the Leuites, the sonnes of Sadoc, that f kept the charge of my sanctuarie when the children of Israel strayed from me, shal come to me, to doo me seruice, to stand before me, & to offer me the fat and the blood, sayth the Lorde God.

16 They shal goe into my sanctuarie, and approche vnto my table to doo my seruice, and they shal keepe my charge.

17 Nowe when they goe in at the gates of the innermer court, they shal put on lynnen clothes, so that no wollen come vpon them whyle they do seruice vnder the gates of the innermer court, and within.

18 They shal haue lynnen bonnettes vpon their heades, and lynnen "breeches vpon their loynes: they shal not gyrd them selues in the "sweate.

19 And when they goe foorth into the vtter court, euen to the vtter court of the people, they shall put of the clothes wherein they haue ministred, and lay them in the chamber of the sanctuarie, and put on other apparel, and they shal not sanctifye the people with their clothes.

20 They shal not g shaue their heades, nor suffer their heare to growe long, but powle their heads onely.

21 Al the priestes that goe into the innoſt court shal drinke no wine.

22 * They shal marry no wyddow, neyther one that is put from her husbande, but a mayde of the seede of the house of Israel, or a wyddowe that hath had a priest before.

23 They shal shew my people the difference betweene the holy and vnholy, & cause them to discerne betwixt the cleane & vncleane.

24 And in controuersie they shal stande to iudge, and geue sentence after my iudgementes: and my lawes and my statutes shal they keepe in al my solemne feastes, and halowe my Sabboothes.

25 They shall come at no dead person to defyle them selues, but to father or mother, sonne

¶ The.xlv.Chapter.

Of iuſt vveyghtes and meaſures.

1 WHen ye diuide the land by the lot for inheritance, ye ſhal offer an oblatiõ to the Lorde, a holy a portion of the land, twentie & fyue thouſand canes long, and ten thouſand brode: this ſhalbe holy in all the borders thereof round about.

a. Of all the land of Iſrael the Lord requireth only this portion, for the temple and for the prieſtes, for the citie, and for the prince.

2 Of this part there ſhall belong vnto the ſanctuarie fyue hundred cubites in length with fyue hundred in breadth ſquare rounde about: and fyftie cubites rounde about for the ſuburbes.

3 And of this meaſure ſhalt thou meaſure, namely of the length of twentie & fiue thouſand, and the breadth of ten thouſande, and in it ſhalbe the ſanctuarie, and the moſt holy place.

4 That holy portion of the lande ſhall parteyne vnto the prieſtes which doo ſeruice in the ſanctuarie, whiche come neare to ſerue the Lorde: and it ſhalbe vnto them a place for their houſes, & a holy place for the ſanctuarie.

5 And in the twẽtie & fyue thouſand length, and ten thouſand breadth, ſhall the Leuites that miniſter in the houſe haue their poſſeſſion for twentie chambers.

6 Ye ſhal geue alſo vnto the citie a poſſeſſion of fyue thouſand canes brode, and twentie and fyue thouſand long, ouer agaynſt the oblation of the holy portion that ſhalbe for the whole houſe of Iſrael.

7 And a portion ſhalbe for the prince on this ſide and on that ſide of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the poſſeſſion of the citie, euen before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the poſſeſſion of the citie, from the Weſt corner weſtward, and from the Eaſt corner eaſtward: and the length ſhalbe by one of the portions, from the weſt border vnto the eaſt border.

8 In this land ſhalbe his poſſeſſion in Iſrael: and my princes ſhall no more oppreſſe my people, and the reſt of the land ſhall they geue to the houſe of Iſrael accordyng to theyr tribes.

9 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, b Let it ſuffiſe you, O ye princes of Iſrael: leaue of crueltie and oppreſſion, and execute iudgement and iuſtice: take away your exactions from my people, ſayth the Lord God.

a. The prophet ſheweth that the heads muſt be firſt reformed, afore any good order can be eſtabliſhed among the people.

10 Ye ſhal haue a true ballance, a true c Ephah, and a true Bath.

c. Ephah & Bath were both of one quantitie, for the Ephah conterned in dry thinges, that as the Bath dyd in liquor.

11 The Ephah and the Bath ſhalbe alyke: one Bath ſhal conteyne the tenth part of an Homer, and the Ephah the tenth part of an Homer: the equalitie thereof ſhalbe after the Homer.

12 * The Sicle maketh twentie Gerahs: and twentie Sicles, and d twentie and fiue Sicles, and fifteene Sicles make a Maneh.

*Exo.30.13. Leuit.27.25 Num.3.47.

d. That is, three ſcore ſicles make a weyght called Maneh: for he ioyneth theſe three partes to a Maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye ſhall offer: the ſixth part of an Ephah out of an Homer of wheate, and the ſixth part of an Ephah out of an Homer of barley.

14 Concernyng the ordinances of the oyle, euen of the Bath of oyle ye ſhall offer the tenth part of a Bath out of the Cor: ten Bathes ſhalbe a Homer, becauſe ten Bathes fil a Homer.

15 And one lambe from two hundred ſheepe out of the fat paſtures of Iſrael for a meate offering, whole burnt offering, and peace offering, to reconcile them, ſayth the Lorde God.

16 All the people of the land ſhall geue this oblation for the prince in Iſrael.

17 Againe, it ſhalbe the princes part to offer whole burnt offerinnges, meate offerinnges, and wine offerinnges, in the holy dayes, new Moones, Sabbothes, and in all the high feaſtes of the houſe of Iſrael: he ſhall prepare the ſinne offering, meate offering, whole burnt offering, and peace offering, to reconcile the houſe of Iſrael.

18 Thus ſayth the Lorde God, The fyrſt day of the fyrſt e moneth, thou ſhalt take a young bullocke without blemiſhe, & cleanſe the ſanctuarie.

e. Which was Niſan, conteynyng part of March and part of April.

19 So the prieſt ſhal take of the blood of the ſinne offering, and put it vpon the poſtes of the the house, and vpon the foure corners of the frame of the aulter, and vpon the postes of the gate of the inner court.

20 And thus shalt thou doo also the seuenth day of the moneth, for suche as haue sinned of ignorauncе, or being deceyued, to reconcile the house withal.

21 Vpon the fourth day of the firste moneth ye shall haue the Passouer, a feast of seuen dayes, and ye shall eate vnleauened bread.

22 Vpon the same day shal the prince prepare for hym selfe and al the people of the lande, a bullocke for a sinne offeryng.

23 And in the seuen dayes of the feast, he shal make a whole burnt offeryng to the Lorde, euen of seuen bullockes and seuen Rammes without blemyshe, daily, for seuen dayes, and a her Goate dayly for a sinne offeryng.

24 And he shal prepare a meate offeryng of an Ephah for a bullocke, & an Ephah for a Ramme, and a f Hin of oyle for an Ephah.

25 In the seuenth moneth in the fifteenth day of the moneth, on the feast, he shal doo accordyng vnto these for seuen dayes: accordyng to the sinne offeryng, accordyng to the whole burnt offeryng, and accordyng to the meate offeryng, and accordyng to the oyle.

¶ The xlvi. Chapter.

1. The sacrifice of the Sabbothes, and of the newe Moones. 8. Through which doores they must go in, or come out of the temple.

1 THus sayth the Lorde God, The gate of the inner court towarde the East, shalbe shut the fyue worckyng dayes: but in the Sabboth, and in the day of the newe Moone it shalbe opened.

2 And the prince shal enter by the way of the porche of the gate without, and shall stande by the post of the gate: and the Priestes shal make his whole burnt offeryng, and his peace offerynges, and he shall worshyp at the thresholde of the gate, and goe forth: and the gate shal not be shut tyl the euenyng.

3 On the same maner shall the people of the lande also doo their worshyp before the Lorde, at the doore of this gate vpon the Sabbothes, and newe Moones.

4 The whole burnt offering that the prince shal bryng vnto the lord vpon the Sabboth, shalbe sixe Lambes without blemyshe, and a Ramme without blemyshe.

5 And the meate offeryng shalbe an Ephah for a Ramme, and the meate offryng for the Lambes a a gyft of his hande, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

6 In the day of the newe moneth, it shalbe a young bullocke without blemyshe, and sixe Lambes, and a Ramme also without blemyshe.

7 With the bullocke he shal geue an Ephah: and with the Ramme an Ephah also for a meate offeryng: but to the Lambes b accordyng as his hande shal take, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

b. Accordyng to his habilitie.

8 And when the prince shal enter, he shal goe in by the way of the porche of that gate: he shal goe forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land come before the Lorde in the hygh solemne feast, as manye as come in by the North gate to doo worshyp, shall goe out agayne at the South gate: and they that come in at the South gate, shal goe forth agayne at the North gate: there shal none returne by the gate where he came in, but shall goe ryght forth ouer on the other syde.

10 And the prince he shal goe in the myddest of them when they goe in, and so come forth when they come forth.

11 Vpon the solemne and hygh feast dayes, this shalbe the meate offeryng: an Ephah to a bullocke, and an Ephah to a Ramme, and to the Lambes the gyft of his hand, and a Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

12 Nowe when the prince shall make a free whole burnt offeryng, or peace offerynges freely vnto the Lorde: one then shall open him the gate that turneth towarde the East, and he shall make his whole burnt offerynges, and his peace offerynges, as he dyd on the Sabboth day: after he shal goe forth, and when he is gone forth, he shal shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily make a whole burnt offeryng vnto the Lorde of a Lambe of one yeere without blemyshe, thou shalt doo it euery morneyng.

14 Thou shalt prepare a meate offeryng for it euery morning, y sixth part of an Ephah, and the thyrde part of a Hin of oyle to myngle with the fyne floure: this meate offering shalbe continually by a perpetual ordinaunce vnto the Lorde.

15 Thus shall they prepare the Lambe, the meate offeryng, and oyle, euery morneyng, for a continual whole burnt offeryng.

16 Moreouer, thus sayth the Lorde God, yf the prince geue a gyfte vnto anye of his sonnes, the inheritaunce thereof shalbe his sonnes: their possession shalbe by inheritaunce.

17 But yf he geue a gyft of his inheritaunce to one of his seruantes, then it shalbe his to the c yeere of libertie: and then returne to the prince: but the inheritaunce therof is his sonnes, and shalbe theirs.

c. Which was at the yeere of Iubilee. Le 25.

18 The prince alſo d ſhall take none of the peoples inheritaunce, nor put them from their poſſeſſion; but to his ſonnes ſhall he gene his owne poſſeſſion, that my people be not ſcattered abrode euery man from his poſſeſſion.

19 And he brought me through the entrance at the ſyde of the gate to the holy chambers of the prieſtes, which ſtoode towarde the North, and beholde there was a place vpon the Weaſt ſyde of them.

20 Then ſaid he vnto me, This is the place where the prieſtes ſhal ſeethe the treſpaſſe and ſinne offeringes, and bake the meate offeringes: that they neede not beare them into the outwarde court, and to e ſanctifie the people.

21 So he brought me into the vtter court, and cauſed me to goe by the foure corners of the court: and beholde in euery corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the foure corners of the court there were courts ioyned of fourtie cubites long, and thyrtie brode: theſe foure corners were of one meaſure.

33 And there went a wal round about them, euen about thoſe foure: and vnder the walles there were * kytchens made rounde about.

24 Then ſayde he vnto me, Theſe are the Cookes houſes, where the miniſters of the houſe ſhall boyle the ſacrifice of the people.

d. But be content with that portion ỹ God hath aſſigned hym. Eze. 45.

¶ The.xlvii.Chapter.

e. The viſion of the waters that came out of the temple. 13. The coaſtes of the lande of promyſe, and the diuiſion thereof by tribes.

1 AFterwarde he brought me agayne vnto the dooze of the houſe, and beholde there guſhed out a waters from vnder the threſholde of the houſe Eaſtward: for the forefront of the houſe ſtoode toward the Eaſt, & the waters ranne downe from vnder the ryght ſyde of the houſe, whiche lyeth to the aulter Southward.

2 Then led he me to the North gate, and led me about by the way without vnto the vtter gate by ỹ way that turneth Eaſtwarde: and beholde, there iſſued foorth waters from the ryght ſyde.

3 Nowe when the man that had the lyne in his hand went foorth Eaſtward, he meaſured a thouſande cubites, & then he brought me through the waters, the waters were to the ancles.

4 So he meaſured yet a thouſand, & brought me through the waters, the waters were to the knees: yet meaſured he a thouſand, and brought me through, the waters were to the loynes.

5 After this he meaſured a thouſand againe, then was it ſuche a b ryuer that I myght not wade through it, the waters were ryſen, and the waters dyd flowe as a ryuer that myght not be waded ouer.

6 And he ſayde vnto me, Haſt thou ſeene this, O thou ſonne of man? and with that he brought me, & cauſed me to returne to the ryuer banke agayne.

7 Nowe when I returned, beholde, at the banke of the ryuer were very many trees c on the one ſyde and on the other.

8 Then ſaid he vnto me, Theſe waters flowe out towarde the Eaſt countrey, and runne downe into the playne, and come into the d ſea: whiche when it commeth into the ſea, the e waters ſhalbe wholeſome.

9 Yea, all that lyue and moue, whereſoeuer this ryuer commeth, ſhall lyue: and there ſhalbe a very great multitude of fiſhe, becauſe theſe waters ſhal come thyther, for they ſhalbe wholeſome: and euery thyng ſhall lyue whyther the ryuer commeth.

10 By this ryuer ſhall the Fyſhers ſtande, from Engaddi vnto En-eglaim, and there ſpread out their nettes: for the fyſhe ſhalbe accordyng to their kyndes as the fiſhe of the mayne ſea, exceedyng many.

11 But the maryſhes thereof, and the pyttes thereof, ſhal not be made wholeſome, they ſhalbe made ſalt pyttes.

12 By this ryuer, vpon the bankes therof on this ſyde & on that ſyde, ſhall grow all trees for meate, whoſe leaues ſhall not fade, neyther ſhall the fruite thereof fayle, but ſhall bryng forth newe fruite accordyng to his monethes, for the waters thereof runne out of the ſanctuarie: and the fruite thereof ſhalbe for meate, and the leaues thereof for * medicine.

13 Thus ſayth the Lorde GOD, Let this be the border whereby ye ſhall inherite the land, accordyng to the twelue tribes of Iſrael, * Ioſeph ſhal haue two portions.

14 And ye ſhall inherite one as well as another, concernyng the whiche I lyft vp my hand to gene it vnto your fathers: and this land ſhal fall vnto you for inheritance.

15 This is the border of the f lande vppon the North ſyde, from the mayne ſea toward Hethlon, as men goe to Zedada.

16 Namely, Hamath, Berotha, Sabarim, which are betweene the borders of Damaſcus, and betweene the borders of Hamah, Hazar, Hatichon, that lyeth vppon the coaſtes of Hauran.

17 Thus the borders from the ſea ſhalbe

f. By the lande of promyſe, is ſignified ſpirituall lande, whereof this was a figure.

shalbe Hazar Enan, the border of Damascus, and the North Northwarde, & the borders of Hamah: this is the North part.

18 The East side shal ye measure from Hauran and Damascus, from Gilead and the lande of Israel by Iordane, and from the border vnto the East sea: and this is the East part.

19 The South side shalbe towarde Teman, from Thamar to the waters of *strife in Cades, and the ryuer to the mayne sea: and that is the South part towarde Teman.

20 The West part also shalbe the great sea, from the borders tyl a man come ouer against Hamah: this is the West part.

21 This lande shal ye part among you according to the tribes of Israel, 22 And diuide it by lot to be an heritage for you, and for the strangers that dwel among you, and beget children among you: for ye shal take them among the children of Israel, like as though they were of your owne countrey, & they shal haue [a] heritage with you among the children of Israel.

23 And in what tribe the stranger dwelleth, in the same tribe shal ye geue hym his heritage, saith the Lorde God.

The xlviii. Chapter.

The lottes of the seuen tribes. 23. The lottes of the other tribes.

1 THese are the names of the tribes: from the North side to the coast towarde Hethlon, tyl thou comest vnto Hamah, and Hazar Enan, the borders of Damascus Northwarde, the coast of Hamah, Dan shal haue his portion from the East quarter vnto the West.

2 Upon the borders of Dan, from the East side vnto the West, shal Aser haue his portion.

3 Upon the borders of Aser, from the East part vnto the West, shal Nephthali haue his portion.

4 Upon the borders of Nephthali, from the East quarter vnto the West, shal Manasses haue his portion.

5 Upon the borders of Manasses, from the East side vnto the West, shal Ephraim haue his portion.

6 Upon the borders of Ephraim, from the East part vnto the West, shal Ruben haue his portion.

7 Upon the borders of Ruben, from the East quarter vnto the West, shal Iuda haue his portion.

8 Upon the borders of Iuda, from the East part vnto the West part, shalbe the [a] offeryng which they shal offer, of fiue and twentie thousand canes brode, and of length as one of the partes from the East side vnto the West side: and the sanctuarie shalbe in the middest of it.

9 The oblation that ye shal offer vnto the Lorde, shalbe fiue and twentie thousande long, and ten thousande brode.

10 And for these euen for the priestes, shalbe this holy oblation: towarde the North fiue and twentie thousande long, and towarde the West ten thousande brode, toward the East ten thousande brode also, and toward the South fiue and twenty thousand long, and the sanctuarie of the Lord shalbe in the middest thereof.

11 This sanctified portion shalbe the priestes that are of the children of Sadoc, whiche haue kept my charge, whiche went not astray in the errour of the children of Israel, lyke as the Leuites went astray.

12 Therefore this oblation of the lande that is offered, shalbe theyrs as a thyng most holy, harde vpon the borders of the Leuites.

13 And ouer against ye border of the priestes, shal the Leuites haue fiue & twentie thousande long, and ten thousande brode: all the length shalbe fiue and twentie thousande, and the breadth ten thousande.

14 Of this portion they shal sel nothing, nor make any permutation thereof, nor alienate the fyrst fruites of the lande: for it is holy vnto the Lorde.

15 And the fiue thousande that are left in the breadth ouer against the fiue and twentie thousande, shalbe a prophane place for the citie, for housing and for suburbes: and the citie shalbe in the middes thereof.

16 And these shalbe the measures thereof: The North part fiue hundred and foure thousande, and the South [b] part fiue hundred and foure thousande, and the East part fiue hundred and foure thousande, and the West part fiue hundred and foure thousande.

17 The suburbes of the citie shal haue towarde the North two hundred and fiftie, toward the South two hundred and fiftie, towarde the East two hundred & fiftie, towarde the West also two hundred & fiftie.

18 And the residue in length ouer against the oblation of the holy portion, shalbe ten thousande towarde the East, and ten thousande towarde the West: and it shalbe ouer against the oblation of the holy portion, and the encrease therof shalbe for their meate that serue the citie.

19 And they that serue the citie, they shall serue it out of al the tribes of Israel.

20 Al the oblation shalbe fiue and twentie

b. Meanyng that it should be square.

thouſande e with fiue and twentie thouſande: ye ſhal offer this oblation foure ſquare, for the ſanctuarie, and for the poſſeſſion of the citie.

21 And the reſidue ſhalbe for the prince, on the one ſide and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the poſſeſſion of the citie ouer agaynſt the fiue and twentie thouſande of the oblation toward the eaſt border, & weſtward ouer agaynſt the fiue & twentie thouſand toward the weſt border, ouer agaynſt ſhalbe the portion for the prince: this ſhalbe the holy oblation, and the houſe of the ſanctuarie ſhalbe in the middeſt thereof.

22 Moreouer, from the poſſeſſion of the Leuites, and the cities poſſeſſion, that whiche is in the middeſt ſhalbe the princes, betwixt the border of d Juda, and the border of Beniamin ſhalbe the princes.

23 Nowe of the other tribes: from the eaſt part vnto the weſt, ſhal Beniamin haue his portion.

24 Upon the borders of Beniamin, from the eaſt ſide vnto the weſt, ſhal Simeon haue his portion.

25 Upon the borders of Simeon, from the eaſt ſide vnto the weſt, ſhal Iſachar haue his portion.

26 Upon the borders of Iſachar, from the eaſt ſide vnto the weſt, ſhal Zabulon haue his portion.

27 Upon the borders of Zabulon, from the eaſt part vnto the weſt, ſhal Gad haue his portion.

28 Upon the borders of Gad at the ſouth ſide toward Temanah, the border ſhalbe from Thamar, vnto the waters of f ſtrife to Cades, and to the ryuer that runneth into the maine ſea.

29 This is the lande which ye ſhal diuide by lot for an inheritance vnto the tribes of Iſrael, and theſe be their portions, ſayth the Lorde God.

30 Theſe be the bondes of the citie, vpon the North part fiue hundred & foure thouſande meaſures.

31 The gates of the citie ſhal haue the names of the tribes of Iſrael, three gates of the North ſide: one gate of Ruben, another of Juda, the thirde of Leui.

32 Upon the Eaſt ſide fiue hundred and foure thouſande meaſures, with three gates: the one of Joſeph, another of Beniamin, the thyrde of Dan.

33 Upon the South ſide fiue hundred and foure thouſande meaſures, with the three gates: the one of Simeon, another of Iſachar, the thirde of Zabulon.

34 And vpon the Weſt ſide, fiue hundred and fiue thouſande meaſures, with their three gates alſo: the one of Gad, another of Aſer, the thirde of Nephthali.

35 Thus ſhal it haue eyghteene thouſande meaſures rounde about: and the name of the citie from that tyme forth ſhalbe, g The Lorde is there.

c. Euery way it ſhalbe fiue and twentie thouſande.

d. So that Iuda was on the North ſide of the princes and Leuites portions, and Beniamin on the South ſide.

The ende of the propheſie of Ezechiel.

¶ The booke of the prophete Daniel.

The fyrſt Chapter.

1. The prophete ſheweth the captiuitie of Iehoakim king of Iuda. 4. Of the chyldren that were in captiuitie, the king commaundeth to chooſe which of them ſhoulde be taught the learnyng and language of the Chaldeans.

1 IN the a thyrde yere of the raigne of Iehoakim kyng of Juda, came Nabuchodonoſor kyng of Babylon vnto Hieruſalem, and beſieged it.

2 And the Lorde deliuered Iehoakim the kyng of Juda into his hande, with part of the veſſelles of the houſe of God, which he caryed away into the lande of b Sennar, to the houſe of his God, and he brought the veſſelles into his goddes treaſurie.

3 And the kyng ſpake vnto Aſphenaz the c cheefe chamberlaine, that he ſhould bring hym certayne of the chyldren of Iſrael, of the kynges ſeede, and of the princes.

4 Youngelings without any blemiſhe, but wel fauoured, ſtudious in all wyſedome, ſkylful for knowledge, able to vtter knowledge, and ſuch as haue lyuelineſſe in them, that they d may ſtande in the kynges palace:

a. Reade 2. Kyng. 24. 10.

b. Which was a playne by Babylon, where was the temple of the great God, and is here taken for Babylon.

c. Or, maiſter of y Eunuches.

d. As well to ſeruice at the table, as in other offices.

they d may ſtande in the kynges palace: and whom they myght teache the learnyng and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 Unto theſe the kyng appoynted a dayly prouiſion euery day of a portion of the kynges meate, & of the wyne whiche he dranke, ſo to nourythe them three yeeres, that afterwarde they myght ſtande before the kyng.

6 Among theſe nowe were certayne of the chyldren of Juda, namely, Daniel, Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias.

7 Unto theſe the cheefe Chamberlaine gaue e other names, and called Daniel Baltaſſar: Ananias, Sidrach: Miſael, Miſach: and Azarias, Abednego.

8 But Daniel purpoſed in his hart that he woulde not defyle hym ſelfe with the portion of the kynges meate, nor with the wyne whiche he dranke: therfore he requyred the cheefe Chamberlaine that he might not defyle hym ſelfe.

9 (And God brought Daniel into fauour and tender loue with the cheefe Chamberlayne.)

10 And the cheefe Chamberlayne ſayd vnto Daniel, I am afrayde of my lorde the kyng which hath appoynted you your meate and your drynke: wherefore ſhoulde he ſee your faces woorſe lyking then the ſprygnaldes of your age, and ſo ye ſhall make me indanger my head vnto the kyng.

11 Then Daniel ſaid vnto Melaſſar, whom the cheefe Chamberlayne had ſet ouer Daniel, Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias:

12 O prooue but ten dayes with thy ſeruantes, and let vs haue pulſe to eate, and water to drynke.

13 Then let our countenaunces be looked vpon before thee, and the countenaunces of the chyldren that eate of the portion of the kynges meate: and as thou ſeeſt, deale with thy ſeruantes.

14 So he conſented to them in this matter, and prooued them ten dayes.

15 And at the ende of ten dayes their countenaunces appeared fayrer and f fatter in fleſhe then al the chyldrens whiche dyd eate the portion of the kynges meate.

16 Thus Melaſſar tooke away the portion of their meate, & the wyne that they ſhoulde drynke, and gaue them pulſe.

17 As for thoſe foure chyldren, God gaue them knowledge and vnderſtandyng in g al learnyng and wyſedome: alſo he gaue Daniel vnderſtandyng of al h viſions and dreames.

18 Nowe when the i tyme was expired that the kyng had appoynted to bryng them in, the cheefe Chamberlayne brought them before Nabuchodonoſor.

19 And the kyng communed with them: but among them all were founde none ſuche as Daniel, Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias: therefore ſtoode they before the kyng.

20 In all matters of wyſedome and vnderſtandyng that the kyng enquired of them, he founde them ten tymes better then al the wyſe men and ſoothſayers that were in al his Realme.

21 And Daniel abode ſtyl vnto the k fyrſte yeere of kyng Cyrus.

k. That is, he was eſteemed in Babylon as a prophet, and in auctoritie ſo long as ỹ comon wealth ſtoode.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

1. The dreame of Nabuchodonoſor. 2. He calleth vnto hym ſoothſayers, and requyreth of them both the dreame and the interpretation thereof.

1 IN the a ſeconde yeere of the raigne of Nabuchodonoſor, had Nabuchodonoſor a dreame, wherethrough his ſpirite was troubled, and his ſleepe drake from hym.

a. The ſame and the ſonne were both called by this name, ſo that it is meant of the ſonne when he raigned alone: for he raigned alſo after a ſort with his father. Or els in the ſeconde yeere of his generall conqueſt of other barbarous nations.

2 Then the kyng commaunded to call the wyſe men, and ſoothſayers, and ſorcerers, and the Chaldees, for to ſhewe the kyng his dreame: So they came, & ſtoode before the kyng.

3 And the kyng ſayde vnto them, I haue dreamed a dreame, and my ſpirit was troubled to knowe the dreame.

4 Upon this the Chaldeans anſwearedthe kyng in the Syrians ſpeache, O kyng, God ſaue thy lyfe for euer: ſhewe thy ſeruantes the dreame, and we ſhal ſhewe the interpretation.

5 The kyng anſwearedand ſayde to the Chaldeans, The thyng is gone from me: Yf ye wyl not make me vnderſtande the dreame, with the interpretation thereof, ye ſhalbe drawen in peeces, and your houſes made a iakes.

6 But if ye tel me the dreame, and the interpretation thereof, ye ſhal receyue of me gyftes, rewardes, and great honour, therefore ſhew me the dreame, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They anſwearedagayne, and ſayde, The kyng muſt ſhewe his ſeruantes the dreame, and ſo ſhall we declare the interpretation thereof.

8 Then the kyng anſwearedſaying, I perceyue of a trueth that ye would b redeeme the tyme, for ſo muche as ye ſee the thyng is gone from me.

b. Ye ſeke occaſiõ of delaies, vntyll ſome other affayres myght happen, and make me forget the matter.

9 Therfore yf ye wyl not tel me the dreame, this is your onely purpoſe, Ye haue prepared lying and corrupt wordes to ſpeake before me, tyll the tyme be changed: therefore tel me the dreame, that I may knowe that ye can declare me the interpretation ther of.

10 Upon this the Chaldees gaue anſweare before the kyng, and ſayde, There is no man vpon earth that can tel the thyng whiche the kyng ſpeaketh of, yea there is neyther kyng, prince, nor lorde, that euer aſked ſuche thynges at a wyſe man, ſoothſayer, or Chaldean.

11 For it is a rare matter that the kyng requireth, neither is there anye that can certifie the kyng thereof, except the gods, whoſe dwellyng is not with fleſhe.

12 For the which eauſe the king was wroth with great indignation, and commaunded to deſtroy al the wyſe men at Babylon.

13 So the decree went forth, and the wyſe men were ſlayne: they ſought alſo to ſlaye Daniel, with his companions.

14 Then Daniel ſtayed the counſel and decree with Arioch the captaine of the kyngs garde, who was gone forth to put to death the wyſe men of Babylon.

15 He anſwered and ſayde vnto Arioch the kynges captayne, Why is the ſentence ſo haſtie from the kyng? Then Arioch tolde Daniel the matter.

16 Upon this went Daniel, and deſyred the kyng that he woulde geue hym leyſure, and that he woulde ſhewe the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his houſe, & ſhewed the thyng to Ananias, Miſael, and Azarias, his companions:

18 That they ſhoulde beſeeche the God of heauen for grace in this ſecret, that Daniel and his felowes, with other ſuche as were wyſe in Babylon, peryſhed not.

19 Then was this ſecrete reuealed vnto Daniel in a viſion by nyght: then Daniel prayſed the God of heauen.

*Pſal.113.1. 20 Daniel alſo anſweared, and ſayd, *The name of God be prayſed for euer and euer: for wyſedome and ſtrength are his.

21 He changeth the tymes and ſeaſons, he taketh away kynges, he ſetteth vp kynges: he geueth wyſedome vnto the wyſe, and vnderſtandyng to thoſe that vnderſtande.

22 He reuealeth the deepe and ſecrete thynges: he knoweth the thyng that lyeth in darkeneſſe, for the lyght dwelleth with hym.

23 I thanke thee and prayſe thee, O thou God of my fathers, that thou haſt geuen me wyſedome & ſtrength, and haſt ſhewed me nowe the thyng that we deſyred of thee: for thou haſt declared the kynges matter vnto vs.

24 Upon this went Daniel in vnto Arioch, whom the kyng had ordeyned to deſtroy the wyſe men at Babylon: he went and ſayde thus vnto hym, Deſtroy not the wyſe men of Babylon, but bryng me before the kyng, and I ſhal ſhewe the kyng the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought Daniel before the kyng in all the haſte, and ſayde thus vnto hym, I haue founde a man among the children of Juda that were brought captiues, that wyl declare vnto the kyng the interpretation.

26 Then anſwearedthe kyng and ſayde to Daniel, whoſe name was Balthaſar, Art thou able to ſhewe me the dreame whiche I haue ſeene, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel anſweared in the preſence of the kyng, and ſayde, As for this ſecrete whiche the kyng maketh inquiſition, there can neyther the men of vnderſtandyng, nor ſoothſayers, nor the wyſe men, nor readers of deſtinies, declare it vnto the kyng:

28 But there is a c God in heauen that reuealeth ſecretes, & ſheweth the kyng Nabuchodonoſor what is for to come in the latter dayes. Thy dreame, and that whiche thou haſt ſeene in thyne head vpon thy bed, is this.

c. Hereby he ſignifieth the kyng with a certayne feare and reuerence of God, that he myght be the more apt to receyue the hygh myſteries that ſhoulde be reuealed.

29 O kyng, when thou waſt in thy bedde, thoughtes came into thy mind what ſhould come hereafter: ſo he that is the opener of myſteries, telleth thee what is for to come.

30 As for me, this ſecrete is not ſhewed me for any wyſedome that I haue more then any other lyuyng, but onely that I myght ſhewe the kyng the interpretation, and that thou mighteſt knowe the thoughts of thine owne hart.

31 Thou kyng ſaweſt, and beholde, there vvas a great image: this great d image, whoſe bryghtneſſe was excellent, ſtoode before thee, and the fourme thereof was terrible.

d. By this is vnderſtanded the worlde.

32 This images e head was of fyne gold, his breſt and armes of ſyluer, his belly and his thyghes of braſſe.

e. By golde, ſilver, braſſe, & iron, are meant the Chaldees, Perſians, Macedonians, & Romaine kyngdomes, whiche ſhould ſucceſſiuely rule the world, til Chriſt (whiche is here called † ſtone) come hym ſelfe, and deſtroy it laſt.

33 His legges were of iron, his feete were part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou beheldeſt it tyl a ſtone was cut without handes, whiche ſmote the image vpon his feete that were of iron and claye, and brake them to peeces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the braſſe, the ſyluer and golde broken altogeather, and became lyke the chaffe of Sommer floures, and the wynde carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the ſtone that ſmote the image, became a great mountayne, and fylled the whole earth.

36 This is the dreame: and nowe wyll we ſhewe before the kyng what it meaneth.

37 O kyng, thou art a kyng of kynges: for the

the God of heauen hath geuen vnto thee a kyngdome, power, strength, and glory.

38 And in al places where so euer the chyldren of men dwel, the beastes of the feelde, and the foules of the ayre hath he geuen into thy hande, & hath made thee ruler in them al: thou art this f head of golde.

39 After thee shal aryse g another kyngdome, inferior to thee, and another h thirde kingdome shalbe of brasse, which shal beare rule ouer al the earth.

40 The i fourth kyngdome shalbe strong as iron: for as iron breaketh in peeces and subdueth al thynges, and as iron bruyseth al these thynges, so shal it breake in peeces and bruise all.

41 Whereas thou sawest the feete and toes, part of potters clay, and part of iron, the kyngdome shalbe k diuided: but there shal be in it of the strength of iron, for so muche as thou sawest the iron mixt with the claye and earth.

42 And as the toes of the feete were part of iron and part of claye: so shal the kingdome be part strong, and part broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixt with clay and earth, they shal mingle themselues with the seede of men, and yet not ioyne one with another, as iron wyl not be mixt with clay.

44 And in the dayes of these kynges shall the God of heauen set vp a kyngdome, which shal neuer be destroyed, and this kyngdome shal not be geuen ouer to another people: but it shal breake & destroy al these kyngdomes, and it l shal stande for euer.

45 Like as thou sawest that m without any handes there was cut out of the mount a stone, which brake the iron, the brasse, the clay, the siluer and golde in peeces: so the great GOD hath shewed the kyng what shal come to passe after this: this is a true dreame, and the interpretation of it is sure.

46 Then the kyng Nabuchodonosor fell downe vpon his face, and bowed him selfe vnto Daniel, and commaunded to offeryne [illegible] and sweete odours for hym.

[illegible] answeared Daniel, and sayd, [illegible] your God is a God of gods, [illegible] Lorde of kynges, and a reuealer of [illegible], seeyng thou couldest reueale this [illegible].

48 [illegible] the kyng made Daniel a great man, and gaue hym many and great gyftes: he made hym ruler of al the countreyes of Babylon, and the cheefe of the rulers aboue all the wyse men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel made request to the king, and [illegible] Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego, ouer the charge of the prouince of Babylon: but Daniel sate in the kynges gate.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

1. The king setteth vp a golden image, vvhiche he commaundeth to be vvorshypped. 8. Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego are accused, because they despised the kinges commaundement.

1 NAbuchodonosor the kyng made an image of golde, which was threescore cubites high, and sixe cubites thicke: he set it vp in the playne of Dura, in the prouince of Babylon.

2 Then Nabuchodonosor the kyng sent foorth, to geather togeather the Dukes, Lordes, and Nobles, the iudges & officers, the deputies and sheriffes, with al the rulers of the prouinces, that they might come to the a dedication of the image whiche Nabuchodonosor the kyng had set vp.

3 So the Dukes, Lordes, and Nobles, the iudges and officers, deputies, & sheriffes, with al the rulers of the prouince, geathered them togeather vnto the dedication of the image that Nabuchodonosor the kyng had set vp, and they stoode before the image which Nabuchodonosor had set vp.

4 Then an Heralde cryed aloude, To you it is commaunded, O people, nations, and languages,

5 That when ye heare the noyse of the Cornet, Trumpet, Harpe, Shawme, Psalteries, Dulcimer, and al maner of instrumentes of musicke, ye fal downe and worshyp that golden image that Nabuchodonosor the kyng hath set vp.

6 Who so then falleth not downe and worshippeth, shal euen the same houre be cast into the middest of a hotte fierie furnace.

7 Therefore when al the folke hearde the noyse of the Cornet, Trumpet, Harpe, Shawme, Psalteries, and al instrumentes of musicke, then al the people, nations, and languages fel downe and worshipped the golden image that Nabuchodonosor the kyng had set vp.

8 Nowe were there certayne men of the Chaldees, that went euen then, and b cryed out an accusation of the Iewes.

9 They spake and sayde vnto the kyng Nabuchodonosor, O kyng, lyue for euer.

10 Thou, O kyng, hast made a decree, that euery man that shal heare the sounde of the Cornet, Trumpet, Harpe, Shawme, Psalteries, Dulcimer, and al instruments of musicke, shal fal downe and worshyp the golden image:

11 And who so then fell not downe, & woor-

a. Shewyng that the idol is not knowen for an idol so long as it is with the workemen: but when the ceremonies and customes are recited and vsed, and the consent of the people is there, then of a blocke they thynke they haue made a god.

b. That is, accused y Iewes with an outcrye.

10 Upon this the Chaldees gaue anſweare before the kyng, and ſayde, There is no man vpon earth that can tel the thyng whiche the kyng ſpeaketh of, yea there is neyther kyng, prince, nor lorde, that euer aſked ſuche thynges at a wyſe man, ſoothſayer, or Chaldean.

11 For it is a rare matter that the kyng requireth, neither is there anye that can certifie the kyng thereof, except the gods, whoſe dwellyng is not with fleſhe.

19 Then was this ſecrete reuealed vnto Daniel in a viſion by nyght: then Daniel prayſed the God of heauen.

*Pſal.113.1. 20 Daniel alſo anſweared, and ſayd, *The name of God be prayſed for euer and euer: for wyſedome and ſtrength are his.

26 Then anſwearedthe kyng and ſayde to Daniel, whoſe name was Balthaſar, Art thou able to ſhewe me the dreame whiche I haue ſeene, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel anſwearedin the preſence of the kyng, and ſayde, As for this ſecrete whiche the kyng maketh inquiſition, there can neyther the men of vnderſtandyng, nor ſoothſayers, nor the wyſe men, nor readers of deſtinies, declare it vnto the kyng:

28 But there is a e God in heauen that reuealeth ſecretes, & ſheweth the kyng Nabuchodonoſor what is for to come in the latter dayes. Thy dreame, and that whiche thou haſt ſeene in thyne head vpon thy bed, is this.

e. Hereby he ſayeth vnto kyng with a certayne feare and reuerence of God, that he myght be the more apt to receyue the kyngs myſteries that ſhoulde be reuealed.

29 O kyng, when thou waſt in thy bedde, thoughtes came into thy mind what ſhould come hereafter: ſo he that is the opener of myſteries, telleth thee what is for to come.

30 As for me, this ſecrete is not ſhewed me for any wyſedome that I haue more then any other lyuyng, but onely that I myght ſhewe the kyng the interpretation, and that thou mighteſt knowe the thoughts of thine owne hart.

31 Thou kyng ſaweſt, and beholde, there was a great image: this great d image, whoſe bryghteneſſe was excellent, ſtoode before thee, and the fourme thereof was terrible.

d. By this is vnderſtanded the worlde.

32 This images e head was of fyne gold, his breſt and armes of ſyluer, his belly and his thyghes of braſſe.

e. By golde, ſiluer, braſſe, & iron, are meant the Chaldees, Perſian, Macedonian, & Romane kyngdome, whiche ſhould ſucceſſiuely rule the world, til Chriſt (whiche is ſtone called † ſtone) come hym ſelfe and deſtroy all.

33 His legges were of iron, his feete were part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou beheldeſt it tyl a ſtone was cut without handes, whiche ſmote the image vpon his feete that were of iron and claye, and brake them to peeces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the braſſe, the ſyluer and golde broken altogether, and became lyke the chaffe of Sommer floures, and the wynde carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the ſtone that ſmote the image, became a great mountayne, and fylled the whole earth.

36 This is the dreame: and nowe wyll we ſhewe before the kyng what it meaneth.

37 O kyng, thou art a kyng of kynges: for the

the God of heauen hath geuen vnto thee a kyngdome, power, strength, and glory.

38 And in al places where so euer the chyldren of men dwel, the beastes of the feelde, and the foules of the ayre hath he geuen into thy handc, & hath made thee ruler in them al: thou art this f head of golde.

39 After thee shal aryse g another kyngdome, inferior to thee, and another h thirde kingdome shalbe of brasse, which shal beare rule ouer al the earth.

40 The i fourth kyngdome shalbe strong as iron: for as iron breaketh in peeces and subdueth al thynges, and as iron bruyseth al these thynges, so shal it breake in peeces and bruise all.

41 Whereas thou sawest the feete and toes, part of potters clay, and part of iron, the kyngdome shalbe k diuided: but there shal be in it of the strength of iron, for so muche as thou sawest the iron mixt with the claye and earth.

42 And as the toes of the feete were part of iron and part of claye: so shal the kingdome be part strong, and part broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixt with clay and earth, they shal mingle them selues with the seede of men, and yet not ioyne one with another, as iron wyl not be mixt with clay.

44 And in the dayes of these kynges shall the God of heauen set vp a kyngdome, whiche shal neuer be destroyed, and this kyngdome shal not be geuen ouer to another people: but it shal breake & destroy al these kyngdomes, and it l shal stande for euer.

45 Like as thou sawest that m without any handes there was cut out of the mount a stone, which brake the iron, the brasse, the clay, the siluer and golde in peeces: so the great GOD hath shewed the kyng what shal come to passe after this: this is a true dreame, and the interpretation of it is sure.

46 Then the kyng Nabuchodonosor fell downe vpon his face, and bowed him selfe vnto Daniel, and commaunded to offeryne and sweete odours for hym.

[illegible] answeared Daniel, and sayd, your God is a God of gods, [illegible] of kynges, and a reuealer of [illegible], seyng thou couldest reueale this [illegible].

48 Then the kyng made Daniel a great man, and gaue hym many and great gyftes: he made hym ruler of al the countreyes of Babylon, and the cheefe of the rulers aboue all the wyse men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel made request to the king, and he set Sidrach, Misach, and Abedne-go, ouer the charge of the prouince of Babylon: but Daniel sate in the kynges gate.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

1. The king setteth vp a golden image, vvhiche he commaundeth to be vvorshypped 8. Sidrach, Misach, and Abednego are accused, because they despised the kinges commaundement.

1 NAbuchodonosor the kyng made an image of golde, which was threescore cubites high, and sixe cubites thicke: he set it vp in the playne of Dura, in the prouince of Babylon.

2 Then Nabuchodonosor the kyng sent foorth, to geather togeather the Dukes, Lordes, and Nobles, the iudges & officers, the deputies and sheriffes, with al the rulers of the prouinces, that they might come to the a dedication of the image whiche Nabuchodonosor the kyng had set vp.

3 So the Dukes, Lordes, and Nobles, the iudges and officers, deputies, & sheriffes, with al the rulers of the prouince, geathered them togeather vnto the dedication of the image that Nabuchodonosor the kyng had set vp, and they stoode before the image which Nabuchodonosor had set vp.

4 Then an Heralde cryed aloude, To you it is commaunded, O people, nations, and languages,

5 That when ye heare the noyse of the Cornet, Trumpet, Harpe, Shawme, Psalteries, Dulcimer, and al maner of instrumentes of musicke, ye fal downe and woorshyp that golden image that Nabuchodonosor the kyng hath set vp.

6 Who so then falleth not downe and woorshippeth, shal euen the same houre be cast into the middest of a hotte fierie furnace.

7 Therefore when al the folke hearde the noyse of the Cornet, Trumpet, Harpe, Shawme, Psalteries, and al instrumentes of musicke, then al the people, nations, and languages fel downe and woorshipped the golden image that Nabuchodonosor the kyng had set vp.

8 Nowe were there certayne men of the Chaldees, that went euen then, and b cryed out an accusation of the Iewes.

9 They spake and sayde vnto the kyng Nabuchodonosor, O kyng, lyue for euer.

10 Thou, O kyng, hast made a decree, that euery man that shal heare the sounde of the Cornet, Trumpet, Harpe, Shawme, Psalteries, Dulcimer, and al instruments of musicke, shal fal downe and woorshyp the golden image:

11 And who so then fell not downe, & woor-

a. Shewyng that the idol is not knowen for an idol so long as it is with the workemen: but when the ceremonies and customes are recited and vsed, and the consent of the people is there, then of a blocke they thynke they haue made a god.

b. That is, accused by Iewes with an outcrye.

ſhipped not, that he ſhoulde be caſt into the middes of an hot fierie furnace.

12 Nowe are there certayne Iewes, whom thou haſt ſet ouer the charge of the prouince of Babylon, namely c Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego: theſe men, O kyng, regarded not thy commaundement: yea they wyl not ſerue thy goddes, nor woorſhip the golden image that thou haſt ſet vp.

13 Then Nabuchodonoſor in his anger and wrath commaunded that Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, ſhould be brought vnto hym: ſo theſe men were brought before the kyng.

14 Then Nabuchodonoſor ſpake vnto them, and ſayde, Is it true, O Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, wyl not you ſerue my gods, nor worſhyp the golden image that I haue ſet vp?

15 Nowe therefore be redy when ye heare the ſound of the Cornet, Trumpet, Harpe, Shawme, Pſalteries, Dulcimer, and all inſtrumentes of muſicke, to fal downe and worſhyp the image whiche I haue made: for yf ye worſhyp it not, ye ſhalbe caſt immediatly into the middes of a hot fierie furnace: for who is that God that can deliuer you out of my handes?

16 Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, anſwered the kyng, and ſayde, O Nabuchodonoſor, we are not d careful to anſweare thee in this matter:

17 Beholde, our God whom we ſerue, is e able to deliuer vs from the hot fierie furnace: and he wil deliuer vs out of thy hand, O kyng.

18 And though he wyl not, yet ſhalt thou knowe, O kyng, that we wyl not ſerue thy goddes, nor worſhyp the golden image which thou haſt ſet vp.

19 Then was Nabuchodonoſor ful of indignation, ſo that the countenaunce of his face chaunged vpon Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego: therefore he charged and commaunded that they ſhoulde heate the fornace, one ſeuen tymes more then it was woont to be heat.

20 And he charged the moſt valiant men of warre that were in his armie, to binde Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, and to caſt them into the hot fierie furnace.

21 So theſe men were bound in their coates, hoſen, head attyre, with their other garmentes, and caſt into the middes of the hot fierie furnace.

22 Therefore becauſe the kynges commaundement was ſtraite, and the furnace was exceeding hotte, the men that put in Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, the flame of the fyre deſtroyed them.

23 And theſe three men, Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, fel downe in the middes of the hot fierie furnace bounde.

24 Then Nabuchodonoſor the kyng was aſtonied, and roſe vp in al haſt: he ſpake vnto his counſel, and ſayd, Did not we caſt three men bounde into the middes of the fyre? They anſwered and ſayde vnto the kyng, It is true, O kyng.

25 He anſweared and ſayd, Loe I ſee foure men loſe, walking in the middes of the fire, and they haue no hurt: and the fourme of the fourth is like the f ſonne of God.

26 Vpon this went Nabuchodonoſor vnto the mouth of the hot fierie furnace, he ſpake alſo, and ſayde, O Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, ye ſeruantes of the high God, goe forth, and come hyther. And ſo Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, came forth of the middes of the fyre.

27 The Dukes, Lordes, and Nobles, and the kynges counſel came together to ſee theſe men, vpon whom the fyre had no maner of power in their bodies: in ſo much that the very heare of their head was not burnt, and their clothes vnchaunged, yea there was no ſmel of fyre felt vpon them.

28 Then ſpake Nabuchodonoſor, and ſayd, Bleſſed be the GOD of Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, which hath ſent his angel, & deliuered his ſeruantes that put their truſt in him, & haue altered the kinges commaundement, and ieoparded their bodies, rather then they would ſerue or worſhip any god, except their owne God onely.

29 Therefore I make a decree, that euery people, nation, and language, which ſpeake any blaſphemie againſt the GOD of Sidrach, Miſach, & Abednego, ſhalbe drawen in peeces, and their houſes ſhalbe made a iakes: becauſe there is no God that can deliuer after this ſort.

30 So the kyng promoted Sidrach, Miſach, and Abednego, in the prouince of Babylon.

¶ The iiii. Chapter.

Nabuchodonoſor dreameth agayne.

1 NAbuchodonoſor kyng, vnto all people, nations, and languages that dwel vpon the a whole earth, peace be multiplied among you.

2 I thought it good to ſhewe the ſignes and marueylous workes that the high GOD hath wrought vpon me.

3 O howe great are his ſignes, and howe mightie are his woonders? his kyngdome is an b euerlaſting kingdome, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I Nabuchodonoſor being at reſt in my houſe,

c. It ſeemeth that they named not Daniel, becauſe he was greatly in the kynges fauour, thynkyng yf theſe three had been deſtroyed, they might haue better occaſion to accuſe Daniel after: and this declareth that this pollicie of erectyng this image, was inuented by the malicious flatterers, whiche ſought nothyng but the deſtruction of the Iewes, who they accuſed of rebellion, and ingratitude.

d. They ſhould haue done iniurie to God, yf they ſhoulde haue doubted in this holy cauſe, & therefore they ſay that they are reſolued to dye for Gods cauſe.

e. They ground on two pointes: firſt on y power and prouidence of God ouer them: ſecondly on their cauſe, which was gods glory, & the teſtifiyng of his true religion w their blood, and ſo make open confeſſion, that they wyll not ſo much as outwardly conſent to idolatrie.

f. That is, an angel of God, as verſe. 28.

house, and flourishyng in my palace,

5 Sawe a c dreame, whiche made me afrayde, and the thoughtes vppon my bed with the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therfore made I a decree, that they should bryng all the wyse men of Babylon before me, that they myght declare vnto me the interpretation of the dreame.

7 So came the wyse men, the soothsayers, the Chaldeans, and wysardes, to whom I tolde the dreame: but they could not shewe me the interpretation thereof.

8 Tyll at the last Daniel came before me (whose name was Baltassar, accordyng to the name of my God) which hath the spirite of the holy goddes in him, and before him I tolde the dreame, saying,

9 O Baltassar, thou prince of wyse men, for so much as I knowe that thou hast the spirite of the holy goddes, and no secrete troubleth thee: tel me therfore the visions of my dreame that I haue seene, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of my head vpon my bed: and beholde I sawe a tree in the myddes of the earth, and the heyght therof was great:

11 A great tree and strong, and the heyght therof reached vnto the heauen, and the sight therof to the endes of al the earth.

12 The leaues therof were fayre, and the fruite therof much, and in it was meate for all: the beastes of the feelde had shadowes vnder it, and the foules of the ayre dwelt in the boughes therof: al flesh fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head vpon my bed, and beholde, a d watcher, and a holye one came downe from heauen, 14 And cryed myghtyly, saying thus, Hewe downe the tree, breake of his braunches, shake of his leaues, and scatter his fruite abrode: that the beastes may get them away from vnder hym, and the foules from his branches.

15 Neuertheles, leaue the stumpe of his rootes styll in the earth, and with a band of iron and brasse bynde it among the grasse of the feelde, and let it be wet with the deawe of heauen, and let his portion be with the beastes among the grasse of the feelde.

16 Let his hart be e chaunged from mans nature and let a beastes hart be geuen vnto hym, and let seuen tymes be passed ouer him.

17 This sentence is accordyng to the f decree of the watchers, and the request accordyng to the woorde of the holye ones: because lyuyng men shoulde knowe that the hyghest hath power ouer the kyngdome of men, and geueth it to whom it lyketh hym, and setteth vp ouer it the basest among men.

18 This is the dreame that I kyng Nabuchodonosor haue seene: therefore thou, O Baltassar, declare the interpretation therof, for so muche as all the wyse men of my kyngdome are not able to shewe me what it meaneth: but thou canst do it, for the spirit of thy holy goddes is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Baltassar, held his peace by the space of one houre, and his thoughtes g troubled him. So the kyng spake and sayde, O Baltassar, let neyther the dreame, nor the interpretation therof trouble thee. Baltassar aunswered, saying, O my Lorde, this dreame be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation therof to thyne aduersaries.

20 As for the tree that thou sawest, whiche was great and mightie, whose heyght reached vnto the heauen, and the sight therof through all the worlde,

21 Whose leaues were fayre, and the fruite therof much, and in it was meate for al, vnder the whiche the beastes of the feelde had their habitation, and vpon whose branches the foules of the ayre dyd sit:

22 It is thou, O kyng, which art great and myghtye, for thy greatnesse encreaseth and reacheth vnto the heauen, so doth thy dominion to the endes of the earth.

23 But whereas the kyng sawe a watcher, and a holy one that came downe from heauen, and sayde, Hewe downe the tree, and destroy it, yet leaue the stumpe of the rootes therof in the earth, and with a bande of iron and brasse bynde it among the grasse of the feelde, and let it be wet with the deawe of the heauē, and let his portion be with the beastes of the feeld, tyl h seuen tymes passe ouer hym:

24 This, O kyng, is the interpretation, yea it is the very decree of hym that is highest of all, and it toucheth my lord the kyng.

25 Thou shalt be cast out from men, and thy dwellyng shalbe with the beastes of the feelde: with grasse shalt thou be fedde lyke i oxen, thou must be wet with the deawe of the heauen, yea, seuen tymes shall passe ouer thee, tyll thou k knowe that the hyghest hath power ouer the kingdome of men, and geueth it to whom he lyst.

26 Moreouer, whereas it was sayde that the stumpe of the roote of the tree, shoulde be left styl: it betokeneth that thy kingdome shall remayne whole vnto thee, after thou hast learned to knowe that the power commeth from heauen.

27 Wherefore, O kyng, let my counsell be acceptable vnto thee, and l breake of thy sinnes

This was an euil dreame, like vnto which were those of the foure empires.

Which was an angel of god

That is, let him be deprived of naturall reason, & mans vnderstanding. This was the decree of GOD vpon the watchers & angels, though they knewe it and resisted it: which the holy ones desire to come to passe, cōsidering vpon the decree of God, that the people myght be brought to repentance, and the kingdome exalted.

g. Partly cōsidering ỹ great iudgementes of God in the horrible punishmēt of this great prince: & partly moued with pitie of his cause, whō God had cōmaunded ỹ Iewes to wish well to, & pray for, as here. 29.

h. Whereby he meaneth a long space, as seuen yeeres, or seuen quarters of yeeres, or seuen monethes: for the interpretation is diuers.

i. Not that his shape or fourme was changed into a beast, but that he was eyther stricken mad, and so annoyded mans cōpanie: or was cast out for his tyranny, and so wandred among the beastes, and ate hearbes and grasse.

k. Daniel sheweth the cause why God thus punished hym.

l. Cease from prouoking God to anger any longer by thy sinnes. & where thou hast cruelly oppressed many poore, be nowe merciful vnto them in righteousnesse, so shal the errours of thy former lyfe be redressed.

ſtanes by ryghteouſneſſe, and thyne iniquities by mercy towarde the poore: loe, let there be a healyng of thyne errour.

28 All theſe thynges touche the kyng Nabuchodonoſor.

29 So after twelue monethes, the kyng walked in the palace of the kyngdome of Babylon.

30 And the kyng ſpake, and ſayde, Is not this great Babylon that I haue buylt for the houſe of the kyngdome by the myght of my power, and for the honour of thy maieſtie?

31 Whyle theſe woordes were yet in the kynges mouth, there fell a voyce from heauen, ſaying, O kyng Nabuchodonoſor, to thee be it ſpoken, Thy kyngdome is departed from thee, 32 And thou ſhalt be caſt out of mens companie, thy dwellyng ſhalbe with the beaſtes of the feelde: ſo that thou ſhalt eate graſſe lyke oxen, and ſeuen tymes ſhall paſſe ouer thee, vntyll thou knoweſt that the hyghest hath power vppon the kyngdome of men, and geueth it vnto whom it pleaſeth hym.

33 The very ſame houre was this matter fulfylled vpon Nabuchodonoſor, ſo that he was caſt out of mens company, and did eate graſſe like oxen, and his body was wet with the deawe of heauen, tyll his heares were growen as Eagles feathers and his nayles lyke byrdes clawes.

m. That is, the ſeuen tymes or yeeres mentioned in the verſes. 16. 23. & 25.

34 When this m tyme was paſt, I Nabuchodonoſor lyft vp myne eyes vnto heauen, and myne vnderſtanding was reſtored vnto me: then gaue I thankes vnto the hyghest, I magnified and prayſed hym that lyueth for euermore, whoſe power is an euerlaſting power, and his kingdome is from one generation to another.

35 And al they that dwel vpon the earth are to be reputed as nothyng, and accordyng to his wyll he worketh in the armie of heauen, and among the inhabiters of the earth: and there is none that may reſiſt his hand, or ſay vnto hym, What doeſt thou?

36 At the ſame tyme was myne vnderſtandyng geuen me agayne, and I was reſtored to the honour of my kyngdome, my glorie and my beautie was reſtored vnto me, and my counſaylours and n princes ſought vnto me, and I was eſtabliſhed in my kyngdome, and my glorie was augmented towarde me.

n. By whom it ſeemeth he was put frō hiskingdome before.

37 Nowe therefore I o Nabuchodonoſor, prayſe, and extoll, and magnifie the kyng of heauen, whoſe workes are al trueth, and his wayes iudgement, and thoſe that walke in pryde he is able to abaſe.

o. He doth not only prayſe god for his deliuerance, but alſo confeſſeth his fault, that God onely may haue the glory, and man the ſhame, and that he may be exalted, and mā caſt downe.

The.v. Chapter.

1. Balthaſar king of Babylon abuſing the veſſels of the temple, ſeeth an hande vvrityng in the vvall. 8. The ſoothſayers called of the king, can not expounde the vvrityng.

1 KYng Balthaſar made a great feaſt to a thouſande of his princes, and dranke wyne a before the thouſande.

a. That is alone, as commonly he was wont, but in ſolemne banquet, where he receiued his nobles to accōpanie him.

2 And Balthaſar, when he had taſted the wyne, commaunded to bryng him the golde and ſyluer veſſels, whiche his father Nabuchodonoſor had brought from the temple in Hieruſalem, that the kyng, and his princes, and his wyues, and his concubines, myght drynke therein.

3 So were brought the golden veſſels that they had taken out of the temple of the lords houſe at Hieruſalem: and the kyng, and his princes, his wyues, & his concubines dranke in them.

4 They dranke wyne, and prayſed the gods of gold, ſiluer, braſſe, iron, wood, and ſtone.

5 In the very ſame houre there appeared fyngers of a mans hande wrytyng, ryght ouer b agaynſt the candleſticke vppon the plaſter of the wall of the kynges palace, and the kyng ſawe the knockles of the hand that wrote.

b. That it might the better be ſeene.

6 Then changed the kyng his countenance, and his thoughtes troubled hym, ſo that the ioyntes of his loynes were looſed, and his c knees ſmote one agaynſt the other.

c. So that he that before contemned God, was moued by this ſight to tremble for feare of Gods iudgement.

7 Wherefore the kyng cryed myghtyly, that they ſhoulde bryng the ſoothſayers, Chaldees, and wyſardes: the kyng ſpake alſo to the wyſe men of Babylon, and ſayde, Who ſo can reade this wrytyng, and ſhew me the interpretation thereof, ſhalbe clothed with purple, and haue a chayne of gold about his necke, and ſhalbe the thirde ruler in the kyngdome.

8 Vppon this came all the kynges wyſe men, but they coulde neyther reade the writyng, nor ſhewe the kyng the interpretation.

9 Then was kyng Balthaſar greatly troubled, and his countenance was chaunged in hym, and his princes were aſtonied.

10 Nowe the d queene, by reaſon of the talke of the king and his princes, came into the banquet houſe: and the queene ſpake, and ſayd, O kyng, lyue for euer: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, and let not thy countenance be changed

d. This ſeemeth thinke was his mother, other his grandmother, of al likelihood a woman of great age, that could remember the acts of Daniel.

11 There is a man in thy kyngdome that hath the ſpirite of the holy goddes within hym: and in the dayes of thy father, lyght, and vnderſtandyng, and wyſedome, lyke the the wysedome of the goddes was founde in him, whom the kyng Nabuchodonoſor thy father, the kyng I ſay thy father made cheefe of the wyſe men, ſoothſayers, Chaldeans, and wyſardes, 12 Becauſe that ſuche an abundant ſpirite, knowledge, and vnderſtanding, to expound dreames, to open ſecretes, and to declare hard doubtes, was found in him, yea euen in Daniel, whom the kyng named Baltaſar: let Daniel be called, and he ſhal declare the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought before the kyng: ſo the king ſpake vnto Daniel, and ſayde, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the chyldren of ỹ captiuitie of Juda, whom my father the king brought out of Jurie?

14 I haue heard of thee that thou haſt the ſpirite of the holy goddes, and that lyght and vnderſtanding, and excellent wyſdome is found in thee.

15 Nowe haue there ben brought before me wyſe men, and ſoothſayers, to reade this wryting, and to ſhewe me the interpretation therof: but they coulde not declare the interpretation of the thing.

16 Then heard I of thee, that thou couldeſt ſhew interpretations, and diſſolue doubtes: nowe yf thou canſt reade this wryting, and ſhewe me the meanyng therof, thou ſhalt be clothed with purple, and haue a chayne of golde about thy necke, and be the thirde ruler in the kingdome.

17 Then Daniel anſwered, and ſaide before the king, As for thy rewardes keepe them to thee ſelfe, and geue thy giftes to another: yet I wyl reade ỹ wryting vnto the king, and ſhewe him the interpretation.

18 O thou kyng, the moſt hygh GOD gaue vnto f Nabuchodonoſor thy father a kingdome, and maieſtie, and honour, and glory.

19 And for the maieſtie that he gaue hym, all people, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: he ſlue whom he would, he ſmote whom it pleaſed hym: againe, whom he would he ſet vp, & whom he liſt he put downe.

20 But becauſe his hart was loftie, and his mind ſtrengthened in pryde, he was depoſed from his kingly throne, and they tooke his glory from him.

21 He was driuen out from the ſonnes of men, his hart was made like the beaſtes, and his dwelling was with the wyld aſſes, they fedde him with graſſe like oxen, and his body was wet with ỹ deawe of heauen, tyll he knewe that the moſt high God bare rule ouer the kingdome of men, and that he appointeth ouer it whomſoeuer he pleaſeth.

22 And thou his ſonne, O "Balthaſar, haſt not ſubmitted thyne hart, though thou kneweſt all theſe thinges:

"or, Belſaſar.

23 But haſt lyft vp thee ſelfe againſt the Lorde of heauen, ſo that the veſſelles of his houſe were brought before thee, that thou and thy princes, with thy wyues and concubines, might drinke wine thereout: and thou haſt prayſed the goddes of ſiluer, and golde, of braſſe, and iron, of wood, & ſtone, whiche neyther ſee, heare, nor vnderſtand: as for the God in whoſe hand conſiſteth thy breath, and al thy wayes, thou haſt not glorifyed him.

24 g Then was the knockles of the hande ſent from him, and hath written this wryting.

g. After that god had ſo long time deferred his anger, & patiently wayted for thyne amendemene.

25 And this is the wryting that he hath written: MENE, h MENE, THECEL, VPHARSIN.

h. This woord is doubled, not only to exaggerate the certaynetie of the matter, but alſo as ſome thinke the one to ſignifie the end of the king, the other the ende of the kyngdome.

26 Nowe the interpretation of the thing is this, MENE, GOD hath numbred thy kingdome, and brought it to an end.

27 THECEL, thou art weighed in the ballance, and art found wanting.

28 PHERES, Thy kingdome is diuided, and geuen to the Medes and Perſes.

29 Then commaunded Balthaſar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and a chayne of gold about his necke, and made a proclamation concernyng him, that he ſhoulde be the third ruler in the kingdome.

30 The very ſame nyght was Balthaſar the kyng of the Chaldees ſlayne.

31 And i Darius of the Medes tooke the kyngdome, being threeſcore and two yeeres of age.

i. Cyrus his ſonne in lawe gaue hym this ryale of honour, although Cyrus in effect had the dominion.

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

Daniel is made ruler ouer the Lordes.

1 IT pleaſed Darius to ſet ouer his kingdome a hundred & twentie gouernours, whiche ſhoulde be ouer the whole kyngdome.

2 Aboue theſe he ſet three princes, of whom Daniel was one, that ỹ gouernours might geue accomptes vnto them, and the kyng ſhould haue no damage.

a. Thus the wicked can not abide the graces of God in others, but ſeke by all occaſions to deface them, therefore againſt ſuche aſſaultes there is no better remedy then to walke vprightly in the feare of God, and to haue a good conſcience.

3 Nowe this Daniel was preferred aboue the princes and gouernours, for the ſpirite of God was plenteous in him, ſo that the king was minded to ſet him ouer the whole realme.

4 Wherefore the rulers and gouernours a ſought an occaſion againſt Daniel, concernyng the kingdome, but they could finde none occaſion nor fault: for he was ſo faythful faythful, that there was no blame nor fault found in him.

5 Then ſaide theſe men, We ſhal finde none occaſion agaynſt this Daniel, except we finde it agaynſt him concerning the lawe of his God.

6 Uppon this went the princes and lordes togeather vnto the king, and ſaide thus vnto him, King Darius liue for euer.

7 All the rulers of ỹ kingdome, the officers, and gouernours, the counſellours, & dukes, haue conſulted togeather to make a decree for the king, & to eſtabliſhe a ſtatute, That who ſo deſyreth any petition eyther of any god or man within theſe thyrtie dayes, except of thee, O kyng, he ſhalbe caſt into the Lions denne.

8 Nowe, O king, confirme the decree, and ſeale the wryting, that it be not changed, accordyng to the lawe of the Medes and Perſians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius ſealed the wryting and decree.

10 Nowe when Daniel vnderſtood that he had ſealed the wryting, he went into his houſe, and the b wyndowes of his chamber toward Hieruſalem ſtood open, there kneeled he downe vpon his knees three tymes a day, he made his petition, and prayſed his God, as he dyd afore tyme.

11 Then theſe men aſſembled, and founde Daniel makyng his petition, and praying vnto his God.

12 So they came to the king, and ſpake before him concernyng his commaundement, ſaying, O king, haſt thou not ſealed the decree, that within thirtie daies who ſo requireth his petition of any god or man, but only of thee ſelfe, O king, he ſhalbe caſt into the denne of Lions? The king anſweared, and ſaide, Yea it is true, accordyng to the lawe of the Medes and Perſes that altereth not.

13 Then anſweared they, and ſayd vnto the kyng, This Daniel whiche is of the chyldren of the captiuitie of Iuda, O kyng, regardeth neyther thee, nor thy decree that thou haſt ſealed: but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 When the king heard theſe wordes, he was ſore diſpleaſed with him ſelfe, and ſet his hart on Daniel to deliuer him, and he laboured tyll the ſunne went downe to deliuer him.

15 Then theſe men aſſembled vnto the king, and ſaide vnto him, Knowe this, O king, that the lawe of the Medes and Perſes, that the commaundement and ſtatute whiche the kyng maketh, may not be altered.

16 Then the kyng commaunded, and they brought Daniel, and they caſt him into the Lions denne. Nowe the king ſpake vnto Daniel, and ſayde, Thy GOD whom thou alway ſeruеſt, euen he wyll deliuer thee.

17 And there was brought a ſtone, and layd vpon the mouth of the denne, this the king ſealed with his owne ryng, and with the ſignet of his princes, that the purpoſe concernyng Daniel ſhoulde not be changed.

18 So the kyng went into his palace, and remayned faſtyng, neyther was there any inſtrumentes of muſicke brought in before him, and his ſleepe went from him.

19 But betimes in the morowyng at the breake of the day, the kyng aroſe, and went in all haſte vnto the denne of the Lions.

20 Nowe as he came nigh vnto the denne, he cryed with a piteous voyce vnto Daniel, yea the kyng ſpake, and ſayde vnto Daniel, O Daniel, thou ſeruant of the liuing God, is not thy God whom thou ſeruеſt alway able to deliuer thee from the Lions?

21 Then ſayde Daniel vnto the king, O kyng liue for euer.

22 My God hath ſent his angel, whiche hath ſhut the Lions mouthes, ſo that they myght not hurt me, for myne d vnryghteouſneſſe is found out before hym: and as for thee, O kyng, I neuer e offended thee.

23 Then was the king exceedyng glad for him, and commaunded to take Daniel out of the denne: ſo Daniel was brought out of the denne, and no maner of hurt was found vpon him, for he f put his truſt in his God.

24 And as for thoſe men which had accuſed Daniel, the king commaunded to bring them, & to caſt them into the Lions denne, them, theyr chyldren, and theyr wyues: ſo the Lions had the maſtrie of them, & brake all theyr bones aſunder or euer they came at the ground of the denne.

25 After this wrote kyng Darius vnto all people, nations, and tongues, that dwelt in all landes, Peace be multiplyed vnto you:

26 My commaundement is in al my dominion and kingdome, that men feare and ſtand in awe of Daniels GOD: for he is the liuyng GOD which abydeth euer, his kyngdome ſhall not fayle, and his power is euerlaſtyng.

27 It is he that deliuereth and ſaueth, he dooth woonders and marueylous wookes in heauen and in earth, he hath preſerued Daniel from the power of the Lions.

28 So

b Becauſe he would not by his ſcilence ſhew that he conſented to this wicked decree, he ſet open his windowes toward Hieruſalem when he prayed, both to ſtirre vp hym ſelfe with the remembrance of Gods promiſes to his people when they ſhould pray toward the temple: & alſo that others might ſee that he would neuer conſent in hart nor deede, for theſe few daies, to any thing contrary to Gods glory.

c. Thus the wicked maintayned yll lawes by conſtancie & auctoritie, which is oft * times eyther lyghtneſſe or ſtubburneſſe, when as the innocents therby periſh: & therefore gouernours ought neyther to feare nor be aſhamed to breake ſuche.

d. Myne vn righteouſneſſe in this thyng wherein I was charged, was approued of God.

e. For he dyd diſobey ỹ kings wicked commaundement to obey God, and ſo dyd no iniurie to the king, who ought to command nothyng whereby God ſhould be diſhonoured.

f. Becauſe he committed his ſelfe wholly to God, and therfore he did defend him, & ſuffered that no thyng but good could come vnto him, whereof we ſee ỹ proffeyth, as Heber. xi.

1. Par. 2. 60.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the raigne of Darius, and in the raigne of Cyrus of Persia.

The.vii. Chapter.

A vision of foure beastes is shewed vnto Daniel.

1 In the fyrst yeere of Balthasar kyng of Babylon, sawe Daniel a dreame, & there were visions in his head vpon his bed: which dreame he wrote, and declared the summe of the matter.

2 Daniel spake and sayde, I sawe in my vision by night, and behold, the foure a winds of heauen stroue vpon the great sea.

3 And foure great beastes came vp from the sea, one diuers from another.

4 The first was a b Lion, and had Eagles winges: I beheld tyll his wynges were pluckt from hym, and he lyfted vp from the earth, and set vpon his feete lyke a man, and there was geuen hym a mans hart.

5 Beholde, another beast which was the second, was like a c Beare, and stoode vpon the one syde: he wist his teeth in his mouth he had three ribbes, and it was sayde vnto hym thus, Aryse, eate vp muche flesshe.

6 Then I looked, and behold, there was another lyke vnto a d Leoparde, this had wynges as a foule, euen d foure vpon the backe: this beast had foure heads, and there was power geuen hym.

7 After this I saw in a vision by night, and beholde, the fourth beast was f grim and horrible, and marueylous strong: it had great iron teeth, it deuoured and destroyed, and stamped the residue vnder his feete: it was vnlyke the other beastes that were before it: for it had g ten hornes.

8 As I consydered the hornes, beholde, there came vp among them another litle horne, before whom there were three of the fyrste hornes pluckt away: and behold, this horne had eyes lyke the eyes of a man, & a mouth speakyng presumptuous thinges.

9 I beheld tyl the thrones were set vp, and the auncient of dayes syt dyd syte, whose garment was whyte as snowe, and the heares of his head lyke the pure wool: his throne was lyke the fierie flambe, and his wheeles as burnyng fyre.

10 There issued foorth a fierie streame, and went out from before hym: a thousande thousandes ministred vnto hym, & ten thousande thousandes stoode before hym: the iudgement was set, and the bookes opened.

11 Then tooke I heede thereunto, because of the voyce of the proude woordes whiche the horne spake: I beheld tyl the beast was slayne, and his body destroyed, and geuen to be brent in the fire.

12 As concernyng the other beastes, they had their dominion taken away, but their lyues were prolonged for a certayne time and season.

13 I sawe in visions by night, and beholde, there came one in the cloudes of heauen, like the sonne of man, whiche went vnto the ancient of dayes, before whom they brought hym.

14 And he gaue hym dominon and honour, and a kyngdome, that all people, nations, and languages should serue hym: his dominion is an euerlastyng dominion, whiche shal neuer be take away, and his kyngdome shal neuer be destroyed. Dich. 4. 7. Luke. 1. 33.

15 I Daniel was troubled in my spirite in the myddest of my body, and the visions of my head made me afrayde.

16 I gate me vnto h one of them that stoode by, and asked hym the trueth concernyng al these thinges: so he tolde me, and made me vnderstande the interpretation of these thynges.

17 These great beastes whiche are foure, are foure kynges which shal aryse out of the earth.

18 But the i hygh saintes shall receiue a kyngdome, and possesse a kyngdome for euer, euen for euer and euer.

19 After this, I required to know the trueth concernyng the fourth beast, whiche was so vnlyke the other beastes, and so horrible, whose teeth were of iron, and his nayles of brasse, whiche deuoured and destroyed, and stamped the residue vnder his feete:

20 I desired also to knowe the trueth as touching the ten hornes that he had vppon his head, and this other whiche came vp afterwarde, before whose face there fell downe three, whiche horne had eyes, and a mouth that spake presumptuous thynges, and looked with a grimmer vysage then his k fellowes.

21 I beheld, and the same horne made battel agaynst the saintes, yea, and preuayled agaynst them, 22 Vntyl the l auncient dayes came, that the iudgemẽt was geuen to the high saints, and tyll the tyme came that the saints had the kingdome in possession.

23 He gaue me this answeare, That fourth beast shalbe the fourth kyngdome vppon earth, it shalbe vnlyke to al the kyngdomes: it shall deuoure, treade downe, and destroy al other landes.

24 The ten hornes, are ten kynges that shal arise out of the kingdomes: after whom there shall stande vp another, whiche shalbe vnlyke

¶ The.viii. Chapter.

A viſion of a ſtrife betweene a Ramme and a hee Goate.

1 IN the thirde yeere of the raigne of kyng Balthaſar, there appeared a viſion vnto me, even vnto me Daniel, a after that whiche I had ſeene in the begynnyng.

2 I ſawe in a viſion (and when I ſawe it, I was in the palace of Suſis, whiche is in the prouince of b Elam) and in the viſion me thought I was in the riuer of Ulai.

3 Then I looked vp and ſawe, and behold, there ſtoode before the ryuer a c Ramme, whiche had two hornes, & theſe two hornes were hygh, but d one was hyther then the other, and the hyghest came vp laſt.

4 I ſawe that this Ramme puſhed with his hornes agaynſt the Weſt, agaynſt e North, and agaynſt the South: ſo that no beaſtes myght ſtande before hym, nor defende them from his power, but he dyd as hym lyſted, and became great.

5 And as I conſydered, beholde, there came a hee f Goate frō the Weſt ouer the whole earth, and touched not the ground, and this Goate had a g horne appeared betwixt his eyes.

6 And he came vnto the Ramme that had the two hornes (whom I had ſeene ſtanding by the ryuer) and ranne fiercely vppon hym with his myght.

7 And I ſawe hym drawe nygh vnto the Ramme, beyng very fierce vpon hym, yea, he h ſmote the Ramme, and brake his two hornes, neyther had the Ramme ſo muche ſtrength as to ſtande before hym: but he caſt hym downe to the ground, trode him vnder his feete, and there was none able to deliuer the Ramme out of his power.

8 Therfore i Goate waxed exceeding great, and when he was at the ſtrongeſt, his great horne was broken: then grewe there other foure notable ones in the ſteede of it, toward the foure wyndes of heauen.

9 And out of one of them came forth a litle horne, whiche waxed very great, towarde the South, towarde the Eaſt, and towarde the pleaſant lande.

10 i It grewe vp vnto the hoſt of heauen, wherof it did caſt ſome downe to k ground, and of the ſtarres alſo, and trode them vnder foote.

11 Yea, it grewe vp agaynſt the k prince of the hoſt, from whom the dayly ſacrifice was taken away, and the places of the ſanctuary caſt downe.

12 And power was geuen vnto it ouer the dayly ſacrifice for the iniquitie, and it ſhall l caſt downe the trueth to the grounde: and thus ſhal it do, and proſper.

13 Vppon this I heard one of the ſaintes ſpeakyng, and one of the m ſaintes ſpake vnto n Palmoni, ſaying, Howe long ſhall the viſion of the dayly ſacrifice and of the iniquitie of deſolation endure, to geue both the ſanctuarie and the power to be troden vnder foote?

14 And he anſwered me, Vnto the o euening and the mornyng, two thouſande and three hundred: then ſhall the ſanctuarie be cleanſed.

15 Nowe when I Daniel had ſeene this viſion, and ſought for the vnderſtandyng of it, beholde, there ſtoode before me p lyke the ſimilitude of a man:

16 And I heard a mans voyce q betweene Ulai, whiche cryed, and ſayde, O Gabriel, r make this man vnderſtande the viſion.

17 So he came and ſtoode by me, but I was afrayde at his comming, and fel downe vpō my face: then ſayd he vnto me, Vnderſtand, O thou ſonne of man: for at the s tyme of the ende of this viſion ſhalbe.

18 Nowe as he was ſpeakyng vnto me, I fell in a ſlumber vppon my face to the grounde: but he touched me, and ſet me vp in my place.

19 And he ſayde, Beholde, I wyll ſhew thee what ſhalbe in the laſt wrath: for in the tyme appoynted it ſhalbe fulfylled.

23 And in the ende of their kingdome, when the wicked are come to the full, a king of a fierce countenaunce, and vnderstanding hard sentences, shal stand vp.

24 His power shalbe mighty, but not in his strength, and he shal destroy woonderfully, he shal prosper, and practise, and destroy the x mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his pollicie also he shal cause craft to prosper in his handes, he shall extoll himselfe in his hart, and in prosperitie he shal destroy many, and many one shalbe put to death in his wealthynesse: he shall stand vp against the y prince of princes, but he shalbe destroyed without z hand.

26 And the vision of the * euenyng and the mornyng whiche is declared, is true: therefore seale thou vp the vision, for it shalbe after many dayes.

27 Vpon this was I Daniel feeble, so that I lay sicke certayne dayes: but when I rose vp, I went about the kinges businesse, and was astonied at the vision, neuerthelesse, no man vnderstoode it.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1. Daniel desireth to haue that performed of God, whiche he hath promised concernyng the returne of the people from their banishment in Babylon. 26. The death of Christe.

1 IN the fyrst yeere of * Darius the sonne of Ahasuerus, whiche was of the seede of the Medes, and was made king ouer the a realme of the Chaldees,

2 Euen in the first yeere of his raigne, I Daniel vnderstoode by b bookes the number of the yeeres, whereof the Lorde spake vnto Jeremie the Prophete that he woulde accomplishe seuentie yeeres in the desolation of Hierusalem.

3 And I turned my face vnto the Lord God, and sought by prayer & supplication, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

4 I prayed vnto the Lord my God, & made my confession, * saying, O Lord God, great and fearefull, whiche keepeth couenant and mercie with them that loue " him, & keepe his commaundementes,

5 We haue sinned, and haue committed iniquitie, and haue done wickedly, yea we haue rebelled, and haue departed from thy precepte, and from thy iudgementes.

6 We would not obey thy seruantes the prophetes that spake in thy name to our kings, and princes, to our forefathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lorde, righteousnesse belongeth vnto thee, vnto vs open shame, as is come to passe this day vnto euery man of Juda, and to them that dwell at Hierusalem, yea vnto all Israel, whether they be farre or nigh, throughout all the landes whyther thou hast driuen them, because of their offences that they haue done against thee.

8 Yea, O Lorde, vnto vs, to our kinges, and princes, to our forefathers that haue offended thee, belongeth open shame.

9 Vnto the Lorde our God parteyneth compassion and forgeuenesse, though we haue rebelled against him.

10 And we haue not obeyed the d voyce of the Lorde our God, to walke in his lawes which he layde before vs, by the hand of his seruantes the prophetes, 11 Yea all Israel haue transgressed & gone backe from thy lawe, so that they haue not hearkened vnto thy voyce: wherefore the e curse and othe that is written in the lawe of Moses ‡ seruant of God, against whom we haue offended, is powred vpon vs.

12 And he hath confyrmed his wordes which he spake against vs, and against our iudges that iudged vs, to bring vpon vs suche a great plague as neuer was vnder heauen, lyke as it is nowe come to passe in Hierusalem.

13 Yea al this plague, as it is written in the lawe of Moses, is come vpon vs: yet made we not our prayers before the lord our God, that we might turne agayne from our wickednesse, and vnderstand thy trueth.

14 Therefore hath the Lord watched vpon the plague, and brought it vpon vs: for the Lord our God is righteous in al his workes which he doeth: for we would not hearken vnto his voyce.

15 And nowe, O Lord our God, * thou that with a mighty hand hast brought thy people out of the lande of Egypt, to get thee selfe a name, which remayneth this day, we haue sinned, we haue done wickedly.

16 O Lorde, according to all thy f righteousnesse, I beseeche thee let thine anger and thy wrath be turned away from the citie of Hierusalem, thy holy hill: for because of our sinnes, and for the wickednesse of our fathers, Hierusalem and thy people are a reproche vnto all them that are about vs.

17 Nowe therefore, O our God, heare the prayer of thy seruaunt, and his intercession: O let thy face g shine ouer thy sanctuarie

¶ The. x. Chapter.

1. There apeareth vnto Daniel a man clothed in linnen. 11. vvhiche sheweth him vvhat sore he vvas sent.

1 IN the a third yeere of Cyrus kyng of Perſia, there was ſhewed vnto Daniel, otherwyſe called Baltaſſar, a matter, yea a true matter, but it is yet a long time vnto it: he vnderſtoode the matter, and perceiued what the viſion was.

a. He noteth this third yere, becauſe at this time the buildyng of ỹ temple began to be hindred by Cambiſes Cyrus ſonne, who the father made warre in Aſia minor againſt the Scithias, which was a diſcouragyng to the godly, and a great feare to Daniel.

2 At the ſame time I Daniel mourned for the ſpace of three weekes of dayes.

3 I ate no pleaſant bread, as for fleſhe and wine there came none within my mouth: no, I dyd not once annoynt mee ſelfe tyl the whole three weekes of dayes were fulfylled.

4 Upon the foure and twentieth day of the firſt moneth, I was by the ſide of that great ryuer, euen Hiddekel.

5 I lyft vp myne eyes, and looked, and beholde a man clothed in linnen, whoſe loynes were gyrded vp with fyne golde of Uphaz.

6 His body was like the Thurkis ſtone, his face to looke vpon was like lightnyng, his eyes as lampes of fyre, his armes and feete were like in colour to puliſhed braſſe, and the voyce of his woordes was lyke the voyce of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone ſawe this viſion, for the men that were with me ſawe not the viſion: but a great fearefulneſſe fell vpon them, ſo that they fled away, and hyd them ſelues.

8 Therfore I was left alone, and ſawe this great viſion, & there remayned no ſtrength in me: for my colour was turned in me into corruption, and I retayned no ſtrength.

9 Yet heard I the voyce of his woordes: and when I heard the voyce of his woordes, I fell aſtonied vpon my face, and my face toward the earth.

10 And behold a hand touched me, whiche ſet me vp vpon my knees, and vpon the paulmes of my handes.

11 And he ſayde vnto me, O Daniel, thou welbeloued man, take good heede to the woordes that I ſay vnto thee, and ſtande in thy place: for vnto thee am I nowe ſent. And when he had ſayd theſe woordes vnto me, I ſtoode vp trembling.

12 Then ſaide he vnto me, Feare not Daniel: for ſince the firſt day that thou diddeſt ſet thyne hart to vnderſtand, and to chaſten thee ſelfe before thy God, thy woordes were heard, and I am come for thy woordes.

13 But the b Prince of the kyngdome of Perſia withſtoode me one & twenty dayes: but loe, Michael, one of the cheefe Princes came to helpe me, and I remayned there by the kynges of Perſia.

14 And I am come to ſhewe thee what ſhal come vnto thy people in the latter dayes: for it wyll be long yet or the viſion be fulfylled.

15 Nowe when he had ſpoken theſe wordes vnto me, I caſt downe my head to the grounde, and helde my tongue.

16 And beholde, there touched my lyppes one very lyke vnto a man: then opened I my mouth, and ſpake, and ſayde vnto hym that ſtoode before me, O my Lorde, by the viſion my * ioyntes are turned out of theyr place, and I haue reteyned no ſtrength.

17 For howe can the ſeruaunt of this my lorde talke with my Lorde, being ſuch a one? And as for me, ſtrayghtway there remayned no ſtrength in me, neyther is there breath leaft in me.

18 Then there came agayne and touched me one lyke the appearaunce of a man, and he ſtrengthned me:

19 And ſaide, O man greatly beloued, feare not, peace be vnto thee, be ſtrong, and of good courage. So when he had ſpoken vnto me, I was ſtrengthned, & ſayde, Speake on my Lorde: for thou haſt ſtrengthned me.

20 Thus ſayde he, Knoweſt thou wherefore I am come vnto thee? nowe wyl I returne to fyght with the Prince of the Perſes: as ſoone as I goe forth, loe the c Prince of Greke lande ſhal come.

21 Neuertheleſſe, I wyll ſhewe thee that that is noted in the ſcriptures of trueth: and there is none that helpeth me in theſe thynges, but d Michael your Prince.

¶ The.xi. Chapter.

1. A propheſie of the kinges of Perſia 3. Of the kingdome of Grece. 5. Of the kingdome of Egypt, & of the bonde therof. 15. Of the battel with the kingdome of Syria.

1 AND in the firſte yeere of Darius of Media a I ſtood to comfort hym, and to ſtrength hym.

2 And nowe wyl I ſhewe thee the trueth: beholde, there ſhal ſtand vp yet three kinges in Perſia, but the fourth ſhalbe farre richer then they al: and by his ſtrength and by his riches he ſhal ſtyre vp al againſt the realme of Greke lande.

3 Then ſhal there aryſe yet a myghtie kyng that ſhall rule with great dominion, and do what hym lyſt.

4 And when he ſhal ſtand vp, his kingdome ſhalbe b broken, & ſhalbe diuided towarde the foure wyndes of the heauen, and not towarde his poſteritie, nor accordyng to his dominion whiche he ruled: for his kyngdome ſhalbe pluckt vp, euen for others beſydes theſe.

5 And the c kyng of the South ſhalbe myghtie, and d one of his Princes, and he ſhal preuayle agaynſt hym, & beare rule: his dominion ſhalbe a great dominion.

6 And in the ende of yeeres they ſhalbe ioyned togeather, and the kynges e daughter of the South ſhall come to the kyng of the North for to make agreement, but ſhe ſhal not reteyne the power of the f arme, neyther ſhall he continue nor his arme: but ſhe ſhalbe delyuered to death, and they that brought her, and he that begate her, and he that comforted her in theſe tymes.

7 But out of the bud of her rootes ſhall one ſtande vp in his ſteade, whiche ſhall come with an armie, and ſhall enter into the fortreſſe of the kyng of the North, and do with them as he lyſt, and ſhal preuayle.

8 And ſhall alſo carrie captiues into Egypt their goddes, with their moulten images, with their pretious veſſels of ſyluer and of gold, and he ſhall continue more yeeres then the kyng of the North.

9 So the kyng of the South ſhal come into his kyngdome, and ſhal returne into his owne lande.

10 Wherefore his ſonnes ſhalbe ſtyred vp, and ſhall geather togeather a myghty great hoſt of people, and one ſhal come and ouerflowe, and paſſe through: then ſhall he turne againe and be ſtyred vp at his fortreſſe.

11 Then the kyng of the South ſhalbe angry, and ſhal come forth to fyght with hym, euen with the kyng of the North: for he ſhall ſet forth a great multitude, and the multitude ſhalbe geuen into his hande.

12 Then the multitude ſhalbe proude, and their hartes ſhalbe lyfted vp, for he ſhal caſt downe thouſandes: but he ſhal not ſtyl preuayle.

13 For the kynges of the North ſhal returne, and ſhal ſet forth a greater multitude then afore, and ſhall come forth (after certayne yeeres) with a myghtie armie and great richeſſe.

14 And at the ſame tyme there ſhal many ſtande vp agaynſt the kyng of the South, ſo that the ſeditious children of thy people alſo ſhal exalt them ſelues to eſtabliſhe the viſion, but they ſhal fal.

b. Reade, Chapt. v.

c. To wit, ptolomeus kyng of Egypt.

d. That is, Antiochus ỹ ſonne of Seleucus, and one of Alexanders princes, ſhalbe more myghty, for he ſhal haue both Aſia and Syria.

e. That is, Bernice ỹ daughter of Ptolomeus Philadelphus, ſhalbe geuen in mariage to Antiochus Theos, thinking by this affinitie that Sytia & Egypt ſhoulde haue a cõtinual peace togeather.

f. That force and ſtrength ſhal not continue, for ſoone after Berenice and her young ſonne after her husbands death was ſlayne of her ſtepſonne Seleucus Calinicus the ſonne of Laodice, the lawful wyfe of Antiochus, but put away for this womans ſake.

15 So the kyng of the North ſhall come and caſt vp a mount, and take the ſtrong cities: and the g armes of the South ſhal not reſiſt, neyther his choſen people, neyther ſhal there be any ſtrength to withſtande.

16 And when he commeth, he ſhall handle hym as he lyſt, & no man ſhal ſtande againſt hym, he ſhall ſtande in the pleaſaunt h lande, whiche by his hande ſhalbe conſumed.

17 Againe, he ſhall ſet his face to enter with the power of his whole kyngdome, and his confederates with hym, thus ſhal he doo: and he ſhall geue hym the i daughter of women to deſtroy her, but ſhe ſhal not ſtand on his ſide, neyther be for hym.

18 After this ſhal he turne his face vnto the k Iles, and ſhall take many: but a prince ſhal cauſe his ſhame to lyght vpon hym, beſide that, he ſhall cauſe his owne ſhame to lyght vpon hym ſelfe.

19 For he ſhal turne his face towarde the fortes of his owne lande: but he ſhalbe ouerthrowen and fall, and be no more founde.

20 Then ſhal ſtande vp in his place a rayſer of taxes in the glory of the kyngdome, and after a fewe dayes he ſhalbe deſtroyed, neyther in wrath nor in battel.

21 In his ſteade there ſhall ſtande vp a vyle perſon, to whom they ſhall not geue the honour of the kyngdome: but he ſhal come in peaceably, and obteyne the kyngdome with flatteries.

22 And the armes ſhalbe ouerflowed with a flood before him, and alſo the prince of the couenaunt.

23 And after the league made with hym, he ſhal worke deceitefully, for he ſhal come vp, and ouercome with a ſmal people.

24 He ſhal enter into the quiet and plentiful prouince, and he ſhal doo that which his fathers haue not doone, nor his fathers fathers: he ſhal diuide among them the pray, and the ſpoyle, and the ſubſtaunce, yea, and ſhall forecaſt his deuices againſt the ſtrong holdes euen for a tyme.

25 Alſo his power and hart ſhall be ſtyrre vp with a great armie againſt the kyng of the South: the kyng of the South ſhalbe mooued vnto battell with a great and a myghtie hoſt alſo: neuertheleſſe, he ſhall not ſtande, for they ſhal forecaſt deuices againſt hym.

26 Yea l they that feede of the portion of his meate ſhall deſtroy hym, and his armie ſhall m ouerflowe, and many ſhal fal and be ſlayne.

27 Theſe two kynges hartes ſhalbe to doo * myſcheefe, and they ſhall talke of deceite at one table, but it ſhall not proſper, for yet the ende ſhalbe at the tyme appoynted.

28 Then ſhall he goe home againe into his land with great o ſubſtaunce, and ſet his hart againſt the holy couenaunt, ſo ſhall he doo, and returne to his owne lande.

29 At the tyme appoynted he ſhal come againe, and goe toward the South: but the laſt ſhal not be as the firſt.

30 For the ſhyppes of p Chittim ſhal come againſt hym, therefore he ſhalbe ſorye, and returne, & fret againſt the holy couenaunt: ſo ſhal he doo, he ſhall euen returne and haue intelligence with them that forſake the holy couenaunt.

31 And armes ſhall ſtande on his parte, and they ſhal pollute the ſanctuarie of ſtrength, and ſhall take away the daylye ſacrifice, and they ſhal ſet vp the abominable deſolation.

32 And ſuche as wyckedly breake the couenaunt, ſhal he cauſe to ſinne by flatterie: but the people that knowe their God, ſhall preuayle and proſper.

33 Thoſe alſo that haue vnderſtandyng among the people, ſhall enſourme the multitude, & for a long ſeaſon they ſhall fall with the ſworde, with fyre, with captiuitie, and with the takyng away of their goods.

34 Nowe when they ſhall fal, they ſhalbe holpen with a litle helpe, but many ſhall cleaue vnto them vnfaignedly.

35 Yea ſome of thoſe that haue vnderſtandyng ſhal fal, that they may be tryed, purified, and made whyte, tyl the tyme be out: for there is a tyme appoynted.

36 And a kyng ſhall doo what hym lyſt, he ſhal exalt and magnifie hym ſelfe againſt al that is good, yea he ſhal ſpeake marueylous thynges againſt the god of Gods, and he ſhal proſper tyl the wrath be fulfylled: for the determination is made.

37 He ſhal not regard the God of his fathers, nor the deſyres of women, yea he ſhal not care for any good: for he ſhal magnifie hym ſelfe aboue al.

38 But in his place ſhall he honour the god Mauzzim, and the god whom his fathers knewe not ſhall he honour, with golde and ſyluer, with pretious ſtones, and pleaſaunt thynges.

39 Thus ſhal he doo in the holdes of Mauzzim with a ſtrange god whom he ſhall acknowledge, he ſhall encreaſe his glory, and ſhal cauſe them to rule ouer many, and ſhall diuide the lande for gayne.

40 And at the ende of tyme ſhal the kyng of the q South puſhe at hym, and the kyng of the North ſhal come againſt hym lyke a whirlewynde, with charets, horſemen, and

¶ The.xii.Chapter.

a. He propheseth the resurrection of the dead.
9. The darkenesse of the Propheste of Daniel.

1 AND at that tyme shal a Michael stand vp, the great prince, which standeth for the children of thy people: for there shalbe a tyme of trouble, such as neuer was since there began to be a nation, vnto that same tyme: and at that time thy people shal be deliuered euery one that shalbe written in the booke.

a. The Angel here noteth two thynges. First, that the Churche shal be in great affliction & trouble ere Christes comming. And next, that God wyll raise his Angel to declare it: whom here he calleth Michael, meaning, all that ryse at the generall resurrection, whiche here he mentioneth, that the fearefull may euer haue respect vnto it, for in earth shal they synde no comfort. c Or suche as teache and instruct others: or suche as haue kept the feare of God, and his religion.

2 And many of them that sleepe in the dust of the earth, b shal awake, some to euerlastyng lyfe, and some to shame and perpetual contempt.

3 They that c be wyse, shal shine as the bryghtnesse of the fyrmament: and they that d turne many to rygh teousnesse, as the starres for euer and euer.

b. Not generally, but the faythful, whiche shal be raised to lyfe euerlastyng.
c. Which are learned in the lawe of God.
d. He cheefely meaneth y ministers of Gods worde, & next, al the faythful, whiche instruct the ignorant, & bryng them to the true knowledge of God.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut vp the wordes, and seale the booke tyl the time of the ende: many shal e goe about here and there, and knowledge shalbe encreased.

e. Not wandryng as vagabondes, but to searche for the knowledge of God.

5 Then I Daniel looked, and behold there stoode other two, the one on this side of the bancke of the f ryuer, and the other on that side of the bancke of the ryuer.

f. Which was Tygris, in Hebrue Hiddekel, as Ezech.10.

6 And one sayde vnto the man clothed in linnen, which was ouer the waters of the ryuer, When shal the ende of these woonders be?

7 And I hearde the man clothed in linnen, which was ouer the waters of the ryuer, when he helde vp his ryght g hande and his leaft hande vnto heauen, and sware by hym that lyueth for euer, that it shal tarie for a h tyme, tymes, and a halfe: and when he shal haue accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, al these thynges shalbe finished.

g. Which was a double oth, & dyd the more confyrme the thyng.
h. Whereby the Angel declareth rather that which perteyneth to the comfort of the elect, that these afflictions shoulde once haue a certayne ende, then that the time thereof shoulde be certainely knowen, as a thyng not expedient for creatures to knowe. Act.1.

8 Then I hearde it, but I vnderstoode it not: then sayde I, O my Lorde, what shal be the ende of these thynges?

9 And he sayde, Goe thy way Daniel, for the woordes are closed vp and sealed tyl the tyme of the ende.

10 Many shalbe purified, made white, and tryed: but the wycked shal doo wyckedly, and none of the wycked shal haue vnderstanding, but the wyse shal vnderstande.

11 And from the tyme that the i dayly sacrifice shalbe taken away, and the abominable desolation set vp, there shalbe a k thousand, two hundred, and nientie dayes.

i. Frō the time that Christe by his sacrifice shal take away the sacrifice and ceremonies of the lawe, and the destruction of the temple and citie whiche is meant here by the abominable desolation.
k. Signifying that the tyme shalbe long, and yet the chyldren of GOD ought not to be discouraged though it be deferred.

12 Blessed is he that wayteth and commeth to the thousande, three hundred, and fiue and thirtie dayes.

13 But goe thou thy way tyl the ende be, for thou shalt rest, and stande vp in thy lot at the ende of the dayes.

The ende of the propheste of Daniel.

¶ The booke of the prophete Oſee.

The fyrſt Chapter.

1. The tyme vvherein Oſee propheſied. 2. The idolatrie of the people. 10. The callyng of the Gentiles. 11. Chriſte is the head of al people.

1 he woorde of the Lorde came vnto Oſee the ſonne of Beeri, in ẏ dayes of Vzia, Joathan, Ahas, and Hezecias, kynges of Juda, & in the tyme of Jeroboam the ſonne of Joas kyng of Iſrael.

2 When the Lorde ſpake fyrſt vnto Oſee, he ſayde vnto hym, Goe take vnto thee a wyfe of a fornication, and chyldren of fornications: for the lande hath committed great fornication, departyng from the Lorde.

a. That is, one that of long tyme hath accuſtomed to play the harlot, not that the prophete dyd this in deede, but he ſawe this in a viſion or els was commaunded by God, to ſet foorth vnder this parable or figure, the idolatrie of the Iſraelites.

3 So he went and tooke Gomer the daughter of Deblaim: which conceaued & bare hym a ſonne.

4 And the Lorde ſayde vnto hym, Call his name Jezrahel: for I wyl ſhortly auenge the blood of Jezrahel vpon the houſe of Jehu, and wyl bryng the kyngdome of the houſe of Iſrael to an ende.

5 And in that day wyl I alſo breake the bowe of Iſrael in the valley of Jezrahel.

6 And ſhe conceyued agayne, and bare a daughter: and the Lorde ſayd vnto him, Cal her name Loruhamah, that is, not obteynyng mercie, for I wyl no more haue pitie vppon the houſe of Iſrael, but I wyl vtterly take them away.

7 Yet I wyl haue mercie vpon the houſe of Juda, and wyl ſaue them, euen through the Lorde theyr God: and wyl not ſaue them by bowe, ſwoorde, batel, horſes, or horſemen.

8 Nowe when he had weaned Loruhamah, ſhe conceyued agayne, and bare a ſonne.

9 Then ſayde he, Call his name Leammi, that is, not my people: for ye are not my people, therefore I wyl not be your God.

10 Yet the number of the chyldren of Iſrael ſhalbe as the ſande of the ſea, whiche can neyther be meaſured nor tolde, * and in the place where it was ſayde vnto them, Ye are not my people: it ſhalbe ſayde vnto them, Ye are the chyldren of the lyuyng God.

*Rom. 9. 26.

11 Then ſhal the chyldren of Juda and the chyldren of Iſrael be geathered togeather, and appoynt them ſelues one head, and they ſhal come vp out of the lande: for great ſhalbe the day of Jezrahel.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

1. The people is called to repentance. 3. He ſhevveth theyr idolatrie, and threatneth them, except they repent.

1 TEl your brethren that they are my people, and your ſiſterne that they haue obteyned mercie.

2 As for your mother, ye ſhal chide with her, and reproue her, for ſhe is not my wyfe, neyther am I her huſbande: let her therefore put away her whoredome from her face, and her adulterie from her breaſtes,

3 Leſt I ſtrip her naked, and ſet her euen as ſhe came into the worlde, and make her as a wyldernesſe, and as a drye lande, and ſlay her for thyrſt.

4 And I wyl haue no pitie vppon her chyldren: for they be the chyldren of fornication.

5 Theyr mother hath played the harlot, and ſhe that bare them is come to confuſion: for ſhe ſayd, I wyl goe after my louers, that geue me my bread and my water, my wool, and flaxe, my oyle and my drynke.

6 Therefore beholde, I wyl ſtoppe thy way with thornes, and make a hedge, that ſhe ſhal not finde her pathes.

7 And though ſhe runne after her louers, yet ſhal ſhe not ouertake them: ſhe ſhal ſeeke them, but not finde them. Then ſhal ſhe ſay, I wyl goe and returne to my fyrſt huſbande: for at that tyme it was better with me then nowe.

8 And ſhe dyd not knowe that I gaue her corne, and wine, and oyle, and multiplied her ſyluer and golde, which they beſtowed on Baal.

9 Therefore wyl I returne and take away my corne in the tyme thereof, and my wine in the ſeaſon thereof, and fet agayne my wool and my flaxe, vvhich I gaue her to couer her ſhame.

10 And nowe wyl I diſcouer her ſhame,

euen

euen in the ſyght of her louers, and no man ſhal delyuer her out of my handes.

11 Moreouer, I wyl take away al her myrth, her holy dayes, her newe Moones, her ſabbothes, and al her ſolemne feaſtes.

12 I wil deſtroy her Vineyardes and Fygge trees, whereof ſhe ſayde, Theſe are my rewardes that my louers haue geuen me: I wyl make them as a wood, and wylde beaſtes ſhal eate them vp.

13 I wyl viſite vpon her the dayes of Baal, wherin ſhe burned incenſe to hym, and decked her ſelfe with earynges and iewels, ſhe folowed her louers, and forgate me, ſayth the Lorde.

14 Wherfore beholde, I wyl allure her, and bryng her into the wylderneſſe, and ſpeake freendly vnto her.

15 From thence wyll I geue her her Vineyardes agayne, yea and the valley of Achor for an entry of hope: & ſhe ſhal ſyng there as in the dayes of her youth, and as in the day when ſhe came out of the lande of Egypt.

16 And at that day (ſayth the Lorde) thou ſhalt cal me, O my huſbande, and ſhalt call me no more Baal.

17 For I wyll take away thoſe names of Baal from her mouth, yea ſhe ſhal neuer remember their names any more.

18 Then wil I make a couenaunt for them, with the beaſtes of the feelde, with the foules of the ayre, and with euery thyng that creepeth vpon the earth: As for bowe, ſworde, and battel, I wyl deſtroy out of the land, & wyl make them to ſleepe ſafely.

19 And I wyl marrie thee vnto myne owne ſelfe for euer, yea euen to mee ſelfe wyll I marrie thee, in righteouſnes, in iudgement, in louyng kyndeneſſe and mercie.

20 In faythfulneſſe alſo wyll I marrie thee vnto mee ſelfe, & thou ſhalt know the Lord.

21 At the ſame tyme wyl I ſhewe mee ſelfe gratious vnto the heauens, ſayth the Lord, and the heauens ſhall helpe the earth.

22 And the earth ſhal helpe the corne, wine, and oyle: and they ſhal helpe Iezrahel.

Ro.9.25. 1.Pe.2.10. 23 *And I wyl ſowe her for mee ſelfe in the earth, and wyl haue mercie vpon her that had not obteyned mercie: and to them whiche were not my people, I wyll ſay, Thou art my people: and they ſhal ſay, Thou art my God.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

1. The Iewes ſhalbe caſt of for their idolatrie.
3. Afterwarde they ſhal returne to the Lord.

1 Then ſayde the Lorde to me, Goe yet and loue a woman beloued of her huſbande, & yet an adultreſſe, accordyng to the loue of the Lorde towarde the chyldren of Iſrael: and yet they haue reſpect to ſtrange goddes, and loue the wyne pottes.

2 So I gate her for fyfteene ſyluerlynges, and for an Homer and an halfe of barley,

3 And ſayd vnto her, Thou ſhalt byde with me a long ſeaſon, thou ſhalt not play the harlot, thou ſhalt be to no other man, and I wyl be ſo vnto thee.

4 For the chyldren of Iſrael ſhall ſit a great whyle without kyng, without prince, without ſacrifice, without image, without Ephod, and without Theraphim.

5 But afterwarde the chyldren of Iſrael ſhalbe conuerted, and ſeeke the Lorde their God, and Dauid their kyng, and in the latter dayes they ſhal worſhyp the Lorde, and his louyng kyndeneſſe.

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

A complaynt againſt the people, and the prieſtes of Iſrael.

1 HEare the worde of the Lorde, O ye chyldren of Iſrael, for the Lorde hath a controuerſie with the inhabitants of the lande, for there is no trueth: there is no mercy, there is no knowledge of God in the lande.

2 But ſwearyng, lying, manſlaughter, theft, and adulterie, hath gotten the ouer hande, and one bloodgyltyneſſe foloweth another.

3 Therefore ſhal the lande mourne, and all they that dwel therein ſhalbe rooted out, the beaſtes of the feelde, the foules of the ayre, and the fyſhes in the ſea, ſhalbe conſumed.

4 Yet let no man rebuke or reproue another, for thy people are as they that * are at controuerſie with the Prieſt. * Or, contende

5 Therefore ſhalt thou fall in the day tyme, and the Prophete with thee in the nyght, and I wyll bryng thy mother to deſtruction.

6 My people peryſhe for lacke of knowledge: becauſe thou haſt refuſed knowledge, therefore wyll I refuſe thee alſo, ſo that thou ſhalt no more be my Prieſte: and for ſo muche as thou haſt forgotten the lawe of thy God, I wyl alſo forget thy chyldren.

7 The more they encreaſed in multitude, the more they ſinned againſt me, therefore wyll I change their honour into ſhame.

8 They eate vp the a ſinnes of my people, and encourage them in their wyckednes. a. That is, the prieſtes ſeke to eate ỳ peoples offeryngs, and flatter the m in their ſinnes.

*Eſai.24.2. 9 * Thus the Prieſt is become lyke the people: wherfore I wyl punyſhe them for their wicked waies, and reward them according to their imaginations.

10 They ſhall eate, and not haue yenough, they haue vſed whoredome, but ſhall not proſper, they haue forſaken the Lorde, and not regarded hym.

11 Whoredome, wyne, and newe wyne, take the hart away.

12 My people aſke counſell at their ſtockes, and their ſtaffe teacheth them: for the ſpirite of fornication hath cauſed them to goe aſtraye, and they haue committed fornication agaynſt their God.

13 They make ſacrifices vpon the toppes of the mountaines, & burne their incenſe vpon the hylles, yea vnder the Okes, Poplars, and Elmes, for there are good ſhadowes: therefore your daughters are become harlottes, and your ſpouſes haue broken their wedlocke.

14 I wyl not punyſhe your daughters for being defiled, and your ſpouſes that became whores, ſeyng the fathers them ſelues haue medled with harlottes, and ſacrifiſed with whores: but the people that wyl not vnderſtande, muſt be punyſhed.

15 Though thou Iſrael play the harlot, yet let not Iuda ſinne, come not ye vnto Gilgal, neyther goe ye to Bethauen, neyther ſweare ye, The Lorde lyueth.

16 For Iſrael is rebellious lyke an vnruly Heiffer: nowe the Lorde wyll feede them as a Lambe in a large place.

17 Ephraim is become partaker of idolles, let hym alone.

18 Their drunkennesſe ſtynketh, they haue committed whoredome: their rulers loue to ſay with ſhame, Bryng ye.

19 The wynde hath bounde them vp in her wynges, and they ſhalbe aſhamed of their ſacrifices.

¶ The.v.Chapter.

1. Againſt the Prieſtes and rulers of Iſrael. 13. The helpe of man is in vayne.

1 O Ye Prieſtes heare this, take heede, O thou houſhoulde of Iſrael, geue eare, O thou houſe of the kyng, for iudgement is againſt you, becauſe you are become as a ſnare on Miſpah, and a ſpread net vpon the mount of Thabor.

Or, they were profound vnyſe to offer ſacrifices.

2 They kyl * ſacrifices by heapes, & turne farre from the Lorde, and I haue been a rebuker of them all.

3 I knowe Ephraim wel yenough, & Iſrael is not hidde fro me: for now, O Ephraim, thou art become an harlot, and Iſrael is defiled.

4 They wyl not gene their myndes to turne vnto their God: for the ſpirite of fornication is in the myddeſt of them, and they haue not knowen the Lorde.

5 And the pride of Iſrael doeth teſtifie to his face, therefore both Iſrael and Ephraim ſhall fall for their wyckednesſe, and Iuda with them alſo.

6 They ſhal come with their ſheepe and bullockes to ſeeke the Lorde, but they ſhall not fynde hym: for he is gone from them.

7 They haue tranſgreſſed againſt the Lord, and brought vp baſtard chyldren: a moneth therefore ſhal deuoure them with their portions.

8 Blowe with the Shawmes at Gibea, and with the Trumpet in Ramah, crye out at Bethauen, after thee, O Beniamin.

9 In the tyme of the plague ſhall Ephraim be layde waſte, in the tribes of Iſrael haue I ſhewed the trueth.

10 The princes of Iuda haue ben lyke them that remooue the lande markes, therefore wyl I powre out my wrath vpon them lyke water.

11 Ephraim is oppreſſed & broken in iudgement, becauſe he wyllyngly * folowed the commaundement.

*Or, becauſe he beginneth to go about ſyllines, that is, to worſhyp Ieroboams Calues.

12 Therefore wyll I be vnto Ephraim as a moth, and to the houſe of Iuda as a caterpyller.

13 When Ephraim ſawe his ſickenesſe, and Iuda his diſeaſe, Ephraim went vnto Aſſur, and ſent vnto king Iareb, yet could not he helpe you, nor eaſe you of your payne.

14 I wyll be vnto Ephraim as a Lion, and as a Lions whelpe to the houſe of Iuda: I euen I wyl ſpoyle, and goe my way, I wyll take away, and no man ſhal reſcue.

15 I wyl goe and returne to my place, tyll they knowledge that they haue ſinned, and ſeeke me. In their aduerſitie they ſhall a early ſeeke me.

a. That is diligently.

¶ The.vi.Chapter.

1. Affliction cauſeth a man to turne to God. 9. The vnckednesſe of the Prieſtes.

1 COme, let vs turne agayne to the Lorde for he hath ſmytten vs, and he ſhall heale vs, he hath wounded vs, and he ſhal bynde vs vp agayne.

2 * After two dayes ſhall he quycken vs, in the thyrde day he ſhal raiſe vs vp, ſo that we ſhal lyue in his ſyght. I.Cor.15.4

3 Then ſhal we haue vnderſtandyng, and endeuour our ſelues to knowe the Lord: he ſhall goe forth as a ſpryng of the day, and come vnto vs as the rayne, and as the latter rayne vnto the earth.

4 O Ephraim, what shal I doo vnto thee? O Juda, howe shal I entreate thee? for your goodnesse is lyke a morning cloude, and like a deawe that goeth early away.

5 Therefore haue I cut downe the prophetes, & let them be slayne for my woordes sake, so that thy punishment shal come to lyght.

Mat.9.17. mā.12.7. Eccle.4.17 Mat.15.22. 6 *For I desyred mercie, and not sacrifice: *and the knowledge of GOD more then whole burnt offerynges.

7 But euen like as Adam dyd, so haue they broken my couenant, and set me at nought.

8 Gilead is a citie of wycked dooers, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as theeues armed wayte for hym that passeth by the way: suche is the counsel of the priestes, whiche with one agreed counsel murder cruelly suche as keepe the way, yea they dare doo al vnspeakeable mischiefe.

10 Horrible thinges haue I seene in the house of Israel: there is the fornication of Ephraim, and Israel is defiled.

11 Yea and thou Juda keepest an harueste for thee selfe, when I returne the captiuitie of my people.

¶ The.vii.Chapter.

1. Of the vices and vwantonnesse of the people, 2. of theyr punishment.

1 WHen I vndertooke to make Israel whole, then the vngratiousnesse of Ephraim, and the wyckednesse of Samaria came to lyght, for they goe about with lyes, therfore the theefe robbeth within, and the spoyler destroyeth without.

2 They consyder not in theyr hartes that I remember al theyr wyckednesse: Nowe theyr owne inuentions haue beset them, which I see wel ynough.

3 They make the king glad with their wickednesse, and the princes with theyr lyes.

4 All these burne in adulterie, as it were an ouen that the baker heateth when he hath left kneading, tyl the dowe be leauened.

5 That is the day of our king, the princes haue made hym sicke with bottels of wine, he hath stretched out his hande to scorners.

6 For whyles they lye in wayte, they haue made redy theyr hart like an ouen, theyr baker sleepeth al nyght, in the morning it burneth as a flame of fyre.

7 They are altogether as hot as an ouen, and haue deuoured theyr owne iudges, all theyr kynges are fallen, yet is there none of them that calleth vpon me.

8 Ephraim hath mixt hym selfe among heathen people, Ephraim is become like a cake that no man turneth.

9 Strangers haue deuoured his strength, and he regardeth it not: he wareth ful of gray heares, yet wyl he not knowe it.

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face, yet wyl they not turne to the Lorde theyr God, nor seeke him for al this.

11 Ephraim is like a Doue that is beguiled, and hath no hart: nowe cal they vpon the Egyptians, nowe goe they to the Assyrians.

12 But whyle they be goyng here & there, I shal spreade my net ouer them, & drawe them downe as the foules of the ayre: and accordyng as they haue ben warned, so wyl I punishe them.

13 Woe be vnto them, for they haue forsaken me, they must be destroyed, for they haue set me at nought: I am he that hath redeemed them, yet haue they spoken lyes agaynst me.

14 They cal not vpon me with their hartes, but lye howling vpon theyr beddes: they wyl assemble them selues for corne & wine, but they rebel agaynst me.

15 I haue bound vp and strengthened their arme: yet doo they imagine mischiefe agaynst me.

16 They turne them selues, but not to the most hyghest, and are become as a broken bowe, theyr princes shal be slayne with the swoorde for the malice of theyr tongues: this shalbe theyr derision in the lande of Egypt.

¶ The.viii.Chapter.

The destruction of Iuda and Israel, because of theyr idolatrie.

1 SEt the Trumpe to thy mouth, swiftly as an Eagle shal the enmie come agaynst the house of the Lorde: for they haue broken my couenant, and transgressed my lawe.

2 Israel shoulde haue sayd vnto me, Thou art my God, we knowe thee.

3 But he hath refused the thyng that is good, therefore shal the enimie pursue him.

4 They haue ordeyned kynges, but not through me, they haue made princes, and I knewe it not: of theyr syluer and gold haue they made them idoles, therefore shal they be destoyed.

5 Thy Calfe, O Samaria, hath cast thee of, for my wrathful indignation is gone foorth agaynst them: howe long wyl they be without innocencie?

6 For the Calfe came from Israel, the woorkeman made it, therefore can it be no

God: but euen in peeces ſhal the Calfe of Samaria be broken.

7 They haue ſowen winde, therefore ſhall they reape a whirlewynd: it hath no ſtalke, the budde ſhal bring forth no meale: and if haply it doo, ſtrangers ſhal deuoure it vp.

8 Iſrael is deuoured, nowe ſhal they be among the Gentiles as a veſſel of no reputation.

9 For they haue gone vp to Aſſyria, and are as a wylde Aſſe ſolitarie by hym ſelfe: Ephraim hath hyred louers.

10 And though they haue hyred them among the heathen, yet nowe wyl I geather them, and they ſhal begin to be weerie with the burden of the kyng and the prince.

11 Ephraim hath made many aulters to doo wyckednes, his aulters I ſay he had to his ſinne.

12 I haue written to them the great thinges of my lawe, but they are counted as a ſtrange thyng.

13 They ſacrifice fleſhe for the ſacrifice of mine offerynges, and eate it, but the Lorde hath no pleaſure in it: nowe wyl he remember their iniquitie, and viſite their ſinnes, they ſhal returne into Egypt.

14 For Iſrael hath forgotten him that made him, and hath buylded fayre palaces, and Iuda hath encreaſed ſtrong cities: but I wyl ſende a fyre into their cities, and it ſhal conſume their palaces.

¶ The.ix.Chapter.

Of the hunger and captiuitie of Iſrael.

1 DO not thou triumph, O Iſrael, make no boaſting ouer ioyous thynges as doo the heathen: for thou haſt committed adulterie agaynſt thy God, whoorifhe rewardes haſt thou loued more then al the corne floores.

2 The corne floore and the wine preſſe ſhal not feede them: and the newe wine ſhal fayle them.

3 They ſhal not dwel in the Lordes lande, but Ephraim ſhal turne agayne into Egypt, and eate vncleane thynges among the Aſſyrians.

4 They powre out no wine for a drynke offeryng vnto the Lorde, neyther ſhal their ſlayne offerynges be pleaſant vnto hym, they ſhalbe vnto them as the bread of mourners, al they that eate ſhalbe defiled: for their bread a for their ſoules ſhal not come into the houſe of the Lorde.

a. The ſacrifice which they offered for their ſinnes.

5 What wyl ye doo then in the ſolempne day, and in the feaſt day of the Lorde.

6 For beholde, they are gone away for deſtruction, but Egypt ſhal geather them, and Memphis ſhal burie them: the nettles ſhal poſſeſſe the pleaſant places of their ſyluer, thornes ſhalbe in their tabernacles.

7 The dayes of viſitation are come, the dayes of recompence are come: and then ſhal Iſrael knowe that they were deceyued by a fooliſhe, mad, and franticke prophete: for the multitude of their iniquitie God ſhal multiplie enimies agaynſt thee.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my b God but the prophete a the ſnare of a fouler in al his wayes, and an abomination in the houſe of his God.

b. At the beginning the teachers inſtructed the people out of Gods woorde onely: but afterwarde trayned them to idolatrie.

9 *They haue gone to the bottome, they are corrupt as in the dayes of Gibea: therefore he wyl remember their iniquitie, and viſite their ſynnes. *Iud.19.18.

10 I founde Iſrael lyke grapes in the wyldernes, and ſawe their fathers as the firſt ripe in the figge tree at her firſt ſeaſon, but they went to Baal Peor, and ſeparated them ſelues to that ſhame, and became as abominable as their louers.

11 Ephraim their glory ſhal flee away lyke a birde: from the byrth, from the wombe, and from the conception.

12 And though they bryng vp chyldren, yet I wyl deſtroy them before they be men: Yea woe ſhal come to them when I depart from them.

13 Ephraim (as mee thinke) is planted in a pleaſant place, lyke as is Tyrus: but nowe muſt ſhe bryng her owne chyldren foorth to the manſlear.

14 O Lorde geue them: what ſhalt thou geue them? Geue them an vnfruitefull wombe, and drye breſtes.

15 *Al their wyckednes is done at Gilgal, 1.king.8.3. there doo I abhorre them: for the vngratiouſneſſe of their owne inuentions I wyll driue them out of my houſe, I wyl loue them no more, for al their princes are vnfaythful.

16 Ephraim is hewen downe, their roote is dryed vp, ſo that they ſhal bryng no more fruite: yea and though they bryng forth any, yet wyl I ſlay euen the beſt beloued of their body.

17 My God ſhal caſt them away, for they haue not ben obedient vnto hym, therefore ſhal they wander among the heathen.

a. As the vine ſpoyled of her grapes beareth neene the yeere following, ſo the Iſraelites enioying reſt after afflictions, renewed their former wickednes and idolatrie.

¶ The.x.Chapter.

1. Againſt Iſrael and his idolles. 14. His deſtruction for the ſame.

1 ISrael is an a emptie vine, yet hath it brought forth fruite to it ſelfe, accordyng to the multitude of the fruite thereof he hath encreaſed the aulters, accordyng to the the goodneſſe of their lande, they haue made them fayre images.

2 Their hart is diuided, therefore ſhall they nowe be deſtroyed, the Lorde ſhall breake downe theyr aulters, he ſhall deſtroy theyr images.

3 For nowe ſhal they ſay, We haue no kyng, becauſe we haue not feared the Lorde, and what ſhoulde then a kyng do to vs?

4 They haue ſpoken woordes, ſwearyng falſely in makyng a b couenaunt: thus c iudgement groweth as woormewood in the furrowes of the feelde.

5 They that dwell in Samaria ſhall feare, becauſe of the Calfe of Bethauen, for the people thereof ſhal mourne ouer it, yea, and the prieſtes alſo reioyced on it for the glorie thereof, becauſe it is departed from it.

6 It ſhalbe brought to the Aſſyrian for a preſent to the kyng Iareb: Ephraim ſhall receiue ſhame, and Iſrael ſhalbe confounded for his owne imaginations.

7 Samaria with his kyng ſhal vaniſh away as the ſome vpon the water.

8 The hygh places of Auen where Iſrael doth ſinne, ſhalbe deſtroyed, thiſtles and thornes ſhal grow vpon their aulters: then ſhal they ſay to the mountaynes, Couer vs, and to the hylles, Fall vpon vs.

9 O Iſrael, thou haſt ſinned from the dayes d of Gabaa: there they ſtoode, the battayle in Gabaa againſt the chyldren of iniquitie dyd not touche them.

10 It is my deſire that I ſhoulde chaſtice them, e the people ſhalbe geathered againſt them, when they ſhall ioyne them ſelues togeather, in their two e furrowes.

11 And Ephraim was an heyfer vſed to delite in f treadyng out the corne: but I wyl paſſe by her fayre g necke, I wyl make Ephraim to h ryde: Iuda ſhal i plowe, and Iacob ſhal breake his cloddes.

12 Sowe to your ſelues in righteouſneſſe, and reape the fruites of wel dooyng, plowe vp your freſhe lande: for it is tyme to ſeeke the Lorde, tyll he come and rayne righteouſneſſe vpon you.

13 For you haue plowed vngodlyneſſe, you haue reaped iniquitie, you haue eaten the fruite of lyes, becauſe thou putteſt thy confidence in thyne owne wayes, and leaneſt to the multitude of thy ſtrong men.

14 There ſhall growe a ſedition among thy people, al thy ſtrōg cities ſhalbe layed waſt, euen as Salma deſtroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battayle, where the mother with the chyldren were daſhed in peeces.

15 Euen ſo ſhal Bethel do vnto you, becauſe of your malitious wickednes: in a morning ſhal the kyng of Iſrael be deſtroyed.

1. The benefites of the Lorde towarde Iſrael. 5. Their ingratitude againſt hym.

1 WHen Iſrael was young, I loued hym, and called my ſonne out of the lande of Egypt. *Mat. 2. 13.

2 They a called them, but they went thus from them, they ſacrificed vnto Baal, and burned incenſe to images.

3 I gaue to Ephraim one to leade b hym, who ſhoulde beare hym in his armes: but they knewe not that I healed them.

4 I led them with cordes of a man, euen c with bandes of loue: and I was to them as he that taketh of the yoke from their iawes, and I layde d meate to them.

5 He ſhall no more returne into Egypt, but Aſſhur e ſhalbe his kyng, becauſe he refuſed to conuert.

6 Therefore ſhall the ſwoorde fall on his cities, and ſhall conſume his f branches, and deuoure them, becauſe of their owne counſayles.

7 And my people ſhalbe in a doubt for their rebellion againſt me: for when the prophetes called them to the moſt hygh, not one yet woulde geue hym his glory.

8 Howe ſhal I geue thee vp Ephraim? how ſhall I deliuer thee Iſrael? * howe ſhall I make thee as g Adama? howe ſhall I ſet thee as Zeboim? myne hart is turned within me, my repentinges are kyndeled within me.

9 I wyll not execute the fiercenes of my wrath, I wyl not returne to deſtroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man, the holy one in the myddeſt of thee, and I wyll not enter into the citie.

10 They ſhal walke after the Lorde, he ſhal roare lyke a Lion: when he ſhal roare, then the chyldren of the Weſt ſhal feare.

11 They * ſhall feare as a ſparrowe out of Egypt, and as a doue out of the lande of Aſſhur, and I wyl place them in their houſes, ſayth the Lorde.

2 And nowe they sinne more and more, and of their siluer they haue made them moulte images after the imaginatiōs of their owne brayne, that is very idols, and yet all is nothyng but the worke of the craftesman, they say one to another, (Whiles they a sacrifice a man, let them kysse b the Calues.

2 Heare ye this you elders, and hearke with your eares all you that dwel in this land: was there euer such a thing in your dayes, or in the dayes of your fathers?

6 For a nation is come vp vpō my land, mighty, and without number: his teeth are as the teeth of a Lion, and he hath the iawes of a great Lion.

7 He hath destroyed my vine, and barked my figge tree, he hath pilled it, and cast it from him, and hath left boughes thereof white.

8 Lament as a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The meate offering and drinke offering is cut of from the house of the Lorde, the priests I meane the Lords ministers mourne.

10 The feelde is wasted, the lande mourneth: for corne is destroyed, the newe wine is dryed vp, the oyle is vtterly taken away.

11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen, howle O ye vine dressers, for the wheate and for the barly: for the haruest of the feelde is perished.

12 The vine is dryed vp, and the figge tree is decayed, the pomegranate tree, and the palme, and the apple tree, euen all the trees of the feelde are wythered vp: for ioy is wythered away from the sonnes of men.

13 Gyrde your selues, & lament, O ye priestes, howle ye out ye ministers of ỹ aulter, come, and lye al night in sackcloth ye seruantes of my God: for the meate & drinke offeringes are taken away from ỹ house of your God.

14 * Proclayme a fast, call a congregation, geather the elders togeather, with all the inhabitantes * Ioel. 2. 15.

inhabitantes of the lande, vnto the houſe of the Lorde your God, & crye vnto the Lorde, 15 Alas for this day, for the day of the Lorde is at hand, euen as a deſtruction from the almightie ſhall it come.
16 Is not the meate cut of before our eyes, yea myrth and ioy from the houſe of our God?
17 The ſeede is rotten vnder their cloddes, the garners are deſtroyed, the barnes are ouerthrowen, for the corne is wythered.
18 O howe cattell mourne, the heardes of beaſtes are in wofull caſe for lacke of paſture, & the flockes of ſheepe are deſtroyed.
19 Vnto thee, O Lorde, will I crye, for fyre hath deſtroyed the fruitefull places of the deſart, and the flame hath burnt vp all the trees of the feelde.
20 The beaſtes alſo of the feelde crye out vnto thee: for the riuers of water are dryed vp, and fyre hath deuoured vp the fruitefull places of the deſart.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

1. He propheſieth of the comming and cruelitie of theyr enimies. 13. An exhortation to moouе them to conuert. 18. The loue of God toward his people.

1 BLowe vp a Trumpet in Sion, & ſhowte in my holy hill, let all the inhabitantes of the earth tremble: for the day of the Lorde is come, for it is nigh at hand.
2 A darke and glomie day, a cloudy and blacke day: as the morning is ſpread ouer the mountaynes ſo is the populus and ſtrong people: like it there was none from the beginning, nor ſhalbe hereafter for euermore.
3 Before him is a deuouring fyre, and behinde him a burnyng flame: the land is as a pleaſant garden before hym, and behinde him a waſte deſart, yea and nothing ſhall eſcape him.
4 The ſhewe of him is as the ſhewe of horſes, and like horſemen, ſo ſhall they runne.
5 Lyke the noyſe of charrettes vppon the toppes of the mountaynes they ſhal ſkippe, lyke the noyſe of a flaming fire deuouring the ſtubble, and as a ſtrong people prepared to battayle.
6 Before his face ſhall the people tremble, the countenance of all folkes ſhall waxe blacke.
7 They ſhall runne lyke ſtrong men, and clime the walles like men of warre: and euery one ſhal marche on his way, and they ſhal not lynger in their pathes.
8 No man ſhall thruſt another, but euery one ſhall walke in his path: and yf they ſhall fall on the ſwoorde, they ſhal not be wounded.
9 They ſhall runne to and fro in the citie, they ſhal runne vp & downe vpon the wall, they ſhal clime into the houſes, they ſhal enter in at the wyndowes like a theefe.
10 * The earth ſhall quake before him, the heauens ſhall tremble, the Sunne and the Moone ſhalbe darke, and the Starres ſhall withdrawe their ſhining. *Eſai.13.10 Ezech.32.7. Mat.24.29 Mar.13.24. Luke.21.25.
11 And the Lorde ſhall geue his voyce before his hoſt, for his campe is exceedyng great, for he is mighty that executeth his commaundement: * for the day of the Lorde is great, and very terrible, and who can abide it? *Ier.30.7. Amos.5.18.
12 But nowe, ſayth the Lorde, Turne you vnto me with al your hartes, with faſting, with weeping, and with mournyng. The Epiſtle vpon Aſhwenſday.
13 And rent your hartes, and not your garmentes, and turne you vnto the Lorde your God, * for he is gratious and merciful, ſlow to anger, and of great goodneſſe, and he wyl repent him of the euyll. *Pſal.86.5. Ionas.4.2.
14 * Who knoweth whether the Lord wyll returne and take compaſſion, and wyl leaue behinde him a bleſſing, euen meate offering and drynke offering vnto the Lorde your God? *Ionas.3.9.
15 * Blowe vp a Trumpet in Sion, proclayme a faſt, call an aſſemblie, ſanctifye the congregation, *Ioel.1.14.
16 Gather the people, gather the elders, aſſemble the chyldren and ſucking babes: let the bridegrome come forth of his chamber, and the bryde out of her cloſet.
17 Let the prieſtes the Lordes miniſters weepe betwixt the porche and the aulter, and let them ſay, Spare thy people, O lord, and geue not ouer thine heritage to reproch, that the heathen ſhoulde rule ouer them: Wherefore ſhoulde they ſay amongſt the Heathen, Where is their God?
18 And then the Lord wyl be ielous ouer his lande, and wyl ſpare his people.
19 Yea the Lorde wyl anſwearе and ſay to his people, Beholde, I wyl ſend you corne, and wine, and oyle, and wyll ſatiſfie you therewith, and wyll nor geue you ouer any more to be a reproche among the Heathen.
20 And I wyl remoue farre off from you the northren armie, and I wyl drиue him into a lande barrayne and deſolate, with his face towardes the Eaſt ſea, and his hynder partes towardes the vttermoſt ſea: and his ſtinche ſhall aryſe, and his corruption ſhall aſſende, becauſe he hath exalted himſelfe to doo this.

21 Feare

21 Feare not, O thou lande, be glad and reioyce: for the Lorde wyll do great thynges.
22 Be not afrayde ye beastes of the feelde, for the fruitefull places of the desart are greene: for the tree beares her fruite, the figge tree and the vine yeeld their strength.
23 Be glad then, ye chyldren of Sion, and reioyce in the Lorde your God: for he hath geuen you moderate a rayne, and he wyll sende downe for you the rayne, euen the first rayne, and the latter rayne, and in the firste moneth.
24 And the barnes shalbe filled with corne, and the presses shal ouerflow with wine and oyle.
25 And I wyl restore to you the yeeres which the Grashopper, the Canker worme, the Locust, and the Caterpiller haue deuoured, my great armie which I sent amongst you.
26 And you shall eate in plentie, and be satisfied, and shal prayse the name of the Lord your God, whiche hath dealt woonderously with you, and my people shall not be ashamed any more.
27 And you shall knowe that I am in the middle of Israel, and that I am the Lorde your God, and none but I: and my people shal neuer be ashamed.
28 *And it shall come to passe after this, I wyll powre out my spirite vpon all flesh, and your sonnes and your daughters shall prophesie, your olde men shall dreame dreames, your young men shall see visions.
29 Also in those dayes vpon the seruantes, and vpon the handmaydens wyll I powre out my spirite:
30 And I wyll shewe woonders in heauen and in earth, blood, and fyre, and pyllers of smoke.
31 *The Sunne shalbe turned into darkenesse, and the Moone into blood, before that great and terrible day of the Lorde come.
32 *But who so euer shall call on the name of the Lorde shalbe saued: for there shalbe deliueraunce in mount Sion, and in Hierusalem, as the Lorde hath promised, and also in the remnant whom the Lord shal call.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

Of the iudgement of God agaynst the enimies of his people.

1 FOR beholde, in those dayes and in that tyme when I shal bryng againe the captiuitie of Iuda and Hierusalem,
2 I wyll also gather all the Gentiles, and cause them to come into the valley of a Iehosaphat, and wyll pleade with them there for my people and heritage Israel, whiche they haue scattered among the nations, and haue parted my lande.
3 And they haue cast lottes for my people, and chaunged the boye for an b harlot, and solde the gyrle for wyne, that they myght drynke.
4 And what haue ye to doo with me, O Tyre and Sidon, and all the coast of Palestine? wyll ye render me recompence? and if ye recompence me, I shal swyftly and speedyly returne your recompence vppon your owne heades.
5 For ye haue taken my syluer and my golde, my pleasant and precious thinges, and haue caryed them into your temples.
6 You haue solde also the chyldren of Iuda, and the chyldren of Hierusalem to the Grecians, that you myght send them farre from their owne countrey.
7 Behold I wil rayse them out of that place whyther you haue solde them, and wyll returne your recompence vppon your owne heades.
8 And I wyl sell your sonnes & your daughters into the handes of the chyldren of Iuda, and they shall sell them vnto the Sabeans, to a nation that dwelleth farre of: for the Lorde hath spoken it.
9 Publish this thing among the Gentiles, proclaime warre, wake vp the mighty men, let al the men of warre drawe neare, & come vp.
10 Breake your plough shares into swordes, and your sythes into speares, let the weake say, I am strong.
11 Assemble your selues, and come all you Heathen, and geather your selues togeather round about, there shal the Lord cast downe thy myghtie men.
12 Let the Heathen aryse, and come vp to the valley of Iehosaphat: for there wyll I sit to iudge al nations rounde about.
13 *Put in your sithes, for the harueste is rype, come ye and descende, for the c wyne presse is full, yea the presses ouerflowe: for their wyckednesse is multiplyed.
14 O people, people, come into the valley of finall *iudgement: for the day of the Lorde is at hand in the valley of fynal iudgement.
15 *The Sunne and the Moone shalbe darkened, and the Starres shall withdraw their lyght.
16 *The Lorde also shall roare out of Sion, and out of Hierusalem shall he geue his voyce, the heauens and the earth shall shake: but the Lorde wyl be the hope of his people, and the strength of the chyldren of Israel.

b. They bestowed y spoyle of Gods people on whoredome & drunkennesse.

17 So ſhall ye knowe that I am the Lorde your God, dwellyng in Sion my holy mountayne: then ſhall Hieruſalem be holy, and there ſhall no ſtraungers paſſe thorough her any more.

Amos.9.13 18 * And in that day ſhall the mountaynes droppe downe ſweete wyne, and the hylles ſhal flowe with mylke, and al the ryuers of Iuda ſhall runne with water, and a fountaine ſhal come out of the houſe of the Lord, and ſhall water the valley of Sittim.

19 Egypt ſhalbe waſte, and Edom ſhall be a deſolate wyldernesſe: for the iniuries done to the chyldren of Iuda, becauſe they haue ſhed innocent blood in their lande.

20 But Iuda ſhall dwell for euermore, and Hieruſalem from generation to generation.

21 I wyll alſo cleanſe the blood of them that I haue not cleanſed, and the Lord dwelleth in Sion.

The ende of the prophete Ioel.

The booke of the Prophete Amos.

¶ The firſt Chapter.

1. The condition and ſtate of Amos, and the tyme of his propheſie. 3. The vvorde of the Lord againſt Damaſcus, the Philiſtines, Tyrus, Idumea, and Ammon.

1 THE wordes of Amos, who was among the "ſhepheardes at Thecua, which he "ſaw vpon Iſrael in the dayes of Oſia king of Iuda, and in the dayes of Ieroboam the ſonne of Ioas kyng of Iſrael, *two yeeres before the earthquake.

"Or, heardmen.

"Or, propheſied.

*Zach.14.15. Ierem.25.30.

2 And he ſayde, The Lorde ſhall roare out of Sion, and vtter his voyce from Hieruſalem: and the "dwellyng places of the ſhepheardes ſhal "mourne, and the top of Charmel ſhal wyther.

"Or, paſtures.
"Or, peryshe.

a. The manifolde ſinnes of Damaſcus, are meant, by three and foure, which make ſeuen.

3 Thus ſayth the Lorde, For a three "wickednesſes of Damaſcus, & for foure I wyll not "ſpare her, becauſe they haue thraſhed Gilead with iron flayles.

"Or, tranſgreſſions.

4 But I wyll ſende a fyre into the houſe of Hazael, and it ſhall deuoure the palaces of Benhadad.

5 I wil breake alſo the barres of Damaſcus, and "roote out the inhabitours from the "playne of Auen, and hym that holdeth the ſcepter, out of the houſe of "Eden, and the people of Syria ſhal go into captiuitie vnto Kir, ſayth the Lorde.

"Or, bring her agayne, or turne to it.
"Or, cut of.
"Or, valley.
"Or, pleaſure.

6 Thus ſayth the Lorde, For three wickednesſes of "Azza, and for foure, I wyll not ſpare her: becauſe they carryed "away priſoners into captiuitie, to ſhut them vp in Edom.

"Or, Gaza.
"Or, a vvvy priſoners the vvhole captiuitie.

7 Therefore wyll I ſende a fyre vppon the walles of "Azza, whyche ſhall deuoure her palaces.

"Or, Gaza.

8 And I wyll cut of the inhabiter from Aſdod, and hym that holdeth the ſcepter from Aſcalon, and turne my hand to "Ecron, and the remnant of the Philiſtines ſhal perithe, ſayth the Lorde God.

"Or, Accaron.

9 Thus ſayth the Lord, For three "wickednesſes of Tyre, and for foure, I wyll not ſpare her: becauſe they ſhut the whole captiuitie in Edom, and haue not remembred the b brotherly couenaunt.

"Or, tranſgreſſions.

b. For Eſau (of whom came the Edomites) and Iacob were brethren, 10 Therefore wyll I ſende a fyre vppon the wall of Tyre, & it ſhal conſume the palaces thereof.

11 Thus ſayth the Lorde, For three wickednesſes of Edom, and for foure, I wyll not ſpare hym: becauſe he purſued his brother with the ſwoorde, and dyd "caſt of al pitie, and "in his anger ſpoyled hym continually, and his indignation he kept alwayes.

"Heb. corrupt his compaſſion.
"Or, his anger ſpoyled.

12 Therfore wyl I ſend a fyre into Theman, which ſhall deuoure the palaces of Bozra.

13 Thus ſayth the Lorde, For three wickednesſes of the chyldren of Ammon, and for foure, I wyll not ſpare them: becauſe they c haue rypt vp the women with chylde of Gilead, that they myght enlarge their borders.

c. He noteth the great cruelte of the Ammonites, that ſpared not the women with chylde.

14 Therefore wyll I kyndle a fyre in the walles of Rabbath, that ſhall conſume her palaces, with a great crye in the day of battayle, and with a tempeſt in the day of the whirle wynde.

15 And their king ſhal go into captiuitie, he, and his princes togeather, ſayth the Lorde.

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

He propheſieth againſt Moab, Iuda, and Iſrael.

1 Thus

1 THus sayth the Lorde, For three wickednesses of Moab, and for foure I wyll not " spare him: because he burnt the bones of the king of Edom into a lime.

" Or, turne to him. a That is, into ashes.

2 Therefore wyl I send a fyre into Moab, whiche shall consume the palaces of Carioth, and Moab shal dye with tumult, with showting, & with the sounde of the Trumpet.

3 And I wyll cut of the iudge out of the middes thereof, and wyll slay all the princes thereof with him, sayth the Lorde.

4 Thus sayth the Lorde, For three wickednesses of Iuda, and for foure I wyll not spare him: because they haue cast away the lawe of the Lorde, and haue not kept his ordinances, and their lyes caused them to erre, after the whiche theyr fathers walked.

5 Therefore wyll I send a fyre into Iuda, whiche shall consume the palaces of Hierusalem.

6 Thus sayth the Lorde, For three wickednesses of Israel, and for foure I wyll not spare him: because they sold the righteous for siluer, and the poore for a payre of shoes.

" Or, grease vpon the head, or dust vpon the head. 7 They " gape for breath ouer the head of the poore in the dust of the earth, and peruert the way of the " meeke: A man and his father wyll goe into one " maide, to dishonour my holy name.

" Or, wretched. " Or, young woman.

8 And they " lye vpon clothes laid to pledge by euery aulter: and in the house of their god they drynke the wine of " the condemned.

" Or, set downe by, of such as they haue fined or molten.

9 * Yet destroyed I ỹ Amorite before them, whose height was like ỹ height of the Cedar trees, and he was strong as the Okes: notwithstanding, I destroyed his fruite from aboue, and his roote from beneath.

* Exo. 23. 25. Deu. 2. 31. Iud. 11. 21. Exo. 14. 6.

10 *Also I brought you vp from the land of Egypt, and led you fourtie yeeres through the wylderneſſe, to possesse the lande of the Amorites.

11 And I rayſed vp of your sonnes for prophetes, and of your young men for " Nazarites: Is it not euen thus, O ye children of Israel, sayth the Lorde?

" Or, disciples.

12 But ye gaue ỹ Nazarites wine to drinke, and commaunded the prophetes, saying, Prophesie not.

13 Behold, I am pressed vnder you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaues.

14 Therefore the " flight shall not perishe from the swyft, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shal the mighty saue his lyfe.

" Or, swyft by flight shal not escape.

15 Nor he that handleth the bowe, shal stand, nor he that is swift of foote shall escape, neyther shall he that rydeth the horse saue his lyfe.

16 And he that is of mighty courage among the strong men, shal flee away naked in that day, sayth the Lorde.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

1. He reproueth the house of Israel of ingratitude, foresheweing Gods most iust punishment for the same. 9. Straungers are called to see the equitie of Gods iudgement against Israel.

1 HEare the woorde that the Lorde pronounceth against you, O children of Israel, euen against the whole familie whiche I brought vp from the lande of Egypt, saying,

2 You only haue I knowen of all the families of the earth, therefore I wyll visite you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walke together, except they be agreed?

4 Wyll a Lion roare in the forest when he hath no pray? or wyl a Lions whelpe crye out of his denne yf he haue taken nothyng?

5 Can a birde fall in a snare vpon the earth where no fowler is? or wyll he take vp the snare from the earth, and haue taken nothing at all?

6 Or shal a trumpet be blowen in the citie, and the people be not afraide? or shal there be a euill in a citie, and the Lorde hath not done it?

a. That is, calamitie, or aduersitie.

7 "Surely the Lord God wyl doo nothing, but he reuealeth his secrete vnto his seruauntes the prophetes.

" Or, for.

8 The Lion hath roared, who wyl not be afraide? The Lorde hath spoken, who " can but prophesie?

" Or, who wyl not prophesie.

9 Proclayme in the palaces of Asdod, and in the palaces of the land of Egypt, & say, Assemble your selues vpon the mountaynes of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the middes thereof, and the oppressed in the middes thereof:

10 For they knowe not to doo right, sayth the Lorde, they store vp " violence and robberie in theyr palaces.

" Or, iniurie.

11 Therefore thus sayth the Lorde God, An aduersarie shall come euen rounde about the countrey, and shall bring downe thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shalbe spoyled.

12 Thus sayth the Lorde, As the shepheard taketh out of the mouth of the Lion two legges or a peece of an eare: so shal the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bedde, and in Damascus as in a couche.

13 Heare

13 Yeare and teſtifie in the houſe of Iacob, ſayth the Lorde God, the God of hoſtes.

14 That in the day that I ſhall viſite the "tranſgreſſions of Iſrael vpon him, I wyl alſo viſite the aulters of Bethel, and the hornes of the aulter ſhalbe "broken of, and fal to the ground.

15 And I wyll ſmite the winter houſe with the ſommer houſe, and the houſes of Iuorie ſhall perihe, and the great houſes ſhalbe conſumed, ſayth the Lorde.

"Or, wickednesse.
"Or, cut of.

¶ The.iiii. Chapter.

Vnder the name of fat kine of Baſan, he inueyeth againſt the gouernours of Samaria, & foreſhevveth their punishment.

1 HEare this woorde, ye kyne of Baſan, that are in the mountaine of Samaria, whiche oppreſſe the poore, and deſtroy the needie, whiche ſay to their a maiſters, Bring, and let vs drinke.

2 The Lorde God hath ſworne by his holineſſe, that loe, the dayes ſhal come vpon you, that he wyll take you away with b thornes, and your poſteritie with fleſhehookes.

3 And ye ſhall goe out at the breaches, euery Cowe forward, and ye ſhal "caſt your ſelues out of the palace, ſayth the Lorde.

4 Come to Bethel, and "tranſgreſſe: to Gilgal, and multiplie tranſgreſſion: and bring your ſacrifyces in the morning, and your tythes after three yeeres.

5 And offer a thankeſgeuing of leauen, publiſhe and proclaime the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Iſrael, ſayth the Lorde God.

6 Therefore haue I geuen you c cleanneſſe of teeth in all your cities, and ſcarſeneſſe of bread in all your places: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, ſayth the Lorde.

7 And alſo I haue withholden the rayne from you when there were yet three monethes to the harueſt, & I cauſed it to rayne vppon one citie, and haue not cauſed it to rayne vppon another citie: one peece was rayned vppon, and the peece whereupon it rayned not, wythered.

8 So two or three cities wandered vnto one citie to drinke water, but they were not ſatisfyed: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, ſayth the Lorde.

9 I haue ſmitten you with blaſting & mildeawe, your great gardens, and your vineyardes, and your fygge trees, & your olyue trees, dyd the "palmer woorme deuoure: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, ſayth the Lorde.

10 Peſtilence haue I ſent among you after the maner of Egypt: your young men haue I ſlayne with the ſwoord, and haue taken away your horſes, and I haue made the ſtinke of your tentes to come euen vp to your noſethirles: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, ſayth the Lorde.

11 * I haue ouerthrowen "you, as God ouerthrewe Sodoma and Gomorrha: and ye were as a fyrebrand plucke out of the burnyng: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, ſayth the Lorde.

12 Therefore thus wyl I doo vnto thee, O Iſrael, and becauſe I wyll doo this vnto thee, d prepare to meete thy God, O Iſrael.

13 For loe, he that fourmeth the mountaines, and createth the winde, and declareth vnto man what is his thought, whiche maketh the "morning darkeneſſe, and walketh vpon the hygh places of the earth, the Lorde God of hoſtes is his name.

a. That is, to ỹ creditours, to whom ỹ poore are indebted.
b. He alludeth to fyſſhers, which catch fiſhe by hookes and thornes.
"Or, caſt do vvne the palace.
"Or, commit vvickednesse.
c. That is, lacke of bread and meate.
"Or, caterpiller.

*Gen. 19. 24 Deu. 11. 8.
"Or, among you meanyng ſome part of their countrey to haue ben ouerthrowen.

"Or, morning and darkeneſſe.

¶ The.v. Chapter.

1. The prophete lamenteth the captiuitie of Sion. 4. He calleth to repentance. 8. He deſcribeth the power of God.

1 HEare ye this woorde whiche I lyft vp vpon you, euen a lamentation "of the houſe of Iſrael.

2 The virgin in Iſrael is fallen, and ſhall no more ryſe, ſhe is left vpon her land, and there is none to rayſe her vp.

3 For thus ſayth the Lorde God, The citie whiche went out by a thouſand, ſhall leaue an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred, ſhall leaue tenne to the houſe of Iſrael.

4 For thus ſayth the Lorde vnto the houſe of Iſrael, Seeke ye me, and ye ſhal lyue.

5 But ſeeke not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and goe not to Beer-ſeba: for Gilgal ſhal goe into captiuitie, and Bethel ſhall come to nought.

6 Seeke the Lorde, and ye ſhal liue: leſt he breake out like fyre in the houſe of Ioſeph, and deuoure it, and there be none to quench it in Bethel.

7 They turne iudgement to woormewood, and forſake righteouſneſſe in the earth.

8 He maketh the ſeuen Starres, and Orion, and he turneth the a ſhadowe of death into the morning, and he maketh the day darke as nyght: * he calleth the waters of the ſea, and powreth them out vpon the open earth, the Lorde is his name.

9 He ſtrengtheneth the deſtroyer againſt the mighty, and the deſtroyer ſhall "come agaynſt the forteresſe.

10 They hate him that rebuketh b in the gate gate, and they abhorre hym that speaketh vpryghtly.

11 For as muche then as your treadyng is vpon the poore, and ye c take from hym burdens of wheate: ye haue buylt houses of hewed stone, but ye shall not dwell in them: ye haue planted pleasant vineyardes, but ye shal not drynke wyne of them.

12 For I knowe your " manifold transgressions, and your myghtie sinnes: they afflict the iust, they take rewardes, and they oppresse the poore in the gate.

13 Therefore the wyse shall keepe scilence in that tyme: for it is an euyl tyme.

14 Seeke good, and not euyll, that ye maye lyue, and so the Lorde God of hostes shalbe with you, as you haue spoken.

15 *Hate the euyll, and loue the good, and stablyshe iudgement in the gate: it may be, that the Lorde God of hostes wyl be mercyful vnto the remnant of Ioseph.

16 Therefore the Lorde God of hostes, the Lorde sayth thus, Mournyng shalbe in all stretes, and they shal say in all the hygh wayes, Alas, alas: and they shall call the husbandman to lamentation, and suche as can mourne, " to mournyng.

17 And in al the vines shalbe lamentation: for I wil passe through thee, sayth the Lord.

18 *Woe vnto you that desyre the day of the Lorde, what haue ye to doo with it? the day of the Lorde is darkenesse, and not lyght.

19 As yf a man dyd flee from a Lion, and a Beare meete hym, and went into the house, and leaned his hande vnto the wall, and a Serpent byte hym:

20 Shall not the day of the Lorde be darkenesse, and not lyght? euen darkenesse, and no " lyght in it.

21 * I hate, I abhorre your feast dayes, and I wyll not d smell in your solemne assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me whole burnt offerynges, and meate offerynges, I wyll not accept them, neither wil I regard the peace offeryng of your fat beastes.

23 Take thou awaye from me the multitude of thy songues, for I wyl not heare the melodie of thy vialles.

24 And let " iudgement runne downe as water, and vprghteousnesse as a myghtie ryuer.

25 Haue ye offered vnto me sacrifices and offerynges in the wyldernesse fourty yeeres, O house of Israel?

26 But ye haue borne e Siccuth your king, and Chiun your images, and the Starre of your goddes, whiche ye made to your selues.

27 Therefore wyl I cause you to goe into captiuitie beyonde Damascus, sayth the Lorde, whose name is the God of hostes.

¶ The vi. Chapter.

1. He prophesieth agaynst the Princes of Israel, lyuyng in pleasure.

1 WOE to *them that are at ease in Sion, and trust in the mountayne of Samaria, whiche were famous at the begynnyng of the nations, and the house of Israel came to them. *Luke.6.24

2 Goe you vnto Calneh, and see, and from thence goe you to Hemath the great, then goe downe to Gath of the Philistines: be a they better then these kyngdomes? or ỹ border of their land greater then your border?

3 Ye that put farre away the euyll day, and " approche to the seate of iniquitie.

4 They lye vpon beddes of Iuorie, & stretch them selues vppon their couches, and eate the Lambes out of the flocke, & the Calues out of the stal.

5 They syng to the sounde of the Viall, and inuent to them selues instrumentes of musicke, lyke Dauid.

6 They drynke wyne in bowles, and annoynt them selues with these oyntmentes: but no man is sorie for the affliction of Ioseph.

7 Therefore nowe shall they goe captiue with the first that goe captiue, and " the sorowe of them that stretched them selues is at hande.

8 * The Lord God hath sworne by him self, sayth the Lord God of hostes, I abhorre the " excellencie of Iacob, and hate his palaces, therefore wyl I delyuer vp the citie, with al that is therein.

9 And yf there remayne tenne men in one house, they shal dye.

10 And his vncle shall take him vp, & burne him, to carry out the bones out of the house, and shal say to him that is by the b sydes of the house, Is there yet any with thee? And he shal say, None. Then shal he say, Holde thy tongue: for we maye not remember the name of the Lorde.

11 For behold, the Lord commaundeth, and he wil smite the great house with breaches, and the litle houses with clefftes.

12 Shal horses runne vpon the c rocke? or wyll one plowe there with Oxen? for ye haue turned iudgement into gall, and the fruite of ryghteousnesse into woormewood.

13 Ye reioyce in a thyng of nought, ye say, Haue not we gotten vs hornes by our owne strength?

14 But beholde, I wyl rayse vp agaynst you a nation, O house of Israel, sayth the Lord

a. If God haue destroyed these excellent cities in three diuers kyngdomes, as in Babylon, Syria, and of the Philistines, and hath brought their wyde borders into a greater strayghtnes then yours yet are, thynke ye to be better, or to escape?

" Or, bryng vpon you.

" Or, the ioye of them that stretched them selues shall departe.

*Iere.52.14

" Or, magnificencie, that is, the ryches and pompe.

b. That is, to some neyghbour that dwelleth neare about.

c. He compareth the to barren rocks, wher vppon it is in vayne to bestowe labour, shewyng that gods benefites can haue no place among them.

God of hostes, & they shall afflicte you from the entryng of Hemath, vnto the ryuer of the wyldernesse.

¶ The.vii.Chapter.

1. God sheweth certayne visions, wherby he signifieth the destruction of the people of Israel.

1 THus hath the Lorde God shewed vnto me, and beholde, he fourmed Grashoppers in the begynnyng of the shootyng vp of the latter growth, and lo it was in the latter growth, after the a kings mowing.

a. After the publique commaundement for mowyng was geuen, or as some reade, after ỹ kynges sheepe were shorne.

2 And whē they had made an end of eating the grasse of the land, then I sayde, O Lord God, spare, I beseech thee: Who shal rayse vp Jacob, for he is smal.

3 So the Lorde b repented for this: it shall not be, sayth the Lorde.

b. That is, stayed this plague at my prayer.

4 Thus also hath the Lord God shewed vnto me, and beholde the Lord God called to iudgement by fyre, & it deuoured the great deepe, and dyd eate vp " a part.

"Or, the possession, meanyng the whole feelde.

5 Then sayde I, O Lorde God, ceasse I beseeche thee: Who shal rayse vp Jacob? for he is small.

6 So the Lorde repented for this: this also shal not be, sayth the Lorde God.

7 Thus agayne he shewed me, and beholde the Lorde stoode vpon a wall made by lyne, c with a lyne in his hande.

c. Signifiyng that this should be the last measuring of ỹ people, and that he woulde deferre his iudgemente no longer.

8 And the Lorde saide vnto me, Amos what seest thou? And I sayde, A lyne. Then sayde the Lorde, Beholde, I wyl set a lyne in the myddest of my people Israel, and wil passe by them no more.

9 And the hygh places of Isahac shalbe desolate, and the "temples of Israel shalbe destroyed, and I wyl ryse agaynst the house of Jeroboam with the swoorde.

"Or, sanctuaries, or holy places.

10 Then Amazia the Priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam kyng of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspyred agaynst thee in the myddest of the house of Israel: the lande is not able to beare al his woordes.

11 For thus Amos sayth, Jeroboam shal dye by the swoorde, and Israel shalbe led away captiue out of their owne lande.

12 Also Amazia sayde to Amos, O thou the Seer, goe, flee thou away into the lande of Juda, and there eate thy bread, and prophesie there.

13 But prophesie no more at Bethel: for it is the kynges Chappel, and it is the kynges Court.

14 Then answeared Amos, and sayde vnto Amazia, I was no Prophete, neyther was I a Prophetes sonne: but I was an heardman, and a gatherer of wylde fygges.

15 And the Lord tooke me as I folowed the flocke, and the Lorde sayde vnto me, Goe, prophesie vnto my people Israel.

16 Now therfore heare thou the woord of the Lorde: Thou sayest, Prophesie not agaynst Israel, & speake nothyng agaynst the house of Isahac.

17 Therfore thus sayth the Lord, Thy wife shalbe an harlot in the citie, and thy sonnes and thy daughters shall fall by the swoorde, and thy lande shalbe diuided by lyne, and thou shalt die in a polluted land, and Israel shall surely goe into captiuitie foorth of his lande.

¶ The.viii.Chapter.

By a vision of a Basket of Sommer fruite, the ende of the kyngdome of Israel is shewed.

1 THus hath the Lorde God shewed vnto me: and behold, a Basket of Sommer fruite.

2 And he sayd, Amos what seest thou? And I sayde, A Basket of Sommer a fruite. Then sayde the Lorde vnto me, The end is come vpon my people of Israel, I wyl passe by them no more.

a. Which signified the rypenes of their sinnes, & the readynesse of Gods iudgementes.

3 And the songues of the temple shalbe howlynges in that day, sayth the Lorde God: many dead bodyes shalbe in euery place, they shal cast them foorth with scilence.

4 Heare this, O ye that swallowe vp the poore, that ye may make the needie of the lande to fayle.

5 Saying, When wyll the newe moneth be gone, that we may sel corne? and the Sabboth, that we may set foorth Wheate, and make the b Epha small, & the sicle great, and falsifie the weyghtes by deceyte?

b. That is, the measure small, and the peyes great.

6 That we may buye the poore for syluer, and the needie for shooes, yea and sel the refuse of the Wheate?

7 The Lorde hath swoorne by the excellencie of Jacob, Surely I wyl neuer forgeat any of their woorkes.

8 Shall not the lande tremble for this, and euery one mourne that dwelleth therein? and it shall ryse vp wholly as a flood, and it shalbe cast out and c drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

c. That is, the inhabitantes of the land shalbe drowned, as Nilus drowneth many when it ouerfloweth.

9 And in that day, sayth the Lorde God, I wyl euen cause the d Sunne to goe downe at noone, and I wyl darken the earth in the cleare day.

d. In the myds of their prosperitie, I wyl send great affliction * Tobi.2.7. I. Mac.8.41.

10 And I wyll turne your feastes into mournyng, and all your songues into lamentation: and I wyll bryng sackcloth vpon all loynes, and baldenesse vpon euery head, and I wyll make it as the mournyng of an onely only sonne, and the ende thereof as a bitter day.

11 Beholde, the dayes come, sayth the Lorde GOD, that I wyl sende a famine in the lande, not a famine of bread, nor thirst for water, but of hearyng the woorde of the Lorde.

12 And they shal wander from sea to sea, and from the North euen vnto the East shall they runne to and fro, to seeke the woorde of the Lorde, and shal not finde it.

13 In that day shal the fayre virgins, and the young men perishe for thirst.

14 They that sweare by the e sinne of Samaria, and that say, Thy God, O Dan, lyueth, and the f maner of Beer-seba lyueth, euen they shal fall, and neuer ryse vp agayne.

e. For the idolaters did vse to sweare by their idolles, whiche here he calleth their sinne.
f. That is, the common maner of worshypping, and the place and religion there vsed.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

v. Threatnynges agaynst the temple. 5. The subuertion of the people.

1 I Sawe the Lord standing vpon the a aulter, and he sayde, Smite the lintel of the doore, that the postes may shake, and "cut them in peeces, euen the b heades of them all, and I wyl slay the last of them with the swoorde: he that fleeth of them, shal not flee away, and he that escapeth of them, shal not be deliuered.

2 *Though they digge into hel, thence shal my hand take them, though they clime vp to heauen, thence wil I bring them downe.

3 And though they hyde themselues in the top of Carmel, I wyl searche & take them out thence: and though they be hidde from my syght in the bottome of the sea, thence wyl I commaunde the c serpent, and he shal byte them.

4 And though they goe into captiuitie before theyr enimies, thence wyl I commaunde the swoorde, and it shal slay them, *and I wyl set mine eyes vpon them for euyl, and not for good.

5 And the Lorde God of hostes shal touche the lande, and it shal melt away: and all that dwel therein shal mourne, and it shall rise vp whole lyke a flood, and shalbe drowned as by the flood of Egypt.

6 He buyldeth his "spheres in the heauen, and hath layde the fundation of his globe of elementes on the earth: * he calleth the waters of the sea, and powreth them out vpon the open earth, the Lord is his name.

7 Are ye not as the Ethiopians d vnto me, O chyldren of Israel, sayth the Lorde? haue not I brought vp Israel out of the lande of Egypt? and the Philistines from Capadocia, and the Syrians from Cyrene?

8 Beholde, the eyes of the Lorde God are vpon the sinful kyngdome, and I wyl destroy it cleane out of the earth: neuertheless, I wyl not vtterly destroy the house of Jacob, sayth the Lorde.

9 For loe, I wyl commaunde, and I wyll sift the house of Israel among al nations, lyke as corne is sifted in a syue: yet shal not the e least stone fal vpon the earth.

10 But al the synners of my people shal dye by the swoorde, which say, The euyl shall not come, nor hasten for vs.

11 *In that day wyl I rayse vp the tabernacle of Dauid that is fallen downe, & close vp the breaches thereof, and I wyl rayse vp his ruines, and I wyl buyld it as in the dayes of olde:

12 That they may possesse the remnant of Edom, and of al the heathen, "because my name is called vpon them, sayth the Lorde, that doeth this.

13 Behold, the dayes come, sayth the Lord, that the ploughman shal f touche the mower, and the treader of grapes hym that soweth seede, and the mountaynes shall drop sweete wine, & al the hylles shal melt.

14 And I wyl bryng agayne the captiuitie of my people of Israel, and they shal buylde the waste cities, and inhabite them: and they shal plant vineyardes, and drynke the wyne thereof, they shal also make gardens, and eate the fruites of them.

15 And I wyl plant them vpon theyr land, and they shal no more be pulled vp agayne out of theyr lande whiche I haue geuen them, sayth the Lorde thy God.

d. That is, am I more bounde vnto you, then to the Ethiopians, or blacke Moores? yet haue I bestowed vppon you greater benefites.

e. Meanyng, that none of his shoulde perishe in his wrath.

"Or, vppon whom my name is called.

f. Signifyng that there shalbe great plenty of al thynges, so that when one kynde of fruite is ripe, another shoulde folowe, & euery one in course. Leui. 26.

a. Which was at Hierusalem.
b. Or, wounde them in the head, euen al.
b. Both the deede of them, & also the common people.
c. That is, the Whale, or some other huge beast of the sea.

The ende of the prophesie of Amos.

The booke of the prophete Abdias.

Against Edom, and the trust that they had in richesse.

1 The vision of Abdi. Thus sayth the Lord God against Edom, *We haue heard a rumour from the Lorde, and an Ambassadour is sent amõg the Heathen: Aryse, and let vs ryse vp against her to batel.

Jere.49.14

2 Beholde, I haue made thee smal among the Heathen, thou art vtterly despised.

3 The pryde of thine hart hath deceyued thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rockes, whose habitation is hygh, that sayth in his hart, Who shal bryng me downe to the grounde?

*Jere.49.16 4 *Yea though thou exalt thee selfe as the Eagle, & make thy nest among the starres, thence wyl I bryng thee downe, sayth the Lorde.

5 Came theeues to thee, or robbers by nyght? howe wast thou brought to silence? would they not haue stollen tyl they had ynough? If the grape gatherers came to thee, would they not leaue some grapes?

6 Howe are the thinges of Esau sought vp, and his treasures searched?

7 Al the men of thy confederacie haue dryuen thee to the borders, the men that were at peace with thee haue deceyued thee, and preuayled against thee, they that eate thy bread haue layde a wounde vnder thee, there is none vnderstanding in hym.

*Esai.29.15 8 *Shal not I in that day, sayth the Lorde, euen destroy the wyse men out of Edom, and vnderstandyng from the mount of Esau?

9 And thy strong men, O Theman, shalbe afrayde: because euery one of the mount of Esau shalbe cut of by slaughter.

*Gen.27.42 10 *For thy crueltie against thy brother Jacob, shame shal couer thee, and thou shalt be cut of for euer.

11 When thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers caryed away his substance, and strangers entred into his gates, and cast lottes vpon Hierusalem, euen thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not haue beholden the day of thy brother in the day that he was made a stranger, neyther shouldest thou haue reioyced ouer the children of Juda in the day of their destruction, thou shouldest not haue spoken proudly in the day of affliction:

13 Thou shouldest not haue entred into the gate of my people in the day of their destruction, neyther shouldest thou haue once looked on their affliction in the day of their destruction, nor haue layde handes on their substance in the day of their destruction;

14 Neyther shouldest thou haue stande in the crosse wayes to cut of them that should escape, neyther shouldest thou haue shut vp the remnant therof in the day of affliction.

15 For the day of the Lorde is neare vppon al the Heathen: as thou hast done, it shalbe done to thee, thy rewarde shal returne vpon thine head.

16 For as ye haue a dronke vpon my holy mountayne, so shal al the heathen drynke continually: yea, they shal dryncke & swallowe vp, and they shalbe as though they b had not ben.

a. That is, reioyced and vnpunished.

b. That is, the lengthe they shal vtterly perysshe.

17 But vppon mount Sion shalbe deliuerance, and it shalbe holy, and the house of Jacob shal possesse their possessions.

18 And the house of Jacob shalbe a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau as stubble, and they shal kindle in them and deuoure them, and there shalbe no remnant of the house of Esau: for the Lorde hath spoken it.

19 And they shal possesse the South side of the mount of Esau, and the playne of the Philistines, & they shal possesse the feeldes of Ephraim, and the feeldes of Samaria, and Beniamin shal haue Gilead.

20 And the captiuitie of his host of the children of Israel, whiche were among the Chanaanites shal possesse vnto Sarephath, and the captiuite of Hierusalem whiche is in Sepharad, shal possesse the cities of the South.

21 And they that shal c saue, shal come vp to mount Sion to iudge the mount of Esau, and the kyngdome shalbe the Lordes.

c. Meanyng that God wyll rayse vp in his Church such as shal rule and gouerne for the defence of the same, and destruction of his enimies vnder Messias.

The ende of the Prophete Abdias.

The booke of the Prophete Ionas.

¶ The first Chapter.

3. Ionas fledde when he was sent to preache. 4. A tempest aryseth, and he is cast into the sea for his disobedience.

1 THe worde of the lord came vnto a Ionas ẏ son of Amittai, saying,

2 Aryse, and go to b Niniue the great citie, and crye agaynst it: for their wickednesse is come vp before me.

3 And Ionas rose vp to flee into Tharsis from the presence of the Lorde, and went downe to c Ioppa, and founde a shyp going to d Tharsis: so he paied his fare, and went downe into it, that he myght go with them vnto Tharsis from the e presence of the Lorde.

4 But the Lord sent out a great wynde into the sea, and there was a myghtie tempest in the sea, so that the shyp was in danger of spyttyng in sunder.

5 Then the Mariners were afrayde, and cryed euery man vnto his God, and cast the wares that were in the shyp into the sea, to lyghten it of them: but Ionas was gone downe into the sydes of the shyp, and he lay downe sleepyng.

6 And the shypmaister came vnto hym, and sayde, What meanest thou sleeper? Vp, and cal vpon thy God, yf so be that God wil "shyne vnto vs, that we perysshe not.

7 And they saide euery one vnto his felowe, Come, let vs cast lots, that we may knowe for whose cause this euyl is on vs. And they cast lottes, and the lot fell on Ionas.

8 Then sayde they vnto hym, Tell vs, for whose cause is this euyll come vpon vs? what is thyne occupation? whence camest thou? what countreyman art thou? and of what nation?

9 And he answered them, I am an Hebrue, and I feare the Lord God of heauen, which hath made the sea, and the drye lande.

10 Then were the men exceedyngly afrayd, and sayde vnto hym, Why hast thou doone this? (for the men knewe that he fled from the presence of the Lorde, because he had tolde them.)

11 And they sayde vnto hym, What shal we doo vnto thee, that the sea may be calme vnto vs? for the sea wrought, and was troublous.

12 And he sayde vnto them, Take me, and cast me into the sea, and the sea shalbe calme vnto you: for I knowe that for my sake this great tempest is vpon you.

13 Neuertheles, the men assaied with rowing to bryng the shyp to land, but they could not, because the sea wrought, and was troublous agaynst them.

14 Wherefore they cryed vnto the Lorde, and sayde, We beseeche thee, O Lorde, we beseech thee, let vs not perysshe for this mans lyfe, and laye not to our charge innocent blood: for thou, O Lorde, hast doone as it pleased thee.

15 So they tooke vp Ionas, and cast him into the sea, and the sea left ragyng.
